

Scriptures: Acts 28

Key Verse: Ac 28:25, 26 So when they did not agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had said one word: "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah the prophet to our fathers "saying, 'Go to this people and say: "Hearing you will hear, and shall not understand; And seeing you will see, and not perceive,"

Key Points:

1. Paul reaches land safely. They were on the island of Malta. The islanders there showed much kindness and built a fire for those shipwrecked to warm themselves. Paul was bitten by a viper that came out of from the fire. It fastened itself on his hand. When the islanders saw this, they expected him to die. When he did not, they thought he must be some kind of a god.
2. The chief of the island invited those shipwrecked to his estate. His father was sick. Paul went to see him, laid his hands on him then prayed over him. The man was cured and other sick and afflicted came to Paul and were healed as well. The islanders treated Paul and the others well, providing their supplies when they left.
3. After 3 months on the island, they left on a ship that had wintered on the island. Brethren heard they were coming and came to meet them. At the sight of these men, Paul was encouraged. Paul was allowed to live under house arrest.
4. After 3 days in Rome, Paul gathered the Jewish leaders together. He wished to speak to them about why he was imprisoned and how he appealed to Caesar. He also wanted them to know that he had done nothing against the Jews and his own people. Others met Paul even in larger numbers. He tried to convince them about Jesus. Some believed, but others would not listen.
5. Paul stayed in Rome for 2 years. He was able to stay in his own rented home while waiting for trial. He welcomed many into his house and preached the Lord to all who came.
