English

Isaiah was a prophet. His job was to tell people what God said.

1

People didn't always want to hear God's Word, but Isaiah never let God down. Isaiah preached during the reigns of four different kings.

King Uzziah ruled the land of Judah from the city of Jerusalem. At first, God blessed Uzziah because he did what was right in the sight of the LORD. But Uzziah became proud and stopped obeying God. He became a leper and had to live alone until he died.

King Uzziah reigned for over 60 years. When he died, his son Jotham took his place and reigned for seventeen years. God blessed Jotham because he listened to what God had to say through Isaiah and other prophets.

King Jotham's son was Ahaz. Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. Ahaz didn't care about God. He worshiped idols and false gods, and led many of God's people to do the same. Although Isaiah warned him, Ahaz wouldn't listen to God's warnings. He died when he was only 35 years old.

God blessed the next king, Hezekiah, because he removed all the idols and false gods, and prayed to the true God. When an enemy army attacked Judah, Hezekiah knew his army was too weak to win. He asked Isaiah to pray for God's help.

Isaiah sent this message to the King. "This is what the LORD says: Don't be afraid of this enemy ... I will cause him to fall ..." Soon after, God made the enemy army leave without even fighting Hezekiah!

Although people around him didn't think much about God, Isaiah thought about Him a lot.

One day, he had a vision, which is kind of like having a dream when you're not asleep. In the vision, Isaiah saw how glorious and holy the LORD is.

"Who shall I send?"
God asked in the vision.
"Here am I. Send me," Isaiah answered.
He was willing to do
whatever God asked,
and go wherever God
sent him.

9

Maybe Isaiah thought God would send him to faraway people who hadn't heard about God. But no, God didn't do that.

God told Isaiah to speak to his own people in his own country. He had to tell them that God was angry at their sin.

11

There were other things Isaiah had to tell his people - wonderful things about a Person who would be a strong deliverer and come to save them from sin and from all their enemies.

12

The Jewish people called this Person "Messiah".
Even though they expected God to send Messiah,
many people lived as if He would never come.

13

All the things
Isaiah said about Messiah are written in his book. Although he wrote these things hundreds of years before
they happened,
everything
Isaiah said about Messiah would come true.

14

Isaiah said that God Himself would give a sign. He said,

"Behold a virgin shall bear a son and call his name Immanuel."

15

People knew Isaiah was talking about God's Messiah

because a woman could not be a virgin and also have a child. Also, the name Immanuel means God with us!

16

"For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." Isaiah was so sure that God's promises would come true, he spoke as if the event had already happened. This is called prophecy.

17

Isaiah said that Messiah would be great and do great things. God also told Isaiah to tell the people that Messiah would suffer and be put to death. Isaiah might have wondered how Messiah could be great and powerful and also weak and injured. But Isaiah didn't argue with God - he just repeated what God told him to say. God would make sure His prophecy came true.

18

Messiah was coming - not just for the Jewish people. God told Isaiah that Messiah would be "a light to the Gentiles". Gentiles are all the people in the world who are not Jews. God loves everybody and His Messiah would come to bless everyone and to bring salvation to the ends of the earth.

Isaiah Sees the Future

A story from God's Word, the Bible, is found in

Isaiah 1, 6, 7, 9, 53

"The entrance of Your Words gives light."
Psalm 119:130

God knows we have done bad things, which He calls sin. The penalty for sin is death.

God loves us so much He sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a Cross and pay our penalty.

Jesus came alive and went back to Heaven!
Now God can forgive our sins.

If you want to turn from your sins, say this to God: Dear God, I believe Jesus died for me and now lives again. Please come into my life and forgive my sins, so I can have new life now, and then be with You forever. Help me live for You as Your child. Amen. John 3:16

Read the Bible and talk to God every day!

When the Lord Calls

What did Isaiah say when he heard the voice of the Lord calling for someone to do God's work? Isaiah's answer, which should be our answer too, is hidden in this puzzle. Color all the spaces containing a dot to make the answer appear.

A black and white line drawing of an open book. The book is open, showing two pages. On the pages, there is text. Above the book, there is a large cloud on the left and a sun with rays on the right. Below the book, there is a rainbow with multiple bands. There are also some smaller clouds around the book.

The Lord will do what he says.

ISAIAH

Color this picture of Isaiah.

Many people in Bible times learned about God through men called prophets. The prophets taught the people and God gave them messages for the people. One of the most famous prophets was Isaiah. He even wrote one of the books that is in our Bible now.

ISAIAH'S VISION

In Isaiah 6:2, the angels are described as seraphs "each with six wings. With two wings they covered their faces, with two wings they covered their feet, and with two they were flying."

Please use a pencil and correct the drawing below so it fits the description of a seraph.
