GARDEN OF EDEN DIRT SOUFFLÉ

"Then the Lord God planted a garden in the east, in a place called Eden" (Genesis 2:8a).

More fun than mud pies! Kids will delight in customizing their own mini-gardens.

1. Form groups of four to six. Give each group a quart jar with a lid, pudding mix, two cups of milk, chocolate sandwich cookies in a strong resealable plastic bag, a rolling pin, plastic spoons, and a clay pot. Set the animal crackers, gummy worms, and jelly beans on a table where all the groups will have access to them.
2. Have each group choose people to be Pudding Shakers and Cookie Crushers. Instruct the Pudding Shakers to pour the milk and pudding mix into the quart jar, tightly screw on the lid, and shake the jars for three minutes.
3. Meanwhile, have the Cookie Crushers roll the rolling pins over the sealed bags to make cookie-crumb "dirt."
4. When the pudding is made and the cookies are crushed, gather kids and do the Faith Booster below.
5. Invite each group to create a "Garden of Eden" in their clay pot. Let them layer the pudding and cookie dirt, help themselves to crackers and worms, and use the jelly beans as flowers.
6. When the gardens are complete, let kids admire each other's work. Then let each child "dig in" to the gardens, scoop a generous helping into a paper cup, and gobble!

FAITH BOOSTER

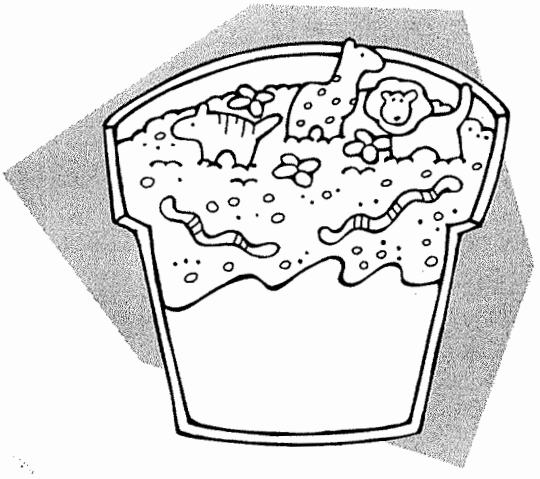

Ask:

- What do you know about the Garden of Eden?

Read aloud Genesis 2:4-9. Ask:

- What do you think it would have been like to live in that garden?
- What's the most beautiful garden you've ever seen?

Let volunteers tell why Adam and Eve had to leave the garden. Explain that many people have looked for the Garden of Eden, but no one knows exactly where it was. Tell kids we can imagine what the Garden of Eden was like and we'll have some creative fun making Garden of Eden Dirt Soufflés.

PRO POINTER

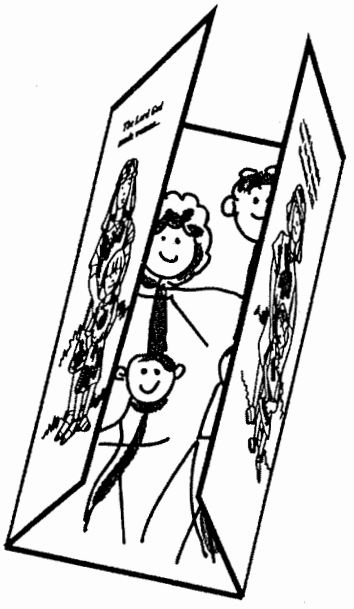

You may want to let kids spoon the leftovers into resealable bags and take the bags home.

~ Genesis 2:22

WHAT YOU NEED

BEFORE CLASS

Duplicate the pattern page for each child. For younger children, fold the pages on the broken lines. Make a sample to show the children.

WHAT TO DO

1. Introduce the lesson by telling the story found in Genesis 2:20-24 and 4:1-2. Say, God made a man and called him "Adam." He made a woman who was named Eve. Then Adam and Eve had a son named Cain and another son named Abel. They were the very first family in the world. God makes families.
2. Show the children the sample.
3. Distribute a pattern page to each child.
4. Say the memory verse.
5. Have the children fold the page on the broken lines and color the pictures on the flaps. Say, Adam and Eve were the first people God made. They had two sons. They were the first family.
6. Have the children open the flaps and draw a picture of their own families inside.
7. When the pictures are finished, have the children show the pictures of their families. Practice the memory verse together. Ask, Can you point to Adam and Eve? Where are their sons? This is the first family God made.

EXTRA TIME

Provide magazine cut-outs of families. Have the children glue one or more of the cut-outs inside the folding picture.

The Temptation and Fall of Man

Scriptures: Genesis 3

Key Verse:

Genesis 3:8 "And they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden."

Key Points:

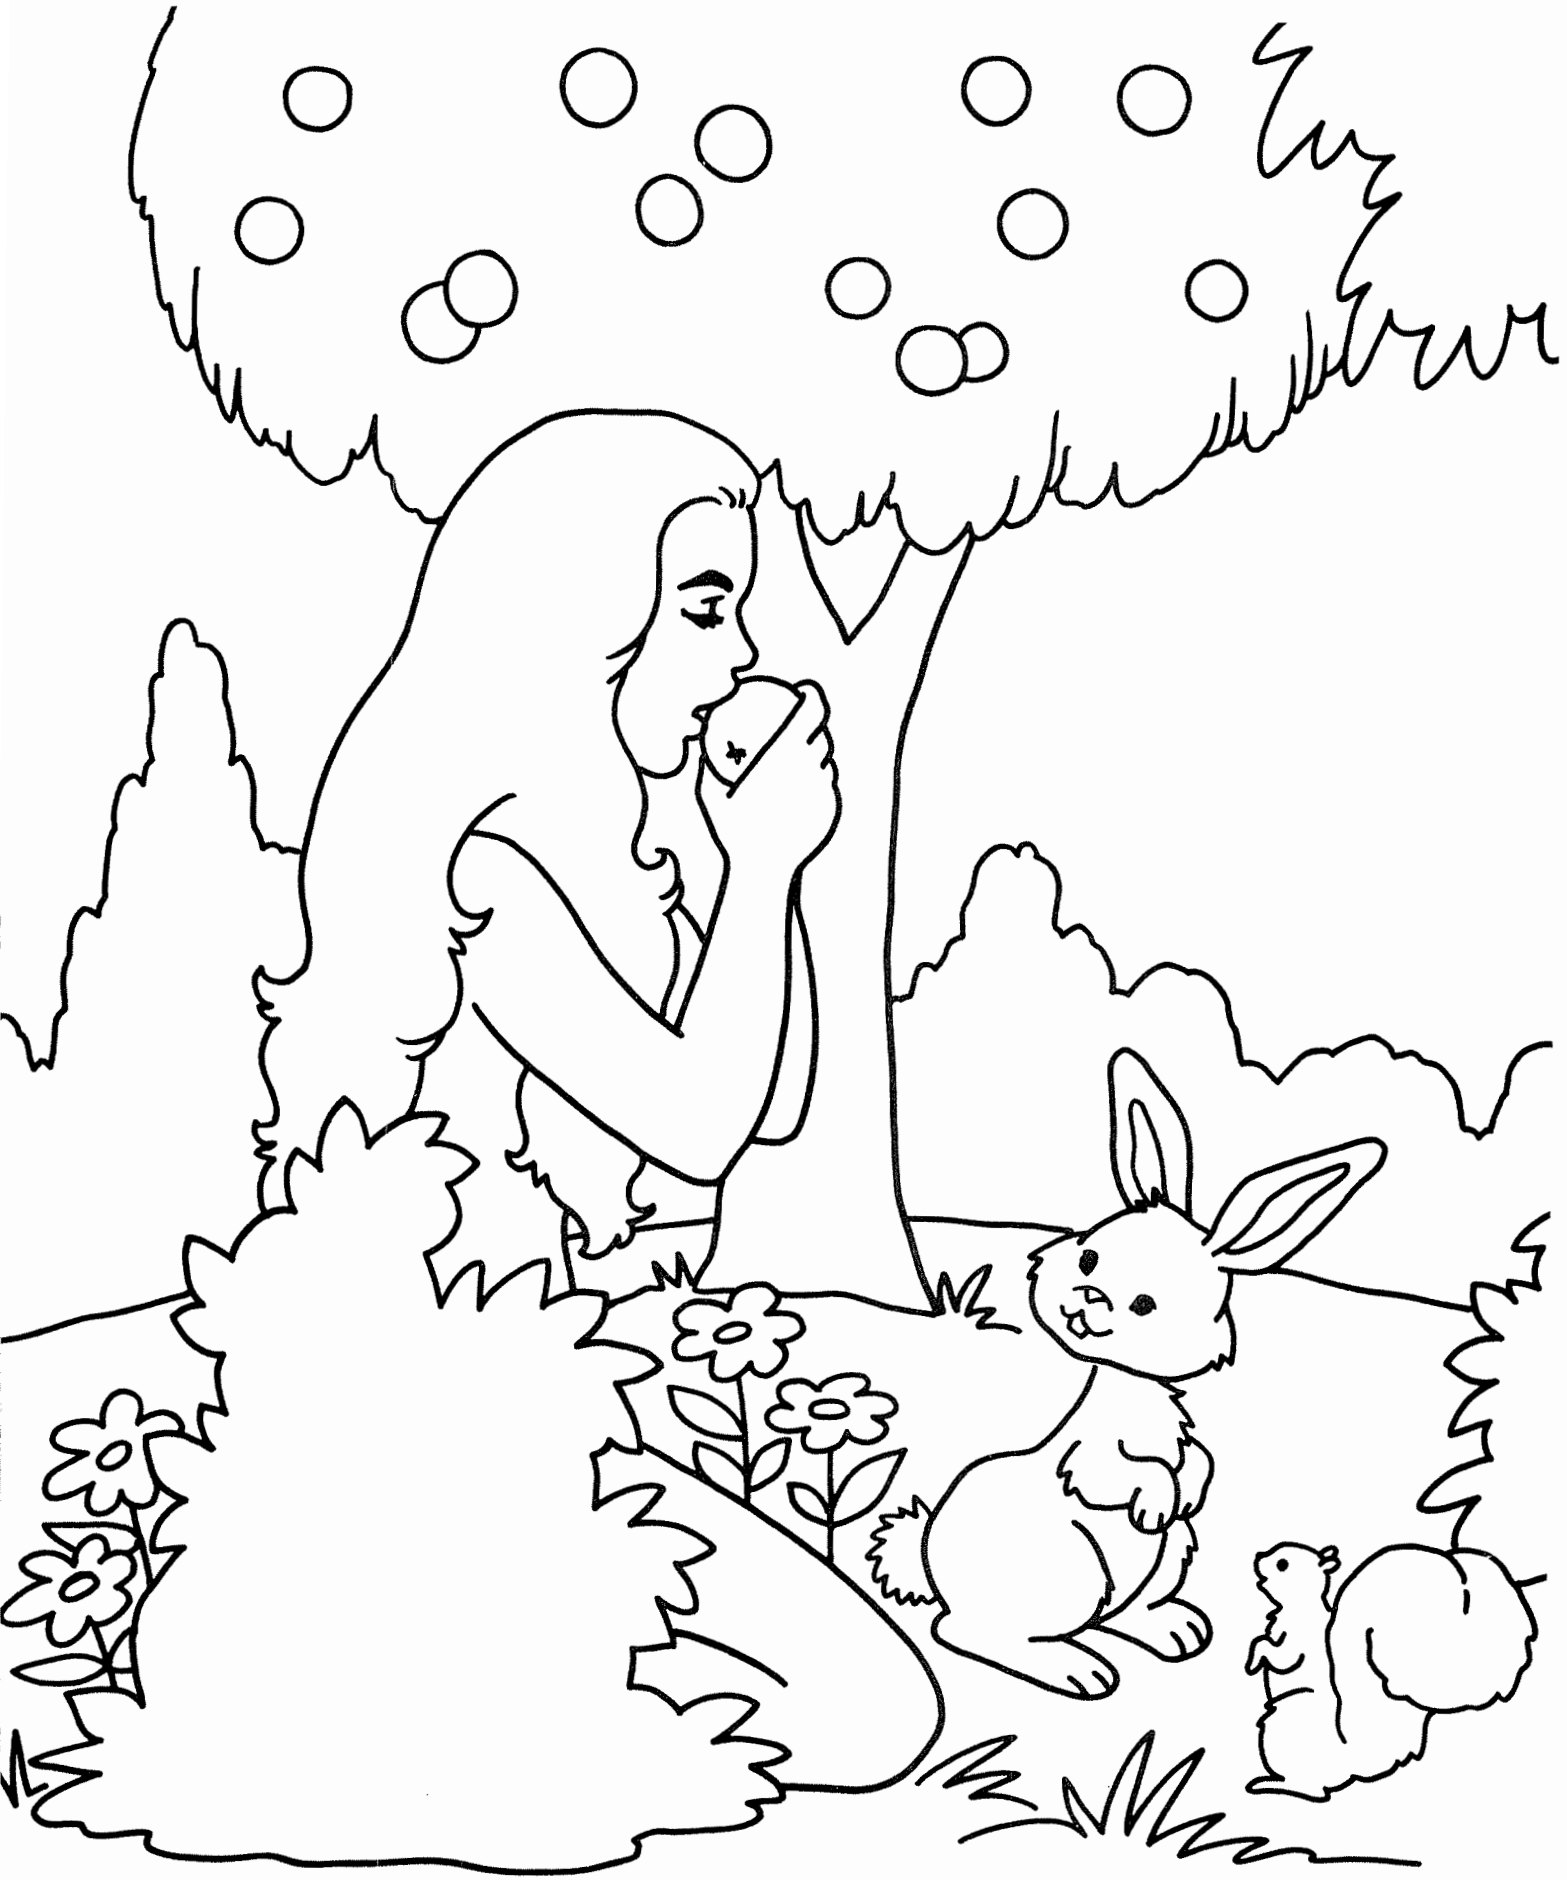

1. God gave Adam and Eve only one rule in the garden - not to eat of the tree in the middle of the garden.

2. Satan deceived Eve and she disobeyed by eating of the tree. She encouraged Adam and he ate also. Both having their eyes opened, they knew they had sinned and tried to hide from God.

3. God confronted Adam and Eve about their sin and made clothes for them of animal skins.

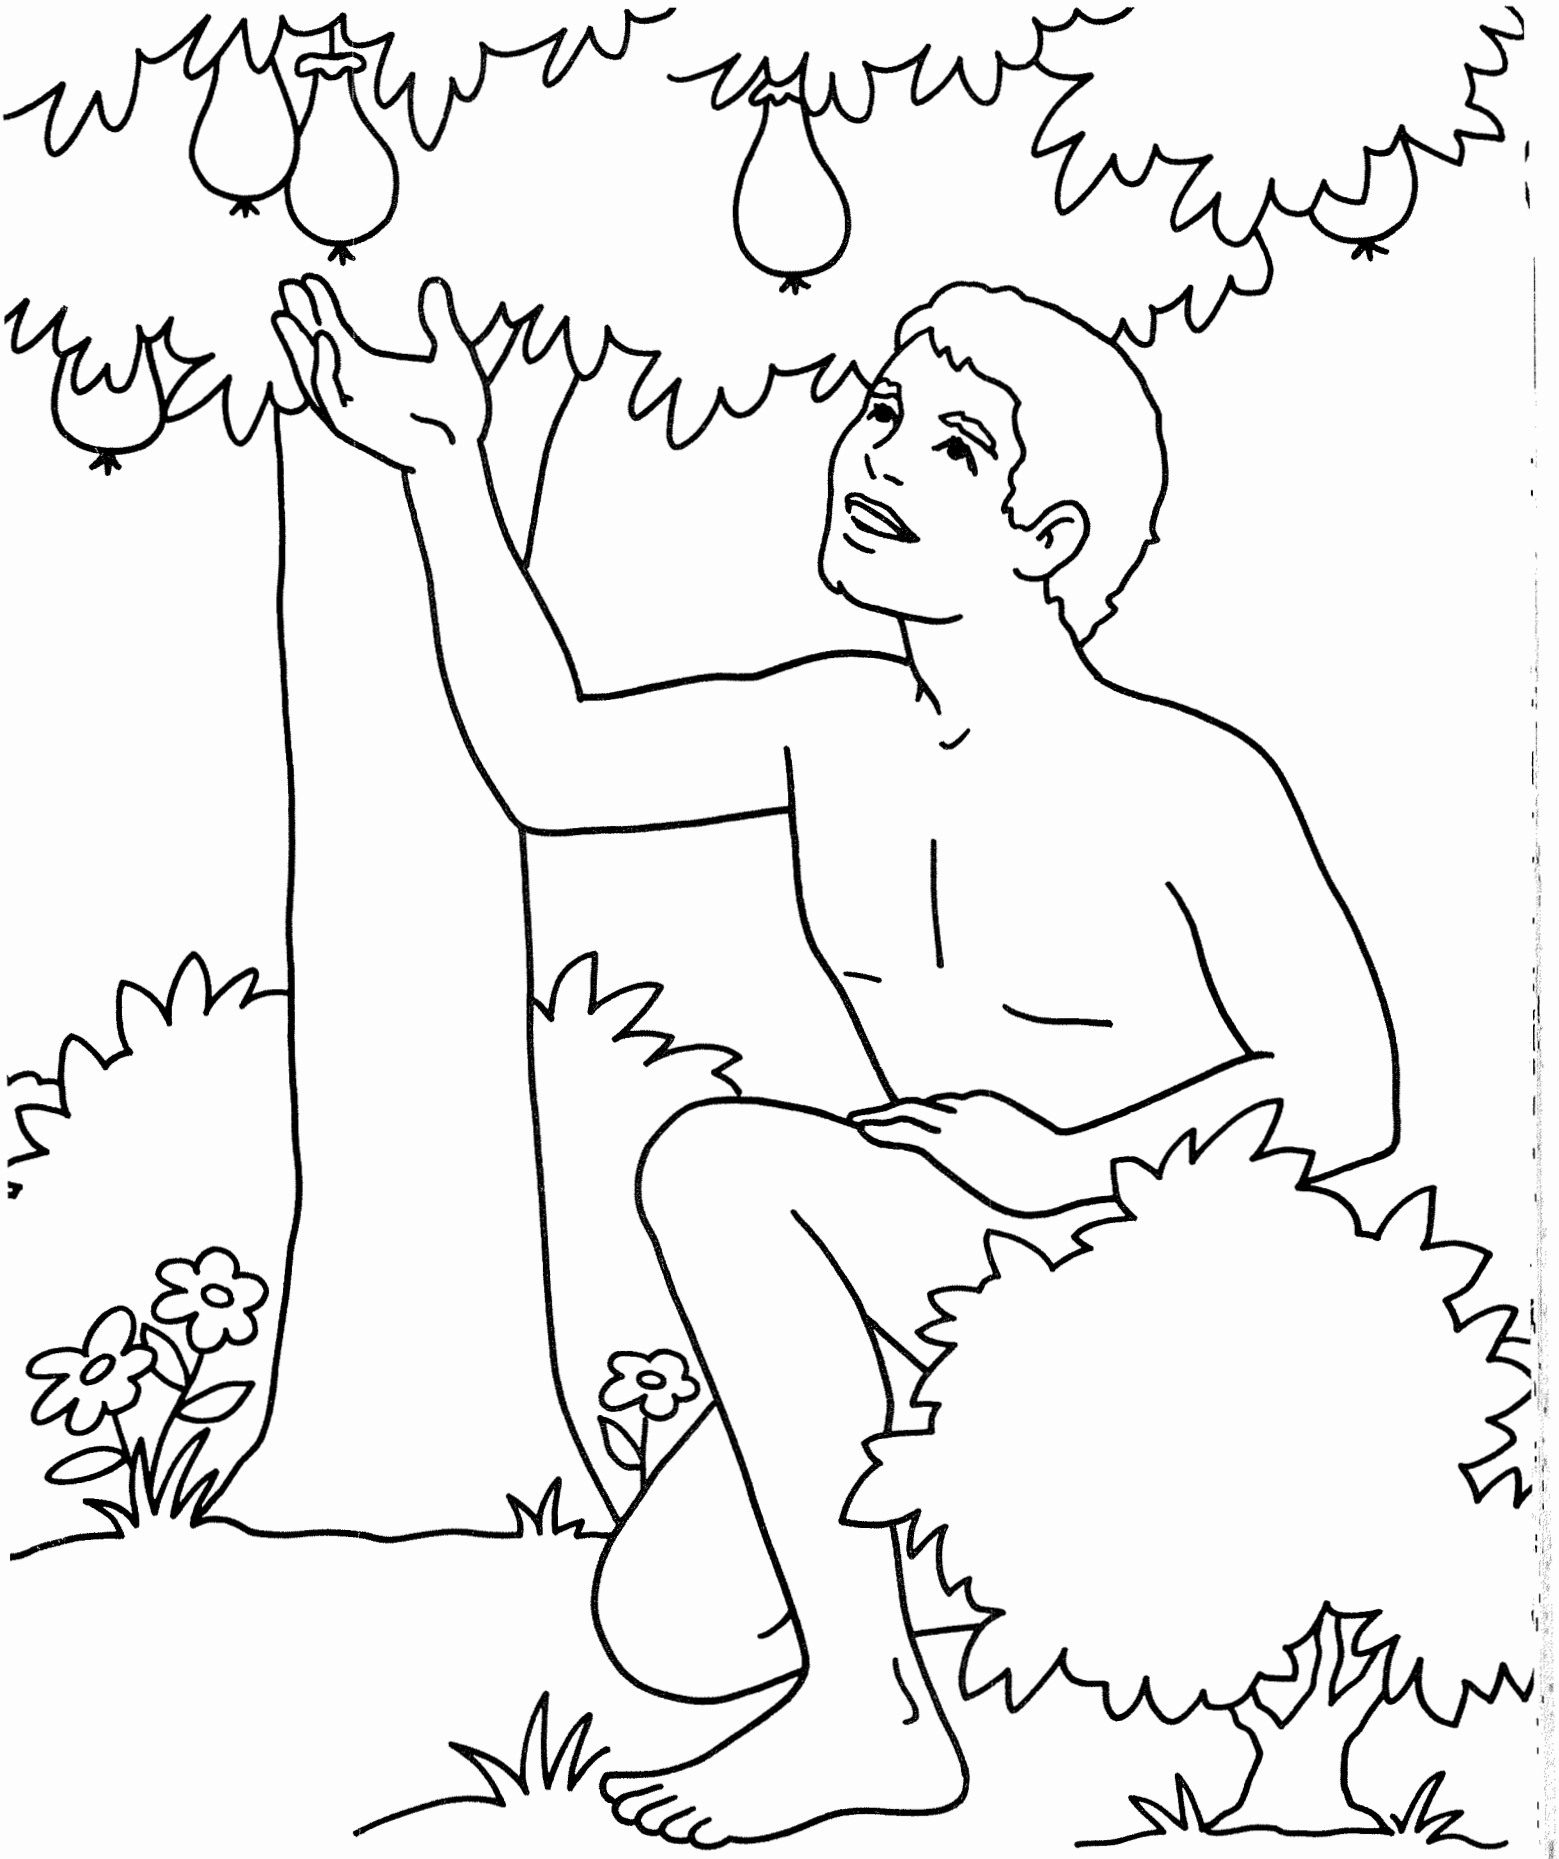

4. The serpent, the man and the woman were to suffer the consequences of God's judgement because of their sin.

5. The tree of knowledge changed the way man would live and die, and led to the need for Jesus as a sacrifice for our sins.

God told Adam and Eve they could eat any fruit in the garden except for one kind. One day, the devil tempted Eve to eat that fruit.

Genesis 2:16, 17; 3:1-6

Adam also ate the fruit. Then Adam and Eve were ashamed, and tried to hide from God. But no one can hide from God. Genesis 3:6-8

Because they disobeyed Him, God sent Adam and Eve out of the beautiful Garden of Eden. Genesis 3:22-24

THE FIRST SIN

Genesis 3

Connect the dots to see how Adam and Eve sinned.

Adam and Eve could have stayed in the beautiful garden forever if they had obeyed God. But they ate fruit from the one tree God told them not to touch. That was the first sin. After that God made them leave the Garden of Eden.

Noah and His Ark

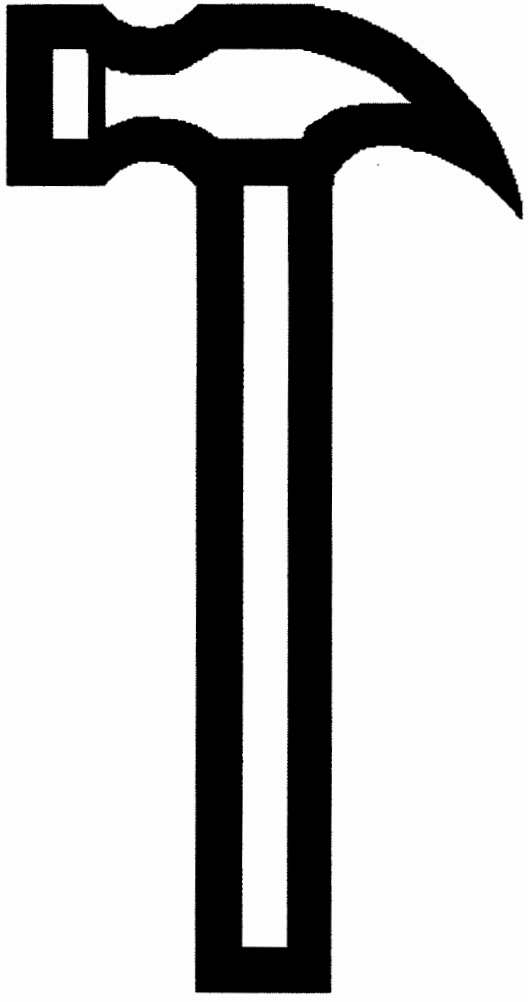

Created by: Leanne Guenther

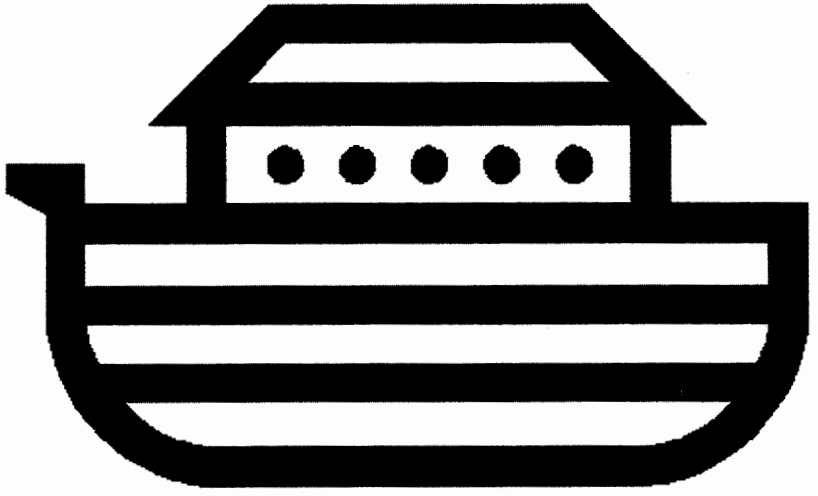

God saw that the people on His earth were mean.

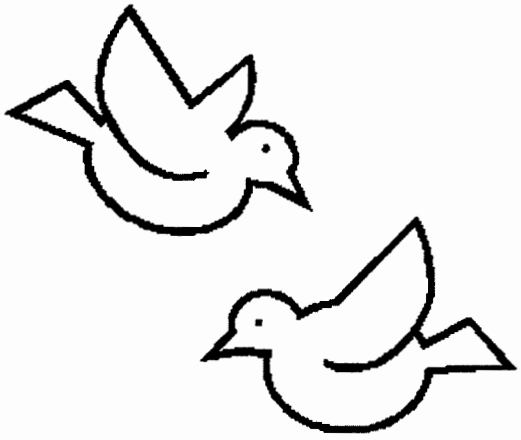

Except for one man, named Noah.

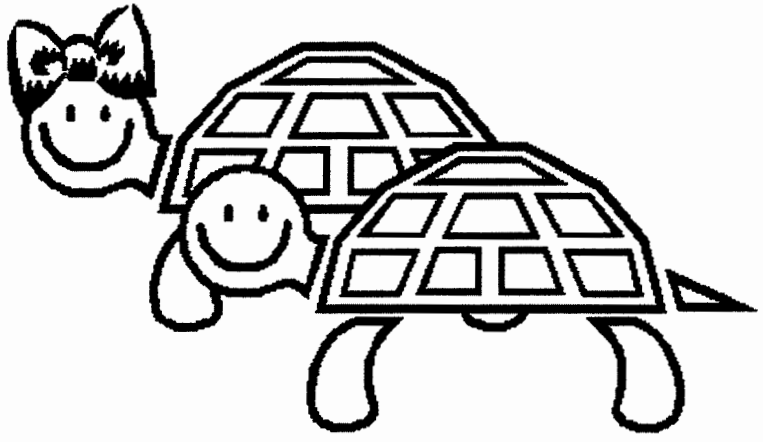

God told Noah to build a boat.

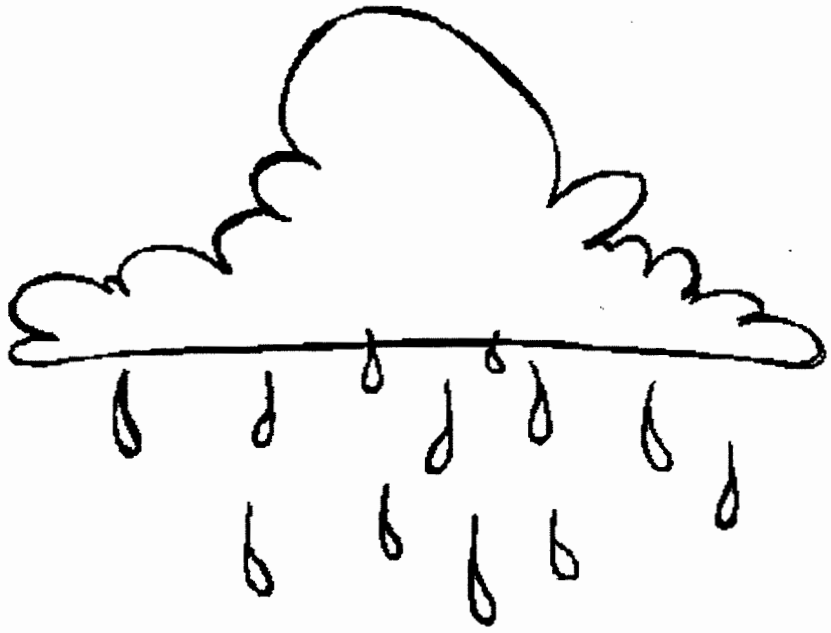

Noah obeyed. He built an ark.

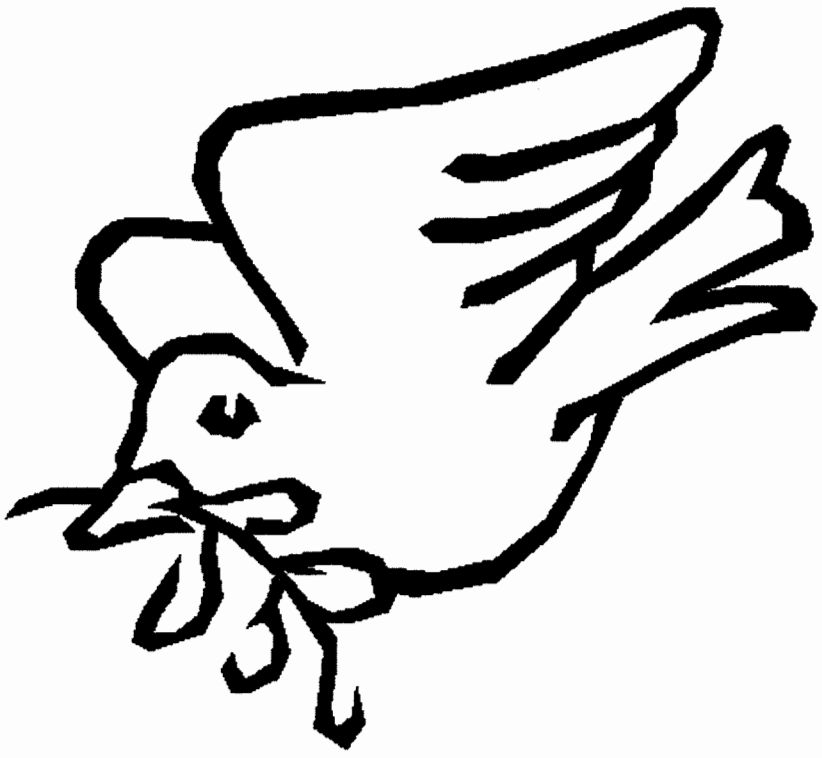

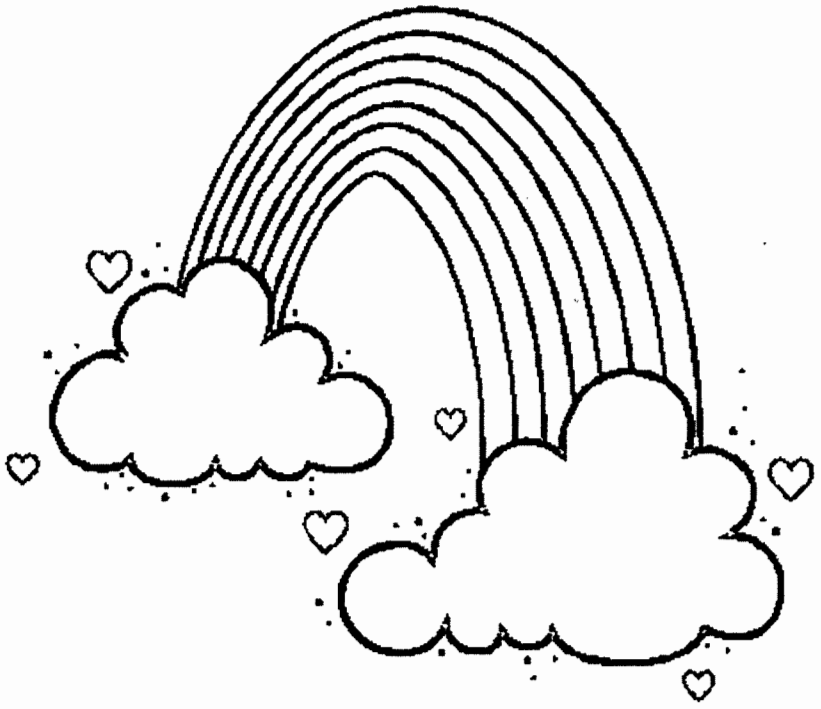

God sent two of each kind of animal to board the ark.

The rain came down. It washed away the mean people.

Noah sent a dove to find dry land. The dove brought back an olive branch.

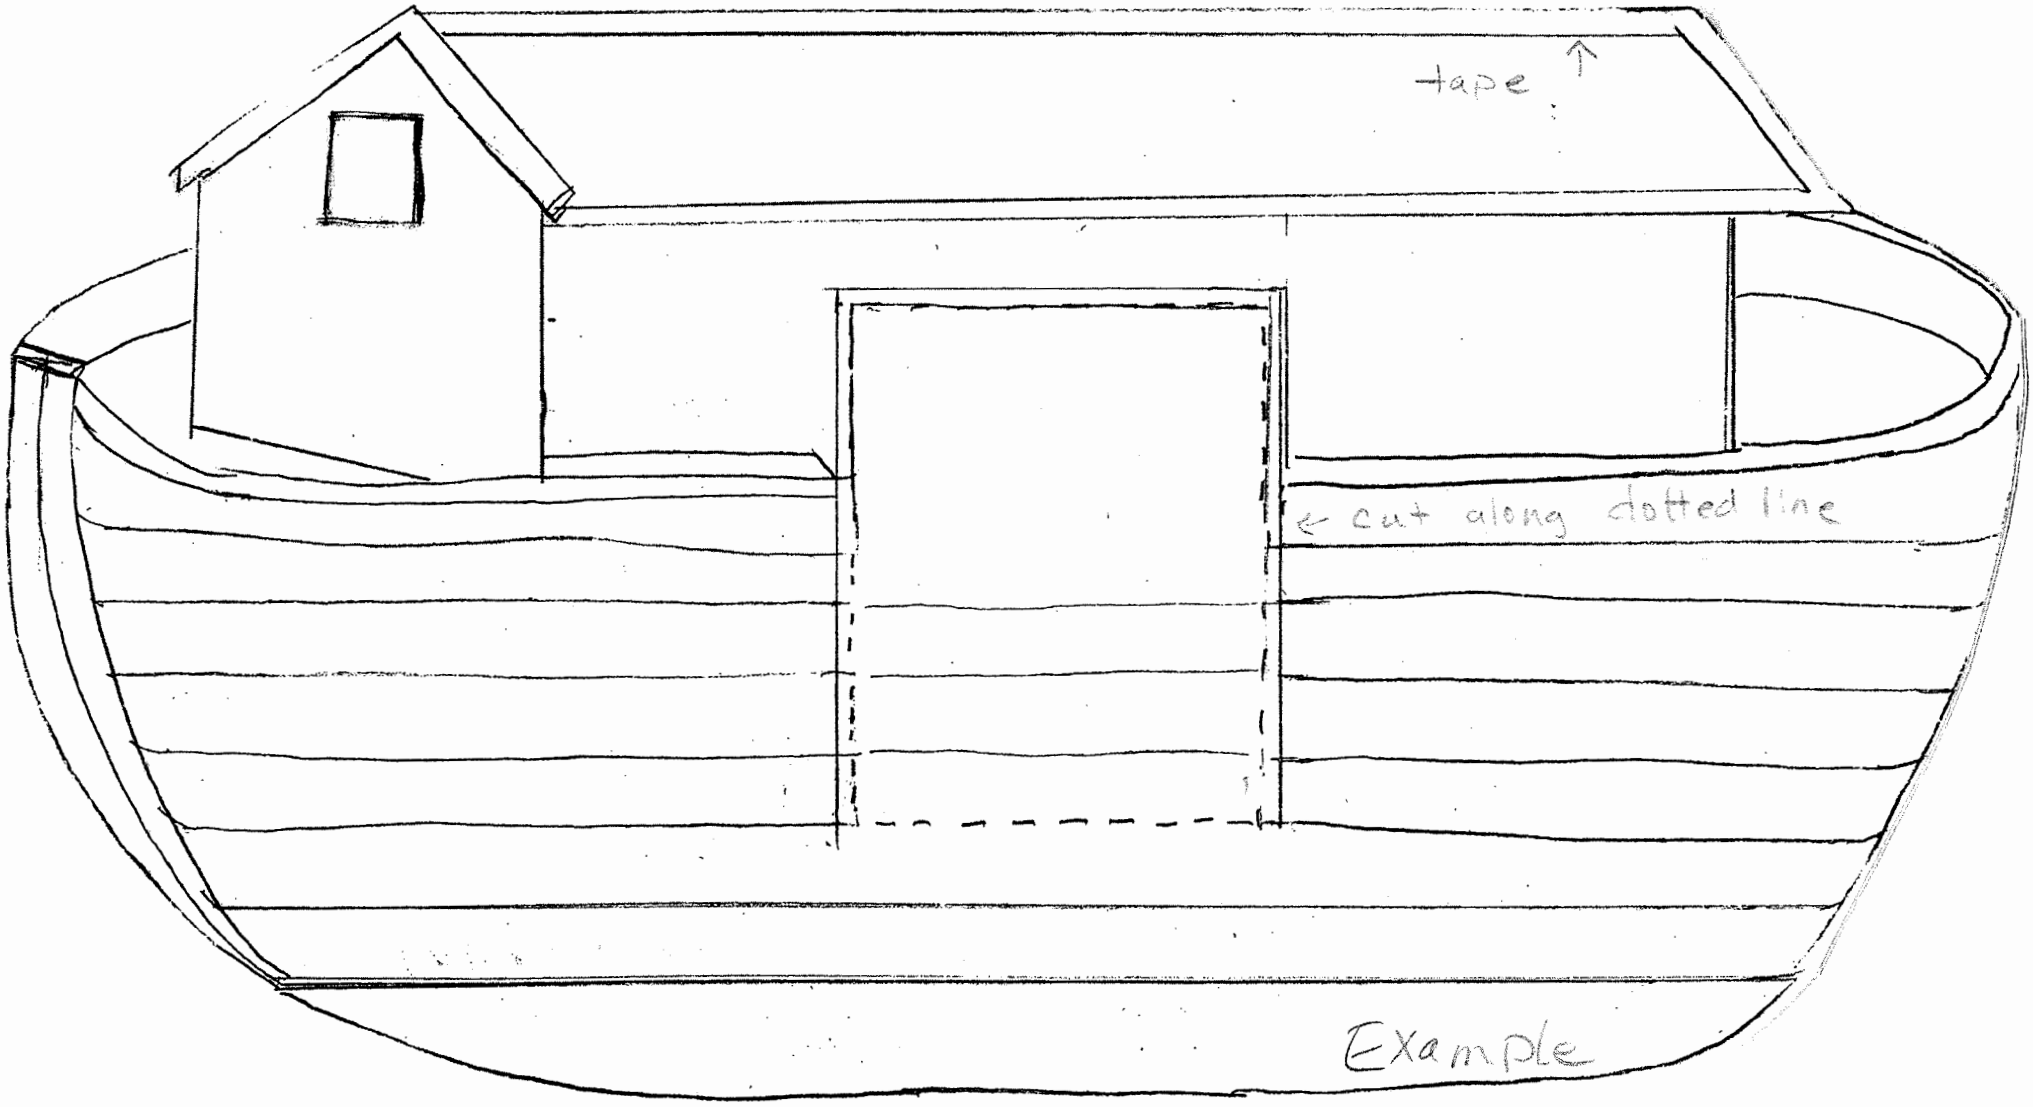

God sent a rainbow as a promise never to send such a flood again.

Animals in the Ark

Noah obeyed God and built a big boat, called an ark, to protect his family and at least two of every animal from the great flood God sent.

Write the animals' names in the right places in the crisscross puzzle. Some of the animals' names have been put in to help you. Each word builds on an existing word. How many more animals can you think of?

Rainbow of Promise

Scriptures: Genesis 8 & 9

Key Verse:

Genesis 9:13 "I set My rainbow in the cloud, and it shall be for the sign of the covenant between Me and the earth."

Key Points:

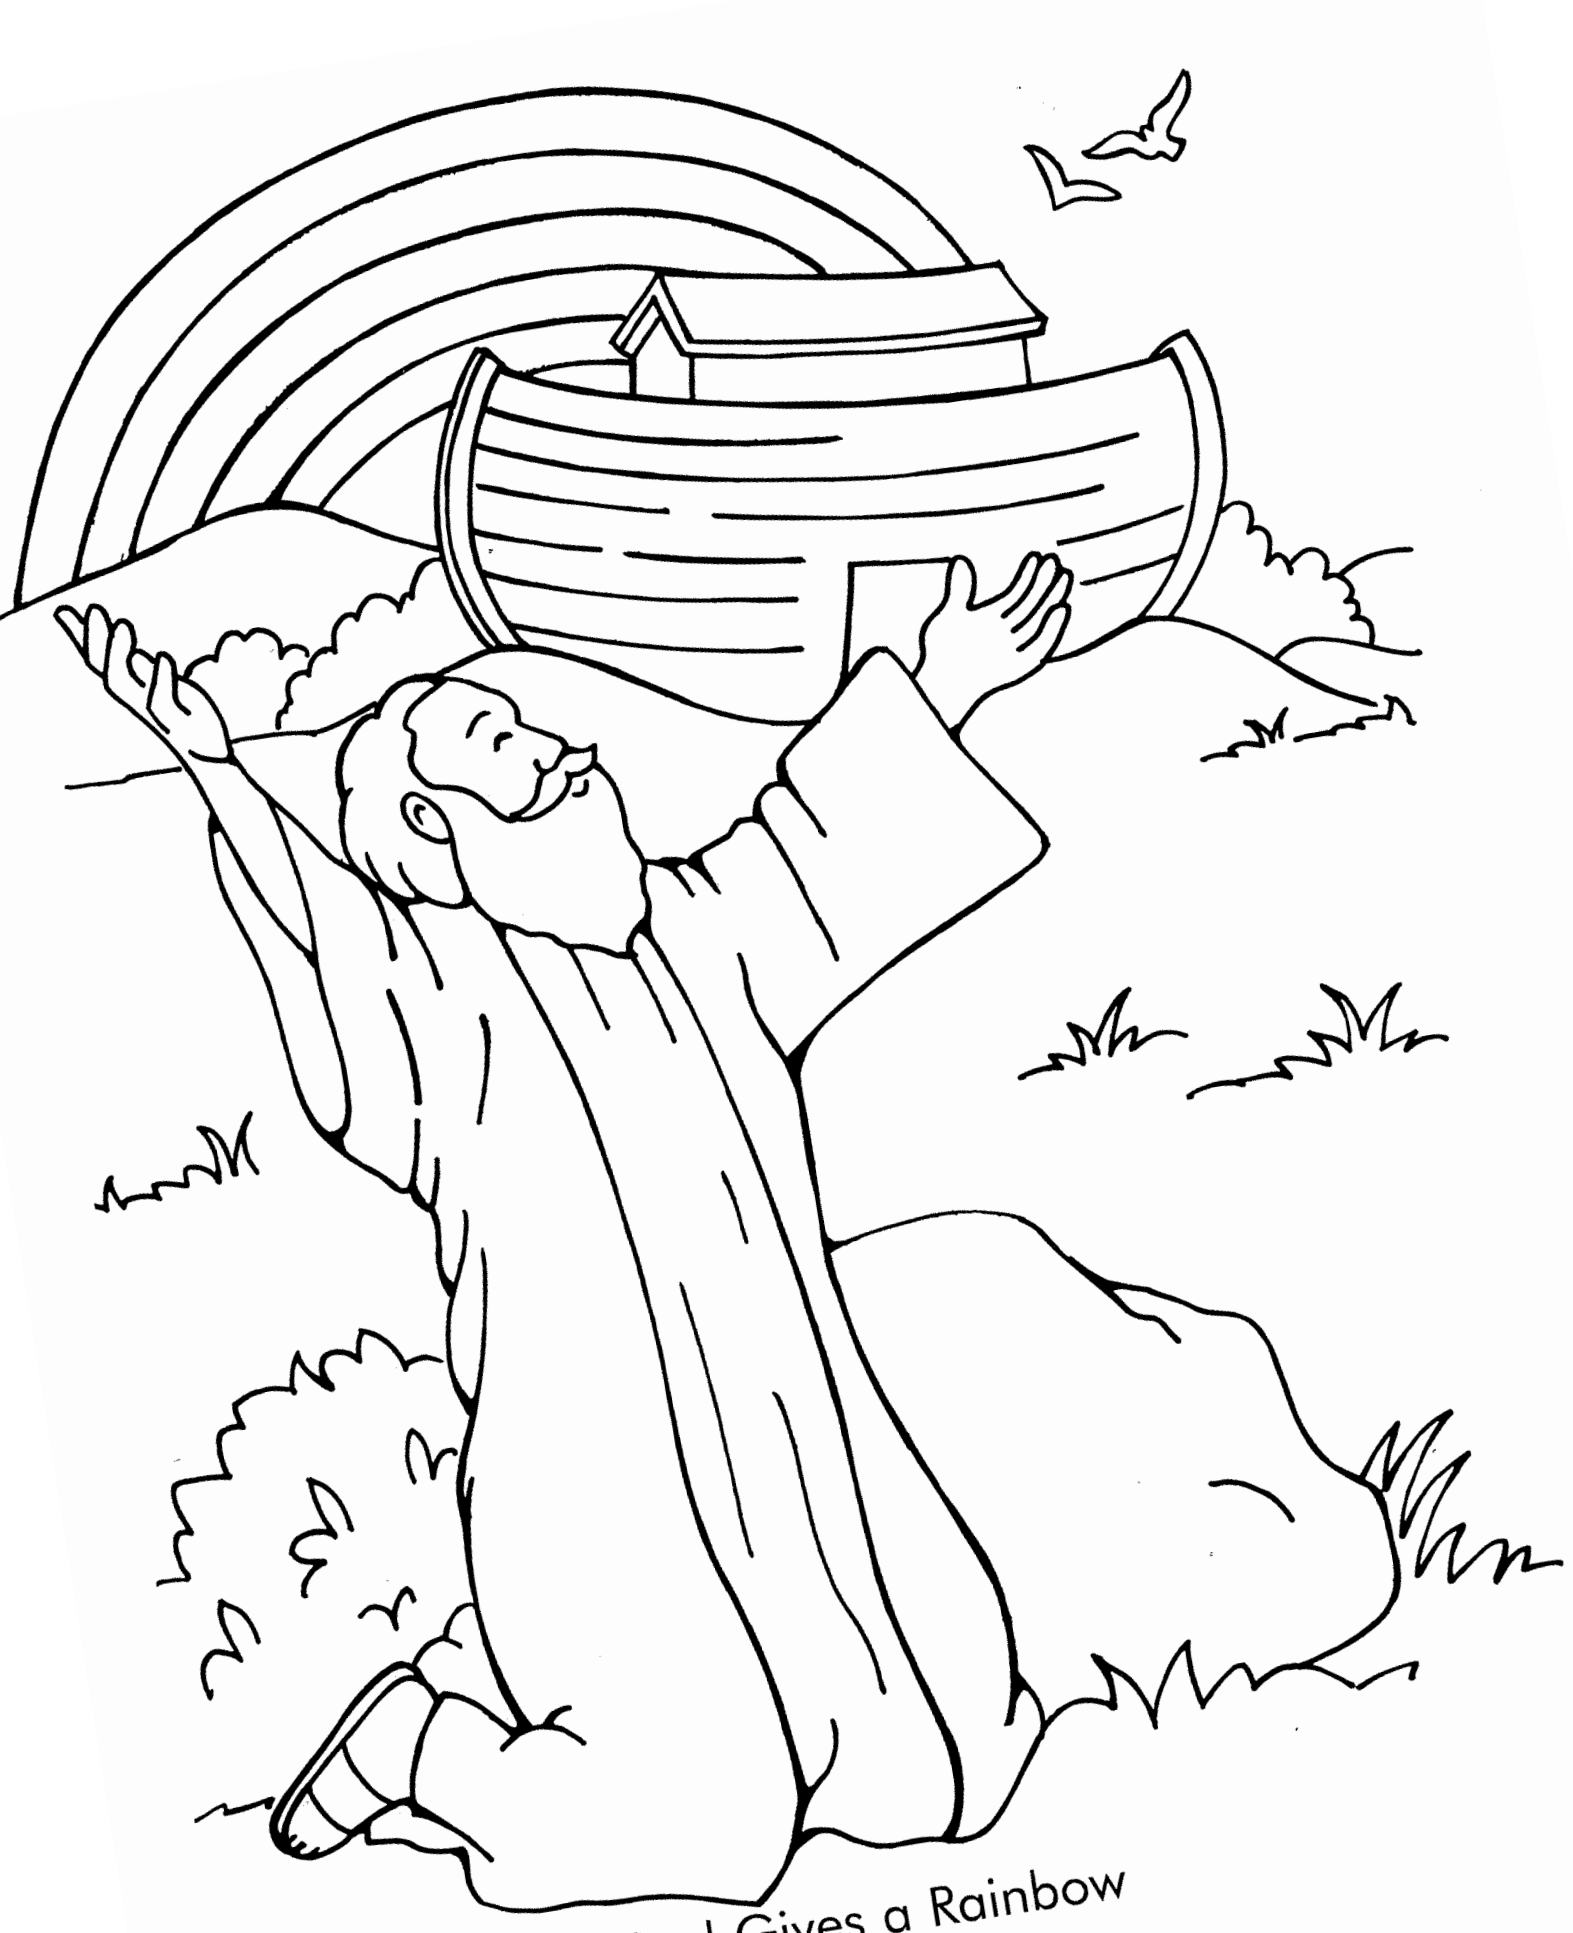

1. The waters totally covered the earth but God remembered Noah and sent a wind to dry the waters. The waters were on the earth many months before they began recede.

2. Noah sent a raven and a dove to see if the earth was dry.

3. After about a year, God commanded Noah, his family and animals to leave the ark. Noah immediately built an altar and worshiped God for His saving protection.

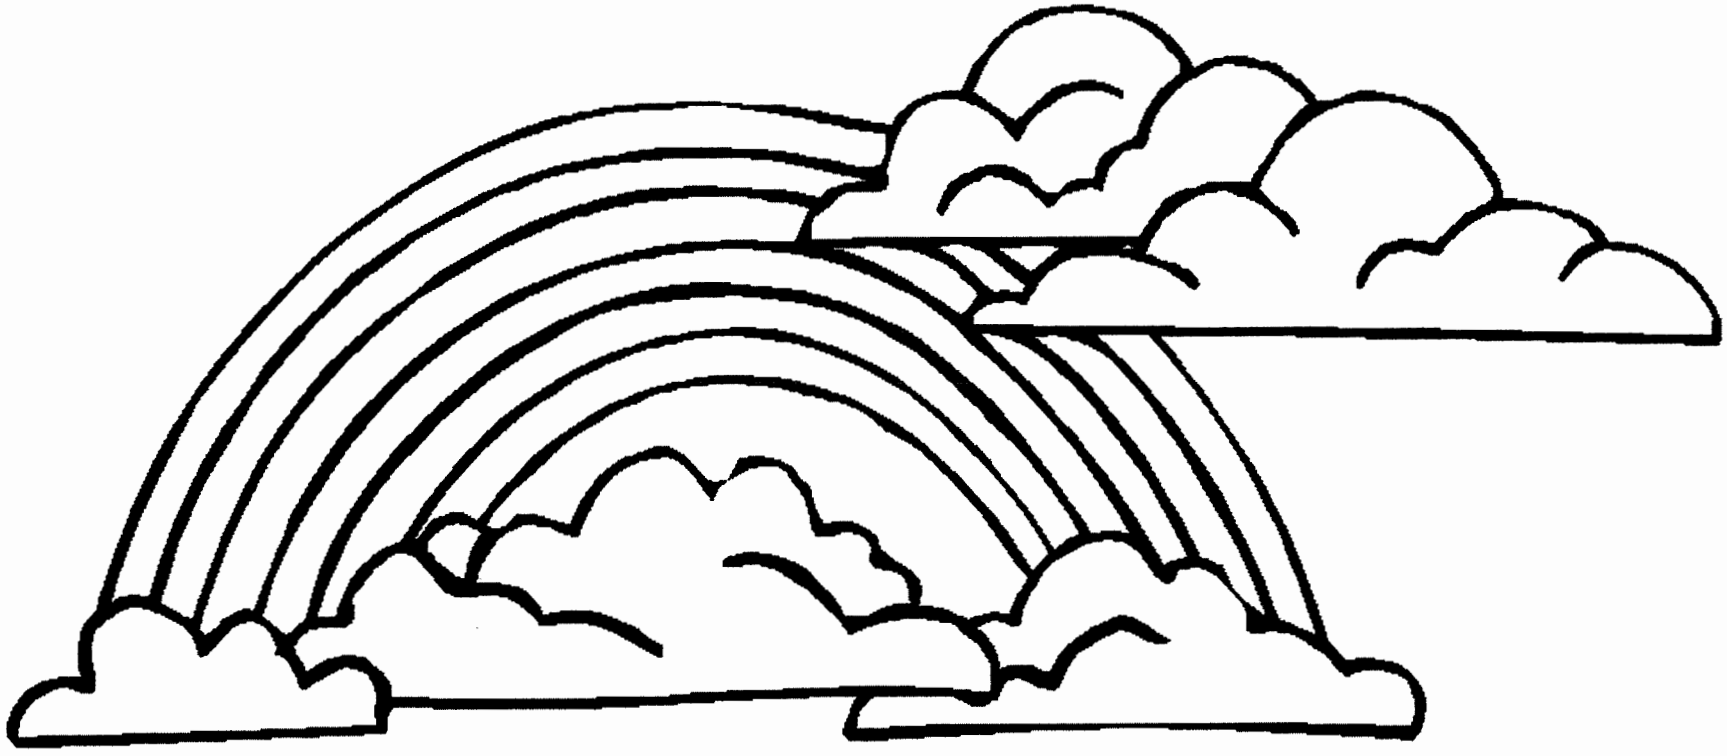

4. God set up seasons that He promised would not cease. Animals would be given to man to eat.

5. God made a covenant (promise) to never again destroy the earth by water. He put a rainbow in the sky as a symbol to remind man of His promises.

God Gives a Rainbow

I do set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

The Tower of Babel

Scriptures: Genesis 11

Key Verse:

Genesis 11:9 "Therefore its name is Babel, because there the Lord confused the language of all the earth; and from there the LORD scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth."

Key Points:

1. Hundreds of years after the flood the people wanted to build a tower and a city.

2. They wanted to build it high into the heavens to gain recognition of others around them and so it could be seen if they were scattered around the earth.

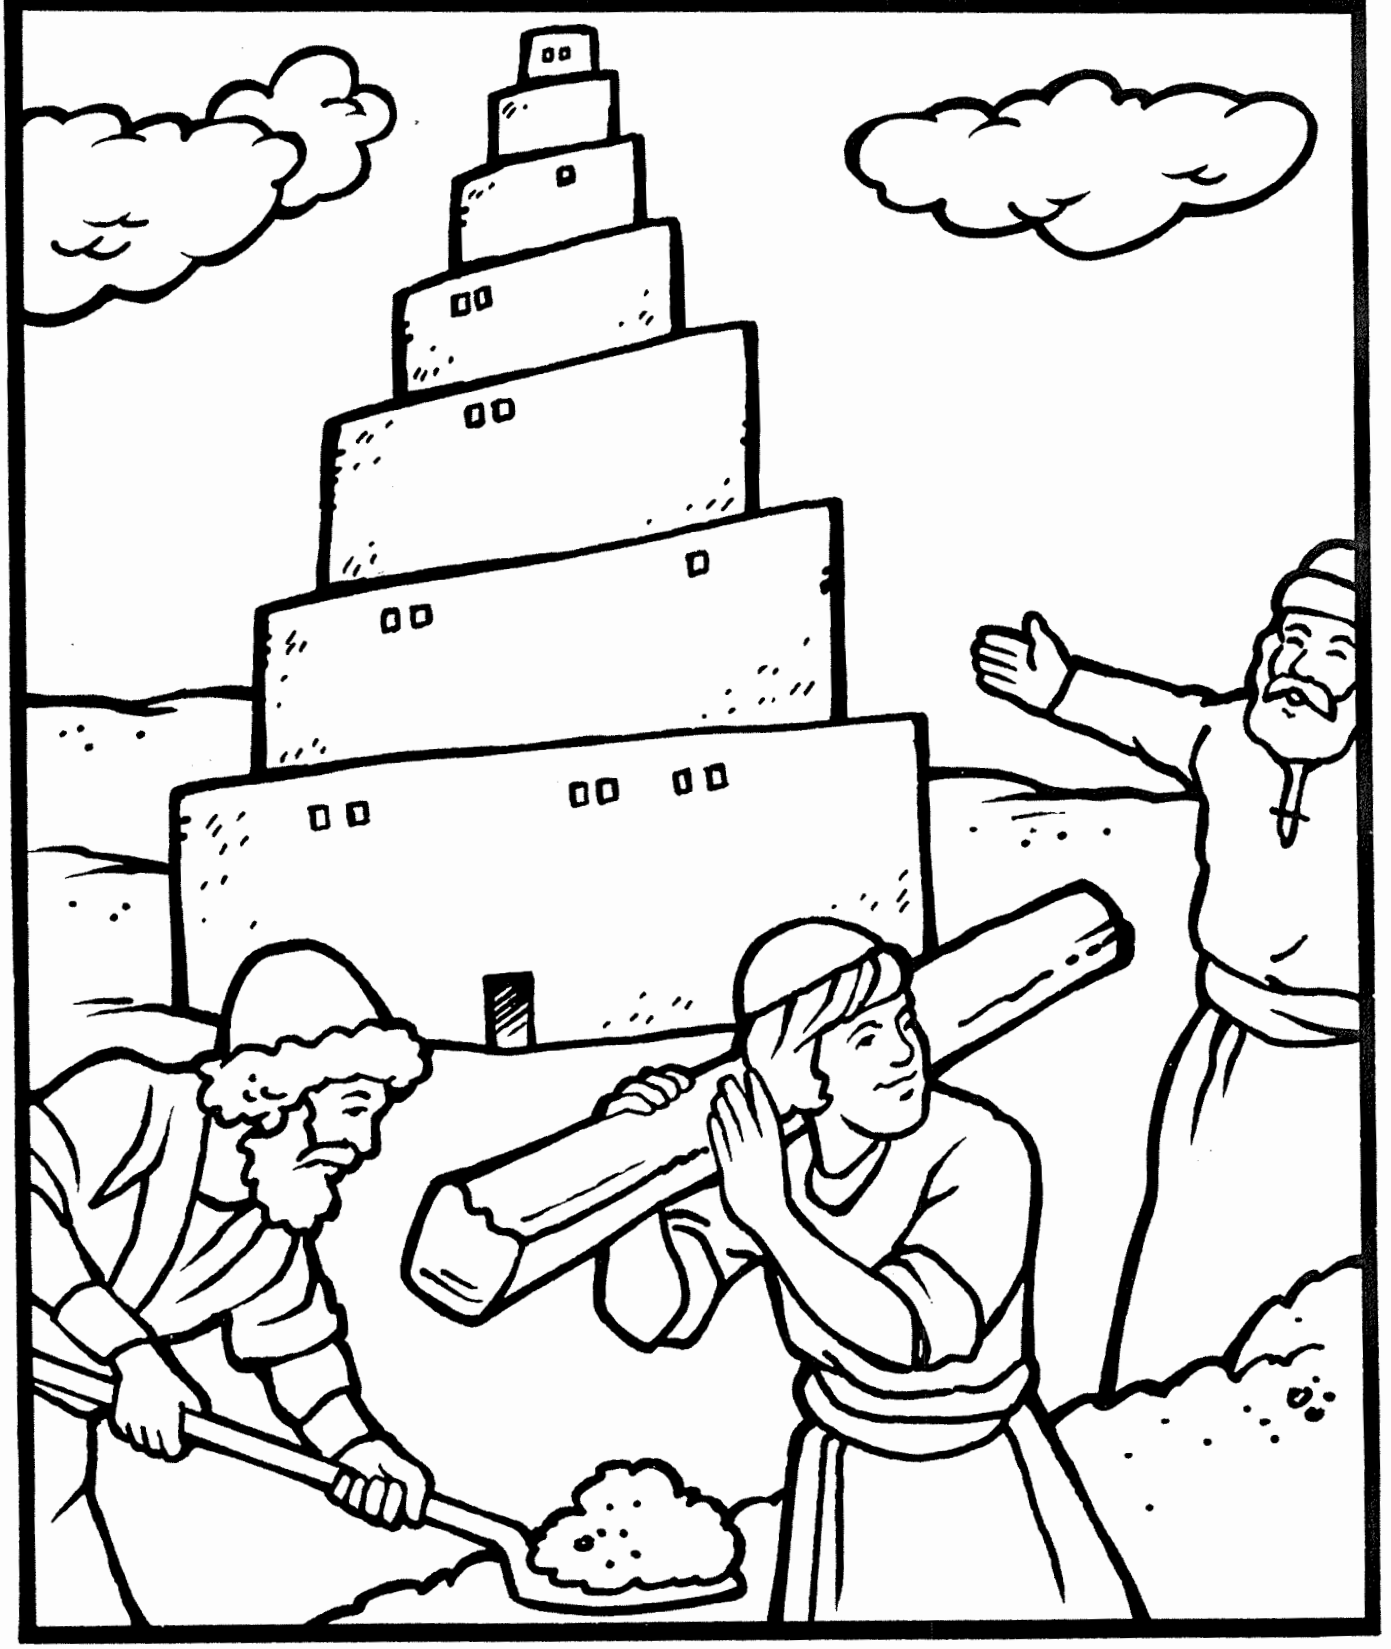

3. They were all of the same language, but the Lord came down and saw what they had done.

4. He confused their language to keep them from becoming too prideful and to remind them that He is God.

5. God deliberately scattered the people so that many languages and nations began.

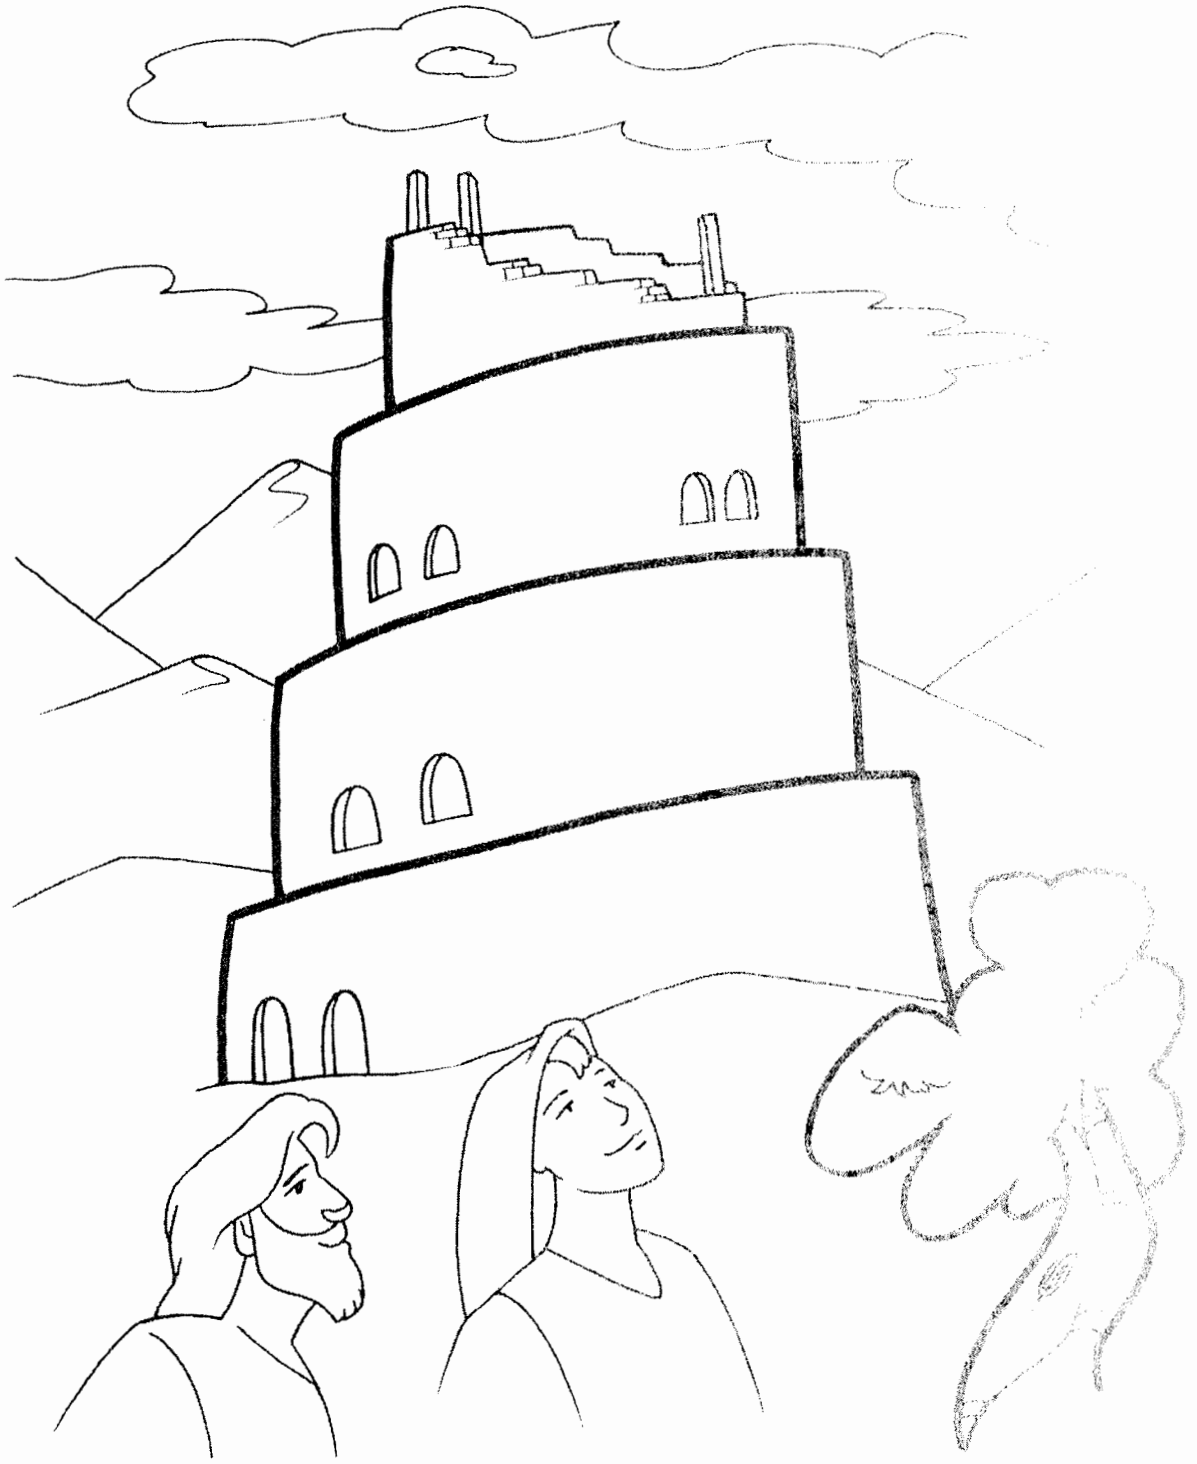

B

The tower up high.
It taught us to reach for GOD,
Not for the sky!

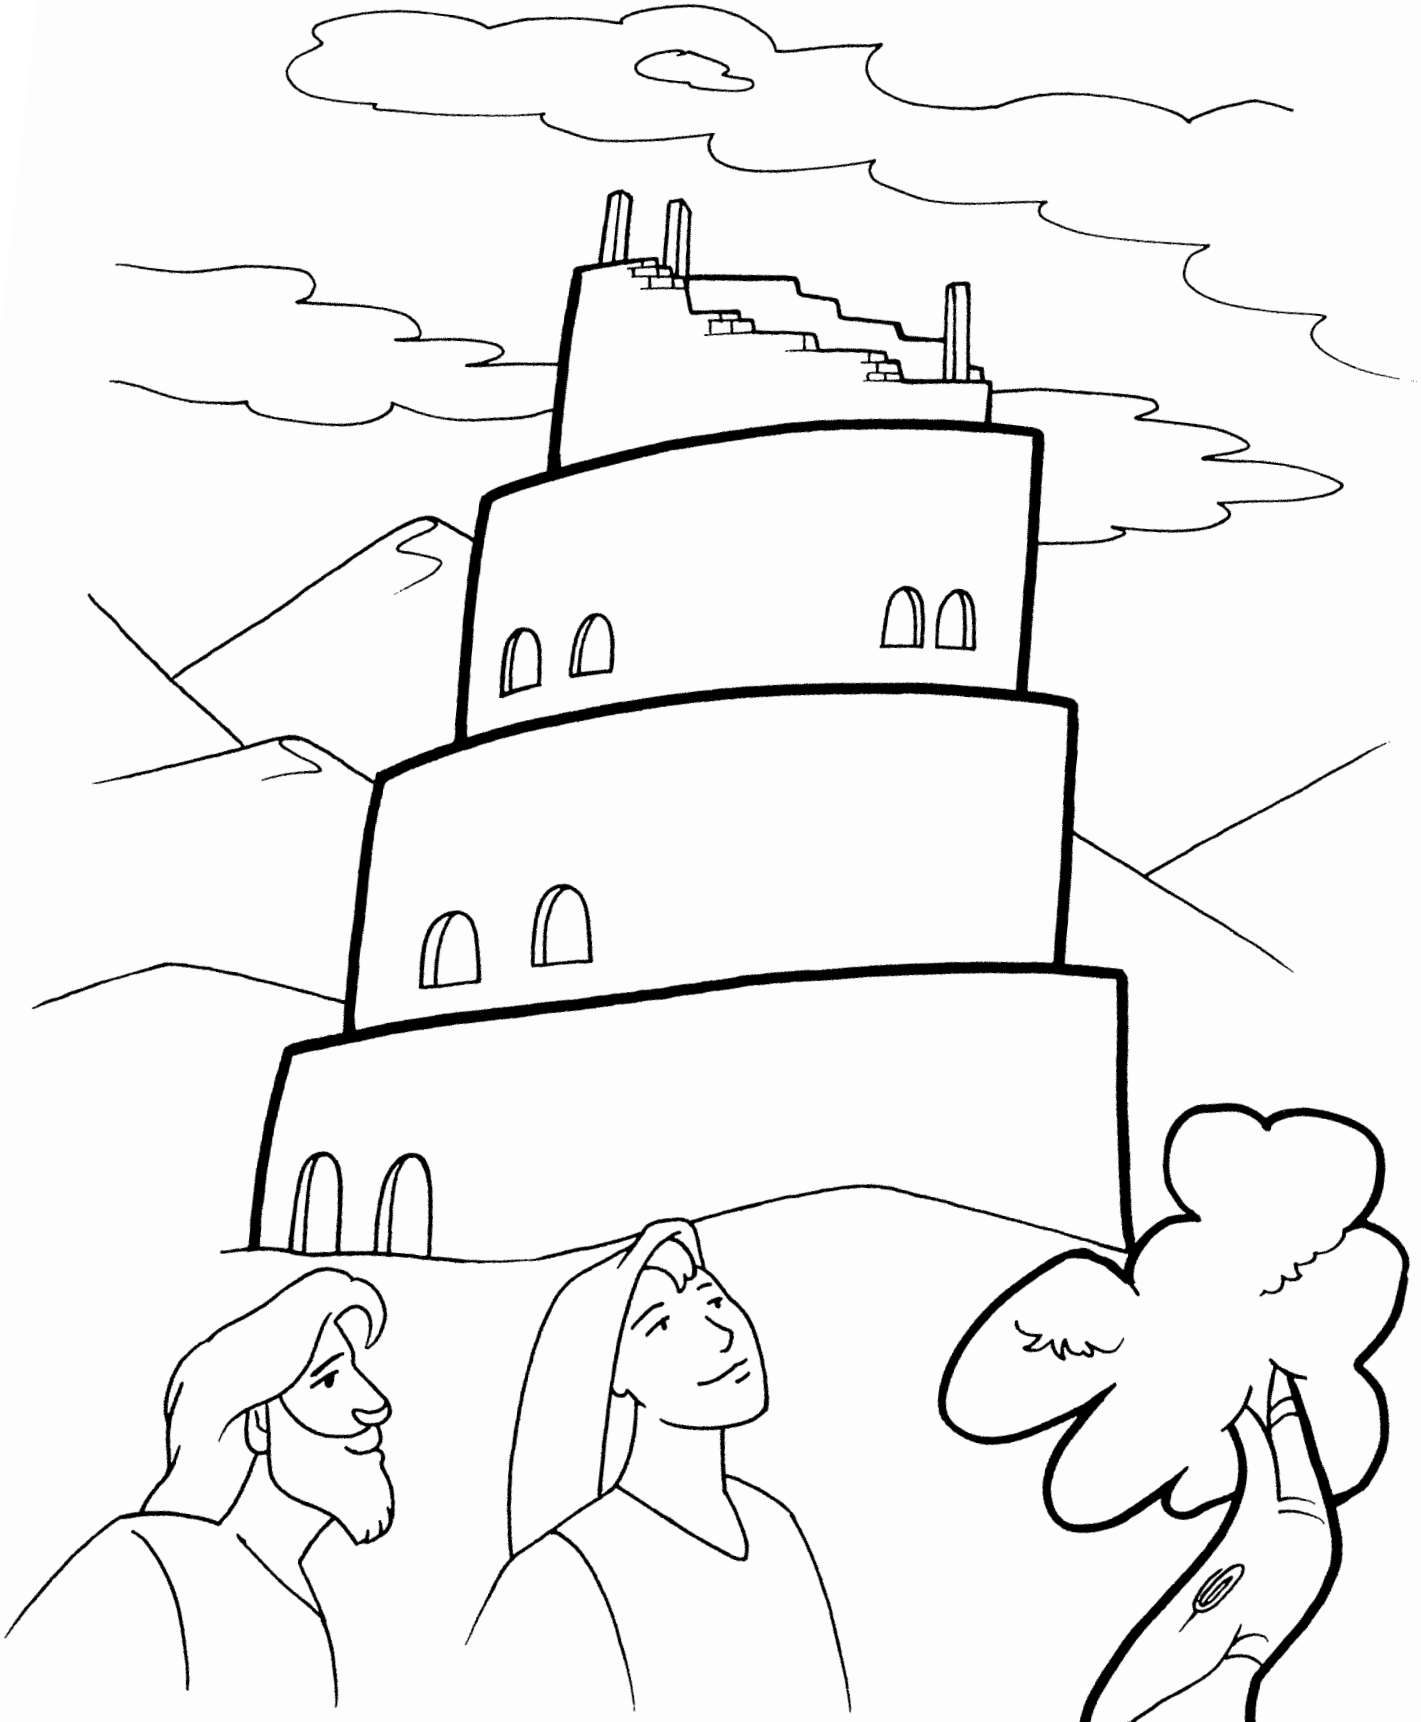

THE TOWER OF BABEL

(GENESIS 10:8-10; 11:1-9)

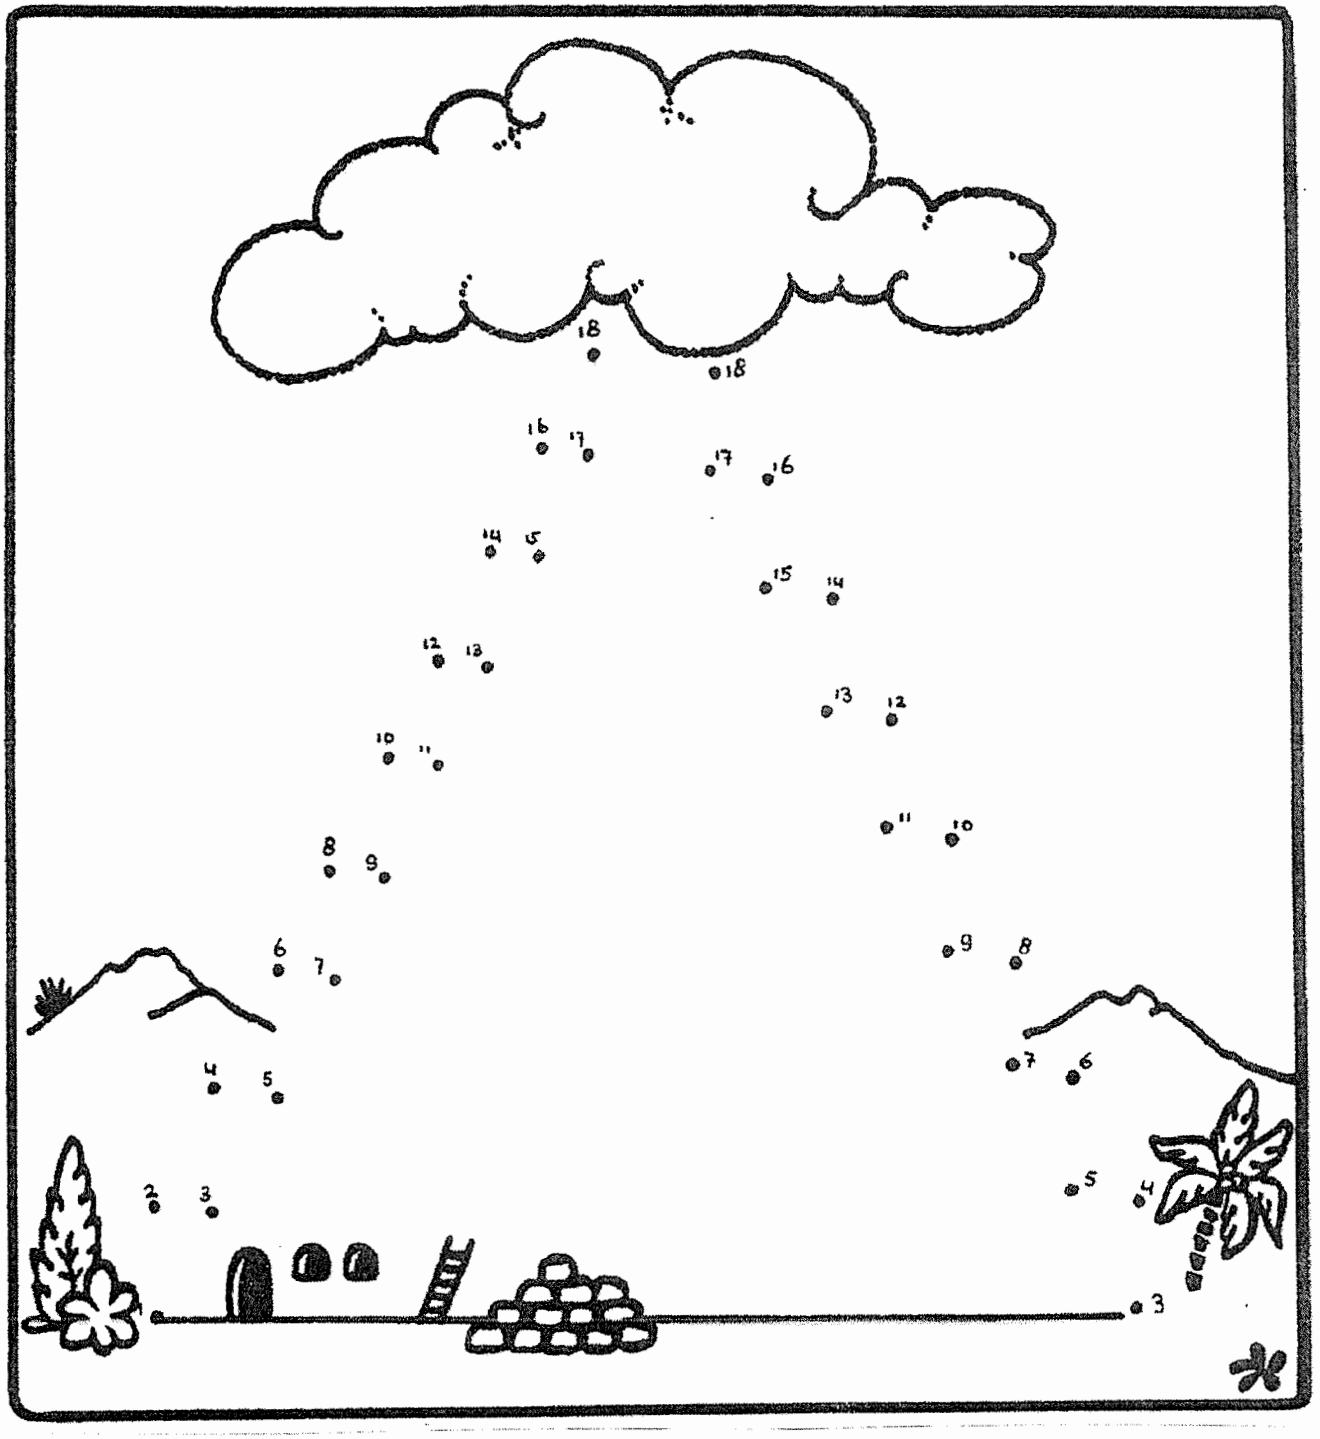

"And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth."

TOOTHPICK TOWERS

"Then they said to each other, 'Let's build a city and a tower for ourselves, whose top will reach high into the sky. We will become famous. Then we will not be scattered over all the earth'" (Genesis 11:4).

SUPPLIES

- ❑ miniature marshmallows
- ❑ round toothpicks
- ❑ cookie sheets

Tower building is fun for everyone. Do this craft as an individual or group project. Turn it into a game by seeing which group can build the highest tower in three minutes.

1. Form groups of four to six. Give each group a cookie sheet, a box of toothpicks, and a bag of miniature marshmallows.
2. Encourage each group to decide what kind of tower they'd like to build—a tall one, a skinny one, a fancy one, a round one, or a square one.
3. Give kids several minutes to work on their towers. Call time when all the marshmallows are used up!
4. Let kids display their towers and explain their special features.

PRO POINTER

Multicolored toothpicks and marshmallows make this project look even more impressive. For individual towers, use a paper plate rather than a cookie sheet to form the base.

FAITH BOOSTER

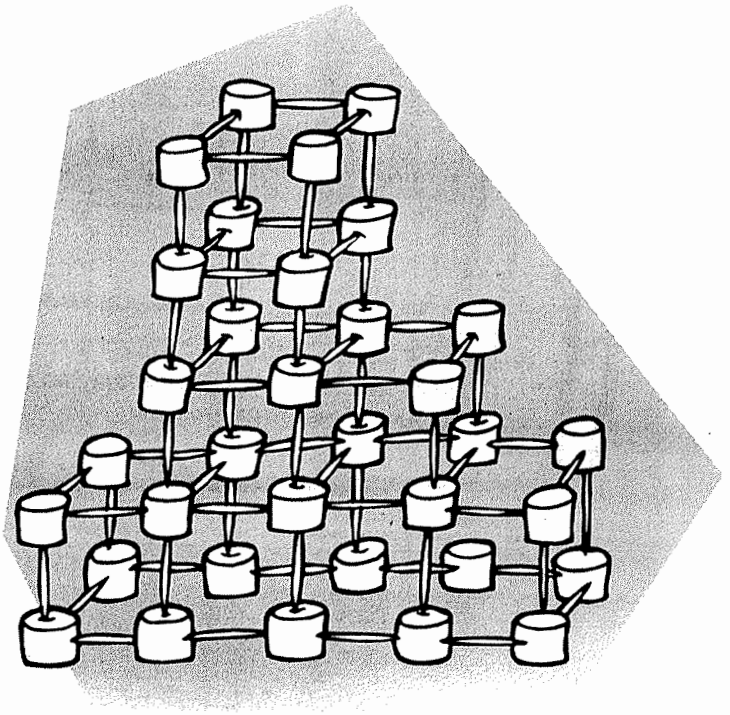

Ask:

- What would you do if you wanted to show someone how great and talented and marvelous and awesome you are?

Read Genesis 11:1-9. Ask:

- Why did God stop the people from building their tower?
- When is it good to be proud of what we can do? When is it bad?

Explain that God gives each person talents and abilities and that God is glad when we use those abilities to bring honor to him. Close by having kids use toothpicks and marshmallows to make letters that spell out, "God is great!"

ABRAHAM

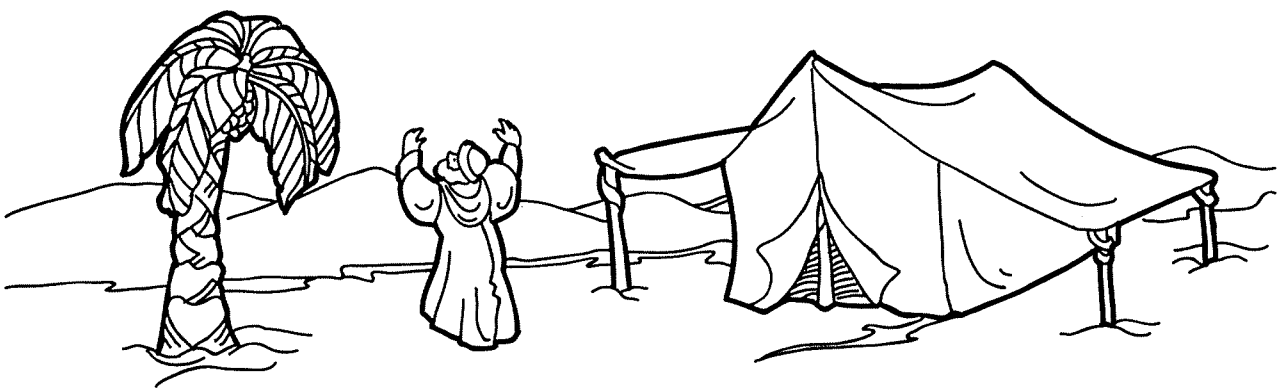

PROMISED MANY DESCENDANTS

MEMORY VERSE Genesis 15:2-6

He who promised is faithful. ~ Hebrews 10:23 NIV

INTRODUCTION Abraham felt sad. He did not have any children. One day, God took Abraham outside his tent and told him to look up into the night sky. Abraham looked up and saw millions of twinkling stars. Then God promised that Abraham would have as many children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren as there were stars. Even though it seemed impossible, Abraham believed in God's promise.

FINGERPRINT STARS Dip your pointer finger into yellow paint. Carefully paint yellow dots to fill up the sky with stars. When you're finished, try to count how many stars you made. Are there too many to count? Now you know how Abraham felt when God told him how many relatives he would have.

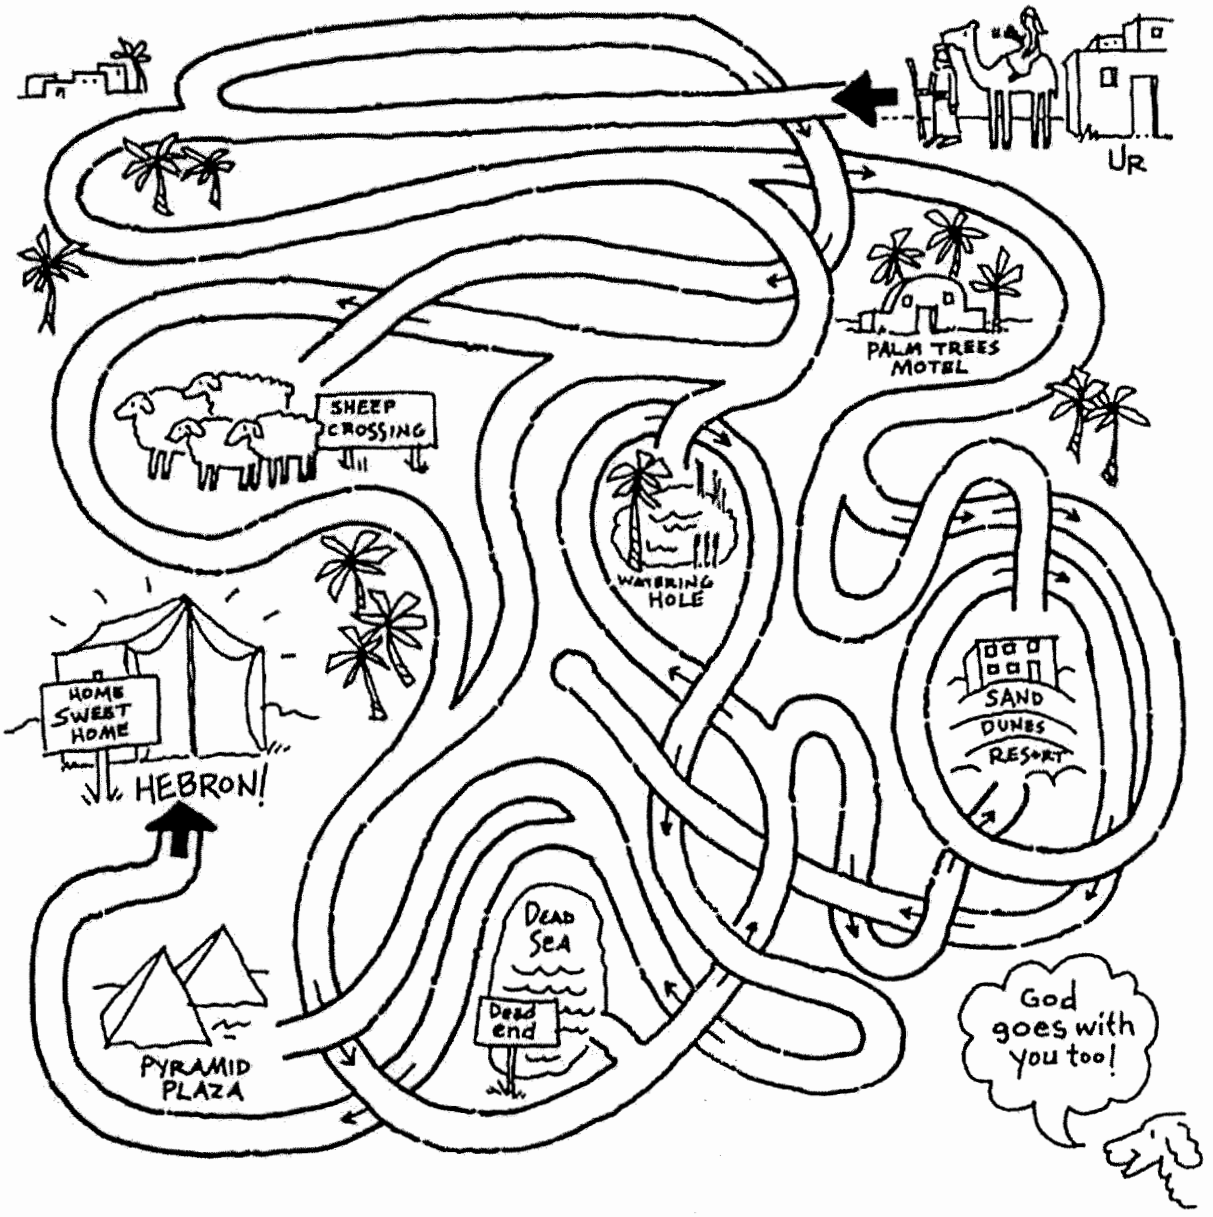

He who promised is faithful. ~ Hebrews 10:23 NIV

FOR THE TEACHER Duplicate a picture for each child. Help the children into paint smocks to protect their clothing. Provide yellow tempera paints in shallow dishes. Demonstrate how to dip one finger into the paint and make yellow dots in the sky. Explain that God gave Abraham a promise that seemed impossible. Nevertheless, God always keeps His promises.

Abraham and Sarah Move to a New Land

God told Abraham and Sarah to move to a new land. He promised to make Abraham's sons and daughters into a great nation. God said that one day the whole world would be blessed through a child born from Abraham's family.

God kept His promises when He sent Jesus to be our Savior. Jesus was a great-great-great ... grandson of Abraham and Sarah. Help Abraham and Sarah find their new home.

Thou shalt be a father of many nations. ~ Genesis 17:4

INTRODUCTION Abraham's name used to be "Abram." One day, God changed it! God told Abram that his new name would be "Abraham" because that meant "father of many nations." This was a very special honor God gave to Abraham. The Israelite nation was formed through this one man and his family.

FATHER ABRAHAM Color the picture of Abraham. Your teacher will give you a staff for Abraham. You can give this picture as a present to your father or mother. Remember that God is your heavenly Father. He watches you grow, protects you and gives you the things you need.

The Three Visitors

Genesis 18 NIV

Abraham was visited by 3 strangers and he treated them to the best he had.
While he was entertaining them he realized that they were angels.
They brought him some IMPORTANT NEWS.

They told him that by this time next year Sarah would have a son. When Sarah heard this she _ _ _ _ _ _ _ (Gen.18:12) to herself because she thought she was too old to have a baby.

Now the LORD knew her thoughts and said "Is _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ too _ _ _ _ for the LORD?" (Gen. 18:14)

They also told him that the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah were so sinful that they needed to be destroyed. Abraham was concerned about Lot, who lived there, and asked the LORD:

"Will you sweep away the _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ with the _ _ _ _ _ _?" (Gen 18:23).

The LORD agreed that if he found 10 righteous people there he would not destroy it.

Abraham's Sons

Main Points to Remember

1. God's plans will be fulfilled God's way, not ours.
2. Going outside God's ways brings strife and pain

Vocabulary: handmaiden: a female servant

Prayer: Father, please keep us from pursuing our plans and instead guide us through your plans

Activity: Make a timeline to show that God's time is larger than our time. Put Abraham and one end and Christ at the other. Talk about the promises God made to Abraham and mark their approximate completion on the timeline. Isaac was born when Abraham was 100 years old. A great people could start about the time of the captivity - 400 years after Abraham. The land would be about 50 years after that. The Messiah would come 2000 years after Abraham! Discuss how much sooner the son of promise came than the other promises. Which promises did Abraham live to see? Should we always expect to see all of God's promises fulfilled in our lifetime? No. There are some things we do that we may never see the full result of. But we must trust that the promise will be fulfilled and our efforts will be worth it all.

Discussion: Do the ends justify the means? Sarah felt that if she couldn't give Abraham a son, Hagar could. She failed to rely on God to give them both a son. God often asks us to participate is his plans, but that doesn't mean we can change his plans. We can't use any old means to achieve God's ends. The crusaders felt they could torture people into "converting" to Christianity. Many people today feel they can worship, or obey, in whatever fashion they desire, as long as their "goal" is to worship or obey. God wants "obedience more than sacrifice". He wants us to submit, and trust that his ways will accomplish his plans.

Activity: Add Ishmael and Isaac to a family tree that will develop as the lessons progress. Have the students make generic paper people (like Bible Friends). Name them and post them on a board, using yarn or dots to connect the family lines. A great source for OT family tree information is: http://bible.ort.org/books/gened2.asp

True/False

1. God intended from Abraham's son to be from Hagar. F
2. Abraham and his wife were beyond child-bearing age. T
3. Sarah loved Ishmael and Hagar. F
4. Hagar was rescued by the Angel of the Lord. T
5. Ishmael was the son that God promised Abraham. F

Memory Work

- "No longer shall your name be called Abram, but your name shall be Abraham, for I have made you a father of many nations." Genesis 17:5

Review Questions (can be used with gameboard)

linguistic questions

1. Where in the Bible is this lesson found? Genesis

2. Fill in the blank: "I have made you a father of many _____." nations
3. Name the wife and sons of Abraham.

activity questions

1. Draw a quick family tree of Abraham's family.
2. Act out Sarah being harsh to Hagar.
3. Describe what is happening in the picture of the Ishmael Bible Trading Card.

emotion questions

1. Why did Sarah give Hagar to Abraham? She wanted a son by any means.
2. Why was Sarah harsh with Hagar? 1) because Hagar disdained Sarah, 2) she worried that Ishmael wc take Isaac's place
3. How do you think Hagar felt when she was sent away? hopeless, used
4. How do you think she felt when the Angel of the Lord saved her? rescued, reborn application questions

1. Will altering God's plan bring joy or pain? pain
2. Can God accomplish his plans his way? always
3. It's easy to take our failures out on others? How can we avoid being like Sarah? 1) don't try to alter God's plans, 2) confess our error and take responsibility for our mistakes fact questions

1. Who was Hagar? Sarah's servant
2. Who was Ishmael? Hagar's son with Abraham
3. Who was the son of promise? Isaac
4. How old was Abraham when Isaac was born? 100

review questions

1. Why was Isaac obviously a special child? only God could make a child from two people as old as Sa and Abraham
2. Why was Ishmael promised a nation? because he was also a child of Abraham
3. Was Ishmael's life easy? no, God said "his hand shall be against every man, and every man's hand against him"

ABRAHAM

A TRUE TEST OF LOVE

MEMORY VERSE

We ought to obey God. ~ Acts 5:29

Genesis 22:1-18

INTRODUCTION God decided to test Abraham to see if Abraham loved his son Isaac more than God. God told Abraham to bring Isaac to a mountain and sacrifice (or kill) the boy. Abraham obeyed God by bringing Isaac to the mountain. Just when he was ready to sacrifice his son, an angel told Abraham, "Stop." Abraham sacrificed a sheep instead. This story shows us that Abraham loved God most of all.

FIND THE SHEEP Help Abraham find the sheep in the bushes. Glue a piece of cotton on the sheep when you find it. Then color the picture. As you color, think of ways you can show God you love Him. Say, "Thank You, God, for giving me the Bible so that I can learn how to love You more."

FOR THE TEACHER Duplicate a picture for each child. Tell the story and help each child find the sheep (see page 95). Provide tiny bits of cotton and glue sticks. Help the children spread the glue and then add the cotton. Let them color the other hidden animals to match the bushes. Talk about the animals as the children find them.

Abraham and Isaac Worship on the Mountain

God told Abraham to go to a mountain and offer his son Isaac as a sacrifice. Abraham obeyed, but God stopped him from hurting Isaac. Follow the maze up the mountain to find out why Isaac wasn't sacrificed.

Nell de Vries and Mary Currier. More Bible Activities You Can Do. Grand Rapids, MI: Baker Books Publisher, 1999.

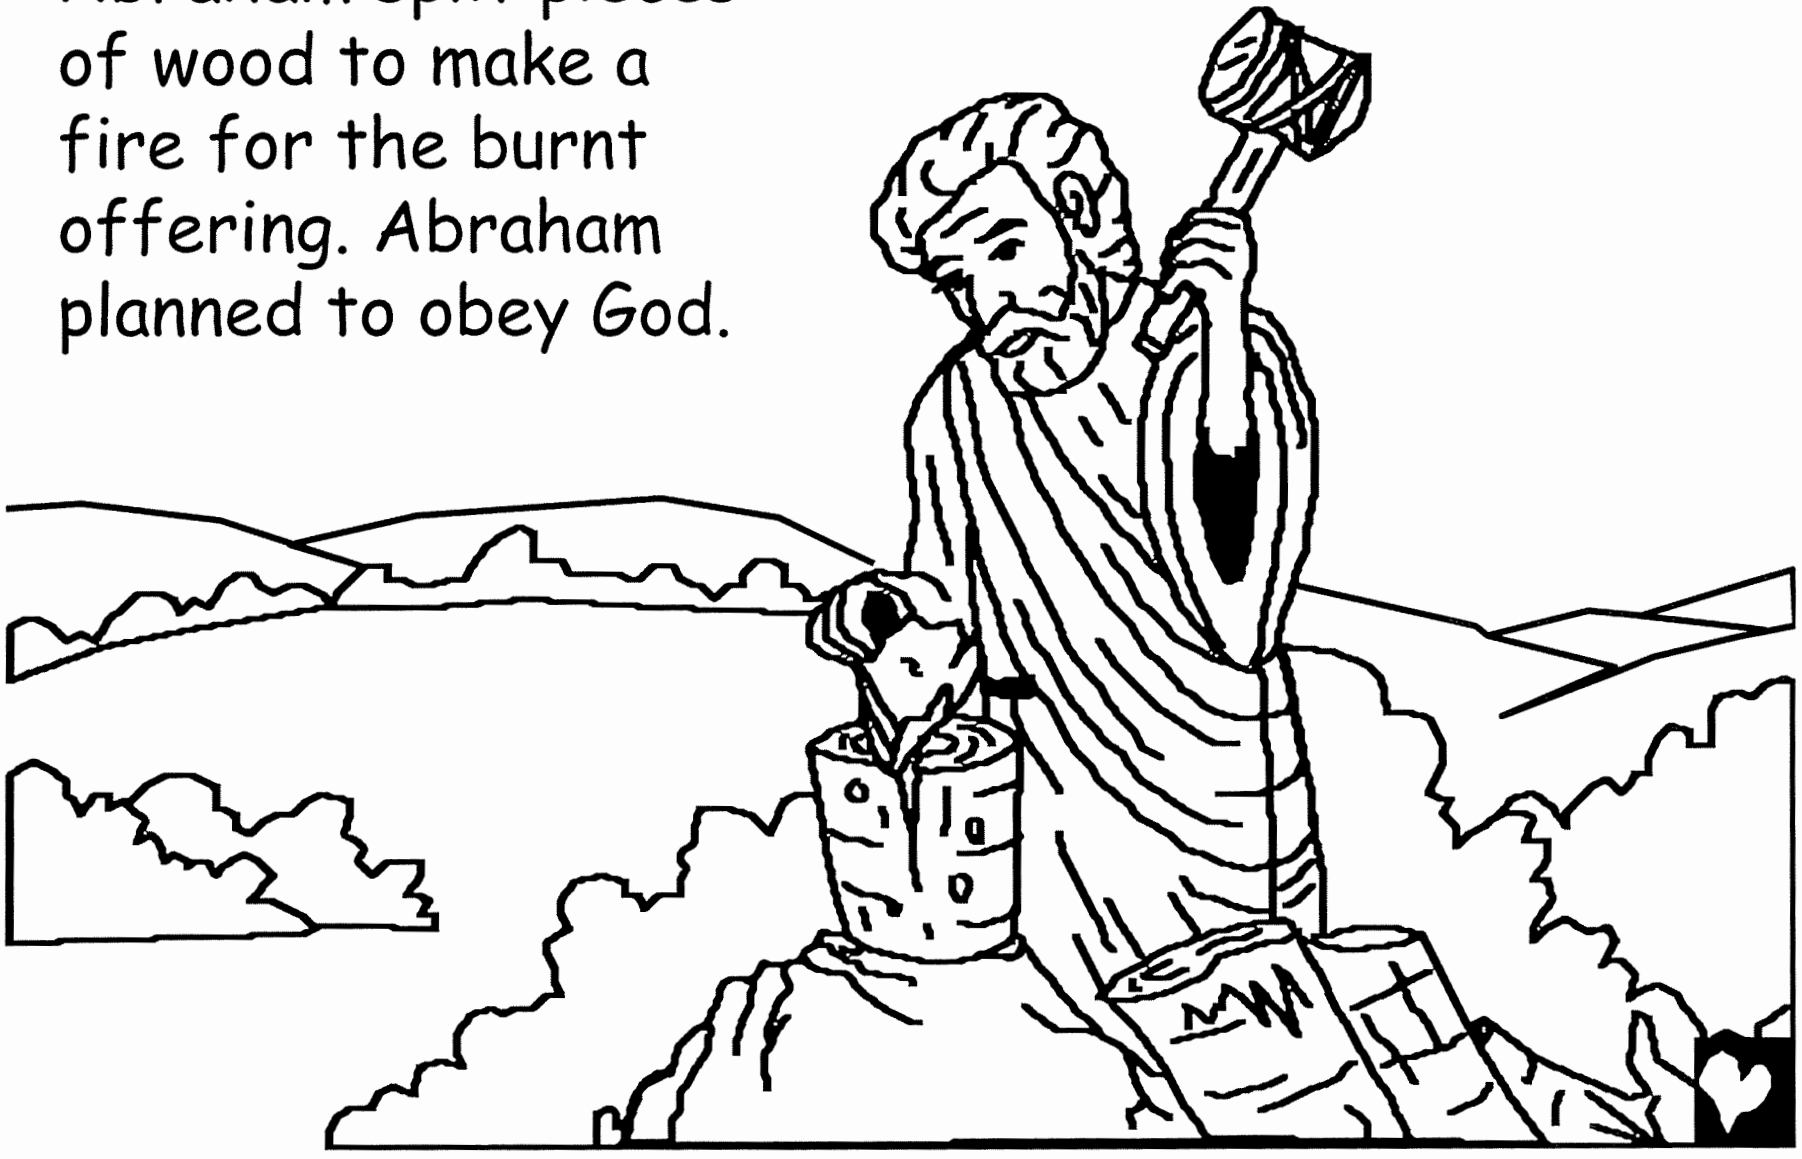

One night God gave Abraham a strange command. It was a test to see if Abraham loved his son Isaac more than he loved God.

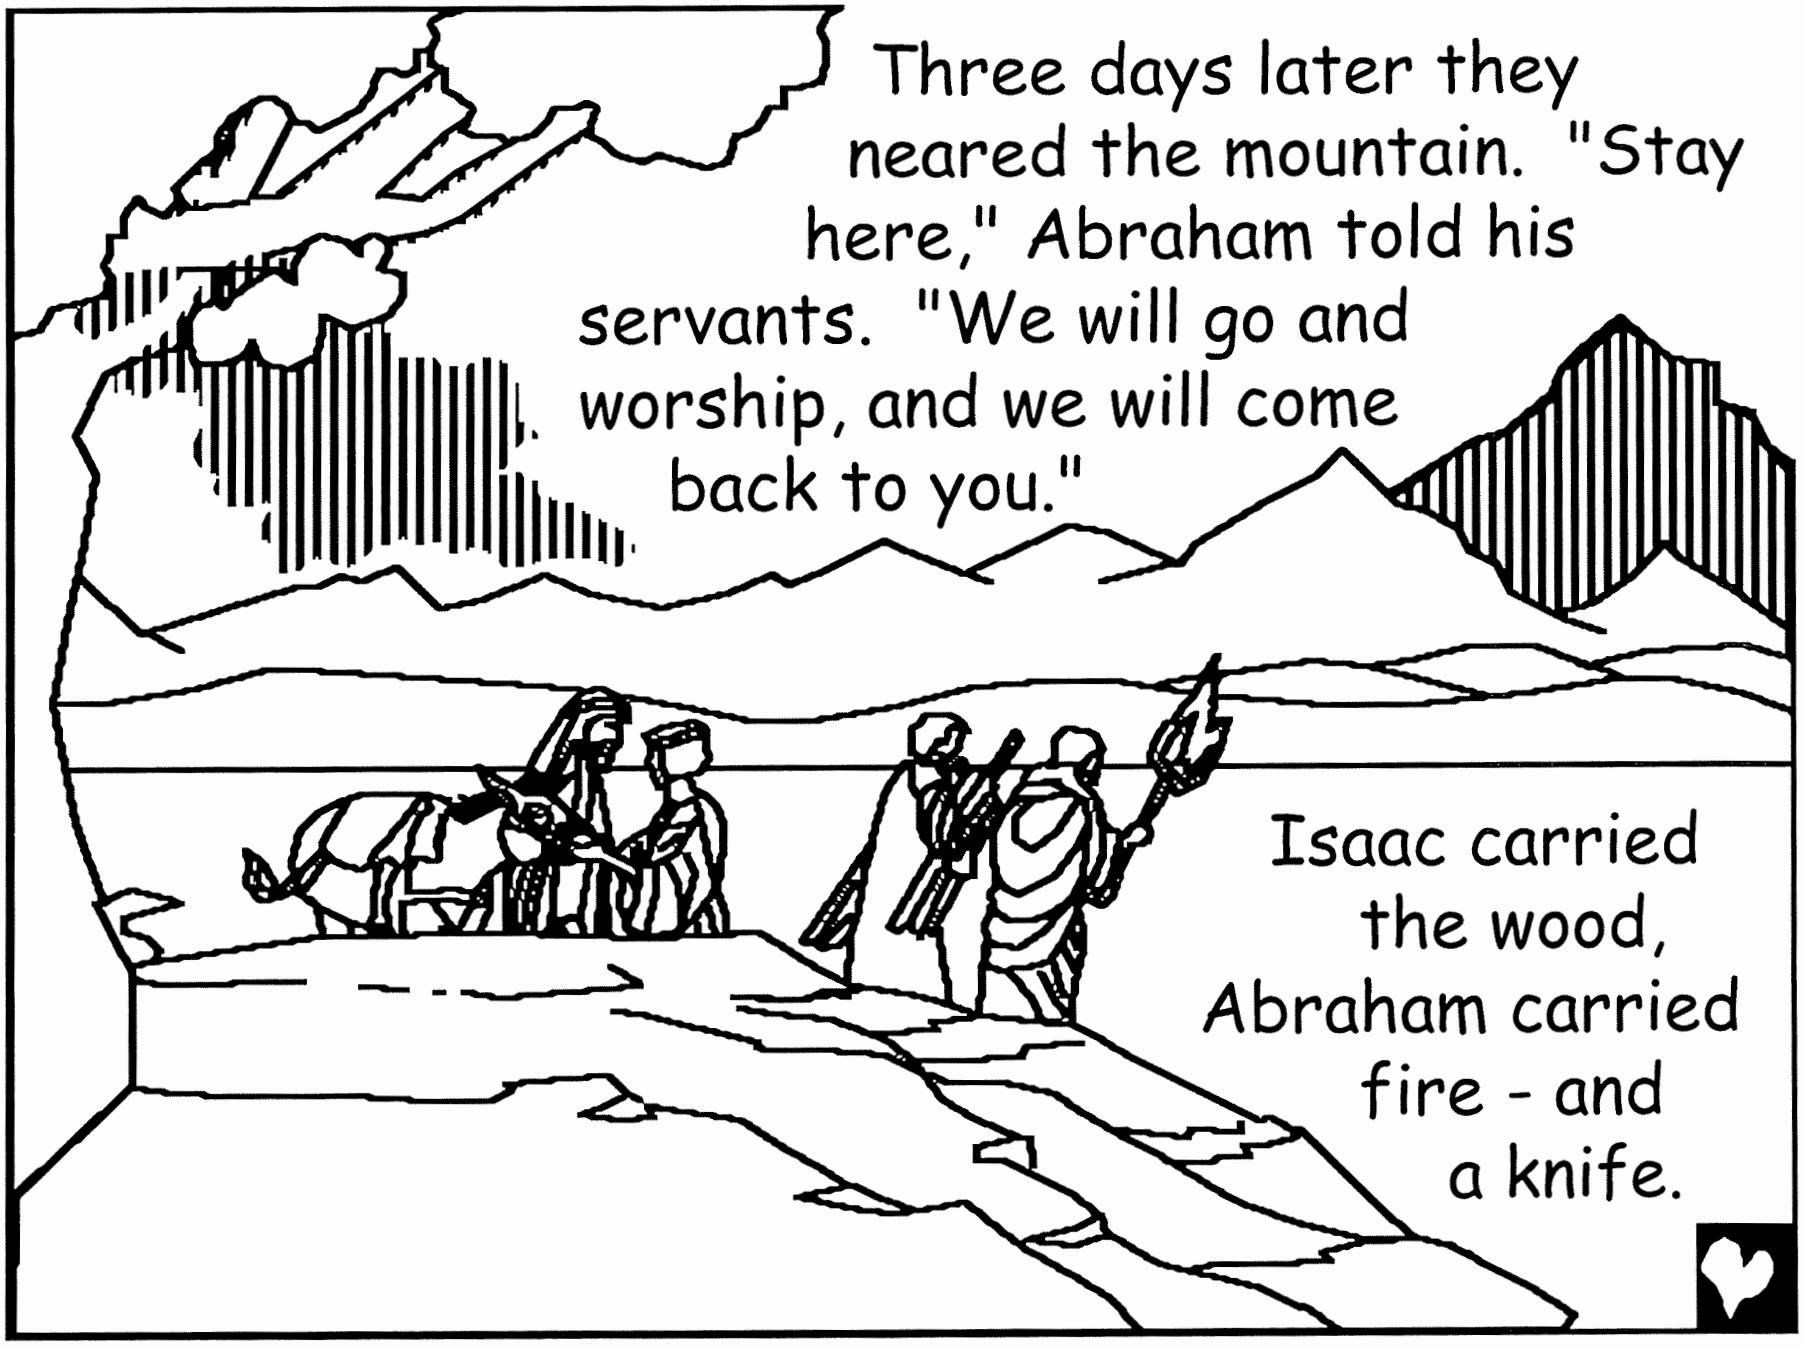

"Take your son Isaac, and offer him as a burnt offering," God commanded. Offer Isaac? Sacrifice his son? That was hard for Abraham. He loved his son very much.

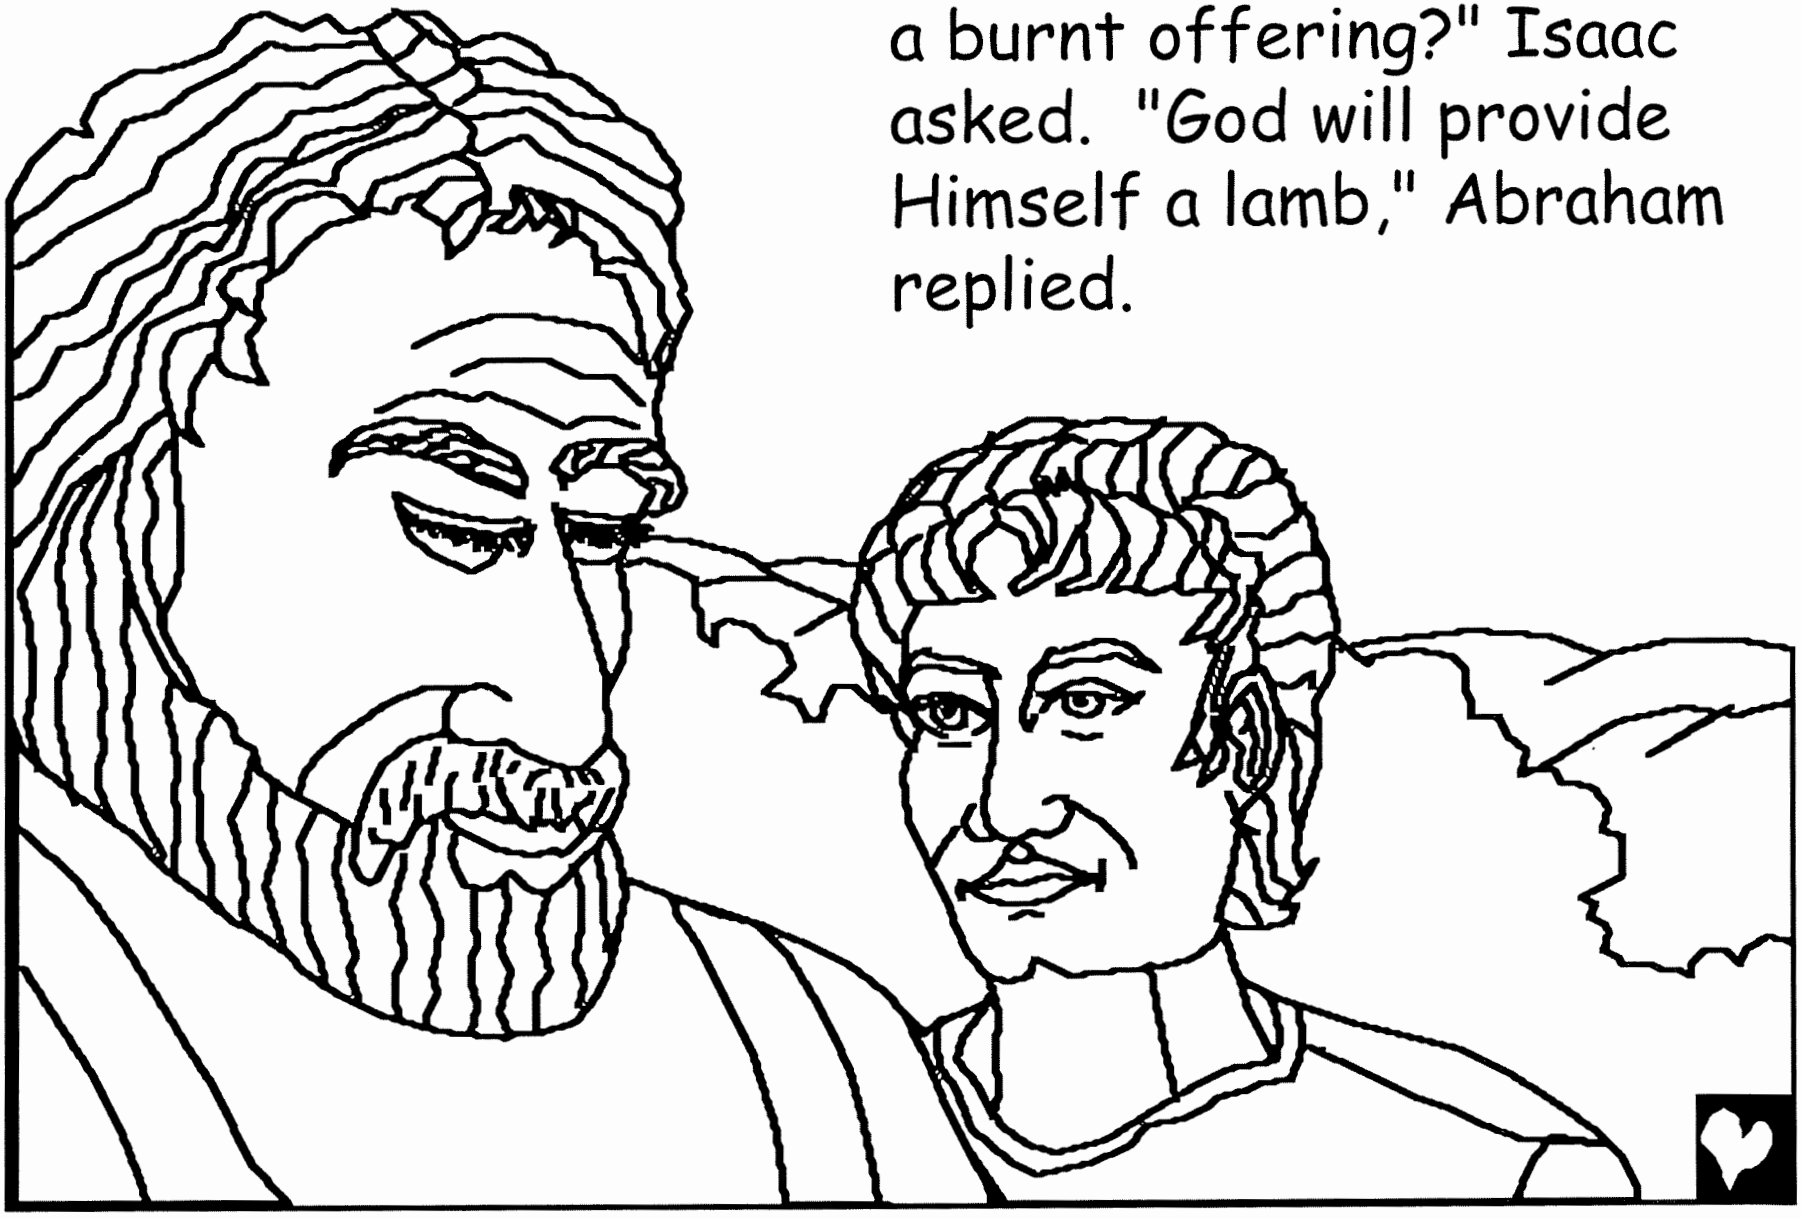

But Abraham had learned to trust
God even when he did not understand.
In the morning he set out for the mountain of sacrifice with Isaac and two servants.

Before leaving, Abraham split pieces of wood to make a fire for the burnt offering. Abraham planned to obey God.

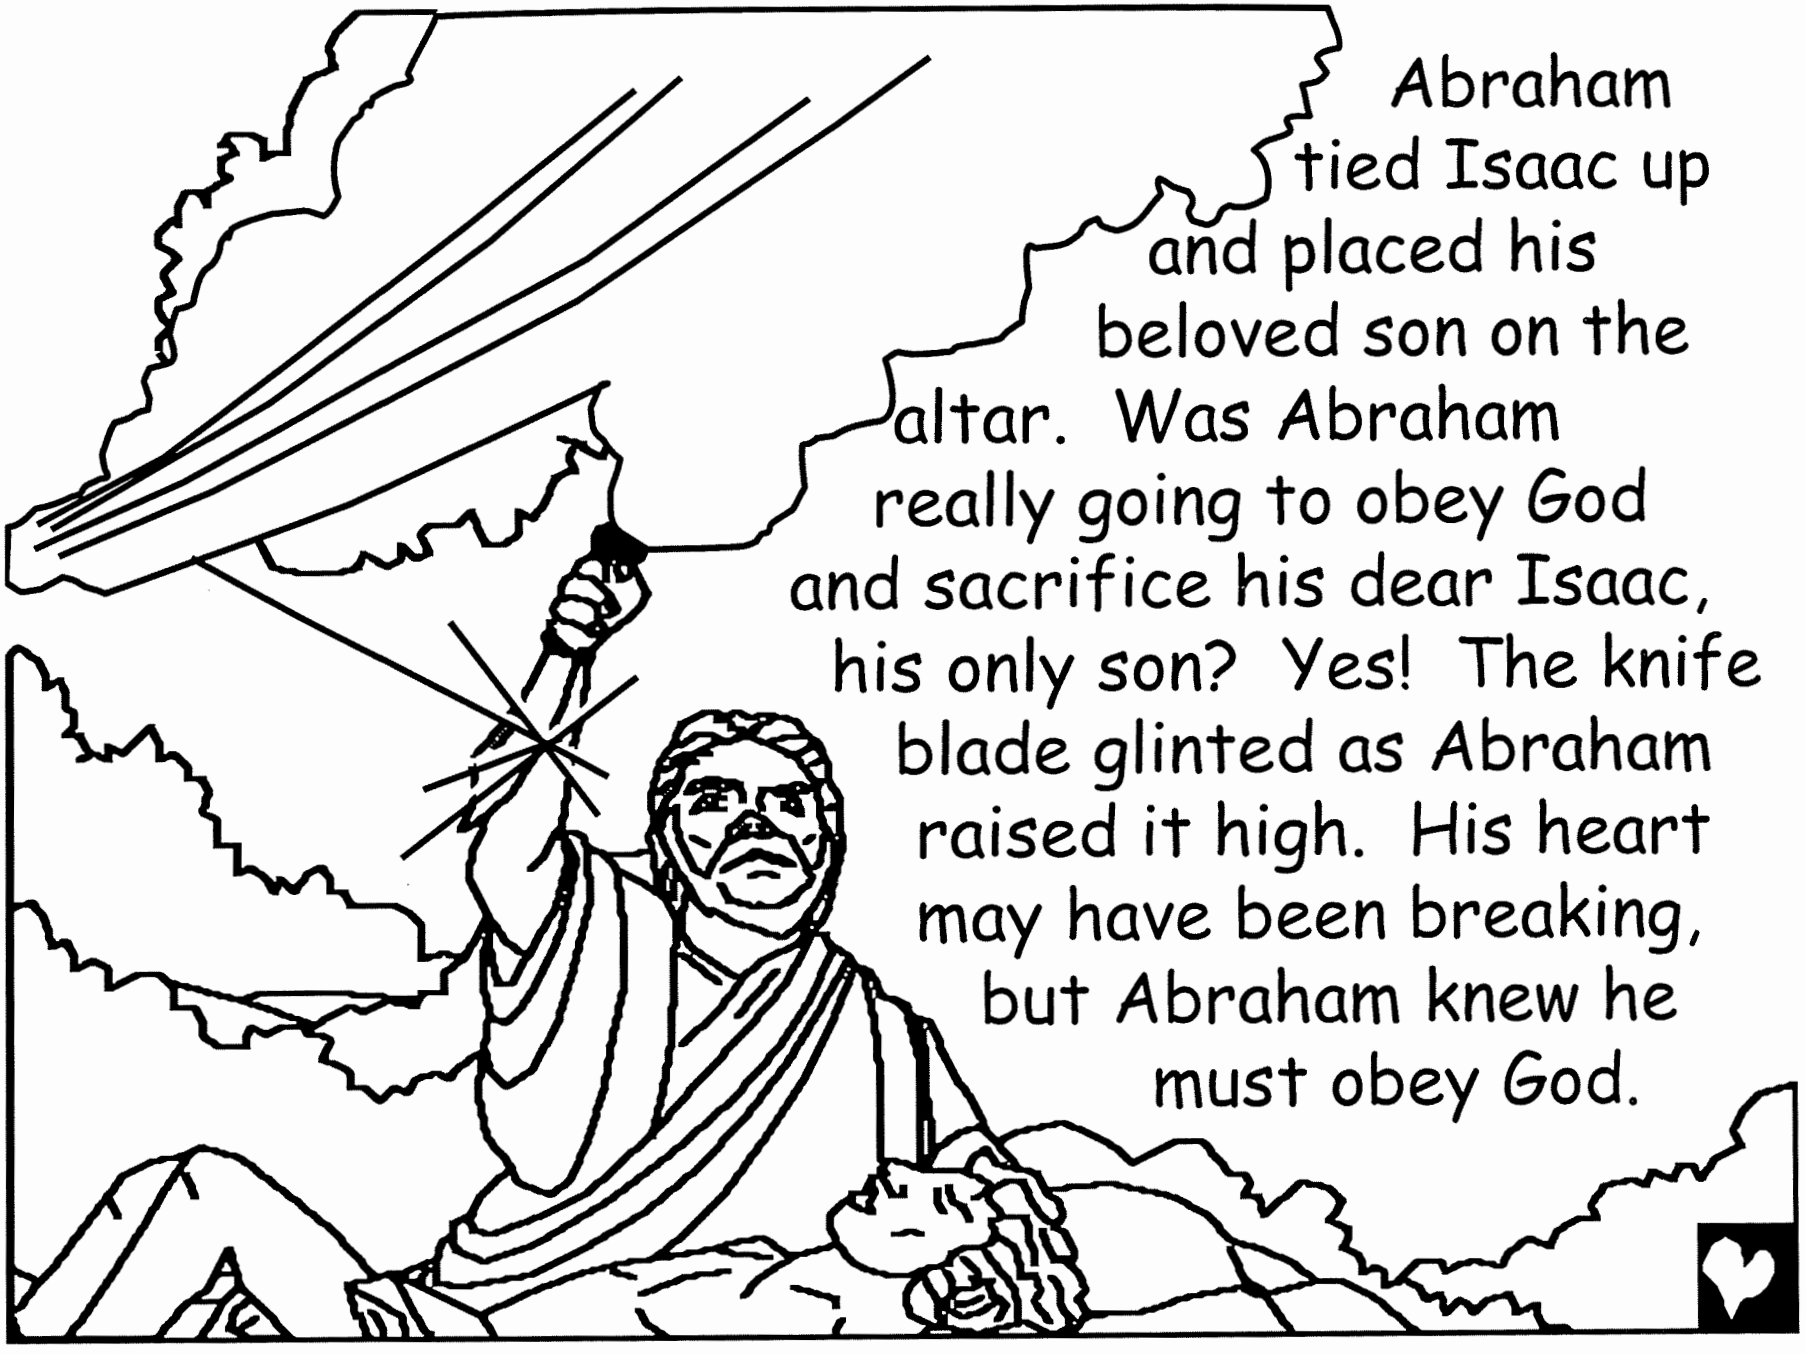

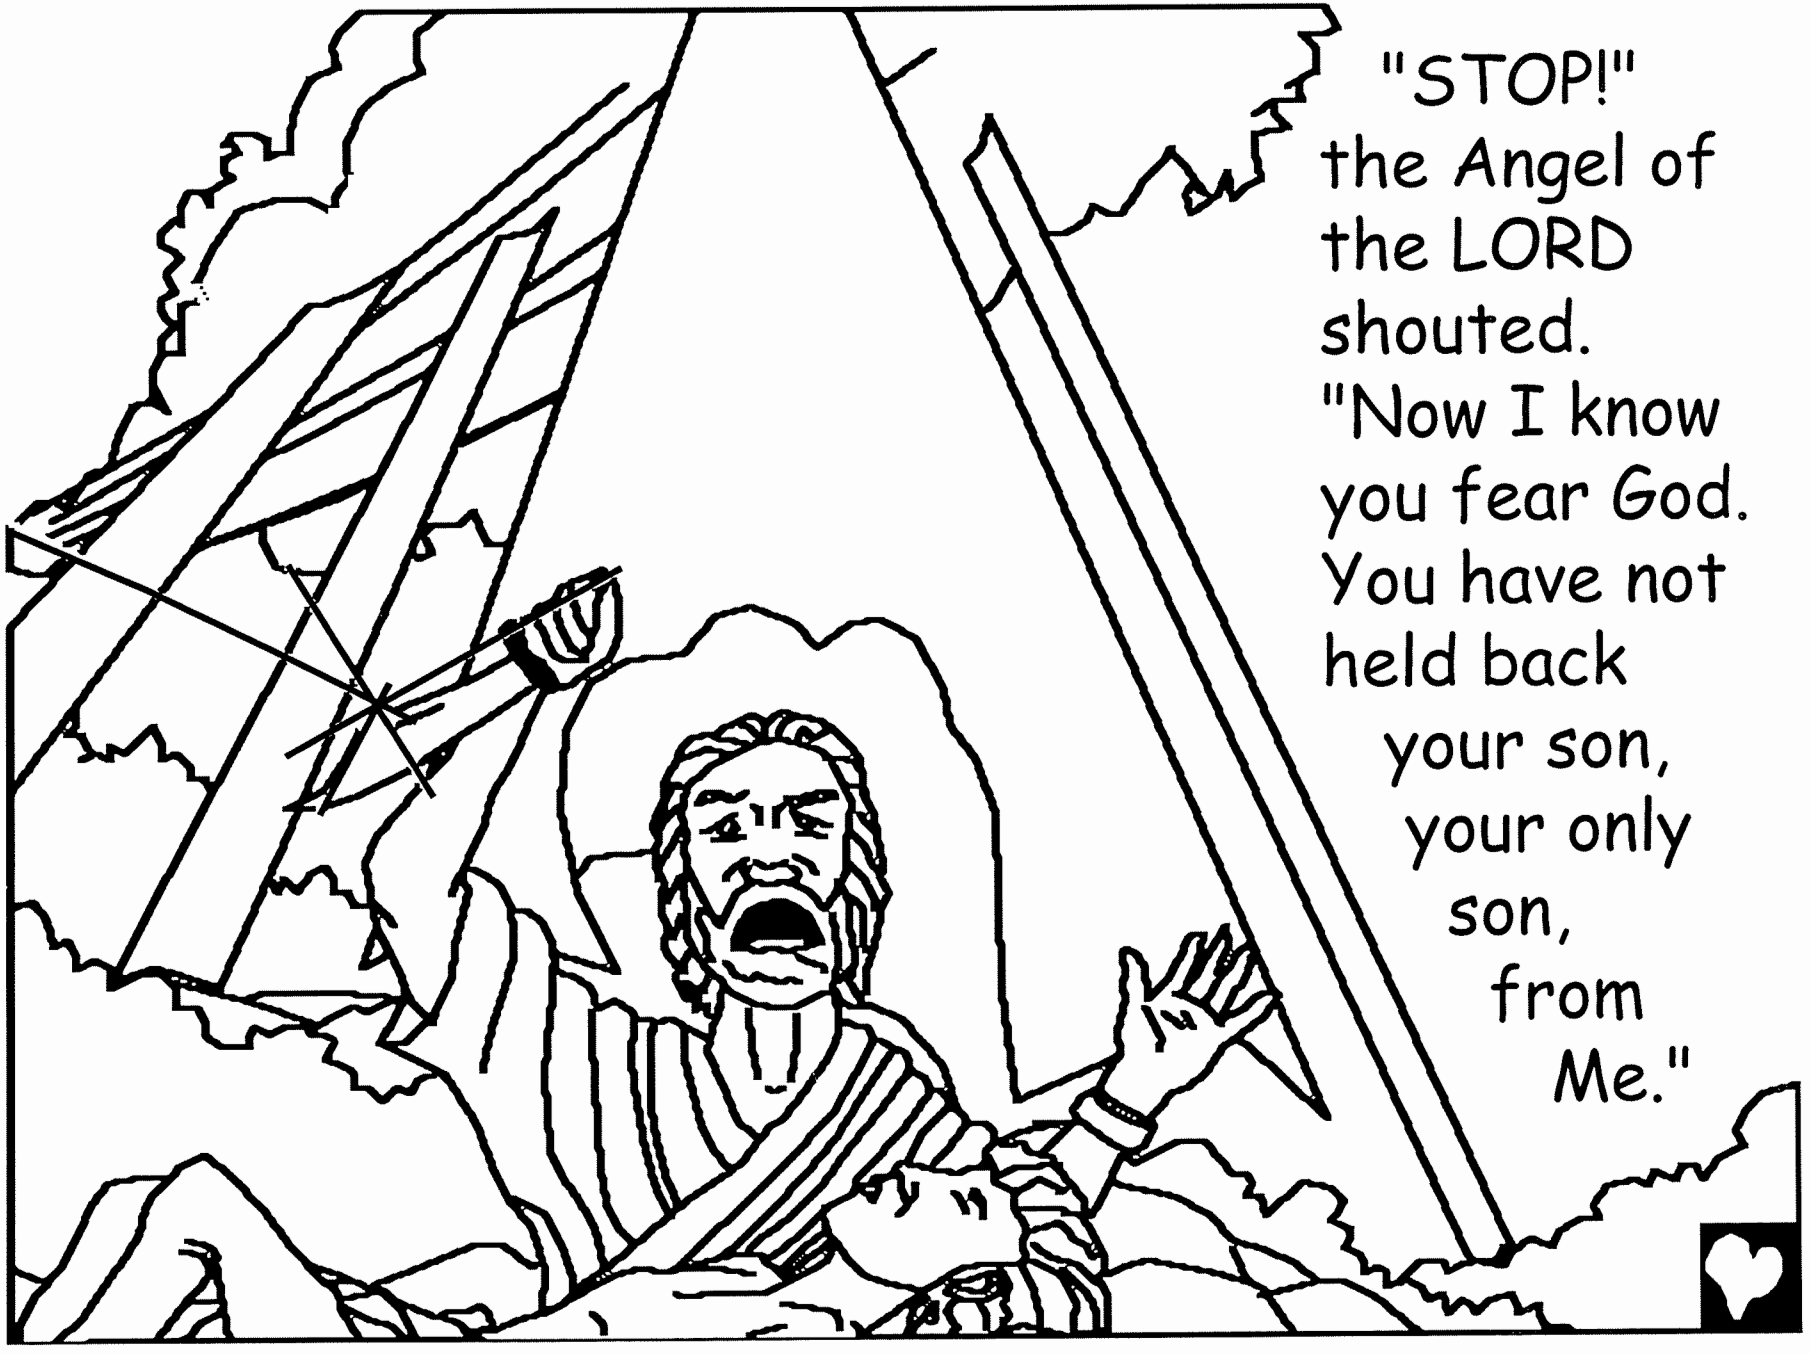

Three days later they neared the mountain. "Stay here," Abraham told his servants. "We will go and worship, and we will come back to you."
Isaac carried the wood, Abraham carried fire - and a knife.

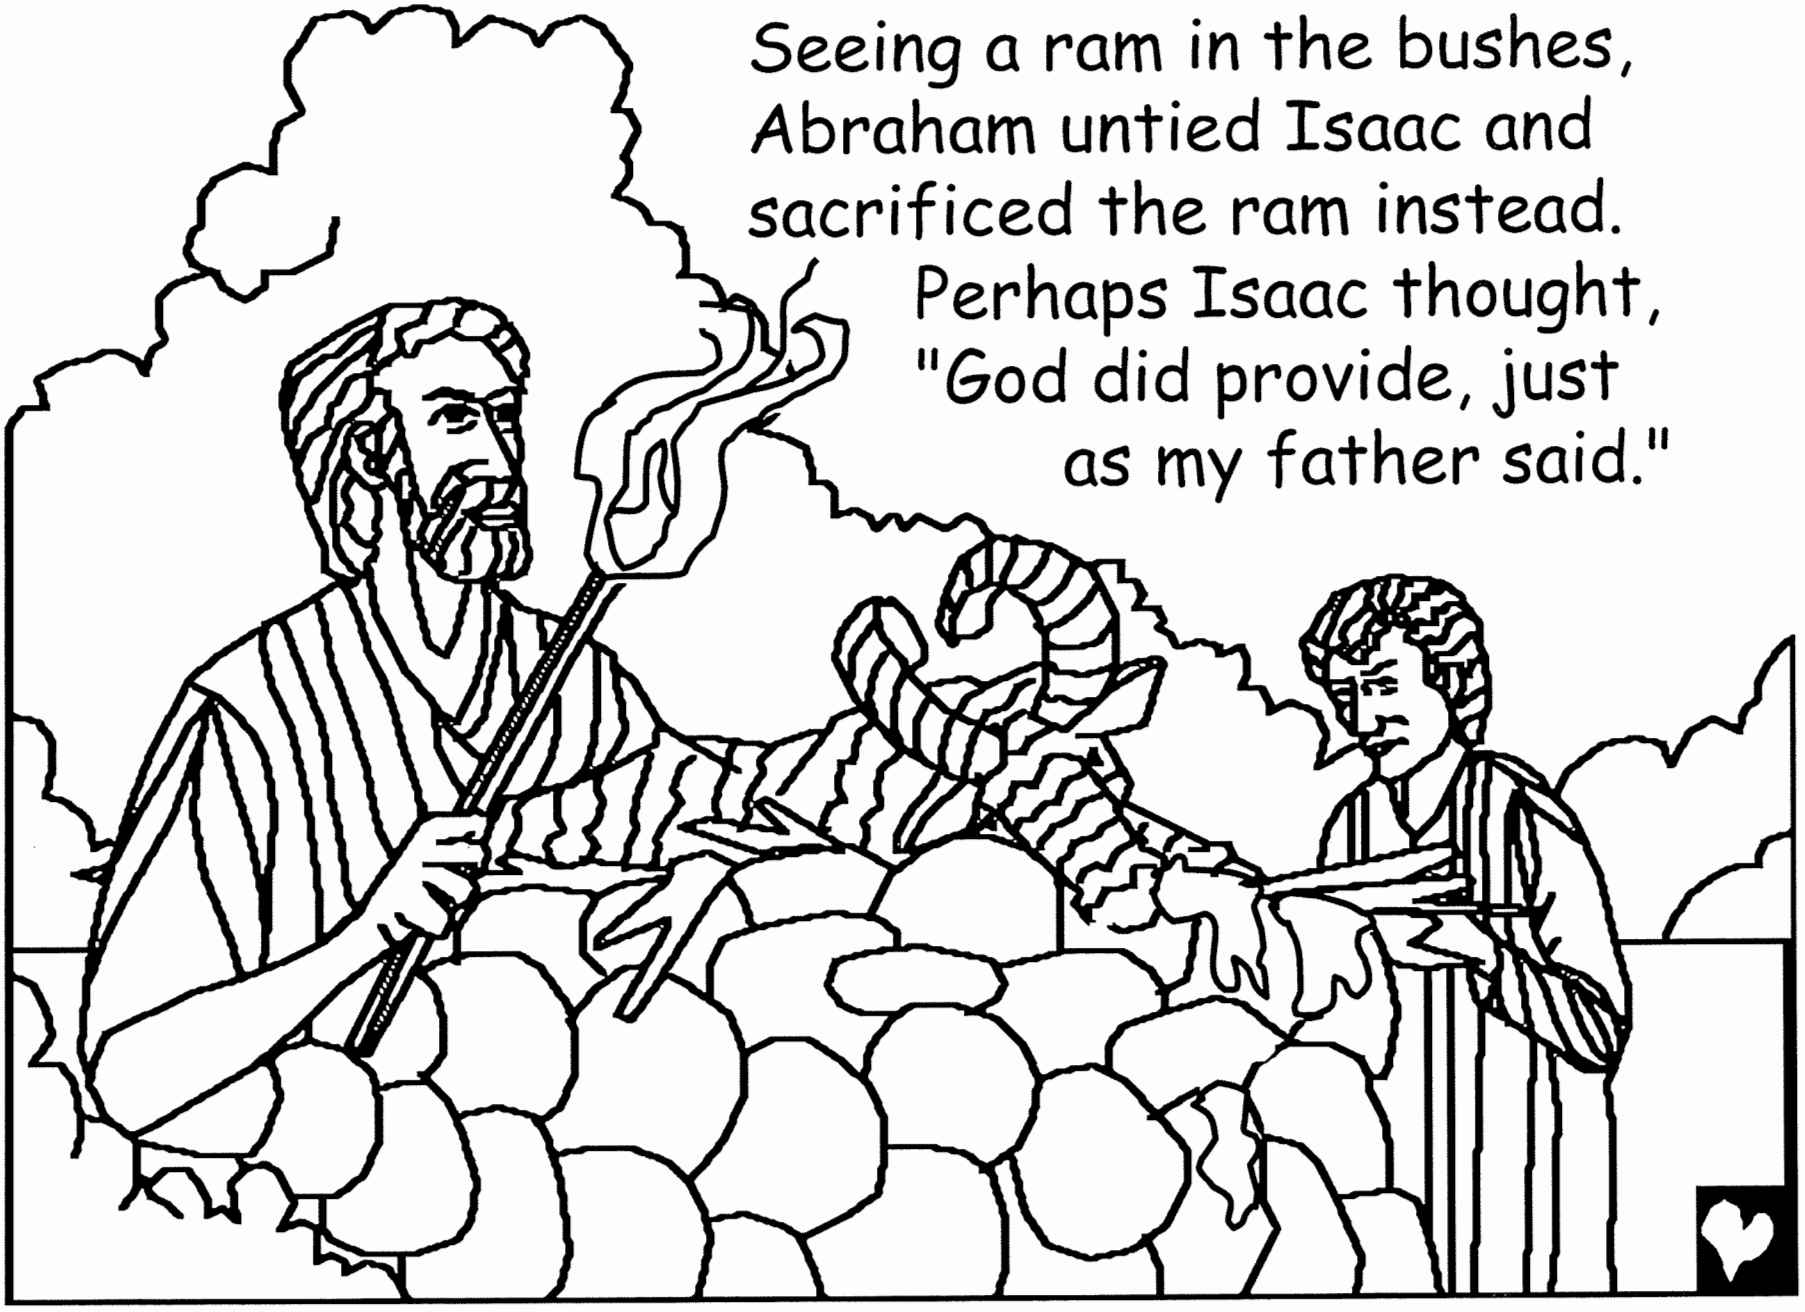

"Where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" Isaac asked. "God will provide Himself a lamb," Abraham replied.

The two came to the exact place chosen by God. There, Abraham built an altar and arranged the wood to burn the sacrifice before God. Abraham had built many altars. Surely this one was the hardest ever to build.

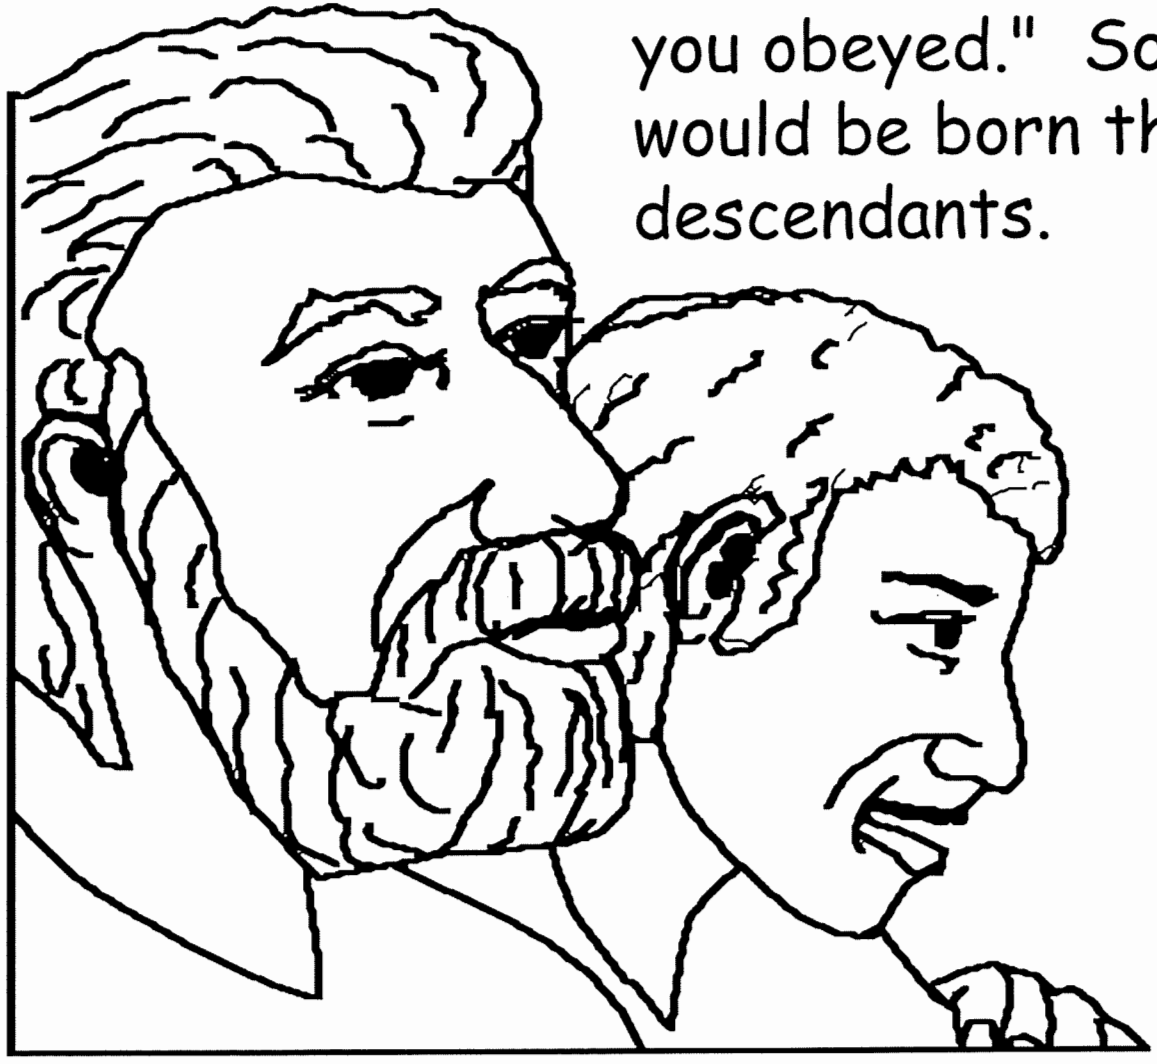

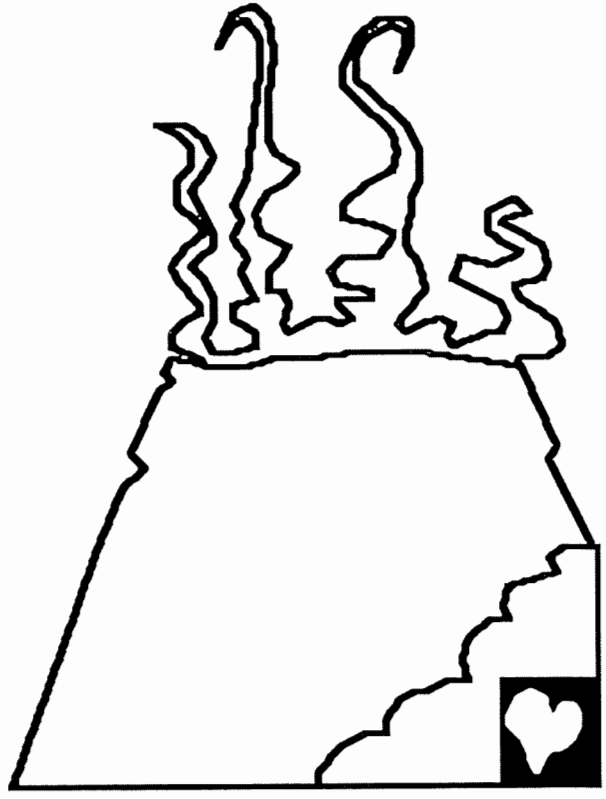

Abraham tied Isaac up and placed his beloved son on the altar. Was Abraham really going to obey God and sacrifice his dear Isaac, his only son? Yes! The knife blade glinted as Abraham raised it high. His heart may have been breaking, but Abraham knew he must obey God.

"STOP!"
the Angel of the LORD
shouted.
"Now I know
you fear God.
You have not held back
your son, your only son,
from Me."

Seeing a ram in the bushes,
Abraham untied Isaac and sacrificed the ram instead.
Perhaps Isaac thought,
"God did provide, just as my father said."

While father and son worshiped, the Angel of the LORD spoke to Abraham. "In your children, all nations shall be blessed because you obeyed." Someday, Jesus would be born through Abraham's descendants.

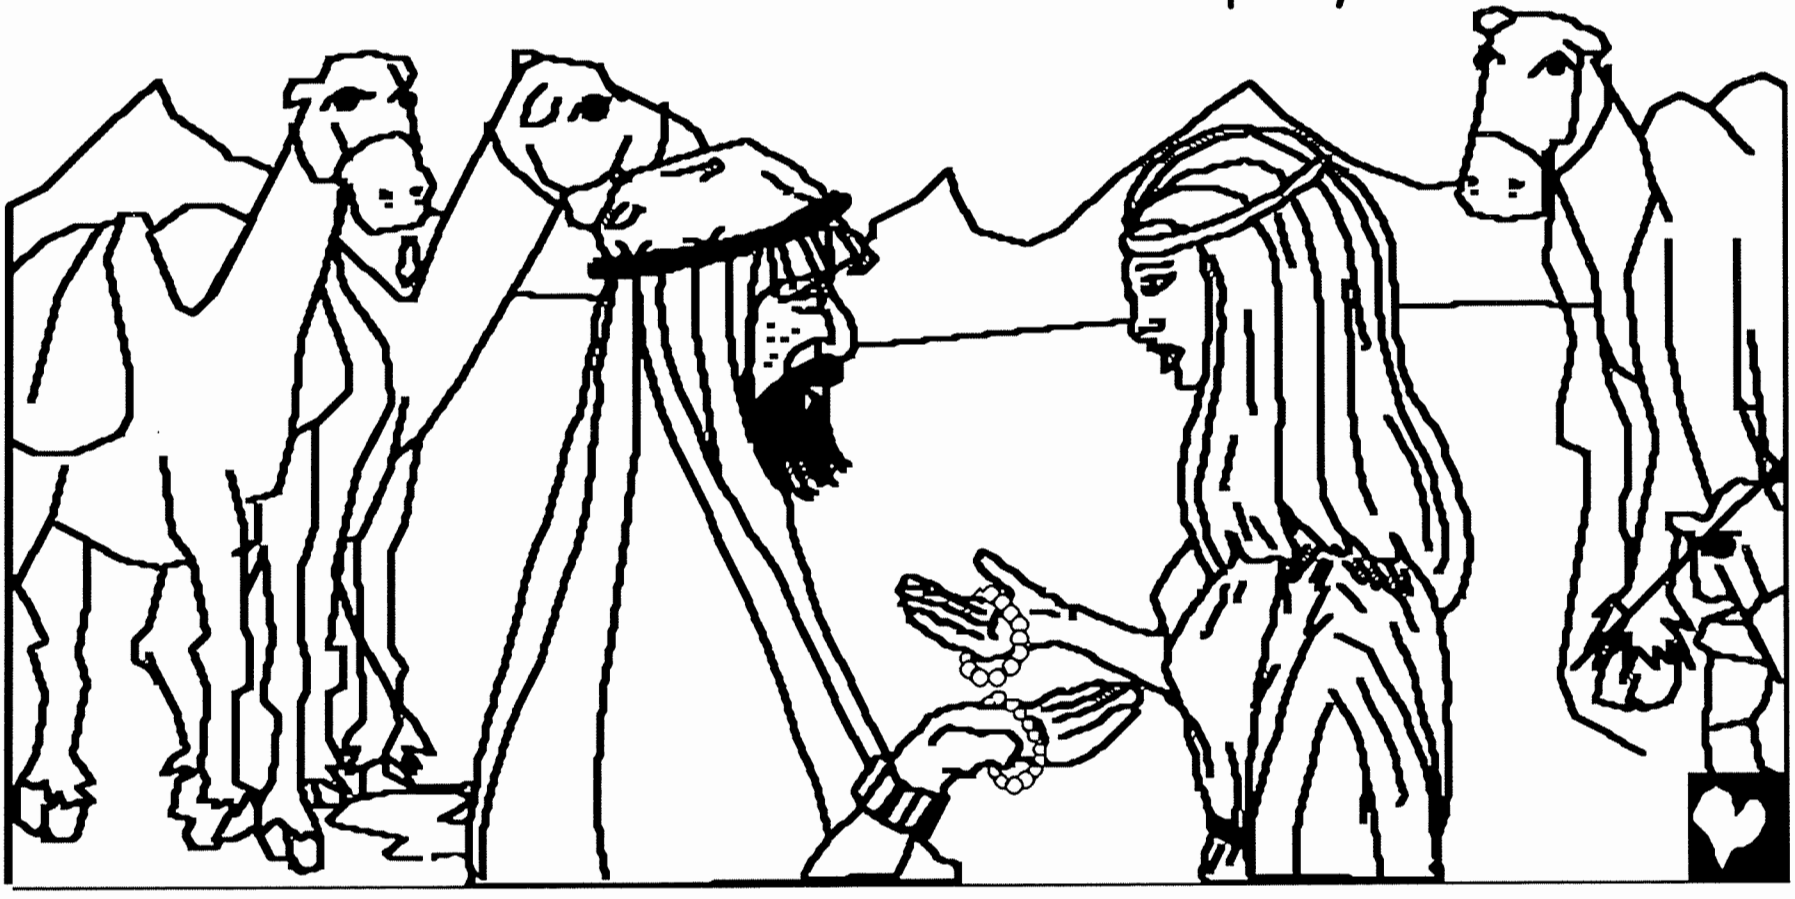

Abraham and Isaac returned home. Some time later, sadness came. Sarah died. Abraham had lost his wife, and Isaac had lost his mother.

After the funeral, Abraham sent his chief servant to look for a wife for Isaac. The servant went to their old homeland to find a wife among Abraham's relatives.

The servant asked God for a sign. "Let the girl who offers water for my camels be the right one for Isaac." Immediately Rebekah offered to give them water. She was one of Abraham's relatives. The servant knew God had answered his prayer.

Stop!

Abraham was going to follow God's command and offer his son, Isaac, as a burnt offering. Write the letter that comes after the letter given to see what an angel of the Lord said to Abraham. Read the story in Genesis 22:1-13.

Jacob and Esau

Scriptures: Genesis 25:19-34

Key Verse: Gen 25:31 And Jacob said, "Sell me this day thy birthright."

Key Points:

1. After many years, Rebekah became pregnant with twins.

2. God explained that the children would have very different personalities and that the one born last (Jacob) would rule over the one born first (Esau).

3. Each parent had a favorite child and this caused problems.

4. Esau traded his birthright for a pot of stew. He did not value his birthright, and did not put God first in his life.

Jacob and Esau

Scriptures: Genesis 25:19-34

Key Verse:

Gen 25:31 And Jacob said, "Sell me this day thy birthright."

Key Points:

1. What are some examples of others who pleaded with God to become pregnant?
2. When Rebekah inquired of God, He said, "There are two nations in your womb". To what two nations is he referring?
3. According to this prophecy, what nation would serve the other?
4. Were Jacob and Esau identical twins?
5. By tradition, who was the rightful heir of Isaac? What would he receive?
6. Why did Esau sell his birthright to Jacob? Was this a good thing or was it foolish?
7. Consider Hebrews 12:16-17. Did God look favorably upon Esau's selling of the birthright? Was he able to get the inheritance back?
8. If we are a child of God, we can receive the promise of His inheritance. How could we, as children of God, lose our birthright?
9. What would be the "one morsel of food" for a Christian?

Esau sells his birthright to Jacob for some stew

Esau sells his birthright – Genesis 25

33 Then Jacob said, [b]"Swear to me as of this day."

So he swore to him, and sold his birthright to Jacob. 34 And Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils; then he ate and drank, arose, and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright.

Find the hidden items in the picture.

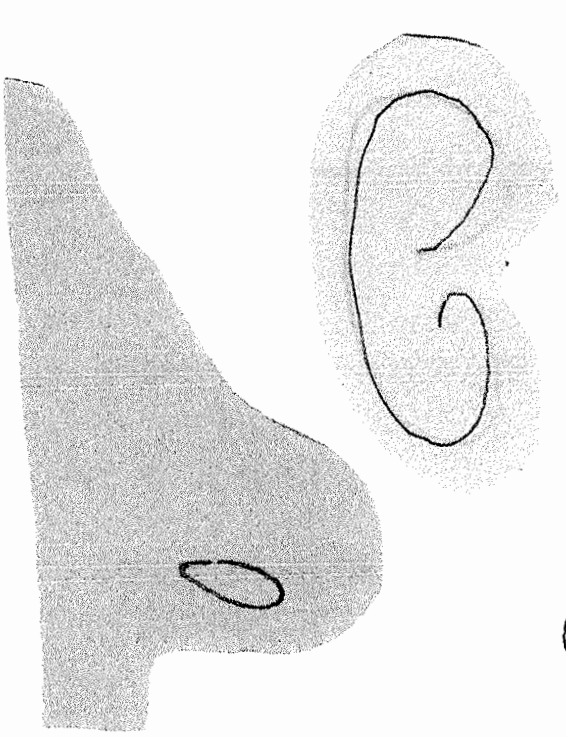

Esau was older than his twin brother, Jacob, so the family birthright belonged to him. That meant he would someday be the family leader. One day Esau was very hungry. He wanted some of the stew Jacob made, so he traded his birthright for a bowl of Jacob's stew.

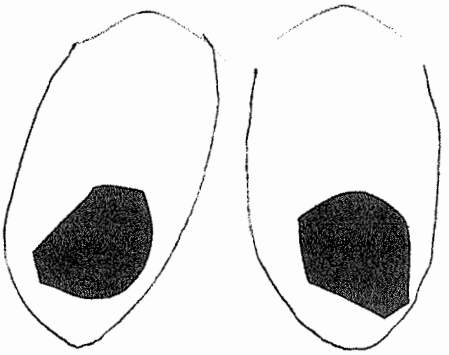

Isaac could not see well

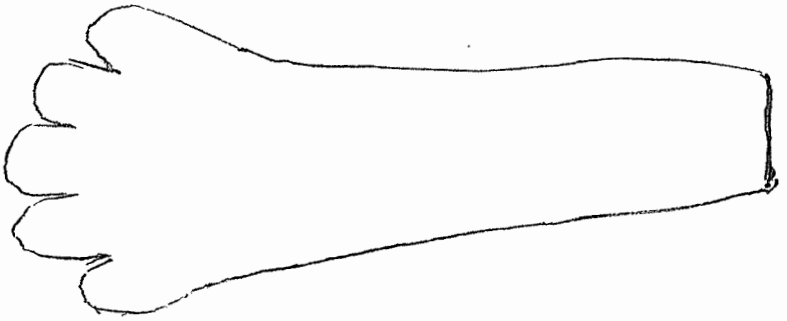

Jacob sounded like himself

Jacob smelled like Esau

Jacob felt like Esau

Cut out figures of eyes, ears, noses and arms from construction paper. Cut out descriptions about Jacob for each child. Glue on to construction paper. Felt or fake hair can be added to the arm if wanted.

Jacob Gets Isaac's Blessing

Scriptures: Genesis 27

Key Verse: Gen. 27:38 And Esau said to his father, "Have you only one blessing? Bless me—me also, Oh my father"

Key Points:

1. Isaac was old and he wanted to bless Esau before he died.

2. Rebekah and Jacob tricked Isaac into giving Jacob the blessing that should have been Esau's.

3. Esau was very angry and planned to kill Jacob after their father died.

4. Rebekah and Isaac sent Jacob to his uncle Laban to save him from Esau and to find a wife.

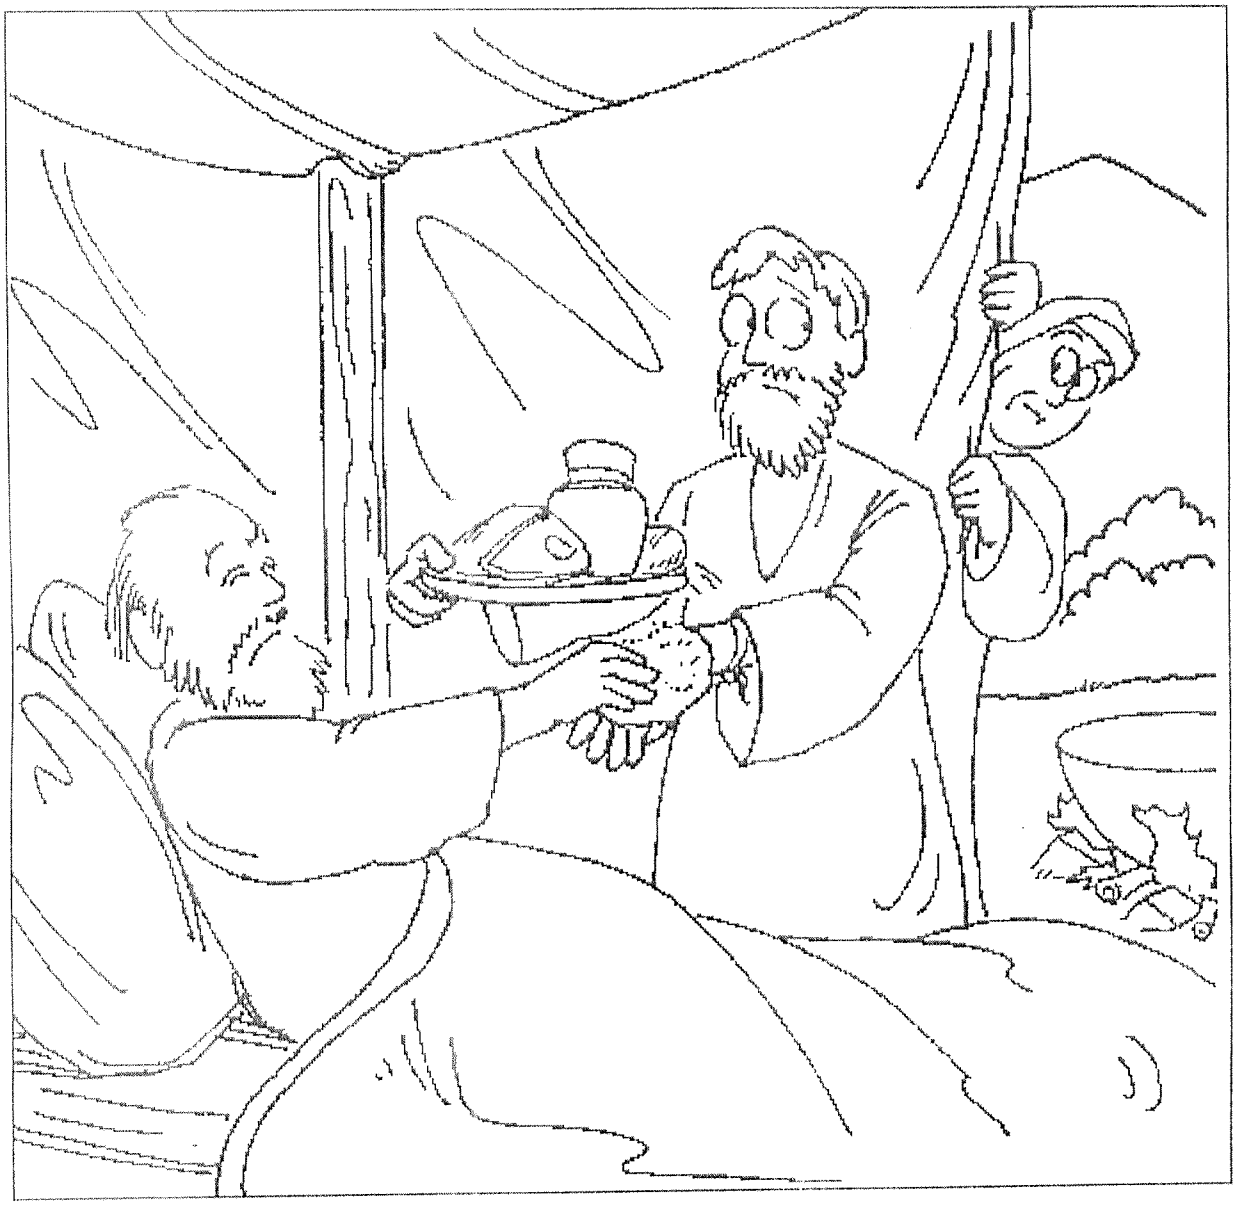

Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau despised his birthright.

Genesis 27:46-Genesis 28:22
Lesson 19--Jacob's Dream

Name _____

27:46 Then Rebekah said to Isaac, "I'm disgusted with living because of these Hittite women. If Jacob takes a wife from among the women of this land, from Hittite women like these, my life will not be worth living."

1. What is Rebekah upset about in Gen. 27:46?

2. Look at Gen. 26:34-35. What's the problem?

28:1 So Isaac called for Jacob and blessed him and commanded him: "Do not marry a Canaanite woman. 2 Go at once to Paddan Aram, to the house of your mother's father Bethuel. Take a wife for yourself there, from among the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother. 3 May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and increase your numbers until you become a community of peoples. 4 May he give you and your descendants the blessing given to Abraham, so that you may take possession of the land where you now live as an alien, the land God gave to Abraham." 5 Then Isaac sent Jacob on his way, and he went to Paddan Aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, who was the mother of Jacob and Esau.

3. In Gen. 27, Jacob with his mother's help had deceived Isaac to get the blessing instead of Esau. Now in Gen. 28 Isaac willingly blesses Jacob. Look back at Gen. 25:23. What did God tell Rebekah before the twins were born?

4. What does Isaac command Jacob to do about finding a wife?

5. How is Jacob's experience in finding a wife different than his father's?

6. Highlight the blessing Isaac gives Jacob in verses 3 and 4. Why does this sound familiar?

6 Now Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Paddan Aram to take a wife from there, and that when he blessed him he commanded him, "Do not marry a Canaanite woman," 7 and that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and had gone to Paddan Aram. 8 Esau then realized how displeasing the Canaanite women were to his father Isaac; 9 so he went to Ishmael and married Mahalath, the sister of Nebaioth and daughter of Ishmael son of Abraham, in addition to the wives he already had.

7. What does Esau finally realize about his marriages?

8. What does Esau do to try to please his father?

9. Notice how important and serious it is to God that you marry the right person!

10 Jacob left Beersheba and set out for Haran. 11 When he reached a certain place, he stopped for the night because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones there, he put it under his head and lay down to sleep. 12 He had a dream in which he saw a stairway resting on the earth, with its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. 13 There above it stood the Lord, and he said: "I am the Lord, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the land on which you are lying. 14 Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south. All peoples on earth will be blessed through you and your offspring. 15 I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you."

10. Think about the consequences to Jacob's actions in deceiving his father and angering his brother. What's his situation now?

11. Notice Jacob is alone and unprotected. Why is this the ideal time for God to speak to Jacob?

12. What is Jacob's dream?

13. Highlight the blessing and promise God gives to Jacob in verses 13-15. How will "all peoples on earth " be blessed through Jacob and his offspring?

14. How long will it be before God brings Jacob back to this land?

Week 20

Jacob Works for a Wife

Scriptures: Genesis 29, 30: 1-24

Key Verse: Genesis 29:20 "So Jacob served seven years for Rachel, and they seemed only a few days to him because of the love he had for her."

Key Points:

1. Jacob went on his journey to find a wife from God's special people.

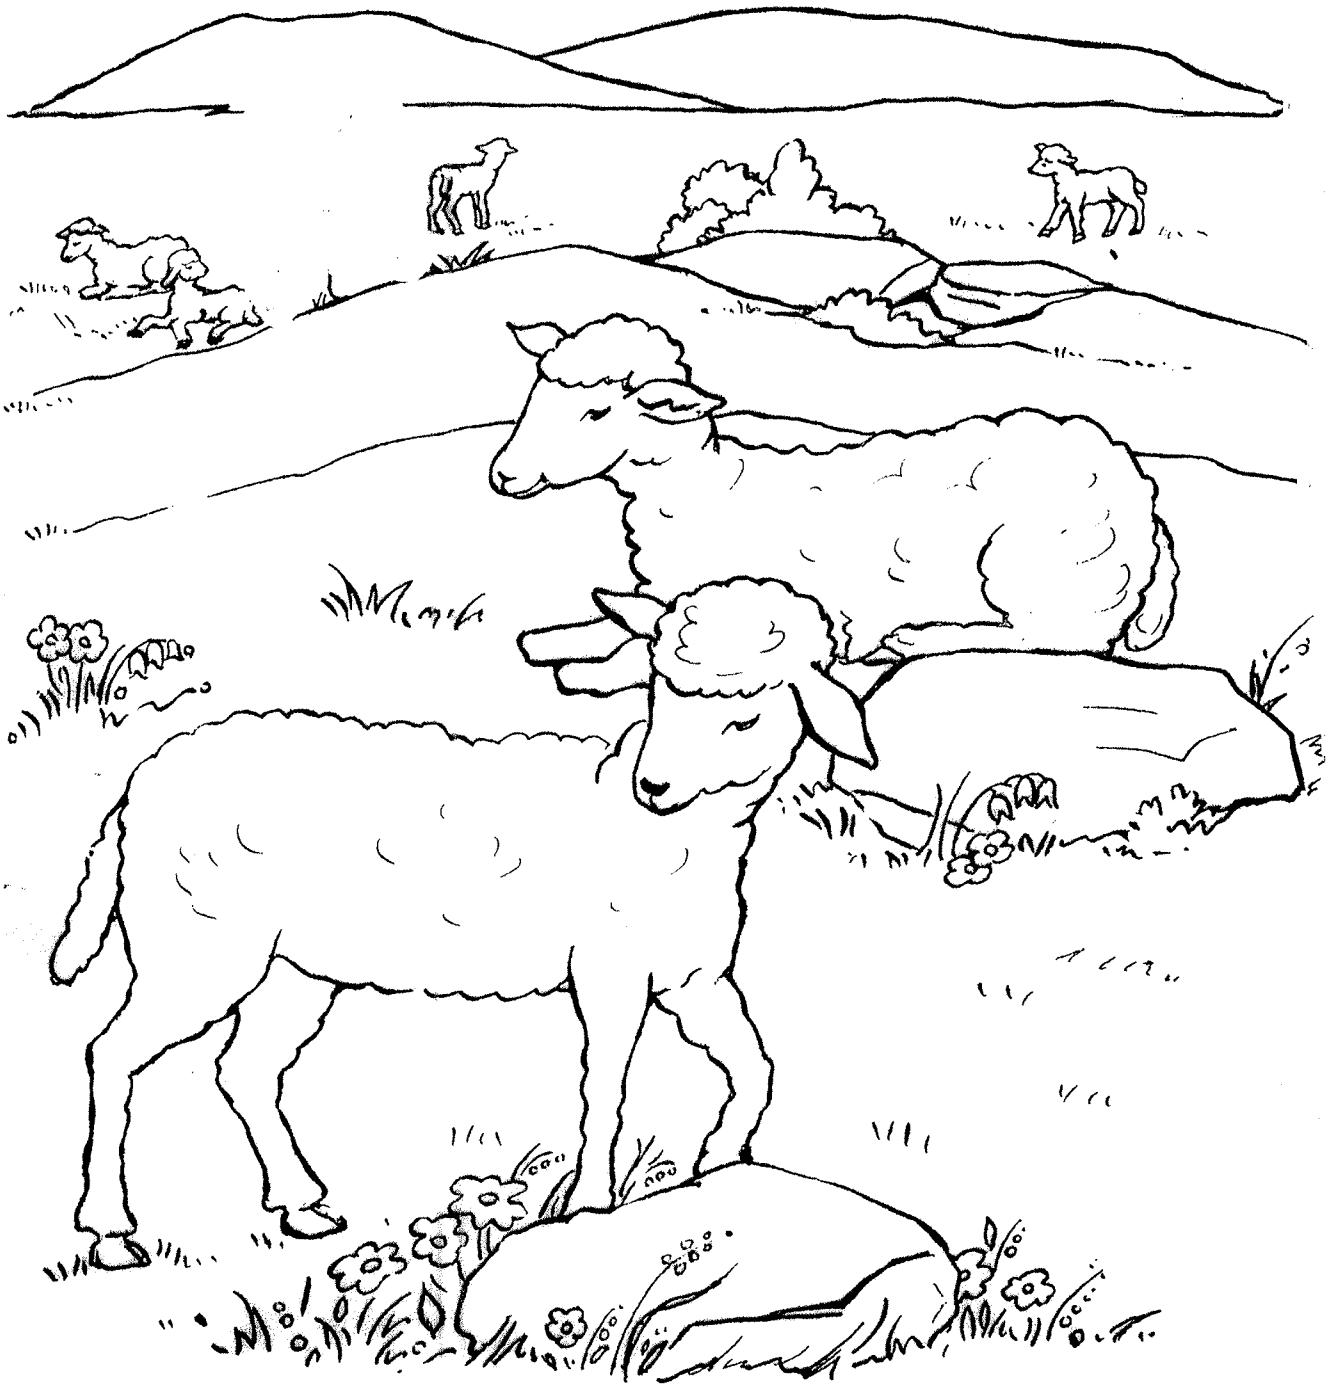

2. He met Rachel at a well where she comes to water her father's sheep. He loved her at first sight.

3. Jacob agreed to work for Laban 7 years to gain Rachel for his wife.

4. Jacob served his 7 years for Rachel, but Laban tricked him after a feast and brought his daughter Leah to him instead. So Jacob agreed with Laban that he would be with Leah for 1 week, then he could have Rachel also. However, Laban required that he stay and work another 7 years for Rachel.

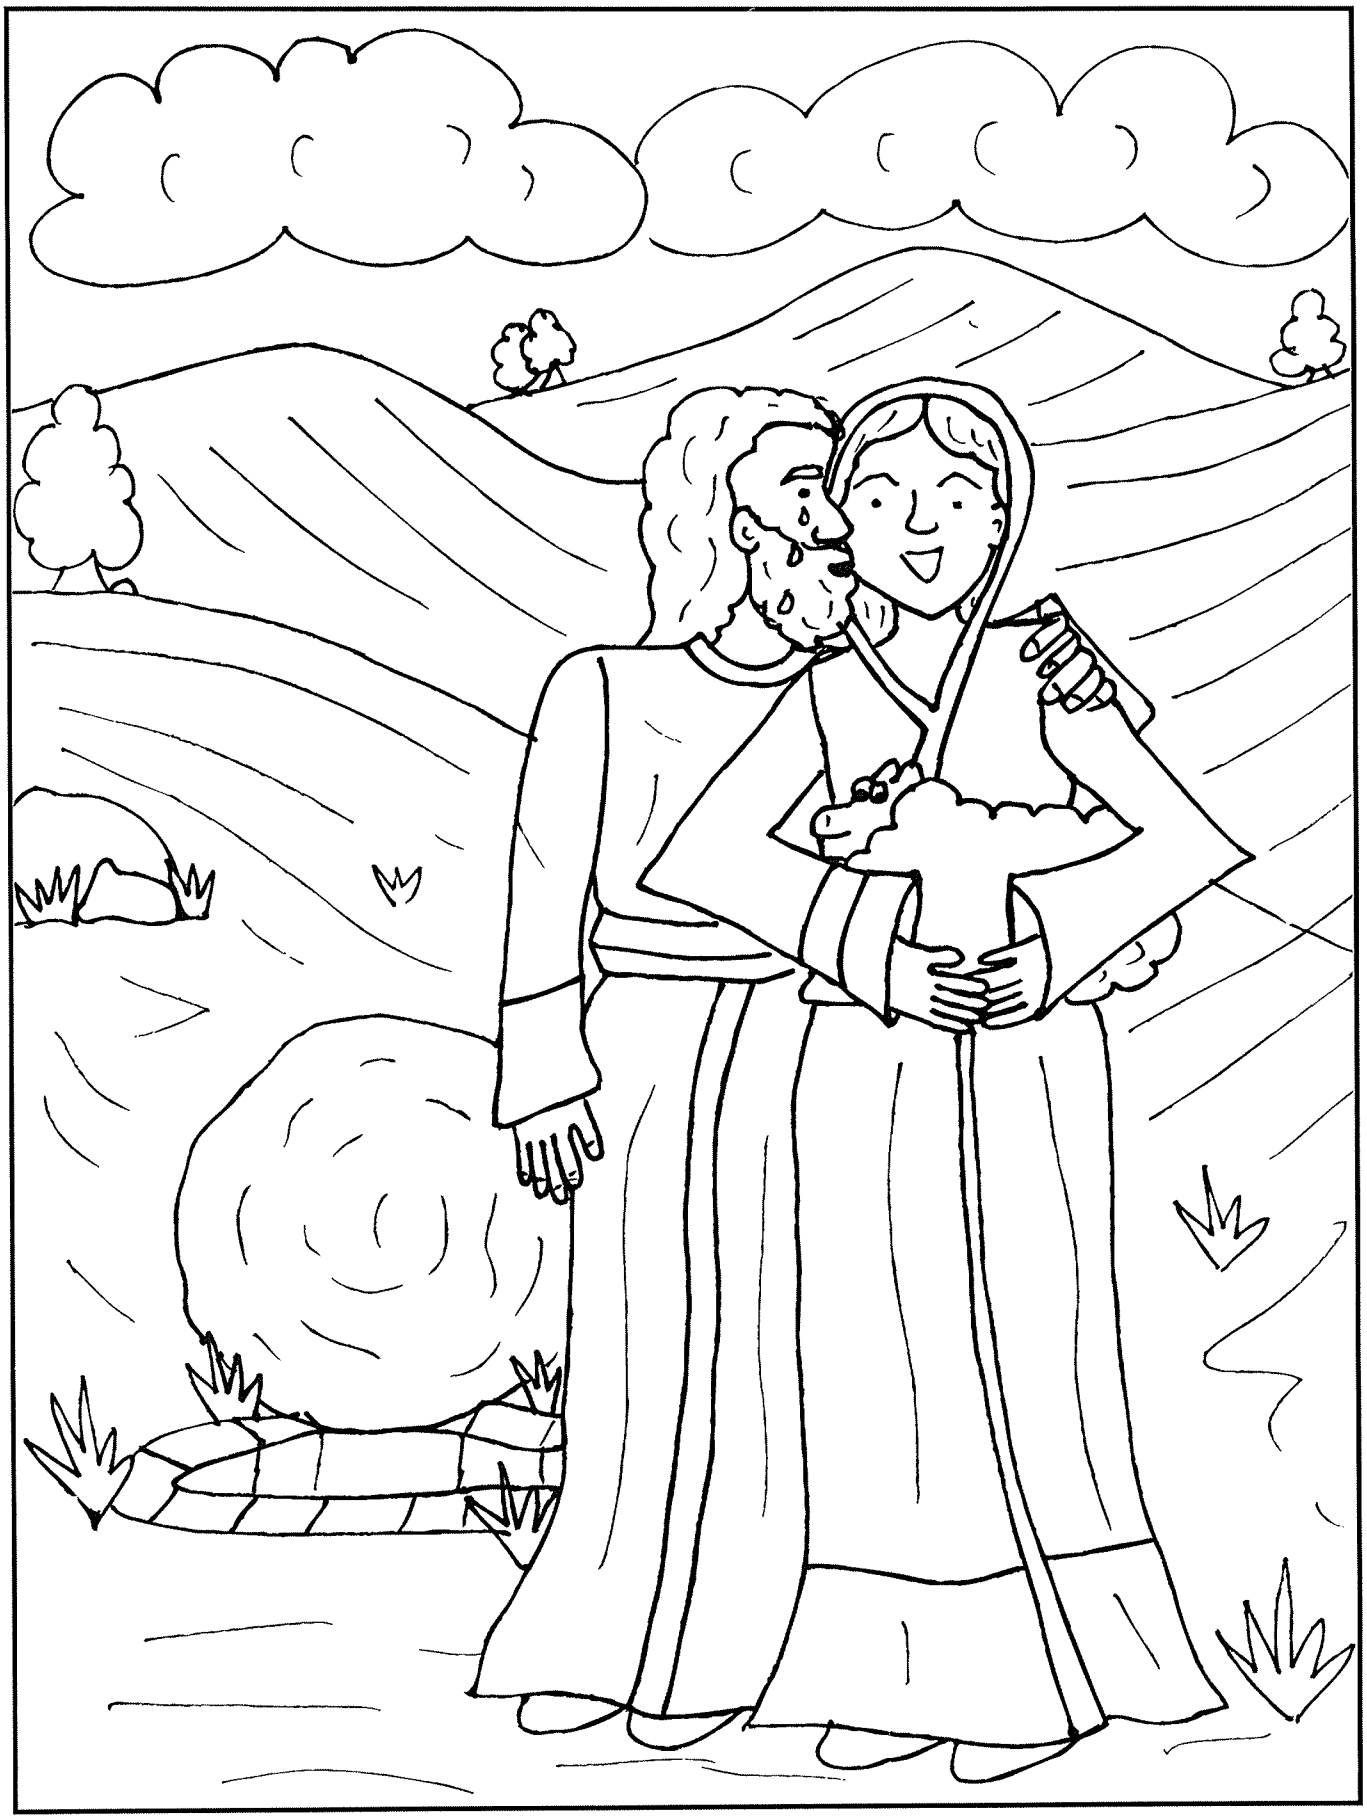

5. Jacob loved Rachel more than Leah, therefore there was quite a jealousy between them. God allowed Leah to bear children. Rachel was desperate for children but could not bear, so she gave some of her slaves to Jacob to have children that she could claim as hers. After a time, Leah was no longer having children, so she also gave Jacob her slave to have children.

6. God did remember Rachel and allowed her to have a son, Joseph.

Genesis 29:9-
". . . Rachel came with her father's sheep for she was a shepherdess."

Story & Questions

Have you ever played a trick on someone? Was it a funny trick or a nasty trick? Sometimes when you play a trick on someone it is funny - but sometimes it isn't. Sometimes it really hurts. Remember that Jacob tricked his father into giving him the blessing instead of giving it to his brother Esau. That wasn't a very nice trick, was it. Esau was so angry, in fact, that he planned to kill Jacob.
So Jacob ran away to Harran, and along the way one night he met God in a dream of a ladder reaching up to heaven. Remember that when you meet God your life gets changed. Let's see how God begins to change Jacob...

Verse 21

Finally, the time came for Jacob to marry Rachel. "I have fulfilled my agreement," Jacob said to Laban. "Now give me my wife so I can marry her"

So Laban invited everyone in the neighborhood and prepared a wedding feast. [23] But that night, Laban tricked Jacob and had him marry Leah instead of Rachel.

"What have you done to me?" Jacob raged at Laban. "I worked seven years for Rachel! Why have you tricked me?"

"It's not our custom here to marry off a younger daughter ahead of the firstborn," Laban replied. You have to work seven more years for me to marry my other daughter.

So Jacob agreed to work seven more years. And he was able to marry Rachel, too. He loved her much more than Leah.

When the LORD saw that Leah was unloved, he enabled her to have children, but Rachel could not. So Leah had her first son, named him Reuben. She soon again had another son. She named him Simeon. Leah had many sons with Jacob and each time she hoped that Jacob would love her more than Rachel.

When Rachel saw that she wasn't having any children for Jacob, she became jealous of her sister. Jacob told her to pray to God because he is in control. One day God answered her prayers by letting her have a baby. She said "God has removed my disgrace," And she named him Joseph, for she said, "May the LORD add yet another son to my family."

1. Who were the relatives of Jacob whom he met in Canaan?
2. What pay did Jacob agree to receive for working 7 years for Jacob?
3. Why was he willing to wait that long? Do you have the patience to wait that long?
4. What happened on the day Jacob got married?
5. Why was it that he did not do something bad in return for Laban's trick on him?
6. Would you have done as Jacob did?
7. What lessons can we learn from this story? (Patience, willing to wait for the best thing, not to reciprocate evil for evil...)

Discussion Questions

- Jacob went East and came across a well and there were shepherds there. Where did the shepherds say that they were from? Harran.
- Who came while he was talking to the shepherds? Rachel, Laban's dghter, his cousin.
- Why did Jacob kiss Rachel and begin to weep? He had found his mother's family and he was overwhelmed with joy.
- How did Laban receive him? He said, "You are my own flesh and blood." and he took him in to live with him.
- What did Laban ask Jacob after he had been there one month? What wages did he want for his work?
- How did Jacob answer? He would work for him for 7 years in exchange for Rachel for his wife.
- Describe Rachel. She was the younger daughter of Laban. She was beautiful.
- Describe Leah. She was the older daughter of Laban. She had "weak" eyes. Maybe she was cross-eyed or blind. We don't know exactly what that means.
- Do you think that Jacob should have been picking a wife just for her beauty? No. He should be looking for inner qualities that would make her a good wife.
- Who did Jacob end up married to? Leah
- How do you think that it is possible that he could marry her without realizing that it wasn't Rachel? The bride would have been wearing a veil.
- Jacob was angry when he realized that his wife was Leah instead of Rachel and he demanded an explanation from Laban. What was Laban's answer? It is customary for the eldest daughter to marry first.
- Do you remember someone else who had deceived others in the same way in the lesson 2 weeks ago? Yes. Jacob had deceived his brother and father in the same way. (Gen. 25:29-34 and Gen. 27: 1-41)
- How long did he have to work for Laban to pay for her? Seven more years.
- Why do you think that God had a purpose in allowing Jacob to be deceived in this way? The Lord disciplines those he loves. (Hebrews 12:6) He wanted him to see his own sin. God was now beginning to mold Jacob into a Godly man.
- Do your parents ever discipline you? Yes.
- Why do you think that they discipline you? To help me to correct my bad behavior and help me to grow into a more godly person.

Lesson 20: Genesis 29, 30:1-24 Name _____

Jacob Works for a Wife

Laban meets Jacob

Laban, the father of Rachel, was pleased to meet Jacob.

Laban made a deal with Jacob whereby Jacob had to work for Laban for 7 years in exchange for his daughter Rachel's hand in marriage. However, Laban substituted her sister Leah instead and Jacob had to serve a further 7 years in order to marry Rachel.

Laban was a nomad. He and his family and servants lived in a number of tents.

They followed their sheep as they were moved from one feeding ground to the next.

Laban in Hebrew means: white, glorious. He was the son of Bethnel and the brother of Rebekah, who had married Jacob's father, Isaac.

9. What does Laban mean when he says to Jacob, "Surely you are my bone and my flesh"?

10. When Laban gives his daughter Leah in marriage to Jacob instead of Rachel, what does this show about Laban's character?

Jacob

Jacob lived 147 years, from 2005BC-1885BC. He married two sisters, Leah and Rachel, and then had 12 sons and at least one daughter, Dinah. God changed Jacob's name to Israel and from his sons came the 12 tribes of Israel.

Before Jacob and Esau were born. God had said "Jacob I have loved and Esau I have hated."

Jacob stole the blessing, of the first born, from Esau that their father Isaac's was to give Esau on his death bed.

Rebekah the mother of Esau and Jacob helped Jacob to deceive their father Isaac.

11. In Genesis 25, Jacob is described as "a mild man, dwelling in tents"and loved by his mother. What does his service to Laban show about Jacob's love for Rebekah?

12. Jacob's sons Judah and Levi become two prominent tribes in Israel. Who is their mother? Why is Levi important? Why is Judah important?

13. Which of Jacob's wives has a daughter named Dinah?

Lesson 20: Wives & Sons of Jacob

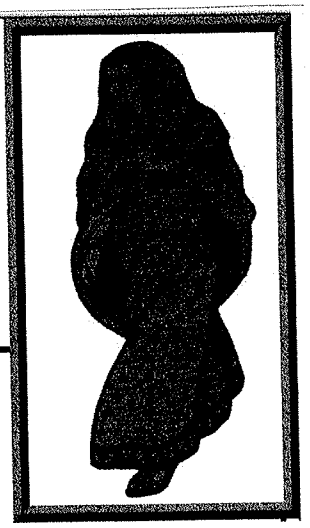

Leah

The older sister of Rachel and first wife of Jacob. After working seven years for Laban in order to marry Rachel, Jacob was tricked by Laban into marrying Leah instead.

In order to then marry Rachel, Jacob had to promise to work another seven years for Laban.

The Hebrew meaning of Leah is languid, weary.

Leah gave birth to six of Jacob's twelve sons who came the twelve tribes of Israel.

(glue Leah's sons here)

14. What is Leah's physical weakness?

15. How does the Lord show pity for Leah since Jacob doesn't love her?

16. What did Leah say when she had Reuben:
when she had Simeon:
when she had Levi:
when she had Judah:
when she had Issachar:
when she had Zebulun:

(glue sons here)

Zilpah

Zilpah, the handmaiden of Leah, bore two sons to Jacob, named Asher and Gad.

It was the custom of those times if the wife was barren. Then a another woman would bare children for her.

Zilpah was not from the family of Laban but a servant in the extended household.

Zilpah in Hebrew means Drooping.

17. Who were Zilpah's sons?

18. What did Leah say when Zilpah had Gad:
when Zilpah had Asher:

Jacob Flees From Laban

Scriptures: Genesis 30:25-43, Genesis 31

Key Verse: Genesis 31:3 "Then the Lord said to Jacob, 'Return to the land of your fathers and to your family, and I will be with you.'"

Key Points:

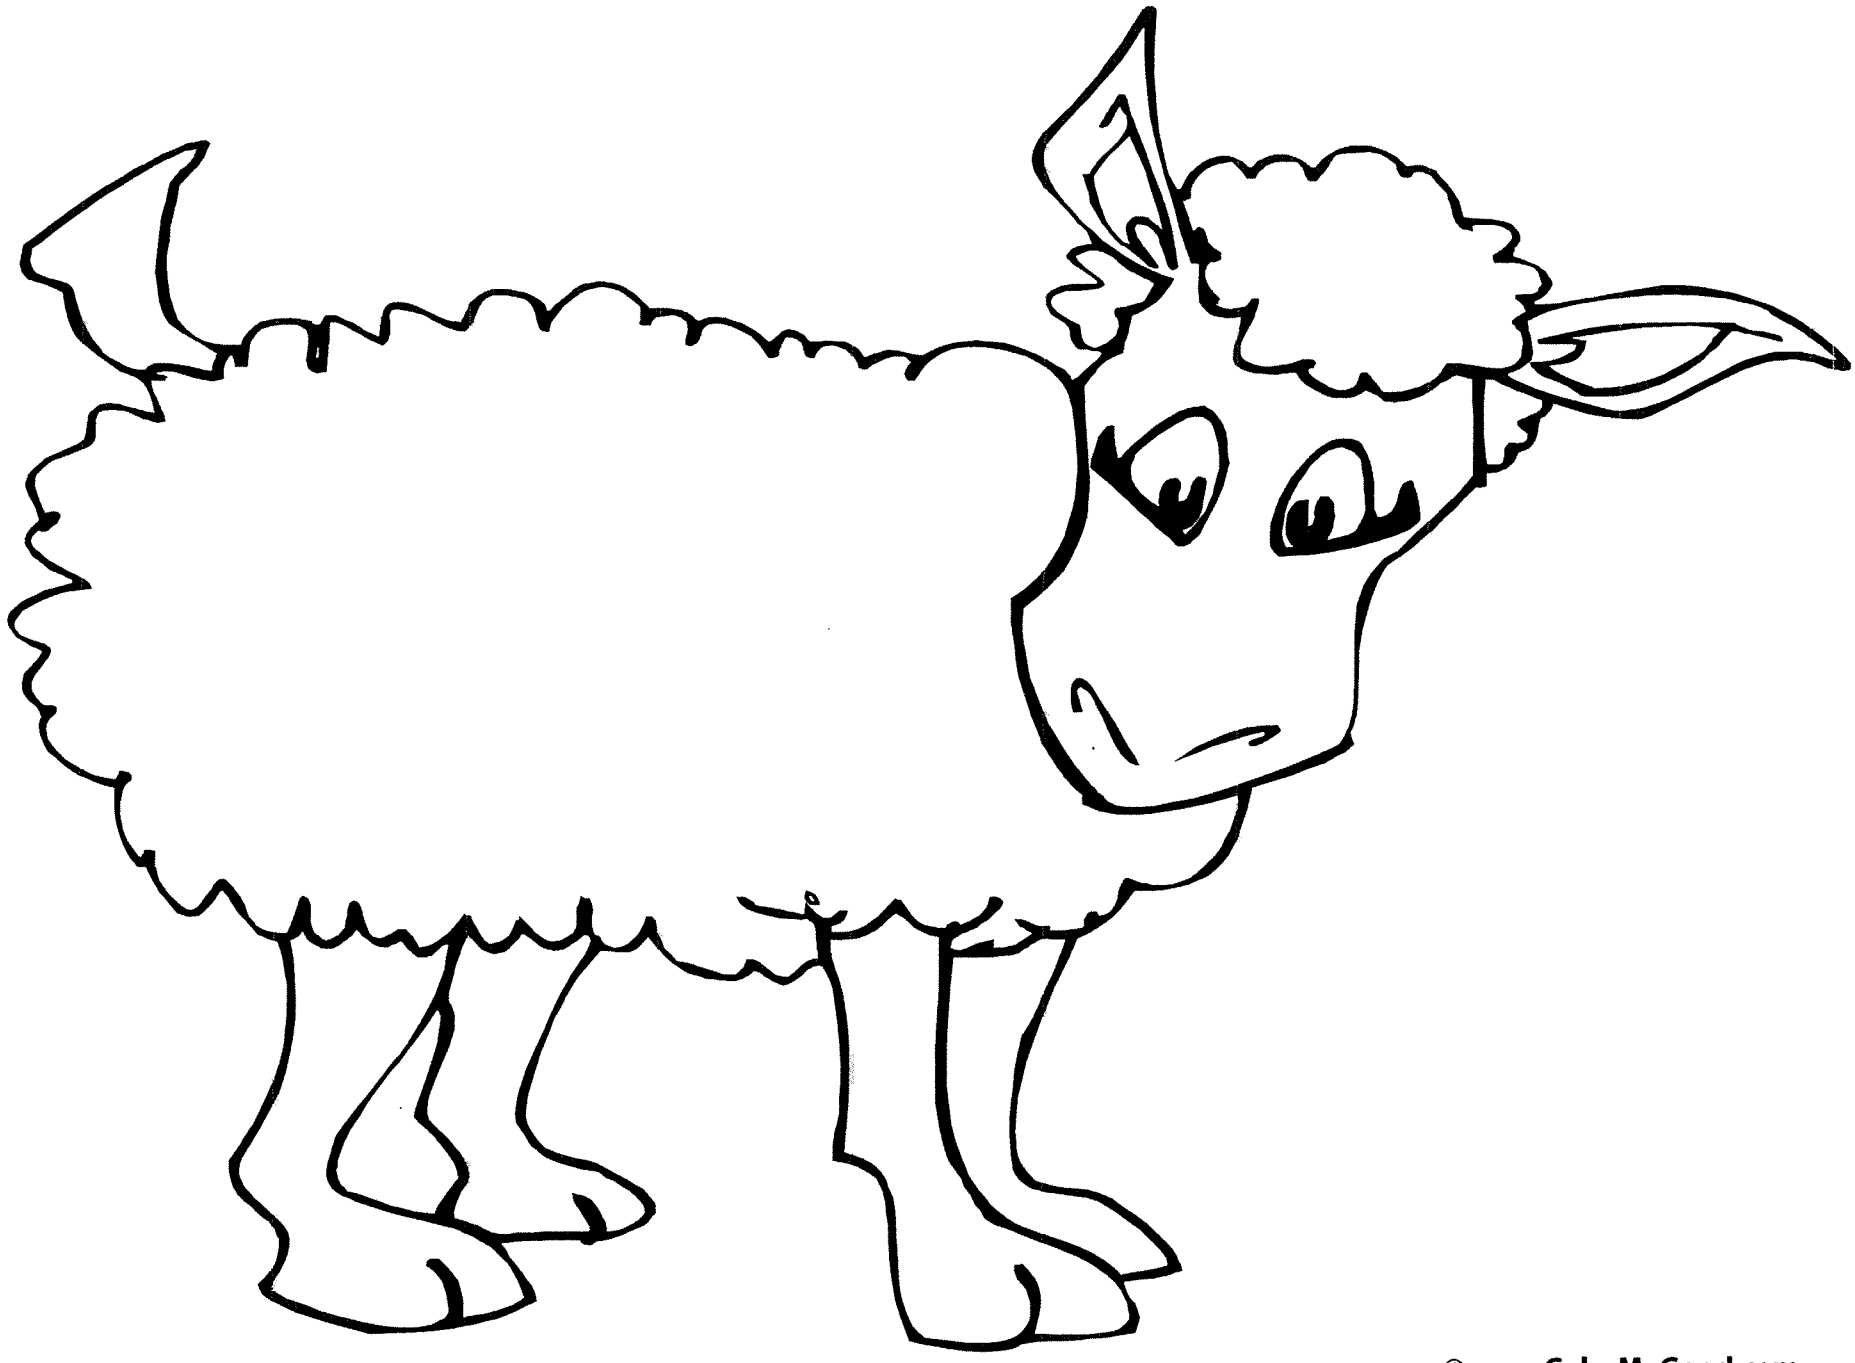

1. Jacob wanted to leave Laban and go home to his own people. Laban agreed to give Jacob all the speckled sheep and goats. However, Laban tricked him and gave all the speckled sheep and goats to his sons.

2. Jacob had a plan to increase his flocks, and God saw to it that his flocks multiplied. So when it came time for him to leave, Jacob had become very prosperous.

3. Laban's sons were jealous of Jacob's prosperity, so Laban had an unfavorable attitude toward him.

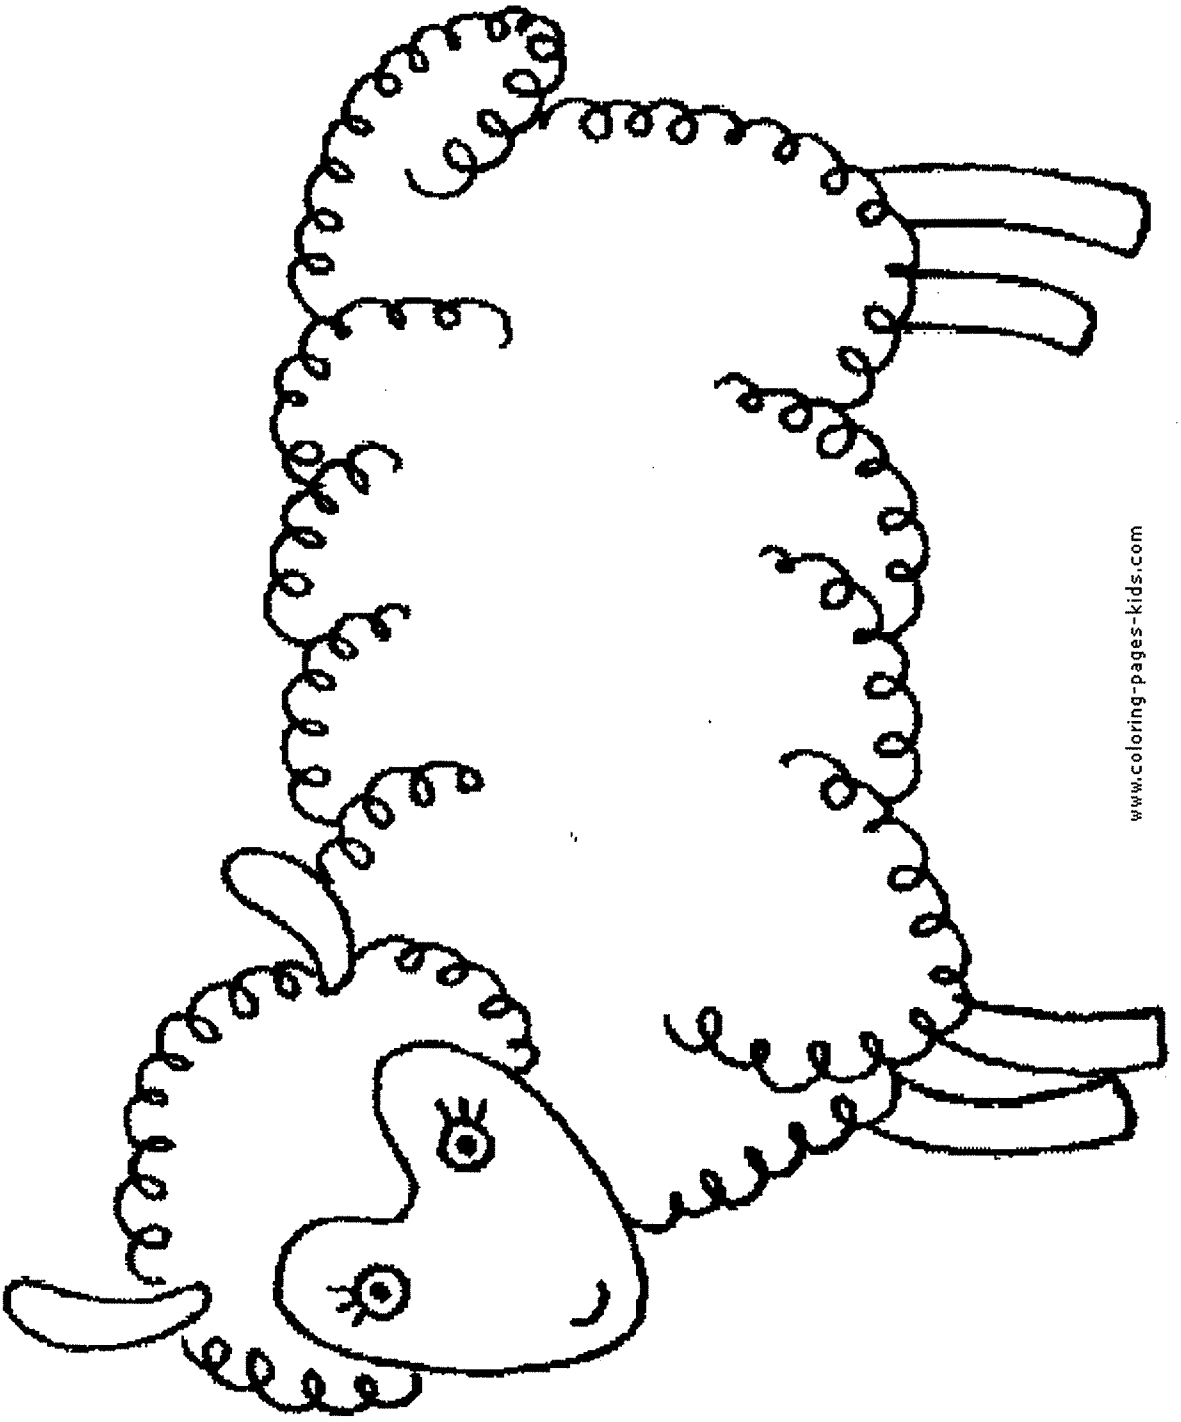

4. Jacob planned to return to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan. While her father was away, Rachel stole household idols from Laban. They left, unknown to Laban. God came to Laban in a dream and told him not to harm Jacob, but Laban pursued Jacob and angrily confronted Jacob about the idols. Rachel hid them in her camel's saddle and sat on them.

5. Jacob pleaded with Laban that he had worked for Laban for 20 years and treated him well. He requested from Laban that he be allowed to go to leave in peace. They made a covenant together that the Lord be with them while they were absent from one another.

Jacob Wrestles with an Angel and Receives a New Name

Scriptures: Genesis 32 & 33

Key Verse: Genesis 32:28 "And He said, 'Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have struggled with God and with men, and have prevailed.'"

Key Points:

1. On his journey home, Jacob approached Esau's home. Jacob's messengers told him that Esau was on his way to meet his brother with 400 men. He was afraid Esau would be angry and would want to harm him and his family.

2. Jacob prayed to God that his brother Esau would not harm him or his family.

3. In the night Jacob was left alone, and an angel came and wrestled with him all night. The angel touched the socket of Jacob's hip, and it came out of joint. The angel asked Jacob his name and told him he would no longer be called Jacob but Israel, for he had struggled with God and with man and had prevailed.

4. Esau and Jacob reconcile.

Before Jacob reached Canaan, he wrestled with an angel of God. Because Jacob's spirit did not fail, God named him Israel, which means "The Reliable One."

YOUR NAME SHALL BE ISRAEL

(GENESIS 32:22-32)

"And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob. And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed."

GENESIS 32:27-28

And Jā′cob said: "I will not let thee go until thou dost bless me." And the angel said:

"What is your name?"

And Jā′cob answered, "Jā′cob is my name."

Then the angel said:

"Your name shall no more be called Jā′cob, but Iṣ′ra-el, that is, 'He who wrestles with God.' For you have wrestled with God and have won the victory."

Genesis 35 New Living Translation (NLT)

Jacob's Return to Bethel

35 Then God said to Jacob, "Get ready and move to Bethel and settle there. Build an altar there to the God who appeared to you when you fled from your brother, Esau."

2 So Jacob told everyone in his household, "Get rid of all your pagan idols, purify yourselves, and put on clean clothing. 3 We are now going to Bethel, where I will build an altar to the God who answered my prayers when I was in distress. He has been with me wherever I have gone."

4 So they gave Jacob all their pagan idols and earrings, and he buried them under the great tree near Shechem. 5 As they set out, a terror from God spread over the people in all the towns of that area, so no one attacked Jacob's family.

6 Eventually, Jacob and his household arrived at Luz (also called Bethel) in Canaan. 7 Jacob built an altar there and named the place El-bethel (which means "God of Bethel"), because God had appeared to him there when he was fleeing from his brother, Esau.

8 Soon after this, Rebekah's old nurse, Deborah, died. She was buried beneath the oak tree in the valley below Bethel. Ever since, the tree has been called Allon-bacuth (which means "oak of weeping").

9 Now that Jacob had returned from Paddan-aram, God appeared to him again at Bethel. God blessed him, 10 saying, "Your name is Jacob, but you will not be called Jacob any longer. From now on your name will be Israel."[ ] So God renamed him Israel.

11 Then God said, "I am El-Shaddai—'God Almighty.' Be fruitful and multiply. You will become a great nation, even many nations. Kings will be among your descendants! 12 And I will give you the land I once gave to Abraham and Isaac. Yes, I will give it to you and your descendants after you." 13 Then God went up from the place where he had spoken to Jacob.

14 Jacob set up a stone pillar to mark the place where God had spoken to him. Then he poured wine over it as an offering to God and anointed the pillar with olive oil. 15 And Jacob named the place Bethel (which means "house of God"), because God had spoken to him there.

The Deaths of Rachel and Isaac

16 Leaving Bethel, Jacob and his clan moved on toward Ephrath. But Rachel went into labor while they were still some distance away. Her labor pains were intense. 17 After a very hard delivery, the midwife finally exclaimed, "Don't be afraid—you have another son!" 18 Rachel was about to die, but with her last breath she named the baby Ben-oni (which means "son of my sorrow"). The baby's father, however, called him Benjamin (which means "son of my right hand"). 19 So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem). 20 Jacob set up a stone monument over Rachel's grave, and it can be seen there to this day.

21 Then Jacob[ ] traveled on and camped beyond Migdal-eder. 22 While he was living there, Reuben had intercourse with Bilhah, his father's concubine, and Jacob soon heard about it.

These are the names of the twelve sons of Jacob:

23 The sons of Leah were Reuben (Jacob's oldest son), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun.

24 The sons of Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin.

25 The sons of Bilhah, Rachel's servant, were Dan and Naphtali.

26 The sons of Zilpah, Leah's servant, were Gad and Asher.

These are the names of the sons who were born to Jacob at Paddan-aram.

27 So Jacob returned to his father, Isaac, in Mamre, which is near Kiriath-arba (now called Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had both lived as foreigners. 28 Isaac lived for 180 years. 29 Then he breathed his last and died at a ripe old age, joining his ancestors in death. And his sons, Esau and Jacob, buried him.

Abraham begot Isaac. Isaac begot Jacob.

- To be an Israelite by blood, a person must be a descendent of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Jacob begot 12 sons who are listed herein in subsequent sections.

- The 12 sons of Jacob are the patriarchs of the 12 Tribes of Israel.
- For example, Jacob's son Benjamin is the patriarch of the Tribe of Benjamin. Jacob's son Reuben is the patriarch of the Tribe of Reuben. And so forth.

Well-known descendants of certain Tribes

- Tribe of Benjamin - King Saul, Paul the apostle [a.k.a. Saul of Tarsus]
- Tribe of Levi - Moses, Aaron
- Tribe of Judah - King David, King Solomon, many other kings; Lord Jesus, the Messiah

The Promised Land [Canaan], plus an area on the east side of the Jordan River, was allocated among the 12 Tribes. [Num 33.54; Num 36.3-9]

- As the priestly Tribe, Levi was given no land. [Num 18.20, 18.24] Instead of land, God gave Levi the tithes of the people of Israel.
- Jacob's son Joseph had two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim.
- By Jacob's command [Gen 48.5], Joseph's sons, Manasseh and Ephraim, were regarded as de facto "Tribes" of Israel.
- Thus, the land allocations of Joseph and Levi were given instead to Ephraim and Manasseh, preserving twelve as the number of tribes. [Josh 14.3-4]

There is no such thing as "10 lost tribes of Israel." [Mt 10.6, Acts 26.7, Jam 1.1, Rev 7.1-8; Ezek 37]

Part III - Prophecies about the 12 Tribes

Sons of	Jacob's Prophecies	Moses' Blessings

Jacob	Genesis 49.1-27	Deuteronomy 33.6-25
01-Reuben	Reuben, you are my firstborn, My might and the beginning of my strength, The excellency of dignity and the excellency of power. Unstable as water, you shall not excel, Because you went up to your father's bed; Then you defiled it -He went up to my couch.	Let Reuben live, and not die, Nor let his men be few.
02-Simeon		[Moses makes no mention of Simeon in blessing the tribes of Israel.]
03-Levi	Simeon and Levi are brothers; Instruments of cruelty are in their dwelling place. Let not my soul enter their council; Let not my honor be united to their assembly; For in their anger they slew a man, And in their self-will they hamstrung an ox. Cursed be their anger, for it is fierce; And their wrath, for it is cruel! I will divide them in Jacob And scatter them in Israel.	Of Levi he said: "Let Your Thummim and Your Urim be with Your holy one, Whom You tested at Massah, And with whom You contended at the waters of Meribah, Who says of his father and mother, 'I have not seen them'; Nor did he acknowledge his brothers, Or know his own children; For they have observed Your word And kept Your covenant. They shall teach Jacob Your judgments, And Israel Your law. They shall put incense before You, And a whole burnt sacrifice on Your altar. Bless his substance, LORD, And accept the work of his hands; Strike the loins of those who rise against him, And of those who hate him, that they rise not again."
04-Judah	Judah, you are he whom your brothers shall praise; Your hand shall be on the neck of your enemies; Your father's children shall bow down before you. Judah is a lion's whelp; From the prey, my son, you have gone up. He bows down, he lies down as a lion; And as a lion, who shall rouse him? The scepter shall not depart from Judah, Nor a lawgiver from between his feet, Until Shiloh comes; And to Him shall be the obedience of the people. Binding his donkey to the vine, And his donkey's colt to the choice vine, He washed his garments in wine, And his clothes in the blood of grapes. His eyes are darker than wine, And his teeth whiter than milk.	And this he said of Judah: "Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, And bring him to his people; Let his hands be sufficient for him, And may You be a help against his enemies."
05-Dan	Dan shall judge his people As one of the tribes of Israel. Dan shall be a serpent by the way, A viper by the path, That bites the horse's heels So that its rider shall fall backward. I have waited for your	And of Dan he said: "Dan is a lion's whelp; He shall leap from Bashan."

	salvation, O LORD!
06-Naphtali	Naphtali is a deer let loose; He uses beautiful words.	And of Naphtali he said: "O Naphtali, satisfied with favor, And full of the blessing of the LORD, Possess the west and the south."
07-Gad	Gad, a troop shall tramp upon him, But he shall triumph at last.	And of Gad he said: "Blessed is he who enlarges Gad; He dwells as a lion, And tears the arm and the crown of his head. He provided the first part for himself, Because a lawgiver's portion was reserved there. He came with the heads of the people; He administered the justice of the LORD, And His judgments with Israel."
08-Asher	Bread from Asher shall be rich, And he shall yield royal dainties.	And of Asher he said: "Asher is most blessed of sons; Let him be favored by his brothers, And let him dip his foot in oil. Your sandals shall be iron and bronze; As your days, so shall your strength be."
09-Issachar	"Issachar is a strong donkey, Lying down between two burdens; He saw that rest was good, And that the land was pleasant; He bowed his shoulder to bear a burden, And became a band of slaves.	And of Zebulun he said: "Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, And Issachar in your tents! They shall call the peoples to the mountain; There they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness; For they shall partake of the abundance of the seas And of treasures hidden in the sand."
10-Zebulun	Zebulun shall dwell by the haven of the sea; He shall become a haven for ships, And his border shall adjoin Sidon.
11-Joseph	Joseph is a fruitful bough, A fruitful bough by a well; His branches run over the wall. The archers have bitterly grieved him, Shot at him and hated him. But his bow remained in strength, And the arms of his hands were made strong By the hands of the Mighty God of Jacob (From there is the Shepherd, the Stone of Israel), By the God of your father who will help you, And by the Almighty who will bless you With blessings of heaven above, Blessings of the deep that lies beneath, Blessings of the breasts and of the womb. The blessings of your father Have excelled the blessings of my ancestors, Up to the utmost bound of the everlasting hills. They shall be on the head of Joseph, And on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.	And of Joseph he said: "Blessed of the LORD is his land, With the precious things of heaven, with the dew, And the deep lying beneath, With the precious fruits of the sun, With the precious produce of the months, With the best things of the ancient mountains, With the precious things of the everlasting hills, With the precious things of the earth and its fullness, And the favor of Him who dwelt in the bush. Let the blessing come 'on the head of Joseph, & on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.' His glory is like a firstborn bull, And his horns like the horns of the wild ox; Together with them He shall push the peoples To the ends of the earth; They are the ten thousands of Ephraim, And they are the thousands of Manasseh."
		Of Benjamin he said: "The beloved of the 12-Benjamin	Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; In the morning he shall devour the prey, And at night he shall divide the spoil.	LORD shall dwell in safety by Him, Who shelters him all the day long; And he shall dwell between His shoulders."

Week 24

Joseph, From Dreamer to Slavery

Scriptures: Genesis 37

Key Verse: Gen. 37:3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age. He made him a tunic of many colors.

Key Points:

1. Jacob (Israel) and his sons lived in Canaan where they were strangers. Joseph was 17 years old and was feeding the flocks with his brothers. He brought a bad report to his father Israel (Jacob). Israel loved Joseph more than all his children because he was Rachel's son. He made him a coat of many colors. His brothers hated him because he was loved more.

2. Joseph had a dream where they were binding sheaves in the field and his brothers sheaves bowed down to his sheaf. He also had a dream where this time the sun, moon and 11 stars bowed down to him. His brothers hated him even more for his dreams. His father also rebuked him for his dreams.

3. Joseph's brothers went to feed the flocks at Shechem and Israel sent Joseph to see about them. When they saw him coming, they plotted to kill him. His brother Reuben urged his brothers not to kill Joseph; so instead they threw him into an empty water pit, stripping him of his coat.

4. Judah urged the brothers sell him to Midianite traders for 20 shekels of silver. They killed a goat and put the blood on his coat to show their father so he would believe Joseph had been killed. Israel mourned deeply for is son Joseph; he thought he would never see him again. Joseph, however, was sold to a man named Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and captain of the guard.

Joseph's father gave him a special robe.

SUMMER

Bulletin Board for Summer

GROWING IN GOD'S FAMILY

Materials:
Construction paper—flesh, light blue, medium blue, dark blue, black, yellow
Thumbtacks or stapler
Felt-tip pens
Fabric scraps (optional)
Patterns—boy, girl (page 45)

Directions:
In the center of your board place yellow sheets of construction paper (or strips, depending on the size of the board) in a vertical line. Mark the yellow sheets with a black felt-tip pen to resemble a tape measure. Using the boy and girl patterns, cut figures from skin-tone construction paper, and from light blue, medium blue, dark blue, and black. Cut clothing from fabric scraps or from colorful paper. Cut large block letters to form the words We are growing in God's family, to be placed on board as shown.

Place the figures of the boy and girl on each side of tape measure with shadows progressing up tape measure, from light blue to black.

To one side of the bulletin board, put up a sheet of paper where you can measure each child as he comes in the first week. Mark his height and his name. Tell him, "You are getting big. You are big enough to learn how to help." Later he will be big enough to share, and to worship God, as those concepts are presented.

Lesson 1: How We Grow

JOSEPH STICK PUPPET

Materials:
Tagboard (such as file folders are made of)
Felt-tip pens
Craft sticks—1 per child
Fabric scraps
Glue
Pattern—puppet and clothing (page 48)

Directions:
Before class cut puppet figures using pattern on page 48. Add faces with felt-tip pens. Cut fabric scraps for coats.

During class have the children glue the puppets to the craft sticks and add the fabric coats for a touch-and-feel effect.

Application:
Let the children role play the story of Joseph, using their puppets. You may need to suggest various actions that make up the story. Discuss with the children how God helps us grow the way He helped Joseph.

The same puppet would fit with a lesson on Samuel and the new coat his mother brought him each year, or could be any number of Bible characters.

Lesson 2: Helping at Home

BIBLE WORDS "PUZZLE"

Materials:
Posterboard
Construction paper
Felt-tip pen
Glue
Patterns—oval, star, heart, house (pages 46, 47)

Directions:
Before class cut posterboard into 4" x 12" rectangles, one per child. Trace the pattern shapes on the rectangles and add the word "at" as shown in the sketch.

Joseph Goes to Prison

Scriptures: Genesis 39, 40

Key Verse: Genesis 39:2 The Lord was with Joseph and he was a successful man; and he was in the house of his master, the Egyptian.

Key Points:

1. Joseph became successful in Egypt. The Lord was with him and made him prosper. Joseph had favor with Potiphar and he became overseer of his house.

2. Joseph was handsome and Potiphar's wife wanted him to love her. But Joseph would not sin with this woman. She lied to her husband, saying that Joseph had tried to grab her. Potiphar got angry and put Joseph into prison.

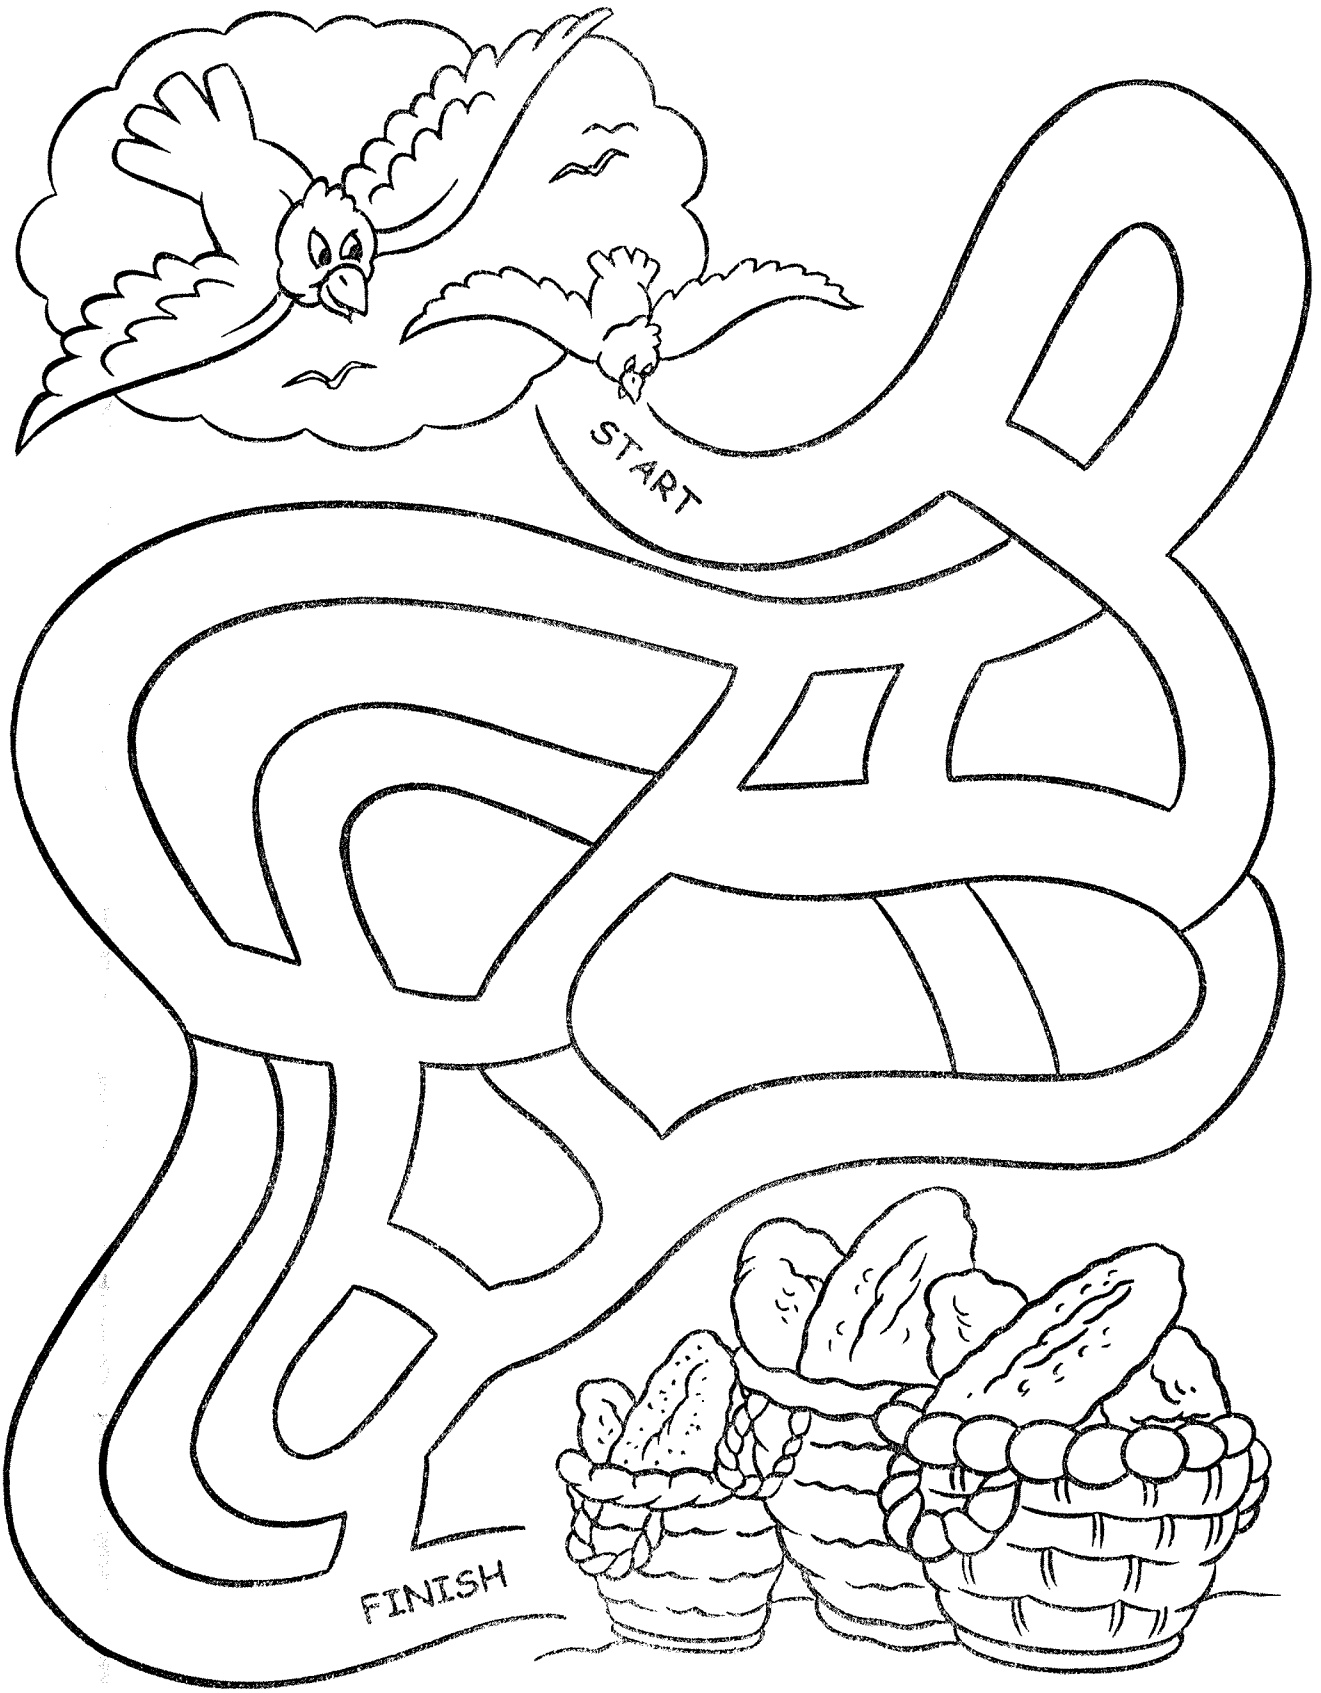

3. God blessed Joseph even while he was in prison and made him prosper and find favor in the eyes of the prison keeper. In prison, he met a butler and a baker who had dreams. (Explain dreams) Joseph was able to correctly interpret these dreams and the dreams came true. The baker was killed, but the butler was restored to his position. The baker forgot about Joseph in prison for 2 years.

Lesson 25: Middle School

RADIO PLAY OF GENESIS 39-40--JOSEPH & POTIPHAR'S WIFE, THE CUPBEARER & BAKER

News Desk: This is the latest report from Christian Radio. Remember we've been following the story of Joseph who was sold by his jealous brothers to some Ishmaelites who sold Joseph to the Egyptian captain of the guard named Potiphar. Joseph has been in charge of Potiphar's household now for some time. One of our reporters is there now talking with one of Potiphar's servants.

Reporter: So what do you think of Joseph, your master's new attendant? I've heard he's been put in charge of Potiphar's household and entrusted with everything he owns.

Servant: Joseph? Yes, since he's arrived, everything has been going great for Potiphar. Joseph's God of Israel seems to smile on everything he does and gives him success. Therefore everything in Potiphar's house and fields prospers because of Joseph and this God that blesses him.

Reporter: Great to hear! So no problems now that this Joseph the Israelite is here?

Servant: Well . . . there is one thing. Joseph is very well-built and handsome, AND Potiphar's wife . . . well, she's always flirting with Joseph. He's very careful as slaves and servants must be; he tries to stay away from her as much as possible. But--off the record--I'm a little worried because Potiphar's wife likes getting her way no matter who gets hurt!

Reporter: That's the story from Potiphar's house. Back to you at the news desk.

Several weeks later:
News Desk: We're back with a breaking story about a scandal at Potiphar's house. Most of you know he's a captain of the guard here in Egypt. Let's see if we can get him to talk with us.

Reporter: Can you tell us what happened, Potiphar?

Potiphar: (angrily) Oh, I'll tell you what happened all right! That slave Joseph that I trusted with everything, thought he could take advantage of my absence and get too friendly with my wife! She had evidence, too-- Joseph's own cloak in her hands! My wife's exact words were "That Hebrew slave you brought us came to me to make sport of me. But as soon as I screamed for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house." Good thing I put him in prison or I would have killed him I was so angry!

Reporter 2: Thank you, Joseph, for speaking with me. (to Warden) Warden, tell us about your prisoner, Joseph.

Warden: He's a born leader, this Joseph. Things are running smoothly here at the prison ever since I've put Joseph in charge--just amazing!

Reporter: News Desk, that's the other side of the story for our listeners, here from the prison.

News Desk: Thank you for that report.

Some time later:
News Desk: This is Christian Radio coming to you with a taped report once again from the Egyptian prison where the king or pharaoh's prisoners are sent. You may remember weeks ago the report about the Israelite Joseph who was falsely accused by Potiphar's wife. When our reporter arrived at the prison this time, he found Joseph speaking with both the king's cupbearer and the king's baker who had angered their master. Listen in . . .

Joseph: Why are your faces so sad today?

Cupbearer: We both had dreams . . .

Baker: . . . but there is no one to interpret them.

Joseph: Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell me your dreams.

Cupbearer: In my dream I saw a vine in front of me, and on the vine were three branches. As soon as it budded, it blossomed, and its clusters ripened into grapes Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, squeezed them into Pharaoh's cup and put the cup in his hand.

Joseph: This is what it means. The three branches are three days. Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your position, and you will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand, just as you used to do when you were his cupbearer. But when all goes well with you, remember me and show me kindness; mention me to Pharaoh and get me out of this prison. For I was forcibly carried off from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing to deserve being put in a dungeon.

Baker: That was a favorable interpretation. I too had a dream: On my head were three baskets of bread. In the top basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head.

Pharaoh's Dreams

Scriptures: Genesis 41

Key Verse: Genesis 41:16 Joseph answered Pharaoh saying, "It is not in me; God will give Pharaoh an answer of peace."

Key Points:

1. Pharaoh had 2 dreams. He had one dream about 7 fat cows coming up out of the river and eating up 7 skinny cows. The second dream was similar, 7 thin, blighted heads of grain devoured 7 plump, full heads of grain. These dreams troubled Pharaoh and no one could interpret the dreams.

2. The butler finally remembered Joseph and told Pharaoh how he had interpreted his dream. Pharaoh sent for Joseph and he interpreted his dreams for him. Joseph told Pharaoh there would be 7 years of plenty, then 7 years of famine that would eat up the 7 good years.

3. Joseph advised Pharaoh to set up a man to be over the land of Egypt and officers to collect one-fifth of the grain in the good years to save for the famine. Pharaoh recognized that God was with Joseph and that he was wise. He appointed Joseph to be over the land of Egypt and clothed him with fine clothing and jewelry.

4. Joseph was 30 years old when he was put over Egypt. He had two sons during this time by his wife Asenath: Manasseh and Ephraim.

5. Joseph gathered much grain during the plentiful years. When the famine was over all the face of the earth, all the countries came to Joseph to buy grain for the famine was severe.

29. JOSEPH & POTIPHAR

(GENESIS 39:1-23)

"And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his wrath was kindled."

GENESIS 39:19

JOSEPH IN PRISON
(GENESIS 40:1-41:57)

"And Joseph's master took him, and put him into the prison, a place where the king's prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison."

As an adult, Joseph became a high official in Egypt.

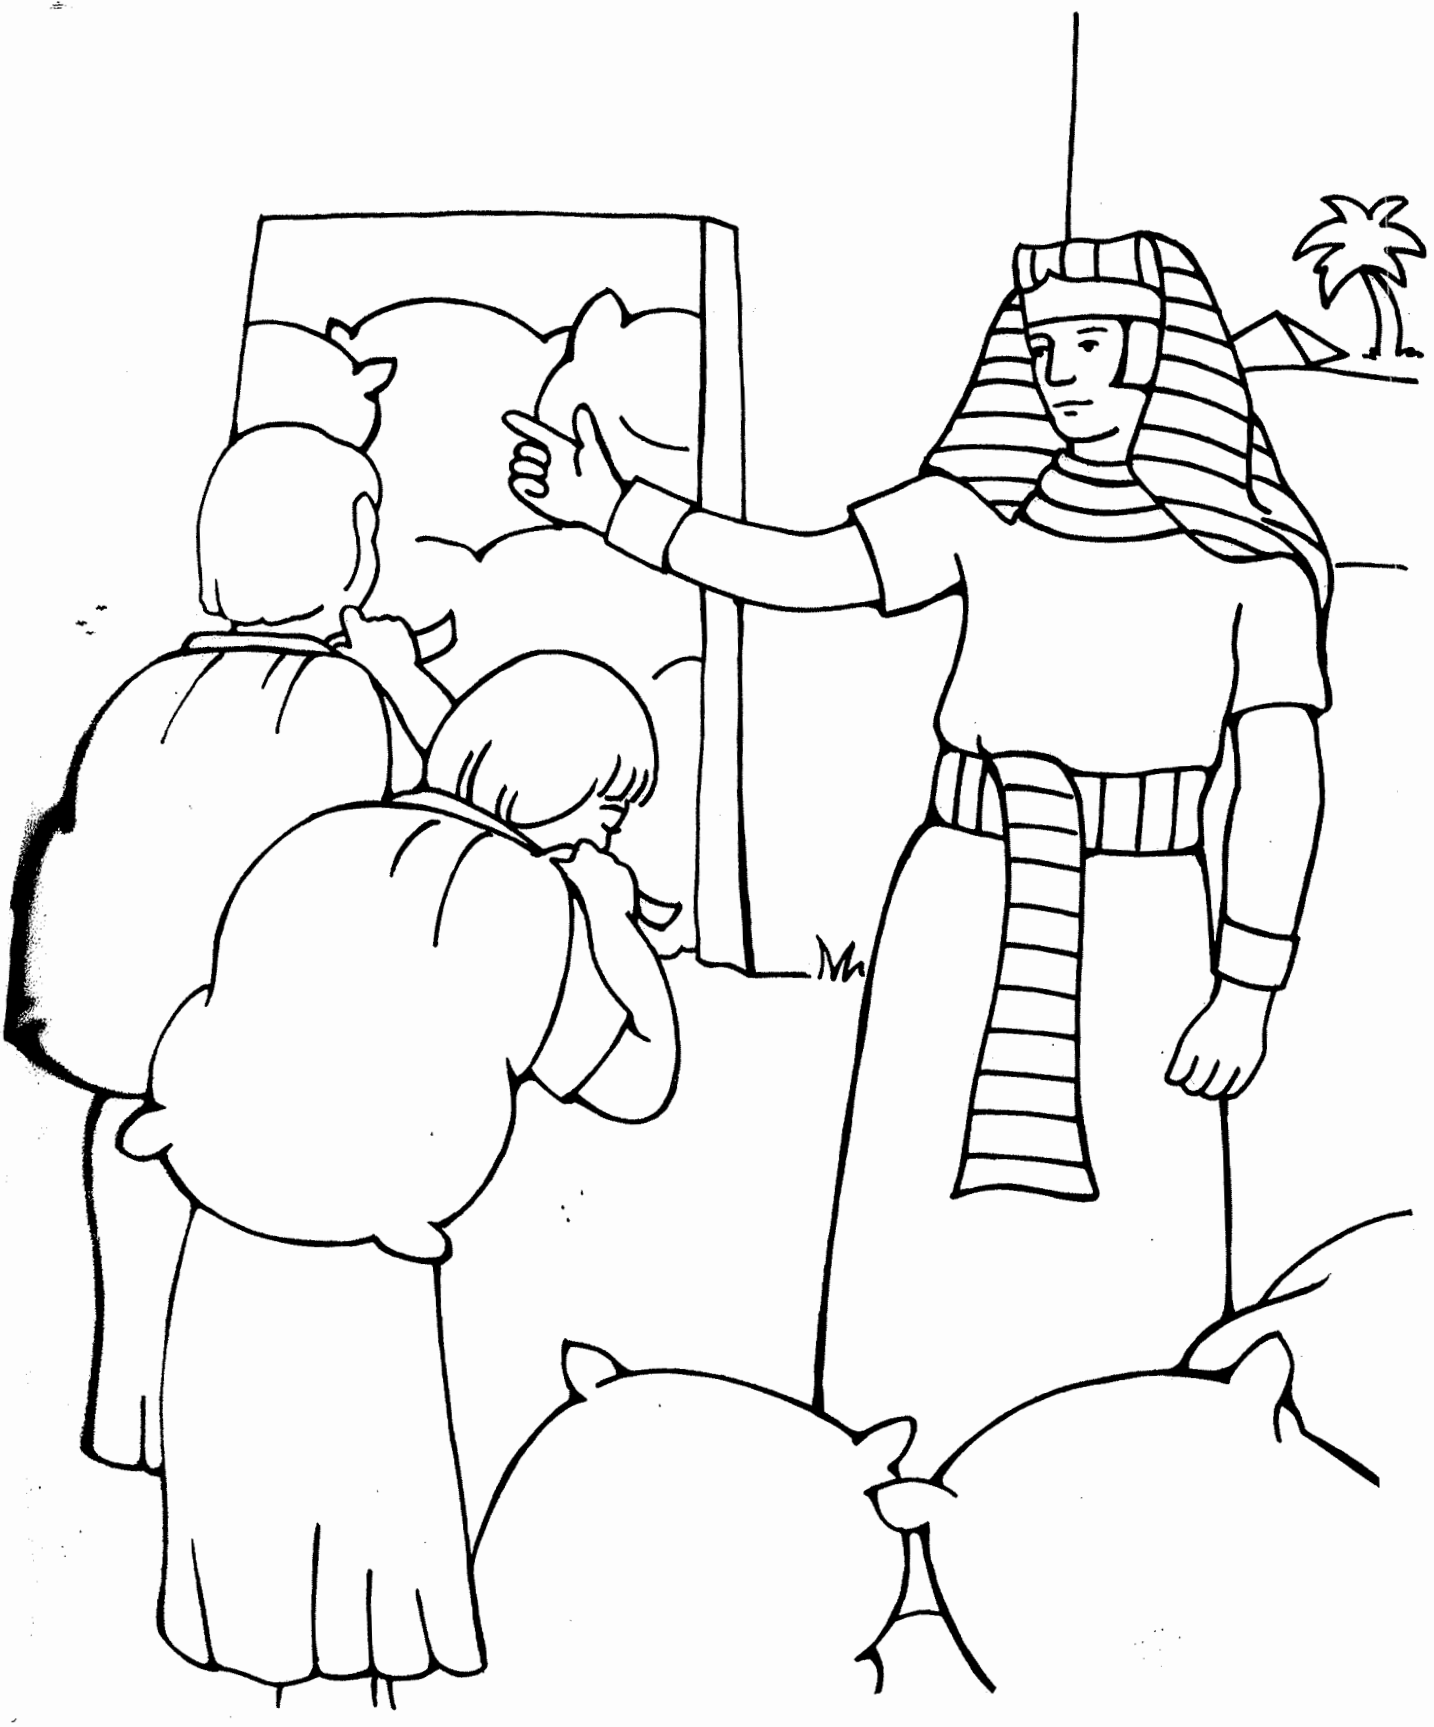

When a great famine came over the land, people came to Egypt from all over to buy food.

Jacob sent his sons to find food in Egypt.

Joseph welcomed his brothers and told them that they could make their home in Egypt.

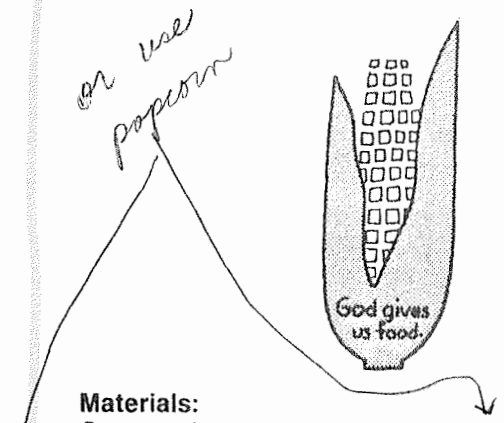

GENESIS - Chapter 41, Verse 55; Chapter 42, Verse 3; Chapter 47, Verrses 5-6

Lesson 9: God Gives Us Food

CORN ON THE COB

Materials:
Construction paper—green and yellow
White paper
Glue
Paintbrush—1″ wide
Felt-tip pen
Pattern—corn husk (page 37)

Directions:
Ahead of time, cut yellow construction paper into ½″ squares (like mosaic tiles). Cut green husks using the pattern. Print the words God gives us food on the husks. Draw a corn-cob shape, about 2″ wide and 8″ long on the white paper.

Let the children place the yellow squares on the corn-cob shape. The best way to do this is for you to paint glue on the area with a wide paintbrush before the child begins. When the child has placed as many corn kernels as he wants, let him glue the husk over the kernels. You may want to add the Bible words to the craft.

Application:
Talk about different foods. Ask the children what their favorite foods are. Say something like, "I am thankful God made (their favorite foods), aren't you?"

Use this also as a Thanksgiving craft.

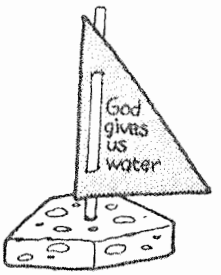

Lesson 10: God Gives Us Water

BATHTUB BOAT

Materials:
Sponges—about 1″ thick, 1 per child
Drinking straws—1 per child
Construction paper
Clear, adhesive-backed plastic
Felt-tip pen
Paper punch
Crayons
Patterns—boat and sail (pages 37, 38)

Directions:
Before the session, cut a boat out of a sponge for each child. Make a small hole in the sponge for the straw to fit into. Cut a sail for each child out of construction paper. Print the words God gives us water on one side of each sail. Cover both sides of the sails with the plastic to make the sails waterproof. Punch two holes on the long side of each sail, where indicated. Cut straws to 7″ in length.

Let the children decorate their sails with crayons. (The wax will stick to the plastic.) Give each child a straw and help him put it through the holes in the sail. Help him put the straw in the hole in the sponge.

Application:
Tell the children they can sail their boats in the bathtub when they take their baths. Their boats will remind them to thank God for giving them water to use and to drink. If you have several large containers in your room, the children will enjoy sailing their boats as a learning activity. This activity requires close supervision, but the children love it. Provide plastic bags for taking the boats home.

This boat can be used with any lesson that has something to do with water or with boats, such as a story on the missionary journeys of Paul.

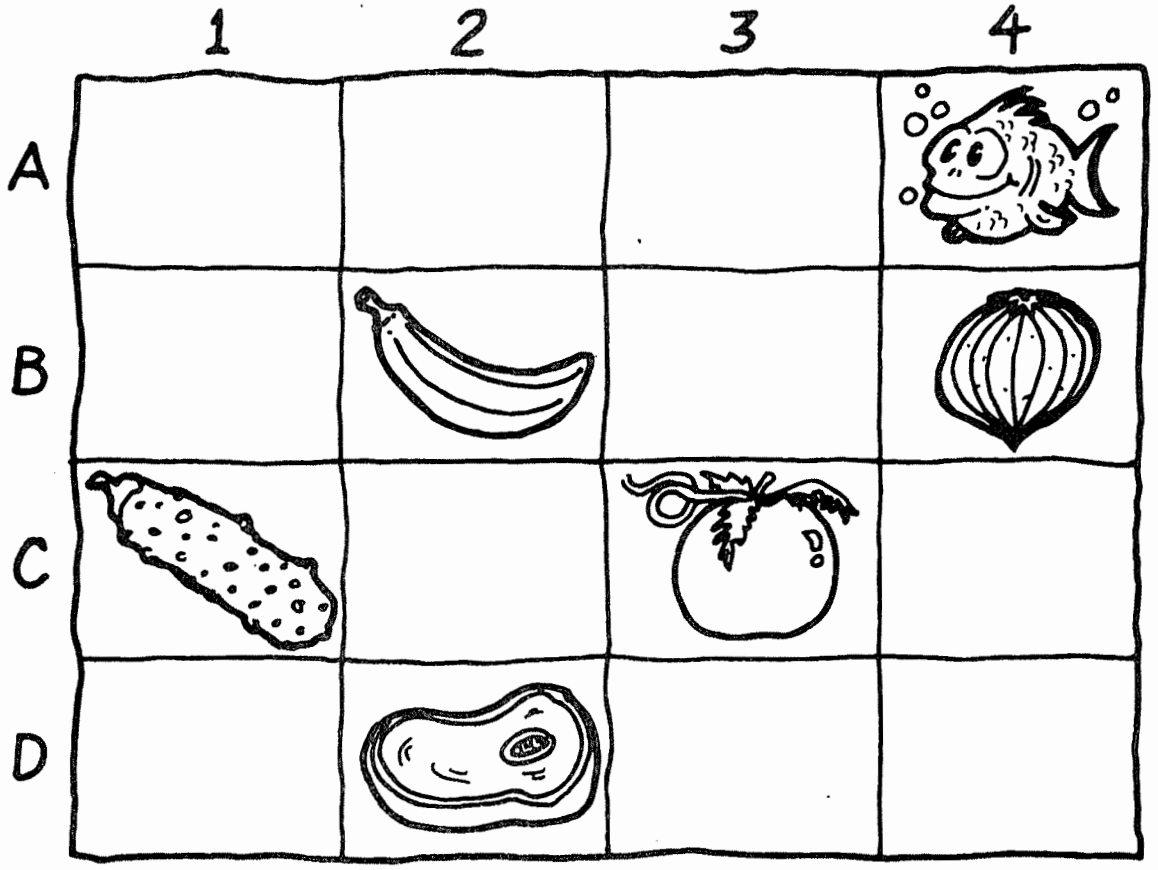

Lesson 11: God Gives Us Clothes

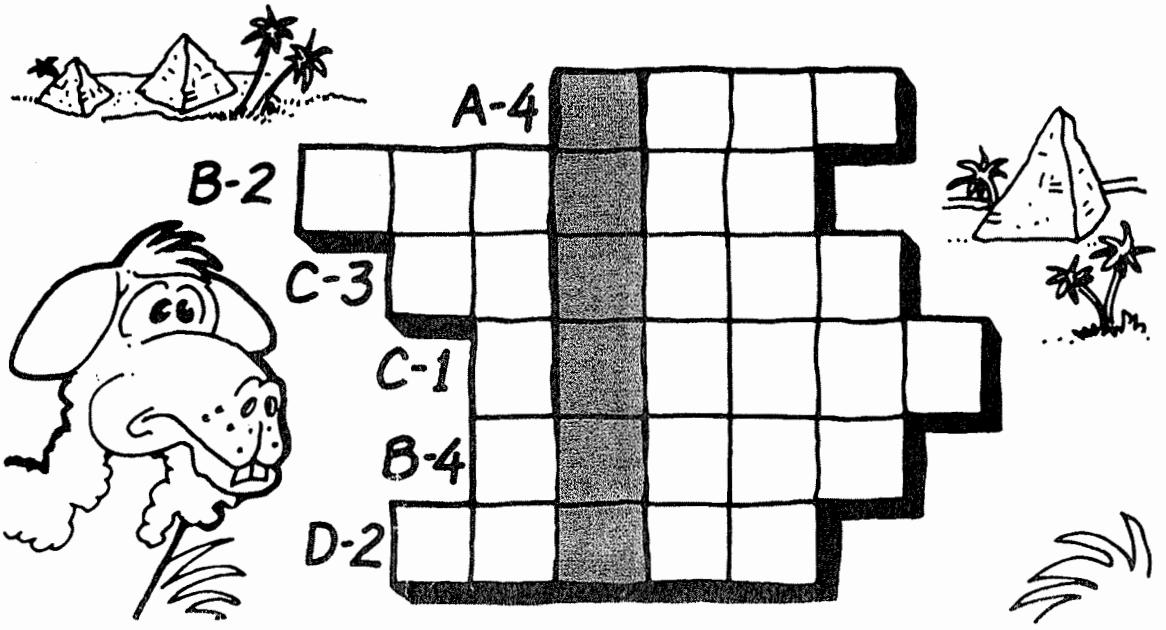

PERSONALIZED T-SHIRT

Materials:
Construction paper
Felt or fabric for letters
Glue
Felt-tip pen
Crayons
Pattern—T-shirt (page 38)

Food for Thought

Read Genesis 41:38-43, 46-49, 53-57. Then write the food names from each square in the matching line of the acrostic puzzle. When complete, the shaded area will tell about the crisis Joseph warned Pharaoh was coming.

Week 28

Jacob's Sons Second Journey to Egypt

Scriptures: Genesis 43

Key Verse: Genesis 43:2 And it came to pass that when they had eaten up the grain which they had brought from Egypt that their father said to them, "Go back and buy us a little food."

Key Points:

1. The famine was severe in the land and Jacob's family ran out of grain. They had to return to Egypt to buy food. That meant that they would have to take Benjamin back with them when they returned. This was very difficult for Jacob but he decided to let them go, praying that God would show them mercy and return his sons to him.

2. As they returned to Egypt, they took double their money to replace the money that was placed in their sacks. They also took fruits of the land as gifts.

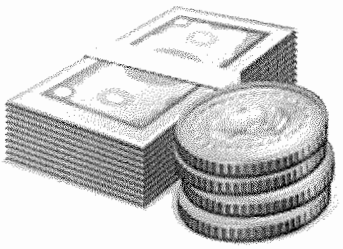

3. Joseph made ready a meal for them. The brothers were fearful but explained that they had come again to buy food. They were invited in and again bowed down to Joseph (prophesy fulfilled again).

4. Joseph asked about their father but when he saw Benjamin he was overtaken with emotion and had to leave the room to weep.

5. When the meal was ready sat them at the table according to their birthright. The brothers were astonished by this. Benjamin's serving was 5 times larger than the others.

This would be a good time to review sons of Jacob for memory work. Song for sons of Jacob on next page.

Year 1

Week 29 Joseph Reveals Himself

Scriptures: Genesis 44 – 45:15

Key Verse: Genesis 44:7 And God sent me before you to preserve a posterity for you in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

Key Points:

1. Joseph had his brothers sacks filled with grain again, also putting their money back. Joseph also instructed that his silver cup be put in Benjamin's sack.

2. As the brothers journeyed back home, Joseph sent his messenger to catch up to them and confront them about the money and cup.

3. Because of the cup being found in Benjamin's sack, he was to come back to Joseph and be his slave. In their grief, they tore they clothes and returned to face Joseph. Once again they fell on the ground before him.

4. Judah intercedes for Benjamin, explaining how grieved their father will be, also offering to be his slave in Benjamin's place. This is an interesting change of events, since it was Judah, who 22 years earlier, wanted to sell Joseph to the Ishmaelites. Judah had become a better man, willing now to offer his own life for Benjamin.

5. Joseph can no longer restrain himself and reveals his identity. He told them not to fear him or be angry at themselves because it was God's plan that he go to Egypt to preserve their lives and the lives of others.

6. Joseph tells them to bring their father to Egypt where he could provide for them for there would be 5 more years of famine. Joseph was filled with emotion and wept with his brothers.

Week 30 Joseph Sees His Father (through the end of his life)

Scriptures: Genesis 44:8 - 50

Key Verse: Genesis 50:20 But as for you, you meant evil against me; but God meant it for good, in order to bring it about as it is this day, to save many people alive.

Key Points:

1. Pharaoh told Joseph to send carts, food, clothing and animals to Canaan to bring Joseph's family to Egypt. This was very generous of an Egyptian Pharaoh, there was usually contempt shown to the Canaanites from the Egyptians. This shows the respect Joseph had in the land.

2. Jacob's (Israel) spirit is revived when he hears the news of his sons. He travels to Egypt, makes sacrifice and God speaks to him in a vision, telling him not to fear to go to Egypt and that he would make him a great nation there. He takes all his possessions and family with him. They numbered 70 people in all.

3. Israel is taken to the land of Goshen in Egypt to live. There he is reunited with Joseph. Pharaoh allows them to shepherd flocks in that area for their occupation.

4. Famine remains and the people sold their land in Egypt as payment for grain. Thus all the land of Egypt eventually belonged to Pharaoh which made him very powerful.

5. Israel was 147 years old, he knew he would soon die so he made Joseph promise he would take him back to Canaan, his home, to bury him. He gave a special blessing to Joseph's sons, Ephriam and Manasseh. He blessed his sons as well, these becoming the 12 tribes of Israel.

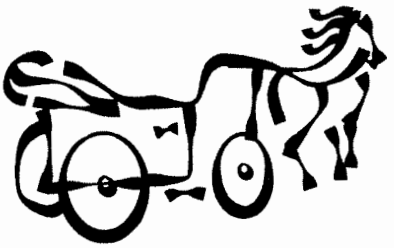

Joseph takes him back to Canaan and buries him as promised. His family grew great in possessions and number.

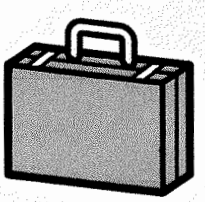

6. Now that Israel was dead, Joseph's brothers worried Joseph would hate them and finally take his revenge. Joseph assured his brothers and comforted them. He said what they had meant for evil, God had meant for good. He was sent to save their families and many more besides.

7. Joseph lived many more years in the land of Egypt. He gave an oath of promise to the children of Israel, that God would bring them out of Egypt and take them back to their home in Canaan. He died at 110 years old and they put his body in a coffin so they could take him back to bury him some day in Canaan.

(This is a lot of information to teach little children in one class session, however, there are so many important details about the children of Israel in this lesson that is a foundation for stories to come. Please use your discretion in teaching the material as best as you can.)

Israel Moves to Egypt

Genesis 46 (NIV)

When Jacob heard from his sons that Joseph was still alive he decided to go see him in Egypt. On his way there he offered up sacrifices to God. That night God spoke to Jacob in a vision and made a promise to him. Read Genesis 46:3 to see what he said and fill in the blanks below.

" I am God, the God of your father," he said.
"Do not be _ _ _ _ _ _ to go down to _ _ _ _ _ ,
for I will make you into a _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ _ there.
I will go down to _ _ _ _ _ with you, and I will surely _ _ _ _ _ you _ _ _ _ again. . . "

Family Reunion

Read about Joseph's reunion with his family in Genesis 42, 45, and 47. Then mark an O over the statements that are true and an X over the false ones. If you're correct, you will have three X's or O's in a row.

Ten of Joseph's brothers went to Egypt to try to buy grain.	Joseph's brothers didn't know who he was when they met him in Egypt.	Joseph was angry that his brothers had sold him into slavery.
Joseph told his brothers they should be mad at themselves for what they did.	Joseph said it was good he had been sold into Egypt because he had saved lives.	Joseph didn't want his brothers to tell his father he was alive.
Joseph's brothers were shepherds.	Pharaoh would not let Joseph's family settle in Goshen.	The Israelites increased greatly in number.

A Growing Nation and Baby Moses

Scriptures: Exodus 1 – 2:10

Key Verse: Exodus 2:10 And the child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter and he became her son. So she called his name Moses, because "I drew him out of the water".

Key Points:

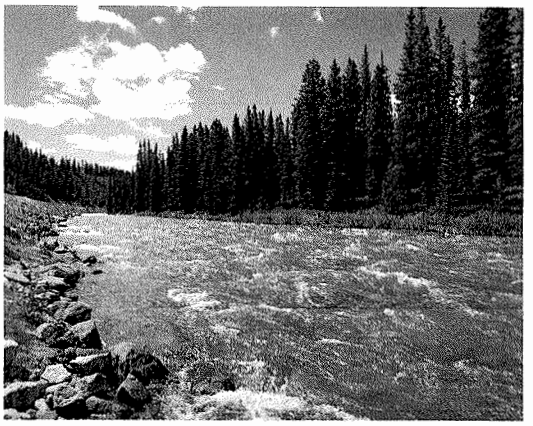

1. The children of Israel multiplied greatly in the land of Egypt. A new Pharaoh came to power who did not know Joseph. Pharaoh feared the Israelites and made slaves of them. The Egyptians were hard taskmasters and made their lives miserable. God gave them strength, however, and they became greater still.

2. The king of Egypt spoke to the midwives of the Hebrew women and told them to kill the male babies when they were born but the Israelite midwives feared God and spared the babies. Determined to have his way, he ordered that all the male babies be cast into the river.

3. A Hebrew woman, Jochebed, gave birth to a beautiful son. She hid him 3 months to keep him from being killed. She placed him in a basket boat that floated in the Nile River, near the king's palace. Pharaoh's daughter found him and took him from the river. The baby's sister, Miriam, was watching nearby and offered to find a Hebrew woman to nurse the baby. She got the baby's mother, Jochebed, to be a nurse for the baby. The baby was named "Moses" for he was "drawn out of the water". He grew up in Pharaoh's palace.

…run like a dog?
Stand straight and tall
Making no sound at all Shhhhh----

God cares for you.

Cut out magazine pictures of parents, grandparents, brothers, sisters, babysitters, teachers. Make a collage or a mobile with the pictures.

Ask, "which pictures remind you of a person who helps and cares for you?" Thank you God for (name person) who cares for (child's name).

Hidden Basket

Place a doll inside a small basket. Hide the basket, and give clues to its location. Ex. The basket is hidden by something green, the basket is hiding by a table, etc.

Our Bible story today is about a baby names Moses who was hidden in a special place. See if you can find a baby doll hidden in a basket in our classroom.

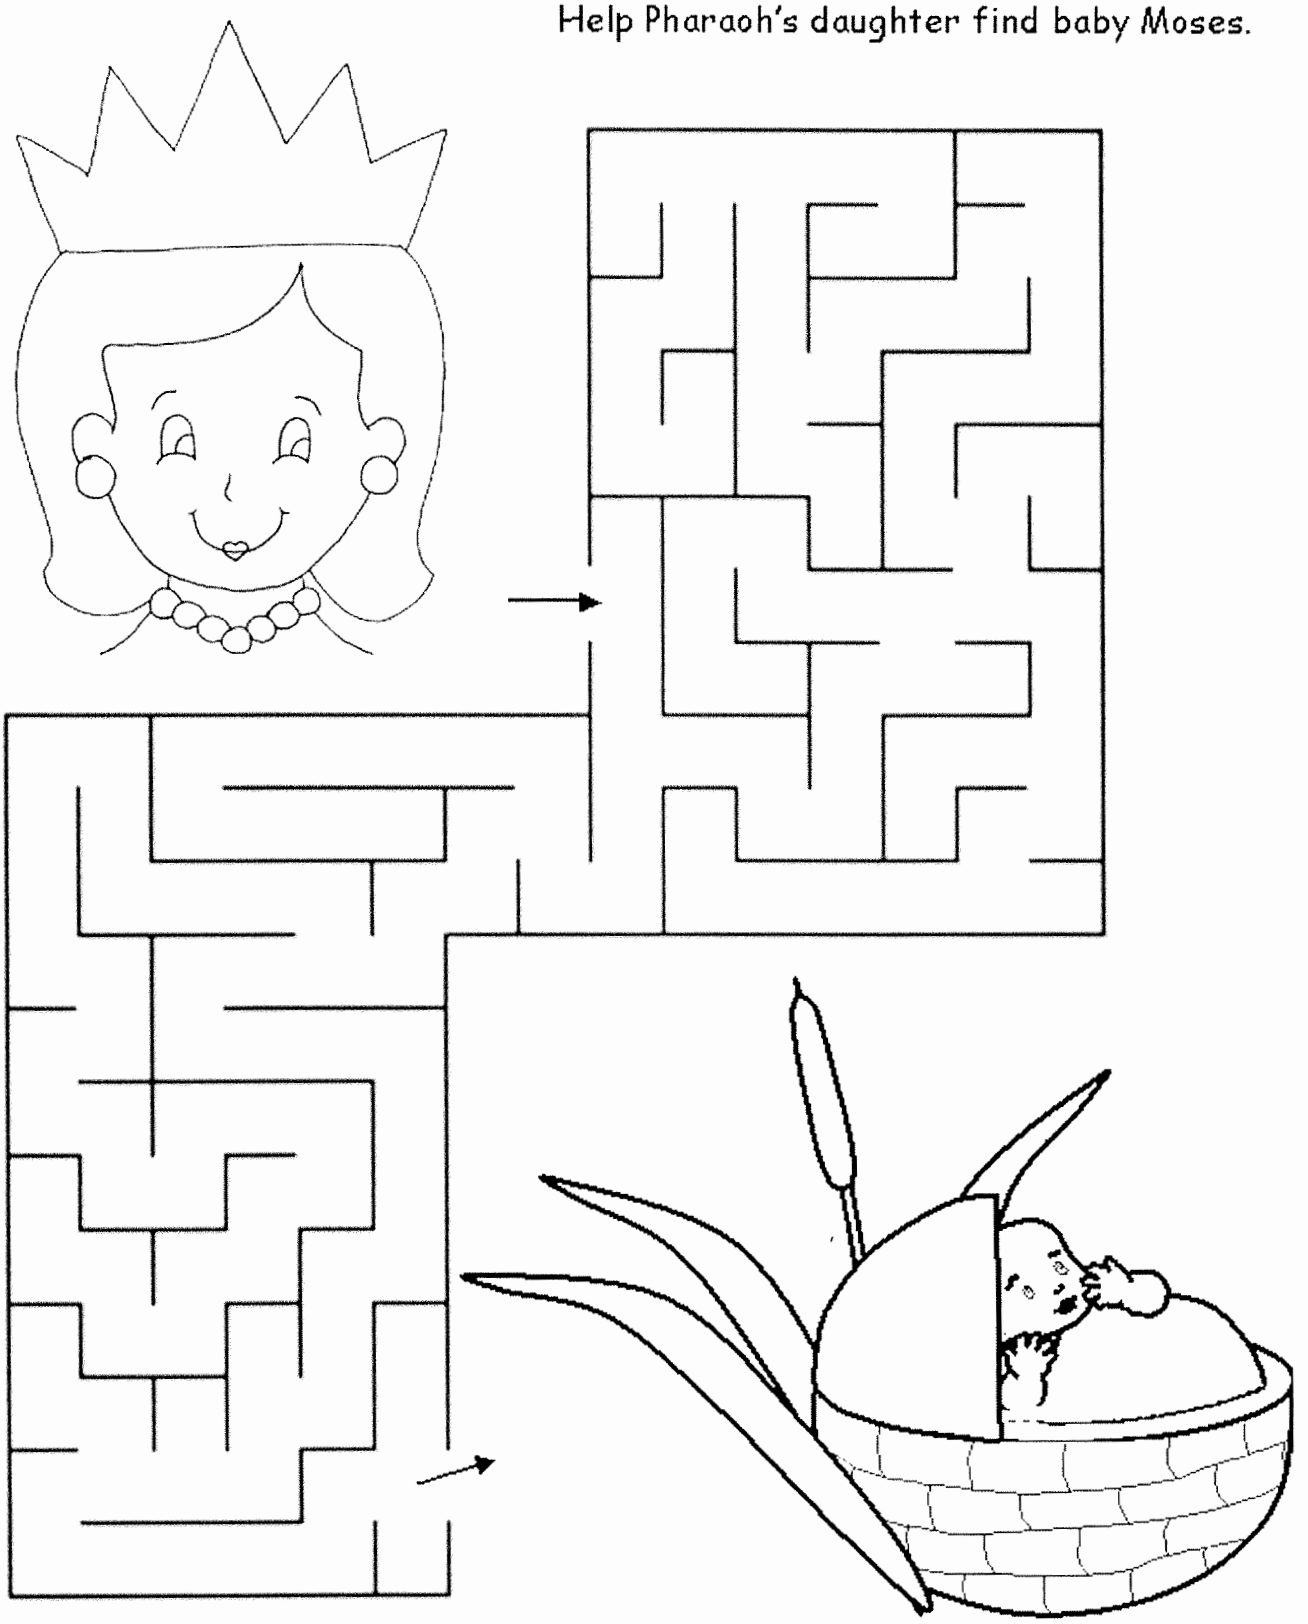

Leaving Egypt

One or two small suitcases and items such as comb, toothbrush, map, socks, robe. Have children place items in case and carry it around the room. Ask, "If you were going on a trip, what would you pack in your suitcase?"

Our story today is about the Israelites who traveled on a long, long trip. God took care of the people while they traveled. How does God take care of you when your travel on a trip?

Moses Runs Away

Scriptures: Exodus 2:11 - 25

Key Verse: Exodus 2:11 Now it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out to his brethren and looked at their burdens. And he saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his brethren.

Key Points:

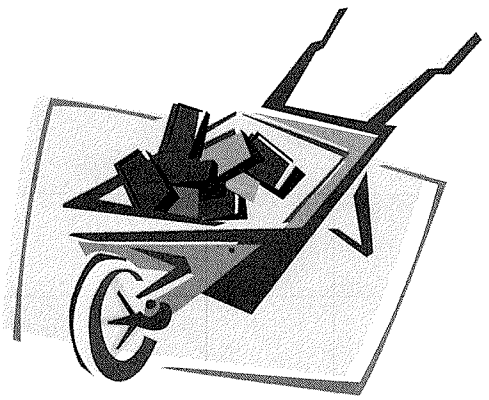

1. Moses is grieved by the burden of the Israelites and how they were treated. When he witnessed an Egyptian hitting a Hebrew, one of his brethren, he killed him and hid him in the sand. He did not know anyone saw him.

2. On another occasion, he interrupted a fight between two Hebrew men. Moses tried to stop this but was confronted about him killing the Egyptian. The man asked if he would kill him like he did the Egyptian.

3. Moses fled to the land of Midian to hide from Pharaoh, he wanted to kill Moses for what he had done. The priest of Midian, Jethro, had 7 daughters and Moses stayed there and helped them water their father's sheep. He lived with Jethro's family and married one of his daughters, Zipporah. They had a son, Gershom, which meant "stranger there".

4. The Pharaoh died but the children of Israel still groaned because of the hard work they had to do in Egypt. God heard them and remembered His covenant made to their forefathers.

When Moses was grown he went to Midian. At a well Moses chased away some bad men and helped seven sisters water their sheep. Exodus 2:15-20

Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb. Exodus 3:1

To Remember:

- God solves problems His way, not ours

Vocabulary

- shepherd: person who guides and protects animals

Lesson Exodus 2:11-22

Discussion points:

- Moses reacted in a very human way to the cruelty and injustice he saw. But his way did not accomplish anything. It even made him a murderer in the eyes of the people he was trying to protect. God's ways are not like ours, but they work. We must submit to his ways of doing things.
- Moses looked like someone in the perfect position to help the Israelites. But he threw it away by taking revenge himself. God was still able to use him, but had to give Moses time to grow out of his anger, pride, and lack of dependence on God.

Sing: Father Abraham had many sons

Activity: Pick one student to act out a shepherd. Have the other students act like sheep. Tell them that sheep tend to get lost, get attacked, and forget instructions quickly. Have the shepherd try to keep the sheep together. You be a wolf trying to attack the ones far away. Then discuss how this job trained Moses to be a leader, protect the weak, and deal with misbehaving sheep.

True or False

1. Moses identified himself with the Israelites. T
2. God had forgotten the Israelites. F
3. God approves of murder when a situation is unfair. F
4. Moses lost his influence in Egypt by killing the Egyptian. T

Memory Work:

Exodus 2:15a When Pharaoh heard of it, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from Pharaoh. He settled in the land of Midian.

God Calls Moses through a Burning Bush

Scriptures: Exodus 3 and 4

Key Verse: Exodus 3:5 Then He said "Do not draw near this place. Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground."

Key Points:

1. Moses led Jethro's flock into the desert and came to Mt. Horeb, the mountain of God. The Angel of the Lord appears from a bush that was burning with fire. God calls to him by name as Moses turned to look where the fire was coming from. He tells Moses to take off his sandals for he was standing on holy ground. Moses hid his face as he heard the voice of God for he was afraid to look upon God.

2. God tells Moses that he has heard the cries of his people and has come to deliver them out of the land of Egypt. He wants to use Moses as his representative to go to Pharaoh. Moses felt unable to do the job God wanted him to do. God tells him that he will be with him, that he should say that, "I AM" has sent him. This is the Hebrew name YHWH (Jehovah) translated here as "I AM".

3. Moses is to go to Pharaoh with the elders of Israel and tell him to let His people go. Moses worries he is slow of speech and cannot talk to Pharaoh. God gave Moses mighty deeds to show Pharaoh; a rod turns into a snake, a hand becoming leprous, water turnd to blood. He warns Moses to use all the deeds he has given him. Aaron is sent with him to help Moses speak.

4. God tells Moses he will harden Pharaoh's heart so that he will by no means let the people go. The elders of Israel will see all the signs Moses does and bow their heads to worship the Lord. It was hard for Moses, but he trusted that God would provide the power to do what was asked.

Moses' Excuses

God chose Moses to lead the Israelites out of Egypt, but Moses had excuses for not obeying God. Have you ever given a reason for disobeying God? There are no excuses for disobedience to God. When we want to obey God, He will help us do what is right.

The hidden words are from this story in Exodus 4:10-17. The code following each word tells the coordinates where one of the letters of the word is found in the puzzle. After you have found all the hidden words, start at the upper left and use all the leftover letters to fill in the blanks at the bottom of the page with a Bible verse which tells that God will help us when we obey Him.

Moses' Saga

Sing "Moses' Saga" to the tune of "Oh, Dear! What Can the Matter Be?"

(Spoken) Moses said,

"Oh, dear! What can the matter be? (Hold one hand out, palm up, then the other.)

Fire, fire, there in that burning tree! (Bring both palms to cheeks, then point away.)

What, what? God wants to talk to me? (Point to yourself.)

How could that possibly be?" (Shrug shoulders and stand with arms out, palms up.)

(Spoken) God said,

"Stop there! Take off your dirty shoes. (Point down.)

Moses, I want to talk to you!

Listen, I'm planning to use you (place one hand behind ear and lean)

To bring all my people back home." (Motion with whole arm to come.)

GOD CALLS MOSES

There was a bush burning in the desert. It was full of fire, but it did not burn up. Moses went closer to the bush. Then he heard a voice.
"Moses! Do not come closer until you take off your shoes. You are on holy ground. God is talking to you!"

Moses was afraid, but God kept talking. "I have heard the cries of the Israelites who have become prisoners of the Egyptians. I will send you to Pharaoh to get their freedom."
Moses was amazed! "But, Lord, I am only a shepherd; no one will listen to me."

"Moses, I will help you," replied God. "Tell the Israelites that God has spoken and has promised to take all of you to a wonderful land."
Moses kept on complaining. "They won't believe me. Anyway, I can't speak well. Send someone else."
God knew that Moses could do all these things, but He finally gave Moses some help.

Whenever Moses dropped his staff, it would become a snake until he picked it up. Whenever he put his hand in and out of his robe, it would become diseased until he put it back. Whenever he poured water from the river onto the ground, it would become blood. These miracles would prove to the people that Moses had God's message.
Also, God gave Moses a helper. Moses' brother Aaron would speak to the Israelites for Moses.

Exodus 3:1-4:20

Could Moses have done what God asked?
Will God ever ask you to do something too hard for you?

The Early Life of Moses

God's people had lived in Egypt for many years. A new king made the Israelites slaves and was very cruel to them. God chose Moses to lead his people to a new land God promised them. God took care of Moses all his life and helped him be a good leader of God's people.

Use the clues to help you fill in the blanks in the puzzle. The Bible verses will help you.

God Versus Pharaoh

Scriptures: Exodus 5 - 10

Key Verse: Exodus 6:6 "Therefore say to the children of Israel: I am the Lord; I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, I will rescue you from their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with great judgments"

Key Points:

1. Moses goes to see Pharaoh and he becomes angry. Pharaoh scoffs at God and makes the children of Israel work even harder, having to find their own straw for making bricks. Moses is discouraged, Pharaoh becomes meaner, but God becomes even stronger against him.

2. God promises He will deal with Pharaoh and that Pharaoh will drive the children of Israel out of his land. He will do many signs so that the people would know that HE IS GOD. God instructs Moses and Aaron to go to Pharaoh again, this time using Aaron's rod to become a snake. Pharaoh called his sorcerers and they too made snakes from rods, but Aaron's snakes ate up Pharaoh's and this made him very angry again and would not let the people go.

3. God sends the first 9 plagues to the Egyptians, none ever affected the Israelites. Through all 9 plagues Pharaoh would not give up. Several times Moses went to Pharaoh before the plague would come to give him a chance to free the Israelites, but he would not. (As time permits, go over each plague; briefly talk about how they affected the people).

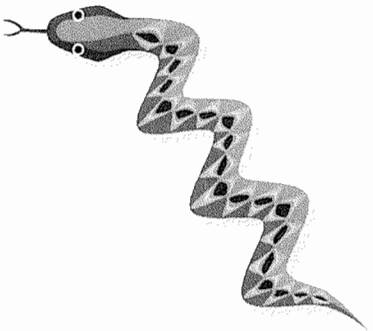

4. God shows His power to Pharaoh through these plagues. God also shows love for His people and that He keeps His promises and covenants.

10 Plagues: Water to Blood, Frogs, Lice, Flies, diseased Livestock, Boils, Hail, Locusts, Darkness, and death of the Firstborn.

Death of the Firstborn will be covered in lesson 35. This is a lot of material, however, teaching the important concepts of God using Pharaoh's stubbornness, God showing his power to the people, and keeping promises would be important to bring out in this lesson. It may not be as necessary to focus too much on the individual plagues.

or

"Why should I listen to you or to your God?" Pharaoh's angry shouts echoed through the palace. Moses and Aaron had asked if the Israelites could go for three days to worship God. But Pharaoh just made the poor slaves work harder than ever.

God told Moses He would send ten terrible troubles to Egypt so that Pharaoh would listen to God.
First, the water in all the rivers was turned to blood.
Second, the land was filled with frogs.

Third, the dust of the land became lice.
Fourth, swarms of flies bit the Egyptians.
Fifth, the cattle of the Egyptians died.
Sixth, the Egyptians broke out in terrible sores.

Seventh, terrible thunderstorms came and ruined the countryside.
Eighth, thousands of locusts ate up everything that was growing.

Ninth, for three days the land of Egypt was full of darkness.
Tenth, the oldest child of each family died unless God's special mark was on the door of the house.

Each time a trouble came, Pharaoh would decide to let the Israelites go. But when God took the trouble away, Pharaoh would change his mind and make them stay. Finally, when Pharaoh's own son died, Pharaoh told the Israelites to get out of Egypt in a hurry.

Music by Rich Nelson Music

Topics:
Plagues, Hardened Heart, Moses

Target Audience:
Grades 2-6 (Ages 7-12)

First God sent,
Plague number one,
Turned the Nile into blood.
All the people in Egypt were feeling pretty low,
They told Pharaoh "Let them Go!"

Then God sent,
Plague number two,
Jumping frogs all over you.
All the people in Egypt were feeling pretty low,
They told Pharaoh "Let them Go!"

Then God sent,
Plague number three,
Swarms of gnats from head to knee.
All the people in Egypt were feeling pretty low,
They told Pharaoh "Let them Go!"

Then God sent,
Plague number four,
Filthy flies need we say more?
All the people in Egypt were feeling pretty low,
They told Pharaoh "Let them Go!"

Then God sent,
Plague number five,
All the livestock up and died.
All the people in Egypt were feeling pretty low,
They told Pharaoh "Let them Go!"

Then God sent,
Plague number six,
Boils and sores to make you sick.
All the people in Egypt were feeling pretty low,
They told Pharaoh "Let them Go!"

Then God sent,
Plague number seven,
Hail and lighting down from heaven.
All the people in Egypt were feeling pretty low,
They told Pharaoh "Let them Go!"

Then God sent,
Plague number eight,
Locust came and they sure ate.
All the people in Egypt were feeling pretty low,
They told Pharaoh "Let them Go!"

Then God sent,
Plague number nine,
Total darkness all the time.
All the people in Egypt were feeling pretty low,
They told Pharaoh "Let them Go!"

Then God sent,
Plague number ten,
Pharaoh's son died so he gave in.
All the people in Egypt were feeling pretty low,
Finally Pharaoh let them go.

Moses and the plagues

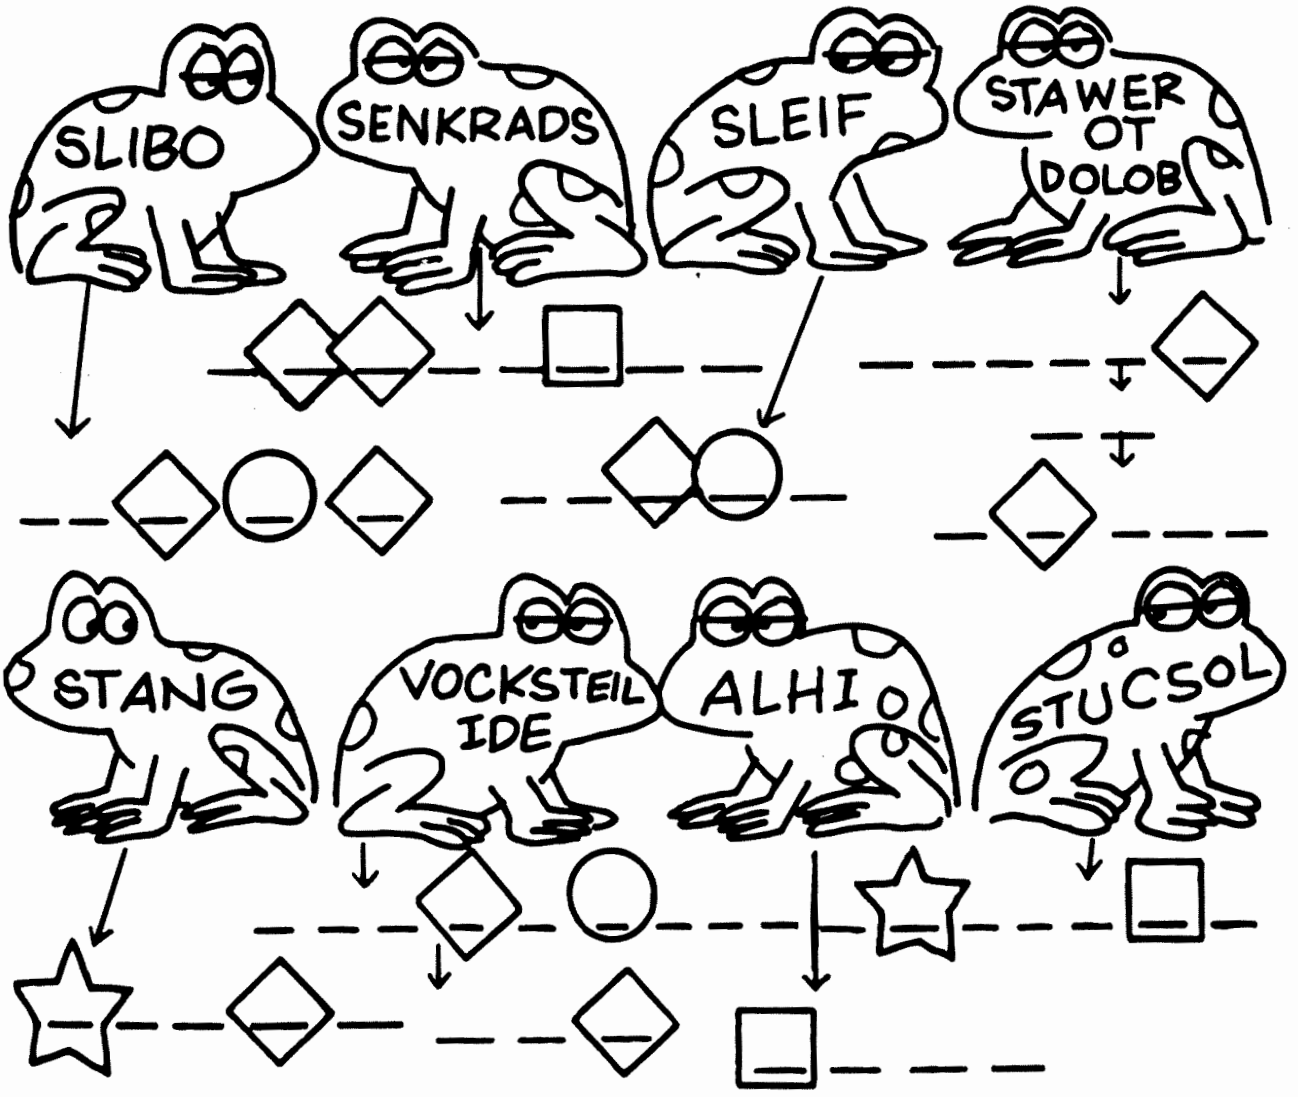

Cut an empty egg carton so that there are 10 cups (instead of 12). Now, find little items to represent the 10 plagues and place in each of the 10 cups. For example, a red piece of paper for blood, plastic frog, fly, cow, Styrofoam ball for hail, etc. The kids may want to draw pictures to help them remember the plagues.

Put a drop of red food coloring on the end of a toothpick. Dip it in water and watch the water turn red. Talk about how the magicians did the same thing. Share how God did a miracle and how it was different. (Even the water in pots turned red etc.)

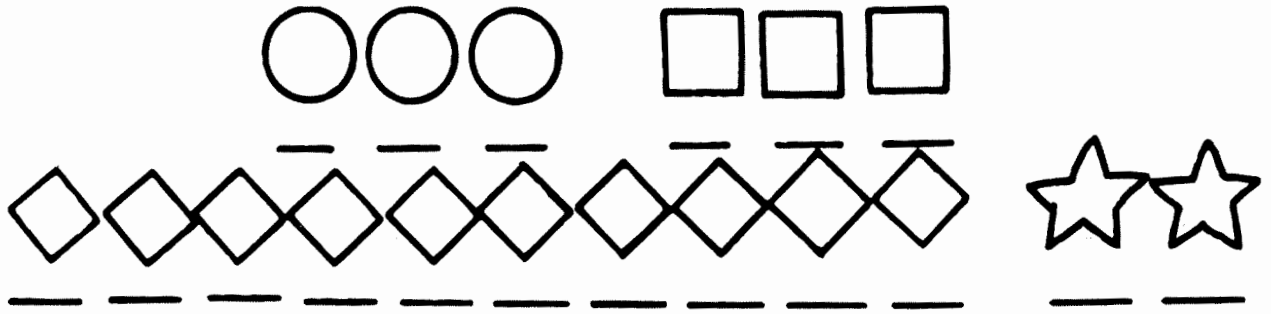

Make a booklet of the plagues or play a game about the plagues (see the attached sheet.)

Scrambled Plagues

One of the ten plagues God sent to the Egyptians was frogs. Unscramble the words on the frogs to discover eight other plagues God sent. If you need help, read Exodus 7–10.

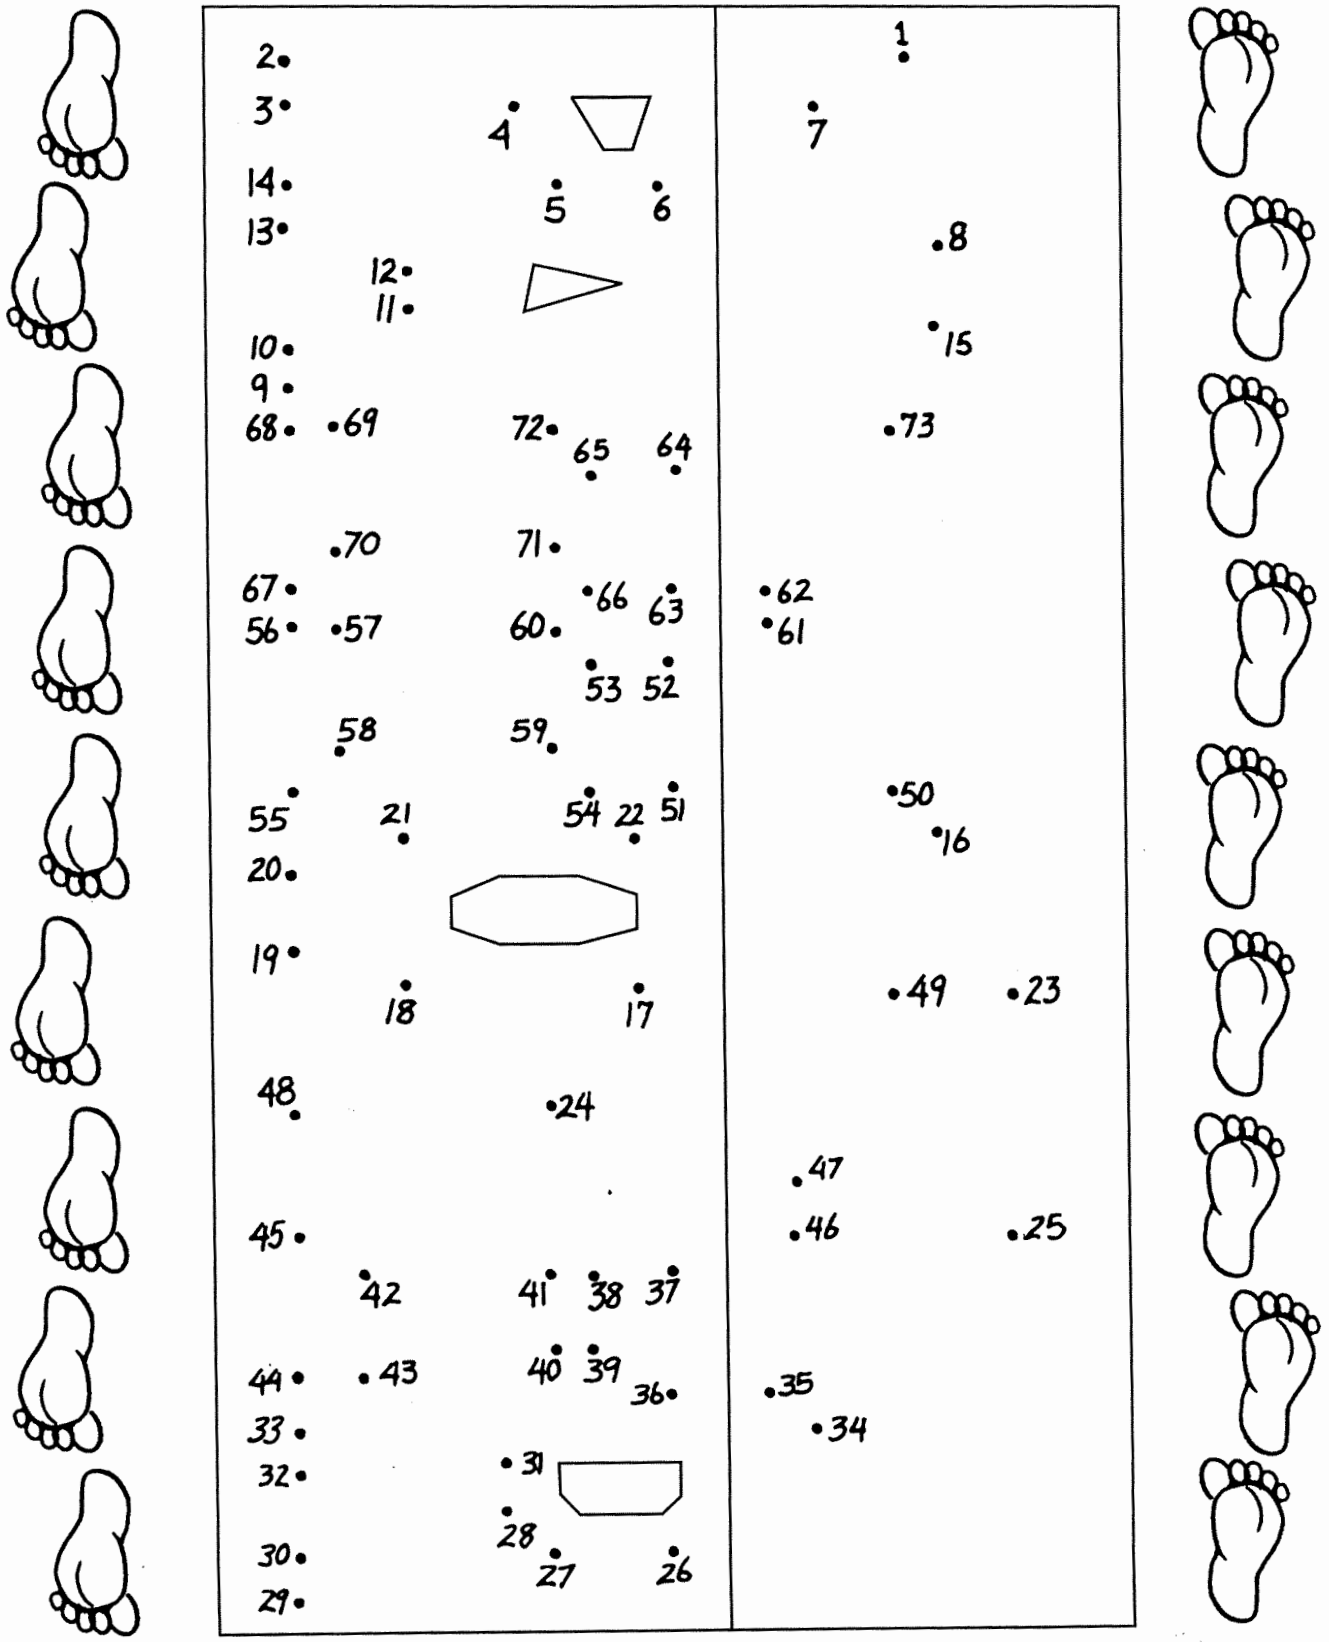

Now put each circled letter in a circle below, each letter with a square around it in a square below, and so on. Unscramble the letters to find God's message to Pharaoh.

What God Used to Show His Power

Exodus 7:1-25

God chose Moses to lead the Israelites out of slavery in Egypt and into the land God promised Abraham. But the cruel ruler, Pharaoh, did not want the Israelite slaves to leave Egypt. God showed Pharaoh His power through miracles and ten plagues which came on the nation of Egypt.

Connect the dots to reveal two things God used to show Pharaoh His power. Then unscramble the words and write them on the lines to tell what happened.

Year 1

Week 35

Saved by Blood

Scriptures: Exodus 11, 12, 13

Key Verse: Exodus 12:13 "Now the blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt."

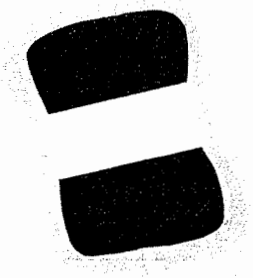

Key Points:

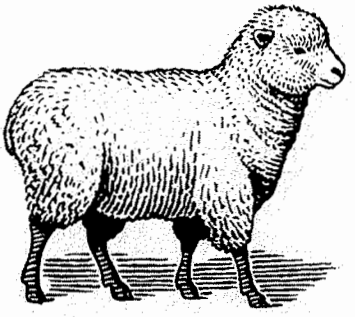

1. To deliver the people out of Egypt, God announces one final plague- the death of all the firstborn in Egypt. The oldest child in each family would die if the family was not protected by the blood of the lamb.

2. God gave Moses and Aaron specific instructions for the Hebrew people to follow so they would be safe from the coming plague. Explain these instructions and discuss the importance of the children of Israel in keeping them.

3. Also discuss how as Christians we are saved by the blood of the lamb. Our lamb being Christ who died on the cross, to save us from the bondage of our sins. As time permits, further discuss the parallels between the Passover and Christ.

The tenth plague caused the deliverance of the Israelites. An angel of God was sent to destroy every first-born in Egypt, man and beast alike.

The blood of a perfect lamb appearing upon the doorposts of the Israelites, as commanded by Moses, caused the angel of God to pass over their homes.

The Israelites were told to kill a lamb and put the blood on the door. Then the death angel would pass over. The firstborn in each Egyptian family was killed. There was much sorrow in Egypt.

Bible Story Craft - The Passover

Materials:

1. For the doorposts, pieces of wood nailed together would be best, or cardboard colored brown, or brown construction paper..

2. For the lamb, cardboard or heavy construction paper, cotton puffs for the wool.

3. For the blood on the door post, red paint, felt pen or crayon

Instructions:

1. Have the three pieces of wood nailed together, or trace the drawing on cardboard and color it brown, or trace it on brown construction paper.

Explain to the children how the LORD told Moses he was going to pass through Egypt on a night, and all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast would die.. (Exodus 12:12)

2. Trace the lamb onto cardboard or heavy construction paper, color the legs and face white or what color you like, paste on cotton puffs for the wool.

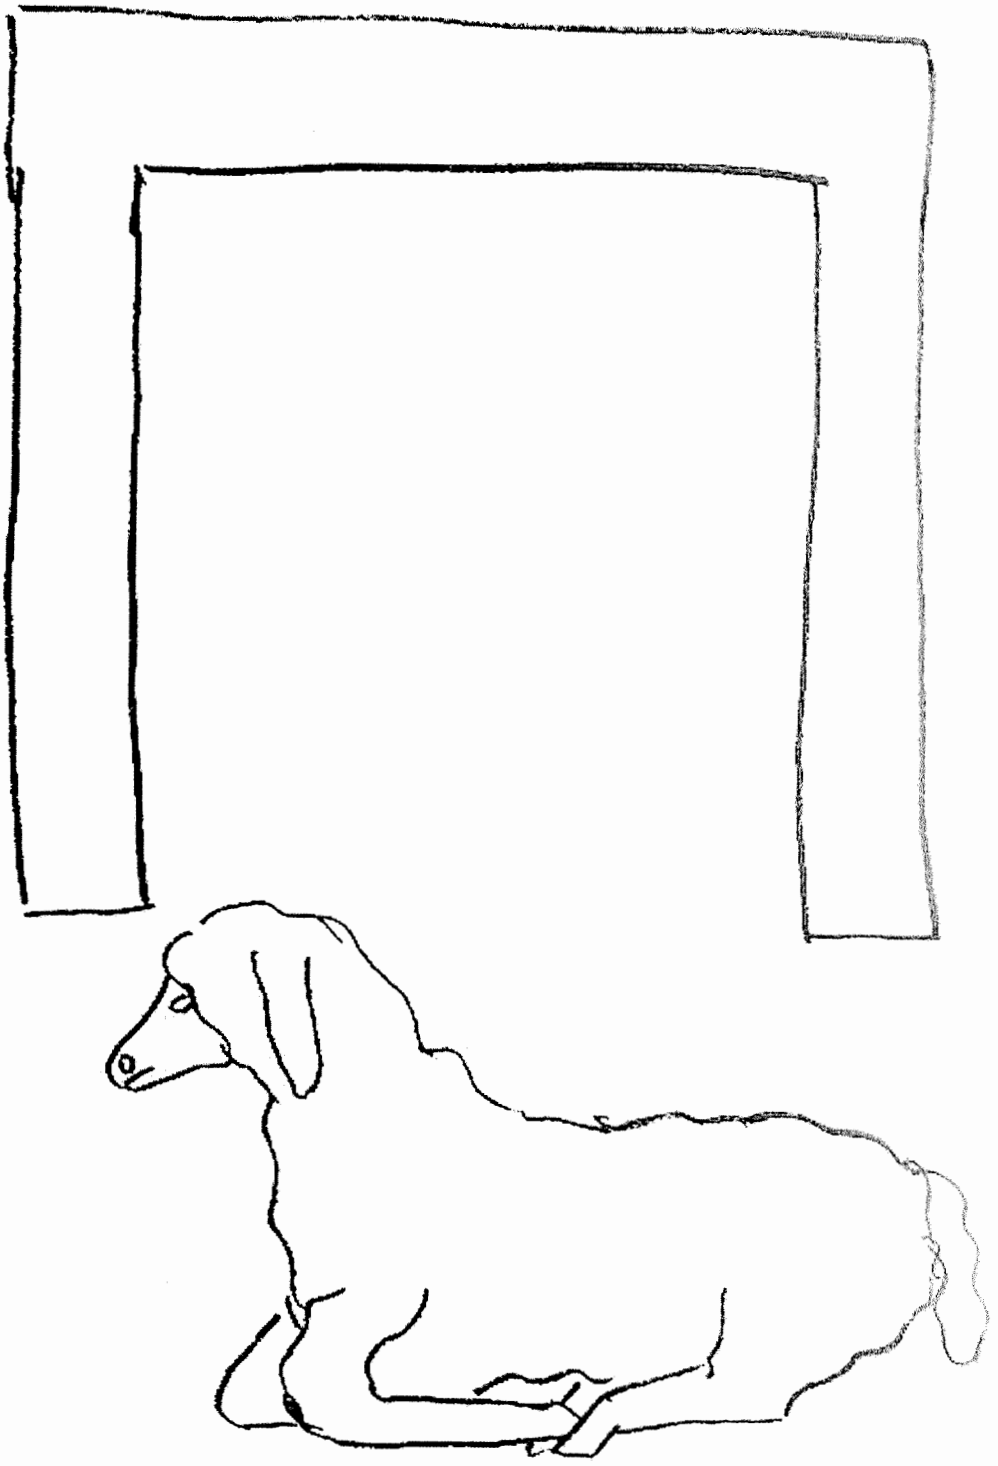

Explain to the children how each household took a lamb into their house, where it lived with them for 4 days in the house, and then it was killed in the evening to provide the blood that would protect those in the house.

3. Take red paint or red felt pen or crayon and put red on the top of the doorpost, and each side.

Explain to the children that the blood of the lamb was put on the doorposts, and each side post, to protect all who were in the house when the LORD passed through to kill all the firstborn in the land of Egypt. Tell them that everyone who was in the house protected by the blood of the lamb remained alive, because the LORD passed over the house when he saw the blood.

Explain to the children that this is a picture of the Lord Jesus Christ who is the Lamb of God, who shed his precious blood to atone for our sins on Calvary's cross.

Jesus is our Passover Lamb

1 Peter 1:19-21

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

20 Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,

21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

Places the Israelites Visited

After God's people had lived in Egypt for more than 400 years, God chose Moses to lead them to the land of Canaan, the land God promised to Abraham. Because the people disobeyed God, they wandered in the wilderness for many years before entering the Promised Land.

Unscramble the names of the places the Israelites visited or lived and write them on the lines. Then find the places in the word search puzzle. If you need help unscrambling the places, you can look up the Bible verses.

2. After three days in the desert, they came to some water which was not good. God made it safe to drink.

3. Then the Israelites grumbled about food. God gave them manna in the morning and quails at night to provide for their meals.

PRESCHOOL GAME

Supplies: Popped popcorn, a clean bedsheet or a piece of plastic sheeting, and enough small paper bags for each child to have one

Kids will become dramatic characters who find themselves transported to an ancient desert for this tempting, tasty treat.

Say: Today we are going to find out what it was like for the Israelites to wander around in the sandy desert. Have the children follow your lead as you take them through the desert. Say: Drag your feet through the hot sand. Climb up that next tall dune. Oops! You went the wrong way! Turn around and go back. Imagine that you had been wandering for forty-five days and your tummy was growling. Start to grumble about how hungry you are as you keep walking and walking. Now stop grumbling because it's getting dark and you're too tired to even talk! Lay down with your eyes closed. Keep your eyes closed until I tell you it's morning. Leave an area open so you can spread out the sheet or plastic with a layer of popcorn spread over it while the children have their eyes closed.

Say: The Lord heard the grumbling of his people, and he sent a miracle in the morning. When the grumbly people woke up, there was "manna" scattered all over the ground. They gathered just enough to eat that day. Give each of the children a bag. Have them each fill up a bag and then sit down to eat their "manna" snack.

MOSES HOLDS UP HIS HANDS

A group of people called the Amalekites came and attacked the Israelites.

Moses told Joshua to choose some of the Israelites to fight against the Amalekites.

The next day, Moses stood on top of the hill with a staff in his hand. Two other people went with Moses to the top of the hill. Their names were Aaron and Hur.

As long as Moses had his hands up, the Israelites were winning the battle. But when Moses lowered his hands, the Amalekites were winning.

When Moses got tired of holding up his hands, Aaron and Hur helped. They kept Moses' hands up so that the Israelites would win. By the time the sun began to set in the evening, the Israelites had won!

Then the Lord said to Moses, "Write down what happened on a scroll."

After that, Moses built an altar to the Lord.

Moses Receives the Law

Scriptures: Exodus 20 and 32

Key Verse: Exodus 32:26 Then Moses said, "Whoever is on the Lord's side—come to me!"

Key Points:

1. God wrote the Ten Commandments on two tablets of stone, and gave them to Moses on Mt. Sinai.

2. While Moses was receiving the commandments from God, the people became restless.

3. Aaron asked the people for their gold jewelry and formed it into an idol of a golden calf.

4. God had told the Israelites to serve Him only. Moses begged God to be patient with the people, and God showed mercy to them.

5. God sent Moses back, but Moses was so angry he broke the stone tablets. Then he ground the golden calf into dust, put the dust in the water and had the people drink it.

6. Those who did not repent were killed.

God called Moses to the top of Mt. Sinai and gave him the ten commandments.

Moses went to the top of Mt. Sinai to talk with God. God gave Moses His Ten Commandments written on tables of stone. These were the laws God wanted His people to obey. Exodus 19:18-20; 20:1-17

Key Points:

1. Moses asked to see God's glory.

2. God explained it was not possible for Moses to see His face and live. He told Moses to hide in an opening of the rock, and God covered Moses while His glory passed by.

3. Moses cut two more tablets for God to write the commandments. God had such love for the people that He gave the commandments again.

4. When Moses came back down the mountain, his face was radiant, and everyone knew he had been with God.

Moses Shining Face

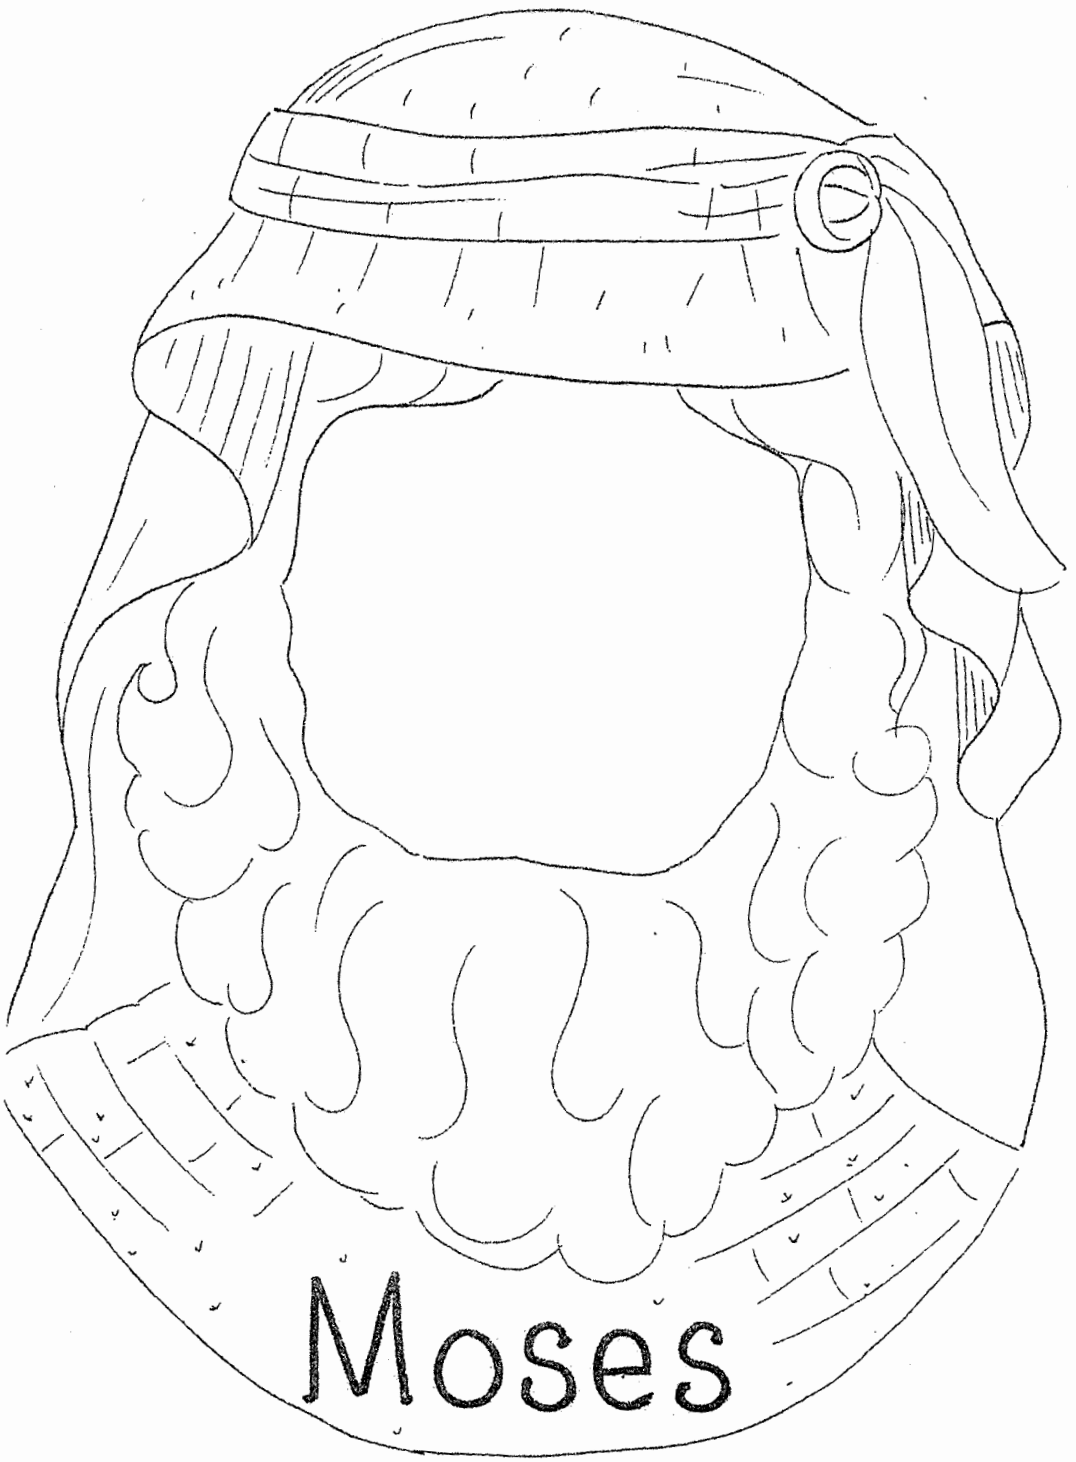

Exodus 34:19

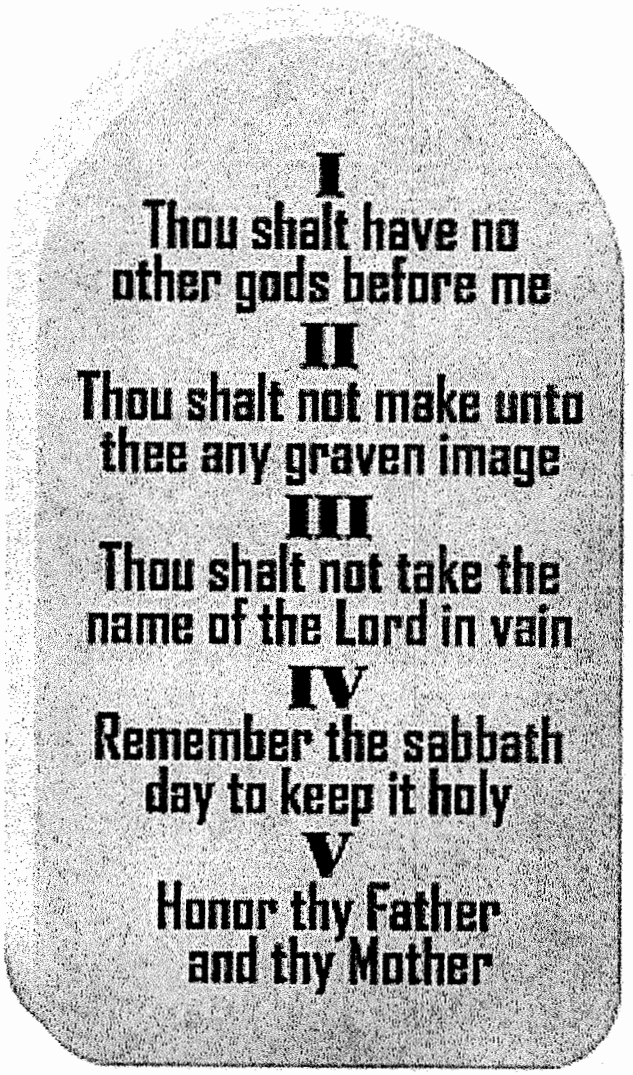

Now it was so, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai , that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone while he talked with God.

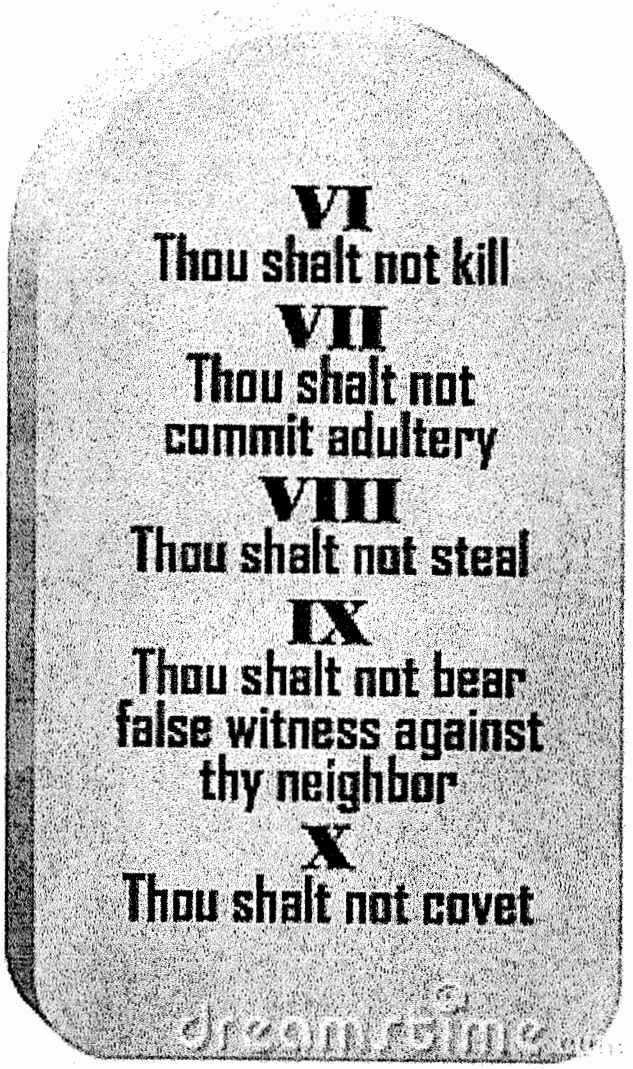

Craft: Moses Veils his face

Copy the picture of Moses face. Let the children color it. Then glue pieces of tissue paper or tulle to make a "veil" for Moses. Explain to the children how Moses face shone after speaking with God and how the children of Israel were afraid to come near him. He would wear the veil when speaking with the Children of Israel but when going in to talk to God he took it off.

Moses Sees God's Glory/Receives New Tablets

Craft Idea

Trace two tablets onto cardstock, foam or other material. Have the children cut out the tablets. Copy 10 commandments and glue onto foam. You can then make a story board, magnet or other items.

And Moses said to the Lord:

"Show me Your Glory"

On the line below, write out what God's response was to Moses:

Year 1

Week 41 The Tabernacle

Scriptures: Exodus 35 - 40

Key Verse: Exodus 25:8 "And let them make Me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among them."

Key Points:

1. Moses gathers the people together and tells them that God commands that they should work for 6 days and rest on the Sabbath (7^{th} day) for it is holy.

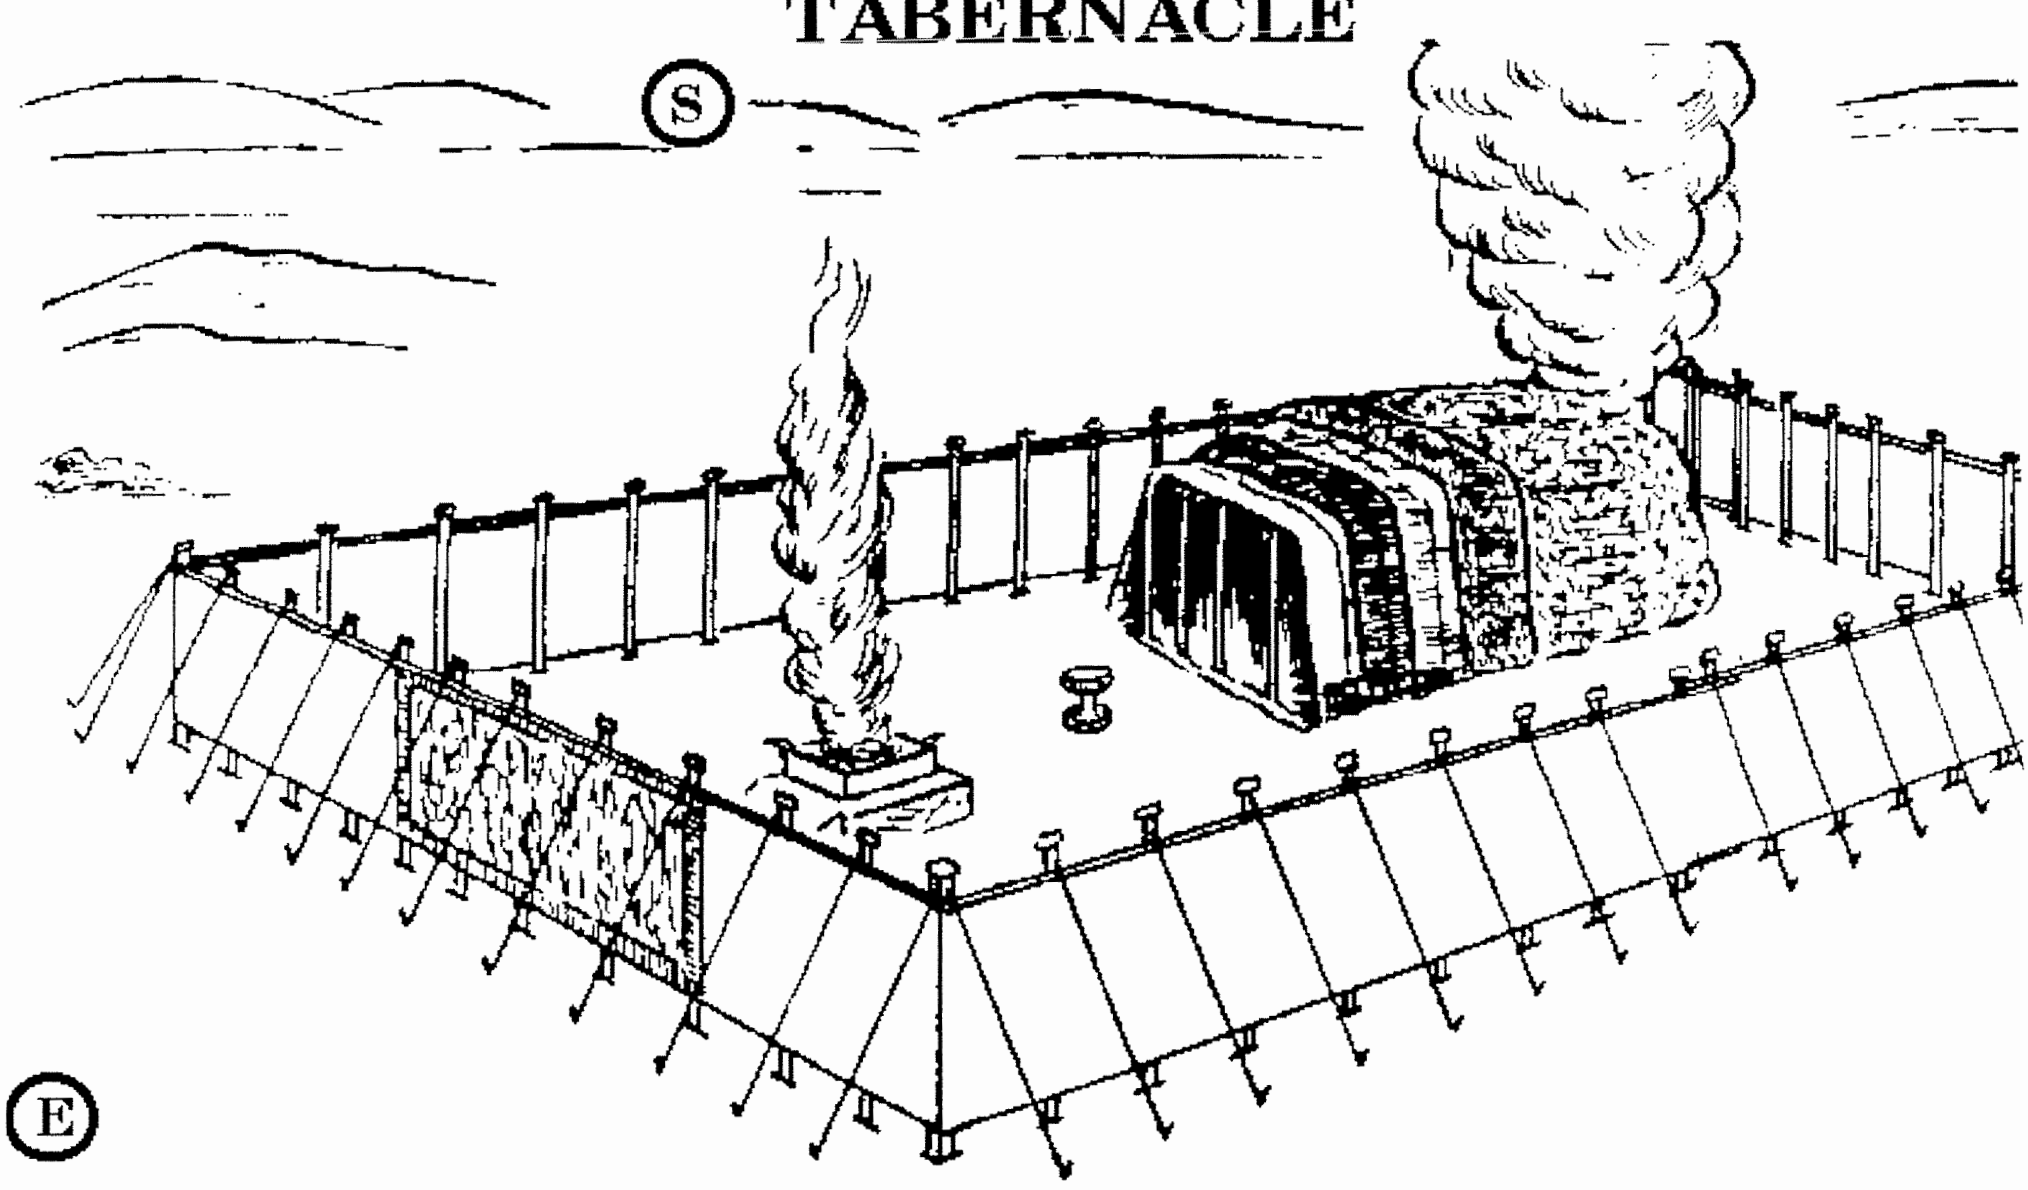

2. The Lord had given Moses instructions to build a tabernacle of meeting while on Mt. Sinai. The children of Israel were to bring offerings from a willing heart. Gold, silver, bronze, linens, etc. (Ex. 35:4-9), to be used to build the tabernacle. All who had whose hearts were stirred brought these offerings to Moses.

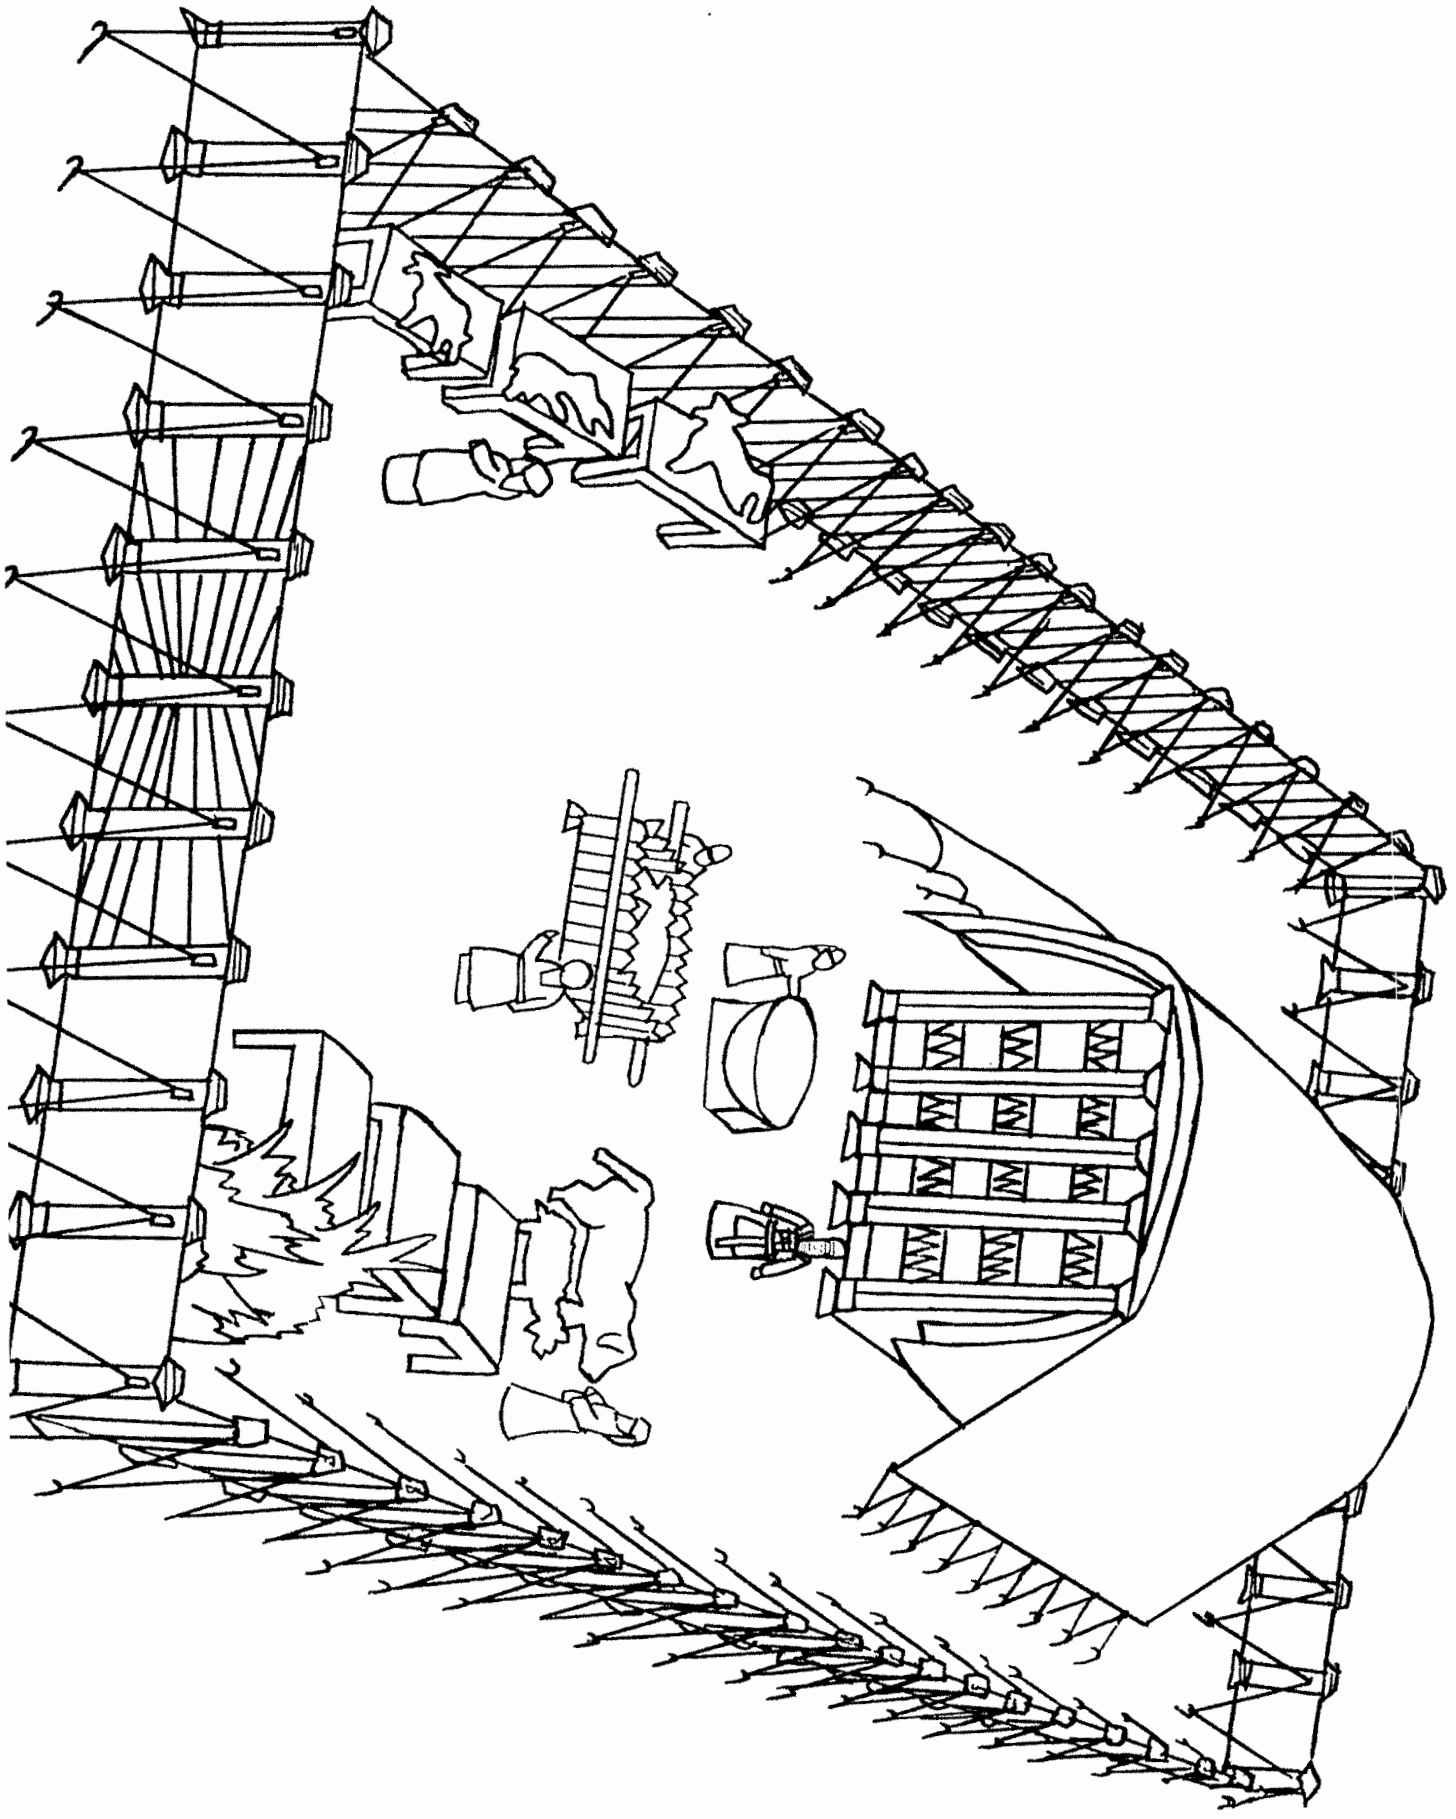

3. Gifted artisans were requested to come build the tabernacle and its contents, furniture and courts. God filled them with special abilities to do this work.

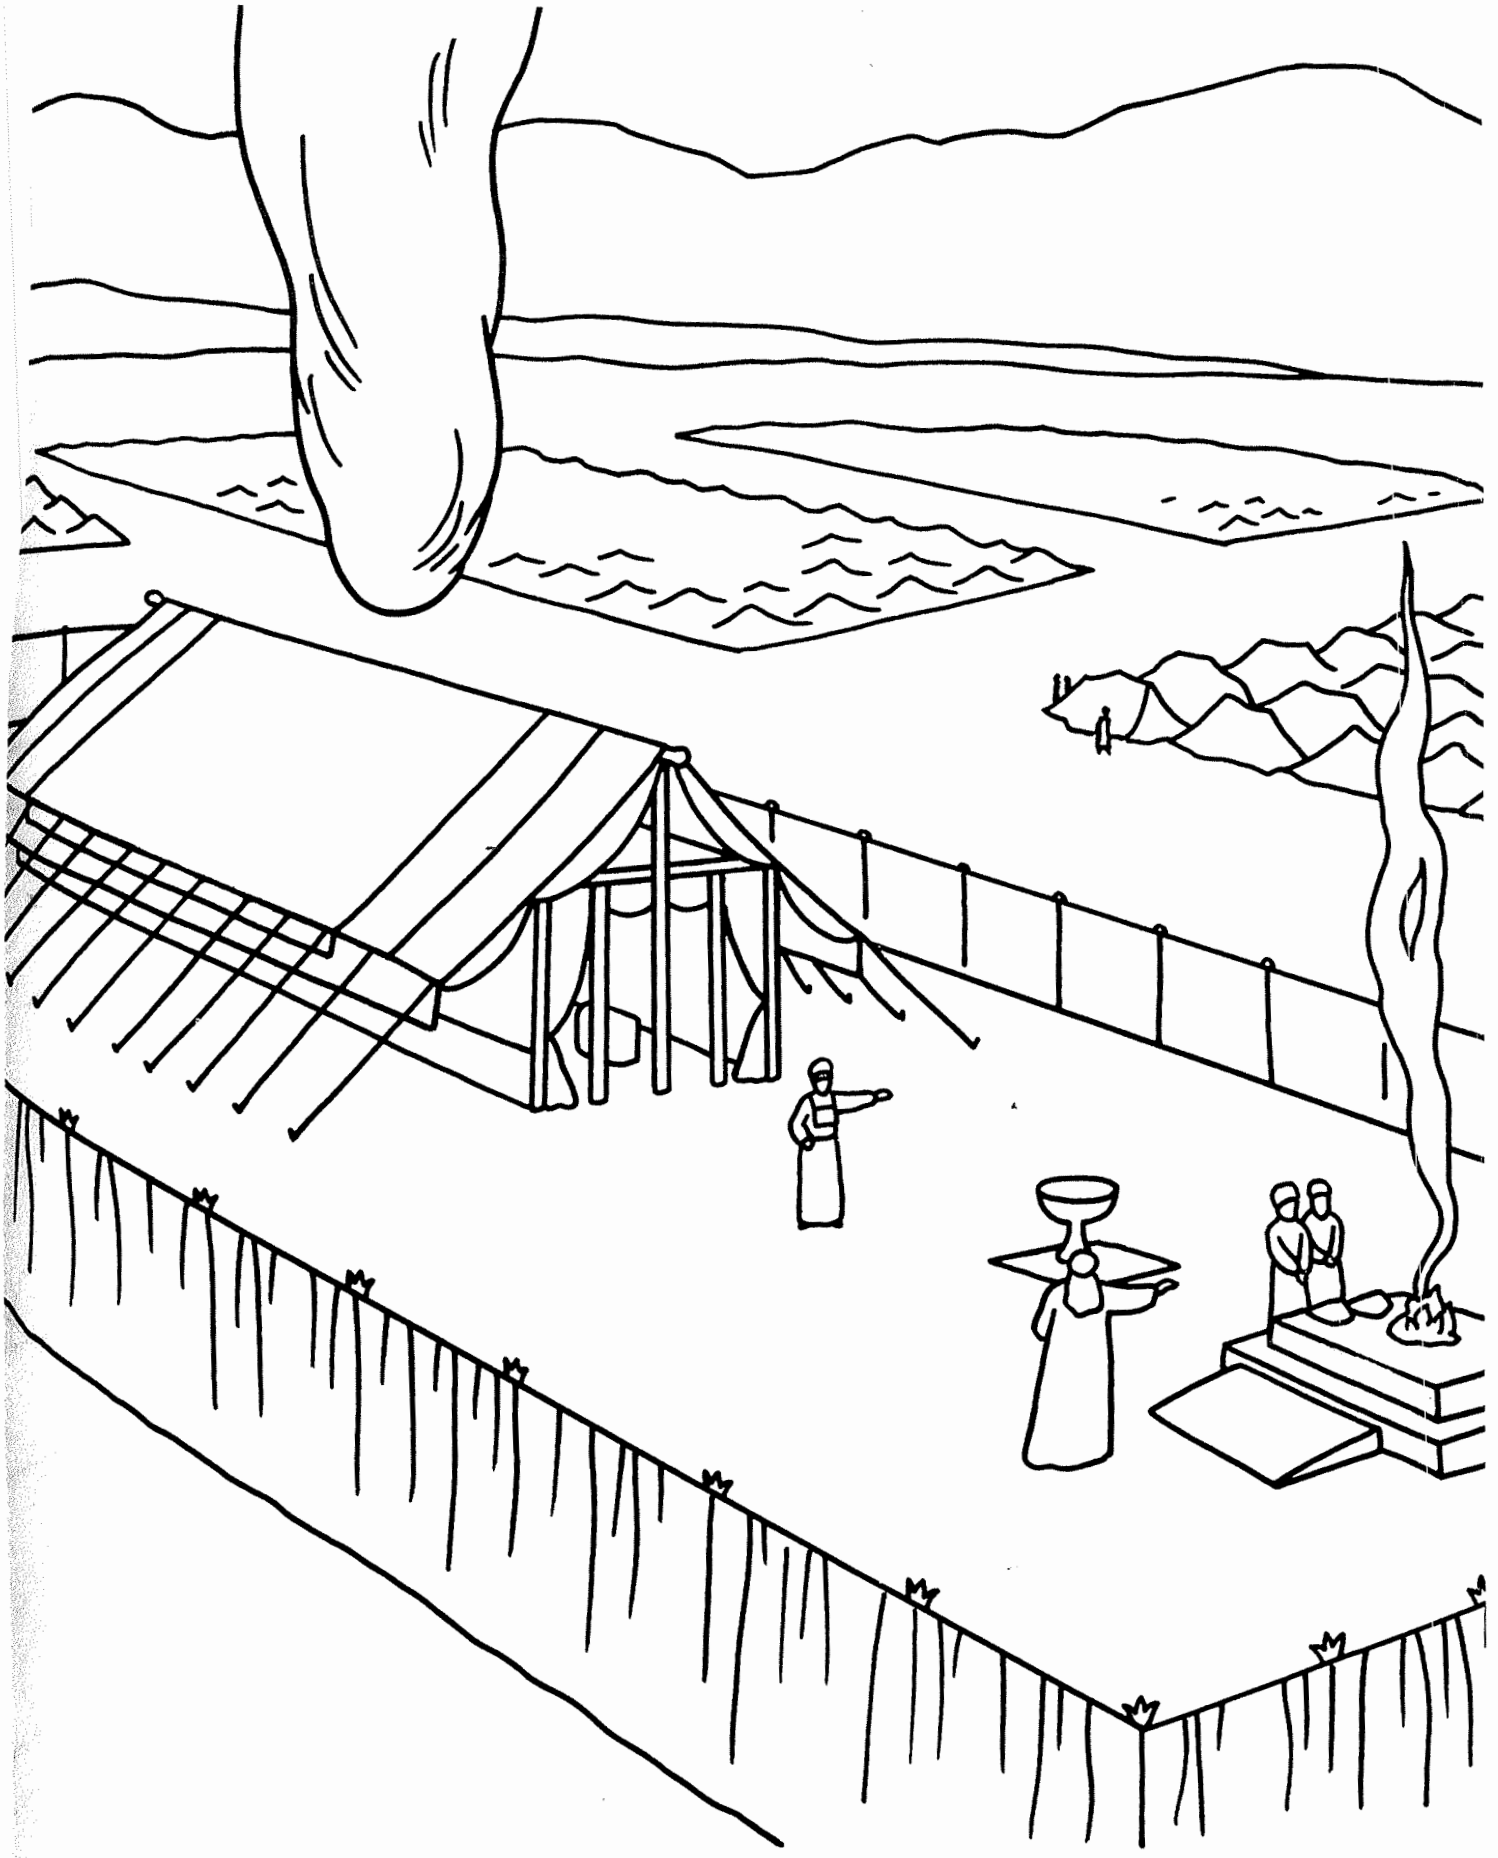

4. Details of the tabernacle: Tent, courtyard, altars, holy place, most holy place and their respective furnishings and uses. Touch on these, they will be taught more in depth in later classes. God gave instructions on how to worship, offerings and feasts.

5. The tabernacle was anointed as God specified and HIS glory filled the tabernacle-this was the special worship place of the children of Israel. The tabernacle moved when they moved. They were to follow the cloud and pillar of fire as they set out on their journeys.

TABERNACLE

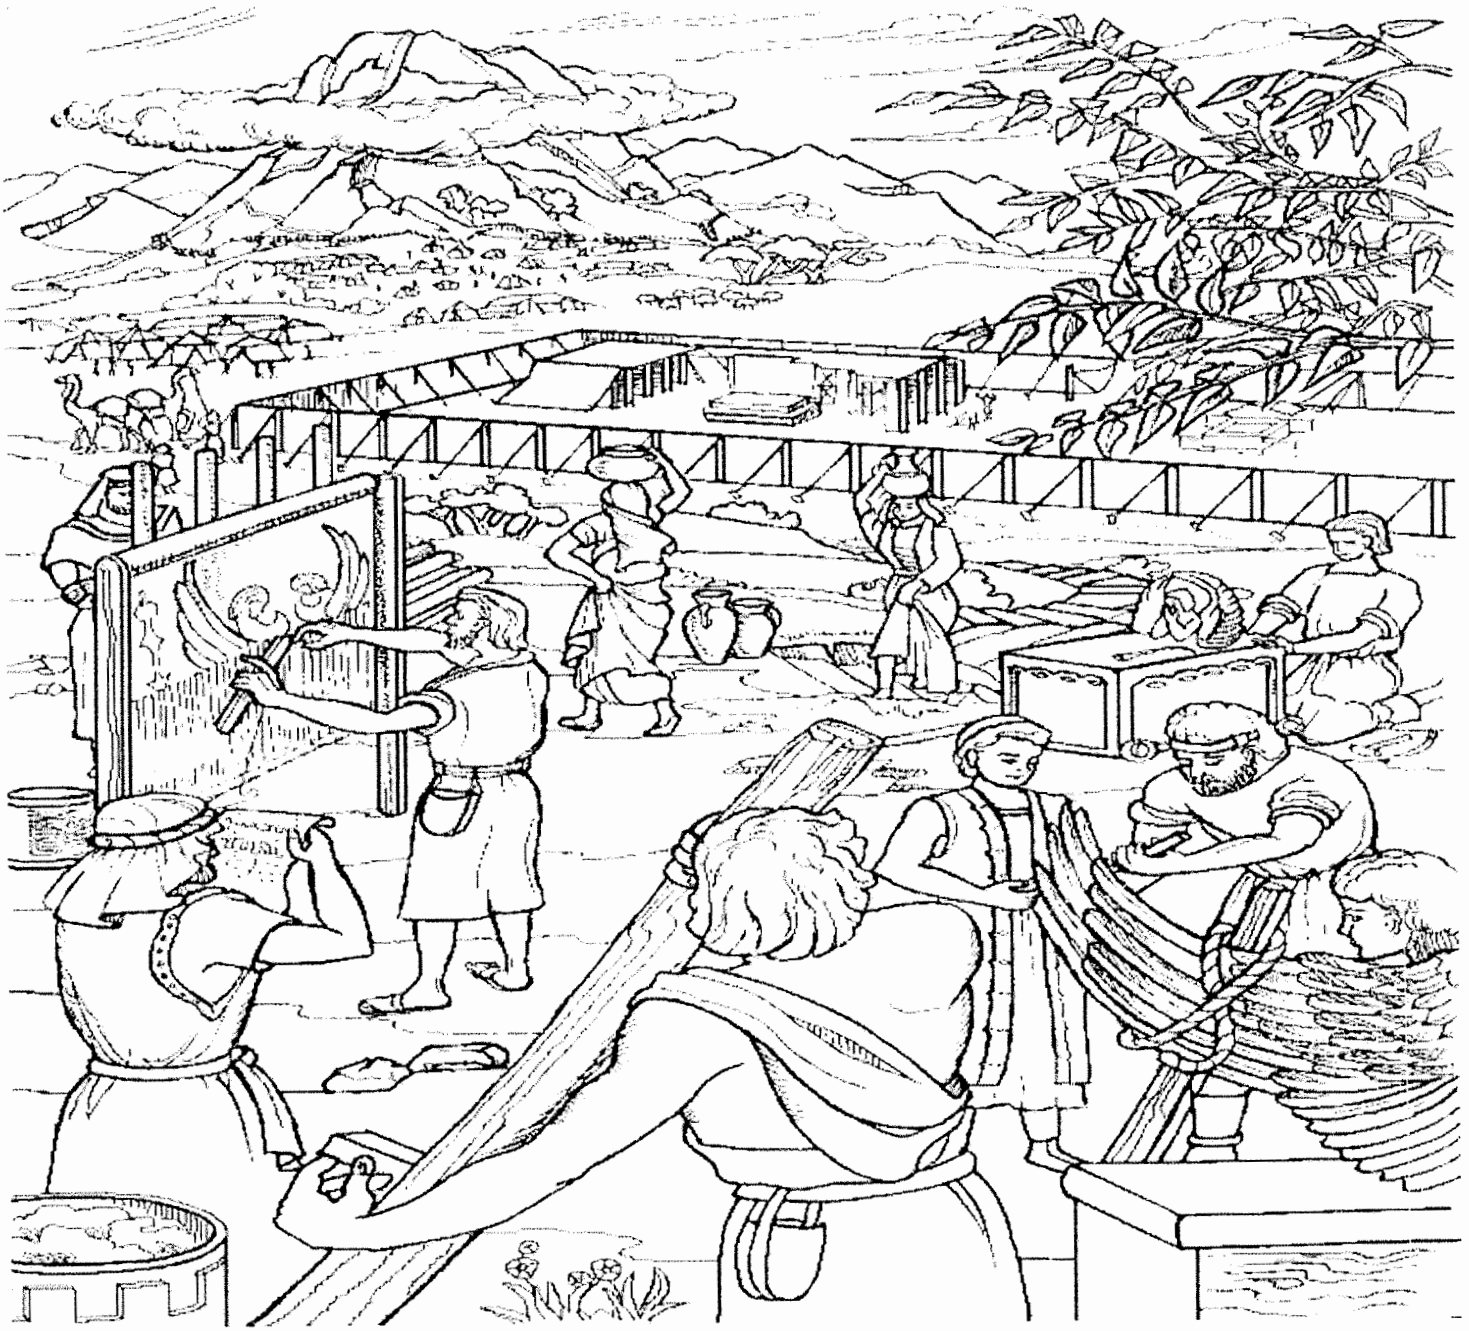

God told His people to build a tabernacle—a large, beautiful tent—as a house of worship. This could be moved from place to place.

Exodus 40

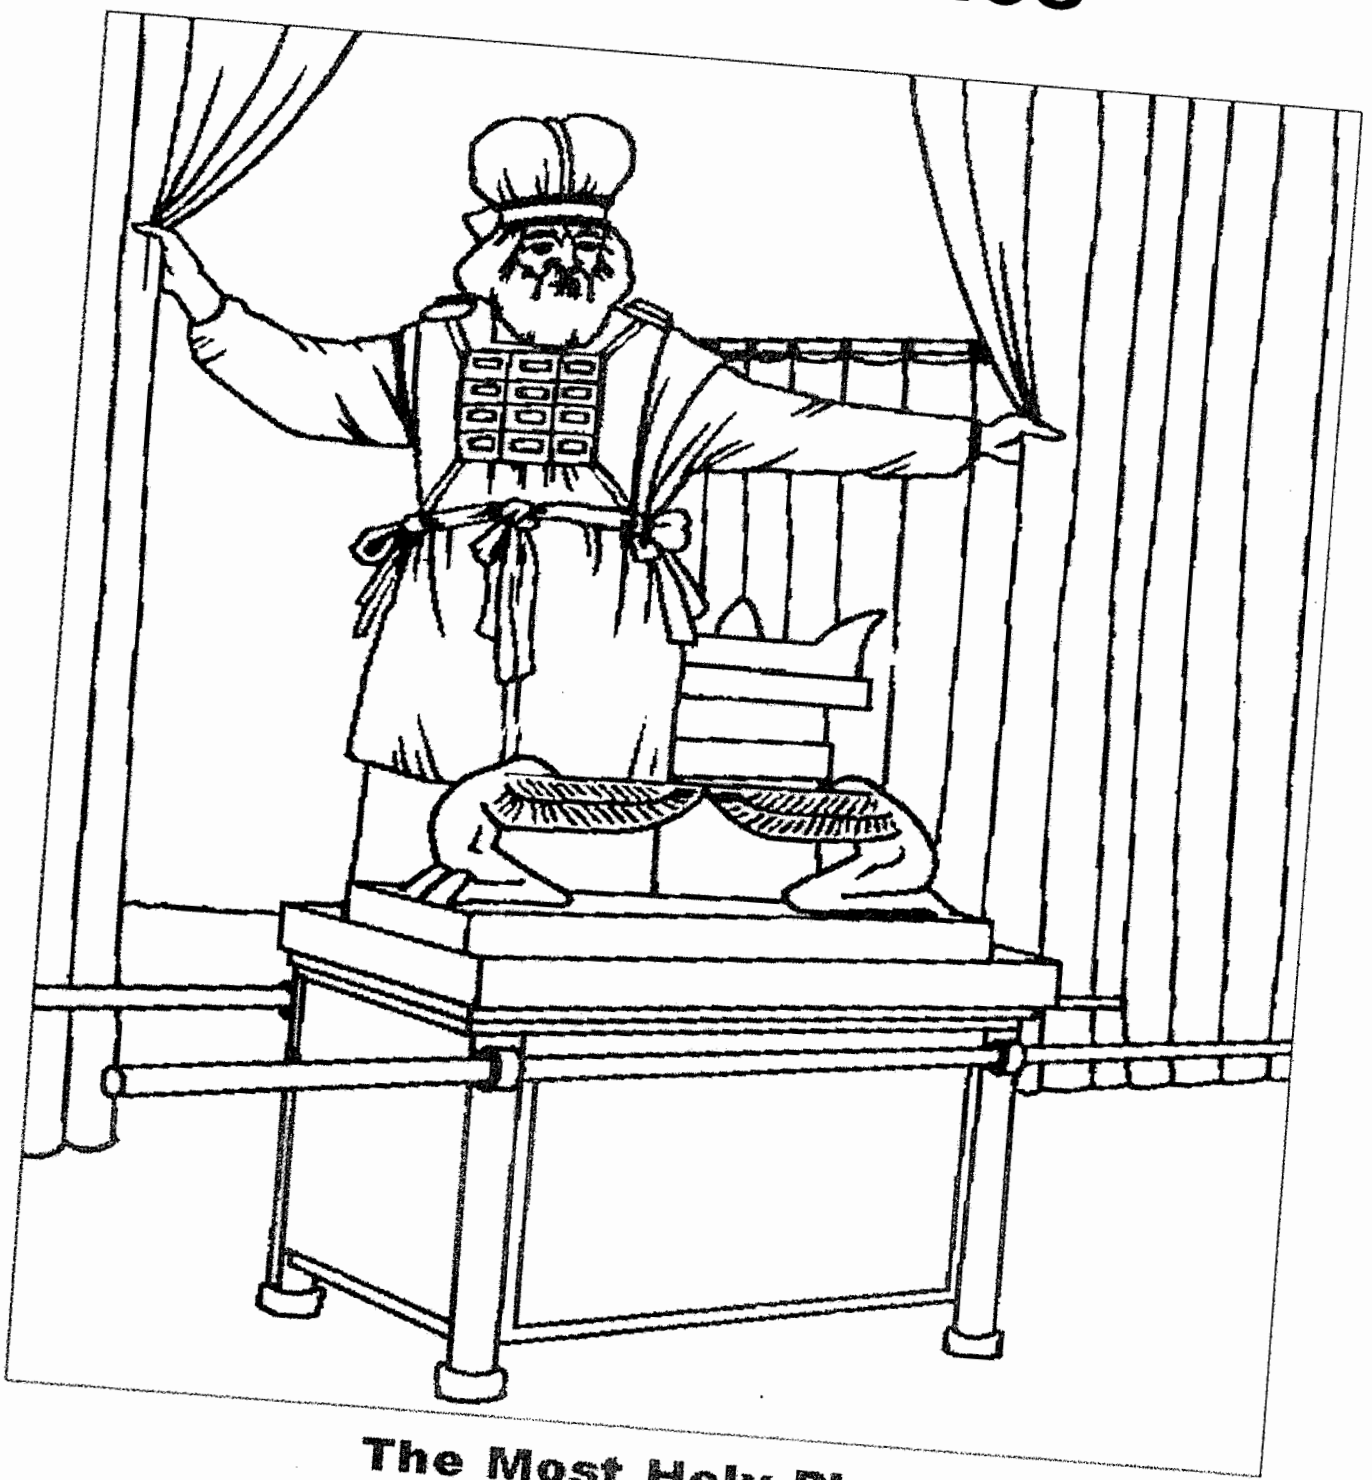

Building The Tabernacle

God wanted to dwell among His people in the desert, so He instructed the Israelites to build a home or Tabernacle where His presence would be with them. God instructed the Israelites at Mount Sinai to build a special tent or Tabernacle "where I will meet with you (Exodus 25:22)." It was also known as the House of the Lord and the Tent of Meeting.

The Holy Tent

After the Israelites left Egypt, God gave Moses careful instructions for building a Holy Tent called a tabernacle. This special tent could be carried with the people wherever they went so they could worship God anywhere. God asked the people to give what they had to build the tabernacle. The people gave so much that Moses had to tell them to stop giving. God wants us to give willingly to His work too.

The First Priest

Scriptures: Exodus 28, 39 also Leviticus 8-10

Key Verse: Leviticus 10:3 "By those who come near Me I must be regarded as holy; And before all the people I must be glorified."

Key Points:

1. The high priest was to perform the sacred duties in the tabernacle. They were to perform sacrifices and offerings for the sins of the people. He was a mediator between God and the children of Israel.

2. God gave Moses very specific instructions for the anointing of the high priests as well as for making of the holy garments they were to wear. Aaron, Moses brother, and his sons were to do these tasks. Priesthood was set in the tribe of Levi from which Aaron descended.

3. Artisans made the holy garments. Explain the details of the breastplate, ephod, robe, woven tunic, turban and sash-what they were made from and how they were made. The materials for these were also free-will gifts brought from the Israelites, as for the tabernacle.

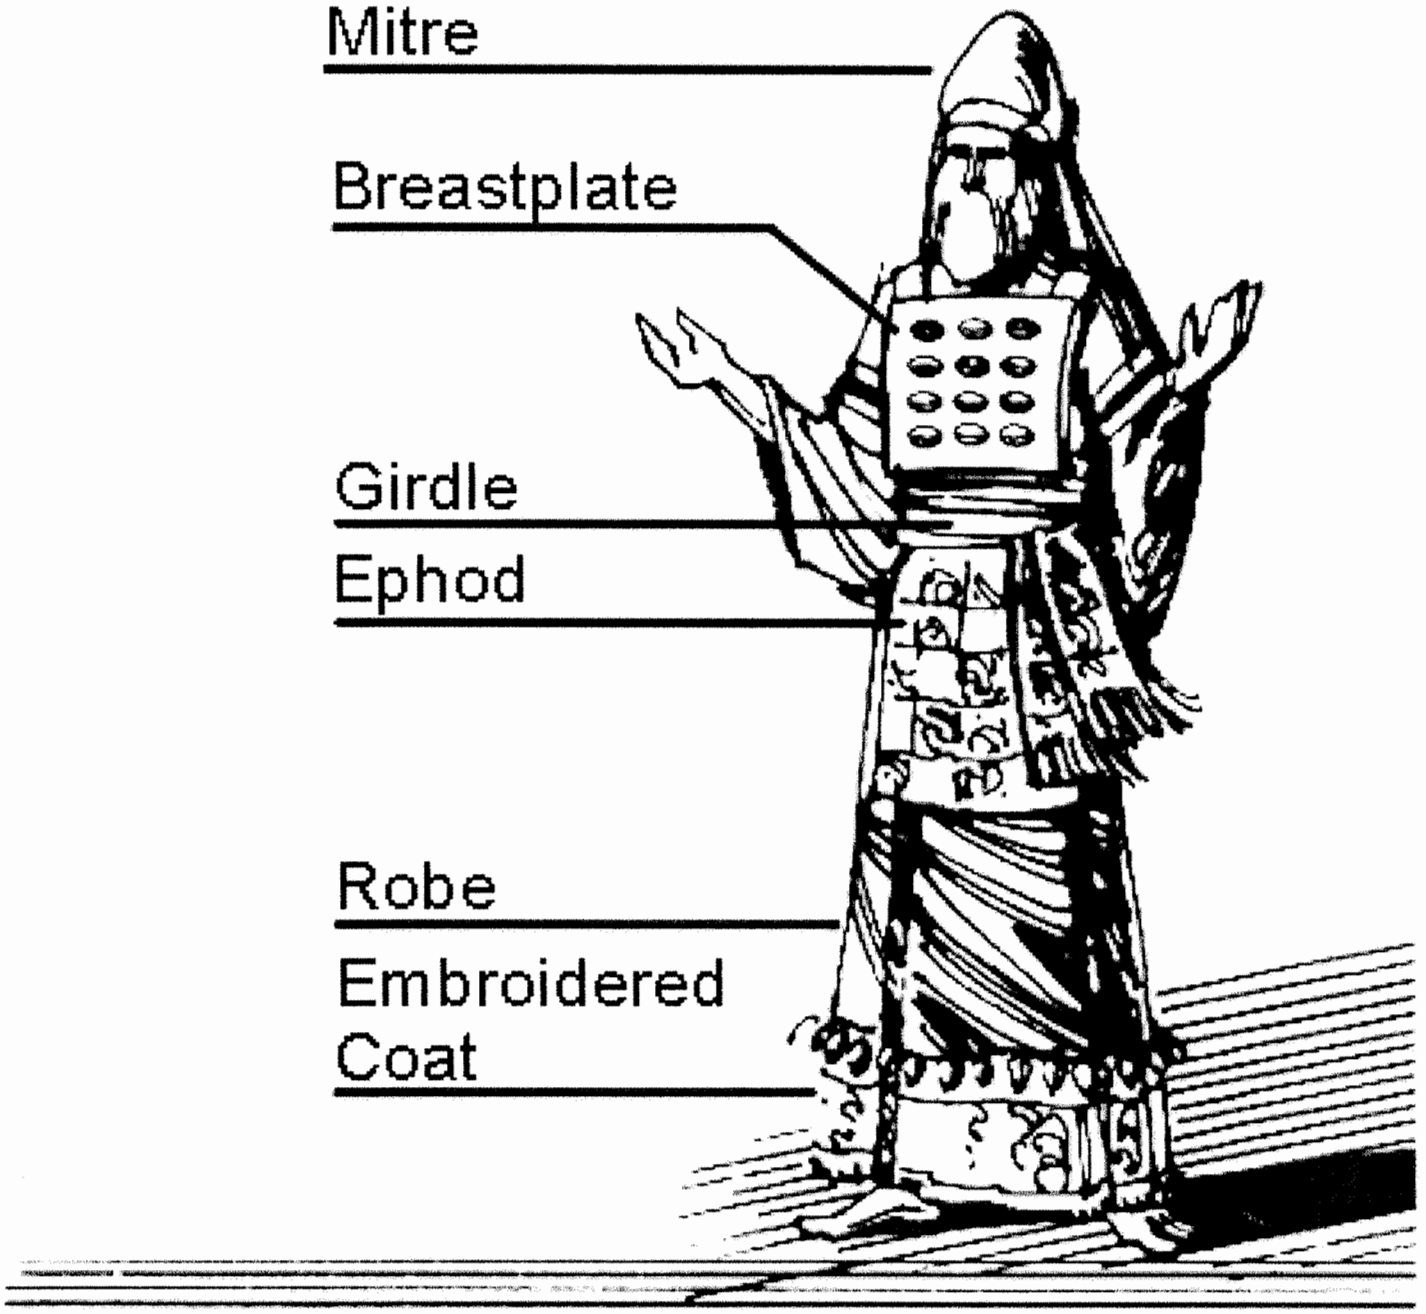

4. Sons of Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, were killed by fire for their sins for offering profane fire. God's commandments concerning the high priests and the sacredness of the tabernacle were to be followed strictly. We also should worship in the way God has asked.

5. Christ is our high priest. He offered his own blood, once for all. He became the mediator between us and God.

Week 43 Silver Trumpets and Israelite Grumblers

Scriptures: Numbers 10 - 11

Key Verse: Numbers 11:1 Now when the people complained it displeased the Lord; for the Lord heard it and His anger was aroused.

Key Points:

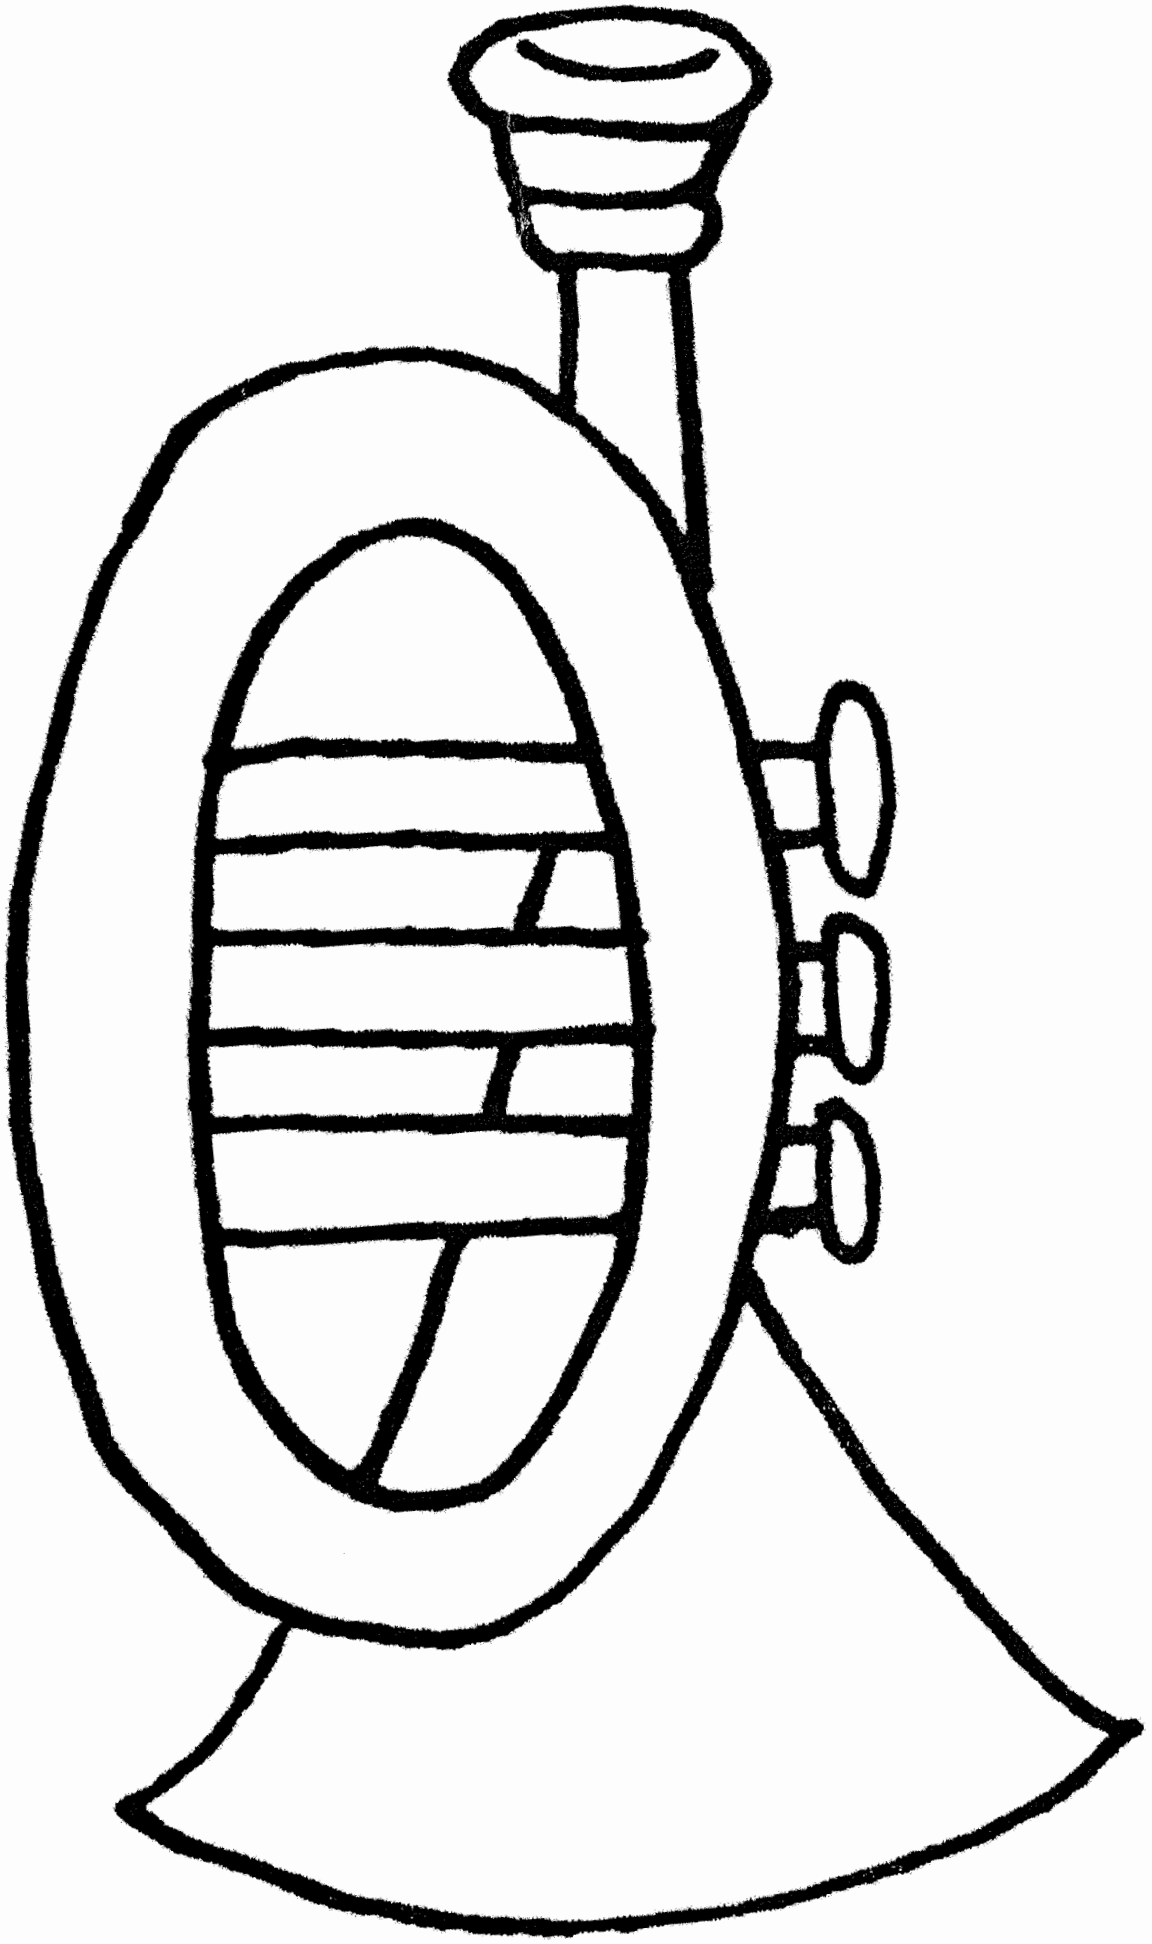

1. God commanded that 2 silver trumpets be made. They were to be for the calling of the assembly and for directing the movement of the camps. They were also to be blown during appointed feasts and over offerings and sacrifices.

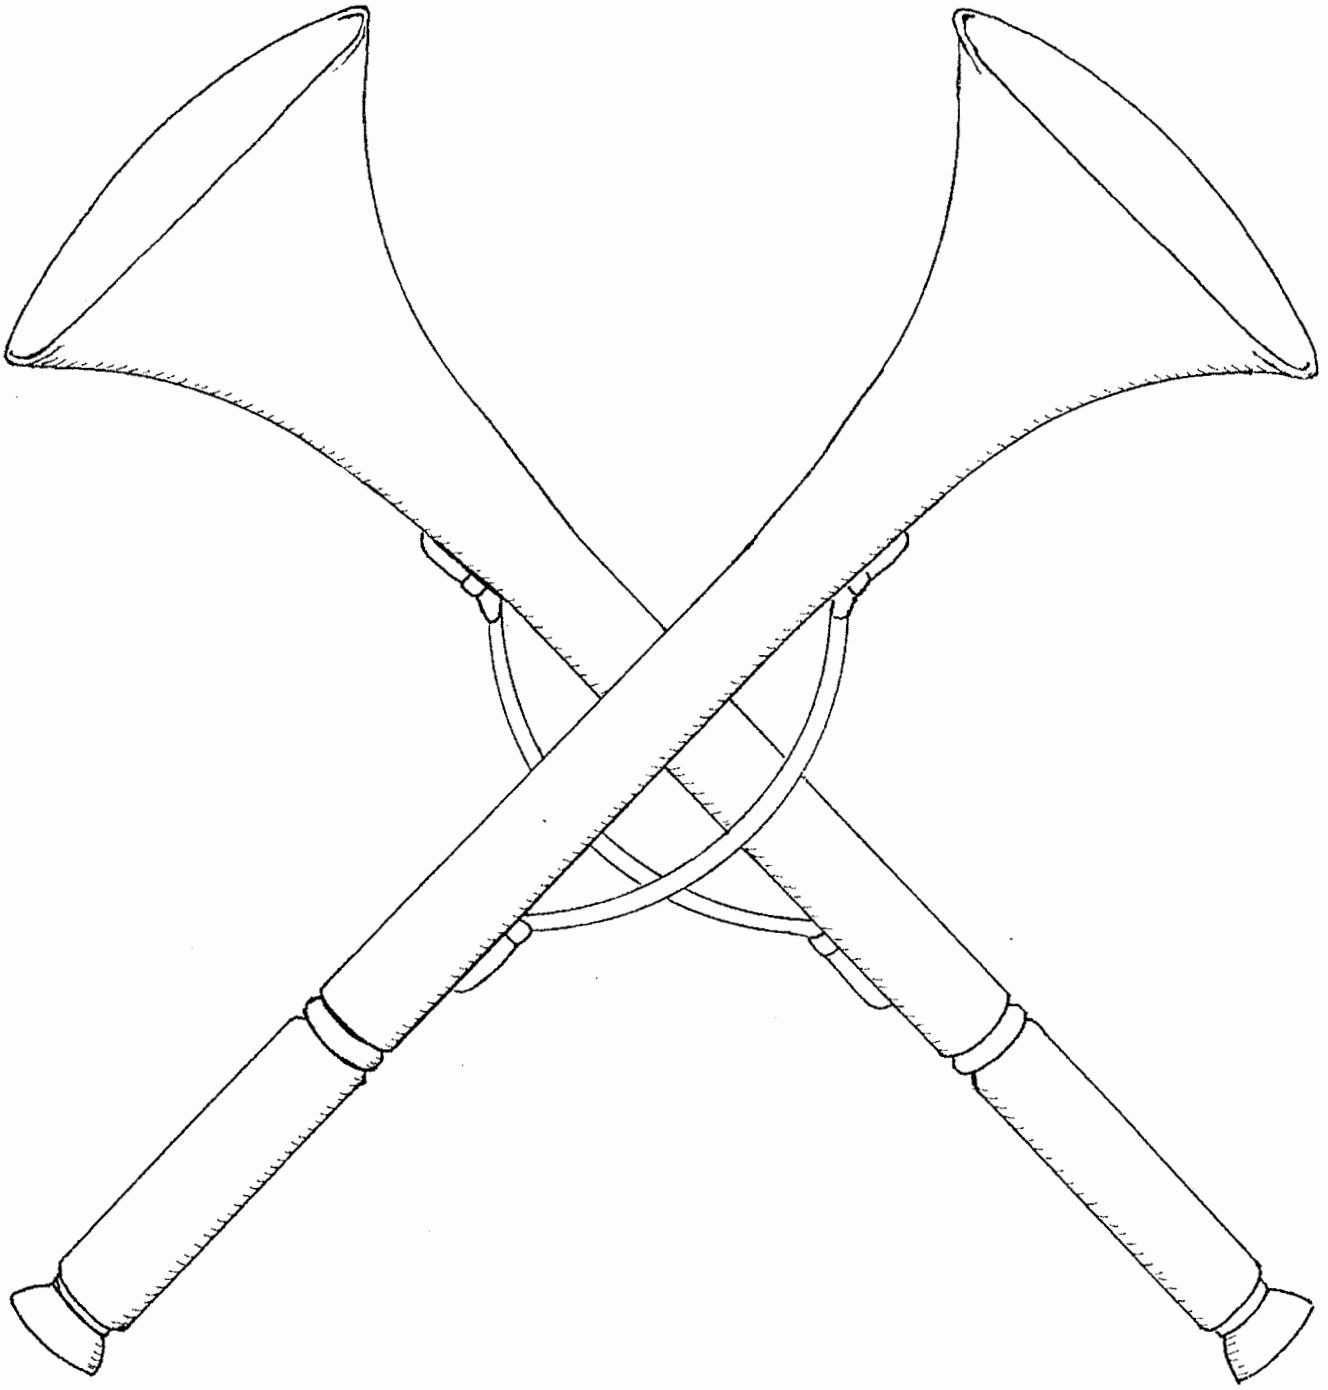

2. The cloud was lifted from above the tabernacle and they set out on their journeys from the Wilderness of Sinai to the Wilderness of Paran. This was the first time the tabernacle was moved. The children of Israel were set out in groups to march, with the ark in the covenant going before them.

3. The people grumbled about their food. They missed the tasty food they had in Egypt. They whined, wanting meat to eat. God burned with anger because of their grumbling. Moses was frustrated with them and went to God for help.

4. God told Moses he would send quail for them to eat for a whole month. They would have so much quail that it would come out their nostrils and they would loathe it. He did this because they despised the Lord and grumbled against Him. A wind went out from the Lord and brought the quail. It covered 20 miles and was 3 feet high.

5. They ate the quail greedily. The Lords wrath came against them and he struck them with a plague. Many were sick and died. We should be careful of our grumbling and complaining for it is not pleasing to God.

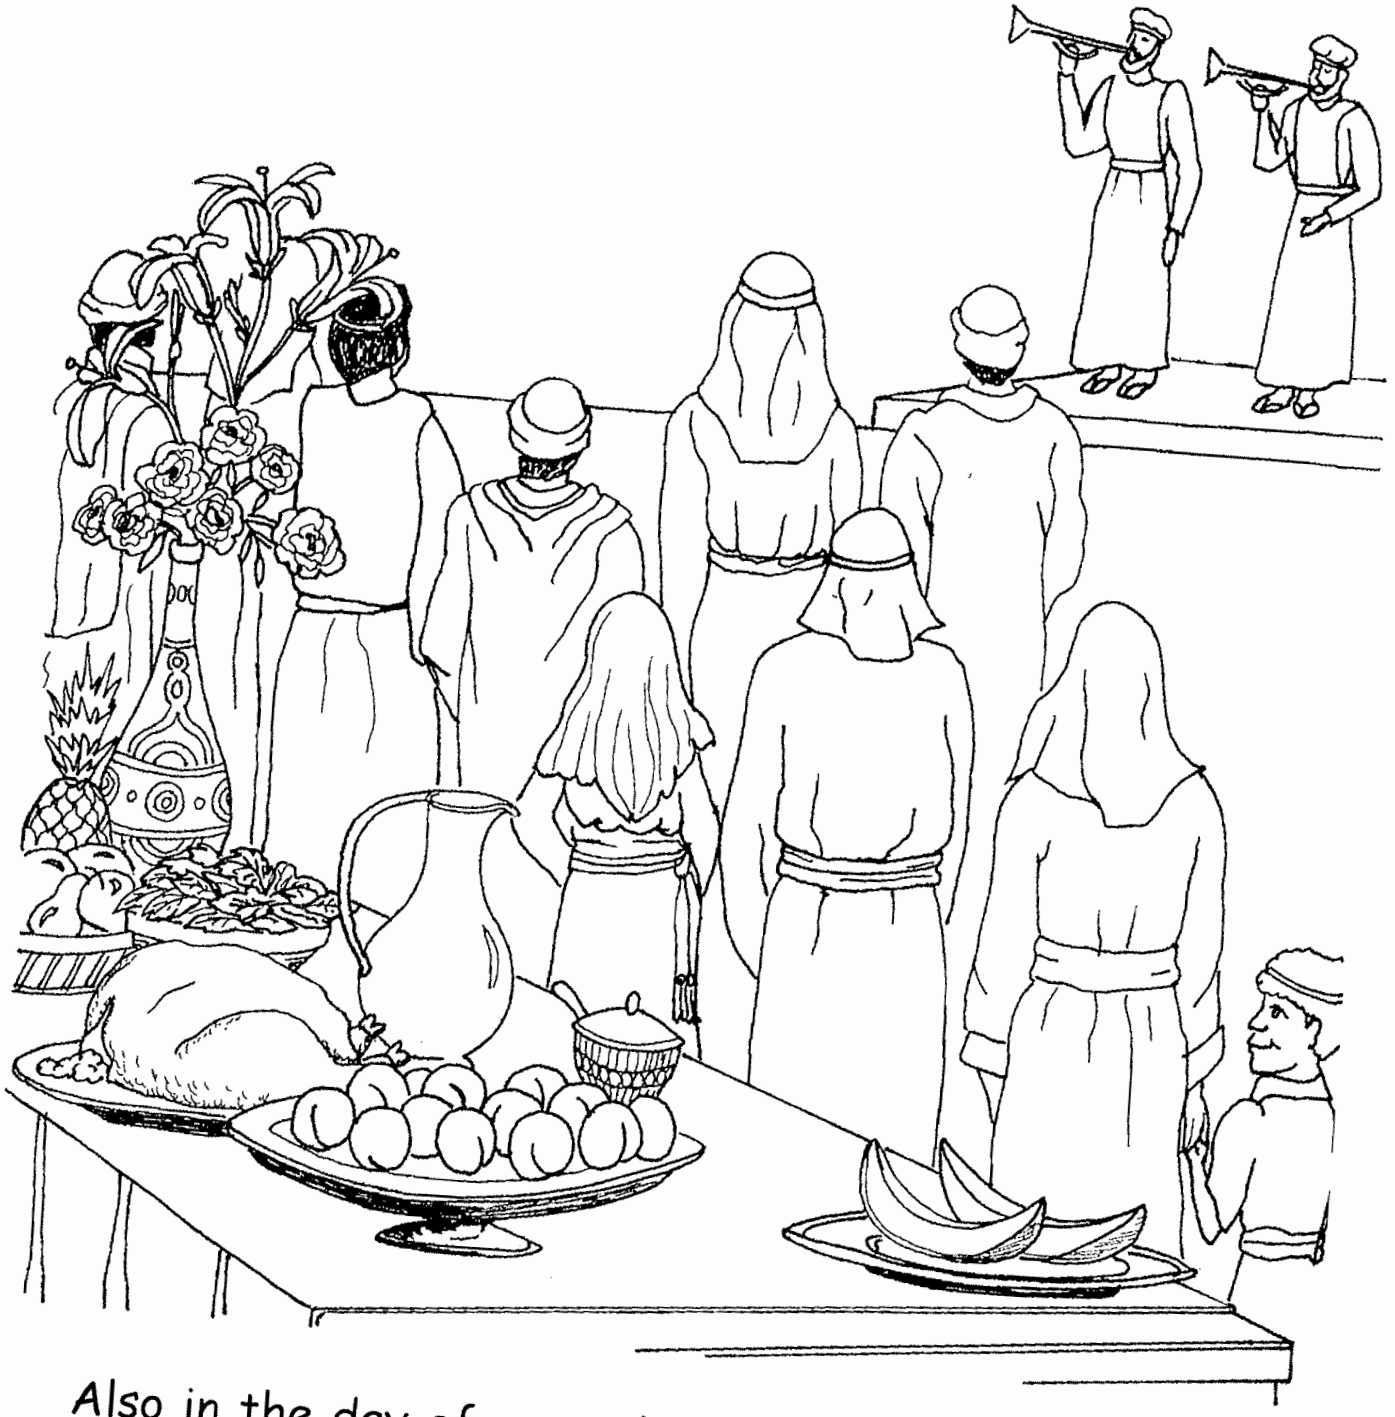

"Make two trumpets of silver for yourself. You shall make them of beaten work. And they shall be used for the calling of the assembly and for the journeying of the camps. And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall gather themselves to you at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation." Numbers 10:2-3

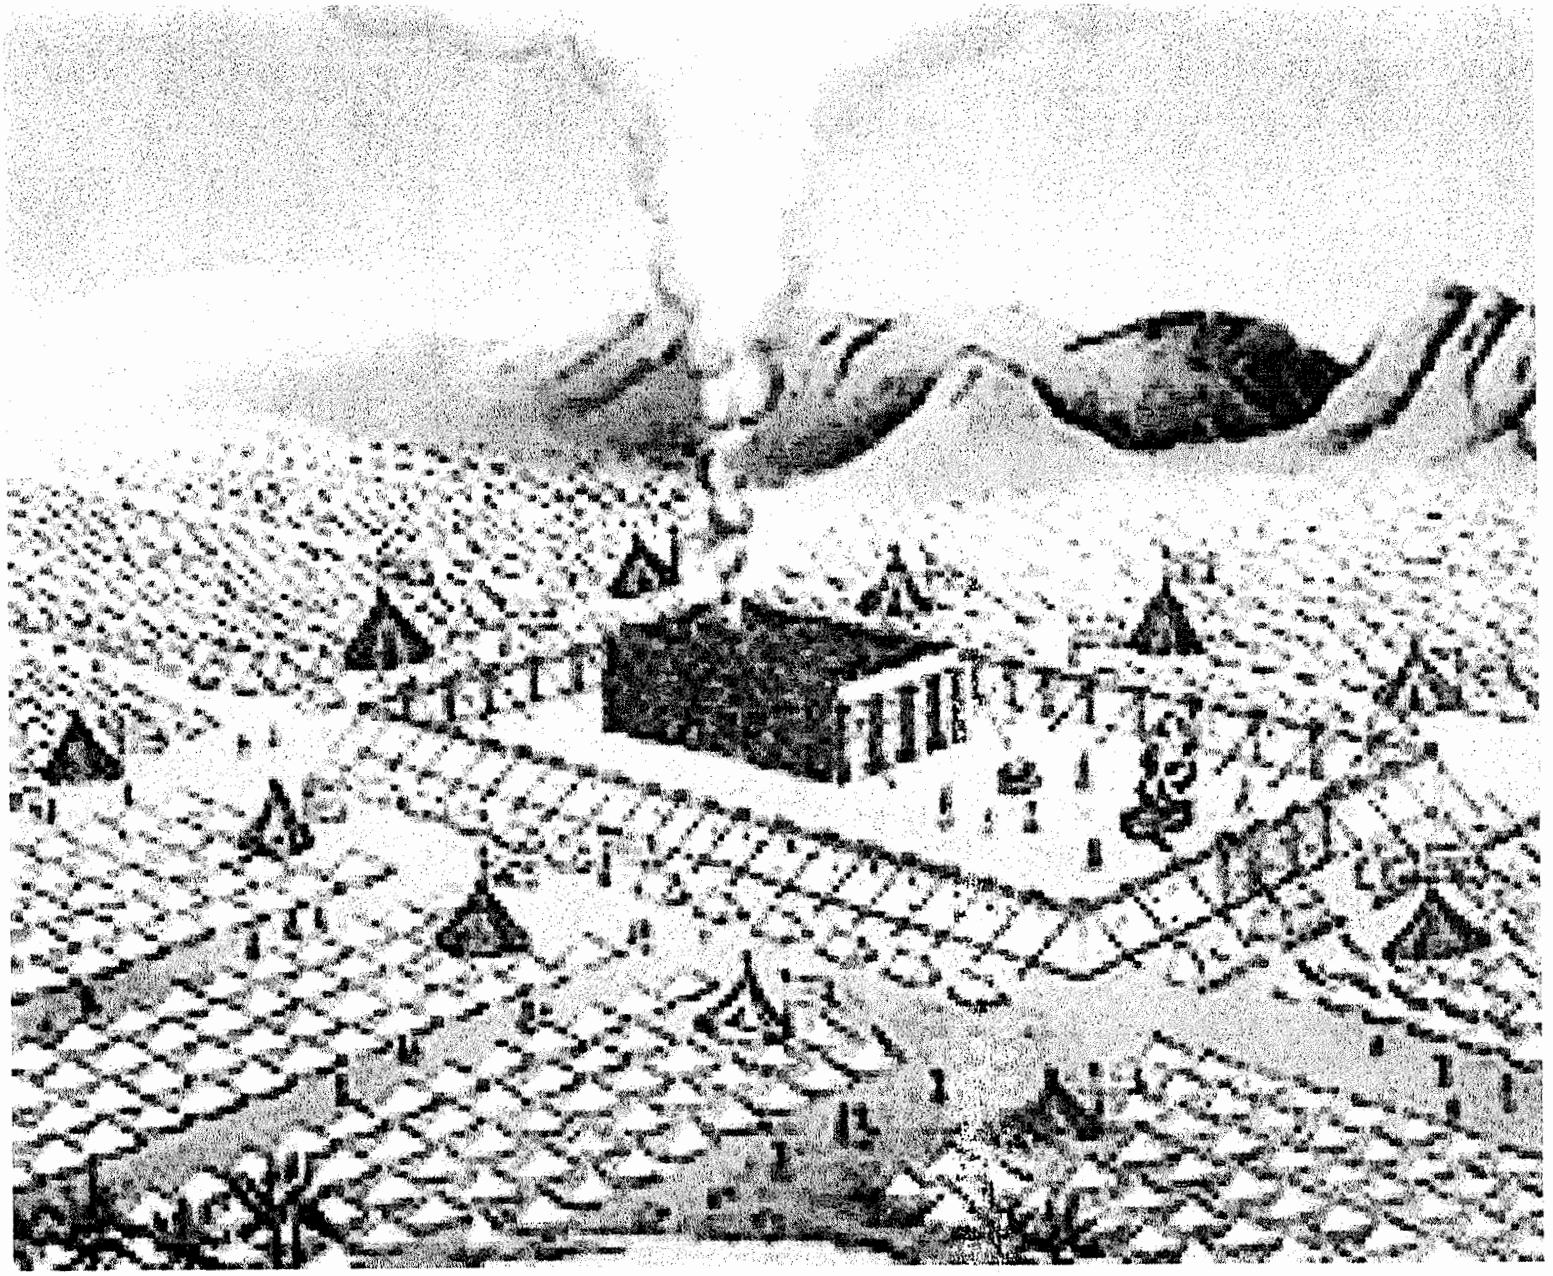

These trumpets were to be blown for different reasons; for calling an assembly of the people, for journeying of the camps, for gathering the princes of the tribes or to blow an alarm.

The sons of Aaron, the Priests, were to blow the trumpets by an ordinance (or law) forever. Also they were to be blown before going to war against an enemy who attacks them, and they would be saved from their enemies.

Also in the day of your gladness, and in your appointed feasts, and in the beginnings of your months, you shall blow with the silver trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings, so that they may be to you for a memorial before your GOD. I am the LORD your God." Numbers 10:10

10 And the Lord spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "Make two silver trumpets for yourself; you shall make them of hammered work; you shall use them for calling the congregation and for directing the movement of the camps. 3 When they blow both of them, all the congregation shall gather before you at the door of the tabernacle of meeting.

Miriam Becomes A Leper

Scriptures: Numbers 12

Key Verse: Numbers 12:10 And when the cloud departed from above the tabernacle, suddenly Miriam became leprous, as white as snow. Then Aaron turned toward Miriam, and there she was, a leper.

Key Points:

1. Moses' brother, Aaron and his sister, Miriam spoke against Moses. They were jealous of Moses and the leadership position God gave him. The Lord heard it.

2. Suddenly, God called Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to the tent of meeting. The Lord came down in a pillar of cloud and stood in the doorway where He called Aaron and Miriam to come forward.

3. God told Miriam and Aaron that He spoke with them in visions and dreams, but that He spoke with Moses face-to-face. God asked them why they were not afraid to speak against Moses. God was angry and He departed.

4. Suddenly, as the pillar of cloud rose above the tabernacle, Miriam was leprous.

5. Aaron asked Moses to forgive them and to heal Miriam. Moses cries out to God. God requires Miriam to stay outside of the camp for 7 days until she is restored to good health. The Israelites wait for Miriam's healing before moving on.

The Twelve Spies

Scriptures: Numbers 13 and 14

Key Verse: Numbers 14:8 If the Lord delights in us, then He will bring us into this land and give it to us, a land which flows with milk and honey.

Key Points:

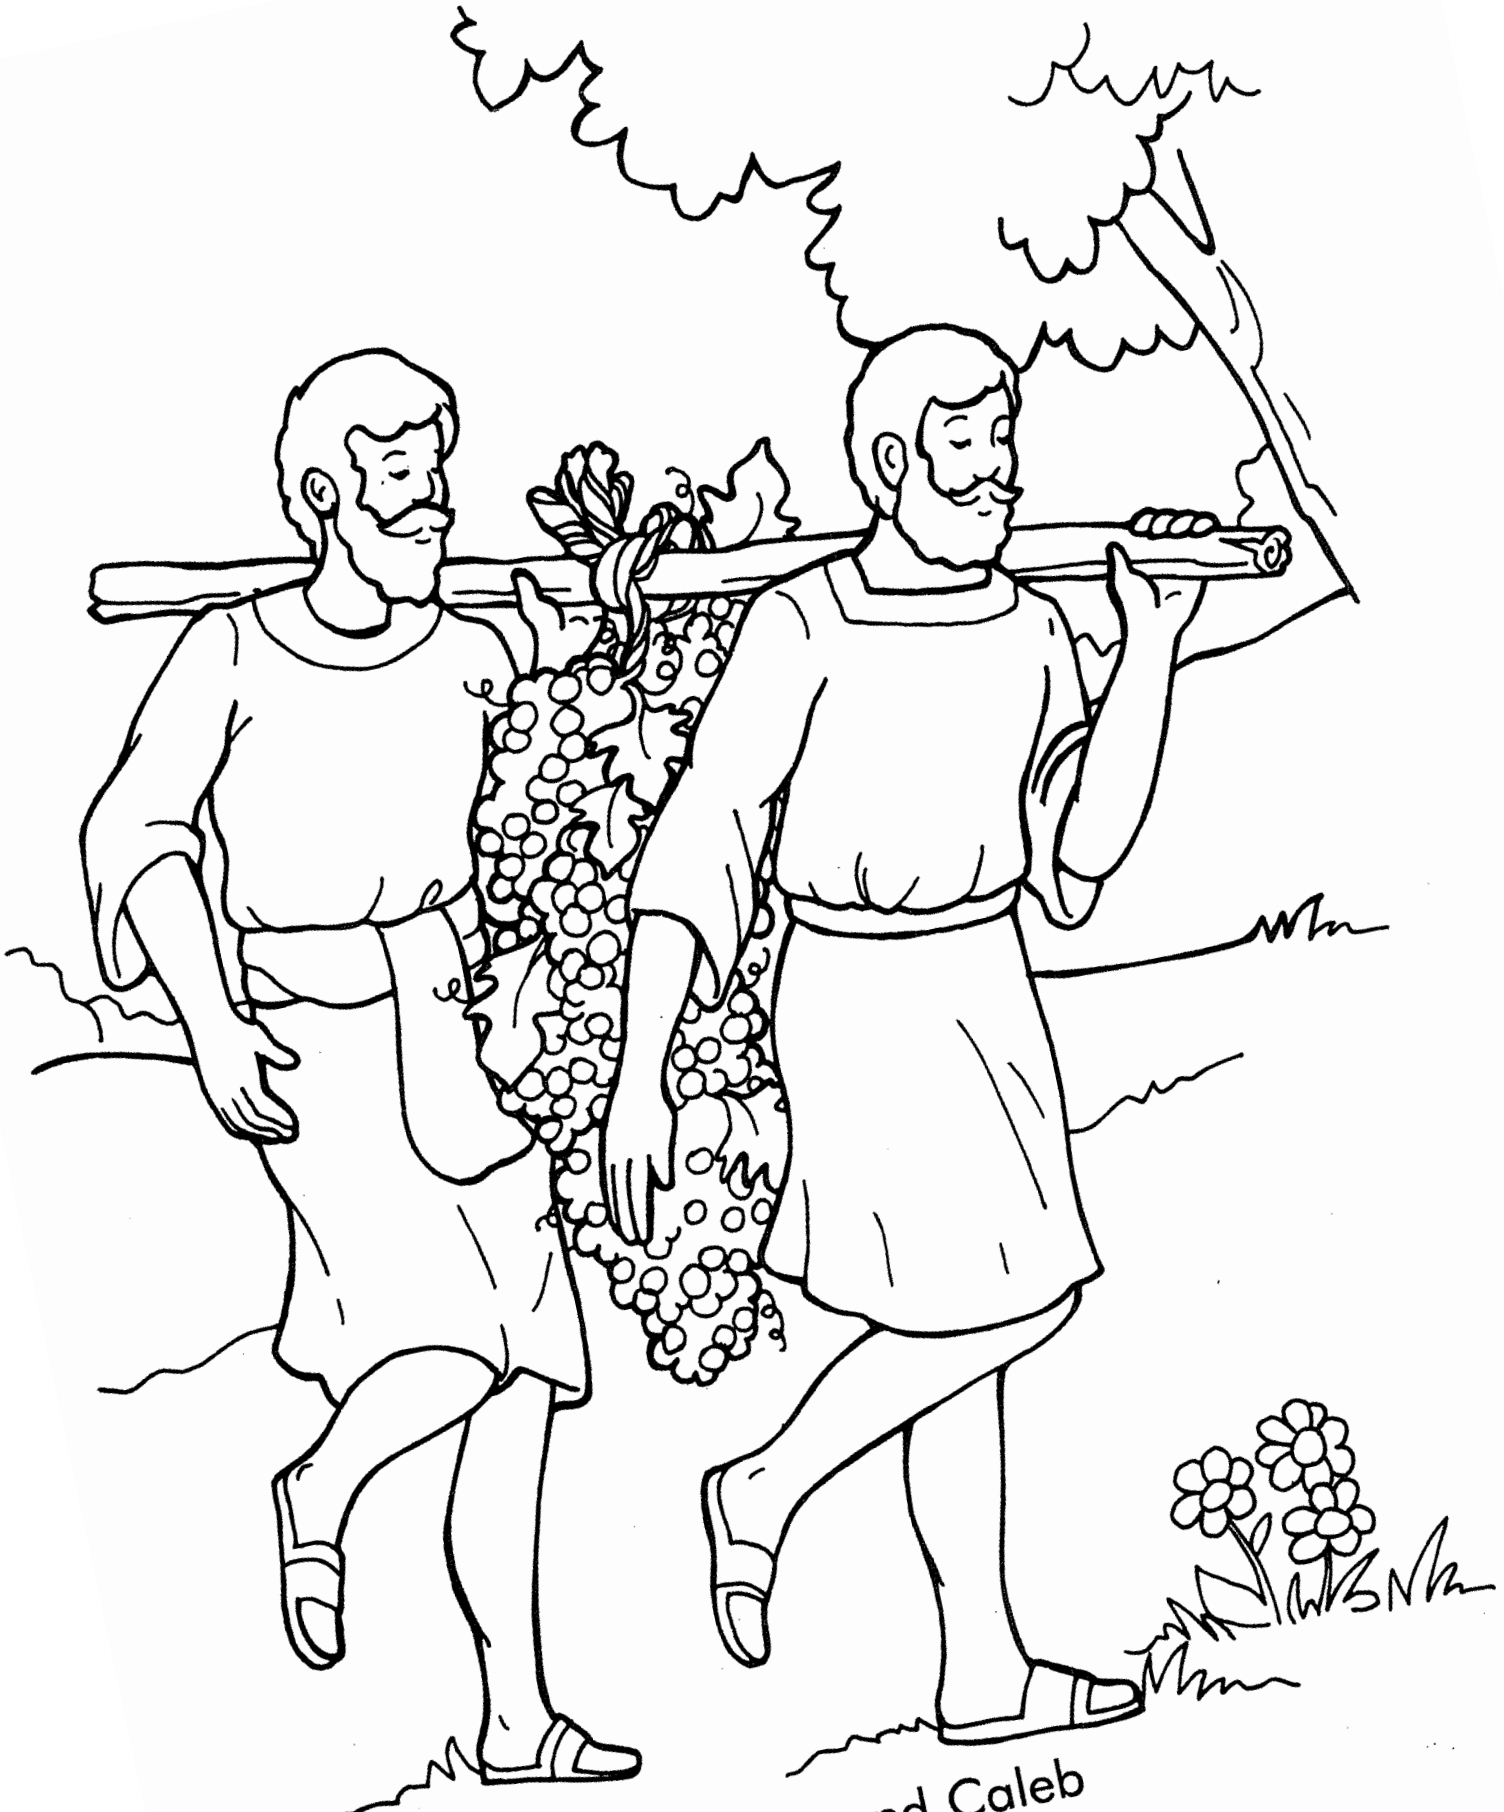

1. God commands Moses to send 12 spies to spy out the promised land (Canaan). One man from each tribe is selected. They spend 40 days in Canaan.

2. Joshua and Caleb bring back a good report of faithfulness while the other 10 spies bring back an evil report to Moses. The evil report stirred up the people and they became fearful. Caleb quieted them and encouraged the congregation to take possession of the land.

3. The children feared and cried and complained against Moses and Aaron. They also accused God of delivering them to the promised land only to be destroyed. They desired someone to lead them back to Egypt. Joshua and Caleb encouraged the people not to rebel.

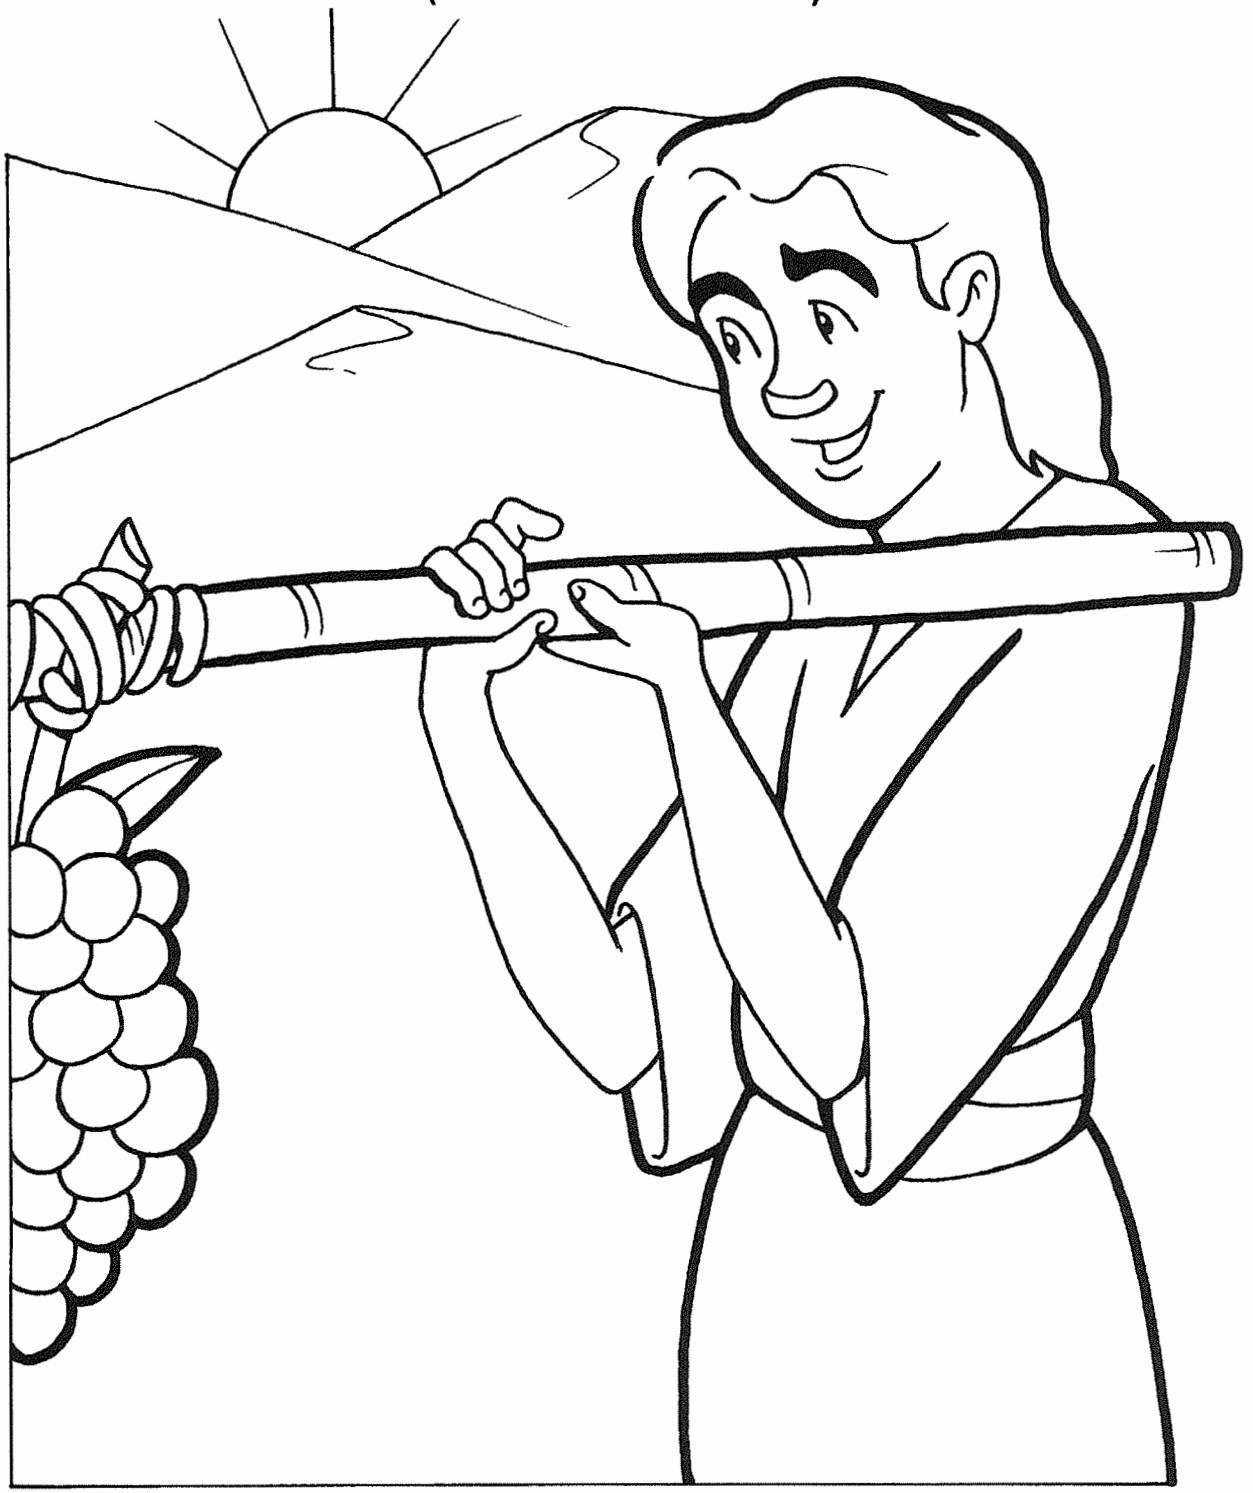

4. God was angry enough to destroy the children of Israel who complained (even though they had seen the mighty deliverance from Egypt). Moses prayed to God to pardon them. God said that He would save everyone age 19 and under as well as Joshua and Caleb.

5. The 10 spies who gave evil reports all died immediately from the plague God sent. The people decided to try to enter the promised land against God's Word and they were attacked by the Amalekites and Canaanite enemies.

Moses sent twelve men to spy on the land of Canaan. They were to find out what kind of land it was, what fruit and other crops grew in it, and what kind of people were living in it.

The spies found a cluster of grapes so big that two men had to carry it on a pole between them.

Korah's Rebellion

Scriptures: Numbers 16

Key Verse: Numbers 16:5 And he spoke to Korah and all his company, saying, "Tomorrow morning the Lord will show who is His and who is holy, and will cause him to come near to Him. That one whom He chooses He will cause to come near to Him.

Key Points:

1. Korah and 250 other Levites gathered against Moses and Aaron and Aaron's sons (the priests). They were jealous of them. (All priests had to be Levites and from the lineage of Aaron, thus all priests were Levites, but not all Levites were priests).

2. Moses rebuked them because they were not appreciative of their special role as Levites who served at the tabernacle.

3. Moses told Korah and each of the 250 Levite rebels to bring their censers with fire and incense before the Lord the next morning. Dathan and Abiram refused to come.

4. The next morning, Korah and the rebels assembled with their censers at the door of the tabernacle against Moses and Aaron. God's glory appeared there to all the congregation. The earth split and swallowed alive Korah, Dathan, and Abiram (and their families). Fire came out from God and killed the 250 rebels with censers.

5. The next day, the children of Israel still grumbled against Moses and Aaron so God killed 14,700 by a plague. Aaron stood between the dead and the living with his censer of incense to atone for them and thus stopped the plague.

Aaron's Rod Buds/ Moses Strikes The Rock

Scriptures: Numbers 17 and Numbers 20

Key Verses: Numbers 17:5 "And it shall be that the rod of the man whom I choose will blossom; thus I will rid Myself of the complaints of the children of Israel which they make against you."

Numbers 20:10 "And Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock and he said to them, "Hear now, you rebels! Must we bring water for you out of this rock?"

Key Points:

1. God told Moses to have a leader from each of the 12 tribes bring him a rod. Moses was to write each man's name on their rod. The next day, Aaron's rod budded, bloomed, and bore almonds in the tabernacle. Moses showed the rods to all of the people.

2. God instructed Moses to place Aaron's rod back in the tabernacle as a sign to the rebels not to complain!

3. As the Israelites traveled, there was no water in the wilderness so they gathered together against Moses and Aaron to grumble, complain, and accuse. Moses and Aaron fell on their faces in the doorway of the tent of meeting. God spoke to Moses, telling him to gather the children of Israel together, take his staff and speak to a rock that was before them and it would bring forth water. However, Moses struck the rock with his staff, in frustration and anger, telling them they were rebels. Water did come forth, but God was not pleased with his actions of disobedience and irreverence. He was instructed to speak to the rock, not strike it.

4. Because God did not believe Moses to reverence Him while speaking in the presence of the children of Israel, neither he nor Aaron were allowed to enter the promised land. The place was called "Meribah" or contention.

Poisonous Snakes

Scriptures: Numbers 21

Key Verse: Numbers 21:8 Then the Lord said to Moses, "Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a pole and it shall be that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it, shall live."

Key Points:

1. The children of Israel were very discouraged and unappreciative in their attitude. They accused Moses and said they did not have food or water. They also said they hated the manna that God was providing for their food (angels' food).

2. God sent poisonous serpents into the camp and they bit many of them and they died.

3. The people admitted that they had sinned against Moses and God. They repented and asked Moses to pray to God for the snakes' removal from the camp.

4. God instructed Moses what to do to remedy the snake bites. God told Moses to make a fiery serpent and set it on a pole. He crafted one out of bronze and lifted it up on a pole. Everyone who was bitten by a poisonous snake and looked on the bronze serpent was saved!

Lesson 8

The Israelites Are Saved

Numbers 20:22 - 21:9

The Israelites disobeyed God many imes. One of the times they had lispleased God. He told them they vould have to wander in the wilderness or forty years.

While they were wandering, the sraelites came to Mount Hor. It was on his mountain that God chose a new ligh priest, Eleazar, to serve Him. It vas also here that Aaron died. Aaron had served God for many years, but he lied before he could go into the land of Canaan, because he had disobeyed God.

After the Israelites left Mount Hor, they began to talk against God and Moses. God punished them for speaking against Him and for not being thankful for all He had done for them. He sent fiery serpents to bite them and many Israelites died.

Finally, when the Israelites knew they had done wrong and were sorry, God told Moses to make a serpent out of brass and put it on a pole. All who looked at the brass serpent were saved.

Balaam, the Donkey, And The Angel

Scriptures: Numbers 22, 23, and 24

Key Verse: Numbers 22:33 "The donkey saw Me and turned aside from me these three times. If she had not turned aside from Me, surely I would also have killed you by now, and let her live."

Key Points:

1. The Israelites camped in the land of Moab across from Jericho. Balak, king of Moab was very fearful of them because they were very numerous, very victorious, and because of the news of their Egyptian deliverance.

2. Balak wished to hire Balaam the prophet to curse God's people so he could drive them out and defeat them. He sent messengers to entice Balaam. Balak offered Balaam great honor and riches.

3. God's anger was kindled against Balaam because Balaam traveled with Balak's messengers to meet the king.

4. As Balaam traveled, his donkey turned aside when she saw the Angel of the Lord so Balaam struck her. Again the donkey smashed Balaam's foot against a wall trying to turn from the angel so Balaam struck her a second time. A third time, the donkey laid down under Balaam to avoid the angel of the Lord and Balaam struck her.

5. God opened the mouth of the little donkey and she spoke to Balaam and then the Lord opened Balaam's eyes to see the Angel of the Lord with His sword drawn. Balaam fell on his face before the angel and confessed his sin. He proceeded on his trip and blessed Israel 4 times instead of cursing Israel as Balak, king of Moab had wanted.

11. A Talking Donkey

Balak, the king of Moab, was afraid because the Israelites had been winning many battles and now were ready to enter the land of Moab. King Balak offered a lot of money to Balaam, a man of God, if he would come and curse the Israelites.

Balaam rode his donkey to visit the king. On his way, the donkey stopped. It saw an angel with a sword on the road. Balaam hit the donkey but it wouldn't move. Then God allowed the donkey to speak. "Why did you beat me?" asked the donkey. "I have always obeyed you."

Then God opened Balaam's eyes and he saw the angel. Balaam bowed before the angel. The angel said, "The donkey saved your life. I would have killed you."

Balaam said, "I have sinned. I will go back home."

Use the dial-a-message code to find out what the angel told Balaam.

Death of Moses-Joshua Begins To Lead

Scriptures: Deuteronomy 34, Joshua 1

Key Verse: Joshua 1:2 "Moses, My servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them-the children of Israel."

Key Points:

1. Moses went to the top of Mt. Nebo and God showed him the entire promised land which was the land that God had sworn to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to give to their descendants.

2. Moses died there and God buried him in a valley in Moab. He was 120 years old and still strong and his eyesight was undimmed. The children of Israel mourned for Moses 30 days. God did not permit Moses to enter the promised land.

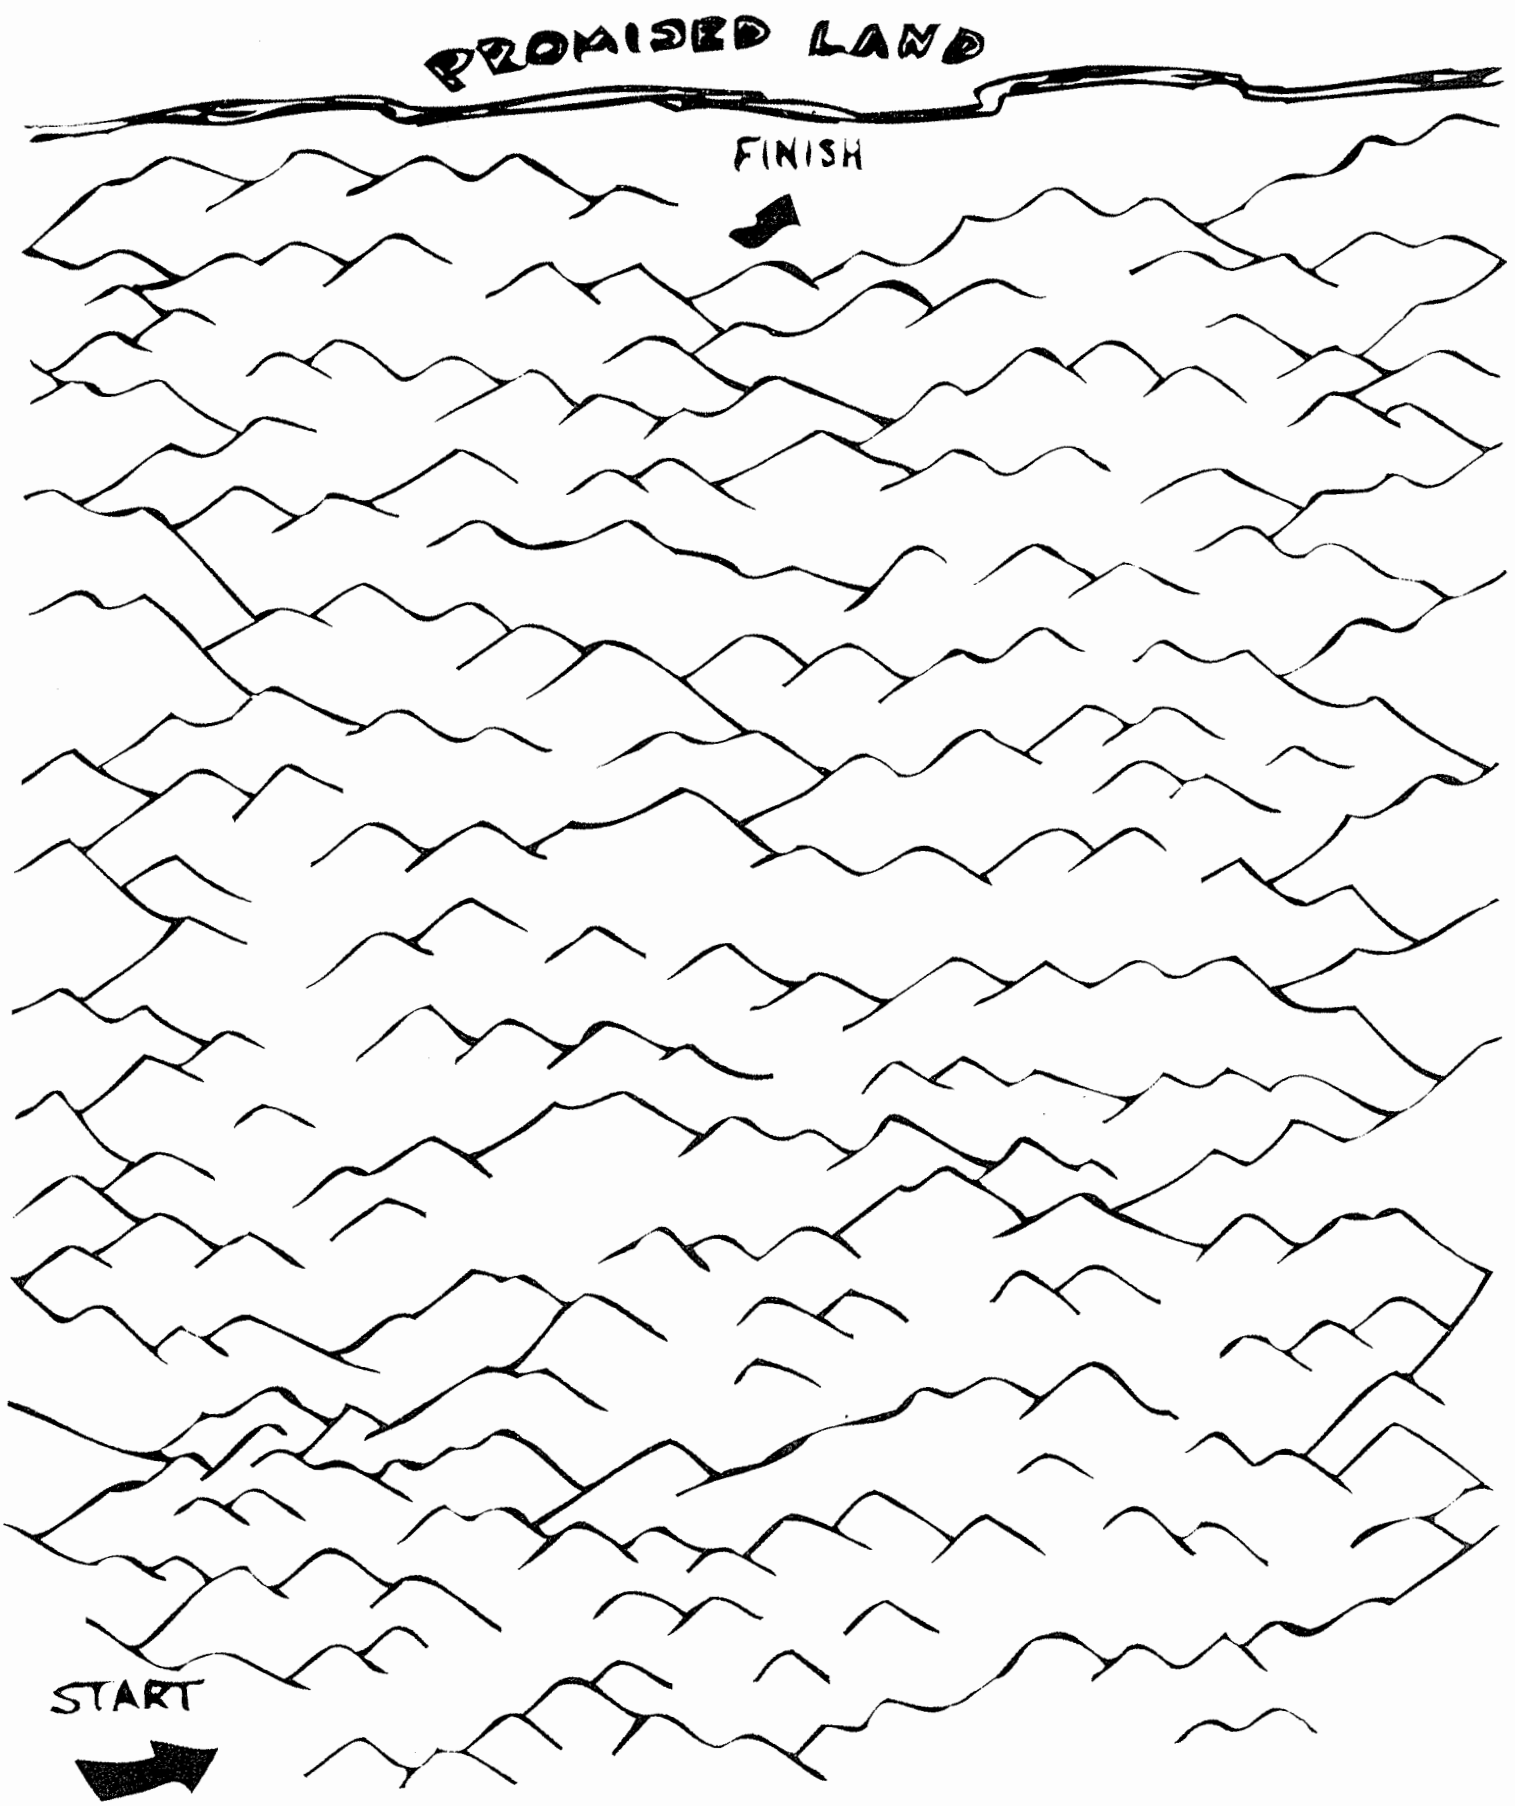

3. Joshua, Moses' assistant became his successor. Moses had laid his hand on Joshua therefore, he was full of the spirit of wisdom.

4. God told Joshua to lead His people into the promised land. God told Joshua to be brave, courageous, strong, and not to fear, or be dismayed.

5. Joshua organized the people to ready themselves to go into the Canaan land (promised land). The people all agreed to follow Joshua and to obey God.

After the death of Moses, Joshua led the Hebrews in th battles for the Promised Land.

Week 51 Rahab Helps The Israelites

Scriptures: Joshua 2, 3, and 4

Key Verse: Joshua 4:23 For the Lord your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before you until you had crossed over, as the Lord your God did to the Red Sea, which He dried up before us until we had crossed over.

Key Points:

1. Joshua sent 2 spies ahead into Jericho who hid at Rahab's house on the city wall. The Israelites were ready to drive out the people from Jericho. She sent them to the mountains for safety.

2. Rahab asked the spies to spare her and her family when the Israelites conquered Jericho. The spies agreed IF the family stayed in her house and IF they placed a scarlet cord in the window.

3. The spies returned to Joshua and told him Rahab said the people of Jericho were fainthearted because of the Israelites' fame regarding their deliverance from Egypt.

4. As the people crossed the Jordan river into Jericho, the priests led the way bearing the ark of the covenant. The priests entered the water of the Jordan river and instantly the waters stood up in a heap before the ark of the covenant. The people all crossed the Jordan on dry ground. When everyone had passed over, Joshua commanded the priests to exit the Jordan river and the waters returned to normal.

5. Joshua instructed them that one man from each of the 12 tribes was to pick up a stone from the dry riverbed as he crossed. This heap of stones was to be a memorial to the people and their children. When they saw the heap of 12 stones, they were to remember how God allowed the waters to be cut-off before the ark of the covenant (the water stood in a heap) so they could cross Jordan on dry ground.

Crossing the Jordan
Joshua 3

The Reason

The Lord caused the Red Sea to part and the Jordan River to stop flowing so the Israelites could cross over on dry ground. Use your calculators to find the square root of each number to discover the special reason why God performed such marvelous deeds.

Week 52

Walls Of Jericho

Scriptures: Joshua 6, 7, and 8

Key Verses: Joshua 6:20 So the people shouted when the priests blew the trumpets. And it happened when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout that the wall fell down flat. Then the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.

Key Points:

1. Jericho was all closed up with no one going in or out, but God gave Jericho into the hands of Joshua and the Israelites .

2. The men of war of Israel marched once a day around the city walls for 6 days. Each day, seven priests each carried a trumpet of ram's horn before the ark of the covenant. On the seventh day, (with the armed men, priests and the ark of the covenant in the lead) they circled the city seven times. When the priests blew along blast on the trumpets the people shouted at Joshua's instruction. The walls fell in flat and they entered the city.

3. Rahab and all within her house were spared because she hid the two spies. All the other inhabitants were killed and Jericho was burned with fire.

4. Achan took some accursed things instead of giving the silver, gold, bronze, and iron to the Lord. He and his household were killed because of their sin.

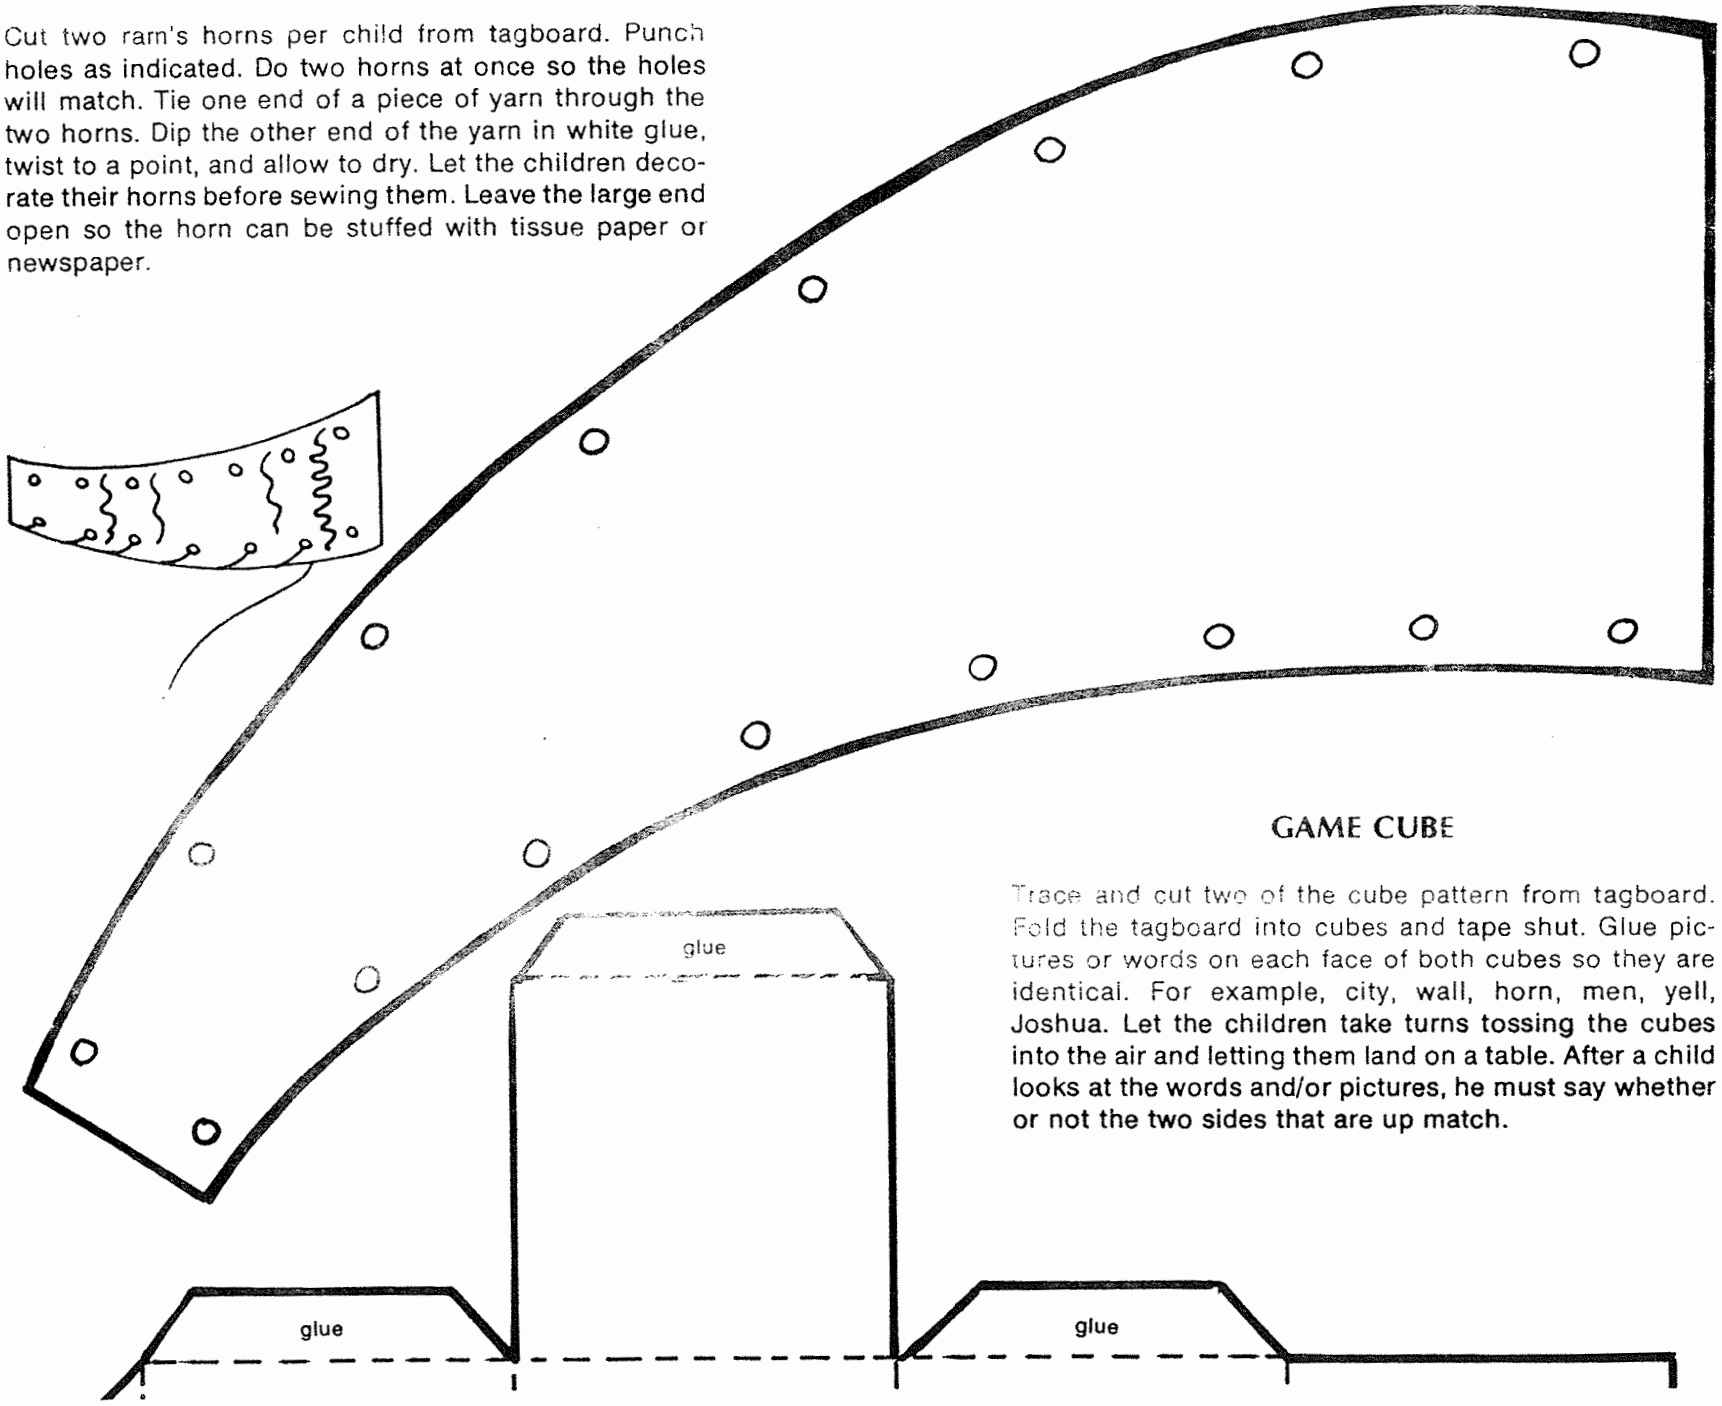

5. The Israelites had 36 people killed in their next battle (the first attempt to capture the city of Ai) because of Achan's sin. The second attempt on Ai was successful as God gave them the city.

Joshua at Jericho

Joshua 5, 6

Cut two ram's horns per child from tagboard. Punch holes as indicated. Do two horns at once so the holes will match. Tie one end of a piece of yarn through the two horns. Dip the other end of the yarn in white glue, twist to a point, and allow to dry. Let the children decorate their horns before sewing them. Leave the large end open so the horn can be stuffed with tissue paper or newspaper.

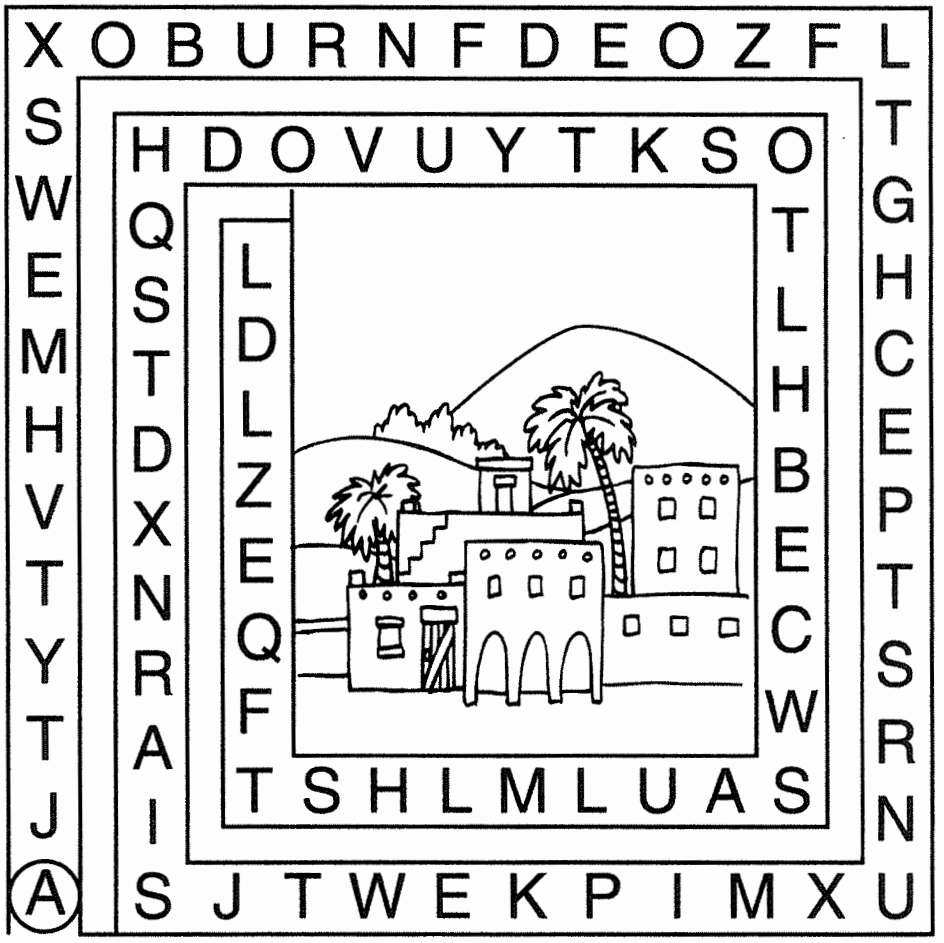

GAME CUBE

Trace and cut two of the cube pattern from tagboard. Fold the tagboard into cubes and tape shut. Glue pictures or words on each face of both cubes so they are identical. For example, city, wall, horn, men, yell, Joshua. Let the children take turns tossing the cubes into the air and letting them land on a table. After a child looks at the words and/or pictures, he must say whether or not the two sides that are up match.

Joshua at Jericho
Joshua 6:1-5

Seven Times Around

God told Joshua to march his army around the city of Jericho once each day for six days. On the seventh day, they were to march around the city seven times. The seventh time around, the priests blew their trumpets and the people shouted. To find out what happened then, circle every other letter beginning at start. Copy the letters onto the spaces below. The first circled letter is done for you.
