3. They lied to the Israelites, saying they had traveled from a great distance. Their worn out clothes, tattered wineskins and moldy bread made the lie seem possible.

4. The Israelites made an agreement with the Gibeonites without asking God.

5. Three days later, the Israelites realized they had been tricked.

6. The Israelites kept their promise not to harm the Gibeonites, and they became woodcutters and water carriers to serve Israel.

Israel Ruled by Judges

Scriptures: Judges 1, 2, 3

Key Verse: Judges 3:15 But when the children of Israel cried out to the Lord, the Lord raised up a deliverer for them.

The nation of Israel was divided into twelve tribes, descended from the twelve sons of Jacob. Before his death, Joshua divided the land so that each tribe possessed its own section of the Promised Land.

Key Points:

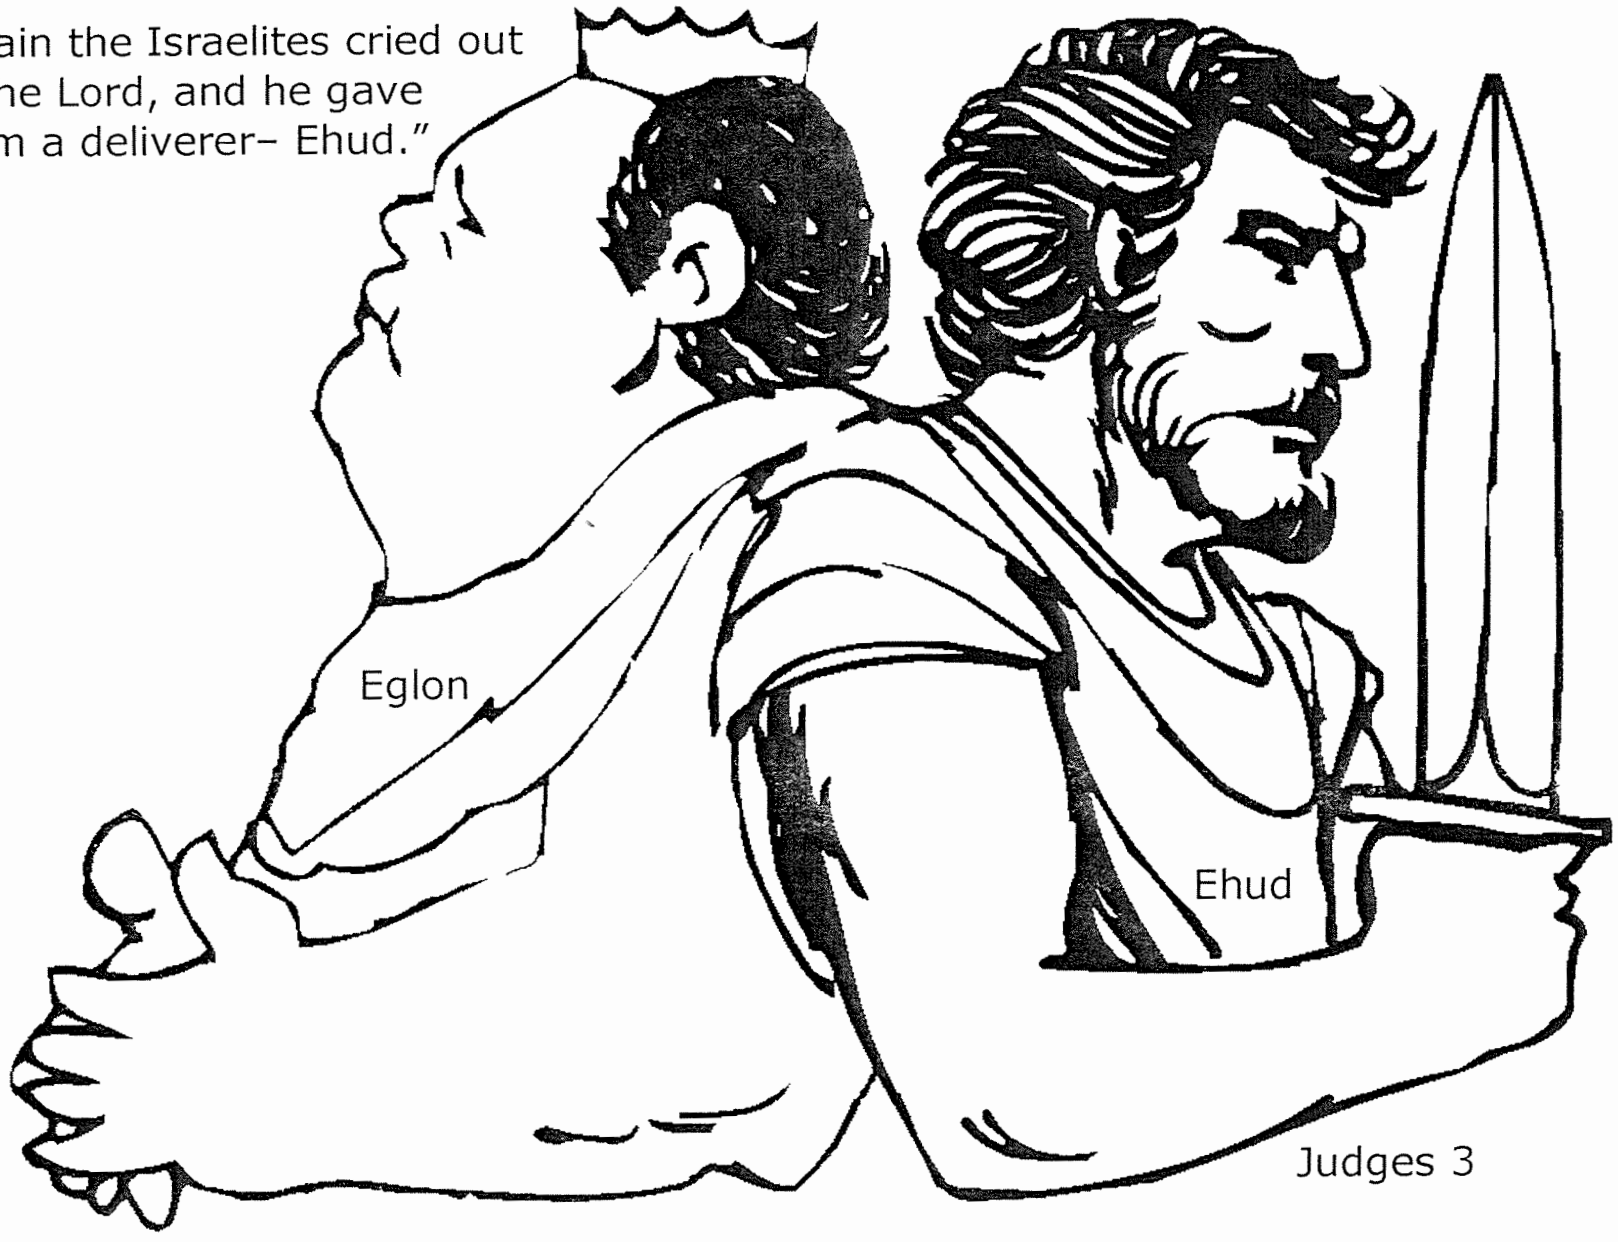

1. After Joshua died, the people failed to remove the idols from the land, and began to worship other gods of the nations around them.

2. Because they had disobeyed God, He allowed the Israelites to become slaves.

3. When Israel repented, God raised up a judge to lead them, and gave them peace from their enemies while the judge lived. When the judge died, the Israelites would forget God and worship idols.

4. Othniel and Ehud were the first judges. Ehud went to pay tribute to the king of Moab, who ruled over Israel. Ehud killed the king, and God helped the Israelites defeat the Moabites. Israel then had peace for 80 years.

"Again the Israelites cried out to the Lord, and he gave them a deliverer– Ehud."

Judges 3

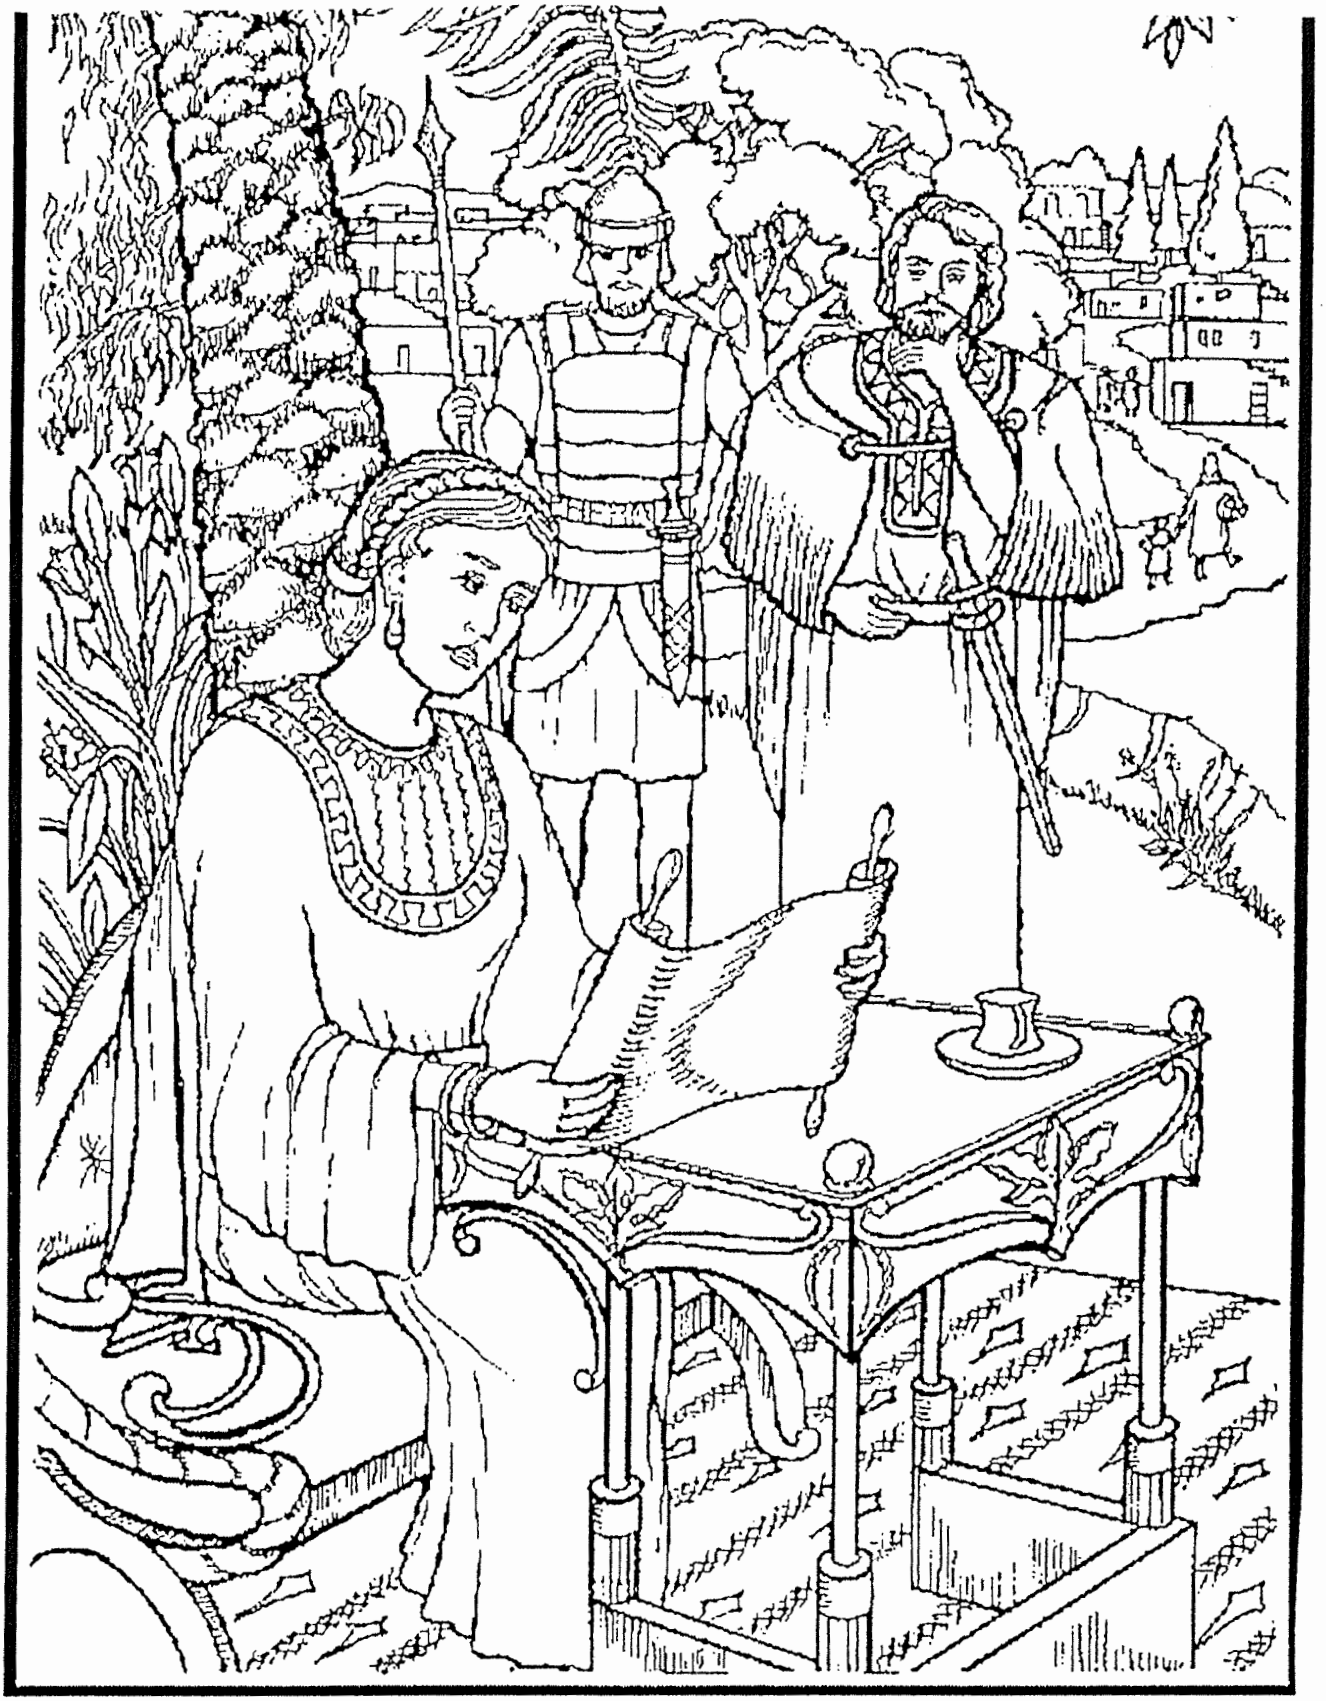

DEBORAH

Judge Over Israel

Judges 4:4-5

Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, was judging Israel at that time. And she would sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the mountains of Ephraim. And the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

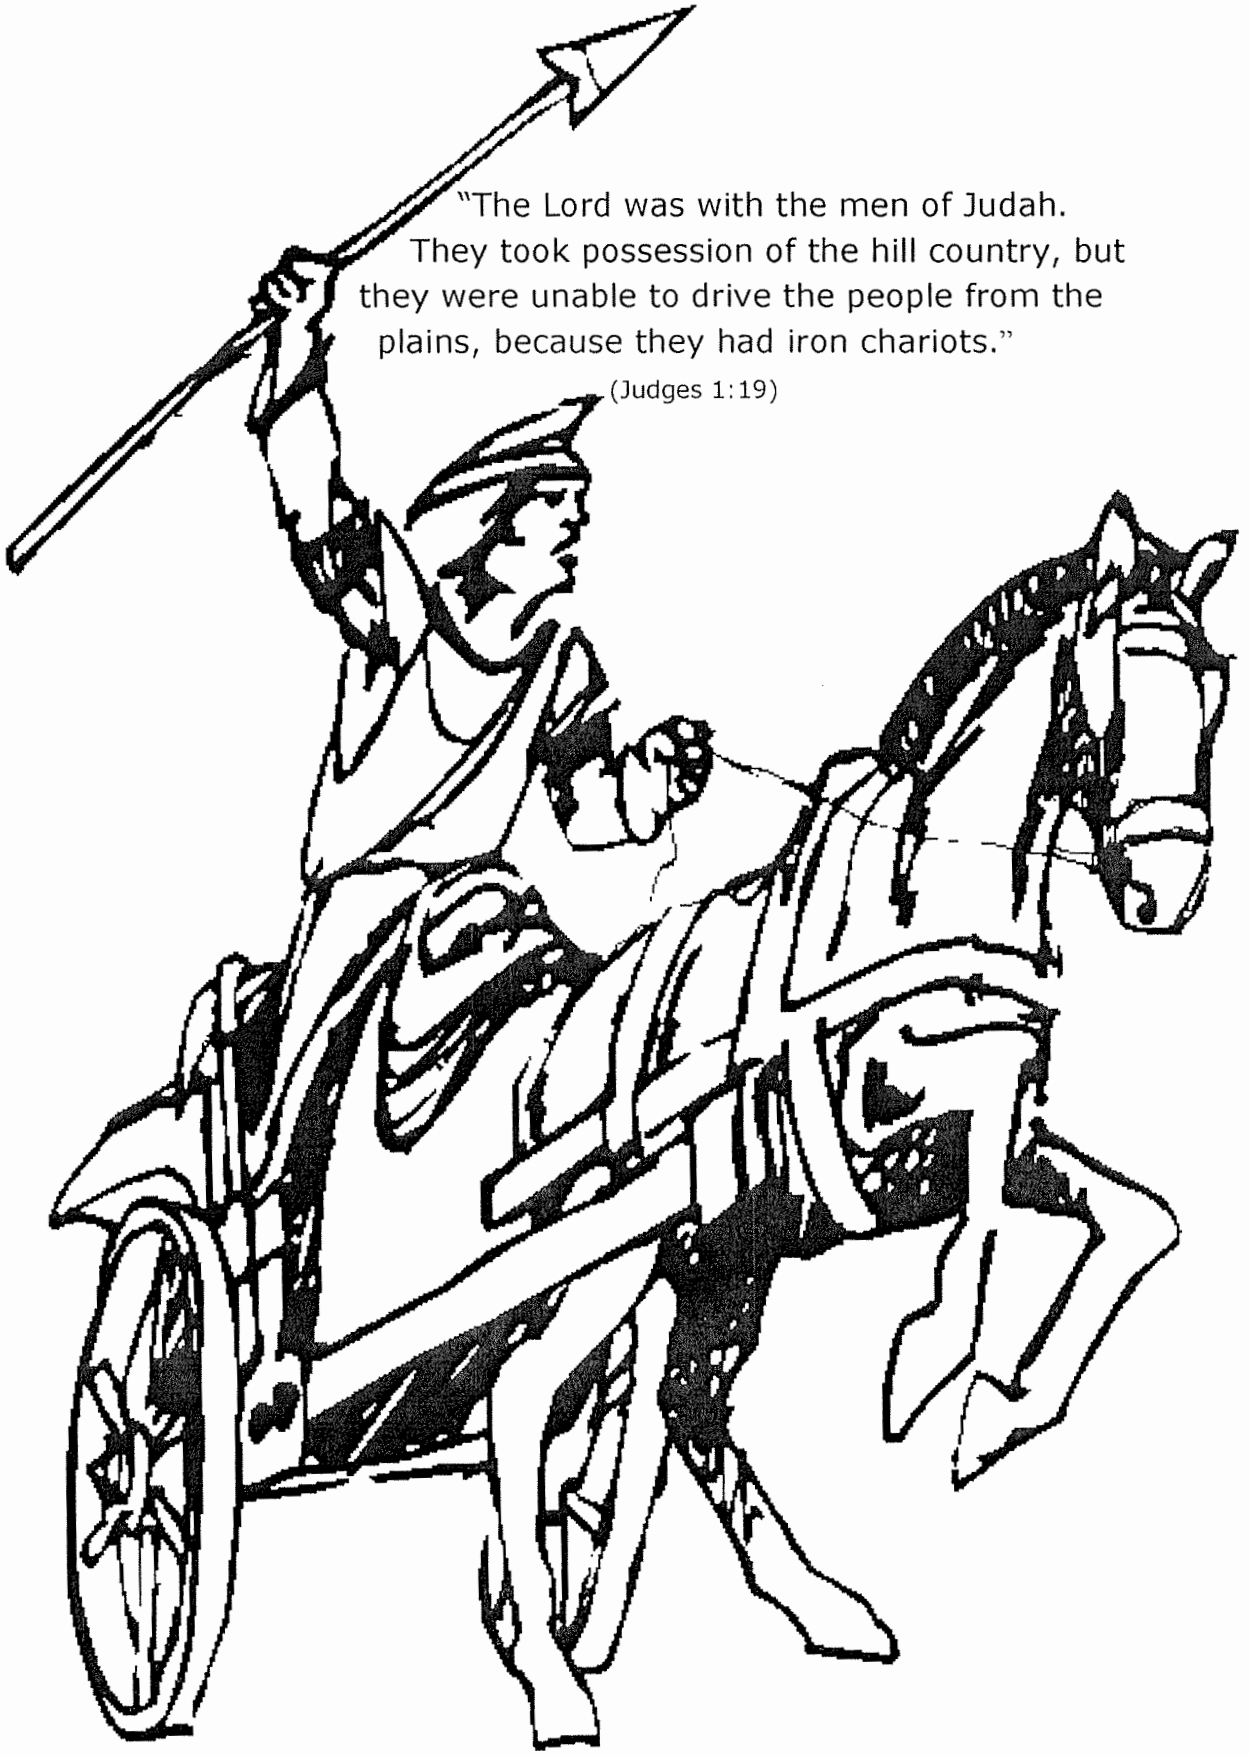

THE JUDGES

For years the Hebrews had no kings but were ruled by Judges. One of the Judges was Samson, who was so strong that he killed a lion with his bare hands.

"The Lord was with the men of Judah.
They took possession of the hill country, but they were unable to drive the people from the plains, because they had iron chariots."
(Judges 1:19)

4) Deborah and Barak went together to defeat King Jabin's army.

Optional: Mount the shield on a piece of card stock for a more durable shield.

To make a scene of Deborah, a prophetess, copy the items and then glue them onto cardstock or colored paper. Make the tree trunk and palm leaves out of colored paper, then glue on to complete the scene.

Judges 4:4-5

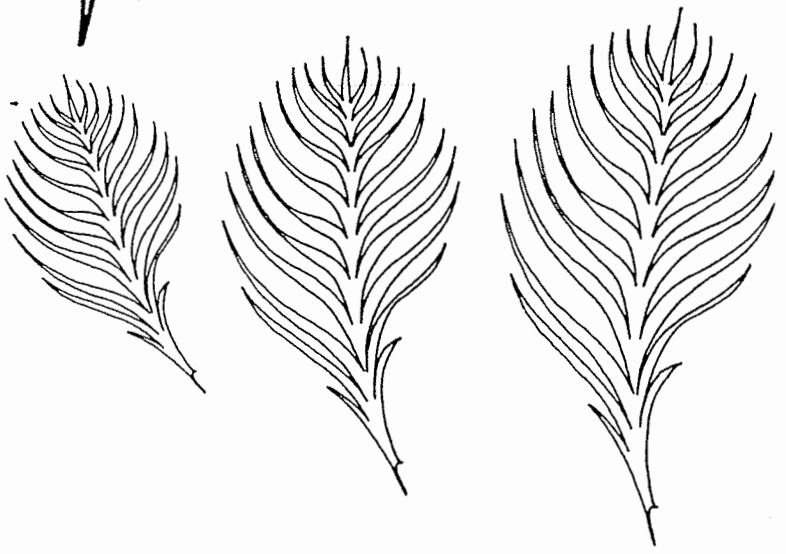

Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, was judging Israel at that time. And she would sit under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the mountains of Ephraim. And the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

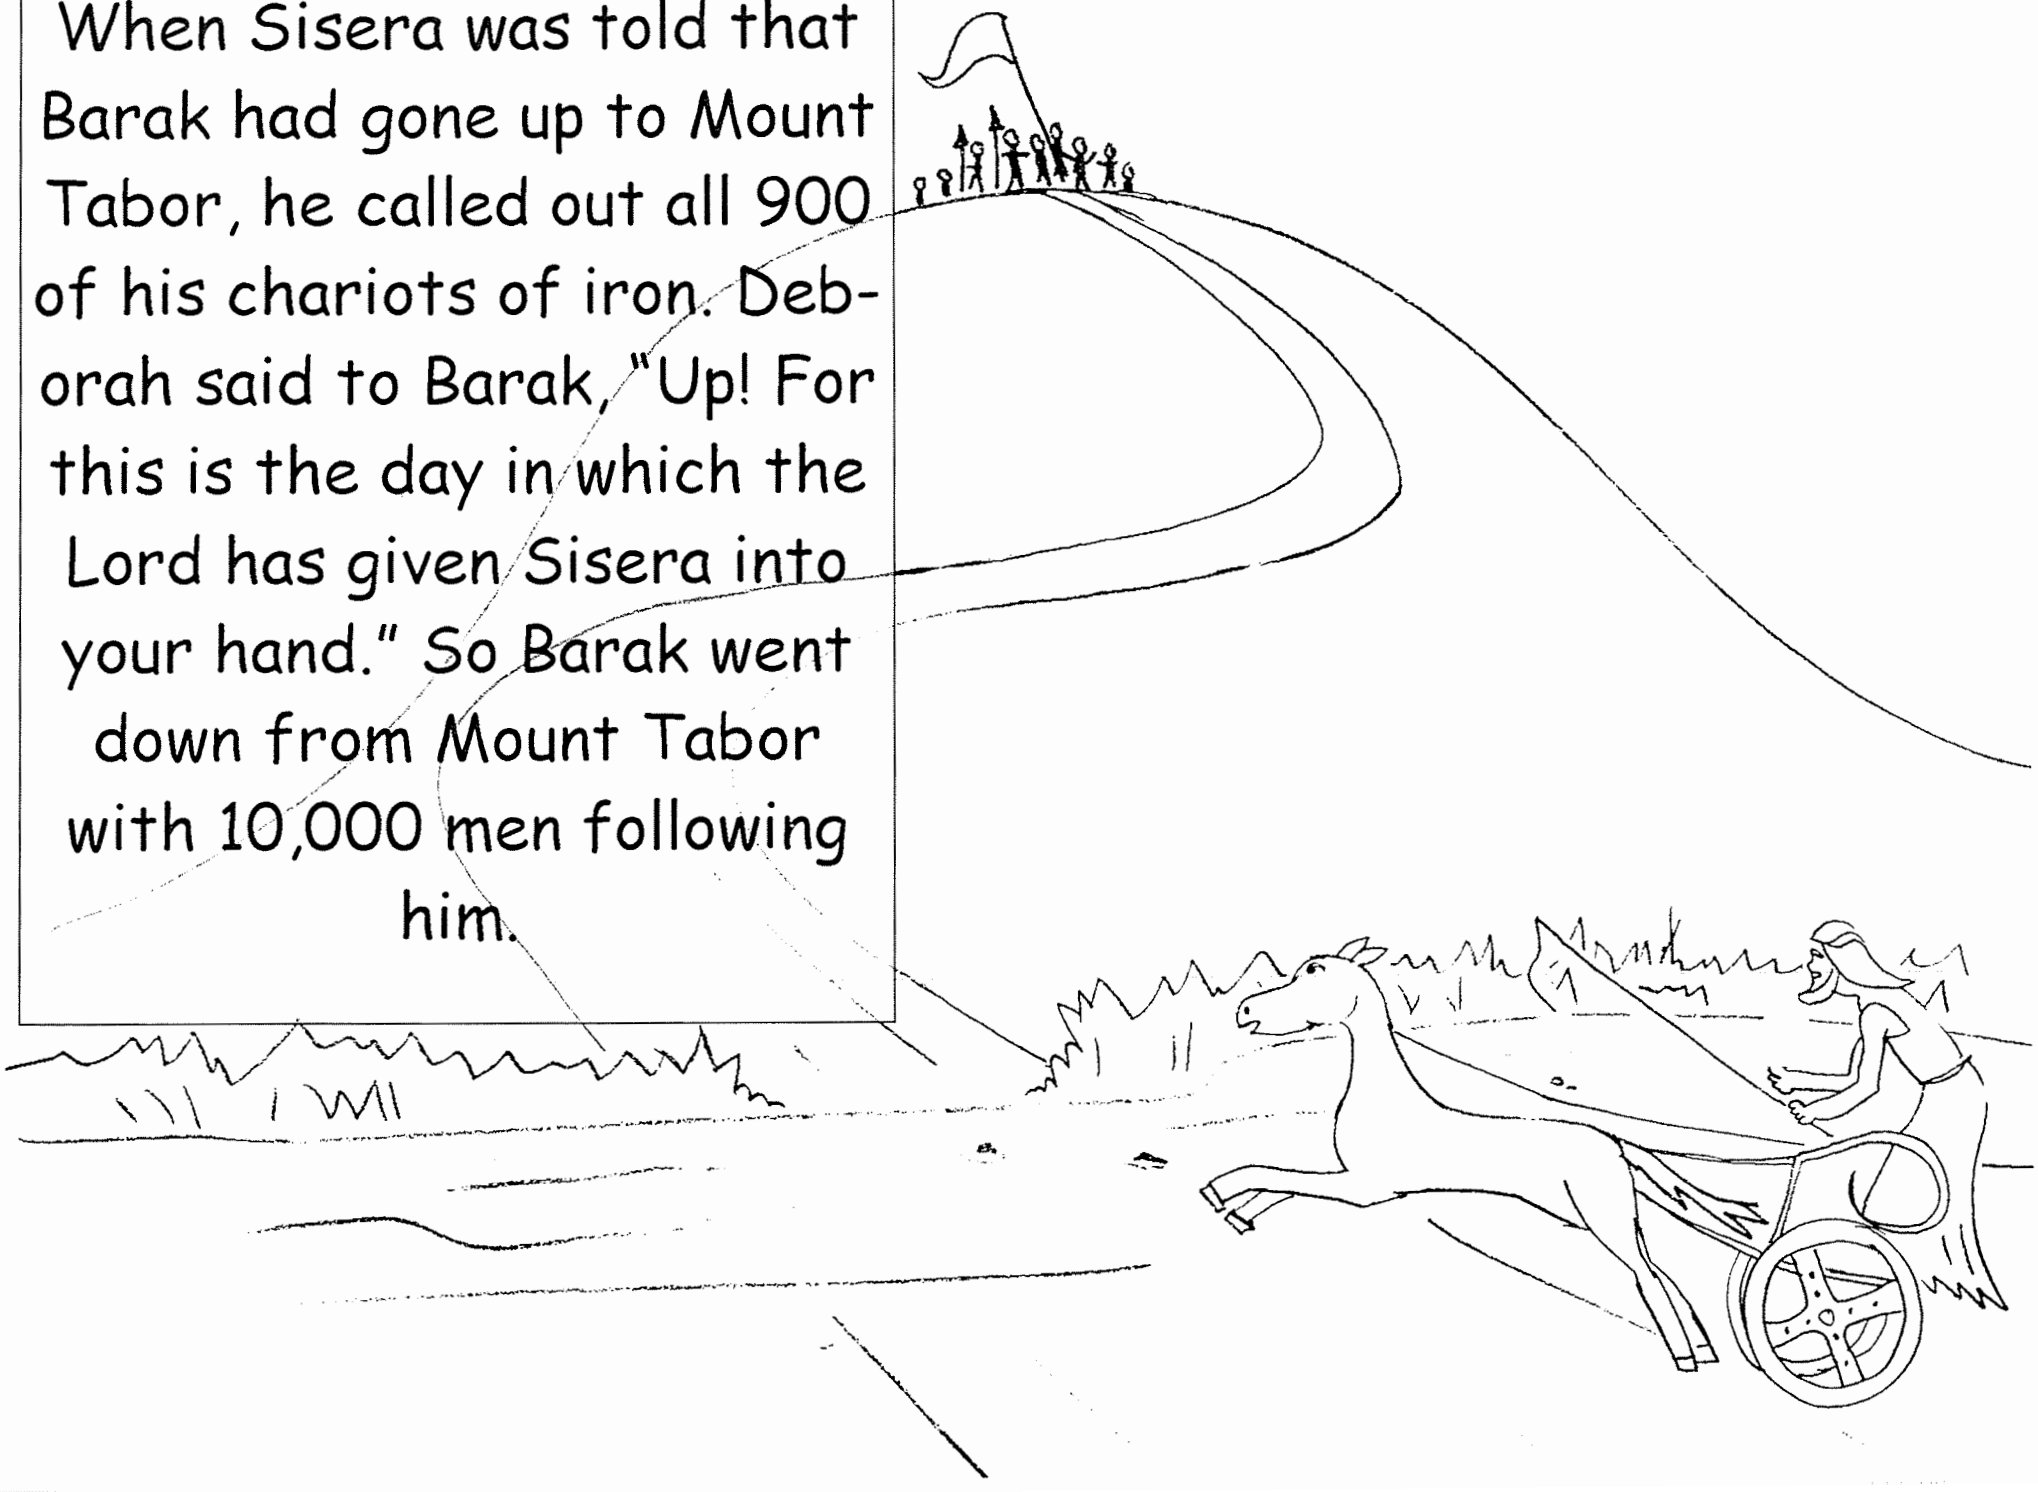

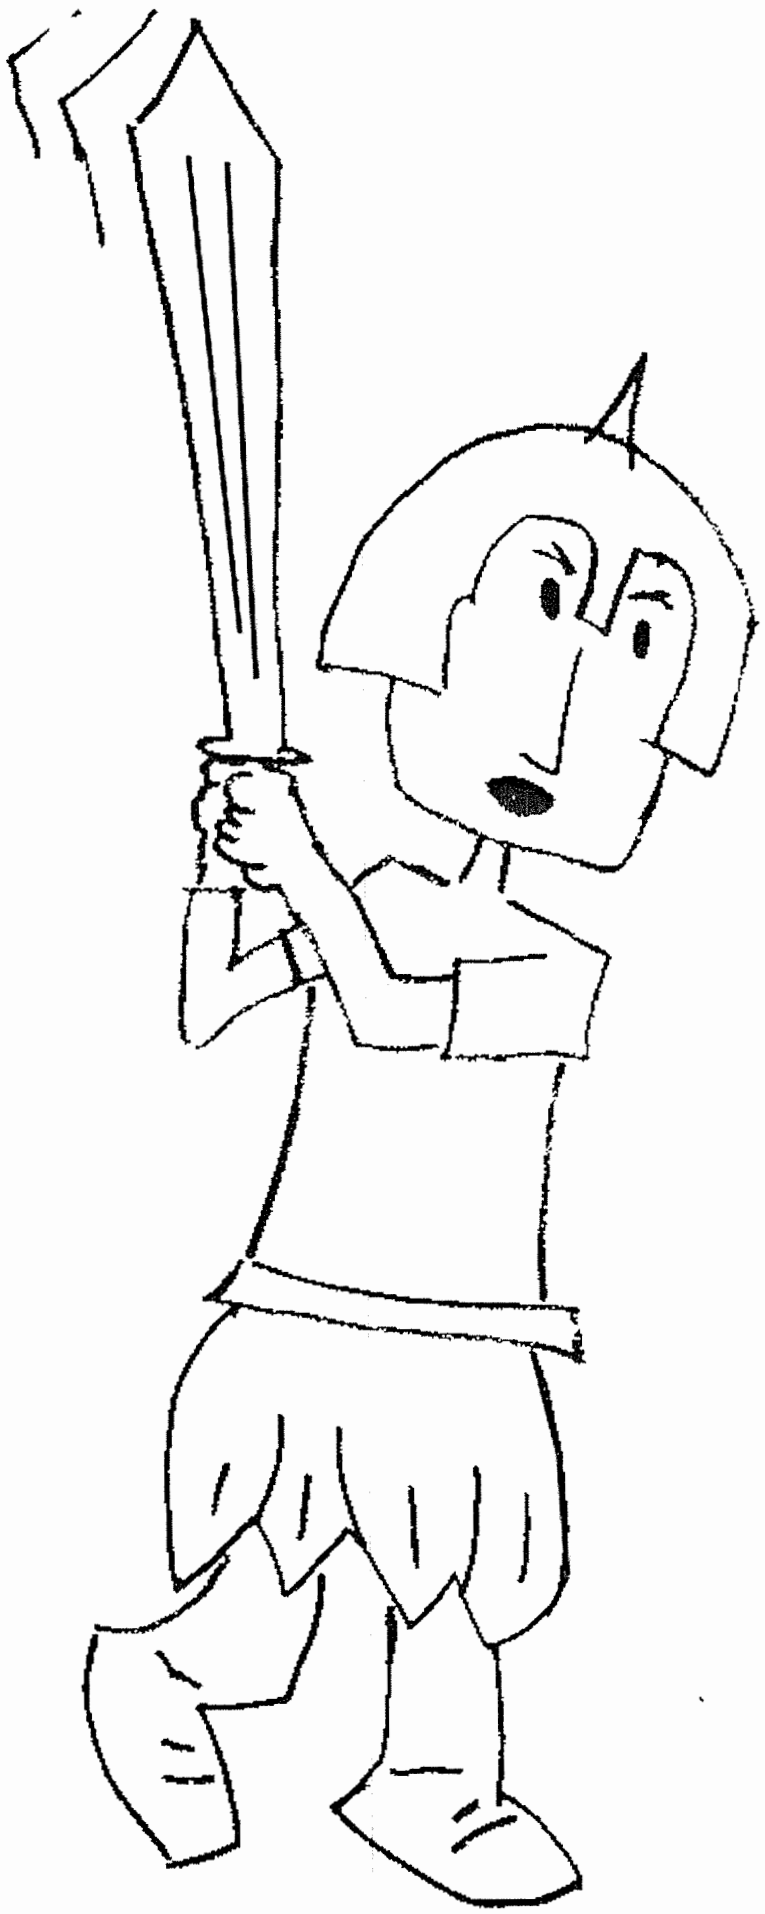

Deborah was judging Israel. She used to sit under a palm and the people of Israel came up to her for judgment. She summoned Barak...

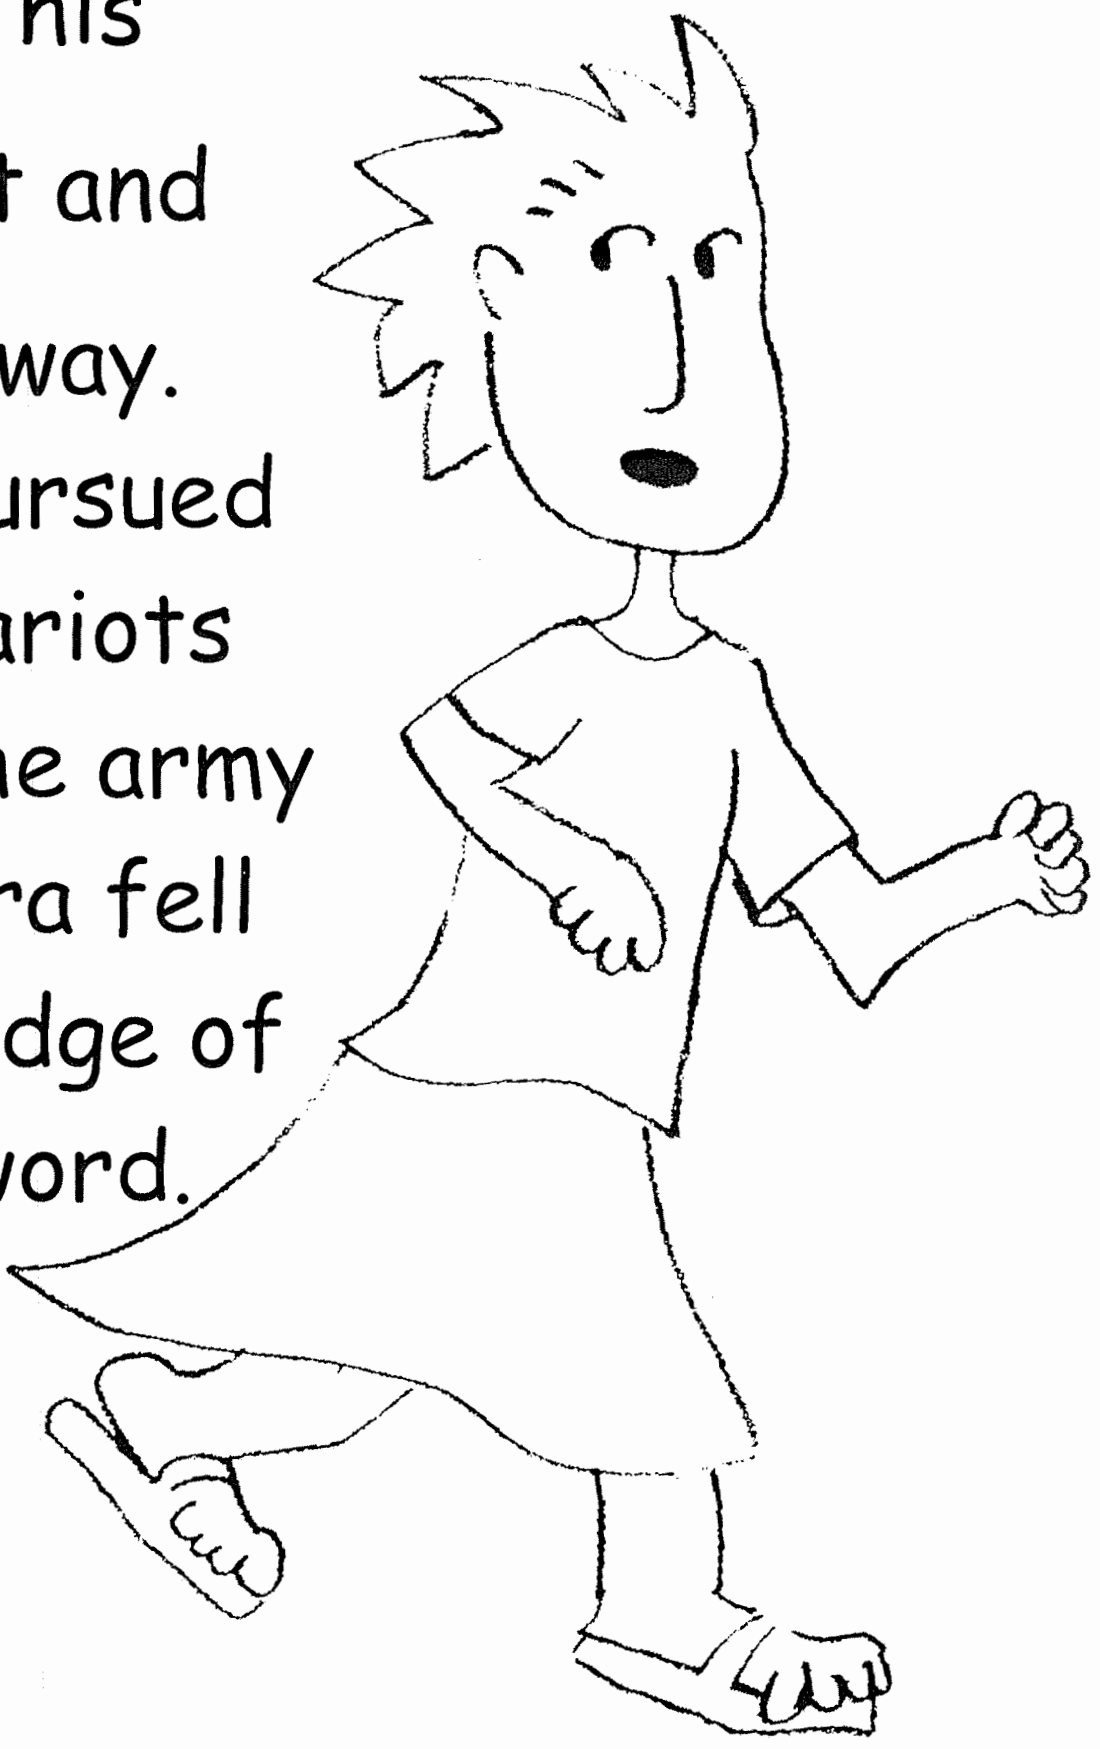

When Sisera was told that Barak had gone up to Mount Tabor, he called out all 900 of his chariots of iron. Deborah said to Barak, "Up! For this is the day in which the Lord has given Sisera into your hand." So Barak went down from Mount Tabor with 10,000 men following him.

The Lord routed Sisera and all his chariots before Barak by the edge of the sword Sisera got down from his chariot and fled away. Barak pursued the chariots and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword.

Sisera fled on foot to the tent of Jael. She took him in, gave him a drink of milk and covered him with a rug.

But Jael took a tent peg and with a hammer she went softly to him and drove the peg into his temple while he was fast asleep. As Barak pursued Sisera, Jael went out to meet him and said "Come, and I will show you the man whom you are seeking." And there lay Sisera dead

Deborah

The story of Deborah is found in Judges 4 and 5. Deborah is the only female judge mentioned in the Bible. She was also a prophetess.

Deborah helped Barak go to battle against Sisera, the captain of the Canaanite army.

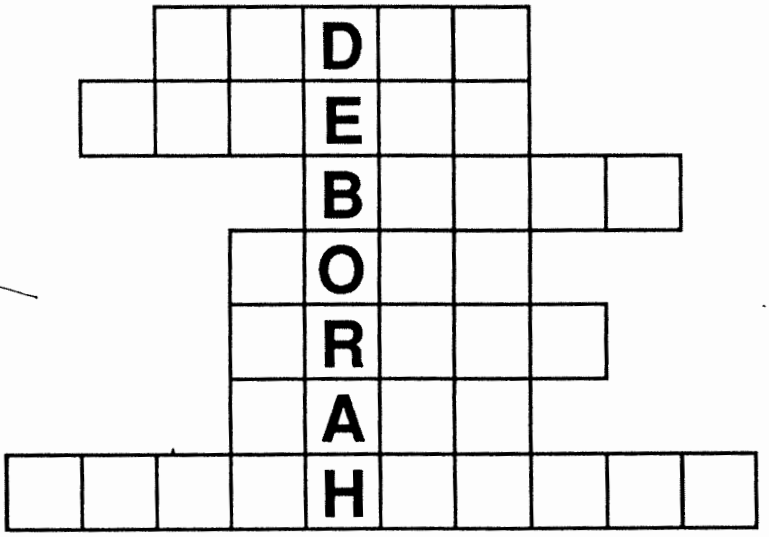

Sisera and his men ran away. Sisera hid in the tent of a woman named Jael. She gave him a drink and let him sleep. Then she killed him.

When Barak came he found Sisera dead.

Judges 5 is the song that Deborah sang about the battle.

Fit the underlined words into the acrostic puzzle.

JUDGES

After Joshua, the children of Israel were ruled in a "theocracy." This means God was the direct ruler of the country. However, the people continually fell away from God. Deliverers, called Judges, were sent by God to free the people from their enemies. Decode Deborah's Song of Thanksgiving over the wicked Captain Sisera. Make up a song of thanksgiving for something that happened in your life.

Gideon and the Angel

Scriptures: Judges 6

Key Verse: Judges 6:12 And the angel of the LORD appeared to him and said, "The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valor!"

Key Points:

1. The Midianites were enemies of Israel who came and destroyed the crops of the Israelites. The Israelites were starving, and tried to hide their remaining food supplies. They cried out to the Lord.

2. God sent an angel to Gideon while he was threshing wheat in a winepress. He told Gideon that God had chosen him to defeat the Midianites.

3. Gideon asked for a sign and prepared an offering of meat and unleavened bread. Fire consumed the offering and the angel disappeared.

4. God instructed Gideon to tear down the idol of Baal that the people worshipped and build an altar to God. Because he was afraid of the people, Gideon did this at night. Afterwards the people wanted to kill Gideon. Joash, Gideon's father reminded them that if Baal was a real god, he could punish Gideon himself.

5. Gideon asked God for another sign. He put a piece of fleece (wool) on the ground. The first time he asked for it to be wet and the ground around it to be dry. The next time he asked for the fleece to be dry while the ground was wet. God did so. Gideon was convinced and ready to fight.

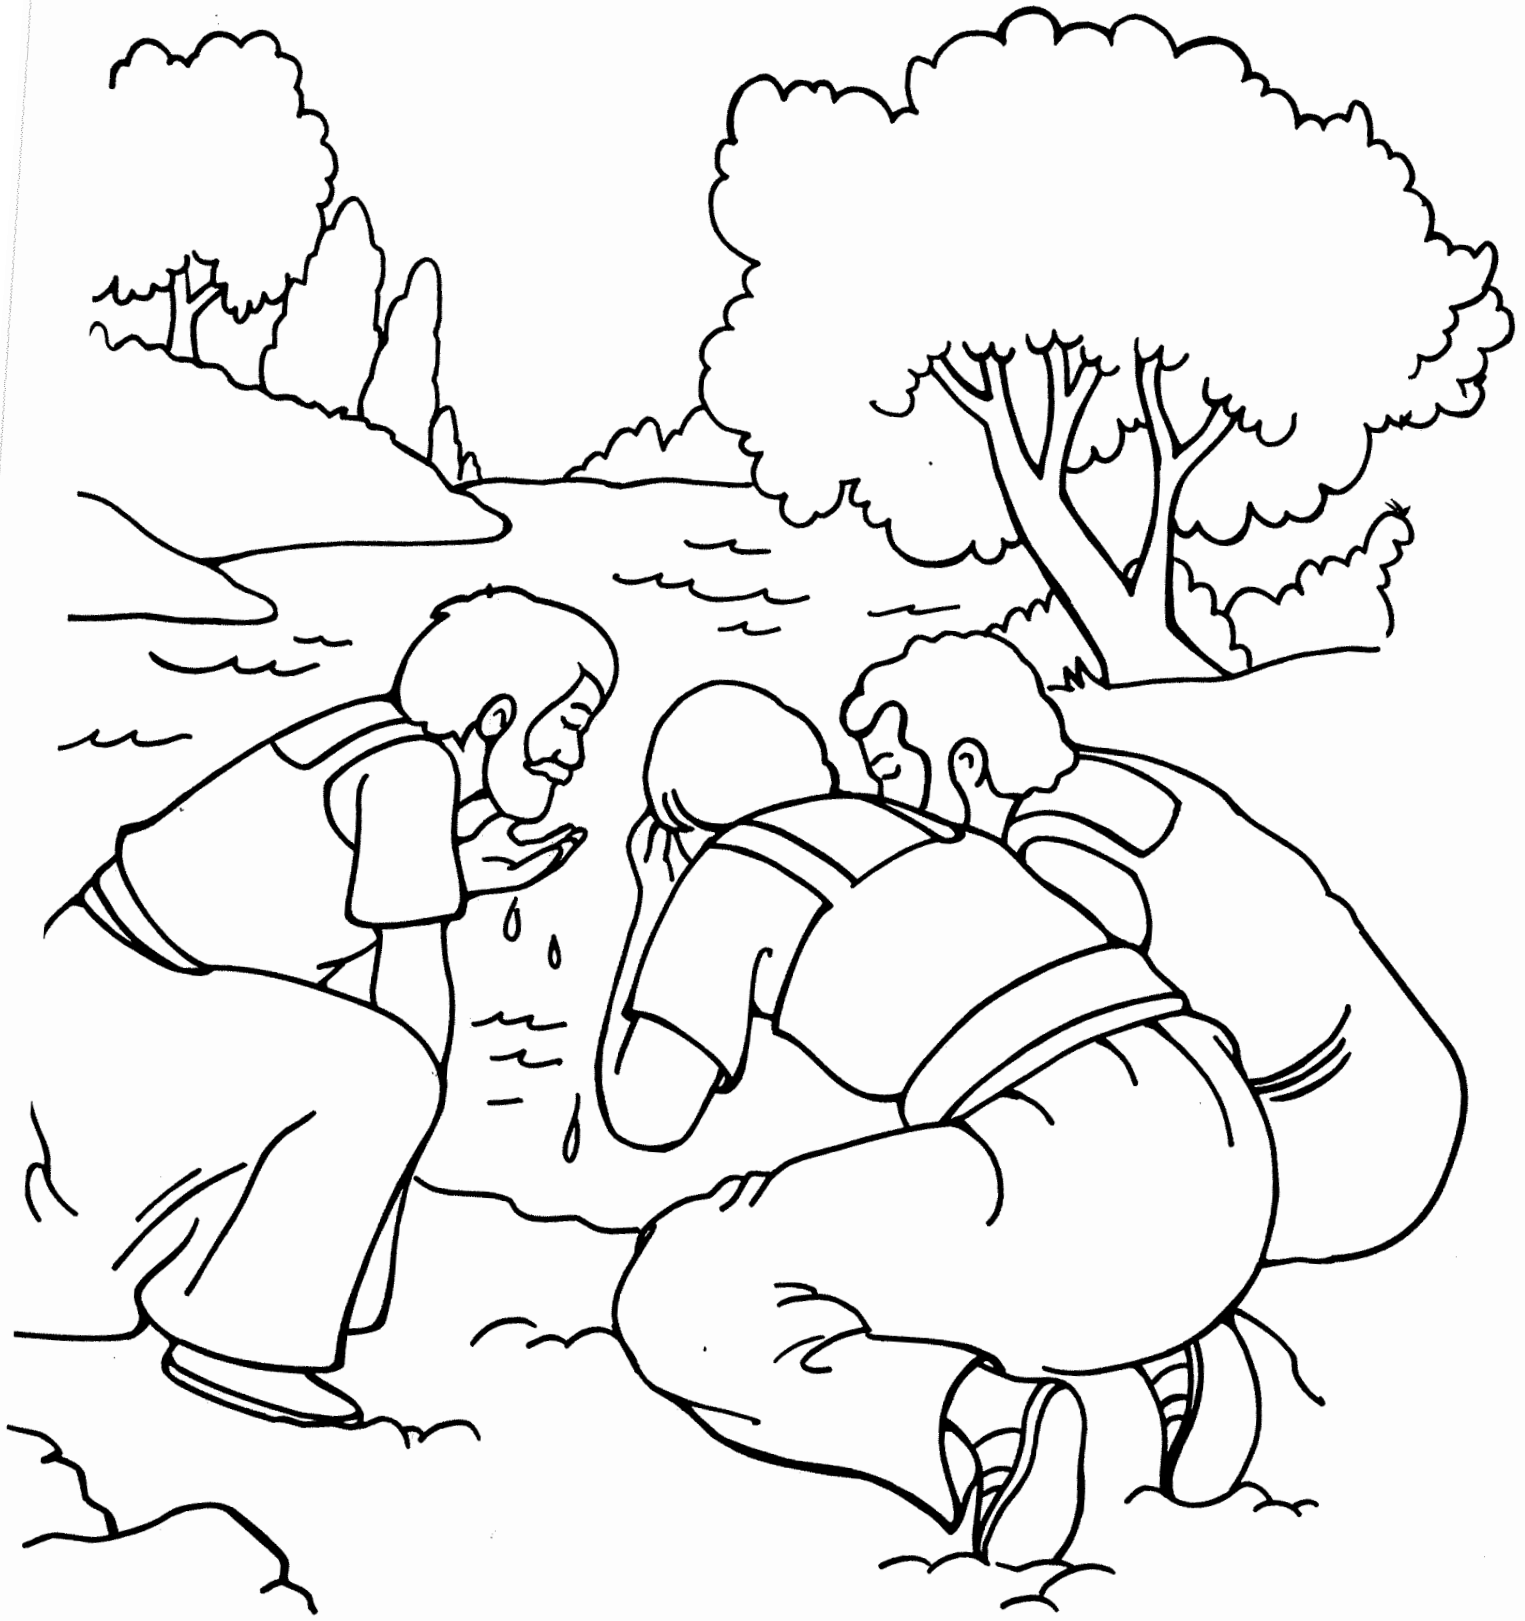

62. THE CALLING OF GIDEON

(JUDGES 6:11-40)

"And Gideon said unto God, If thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said, behold, I will put a fleece of wool in the floor; and if the dew be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the earth beside, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by mine hand, as thou hast said."

JUDGES 6:36-37

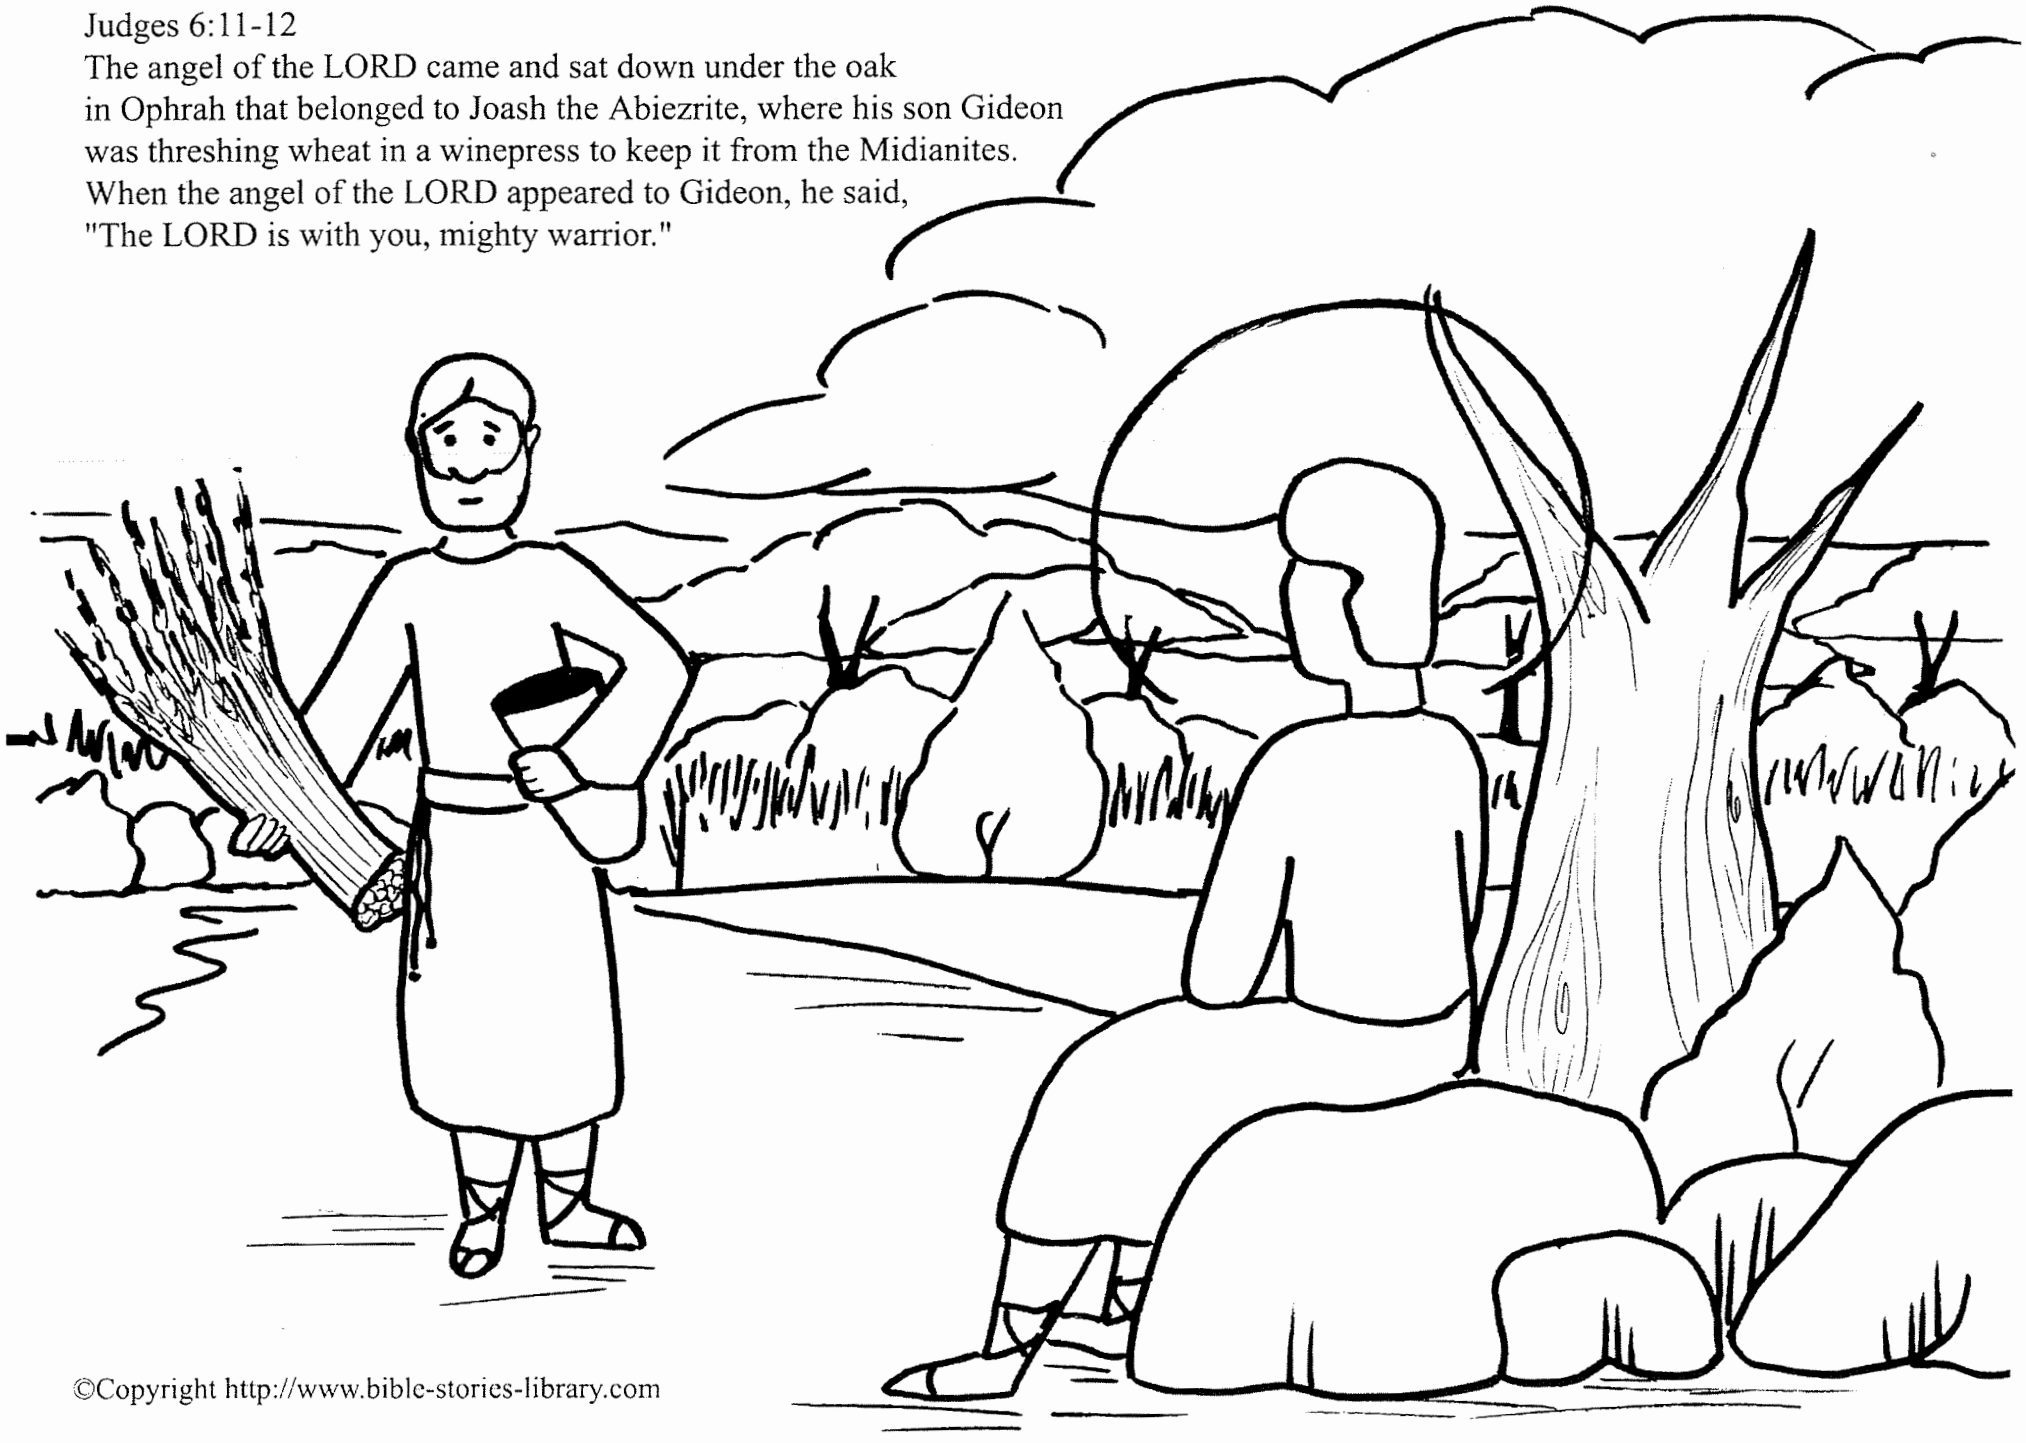

Gideon Is Brave

Judges 6, 7

Even though God had chosen him, Gideon was scared.
An angel came to him and said, "Don't be afraid.
God is with you, mighty warrior!"

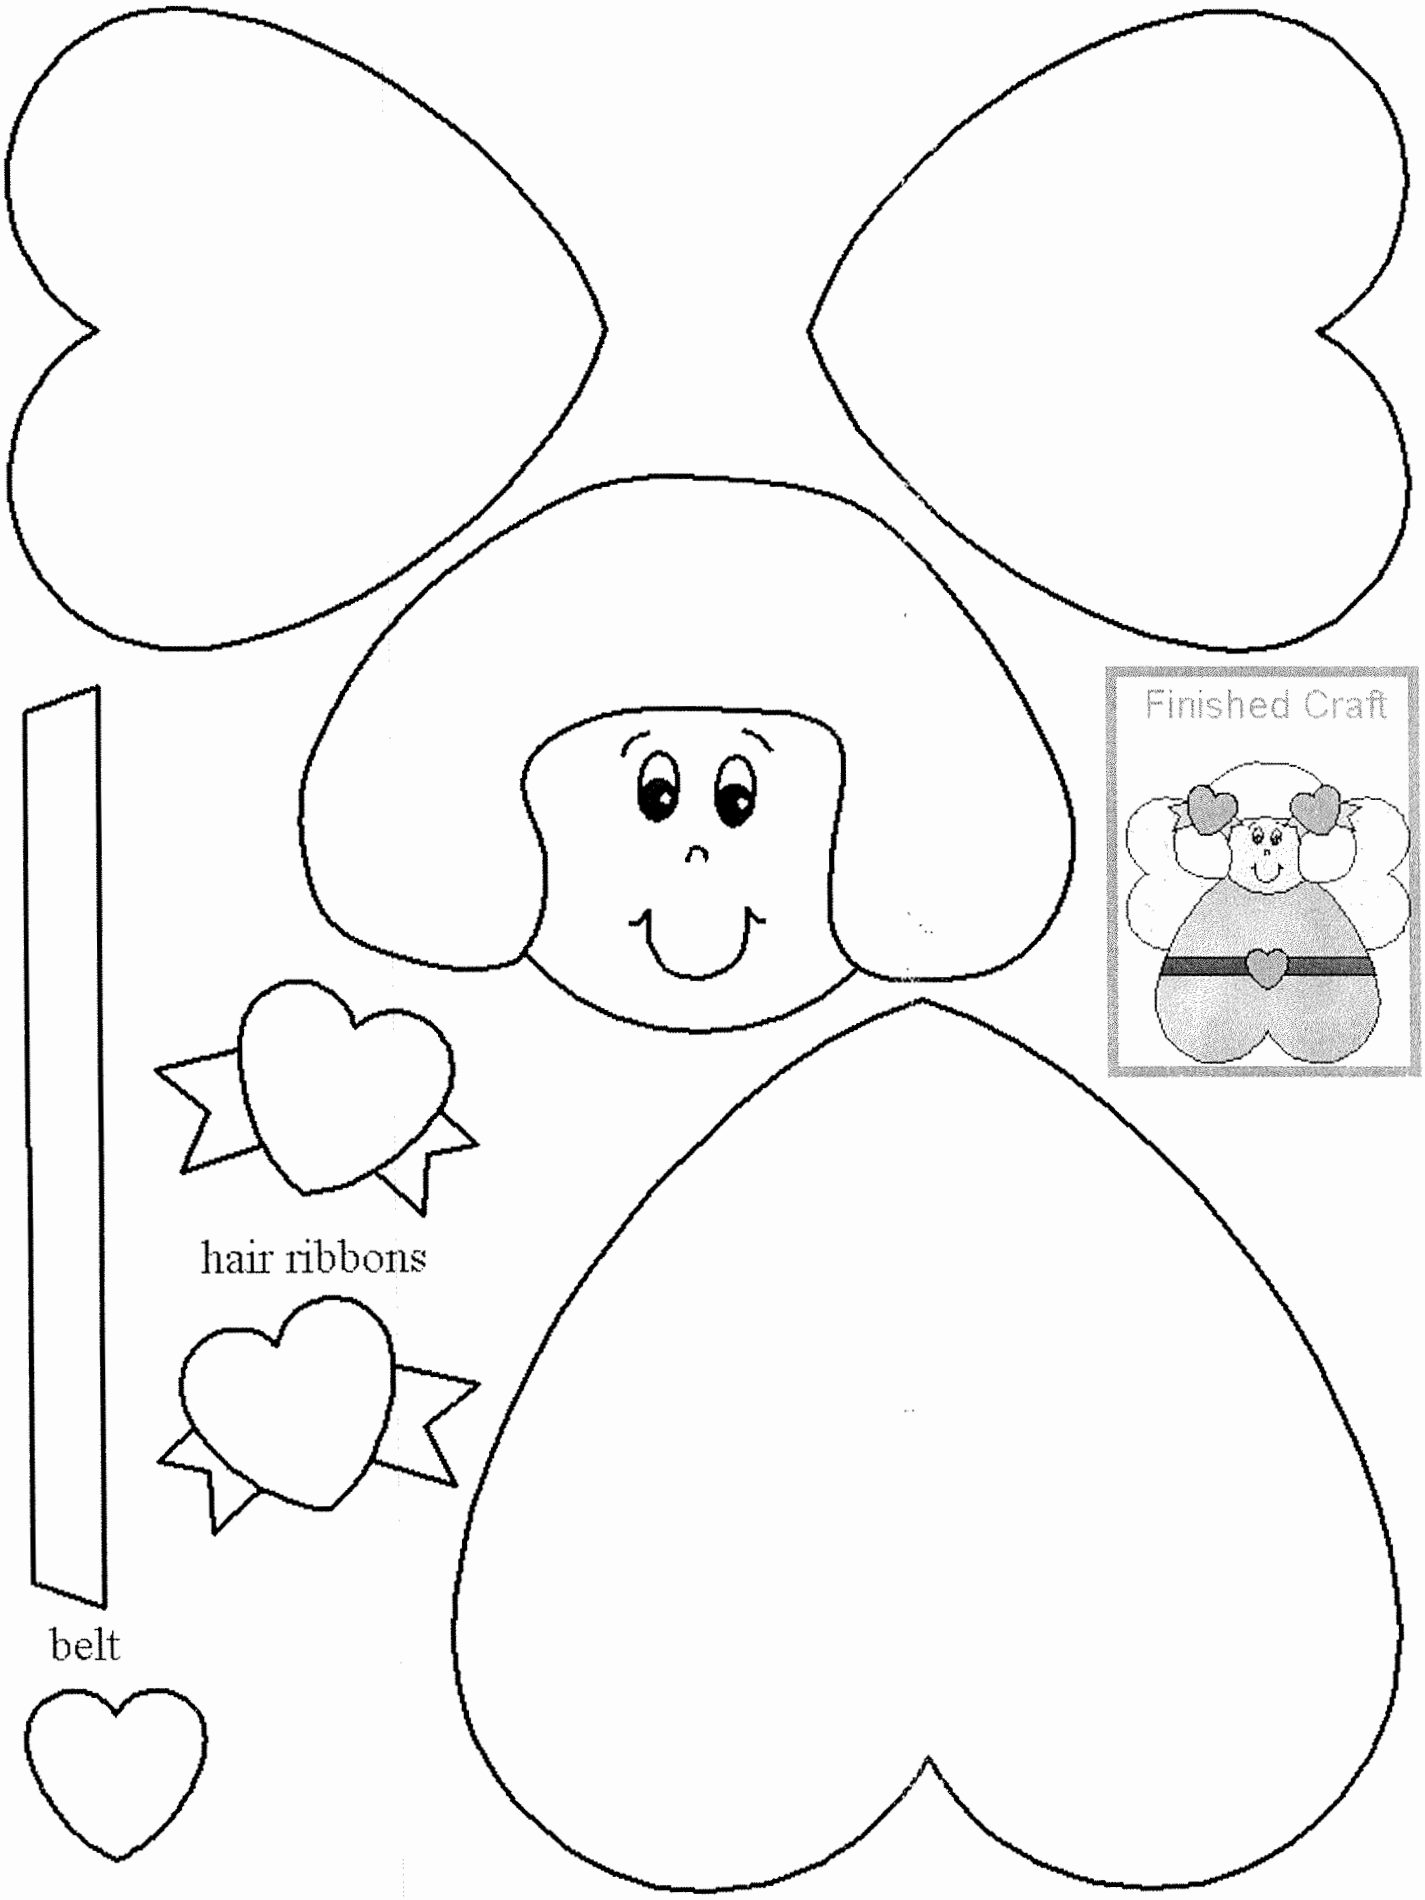

Judges 6:11-12
The angel of the LORD came and sat down under the oak in Ophrah that belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, where his son Gideon was threshing wheat in a winepress to keep it from the Midianites.
When the angel of the LORD appeared to Gideon, he said,
"The LORD is with you, mighty warrior."

Gideon and God Win

Scriptures: Judges 7

Key Verse: Judges 7:20 Then the three companies blew the trumpets and broke the pitchers…and they cried, "The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!"

Key Points:

1. Finally convinced that God was with him, Gideon began to lead Israel.

2. The Lord cut about 30,000 men from Gideon's army, leaving him with 300 men to fight the Midianites.

3. God sent Gideon and his servant to the camp of the Midianites, where they overheard a man telling his dream to a friend. The friend interpreted the dream to mean that God would deliver the whole camp to Gideon's army.

4. Gideon divided his men into three groups and gave them trumpets and torches hidden inside empty pitchers. At Gideon's signal, every man blew his trumpet and broke the pitchers covering the lamps.

5. The Midianites panicked and started killing each other and running away, and the Israelites were able to follow and defeat the large army.

GOD'S MIGHTY WARRIOR

God's people had to fight many battles in the Promised Land. A farmer named Gideon led the people to fight for God.

God told Gideon to sneak into the enemy camp with only trumpets and torches covered with jars.

When Gideon's army blew their trumpets and smashed their jars, the enemy woke up, got scared, and ran away!

63. GIDEON'S ARMY OF 300

(JUDGES 7:1-25)

"And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal: and they cried, The sword of the LORD, and of Gideon."

JUDGES 7:20

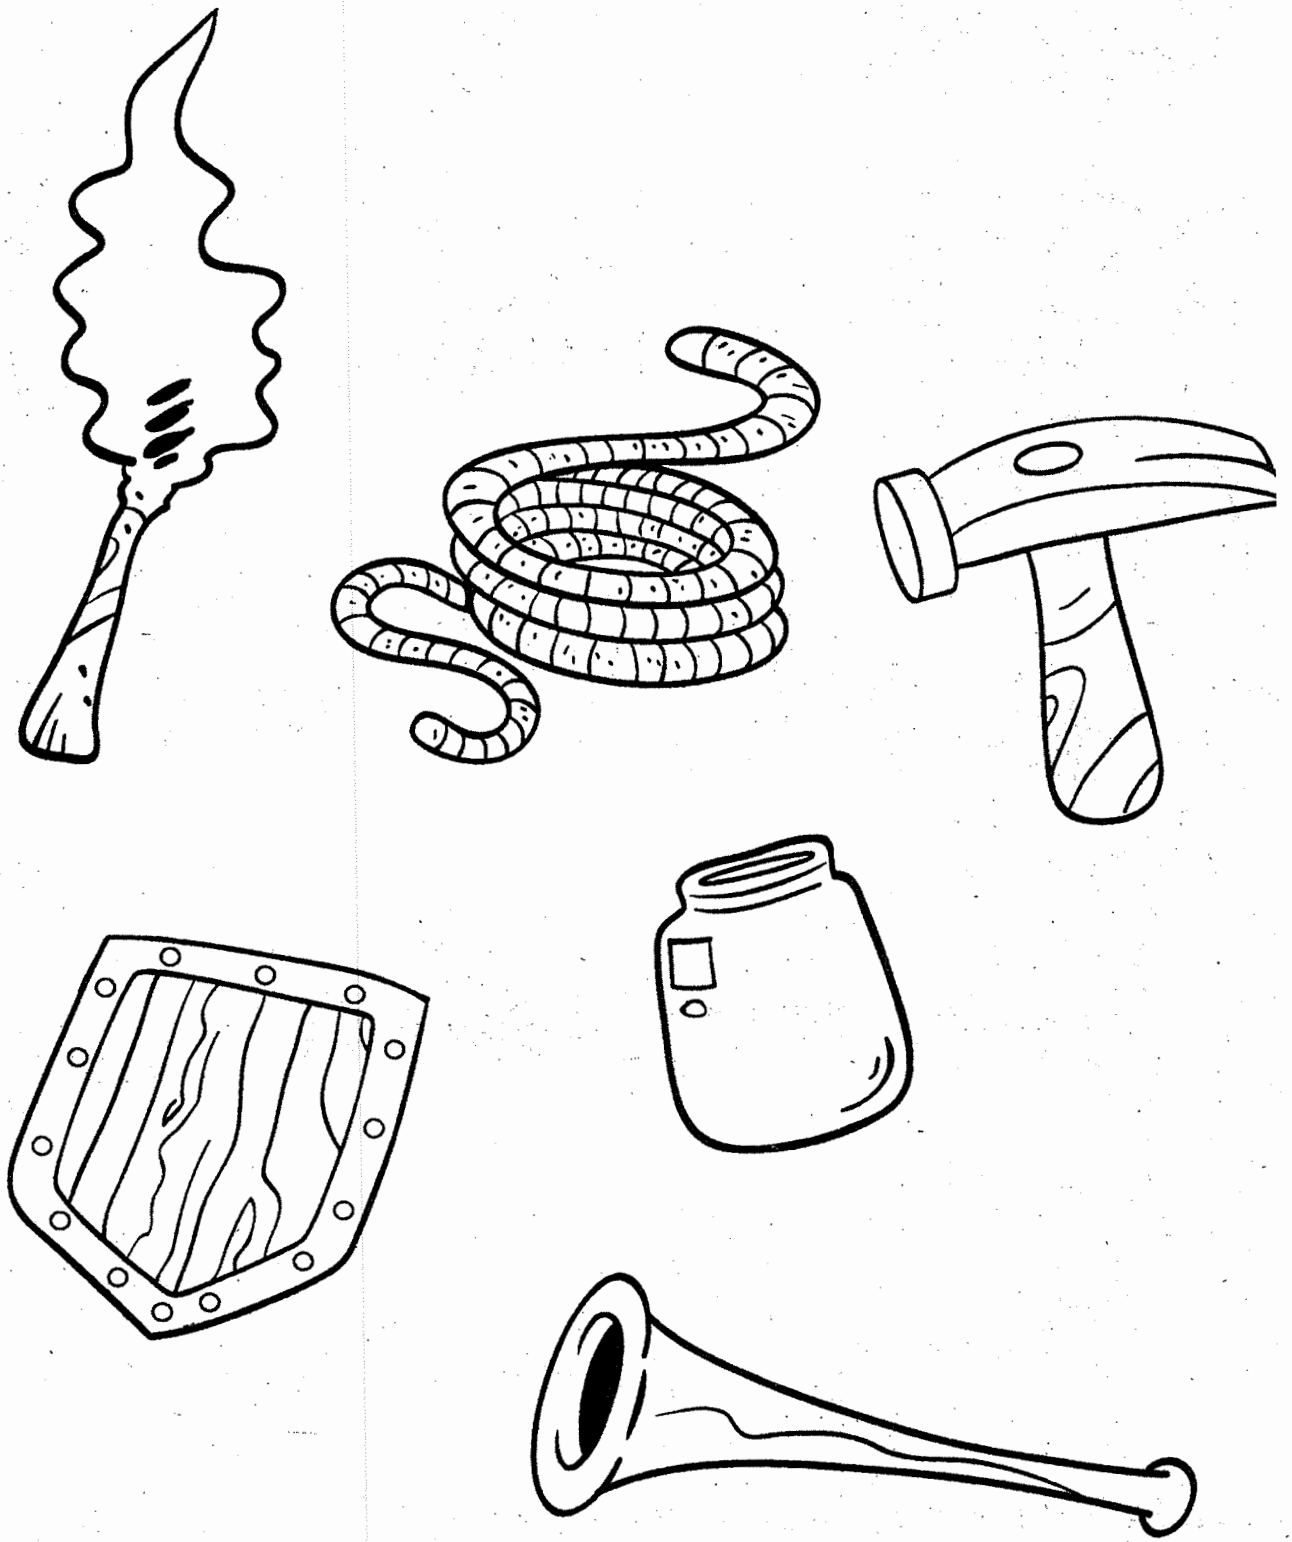

Choosing an Army

Gideon was chosen to lead the Israelites in battle against the Midianites. Such a great army of Israelites came together that every man who was afraid of the Midianites was allowed to return to his home. Two out of every three men left, but the army was still too large. So God arranged another test. Read about it in Judges 7:1-7 and you will know which of the soldiers in the picture stayed in the army. Color red the robes of those who stayed. Color the others green.

Important Tools

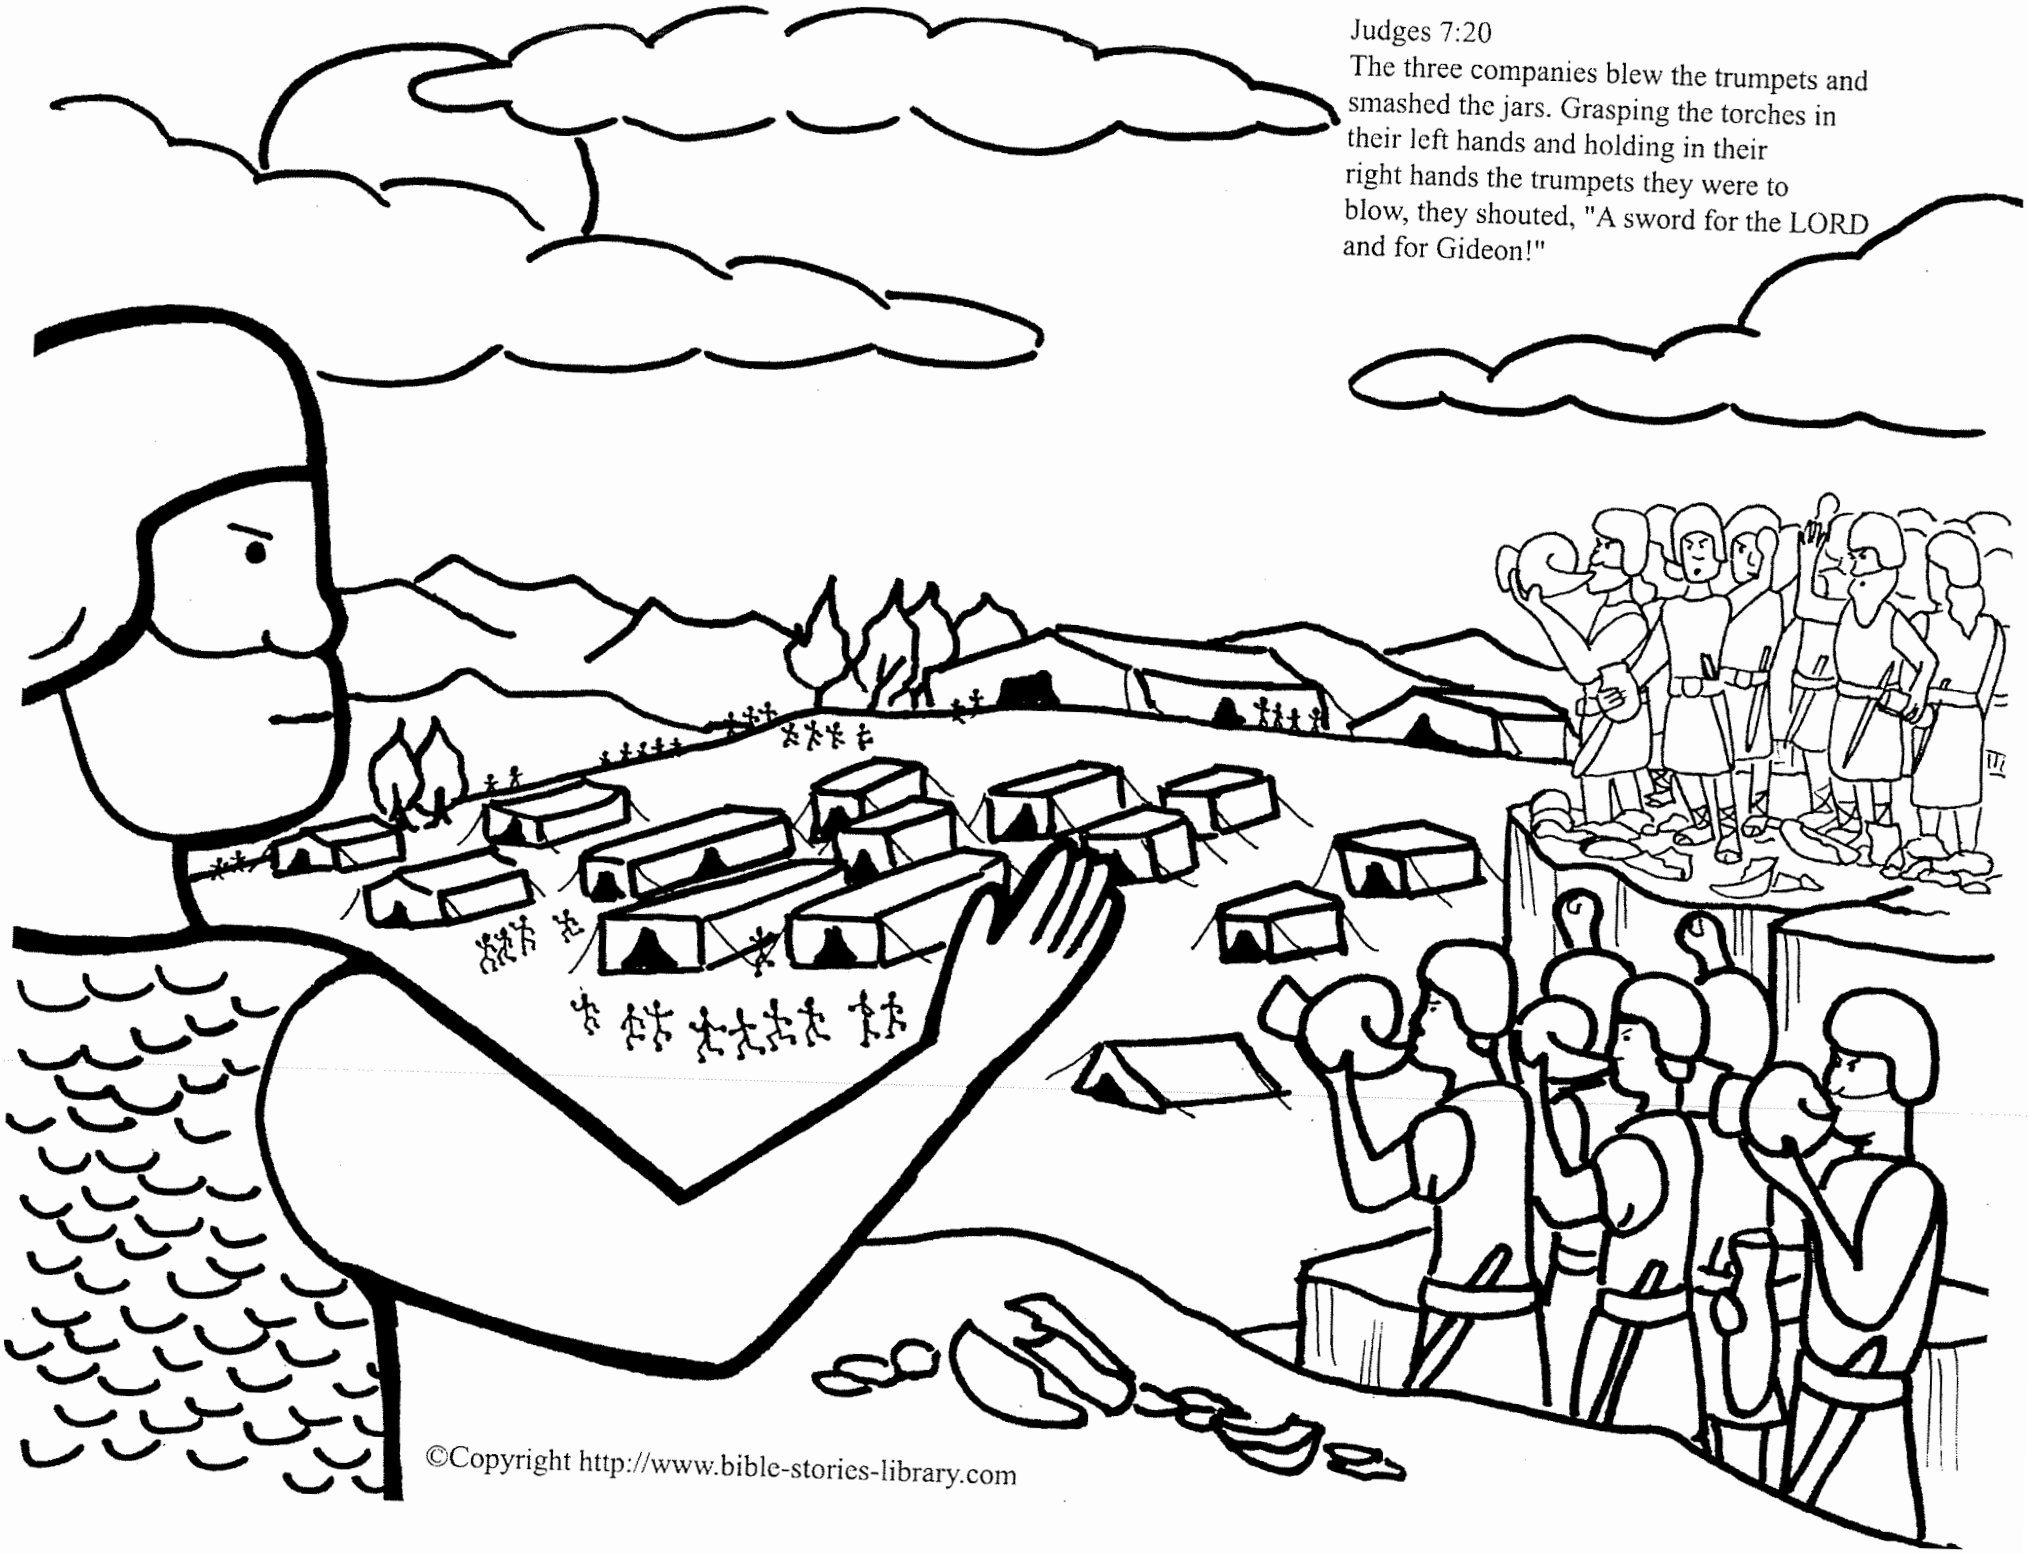

Circle the three things God told Gideon's army to bring.

1) An angel appeared to Gideon to tell him to save God's people from the Midianites.
2) Gideon took an army of just 300 men to fight with him.
3) Gideon's army blew their trumpets, broke their jars, held their torches, and won the battle.

GIDEON'S LITTLE ARMY

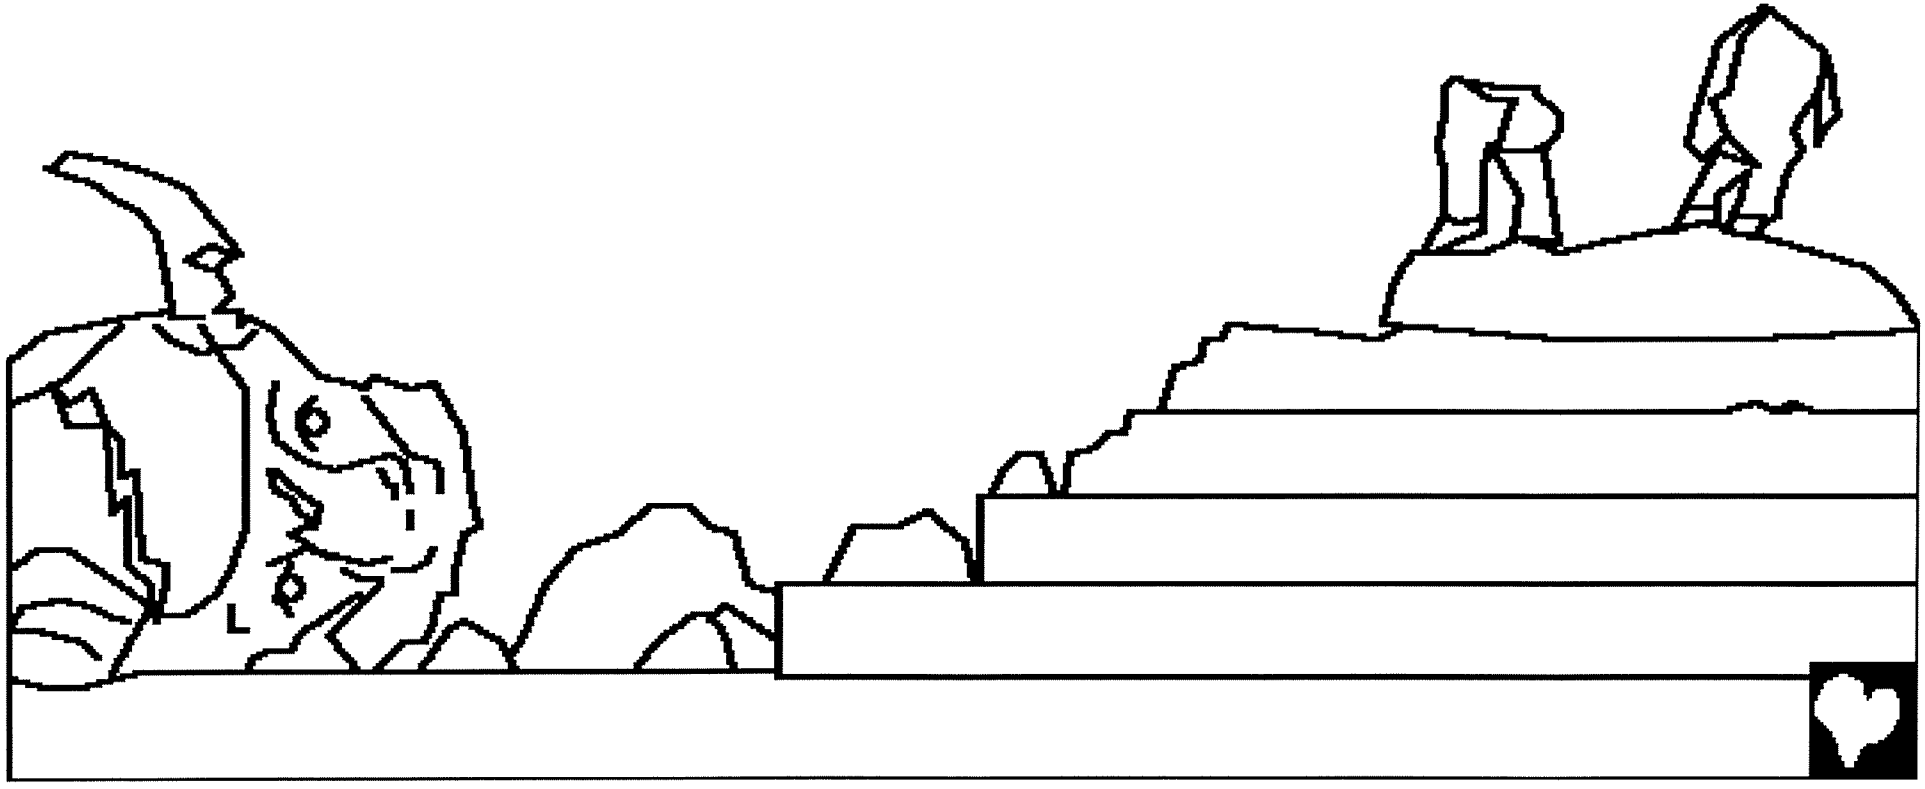

After Joshua died, all the people of Israel disobeyed God and left Him out of their lives.

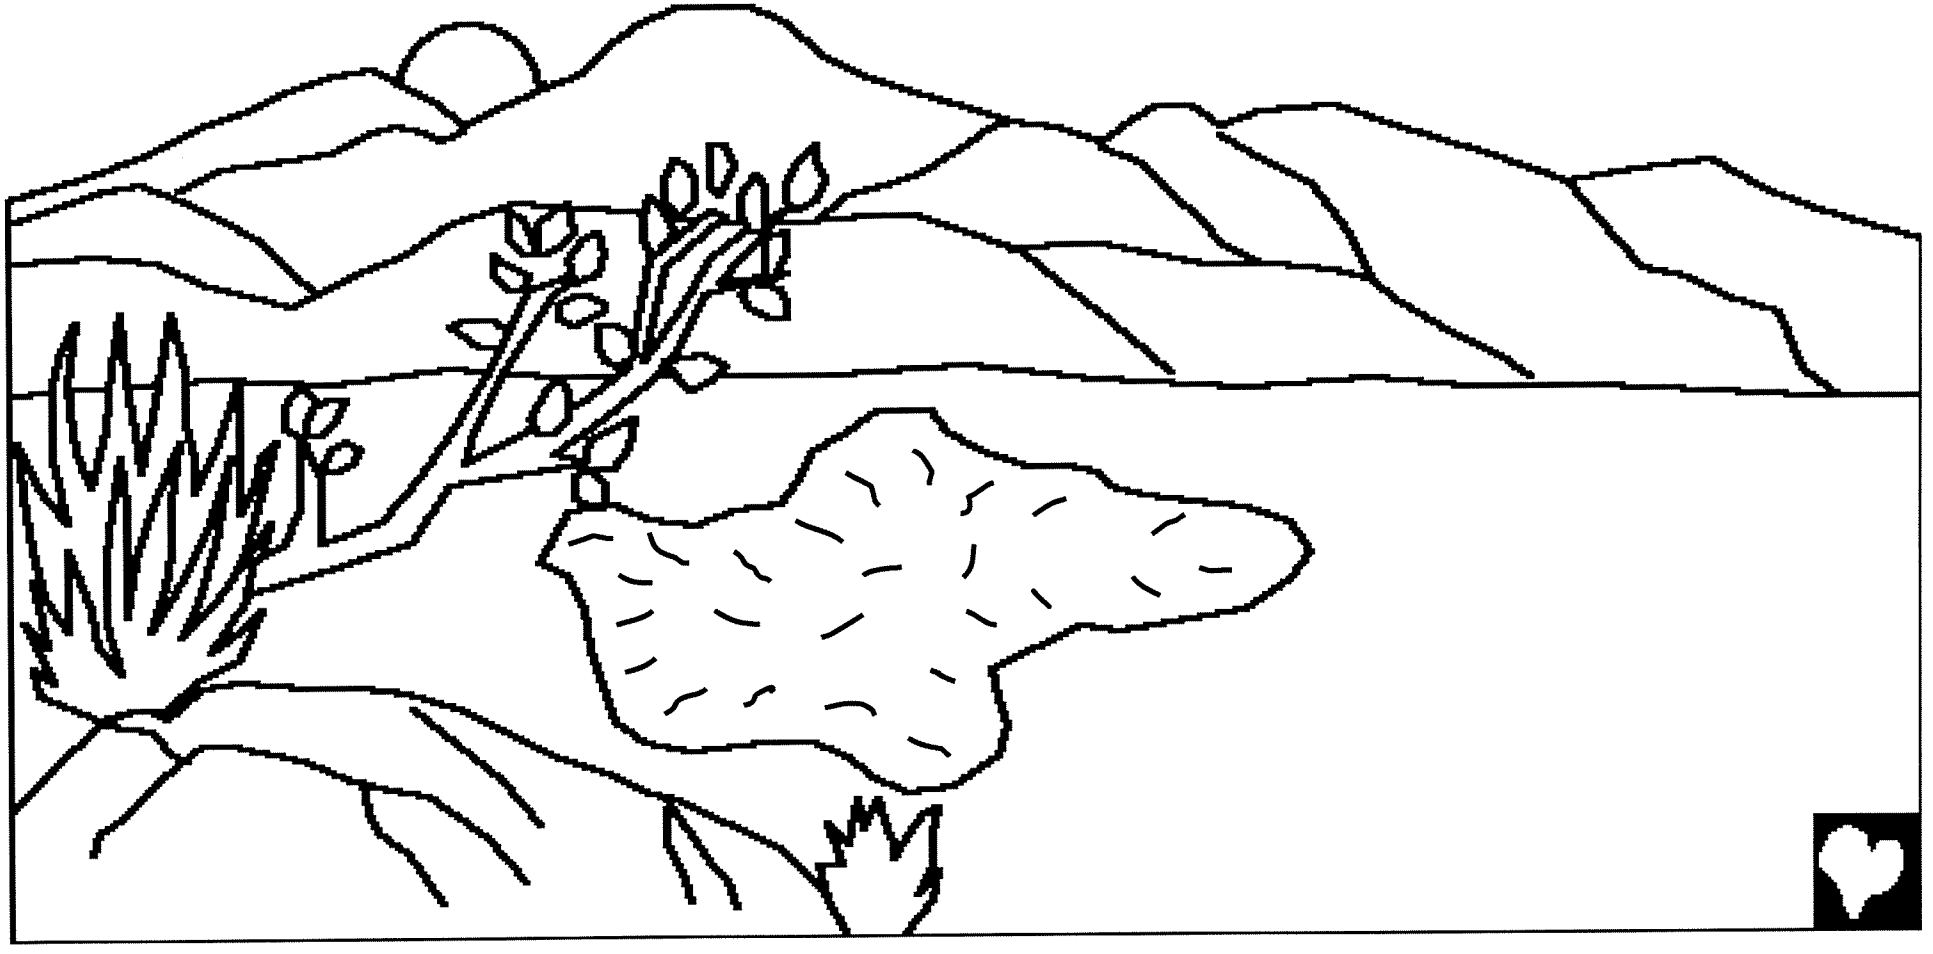

God let the neighboring Midianites burn Israel's crops and houses. The Israelites had to live in caves.

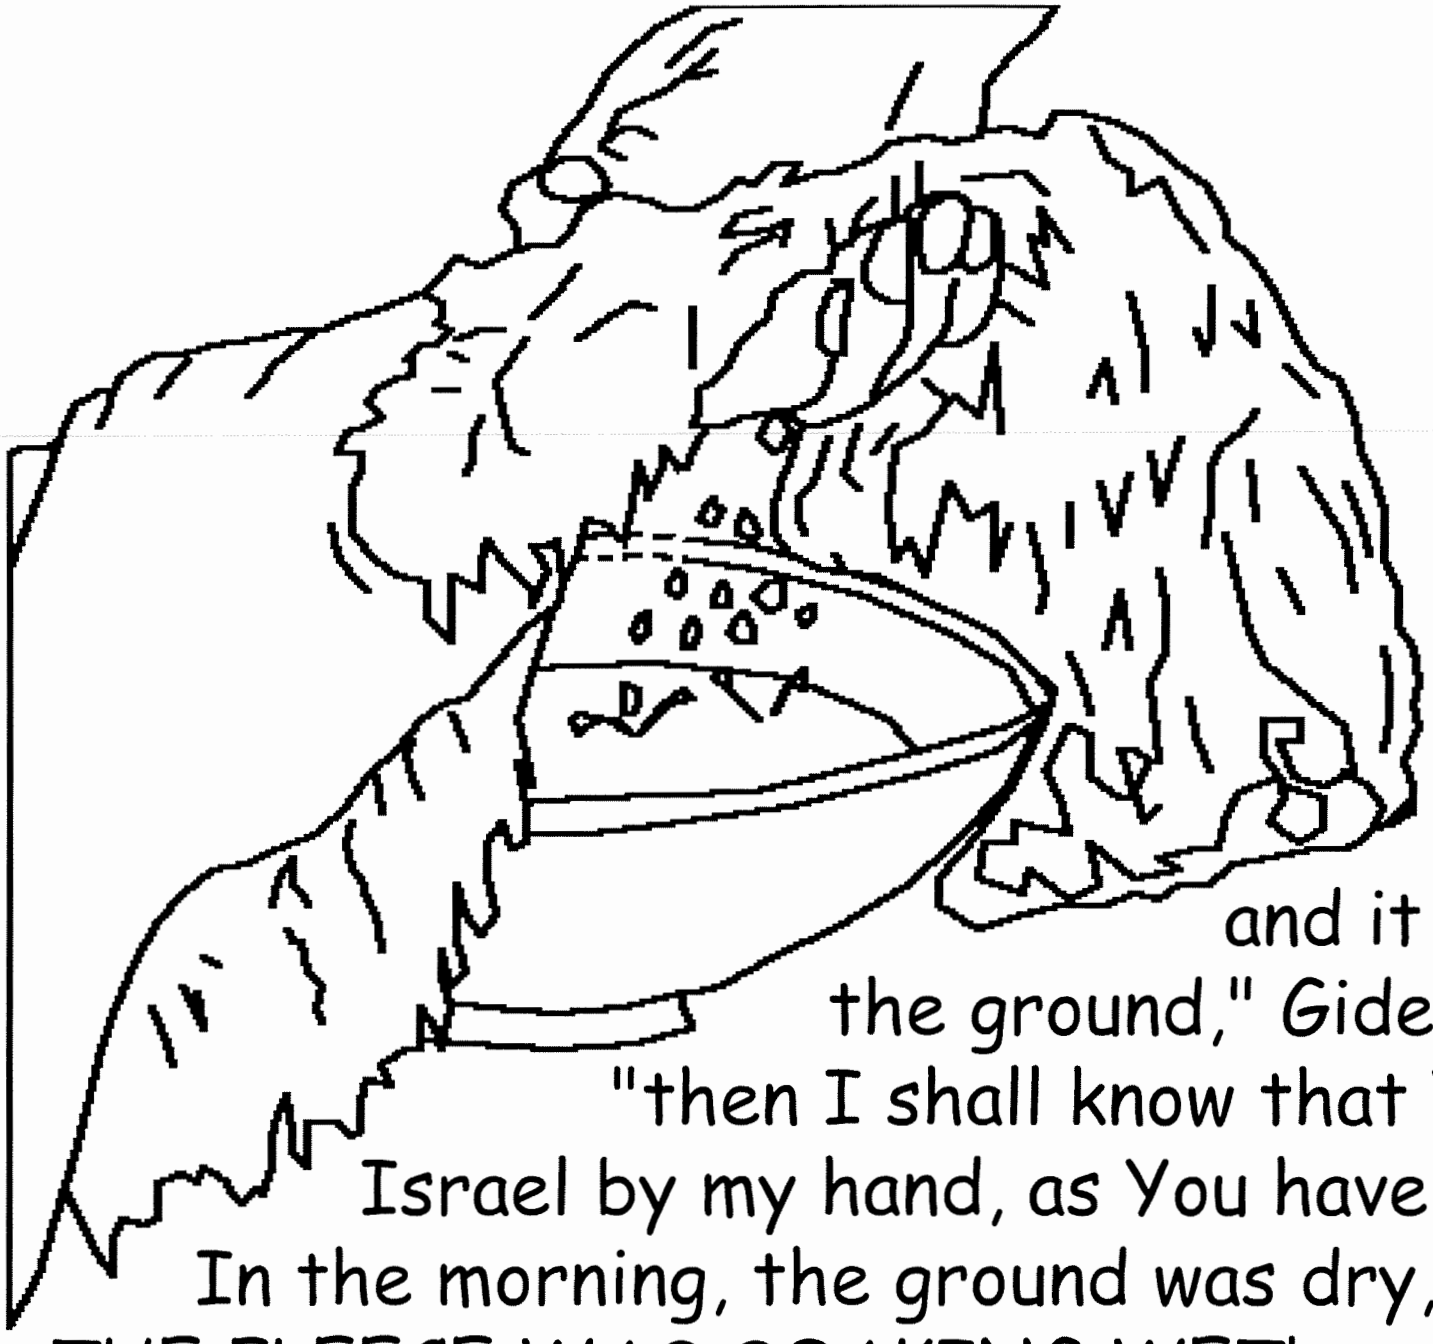

One Israelite, Gideon, must have had a secret place to grow wheat. He threshed the grain by a hidden winepress, under a large tree.
The Midianites didn't know the place - but God did! God sent an Angel with a message for Gideon.

God wanted Gideon to destroy his own father's image of a false god and build an altar to the true God. Though Gideon was afraid his countrymen would kill him, he did what God commanded.

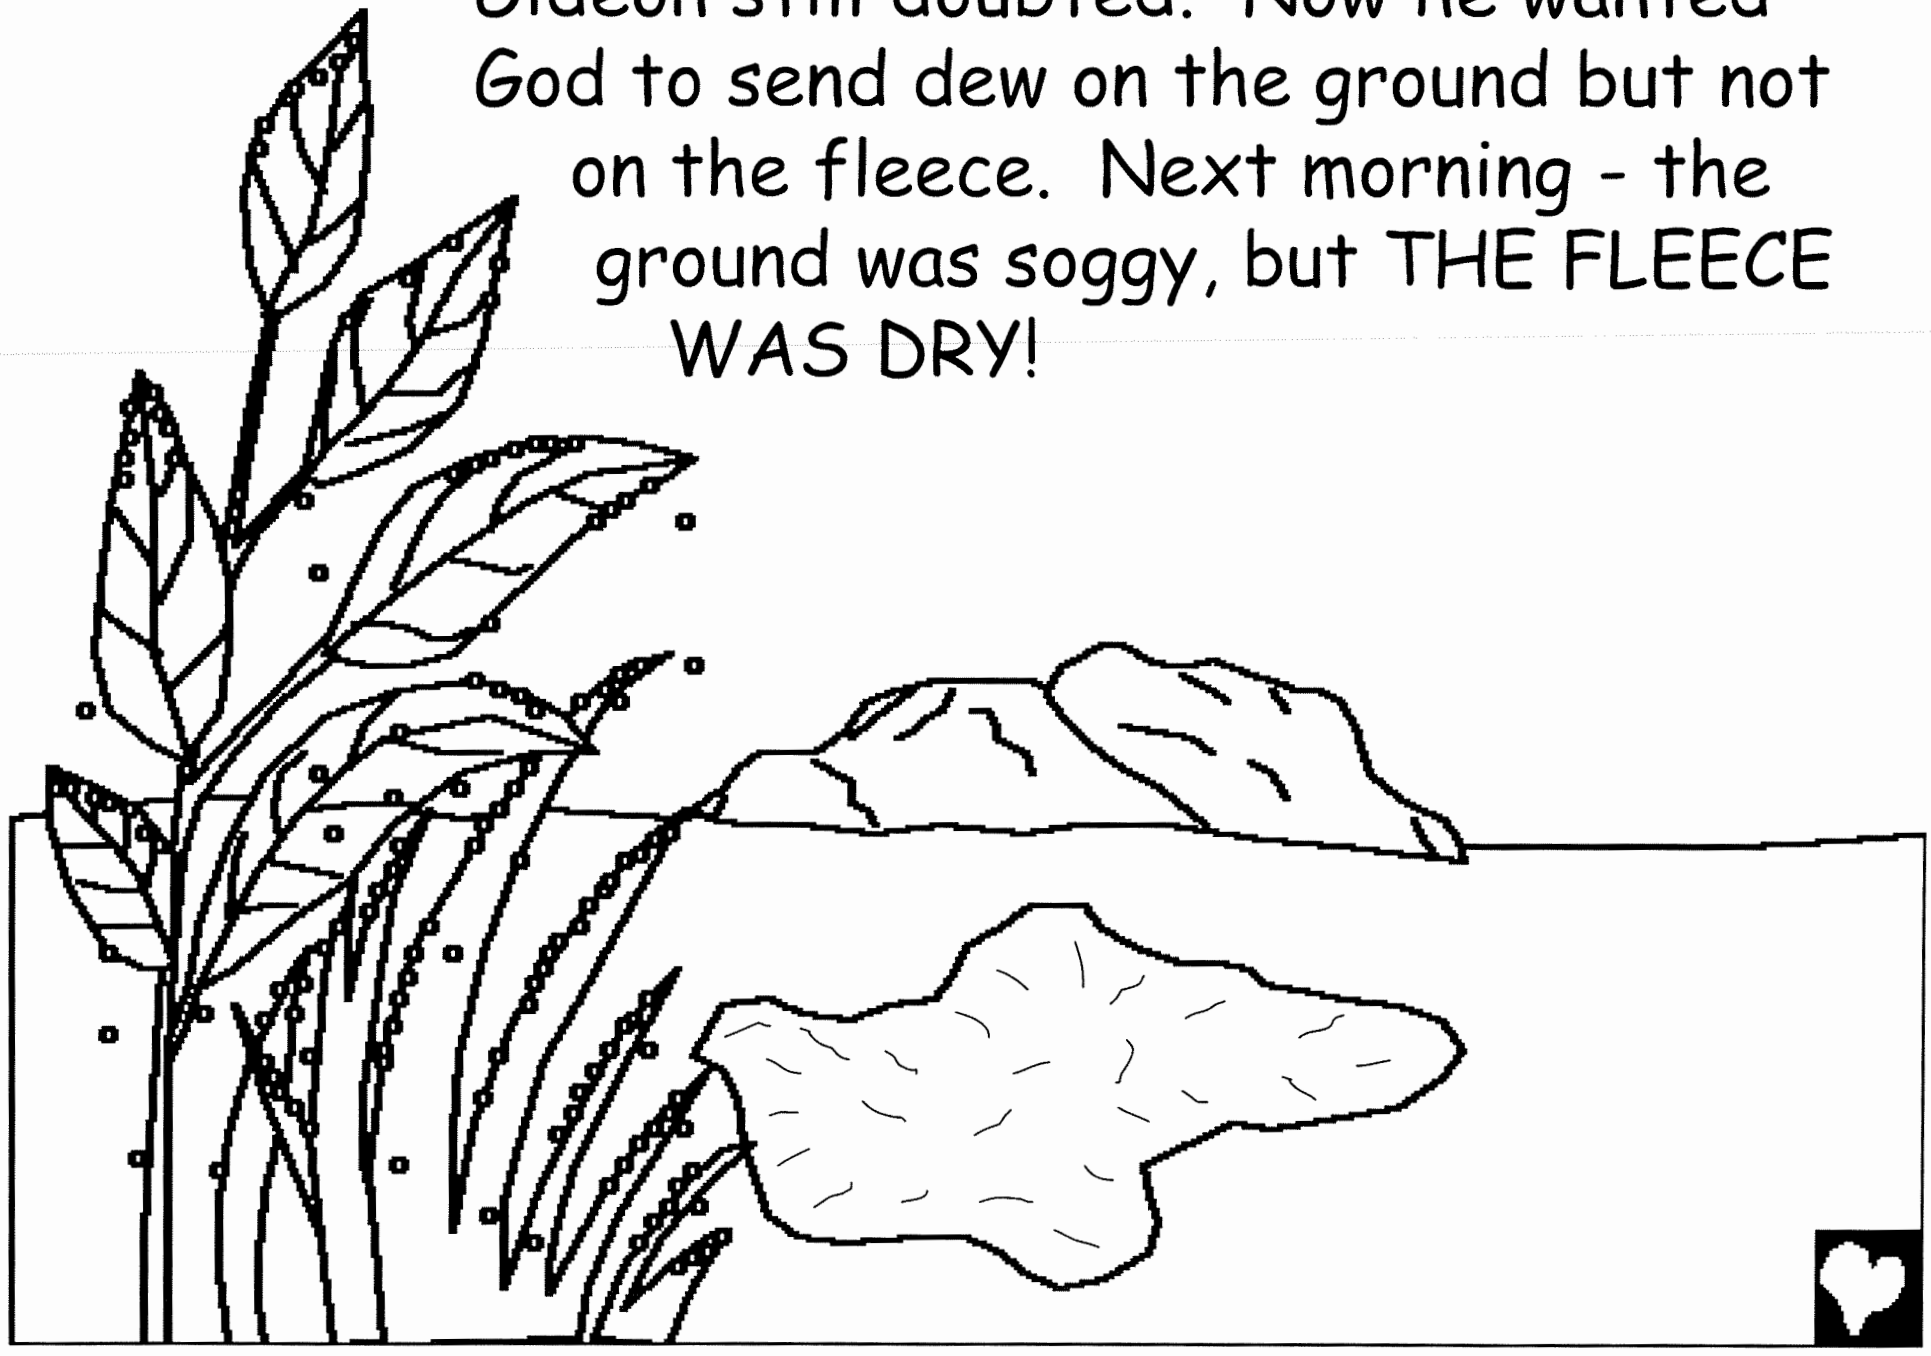

God also wanted Gideon to lead Israel's army against the wicked Midianites. But Gideon was afraid. He asked for a special sign that God was with him. Then he laid a fleecy sheepskin on the ground.

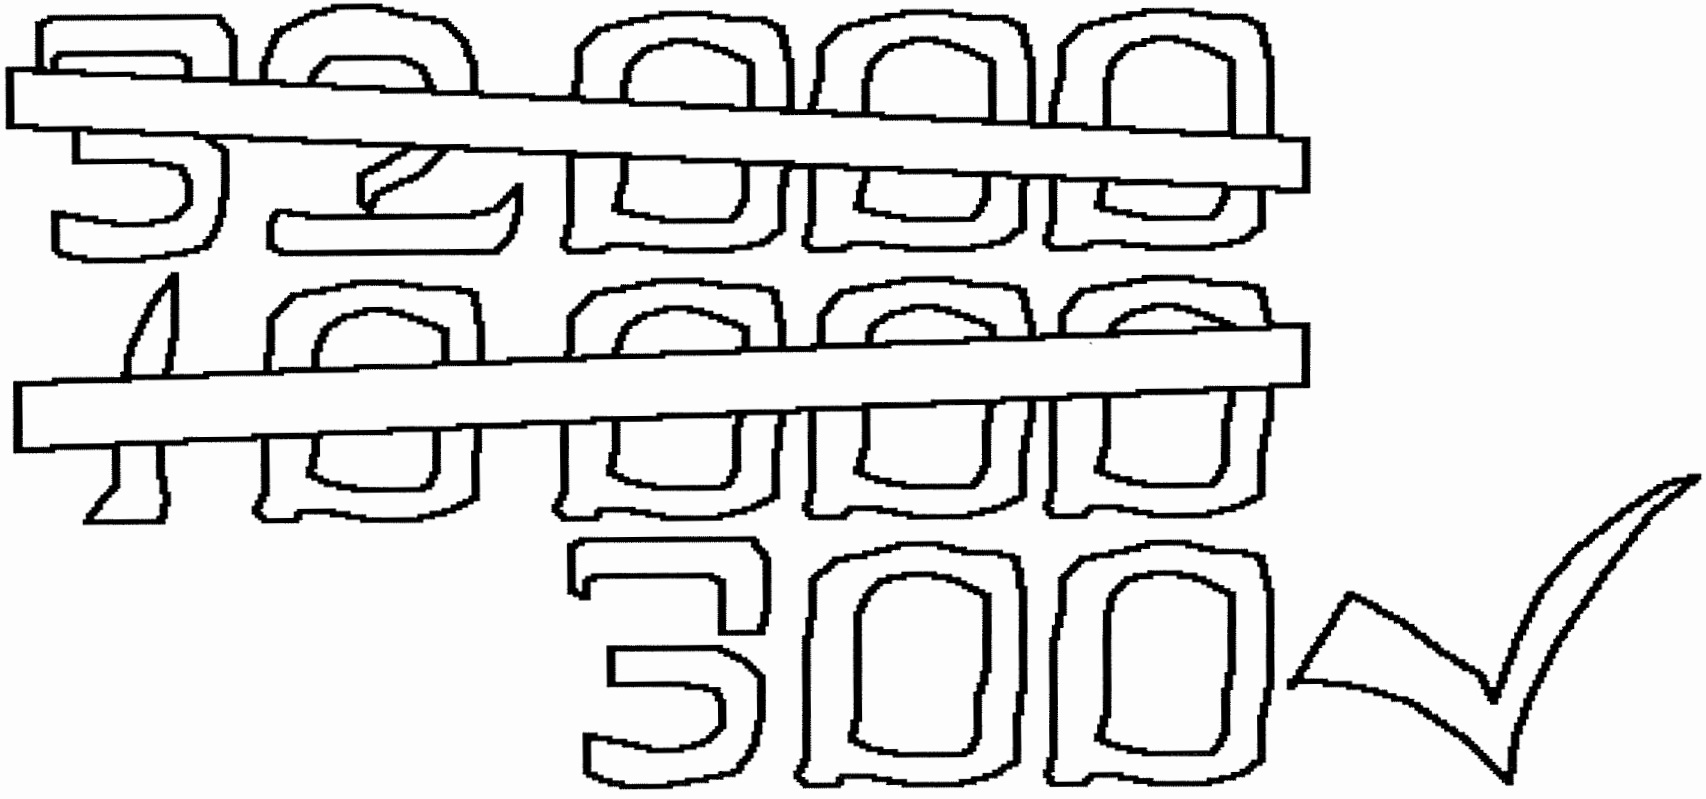

"If there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground," Gideon prayed, "then I shall know that You will save Israel by my hand, as You have said."

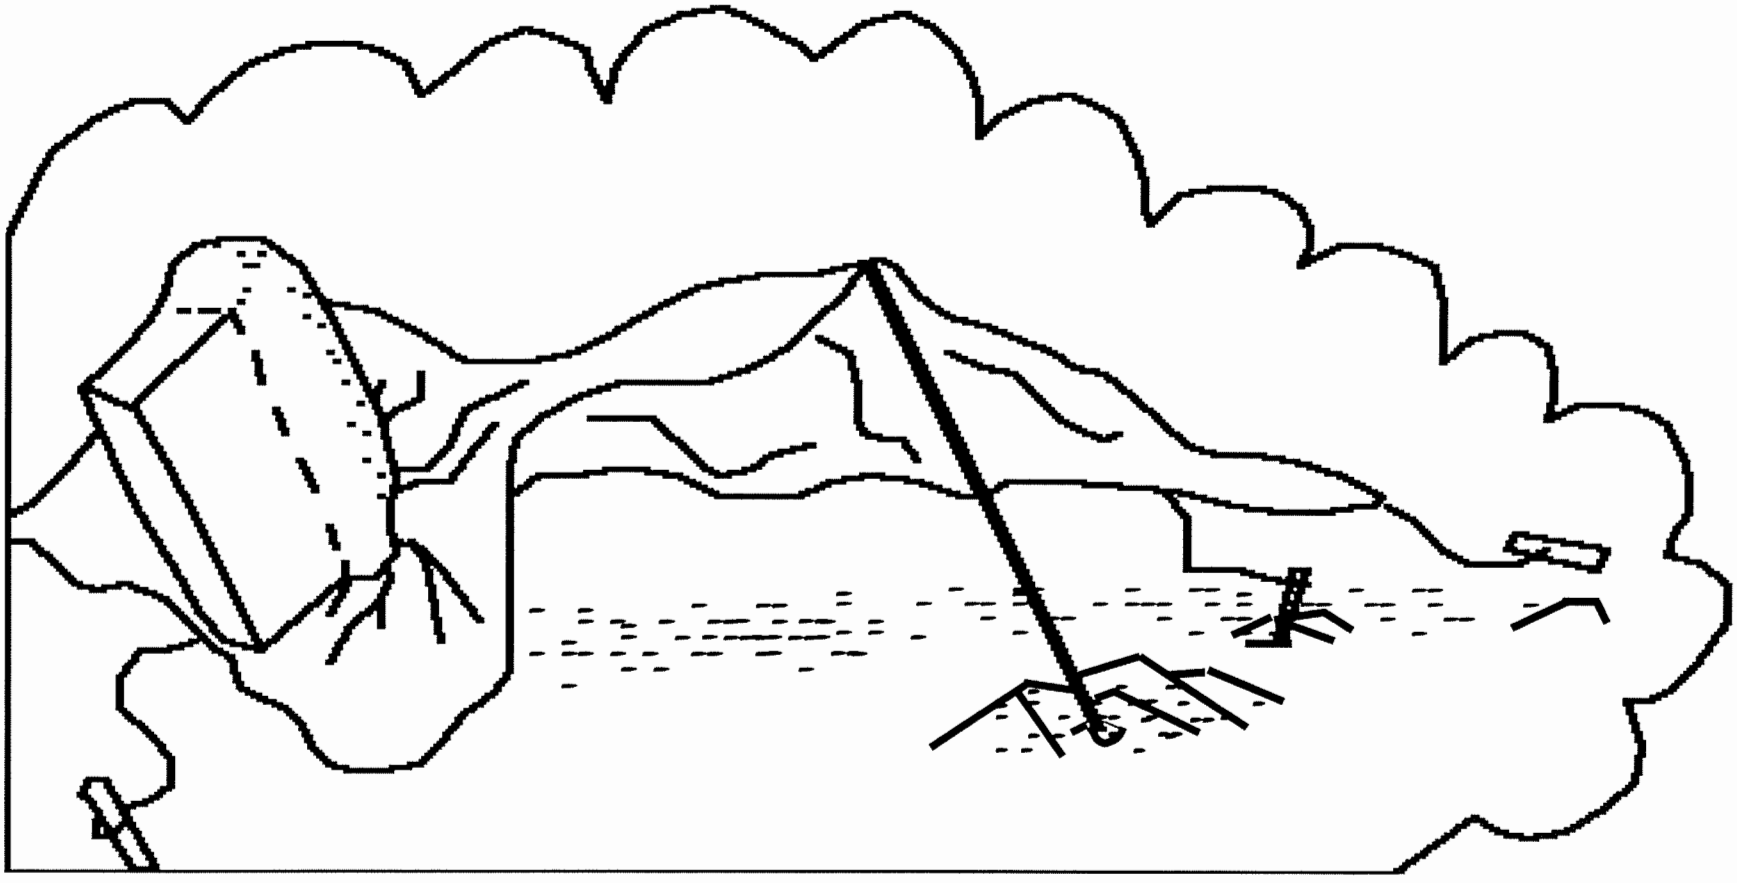

In the morning, the ground was dry, but THE FLEECE WAS SOAKING WET!

Gideon still doubted. Now he wanted God to send dew on the ground but not on the fleece. Next morning - the ground was soggy, but THE FLEECE WAS DRY!

Gideon started out with an army of 32,000. God cut it down to only 300 men. God did not want Israel to say "My own hand has saved me." God alone was Israel's Saviour.

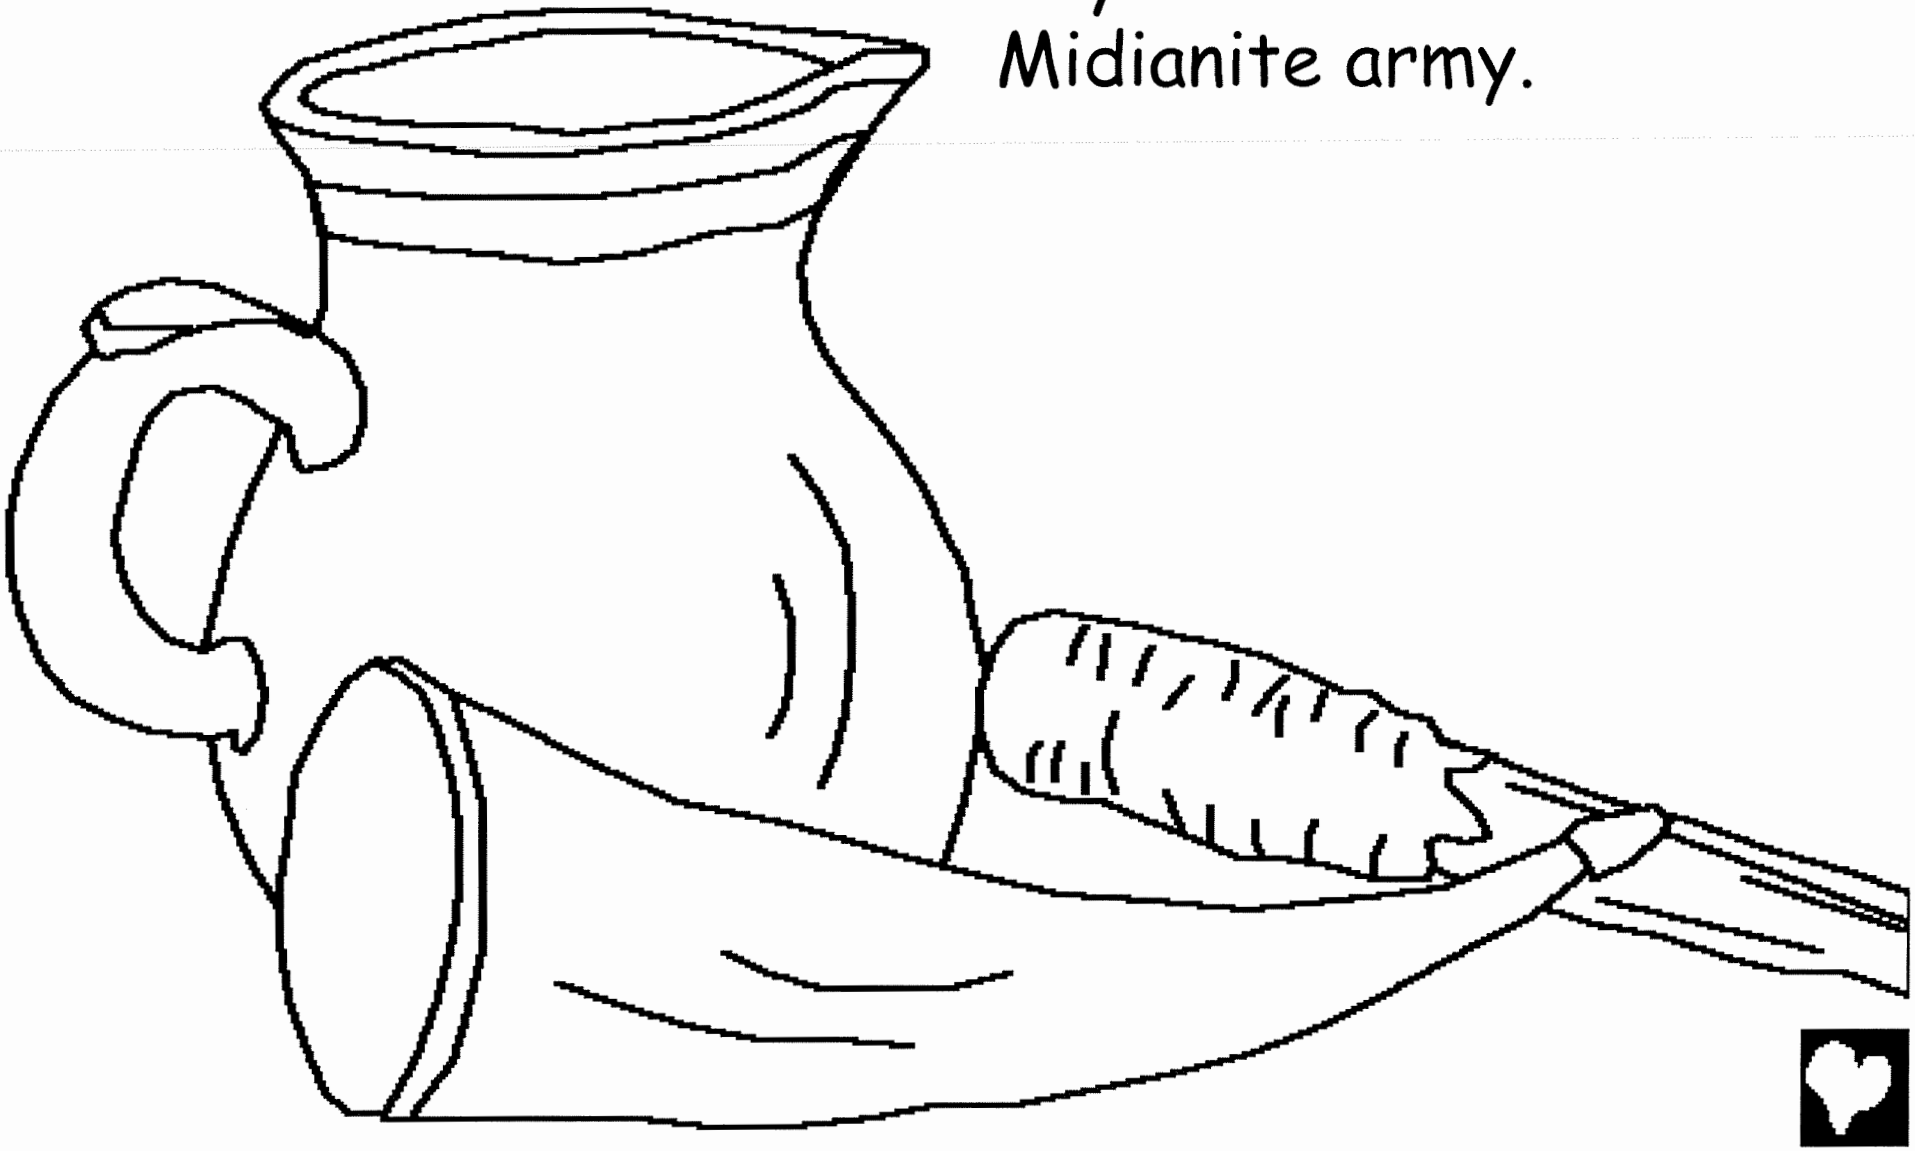

Knowing Gideon was still afraid, God let him secretly overhear one Midianite soldier tell another about a strange dream. In the dream, a loaf of bread tumbled against a Midianite tent and destroyed it.

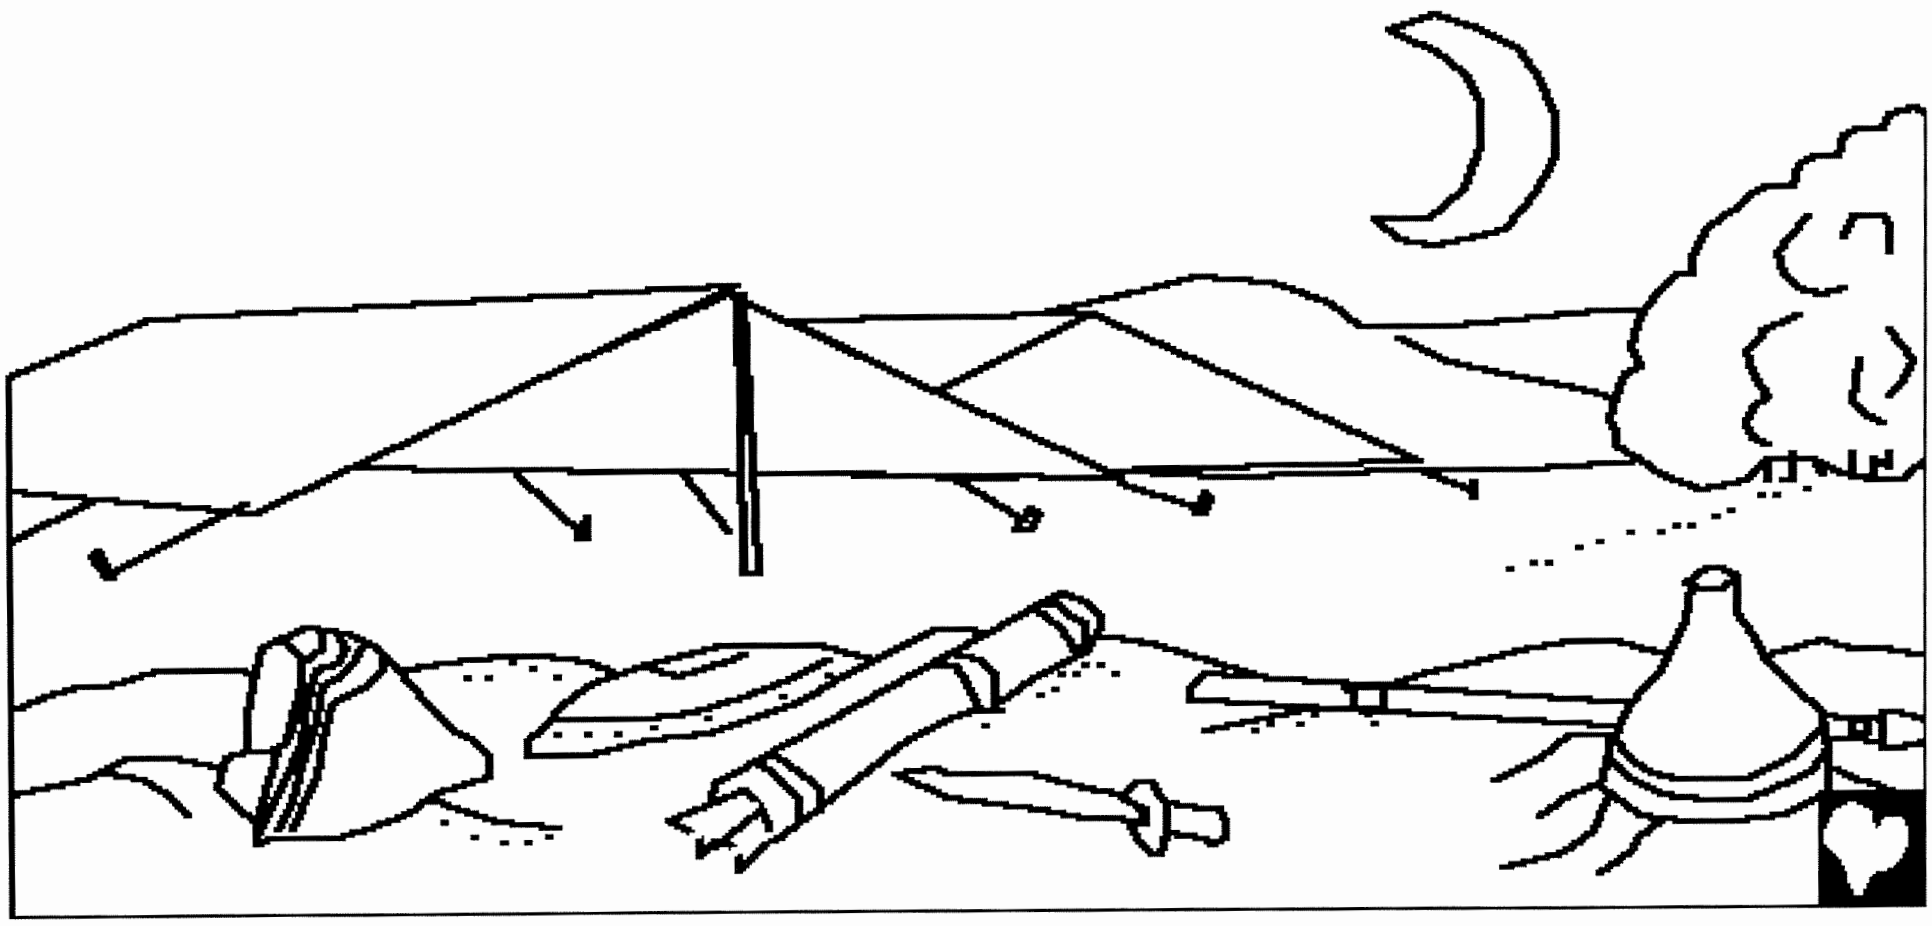

The other guard was terrified. "This is ... the sword of Gideon ..." he cried. When Gideon heard the dream and its meaning, he knew God was going to give him the victory.

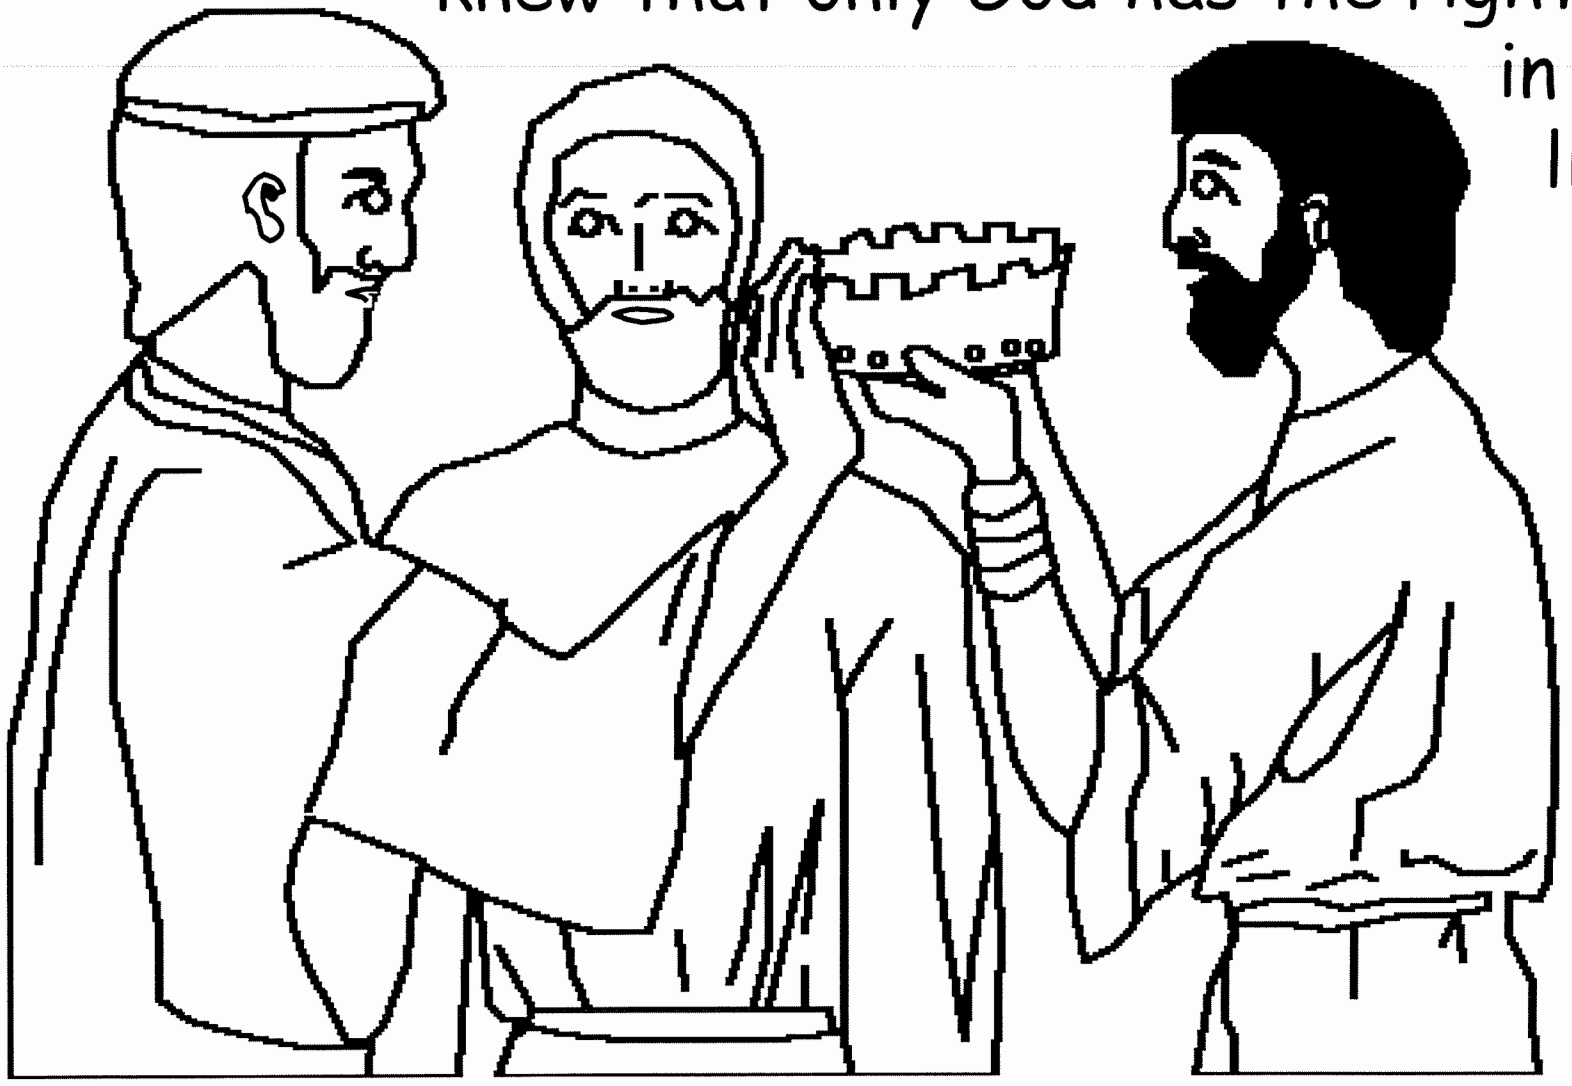

Gideon planned a night attack. He gave each soldier a trumpet, and empty pitchers with torches inside. They surrounded the Midianite army.

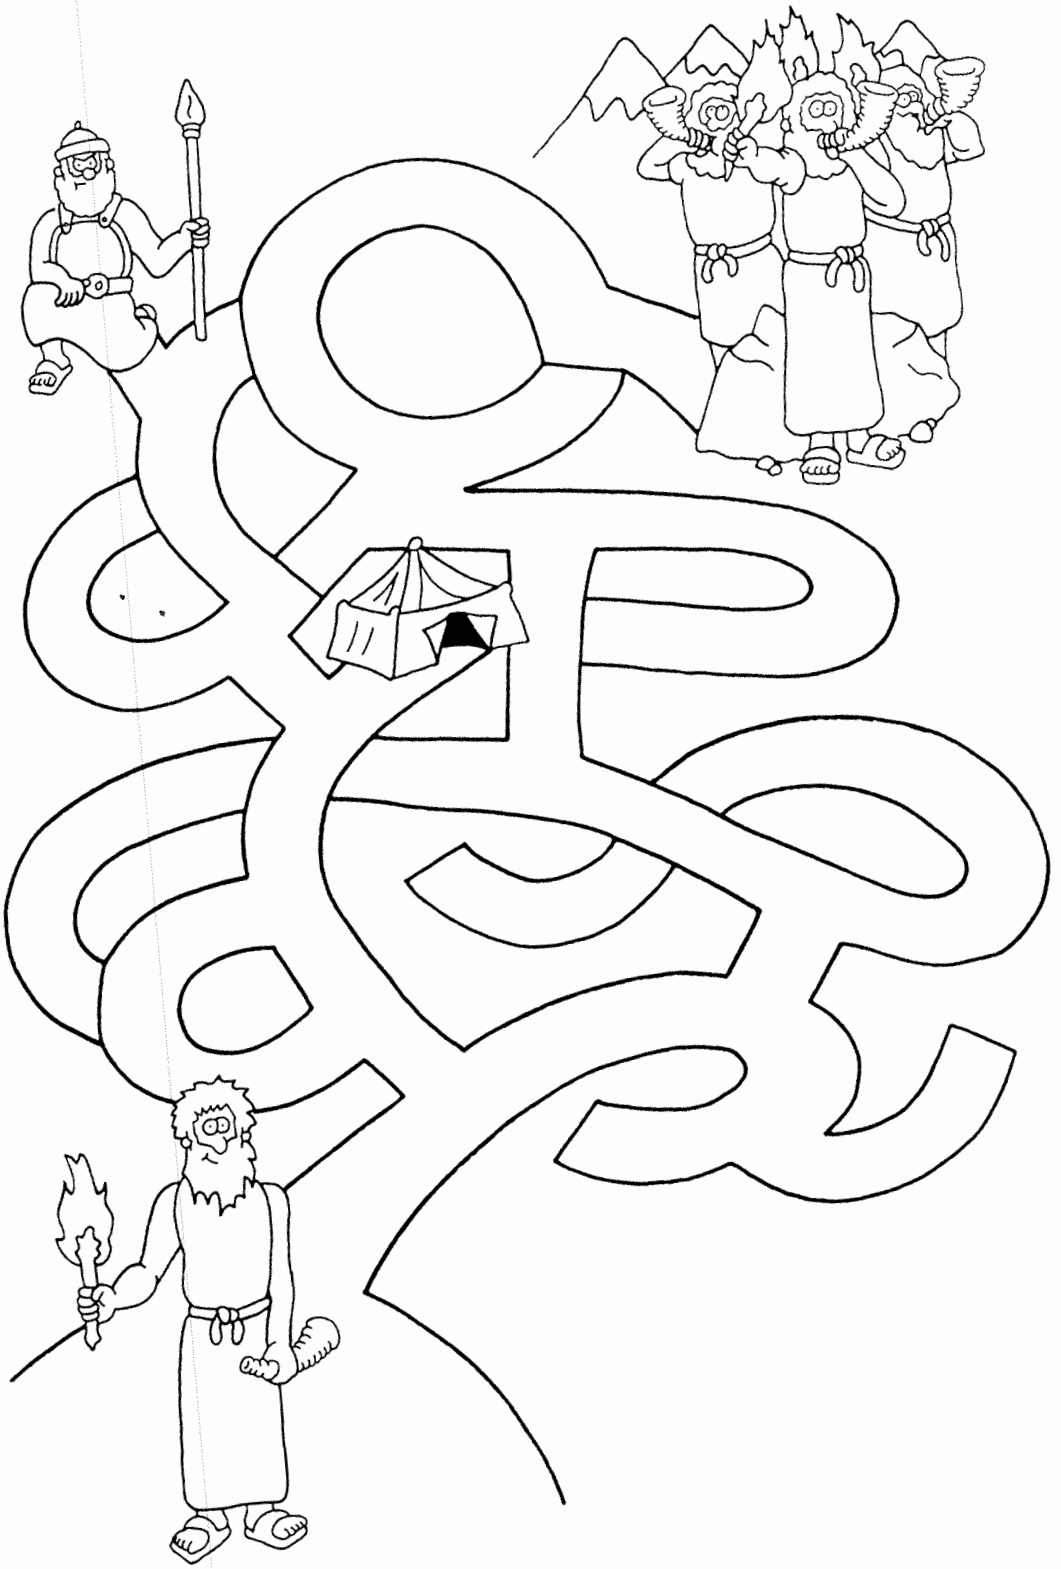

At Gideon's signal, the soldiers blew their trumpets, smashed their pitchers and lit their torches. What noise! What confusion! The scared Midianites got up and ran away.

After this great victory, the men of Israel asked Gideon to rule over them. "I will not rule over you .. the Lord shall rule over you," Gideon replied. He knew that only God has the right to rule in people's lives.

Jepthah's Daughter

Scriptures: Judges 10, 11

Key Verse: Judges 11:36 "My father, if you have given your word to the LORD, do to me according to what has gone out of your mouth"

Key Points:

1. Jepthah was forced out of his home by his brothers because he had a different mother.

2. Later, when the people of Ammon made war against Israel, the leaders asked Jepthah to lead them in battle. He agreed, but with the understanding that he would become their judge if the Lord gave him victory over Ammon.

3. Jepthah tried to reason with the king of Ammon that God had given the lands of the Moabites and the Amorites to Israel hundreds of years ago, and that Ammon had no claim to them. The king refused to listen.

4. Before going into battle, Jepthah promised God that if Israel won he would dedicate to God whoever met him on his return.

5. When Jepthah came home, his only child met him to celebrate the victory. Sadly, he told her his promise.

6. She asked for two months to mourn that she would never marry or have children. Then she was dedicated to serve God the rest of her life.

A noble, but unnecessary Vow!

"If you give the Ammonites into my hands, whatever comes out of the door of my house when I return in triumph from the Ammonites will be the Lord's, and I will sacrifice it as a burnt offering."

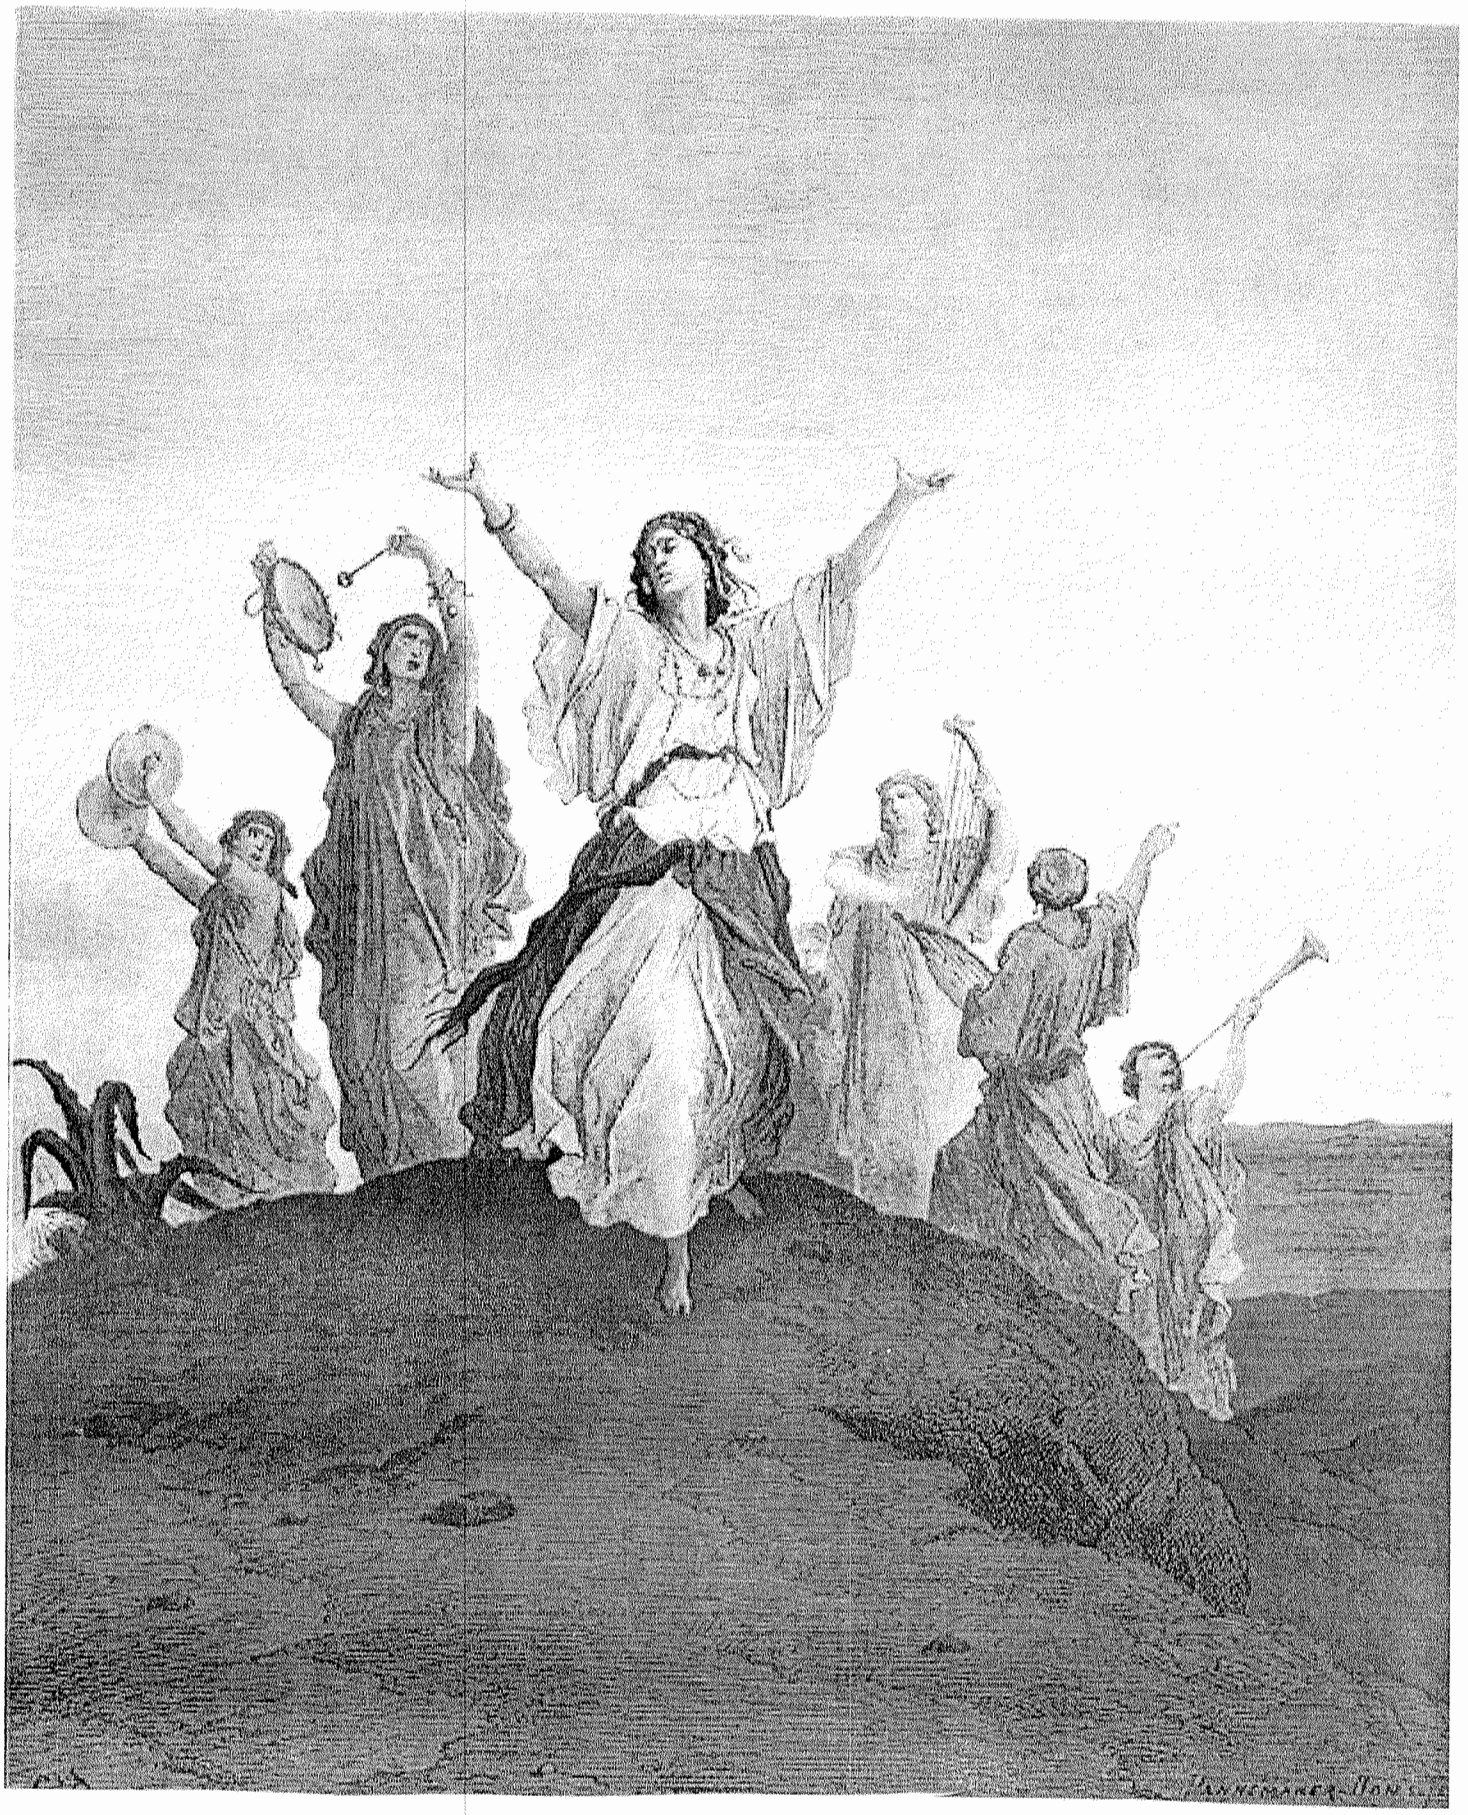

(Judges 11:30-31)

The battle was God's.
It was already won!

My father," she replied, "you have given your word to the Lord. Do to me just as you promised, now that the Lord has avenged you of your enemies, the Ammonites. But grant me this one request," she said. "Give me two months to roam the hills and weep with my friends, because I will never marry."
Judges 11:36-37

Have the children draw their own picture of Jeptha's daughter in mourning. As they draw you can discuss with them the importance of not making rash decisions and vows.

Samson's Super Strength

Scriptures: Judges 13, 14

Key Verse: Judges 14:6 And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he tore the lion apart… though he had nothing in his hand.

Key Points:

1. Again, the Israelites served idols and were oppressed by the Philistines for forty years.

2. God sent an angel to the wife of Manoah, who was barren, and promised her a son. She was told not to drink wine or eat anything unclean because her son would be a Nazirite all his life.

3. Manoah asked God for confirmation, and the angel returned to his wife. Manoah prepared a sacrifice and when the man ascended in the fire, Manoah realized he was an angel of the Lord.

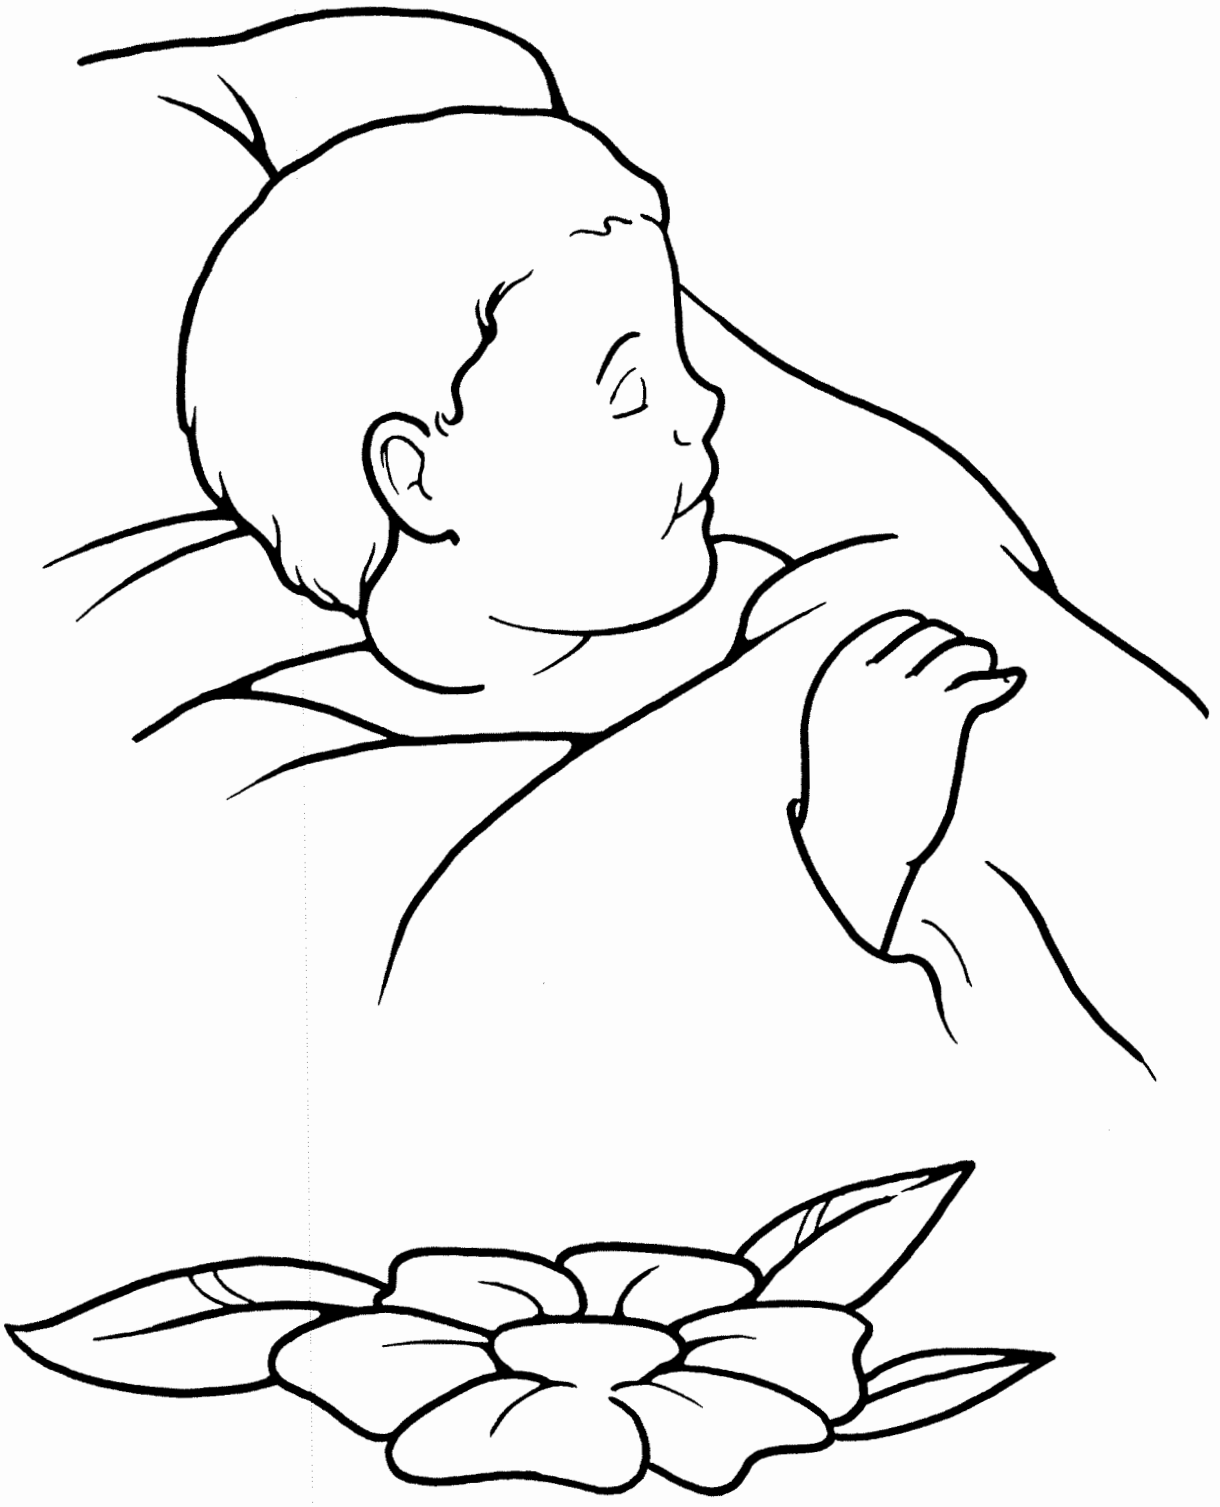

4. Samson was born and grew strong. He selected a wife from the Philistines, although his parents wanted him to marry an Israelite.

5. On his way to make wedding arrangements, Samson killed a lion with his bare hands. On a second trip, Samson found honey inside the lion's carcass. He made a riddle about this event.

SAMSON, GOD'S STRONG MAN

Long ago, in the land of Israel, lived a man named Manoah. He and his wife had no children. One day the Angel of the LORD appeared to Mrs. Manoah. "You will have a very special baby," He said.

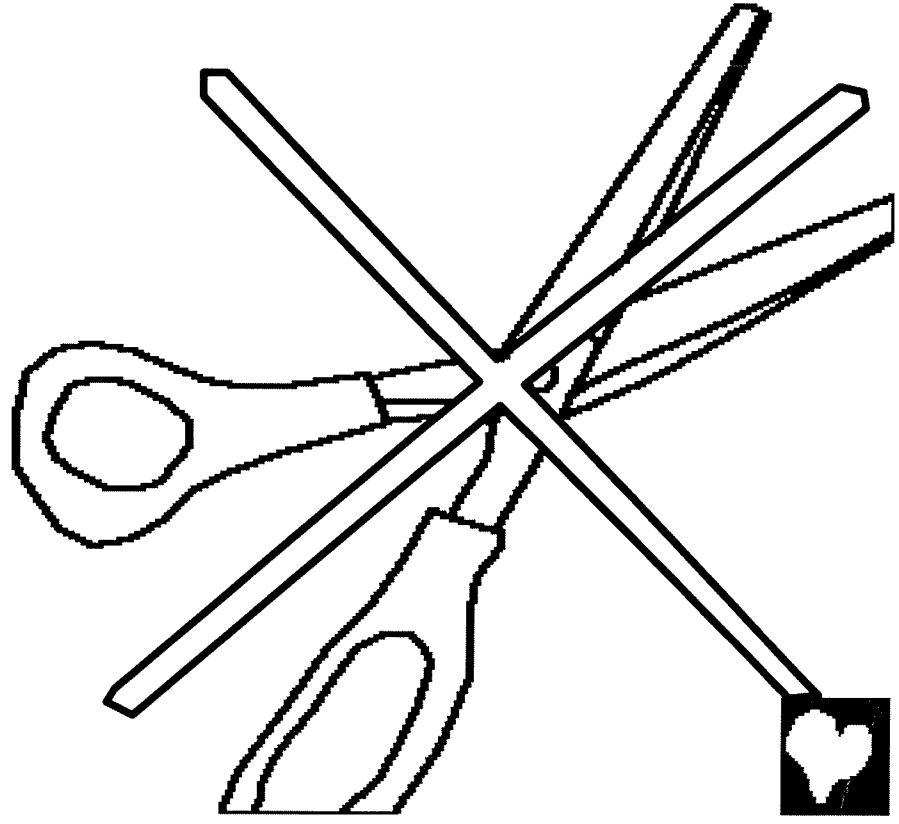

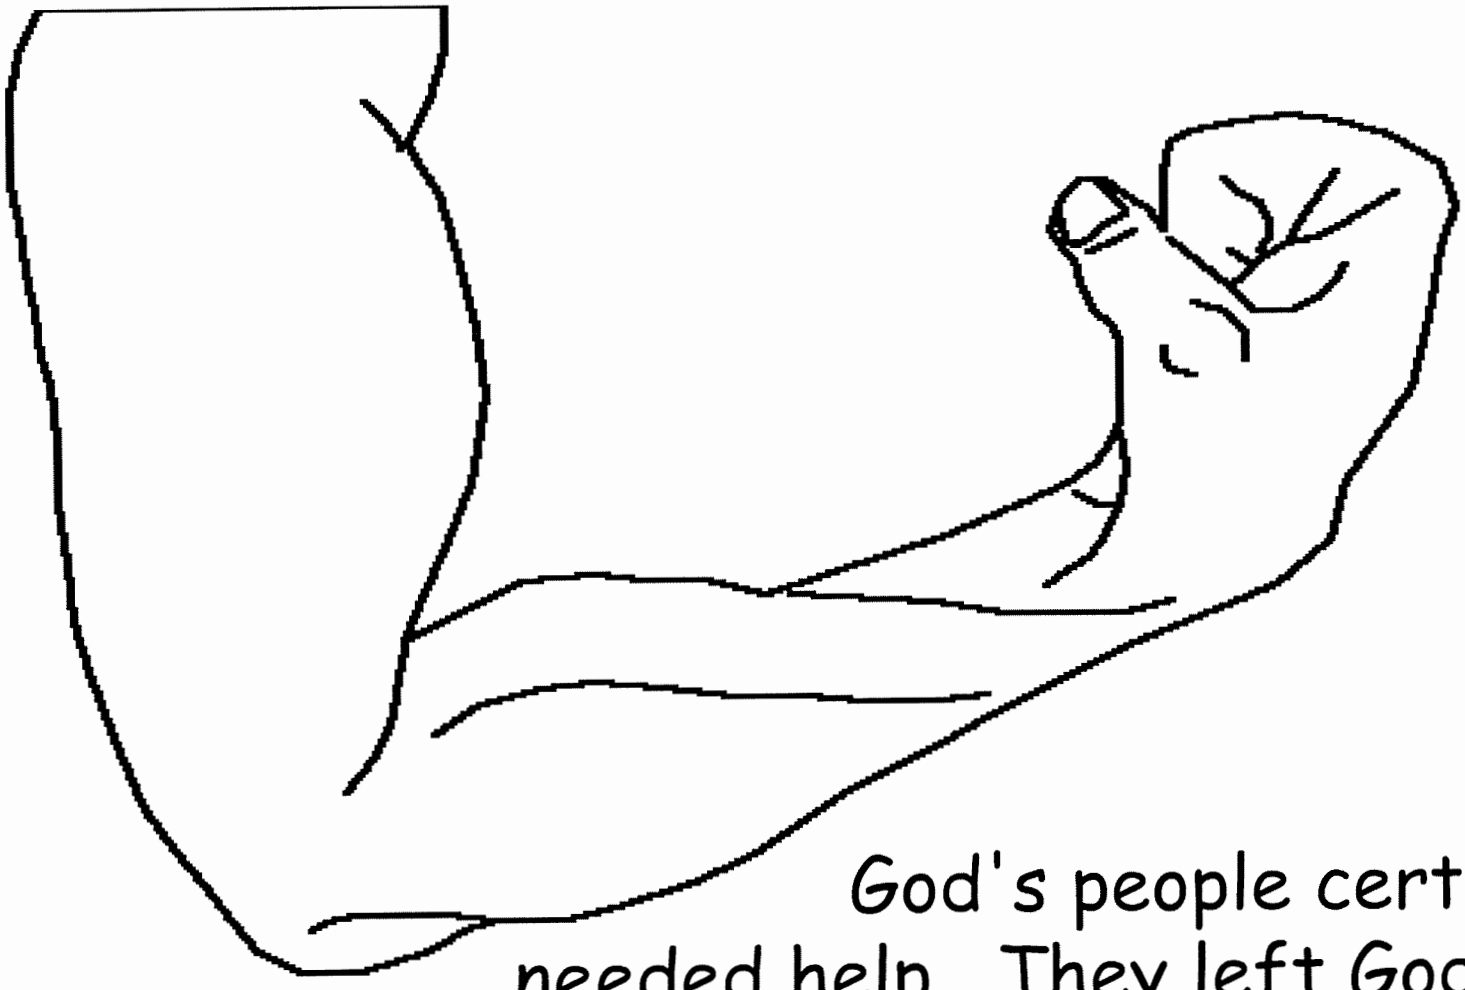

She told her husband the wonderful news. Manoah prayed, "Oh my Lord . . . come to us again. Teach us what we shall do for the child."

The Angel told Manoah the child must never have his hair cut, must never drink alcohol, and must never eat certain foods. God had chosen this child to be a judge. He would lead Israel.

God's people certainly needed help. They left God out of their lives, and then were bullied by their enemies, the Philistines. But when they prayed, God heard. He sent this baby who would become the world's strongest man.

"So the woman bore a son and called his name Samson: and the child grew, and the LORD blessed him. And the spirit of the LORD began to move upon him." Samson became very strong. One day he fought a young lion with his bare hands - and killed it!

Later, Samson tasted honey from a swarm of bees which had nested in the lion's dead body. He made up a riddle:
"Out of the eater Came something to eat
And out of the strong Came something sweet."

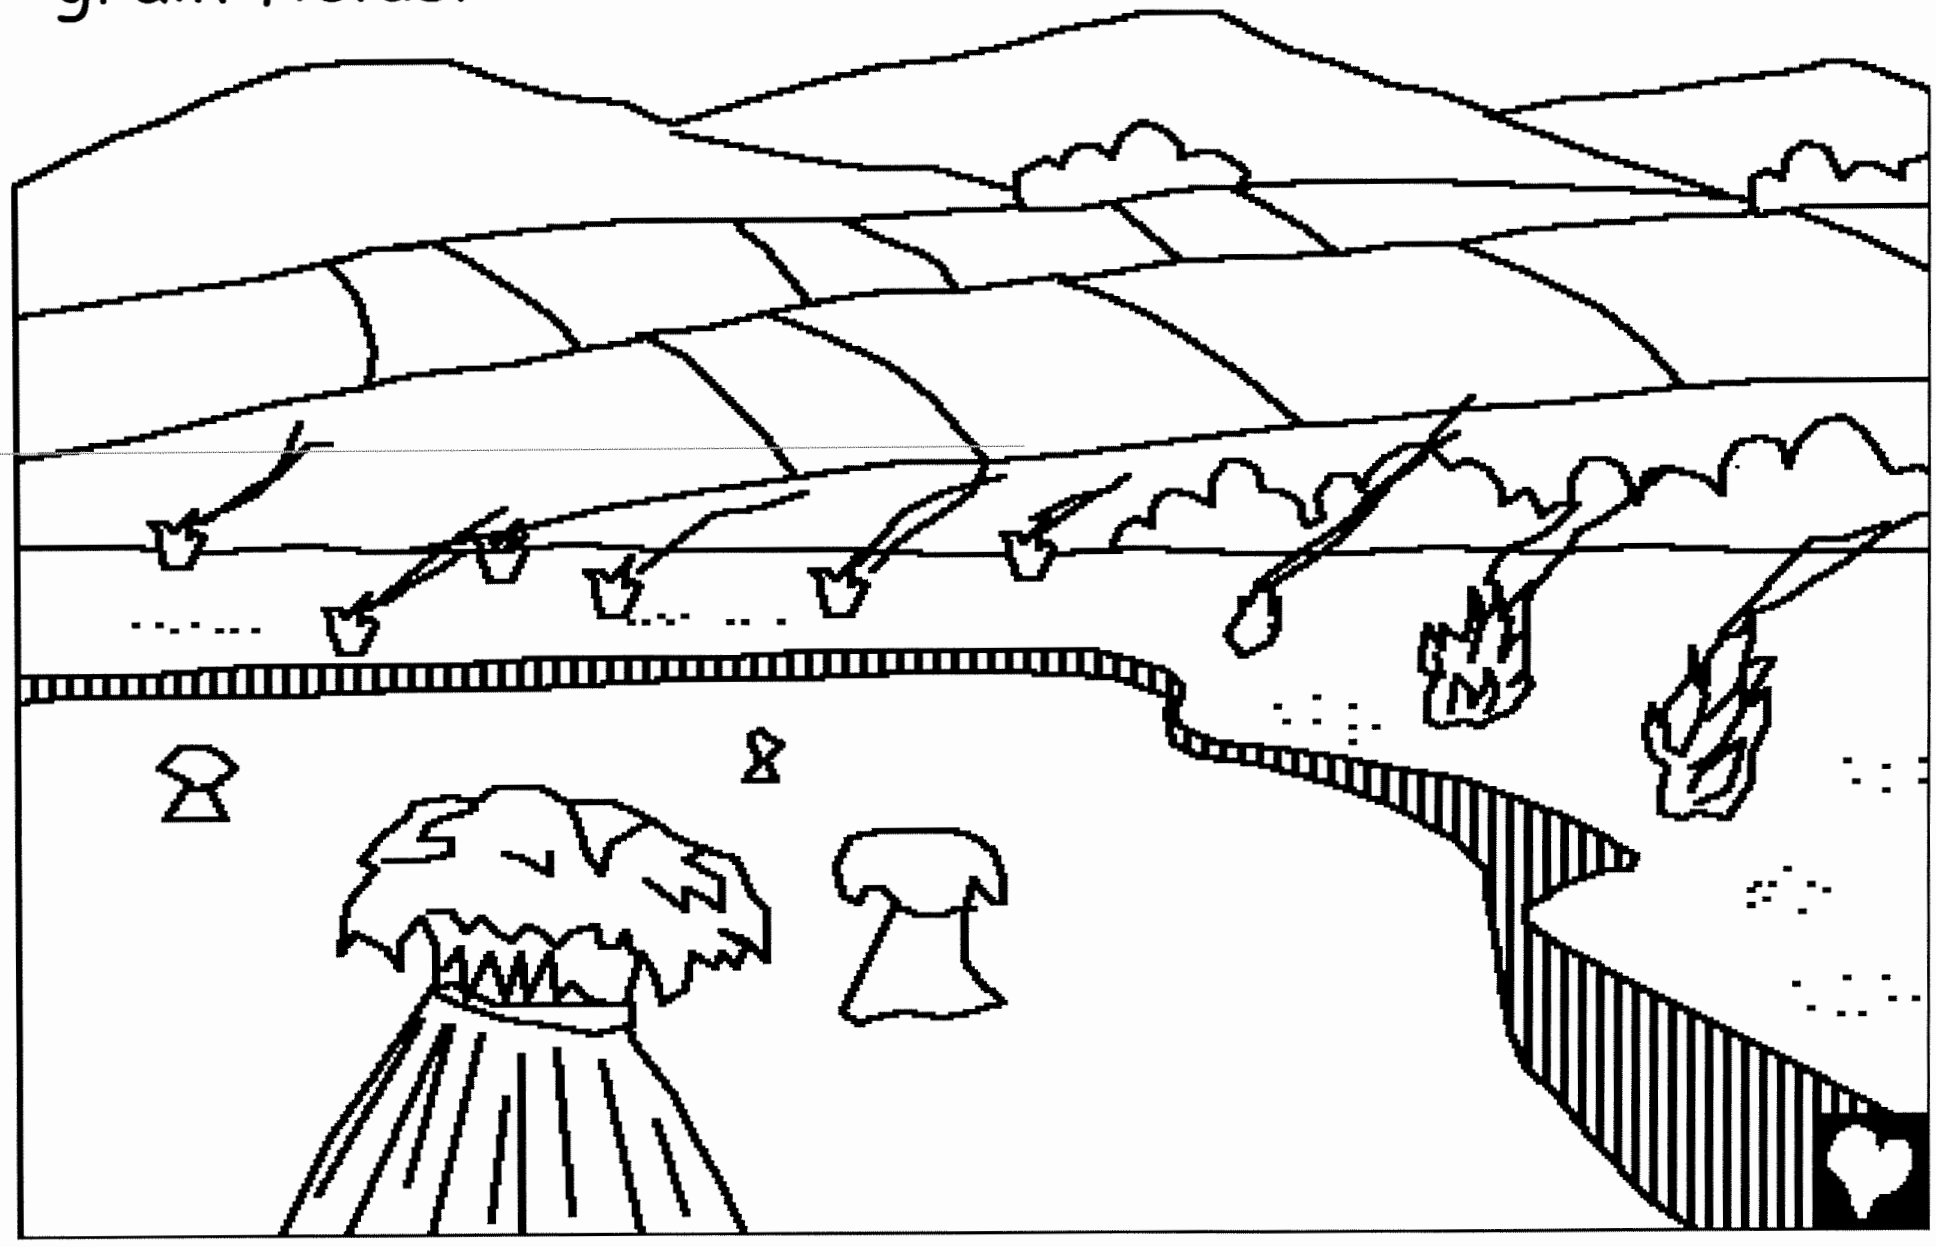

Nobody could guess the meaning - but Samson's new wife, a Philistine, told her friends. This made Samson very angry.

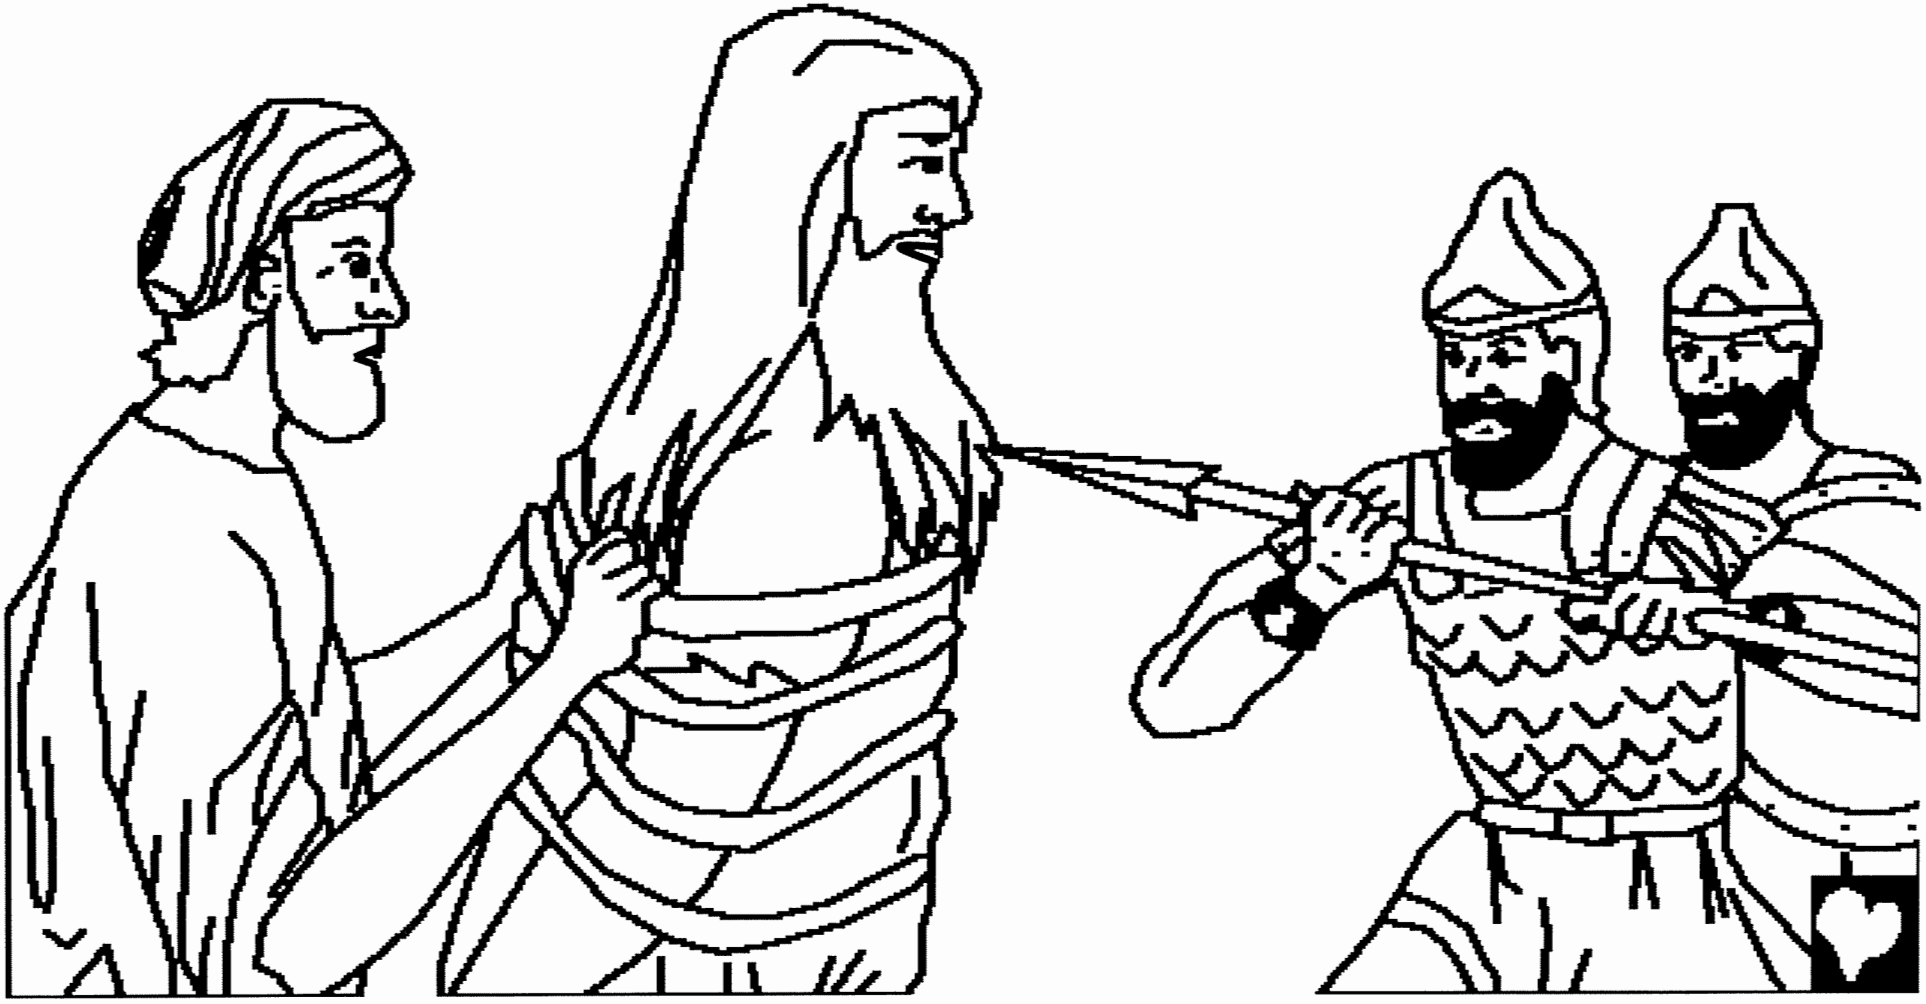

Samson was even more angry when the Philistines gave his wife to be wife of his best friend. He planned revenge. But how? First, Samson caught 300 foxes. Then he tied their tails together, two by two, and placed flaming torches between them.

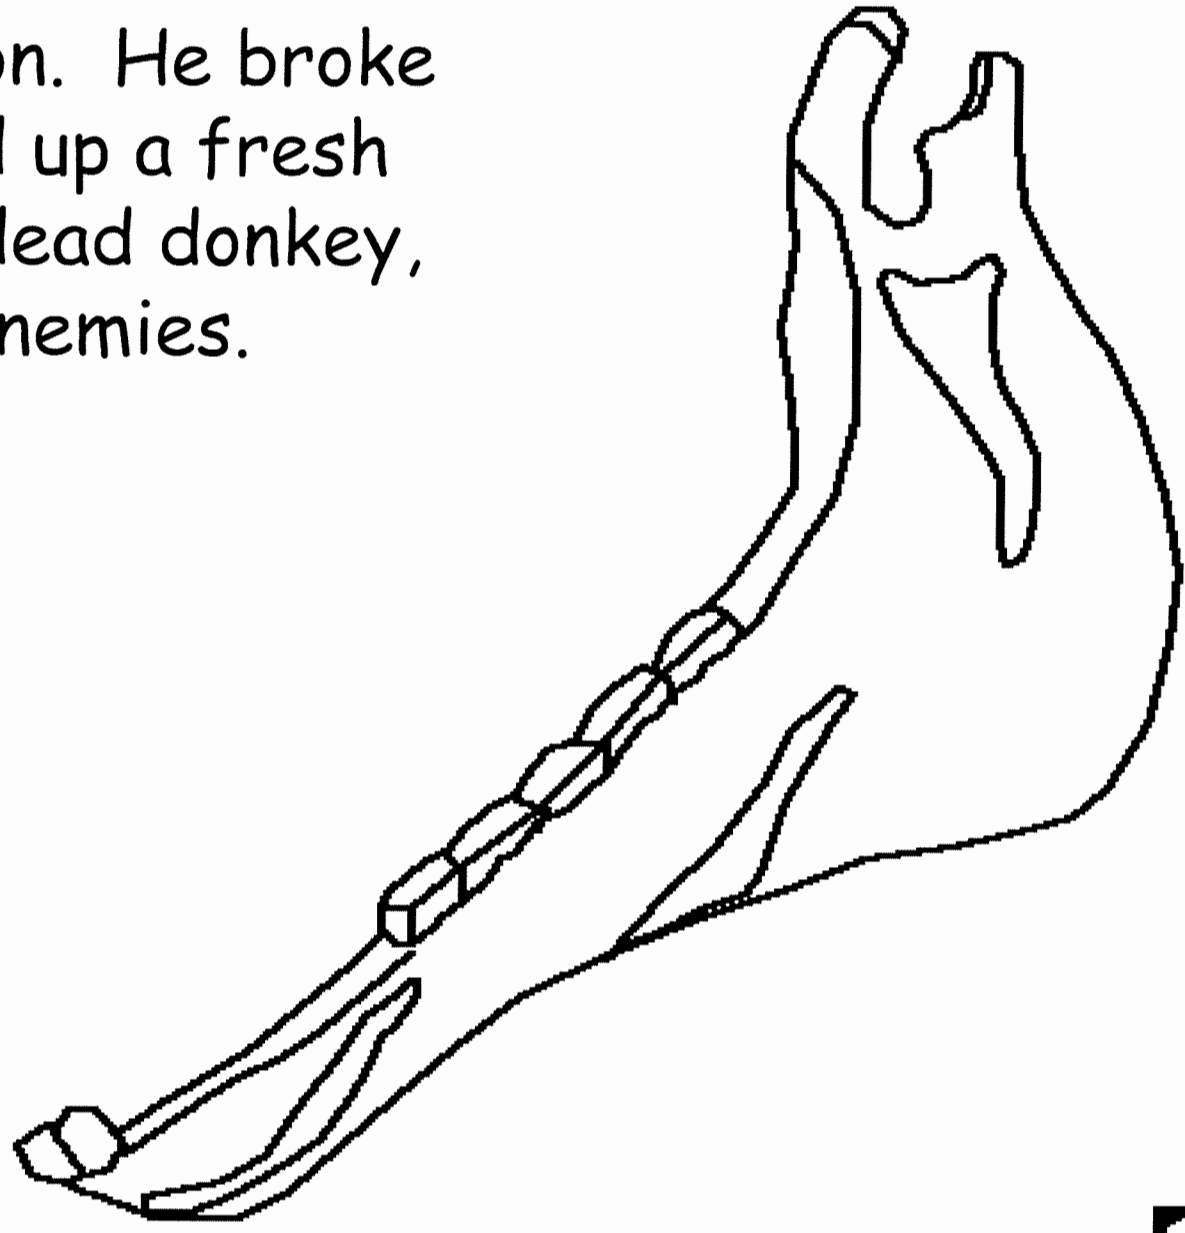

Then Samson released the foxes in the Philistines' grain fields!

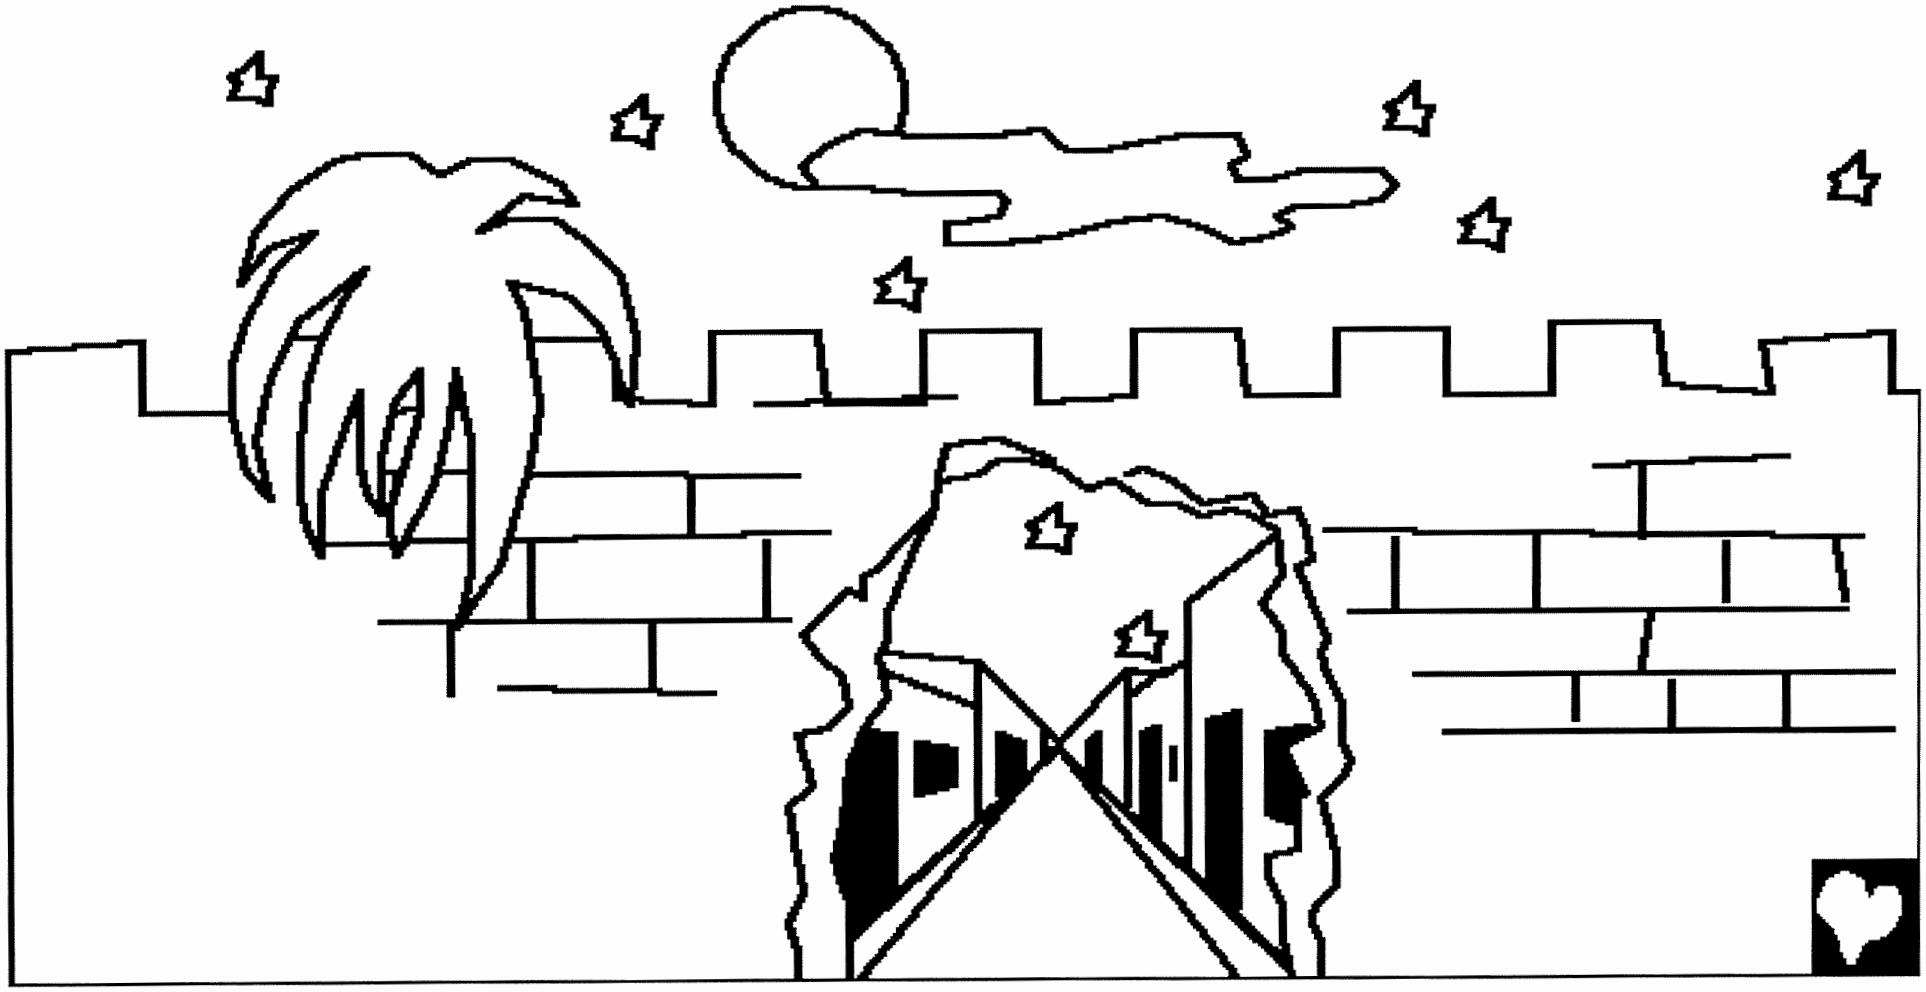

Now the Philistines wanted revenge. Samson let himself be caught, tied up and handed over to be killed by the Philistines.

But the Spirit of the Lord came upon Samson. He broke the ropes, picked up a fresh jawbone from a dead donkey, and killed 1000 enemies.

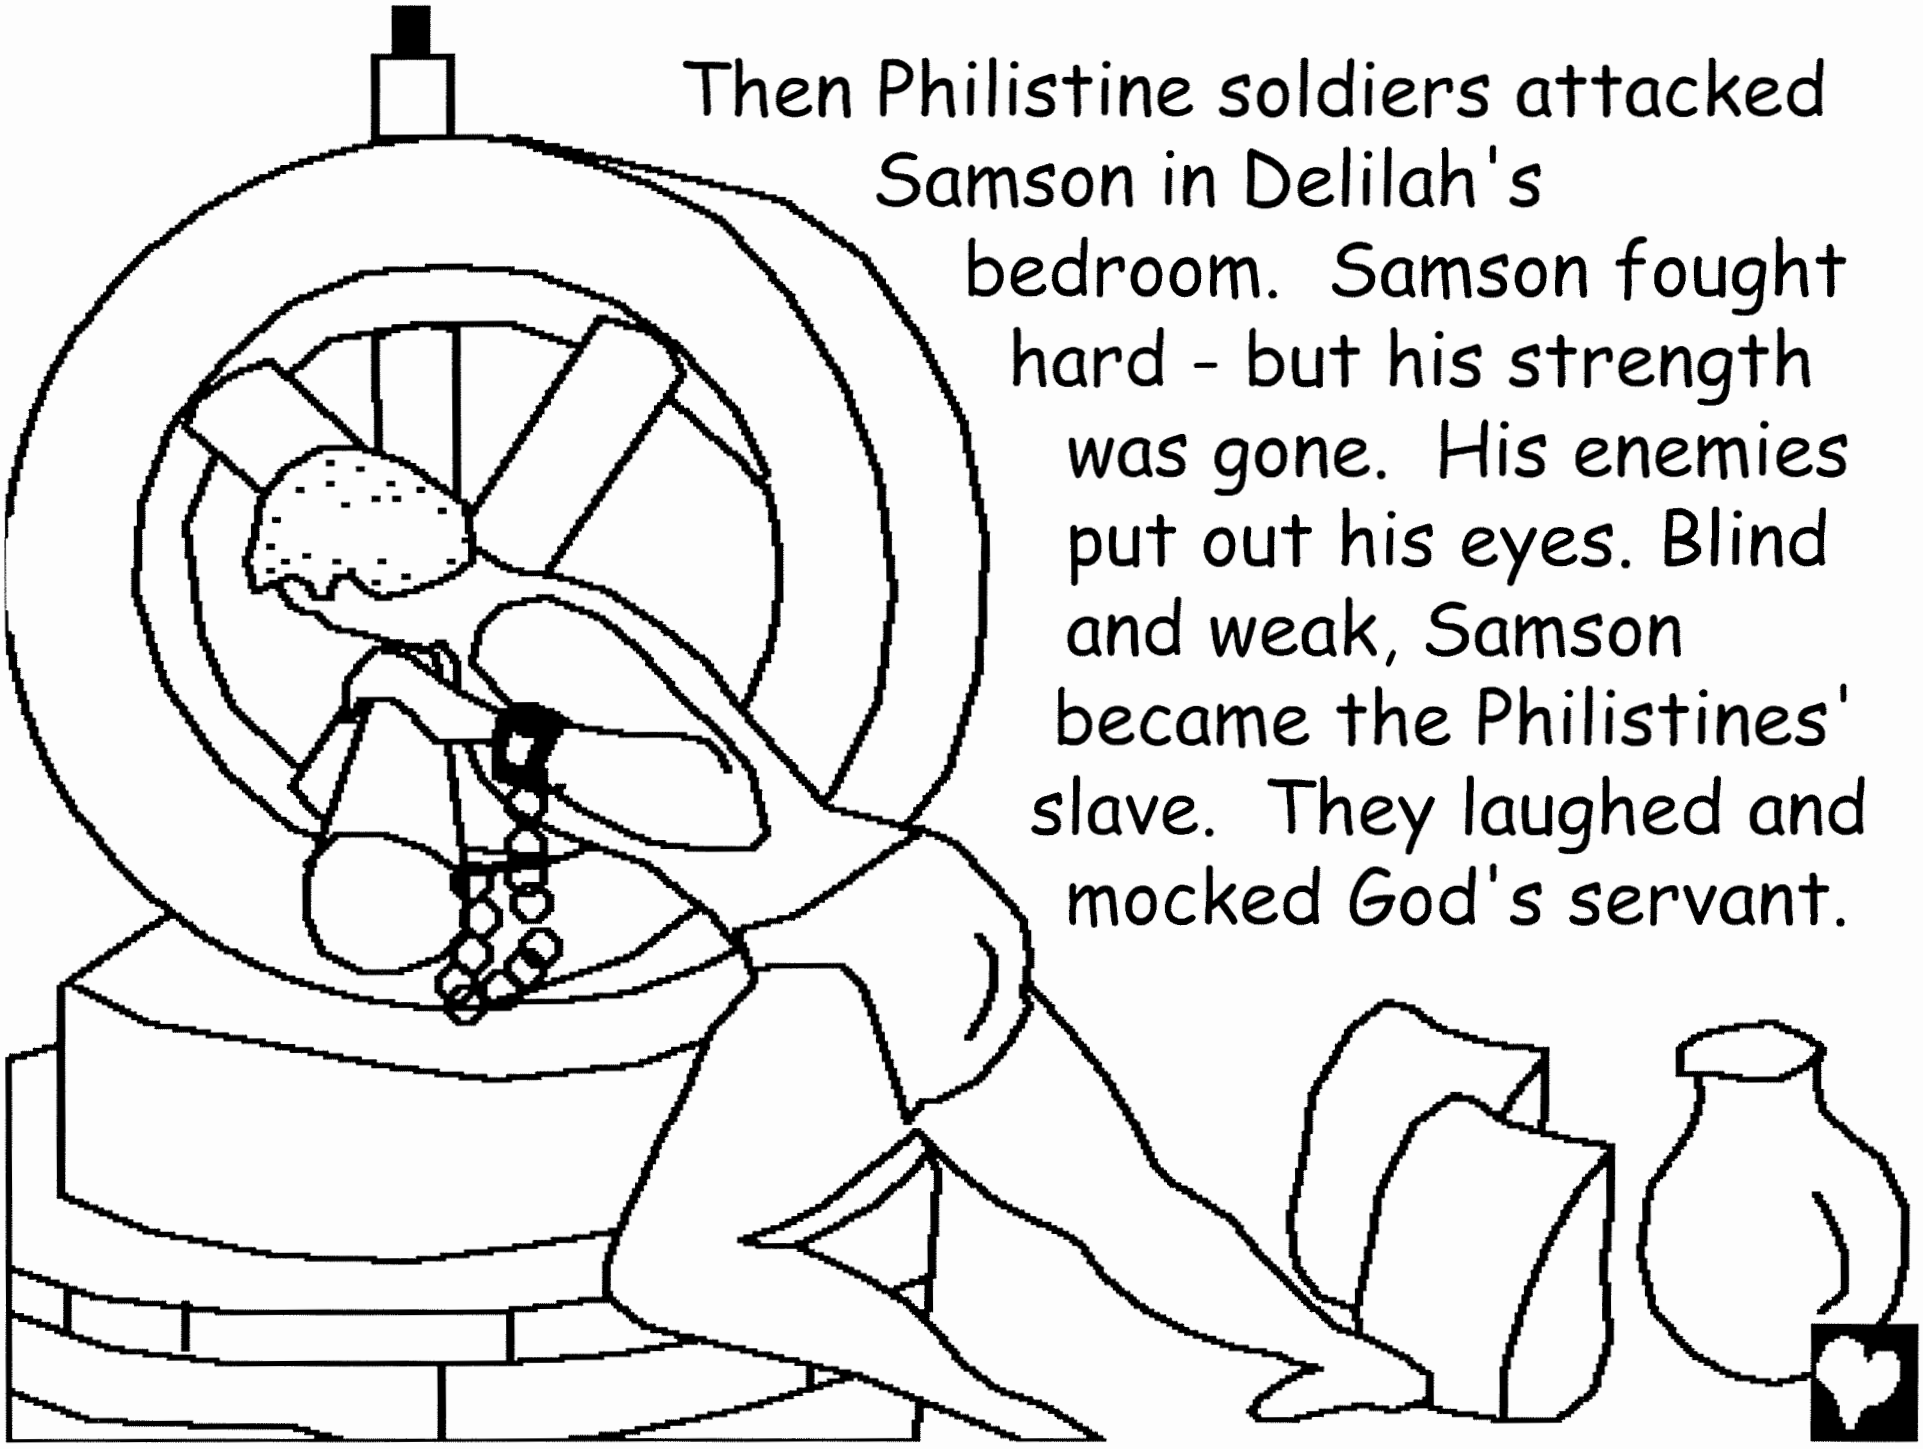

Philistine search parties looked for Samson. One night, they trapped him in a city and locked the city gates. But Samson walked out - carrying the city gates on his shoulders!

But Samson failed God. God gave him strength as long as he obeyed. One day, Samson shared the secret of his strength with Delilah, a beautiful Philistine spy. She had a man shave off Samson's hair while he slept.

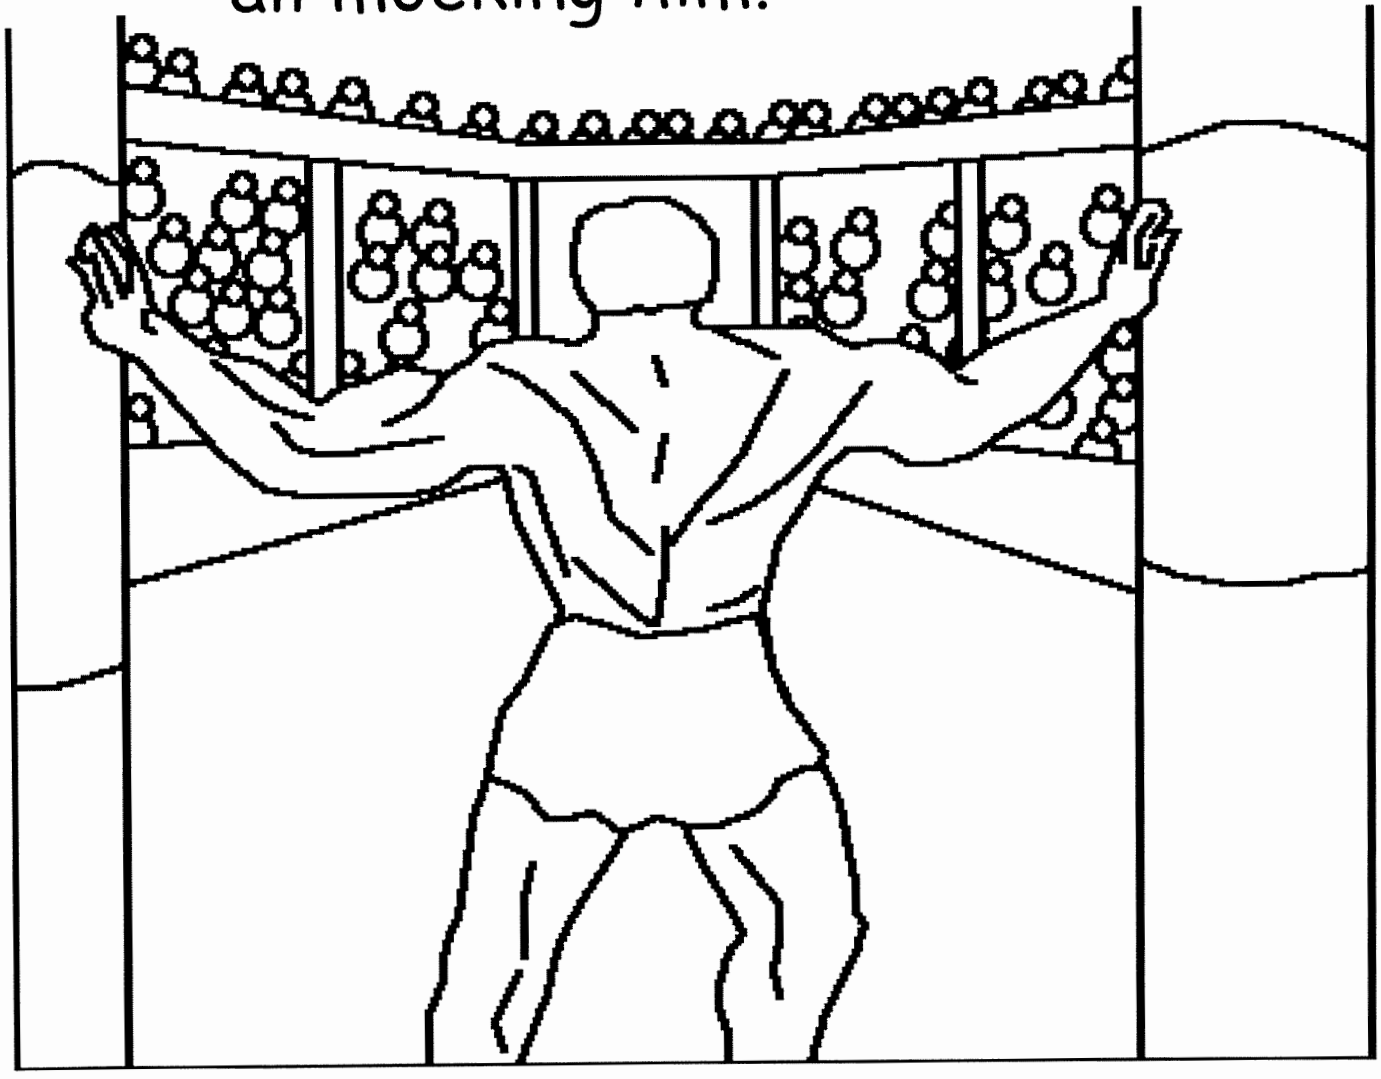

Then Philistine soldiers attacked Samson in Delilah's bedroom. Samson fought hard - but his strength was gone. His enemies put out his eyes. Blind and weak, Samson became the Philistines' slave. They laughed and mocked God's servant.

The Philistines had a feast. They praised their fish-god, Dagon, for giving Samson into their hands. They drank and rejoiced in Dagon's temple. Then they called for Samson to perform for them.

A boy brought Samson, and let him lean on the pillars which held up the temple. There were 3000 Philistines on the roof, and many more in the temple, all mocking him.

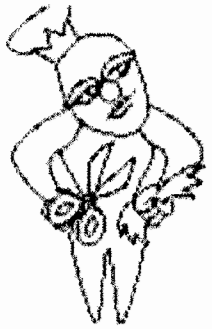

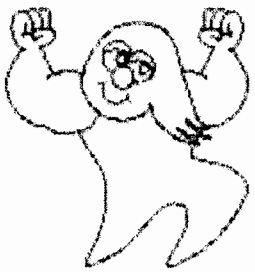

But Samson's hair had begun to grow in the prison. Now he prayed, "O Lord GOD, strengthen me just this once, that I may take revenge for my two eyes."

Would God give Samson strength again? Could Samson do the impossible? YES! YES! Straining and heaving, Samson forced the mighty pillars apart. Dagon's temple crashed to ruins, killing thousands of Philistines - and Samson!

Samson's Big Mistake

Judges 13 — 16

God gave Samson his great strength. Samson's parents promised to never cut his hair. When Samson's hair was cut, he lost his strength. Samson became friends with people who were enemies of God. They paid Delilah to find out why Samson was so strong. Because Samson loved Delilah, he told her. His enemies cut off his hair and made him blind. When Samson's hair grew back, he pushed down the pillars of a building filled with enemies. Samson and thousands of his enemies died.

Ruth

Scriptures: Ruth 1 & 2

Key Verse: Ruth 1:16 But Ruth said "Entreat me not to leave you, or to turn back from following after you; For wherever you go , I will go and wherever you lodge, I will lodge, Your people shall be my people, And your God, my God."

Key Points:

1. Elimelech and Naomi were from Bethlehem, Judah. A famine in the land caused them to travel to Moab with their two sons, Mahlon and Chilion. Elimelech died leaving Naomi alone with her two sons. They took wives from Moab, Orpah and Ruth. After about 10 years the sons died as well.

2. Naomi decided to return to her homeland of Judah. She begged Ruth and Orpah to stay in Moab and return to their families, telling them she had no more sons for them to marry. Orpah did go back but Ruth refused, wanting to stay with Naomi. They returned to Bethlehem.

3. Naomi had a relative of her husband, Boaz. He was very wealthy. Ruth was able to glean grain from his fields after the reapers had gone through. This supplied food and money for Naomi and Ruth to live on.

4. Boaz noticed Ruth and asked who she was. He told her she could glean in his field only, and his servants could keep an eye on her. Boaz instructed his men to leave grain behind so that Ruth could glean more grain. Ruth asked him why he was so kind, he told her he heard how well she had treated her mother-in-law, how she left her family to care for her.

5. Naomi was surprised Ruth gathered so much grain and that she was working in the field of one of her husband's kinsman. God had been with them and blessed them.

English

If you could meet your great-grandparents, their parents, and all the people who came before you in your family, you might be surprised by what kind of people they were. In the Bible, one of Jesus' human ancestors was Ruth - a Moabite lady who used to worship idols.

The story of Ruth starts in Israel after the time of Samson, when God's people stopped trusting and obeying God. A terrible famine struck the land. Do you know what a famine is? That's right! A famine is when no fruit or crops grow, and animals and sometimes even people die from hunger.

One man, Elimelech, left Bethlehem with his wife and two sons, looking for food. He went to Moab, a country where people worshipped idols.

Things did not go well for Elimelech and his family in Moab. He died, followed by his two sons.

His wife, Naomi, was left, along with the sons' two wives, Ruth and Orphah. Both girls were from Moab.

Naomi, now a widow, heard that the LORD had visited His people, giving them bread. She decided to return to her homeland. But what would the two girls do? Naomi advised them to stay in Moab and marry again.

Orphah went back to her own family. But Ruth refused. Instead, Ruth said a lovely poem which promised she would never leave her mother-in-law.

Naomi's old friends were glad that she had come home to Bethlehem. But she asked them to call her "Marah" (bitter) instead of Naomi (pleasant). "For the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me." Naomi had returned with nothing - except Ruth.

Although Ruth had worshipped idols like most people in Moab, she had turned from that to worship the Living God of Israel. Ruth worked hard to make sure Naomi had enough to eat. Every day she followed the harvesters in the field and picked up the left-over grain.

Boaz, the owner of the field, heard how good Ruth was to her mother-in-law. When he met her, Boaz helped her by ordering his harvesters to leave handfuls of grain behind on purpose. Boaz began to like Ruth.

When Ruth told Naomi about Boaz and his kindness, the older lady praised God. "The man is a relative of ours, one of our near kinsmen."

10

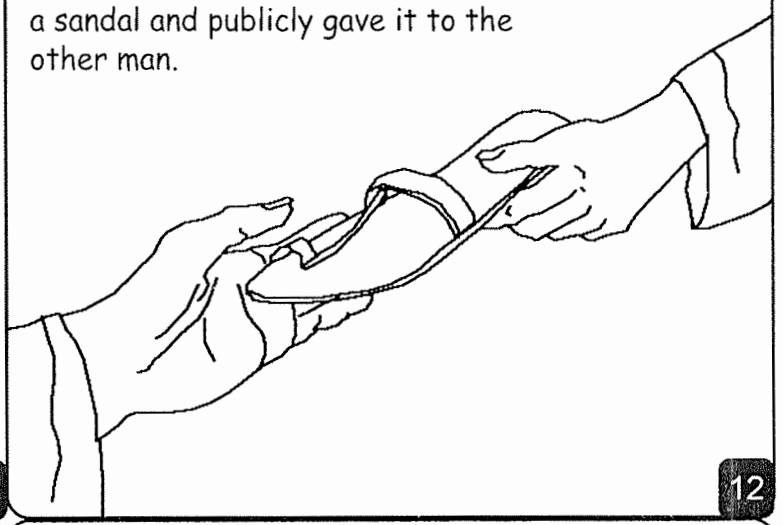

As time passed, Boaz wanted to marry Ruth and look after Naomi and her family's land. But another near relative had the first chance. This man wanted the land - but he didn't want Ruth for his wife. The law said he could not have one without the other.

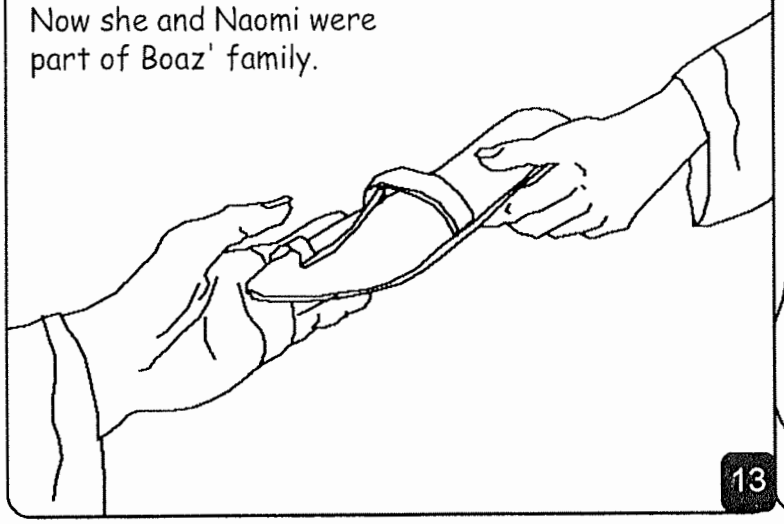

11

In those days, people didn't shake hands to settle a deal. Boaz took off a sandal and publicly gave it to the other man.

12

The business was settled. Ruth would become his wife. Now she and Naomi were part of Boaz' family.

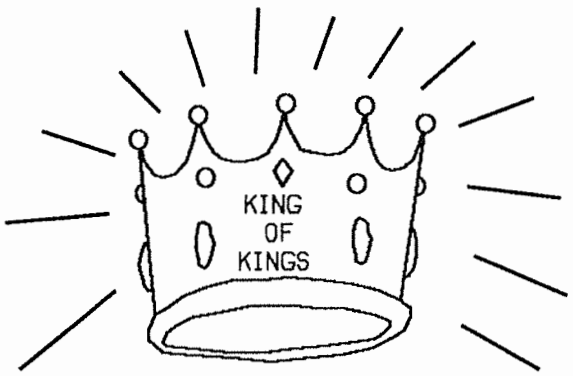

13

Boaz and Ruth called their first son Obed. He became grandfather to David, the great King of Israel.

14

But even more wonderfully, baby Obed was ancestor to the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus came through David's family line to be King of kings and the Savior of the world.

The Story of Ruth

Directions: Underline the words in the story as you find them, unscramble them and write them in the boxes below. During the time when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land. A man named Elimelech took his wife Naomi and his two sons to the country of Moab because there was food in that land. Elimelech died, and Naomi was left as a widow with two sons. The sons married. One married a woman named Orpah, and the other married Ruth. After about ten years, the two sons died also. Naomi decided to go back to her home country, to the town of Bethlehem. Both of her daughters-in-law wanted to go with her, but she told them that they should stay in the land of Moab. Ruth insisted on going with her mother-in-law. The two of them went to Bethlehem. Naomi's friends were so glad to see her again! In those days, according to God's command, when a farmer harvested his field, he had to leave the grain that fell for the poor people to pick up. This gathering of the left-over grain was called "gleaning". Ruth went to "glean" in the field of a man named Boaz. He was a relative of Naomi's family. Ruth worked hard gathering grain to feed herself and Naomi. Boaz noticed how hard she was working and told her to stay in his field to glean. He invited her to eat with him and he said he would protect her from harm. Boaz wanted to marry Ruth, but there was another relative who had first choice of taking care of Ruth. The two men had a meeting. The other man decided that he couldn't take care of Ruth, so he took off his sandal, as the custom was, to seal an agreement. He told Boaz to buy the land and marry Ruth. They were married and later had a son named Obed. Obed, when he was grown, had a son named Jesse. Jesse's son was David. The great-grandson of Ruth became king of Israel, King David!

God Blesses Ruth and Naomi

Scriptures: Ruth 3 & 4

Key Verse: Ruth 3:10 Then he said, "Blessed are you of the Lord, my daughter! For you have shown more kindness at the end than at the beginning, in all that you did not go after young men, whether poor or rich.

Key Points:

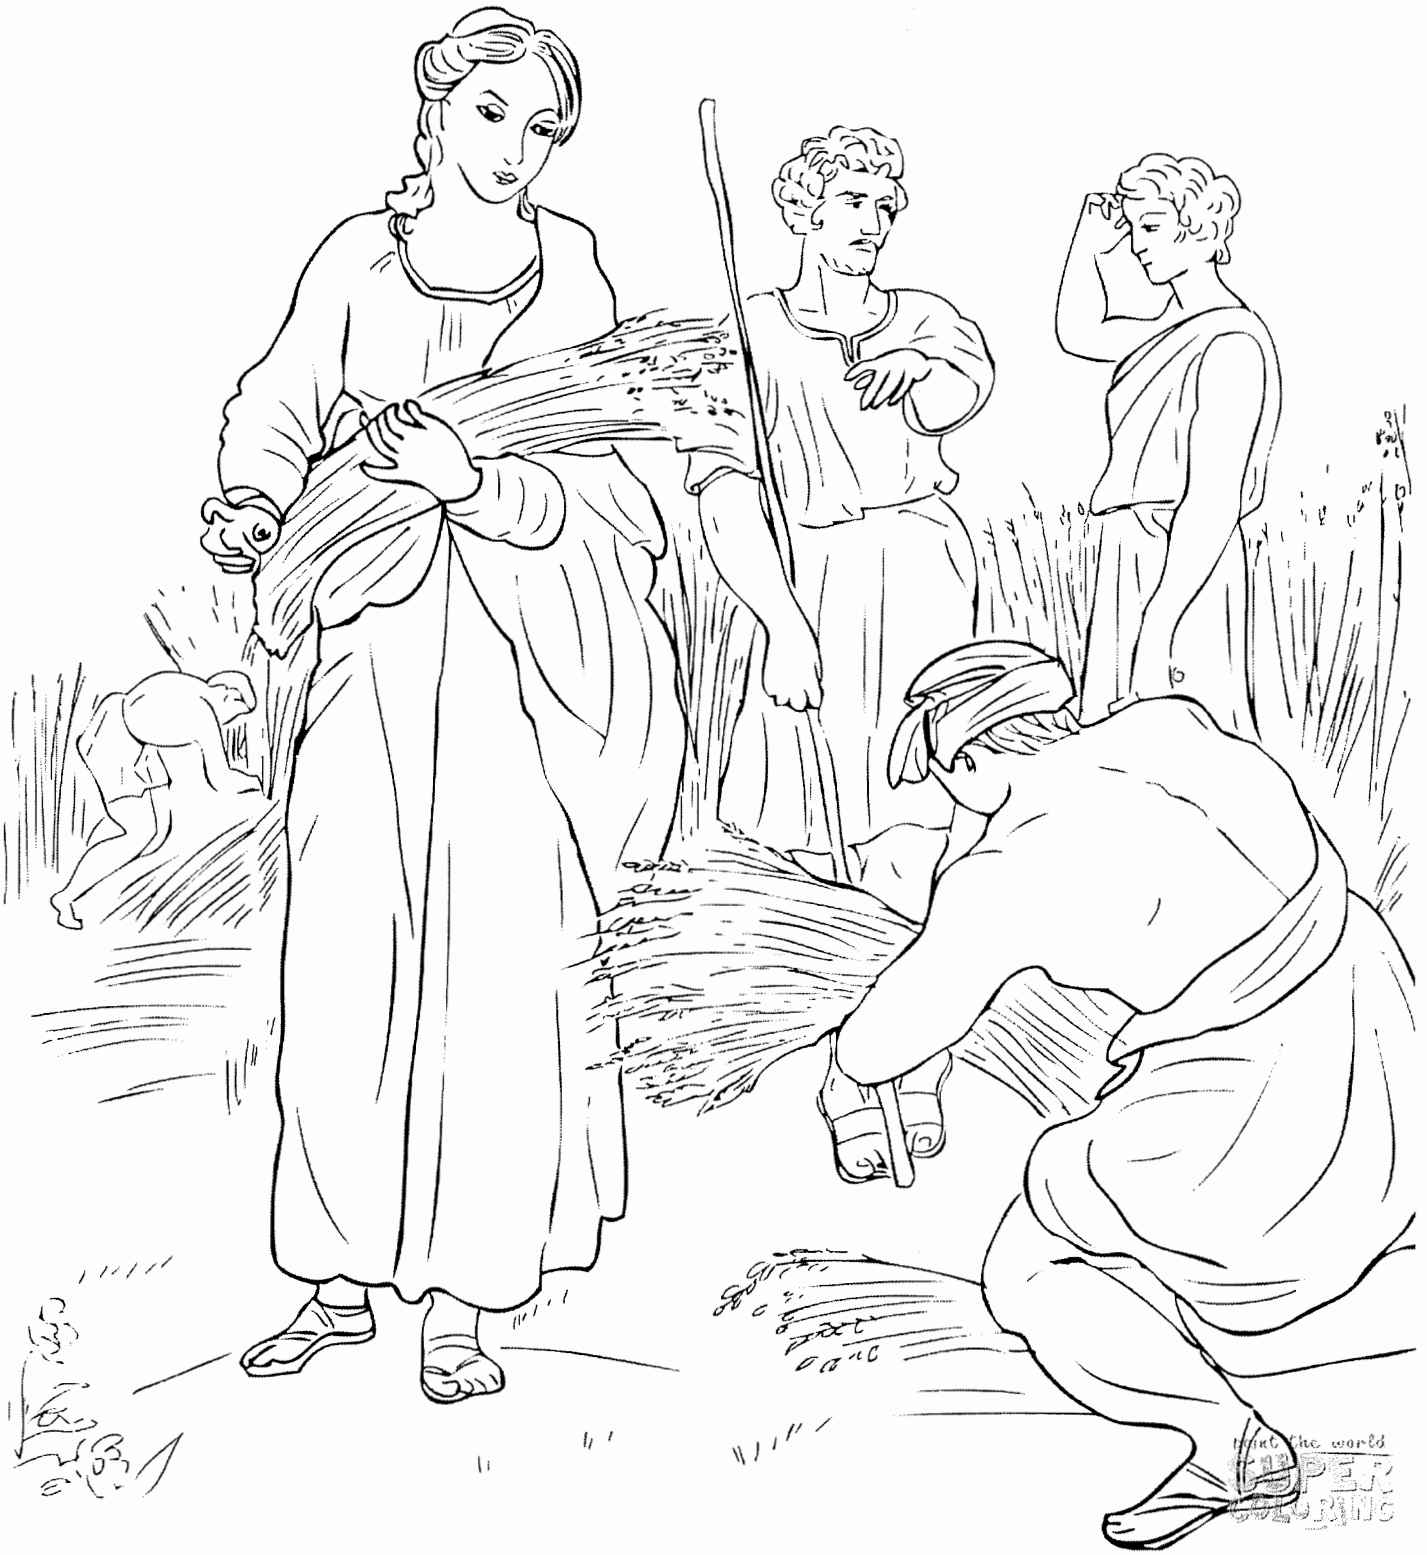

1. Naomi wished to find someone to care for Ruth. She instructed Ruth to wash and anoint herself, then go down to the threshing floor where Boaz would be. After he laid down to sleep, Naomi was to lay at his feet. At midnight, he was startled by her and asked who she was. When she told him, Boaz was happy that Ruth had shown him this kindness. He knew her reputation and knew she was a virtuous woman.

2. Boaz knew there was a relative closer to her than he. That relative had the right to buy Ruth's former husband's land and also take her for his wife. Boaz went to the city gates to find this relative. He also gave Ruth 6 ephahs of barley to take home to Naomi.

3. Boaz went to the elders at the city gate. He told the relative about the land, the relative wanted to redeem it. However, when he was told about Ruth, he changed his mind and did not want to redeem it. He did not want to risk his own inheritance for it would go to the family of Malhon. The kinsman-redeemer was to raise his firstborn son as Malhon's and his inheritance would go to that child as well. The relative took off his sandal and handed it to Boaz to show he passed this right to Boaz.

4. Boaz took Ruth for his wife. They had a son, named him Obed. He was the grandfather of David. Naomi cared for the child and raised him as her son's. Ruth and Naomi were blessed by God for following God's plan for them.

BOAZ REDEEMS RUTH

(RUTH 4:1-13)

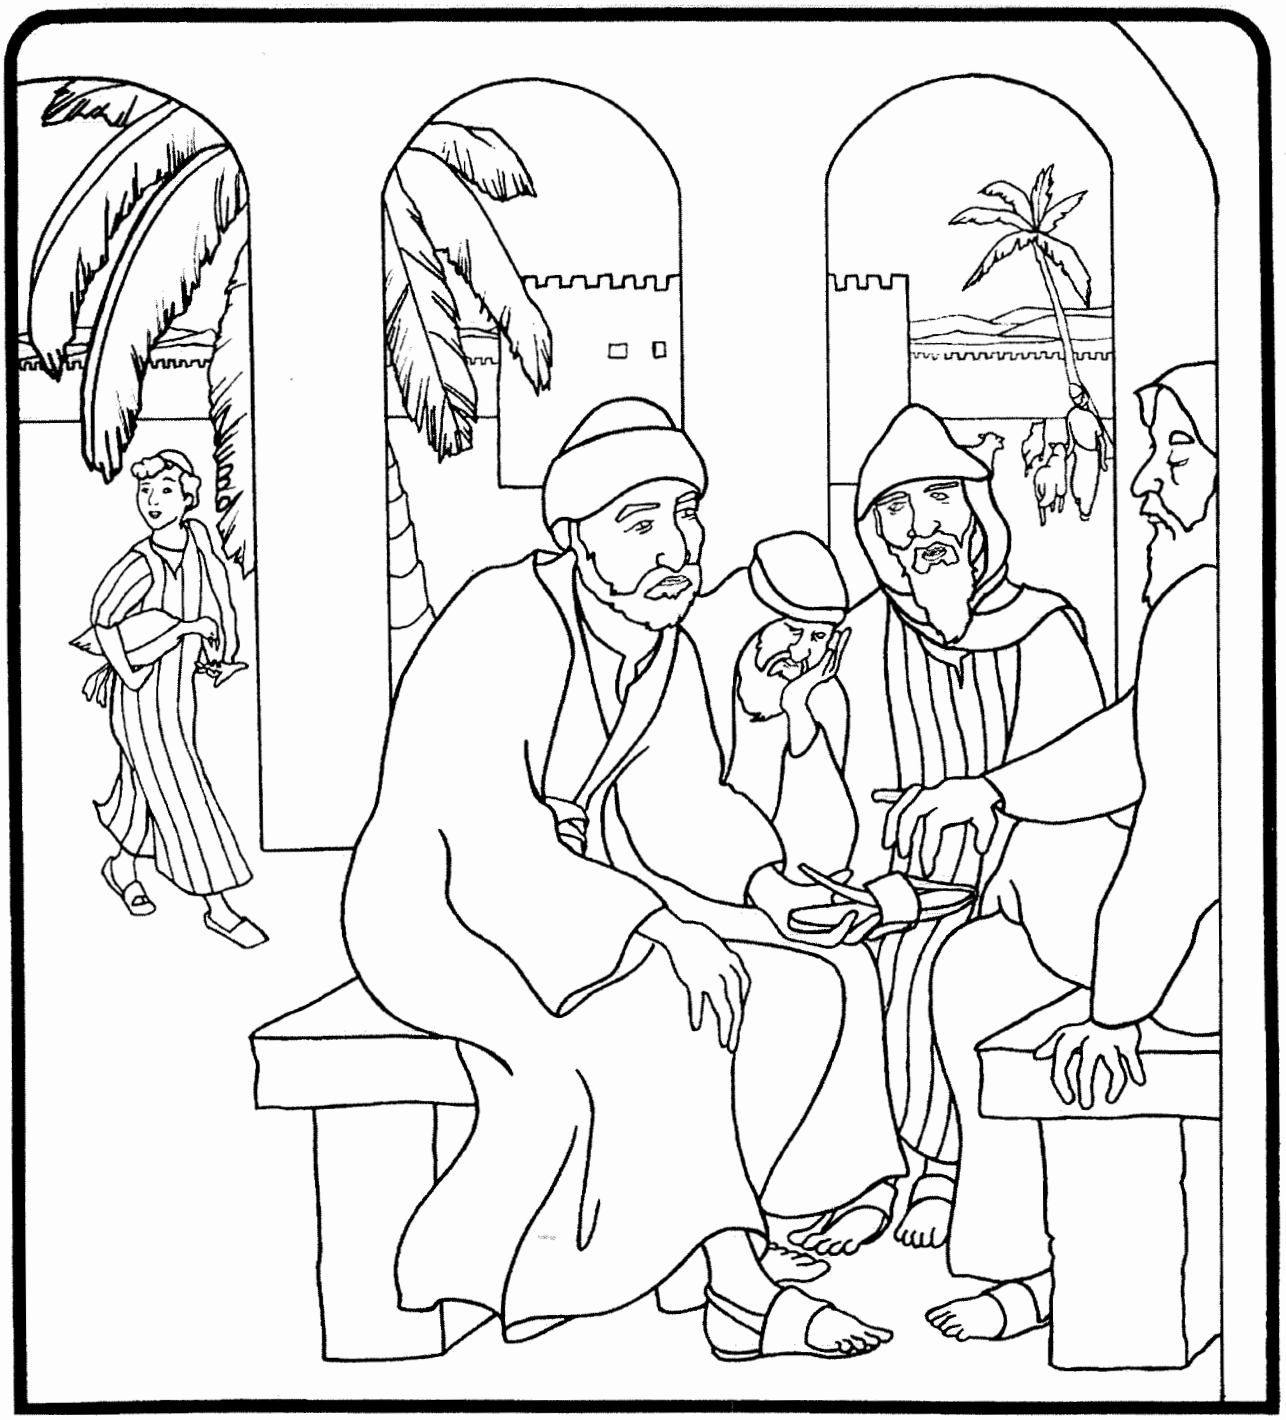

"Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day."

RUTH 4:10

Eccl 12:13
…Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

Ruth 4:8-10 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe. And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi. Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

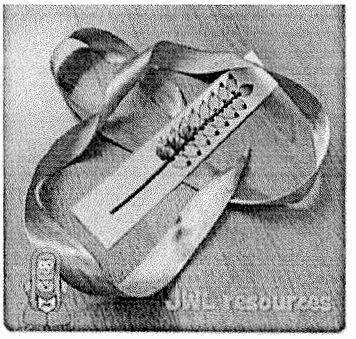

Ruth and Boaz had a son named Obed.

THE BIBLE TIMES HERALD

A SPECIAL REPORT ON RUTH 4:1-17

BOAZ MARRIES RUTH

Witnesses saw Boaz speaking with Naomi's kinsman-redeemer. The kinsman-redeemer was supposed to buy Naomi's land. One witness said he heard the kinsman-redeemer say that he would not buy Naomi's land. This meant that Naomi would not have her land to live on.

Boaz was next in line to become Naomi's kinsman-redeemer. He would be the one to buy her land. That way, she would always be taken care of. Boaz would also get to marry Ruth.

Later, witnesses saw Ruth and Boaz get married! How exciting it was for Ruth!

Many months later, Ruth had a baby boy. His name was Obed. Obed would be the father of Jesse. And Jesse would be the father of David.

For more details, please read Ruth 4:1-17 in the Bible.

God Answers Hannah's Prayer

Scriptures: I Samuel 1 & I Samuel 2:18-21

Key Verse: I Samuel 1:27 "For this child I prayed, and the lord has grated my petition which I asked of him."

Key Points:

1. Elkanah had two wives, Hannah and Peninnah. Peninnah had children but Hannah did not.

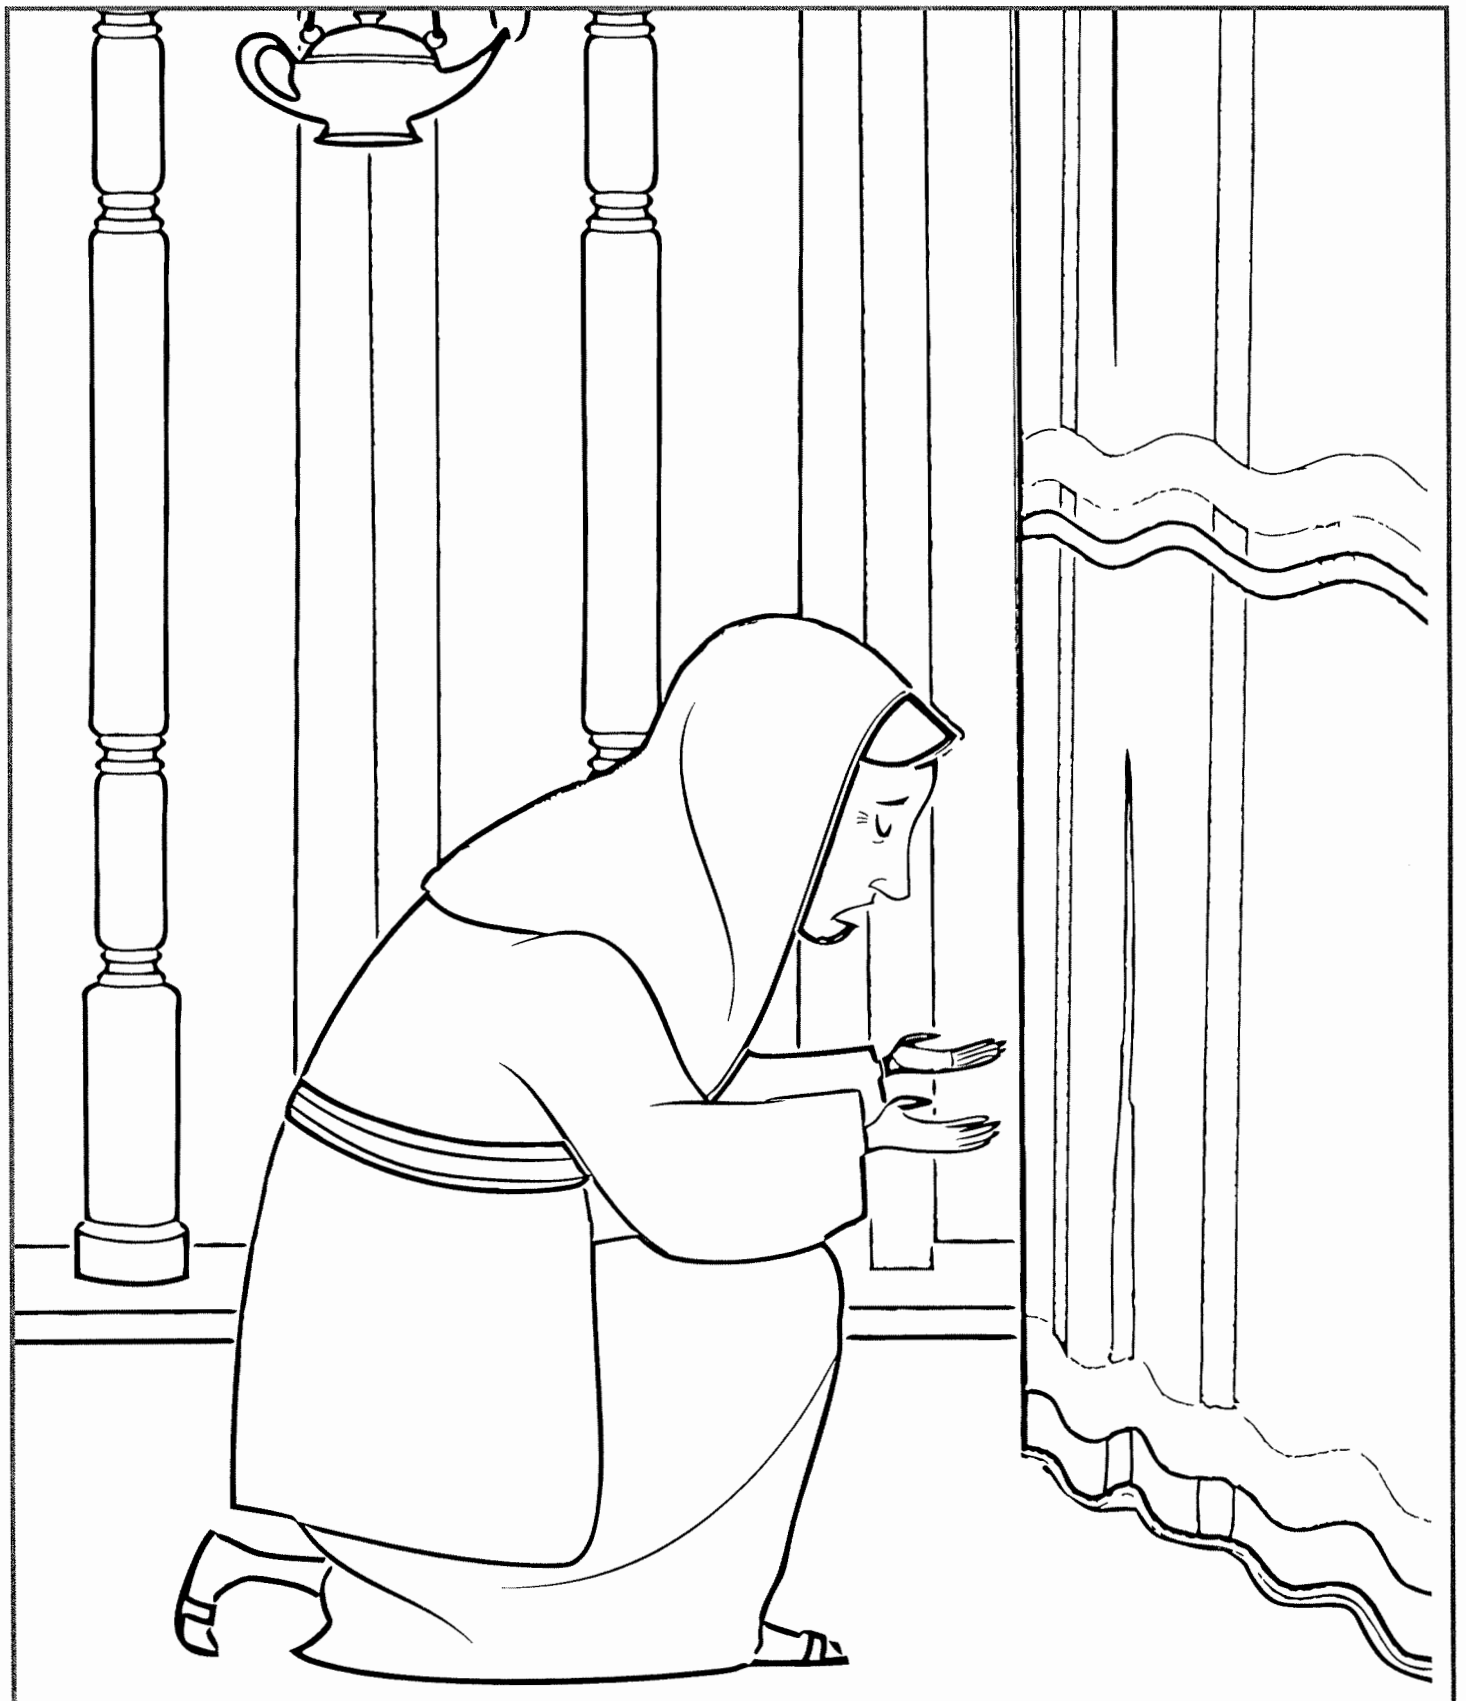

2. Yearly they would go to worship at Shilo to worship and sacrifice. Elkanah would give portions of meat to Peninnah and her children but gave Hannah a double portion because of his deep love for her. Peninnah would provoke her because she had no children so Hannah would not eat or drink in her distress.

3. One day, when at the tabernacle for sacrifice, Hannah was earnestly praying. With many tears, she prayed for a child, promising God that if she had a child, she would give him to the Lord and never cut his hair. Eli, the priest, was in the doorway watching her. He thought she was drunk and asked her why she was acting that way. She told him she was in sorrow and not drunk.

4. Eli told her to "Go in peace" and that god would grant her prayer. She went home and in time gave birth to a son. She called him Samuel. When he was weaned, Hannah took him and presented him to the Lord.

5. Samuel worked in the tabernacle before the Lord, learning from Eli the priest. His mother would bring him a new robe each year as they came for the yearly sacrifice. Eli would bless them for giving Samuel to the Lord. Hannah kept her promise to the Lord and He blessed her. She had 3 more sons and 2 daughters.

6. Our prayers are important to God. He listens and blesses us as we follow His directions for our lives.

Hannah prayed for a baby.

Hannah's Gift From God

The Bible tells about a woman named Hannah who lived many, many years ago. Hannah loved God. But Hannah was not happy. She wanted a little boy to love. Hannah asked God to send her a baby boy. She said, "If You will send me a little boy, I will give him back to You when he is old enough."

God heard Hannah's prayer. It was not long before God gave Hannah and her husband a baby boy. They named the baby Samuel. Hannah loved her little boy very much.

Hannah kept her promise to God. As soon as Samuel was old enough she took him to God's house. Eli took care of God's house. Hannah said to Eli, "This is the little boy God sent to me. I promised God I would bring him here when he was old enough. I want him to learn to serve God."

Every year Hannah came to God's house to worship and to see her little boy. She always brought him a new coat. Samuel was happy in God's house. He worked hard. Eli taught him to serve God.

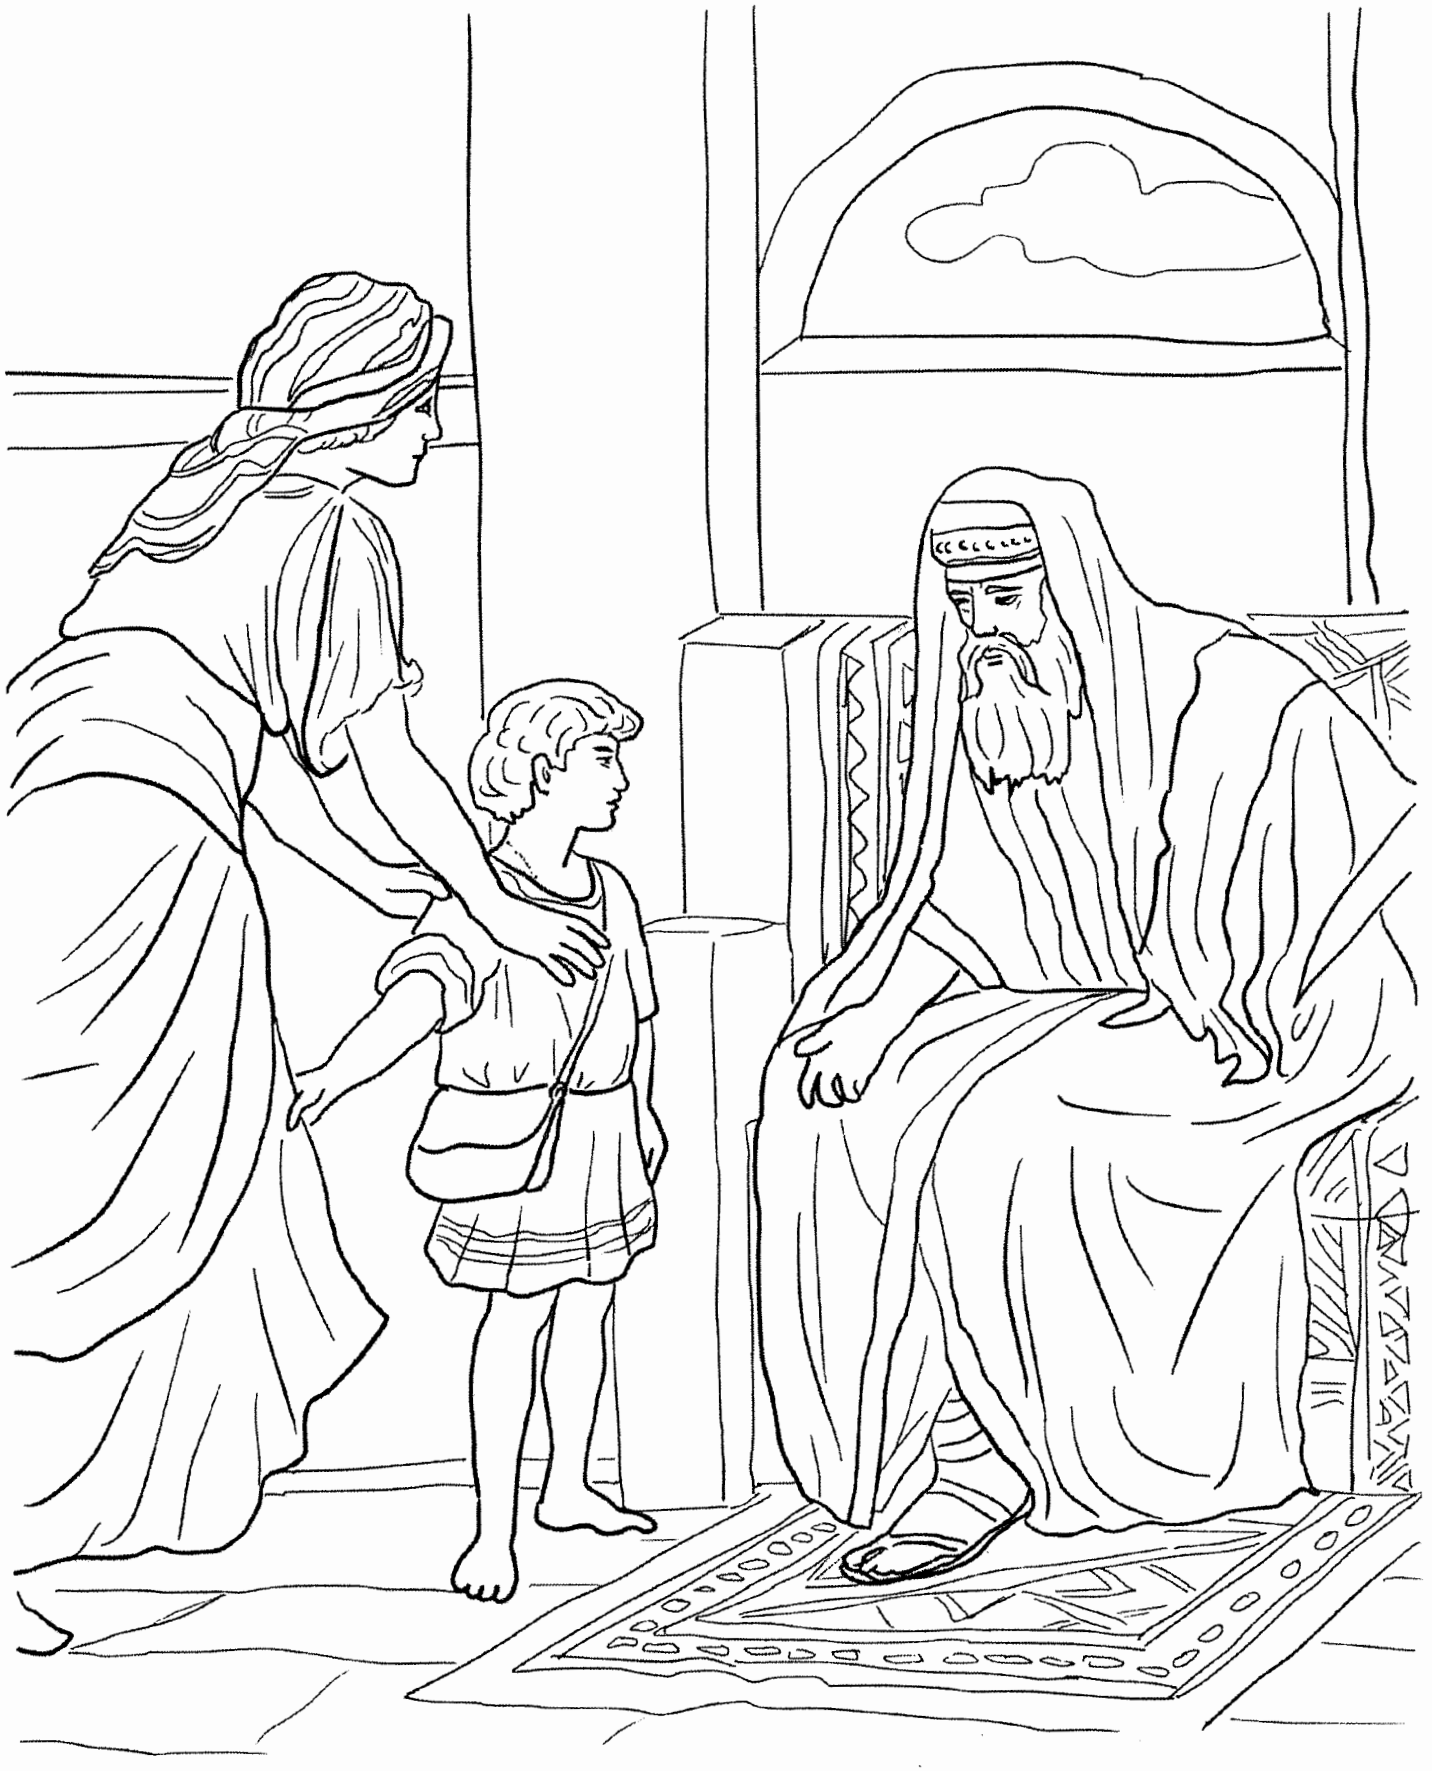

Memory Verse: "The boyC7muel kept growing.He pleased God and the people" (1 Samuel 2:26, ICB).

Activity Instructions: Connect the dots to see what Samuel's mother made for him. Color the picture. Optional: Cut cloth to fit the coat, then glue it to the picture.

God Calls Samuel

Scriptures: I Samuel 3 (I Samuel 2:27 prophecy against the house of Eli)

Key Verse: I Samuel 3:10 Then the Lord came and stood and called as at other times, "Samuel, Samuel!", And Samuel answered, "Speak for your servant hears."

Key Points:

1. The boy Samuel served with Eli in the tabernacle. One night after they had laid down to sleep, God called out to Samuel. Samuel, thinking it was Eli, went to Eli and said, "Here I am!"

2. Eli told him to go back to sleep, that he had not called him. This happened 3 times before Eli realized it was the Lord calling. He told Samuel when it happened again, to say "Speak Lord for Your servant is listening." The Lord calls again and Samuel answered him just as instructed.

3. The Lord tells Samuel about the wickedness of Eli's sons. (explain how they did not follow the rules God had set for priests) God was going to punish his family because Hophni and Phinehas were disobedient and wild. This is a prophecy of what is to come to the house of Eli. Eli had been warned of what would come if his sons continued in their sin (I Samuel 2:27-36)

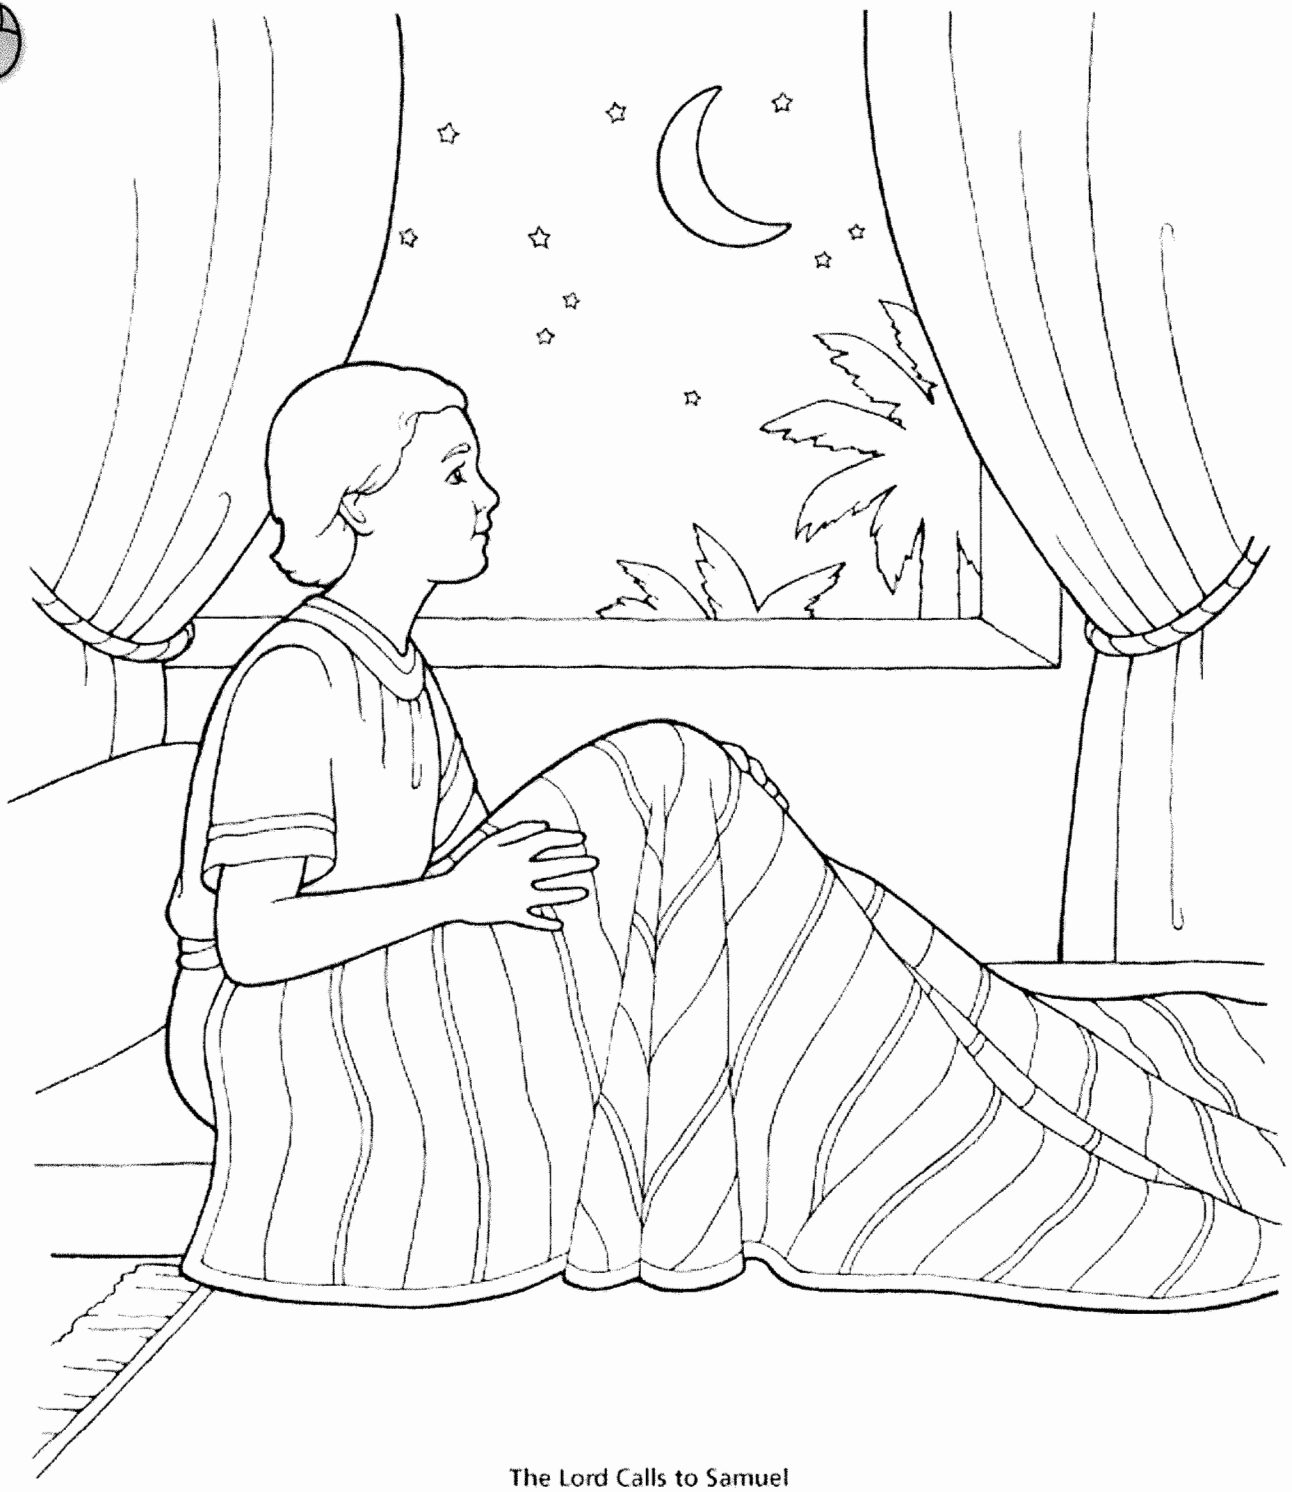

4. Eli had not disciplined his sons as he should. Samuel did not want to tell Eli about the vision. But Eli told him not to hide it from him so Samuel told him. Eli said that the Lord will do what is good in His own eyes.

5. The Lord continued to be with Samuel and he grew. All Israel recognized him as a prophet of the Lord.

Samuel was called by God and served in the temple from childhood. He was the last of the Judges.

Samuel and Eli Hand Puppets

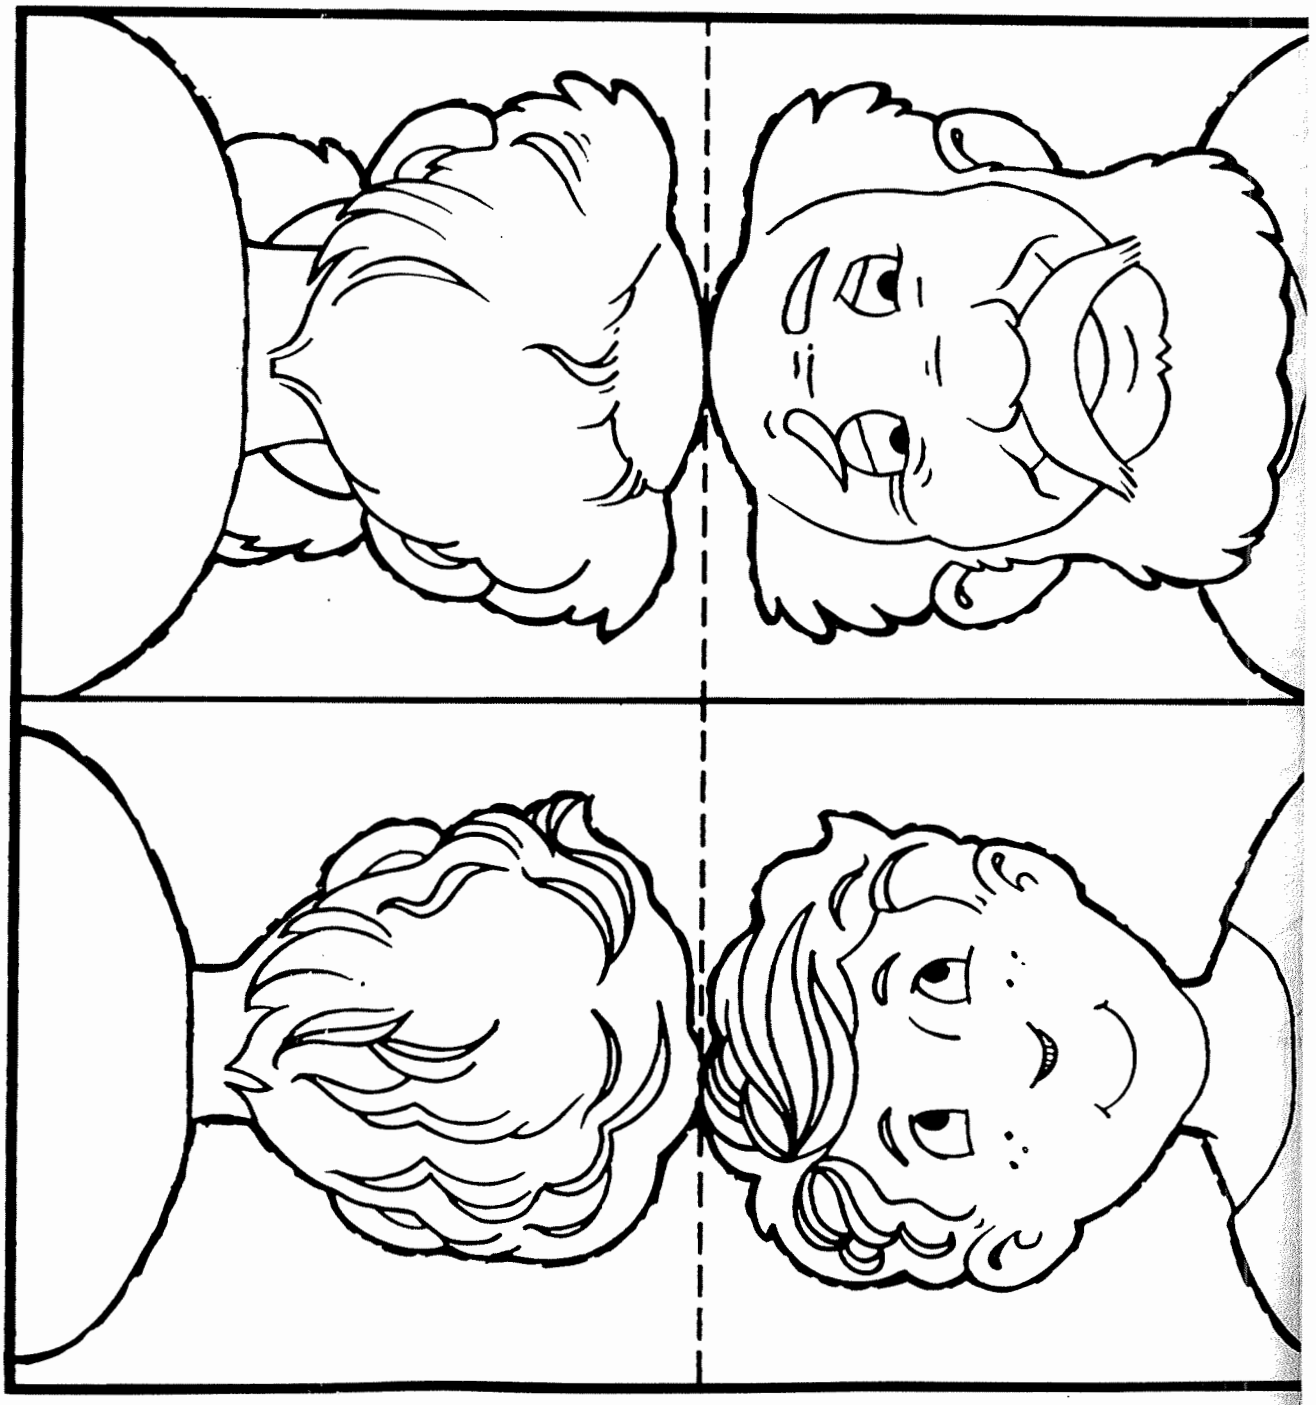

Supplies

- copies of the Samuel and Eli Hand Puppets (1 per child)
- crayons or washable markers
- scissors
- tape

Directions

Help children color and cut apart the Samuel and Eli Hand Puppets. Fold the two pi in half on the dotted lines and tape the sides together so each puppet fits on a child like a mitten. Help each child put the Samuel puppet on one hand and the Eli puppe other hand. Children can use the puppets to retell the story of Samuel:

1) Samuel heard a voice calling his name (hold up Samuel).
2) Samuel went to Eli (hold up both Samuel and Eli and bring them together thre
3) Samuel heard the voice again and he answered God as Eli had told him to (ho up Samuel).

The Ark of God is Stolen

Scriptures: I Samuel 4

Key Verse: I Samuel 4:17 The man who brought news replied, "Israel fled before the Philistines, the army suffered heavy losses, also, your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas are dead and the ark of God has been captured."

Key Points:

1. The Israelites fought against the Philistines. They lost the battle because God had been displeased with them. The elders decided to go get the ark at the tabernacle at Shilo. They brought it to the battlefield for good luck, hoping it would help them win their battles. This was sinful idolatry. Eli's sons, Hophni and Phinehas were with the ark.

2. When the ark came into camp there was great shouting. This made the Philistines afraid at first. They remembered how powerful the Israelite God was in Egpyt (remind them of the plagues, etc) So they gathered their strength and defeated the Israelites in battle. The losses were great, 30,000 soldiers were killed.

3. The ark was captured in the battle, Hophni and Phinehas were killed as well. A messenger was sent to tell Eli about the battle.

5. Eli was 98 years old and very feeble. The messenger told him about the great number of soldiers killed, that his sons had died, and that the ark had been captured. Eli was sitting in a chair and was a heavy man. When the ark being captured was mentioned, he fell back in his chair, broke his neck and died.

6. Eli led Israel for 40 years before he died. Eli's sons died because of their wickedness. We learn here that our sin draws us away from God.

THE ARK OF GOD IS CAPTURED

1 Samuel 4:1-18

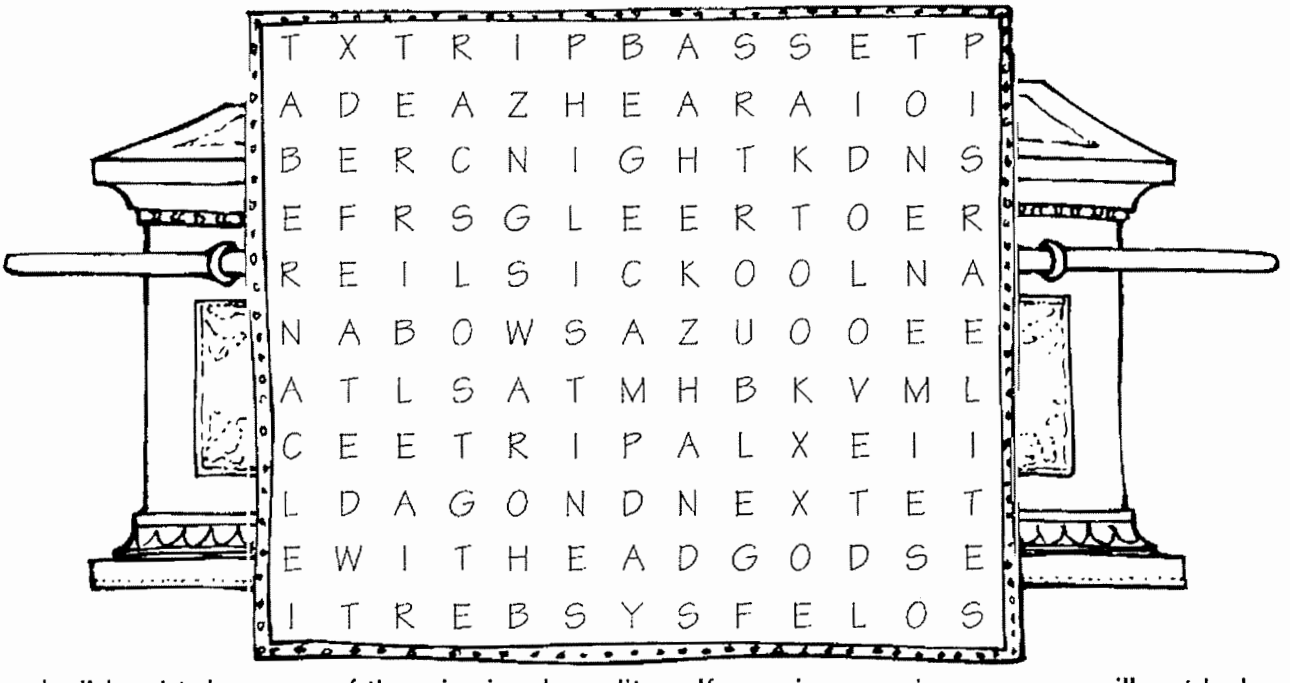

Read the story below about how the ark of the Lord's covenant was stolen. Then find and circle the capitalized words in the word search. Look across, down, and diagonally. Circle the word TRIP twice.

The ISRAELITES were at WAR with the PHILISTINES. At that time, the Israelites did not LOVE GOD as they should. They did not HEAR His words and obey them. Because of their SIN, God did not help them fight. The Philistines DEFEATED them in a BATTLE, killing 4,000 of their soldiers. At their CAMP, the Israelites said, "Let's take the ARK of God WITH us to battle. IT will help us fight."

The Israelites took the ark into the next battle, which was wrong. The ark belonged in the TABERNACLE. Again, the Israelites LOST, and 30,000 of their men were killed. Their ENEMIES TOOK the ark with them. That was ONE SAD DAY for the Israelites.

"We captured the ark of God of the Israelites!" the Philistines cried with GLEE. Then the ark took a long TRIP. It went to one of the Philistine's cities. They put it NEXT to their IDOL god, DAGON. Dagon fell down that NIGHT. They SET it up again. The next night, Dagon fell again, and its HANDS and HEAD broke off. Soon, many Philistines in that city got very SICK. "Take the ark away," they begged. "It brings TERRIBLE TROUBLE."

Then the ark took a TRIP to two other cities. Those people became very sick, too. "What shall we do?" they cried.

The ark did not take care of the sinning Israelites. If we sin, wearing a cross will not help us. To have Jesus' protection and help, He tells us to love Him truly and obey Him.

The Ark is Returned

Scriptures: I Samuel 5, 6, 7

Key Verse: I Samuel 7:3 Samuel said, "If you are returning to the Lord with all your hearts, then rid yourselves of the foreign gods and the Ashtoreths and commit yourselves to the Lord and serve him only and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

Key Points:

1. Philistines took the ark of the covenant, thinking it would help them in battle. They brought the ark to their idol's temple of Dagon. Early the next day, Dagon had fallen on its face before the ark. They set it up again, the next day it had fallen again, breaking off it head and palms of its hands. The people of that city were struck with tumors and rats destroyed their fields, proving God was more powerful than their god, Dagon.

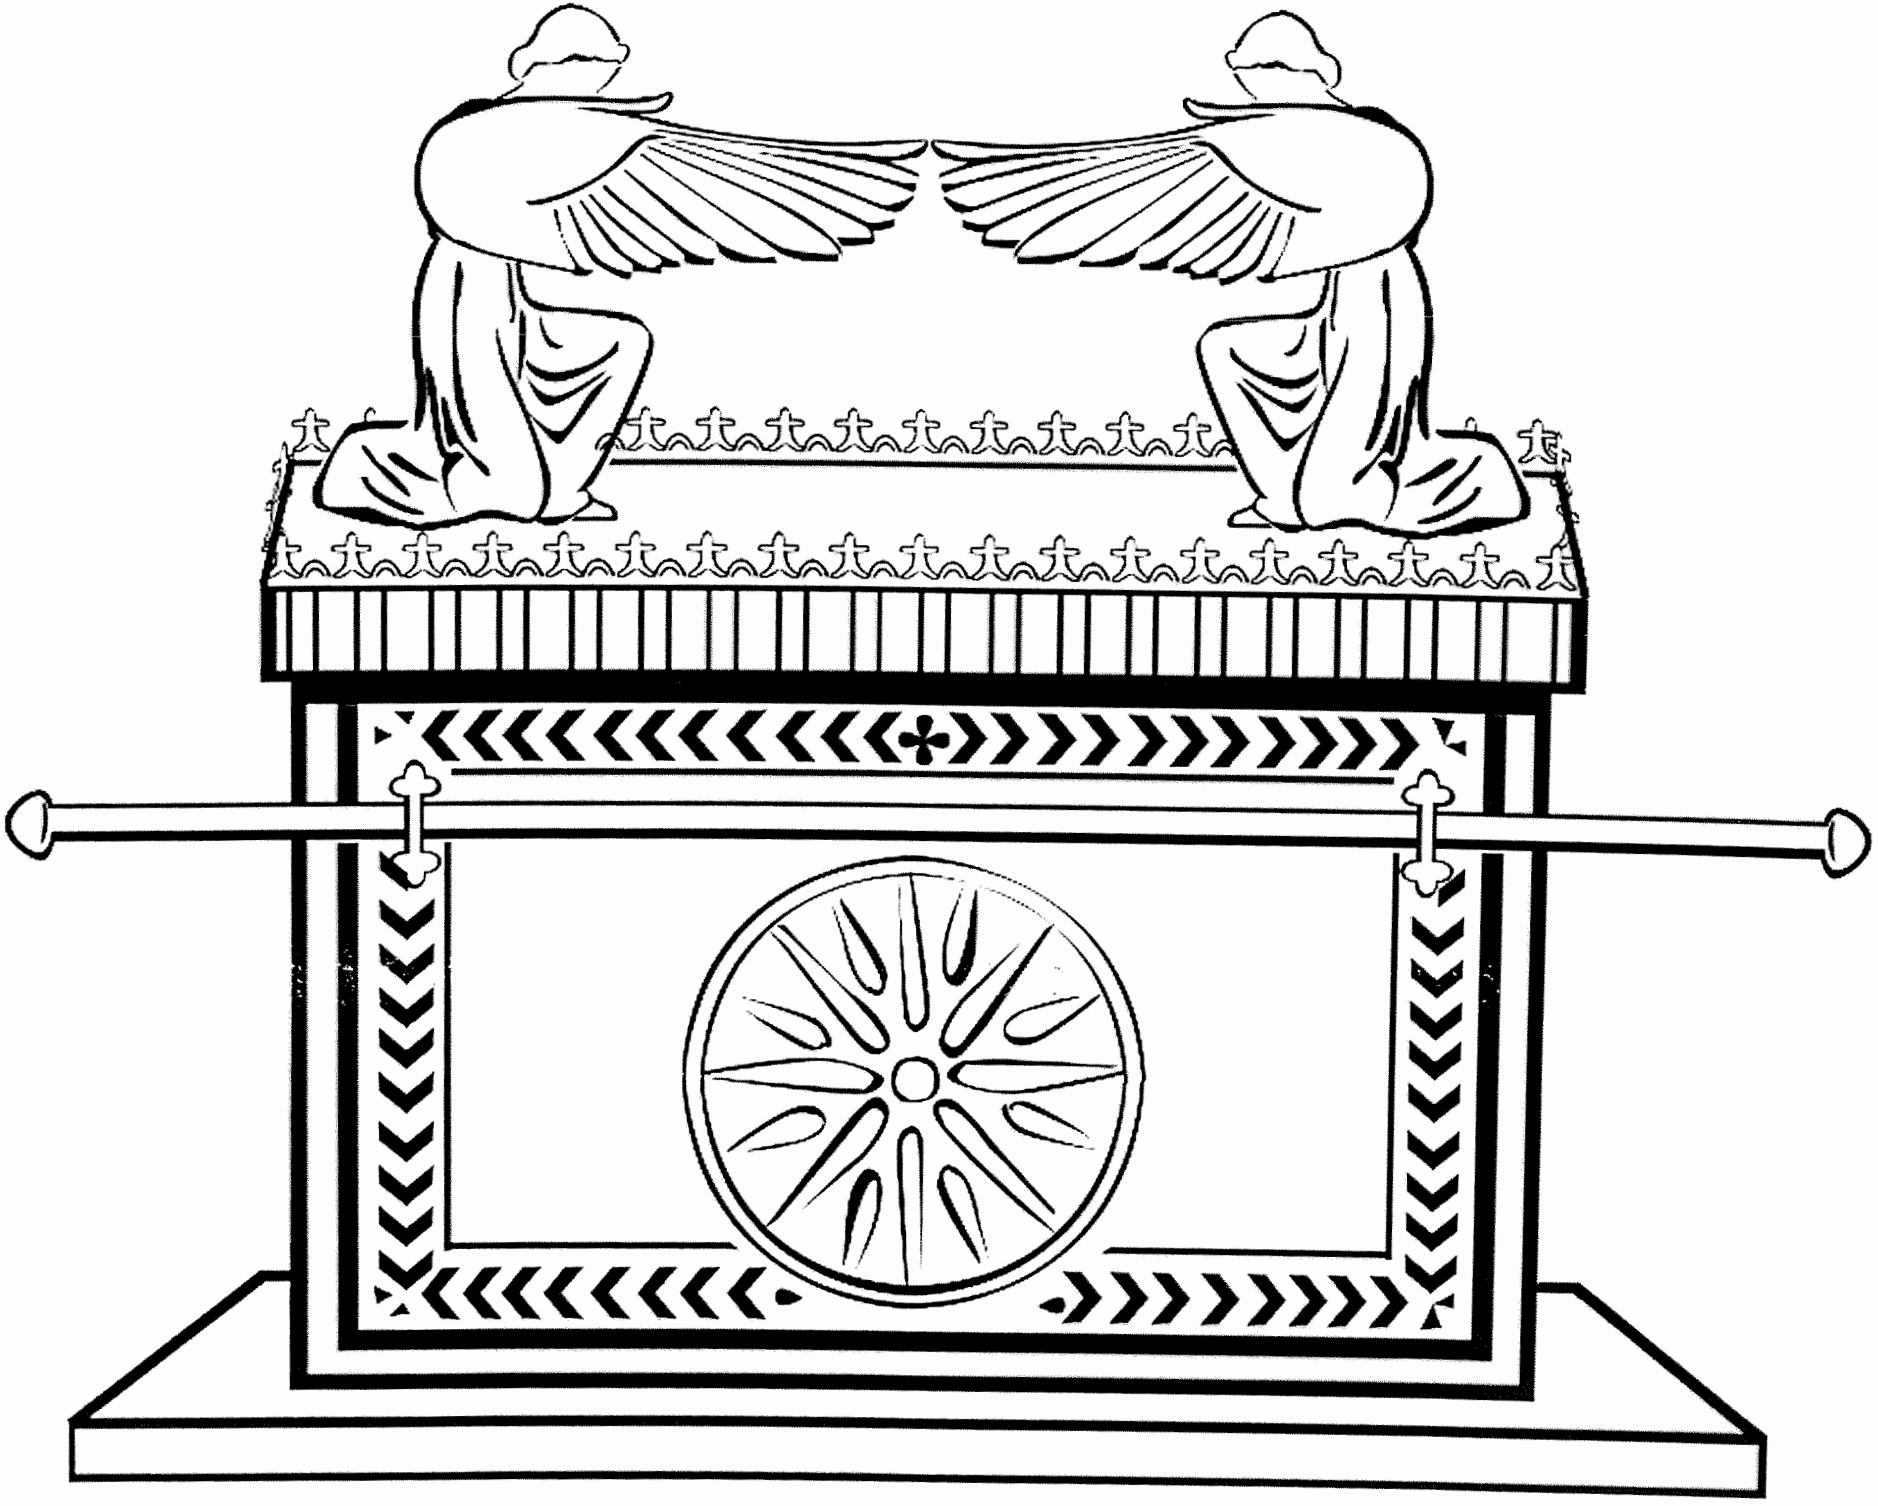

2. Philistines sent the ark away to other cities, each city being struck with tumors and rats. It had been in Philistine territory for seven months when the priests decided to get rid of the ark and the trouble it was causing.

3. They put golden tumors and gold rats in the ark as a trespass offering (apology) for taking the ark. They built a new cart for the ark and put the cart on two milk cows that had never been yoked. Sending it on its way, they watched to see that it went toward the land of the Israelites.

4. The ark came to Beth Shemesh. People looked inside and saw the tumors and rats. The cart was cut for firewood and cows sacrificed as burnt offerings to the Lord, along with the golden tumors and rats. 70 men died looking into the ark.

5. The ark was taken to Abinadab's house where Eleazar, his son, was consecrated to watch over it. It remained there for many years.

6. Samuel told the Israelites to repent from their idolatry and evil ways. They did so, serving the Lord only. God then gave them victory over the Philistines.

Year 2

Week 68 God Gives His People a King

Scriptures: I Samuel 8, 9, 10

Key Verse: I Samuel 10:19 'But you have now rejected your God, who saves you out of all your calamities and distresses. And you have said "No, set us a king over us." So now present yourselves by your tribes and clans.'

Key Points:

1. When Samuel grew old he appointed his sons, Joel and Abijah, as judges. They did not walk with God, they were unruly and dishonest. Because of this, the elders of Israel begged for a king. They wanted a king as all the other nations had. This displeased Samuel, thinking they were rejecting him, but God told him it was HIM they were rejecting.

2. Samuel made it clear to the people what would happen if they had a king. (go over ch. 8:10-17) The people refused to listen. He went to the Lord and He told Samuel to let them have their way, give them a king.

3. A Benjamite man, named Kish, was an upstanding man. He had a son, Saul, an impressive man who stood head and shoulders taller than any others. His father sent him and his servants to search for some lost donkeys. They traveled a long way, searching. Fearing his father would be worried about them, Saul decided to return home but did not know which way to go. Hearing a man of God was in town, they went to Samuel for advice.

4. God had told Samuel he would send a man from the town of Benjamin, a few days before. Saul came to Samuel. As he sees him, he knows this is the man God had been talking about. He took him to a hall and gave him the seat of honor where about 30 were seated. He gave him meat to eat and Saul dined with Samuel.

5. They left the hall and walked down the edge of town. Samuel sent his servants on so he could give Saul a message from God. He took a flask of oil and poured it on Saul's head, kissed him, anointing him as king. Saul was 30 years old.

6. Samuel told Saul all that would happen to him. God would change his heart and His Spirit would come to Saul in power, in prophesying, that he would be a different person. He told him when these things were fulfilled, he was to do whatever his hand found to do, for God would be with him.

7. Samuel gathered all the people of Israel together. He told them God had brought them out of Egypt and delivered them but they had rejected Him as their God. They had asked for a king so God was going to deliver one. Samuel had the tribes of Israel to present themselves. He called out the tribe of Benjamin. Then Saul, son of Kish was chosen. When they called him, he was not to be found. He was hiding in the baggage. They ran and brought him out and when he stood up, he was head and shoulders taller. The people shouted, "Long live the king!" There were some men who were troublemakers who despised Saul, they brought him no gifts but Saul kept silent.

8. God knew a king would not be good for Israel but they would not listen. We should be willing to read God's word and listen to what he has for us to do.

Saul was anointed by Samuel and became the first king of the Hebrews.

A King for Israel:

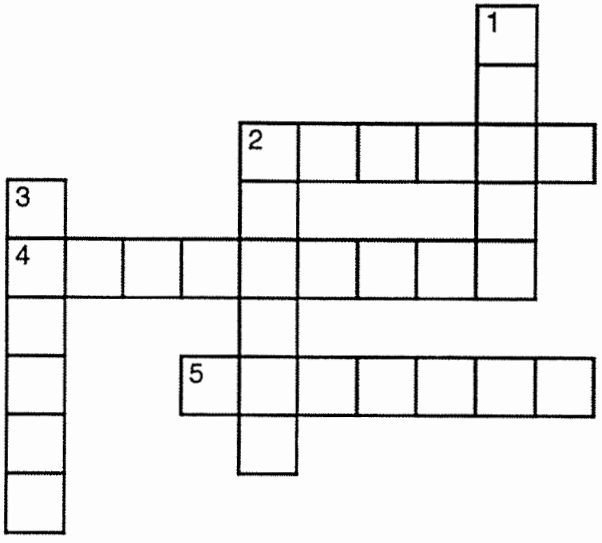

The people of God wanted a king. God had always told them that they were special and that He was their King. But they insisted on having a human king like all the other nations. After being warned, God allowed them to have Saul as their first king. Many of the kings who came after Saul were evil and led the people away from God. The Israelites wanted something that was not good for them – they should have listened to God!

Follow the trail of crowns to get to King Saul – the first one is dark to show where to begin.

Year 2

Week 69 Saul Disobeys God

Scriptures: I Samuel 13

Key Verse: I Samuel 13:13 You have done foolishly. You have not kept the commandment of the Lord your God, which He commanded you. For now the Lord would have established your kingdom over Israel forever.

Key Points:

1. Shortly after Saul was anointed king, Israelites were challenged by the Ammonites. Saul proclaims that anyone who does not follow Samuel or Saul would be destroyed. Saul mustered his armies and defeated them. This made the people happy with Saul and he was confirmed as king among the people. They had a great celebration. This time, Saul made good choices and was a good king.

2. At another time, Saul chose 3000 men. 2000 were with him, 1000 with his son Jonathan at Gibeah. Jonathan attacked the Philistine outpost. Saul had the trumpet blown throughout the land, bragging about the attack. This made the Philistines mad. They assembled 30,000 men to fight Israel. Saul's troops came together at Gilgal with him. Samuel had told him to go there and wait 7 days for him to come (ch. 10:8). They knew they were severely outnumbered and hid in caves and thickets.

3. They waited seven days. When Samuel hadn't come, Saul's men began to scatter. So Saul had burnt offerings made. Just as he finished the offerings, Samuel arrived. Samuel told him he had acted foolishly by not waiting for him as he had been told.

4. Samuel told Saul his kingdom would not endure because he had not kept God's commands. God was looking for a man after his own heart to lead the people.

5. Saul's men counted about 600. They had no spears or swords to fight with for the Philistines had done away with the blacksmiths, only Saul and Jonathan had had them. The Philistines took advantage of Israel's fear and lack of weapons. They plundered the Israelite territory. God was not with Israel for Saul had not obeyed.

Craft/Activity: Altars

Students will make altars to remind them that King Saul offered a sacrifice to seek God's favor in light of the troubles he faced with the Philistines.

Materials

1. 67 Lb. White Cardstock
2. Altar Pattern
3. Crayons, Markers, or Colored Pencils
4. Scissors
5. Tape
6. Glue
7. Red, Orange, and Yellow Tissue Paper

Directions

1. Make a copy of the "Altar" pattern onto 67 lb. cardstock for each student.
2. Have students color the stones with crayons, markers, or colored pencils.
3. Instruct students to cut out the altar on all the straight solid black lines (including the small ones between stones.
4. Have students fold on the dotted lines.
5. Help students glue or tape the tab that says "GLUE" to assemble the altar. The top "stones" need to be glued together as well.
6. Allow students to cut strips of red, orange, and yellow tissue paper to make flames.
7. Tape or glue the flames to the top of the altar.

For Discussion

As students are coloring their altars, remind them that King Saul was acting alone when he offered a sacrifice to the Lord. Samuel was the one who was to offer sacrifices to the Lord before the Israelites went to battle (1 Samuel 10:8). Because of Saul's disobedience and disregard for the Lord's prophet Samuel, King Saul would not pass on the throne to his sons. Saul was not supposed to reign independently of the law and the prophets. Help students realize that, as the memory verse states, the Lord would rather hear the prayer of the righteous than to receive sacrifices from them.

JONATHAN'S FIGHT & SAUL'S OATH

"And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were an half acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow." 1 SAMUEL 14:14

"But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in an honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened." 1 SAMUEL 14:27

SAUL DISOBEYS THE LORD / JONATHAN'S DARING DEED

File no. 54

King Saul, his son Jonathan and their armies went out to fight the Philistines.

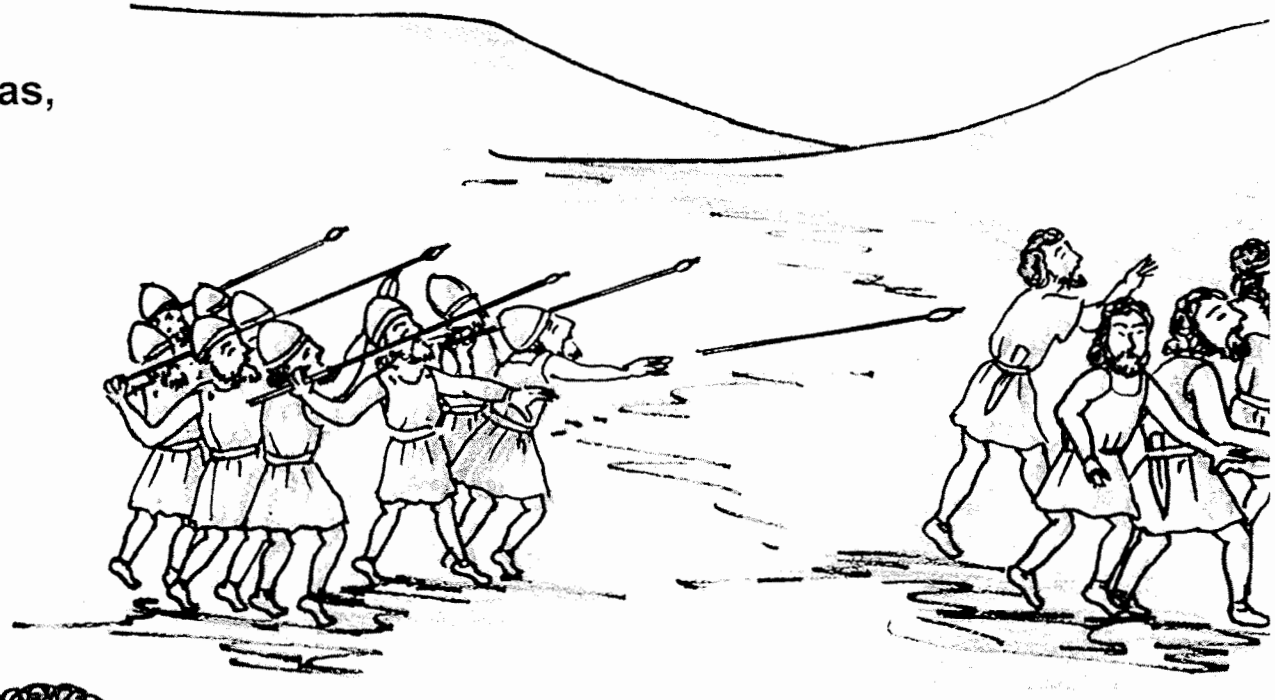

Jonathan and his soldiers attacked and defeated the Philistines at Geba.

This made the Philistines angry. They called for more soldiers and soon there was a huge army ready to fight back.

When King Saul's men saw how big the Philistine's army was, they were afraid.
Some of them ran away.

Saul was waiting at Gilgal for Samuel to come.
Samuel was to offer a sacrifice to the Lord and ask for God's help.

Seven days went by.
Samuel had not come and Saul could not wait any longer.
He disobeyed God and offered the sacrifice, which only the priest was to do.

Just as he was finishing Samuel came.

Samuel asked,
'What have you done?'

Saul replied,
'You did not come,
so I offered the sacrifice.'

'You have been very foolish to disobey God,' Samuel said.
'God will find someone else whom He can trust and will make him king over His people forever.

While this was happening
Jonathan said to his armour bearer,
'Let us go over to the Philistine camp.
Perhaps the Lord will help us.
He can work with many or few.

'If the Philistines see us and say,
"Stay there until we come to you," we will stay.

'If they say, "Come up here",
we will go to them.
This will be the sign that God will fight for us.'

The Philistines saw Jonathan and called out,
'Come up here.'

'Come on!'
said Jonathan.
'That means God will fight for us.'

They climbed the cliff and killed about twenty Philistines.

Then God sent an earthquake to help Jonathan.

Someone from Saul's camp looked out and saw fighting among the Philistines.
Saul also looked and wondered who was fighting the Philistines.

It was Jonathan and his armour-bearer.
God was helping them.

The noise from the Philistines grew louder and louder.

Saul couldn't wait to ask the Lord what he should do.

He took his men into the battle.

The Philistines were confused.
Some began fighting each other and others ran away.

God saved Israel that day.

Week 70 Saul Loses his Crown

Scriptures: I Samuel 15

Key Verse: I Samuel 15:22 "...to obey is better than sacrifice and to heed than the fat of lambs."

Key Points:

1. Samuel came to Saul and tells him he is to completely destroy the Amalekites. Nothing was to be spared, all people, animals and possessions were to be destroyed. So Saul gathered all the people together and laid wait in the valley.

2. Saul attacked and destroyed the Amalekite nation but saved King Agag, their king. He also spared the best of the sheep, oxen, lambs, and fatlings. All that was good he spared, but destroyed all that was worthless.

3. God spoke to Samuel and told him he was grieved that he had set up Saul as king. Samuel then went to Saul. Saul was proud of himself but Samuel asked him about the bleating of the sheep that he heard. Saul still insisted he had obeyed the word of the Lord and had kept the animals to sacrifice. Samuel told him to be quiet and listen to what the Lord had told him. Saul then admitted to his sin and asked Samuel to forgive him and go back with him to worship the Lord.

4. Samuel refused to go with him. He had rejected the Lord and now the Lord was rejecting him as king.(fulfills prophecy Samuel makes in ch. 12 & 13). Then Saul reached out for him as he turned to leave. He caught hold of the hem of Samuel's robe and it tore. Samuel said to him that this was just like the lord "tearing" the kingdom of Israel from him. Saul asked again that Samuel worship with him so he did.

5. Samuel then killed King Agag as God had commanded. Saul went to his home. Samuel never saw Saul again but mourned for him. The Lord grieved he had ever made him king. God did not tolerate Saul's disobedience and expected him to follow the whole law, not just the parts he wanted to. Obeying is better than the sacrifice.

Week 71

God Chooses A New King

Scriptures: 1 Samuel 16

Key Verse: 1 Samuel 16:1 "Now the Lord said to Samuel, 'How long will you mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go; I am sending you to Jesse the Bethlehemite. For I have provided Myself a king among his sons.'"

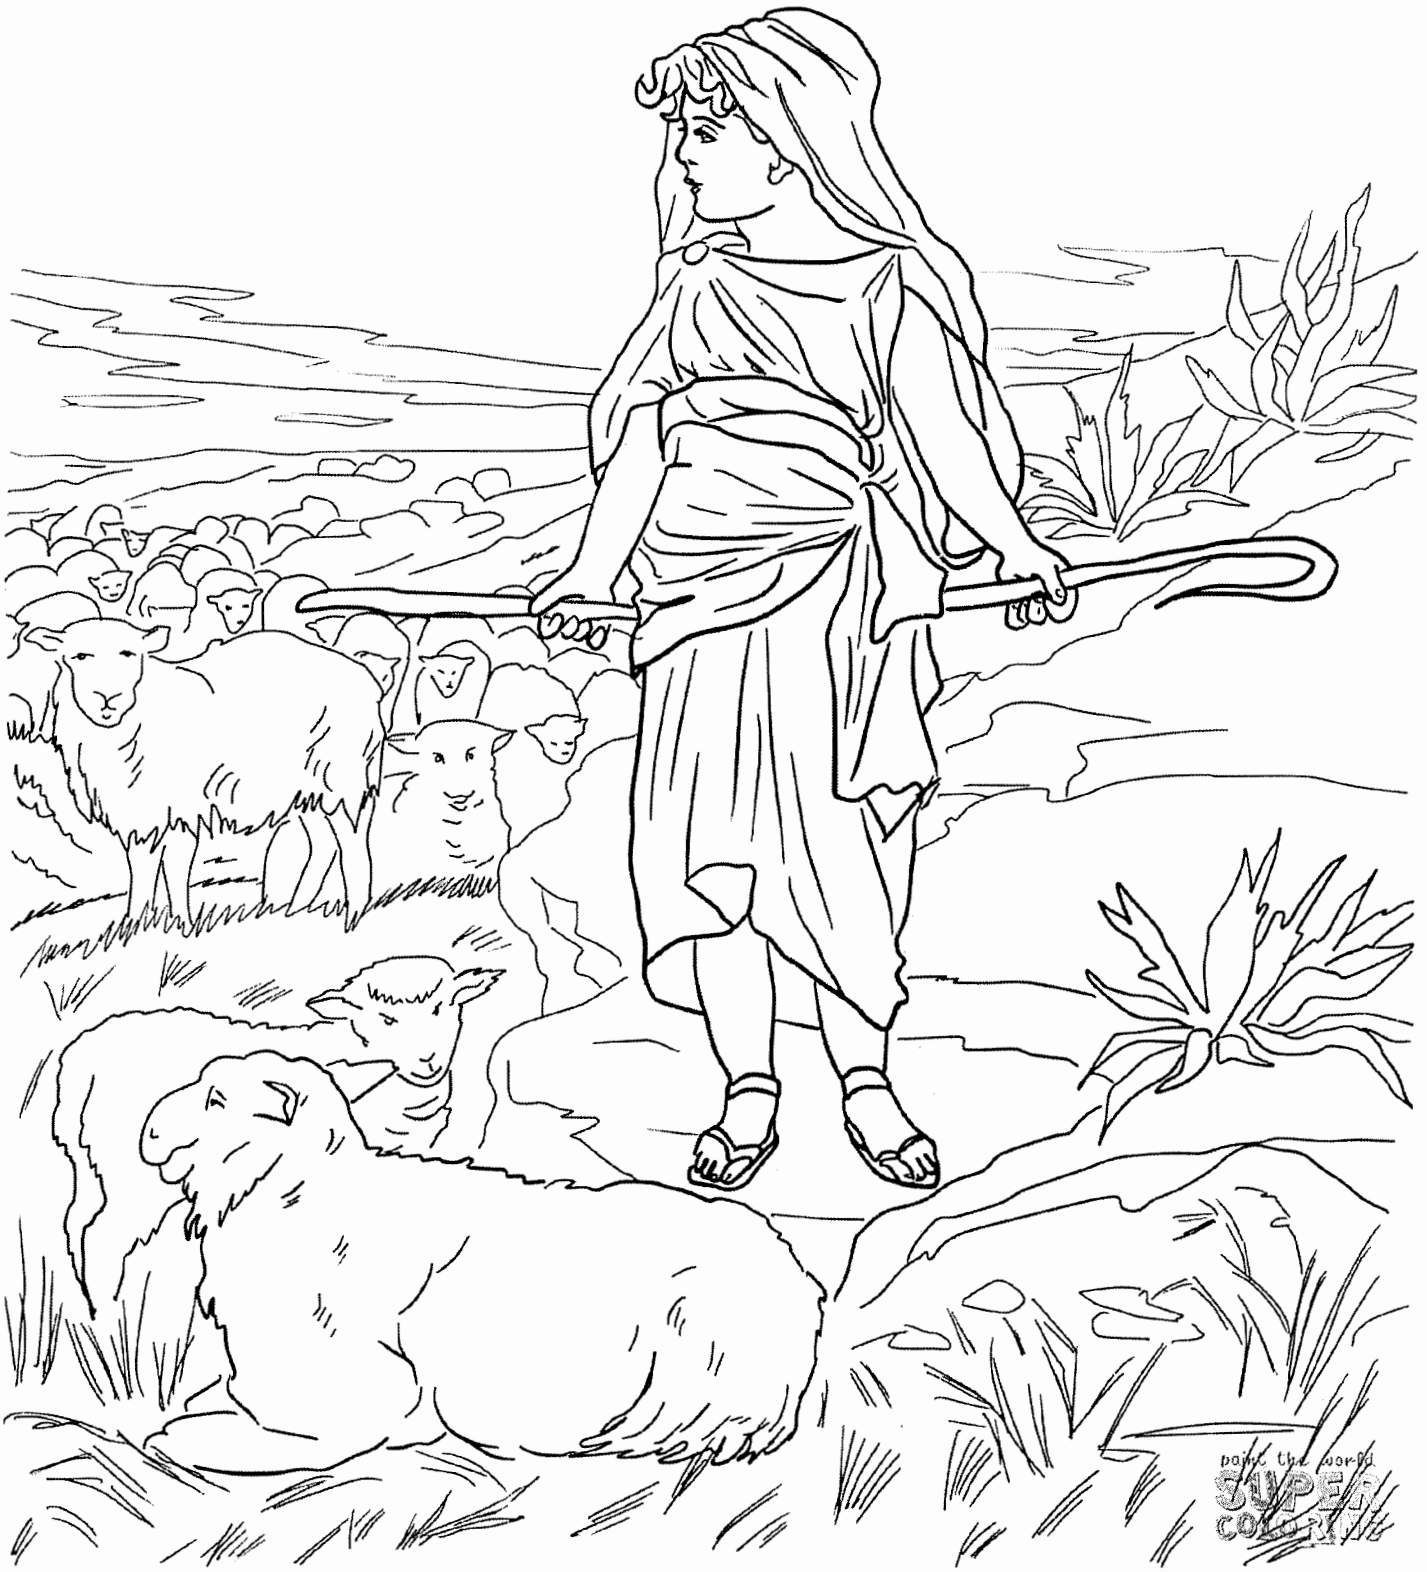

Key Points:

1. Saul, the first king of Israel had been rejected by God. God told the prophet, Samuel, to fill his horn with oil, travel to Bethlehem, and anoint one of Jesse's eight sons, whom God would select.

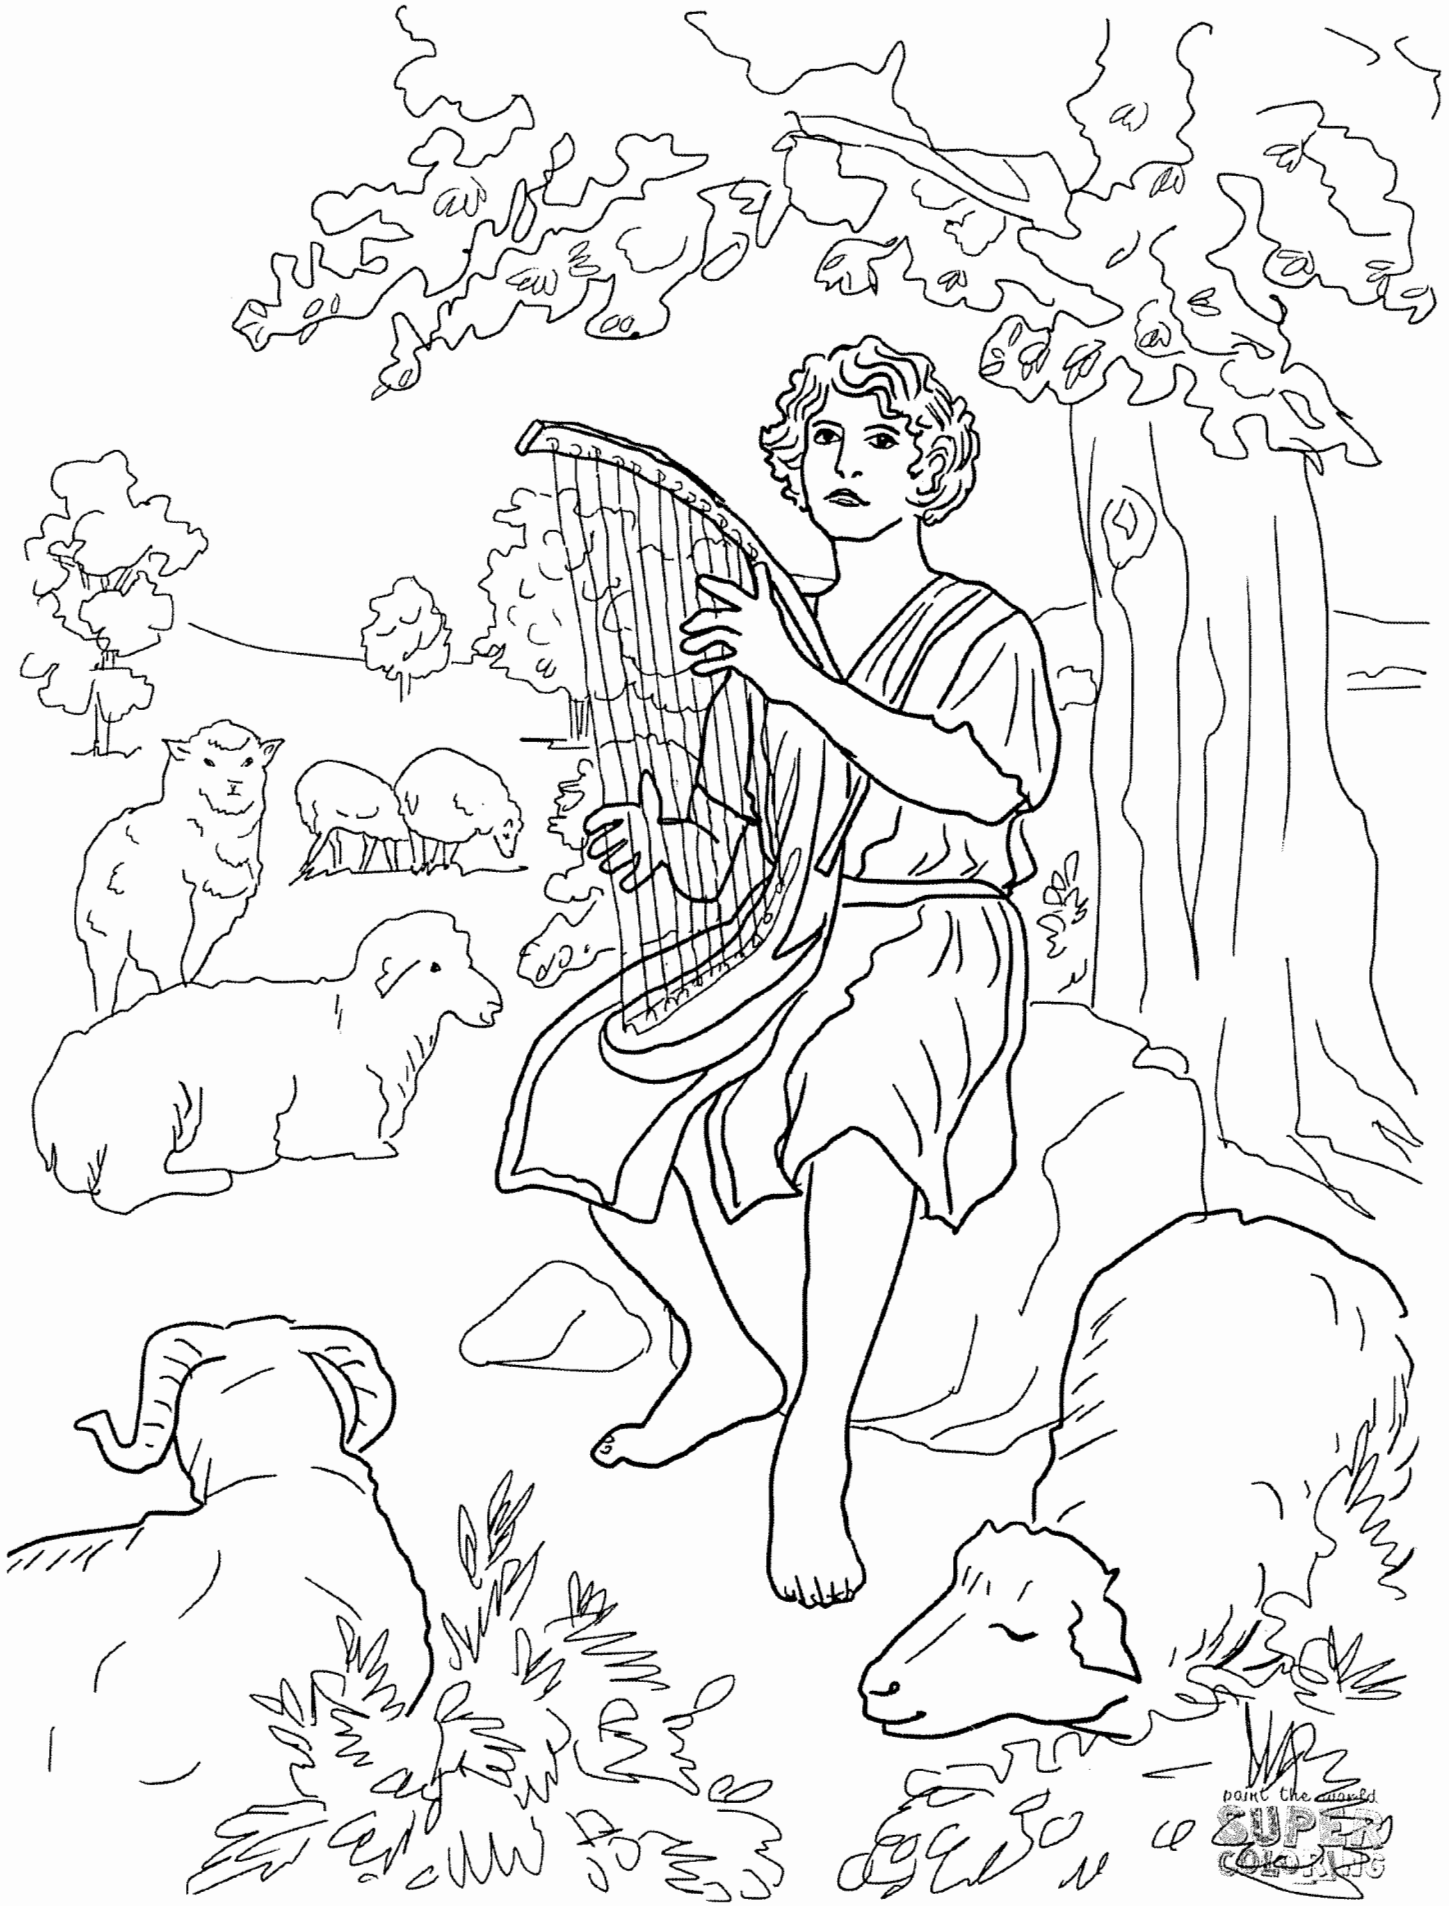

2. Samuel obeyed and met with Jesse and his 7 older sons at a sacrifice to God. All 7 of the older sons passed by Samuel, but God did not choose any of them. God told Samuel that man looked on the outward appearance, but God looked on the heart.

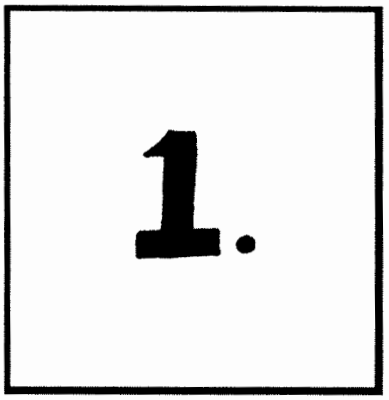

3. Jesse told Samuel that the youngest son was out tending the sheep. David was quickly brought in before Samuel. He was healthy, strong, and good-looking. God said, "Arise, anoint him for this is the one." David's heart (mind/will) was superior in God's sight (see Acts 13:22).

4. Samuel poured the oil out on David's head in the presence of his father and all 7 of his brothers. The Spirit of the Lord came upon David from that day forward. Anointing was pouring of fine oil on the head and letting it flow down on the body. God's royal blessings flowed down on David and covered him while he reigned as king of Judah and then all of Israel.

LESSON 1

DAVID ANOINTED KING

I Sam. 16

INTRODUCTION. Because Saul disobeyed God in his expedition against the Amalekites by sparing Agag, the king, and the best of the animals, the Lord rejected him as king over Israel. Saul and Samuel each went to their own homes after the battle, and Samuel went to see Saul no more in his lifetime.

The Lord told Samuel to mourn no longer for Saul but to go on a secret mission to Bethlehem. There He instructed Samuel to anoint David, the youngest son of Jesse of the tribe of Judah, as the next king of Israel. Although God "rent" the kingdom from Saul, David did not actually become king until after Saul's death.

David and Goliath

Scriptures: 1 Samuel 17

Key Verse: 1 Samuel 17:37 "Moreover David said, 'The Lord, who delivered me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, He will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine.' And Saul said to David, 'Go and the Lord be with you.'"

Key Points:

1. A giant Philistine named Goliath challenged God and the Israelite army for 40 days morning and evening to send a man to fight with him. Goliath was a trained warrior and a huge opponent at over 9 feet tall (describe his shield, spear, and armor, etc.). His challenge was for the losing nation to serve the winning nation.

2. David, a young man was taking provisions to his 3 older brothers. He overheard Goliath's taunts and saw the fearful reactions of the Israelite army. David understood this wasn't a battle of might but of right. He knew God would deliver Goliath into his hand because Goliath challenged even God.

3. David selected 5 smooth stones from the brook and placed them in his shepherd's bag. He also took his sling and got closer to Goliath as he thundered his taunt. David, confident in his Father in heaven hurried and slung the first stone at Goliath.

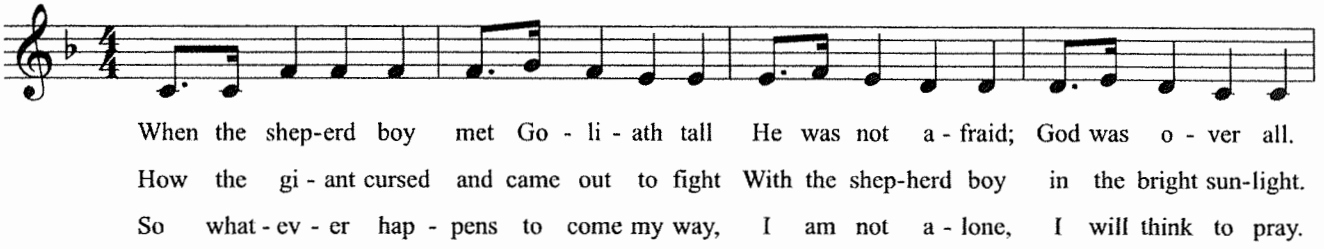

4. The stone sank into Goliath's forehead and killed him causing all the Philistines to run away in defeat.

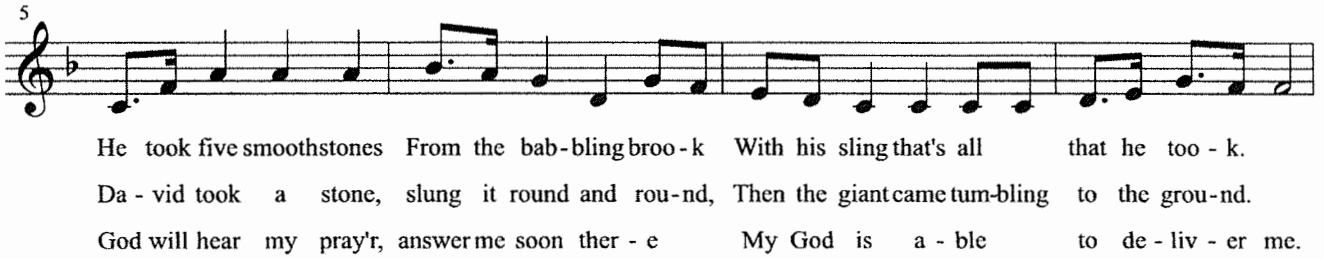

5. David was brought before King Saul after the slaughter of the Philistine army. He held the head of Goliath in his hand.

1 SAMUEL 17:45

1. Free Play

- arrange the cards into piles (you can add coloured backgrounds to make it easier for the children to sort the words into nouns, verbs, etc).

- allow the children to create their own sentences using the cards.

- If you pre-sort the cards for them it makes it simpler. You may not want to provide them with all the sets at once. Here are some set ideas.

    - three piles: helpers, nouns and emotions
      Example sentence: The boy was happy.

    - four piles: helpers, nouns, verbs and nouns
      Example sentence: The boy ate the apple.

    - five piles: helpers, nouns, verbs, colors and nouns.
      Example sentence: The boy ate a red apple.

    - six piles: helpers, emotions, nouns, verbs, colors and nouns.
      Example sentence: The happy boy ate a red apple.

- Get silly! It's fun to create silly sentences (like "The angry boy ate a green monster.") Encouraging the children to create silly sentences can help keep them involved and motivated in this activity.

- ADDITIONAL ACTIVITY: Have the child spend some time creating their favorite sentence.
    - Once the sentence is completed, encourage them to write (or dictate, depending on their skill level) a short story to go with the sentence.
    - With young children, 3 sentences is a great story length. It helps reinforce the fact that a story has a BEGINNING, a MIDDLE and an END.
    - Let them illustrate their story (draw pictures).
    - Talk about the roles of the author and the illustrator of a story.

2. Memory (Guided) Play

- In this activity, we'll use sight (showing), sound (reading) and repetition (memory) to reinforce sentence structure.

- arrange the cards into piles (the verbs have a colored background to make it a tad easier for the kids to sort things) If you pre-sort the cards for them it makes it simpler. You may not want to provide them with all the sets at once. Here are some set ideas.

    - three piles: helpers, nouns and emotions
      Example sentence: The boy was happy.

    - four piles: helpers, nouns, verbs and nouns
      Example sentence: The boy ate the apple.

    - five piles: helpers, nouns, verbs, colors and nouns.
      Example sentence: The boy ate a red apple.

    - six piles: helpers, emotions, nouns, verbs, colors and nouns.
      Example sentence: The happy boy ate a red apple.

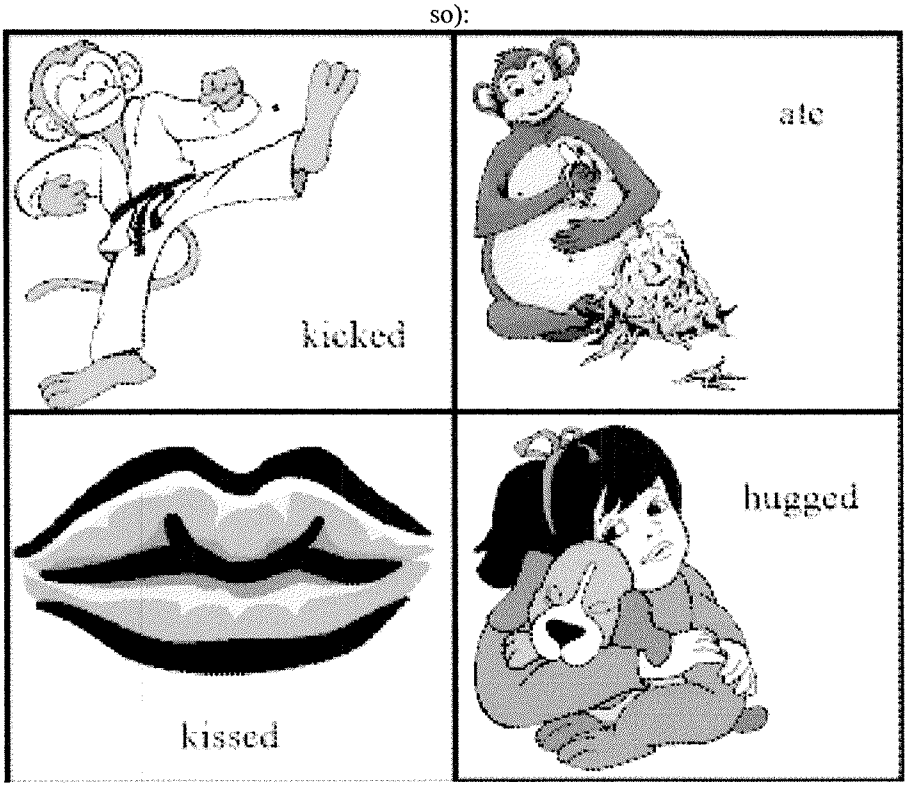

- Create a sentence, show it to the child and read it aloud twice.

- Now put one of the cards back in the appropriate (noun, verb, emotion, color) pile

(you may want to mix up the pile and then set some or all the pile out so the child can see their options, like so):

Now have the child chose the correct card from memory to replicate the sentence you showed them.

- When the child has mastered replacing a single card, try removing two of the cards (maybe kissed and dinosaur in our example above). Then remove three, etc. Progressively make the sentences longer until they are successfully replicating complex sentences -- For example, "The happy dinosaur and the green monster ate a red apple."

- Eventually you can move away from showing them the sentence. You can just READ the sentence to them and have them replicate it.

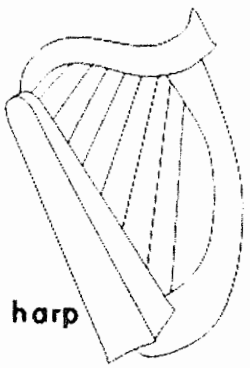

- Don't forget to throw in some silly sentences to keep the children's energy level up!

Week 73

Saul Tries To Kill David

Scriptures: 1 Samuel 18 and 19

Key Verse: 1 Samuel 18:12 "Now Saul was afraid of David because the Lord was with him, but had departed from Saul."

Key Points:

1. The ladies of Israel sang and danced to celebrate David's great victory over the Philistines. Saul was prideful and fearful and plotted to kill David or place him in harm's way. Saul was jealous.

2. But, David played his harp faithfully to soothe Saul when a "distressing spirit" came upon Saul. This spirit of trouble was sent from God after God's Spirit left Saul (see 1 Samuel 16: 14-16). As he was playing, Saul cast his spear at David. This happened twice with David escaping both times. Saul knew that the Lord was with David.

3. Saul promoted David to command 1,000 soldiers hoping he would be killed in battle. The Israelite people loved David and God prospered David in all that he did.

4. Saul went so far with his evil plans as to try to have his servants and son and daughter harm David. Jonathan, Saul's son, was a dear and beloved friend to David who reminded his father not to sin against David who had defeated the Philistine army.

5. Once again, Saul hurled his spear at David while he played his harp. Michal, Saul's daughter and David's wife, helped David escape through a window. David sought safety with Samuel the prophet in Ramah. Instead of capturing David when Saul and his servants went to Ramah, they prophesied and praised God.

And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him. 1Samuel 16:23

DAVID

A GOOD FRIEND

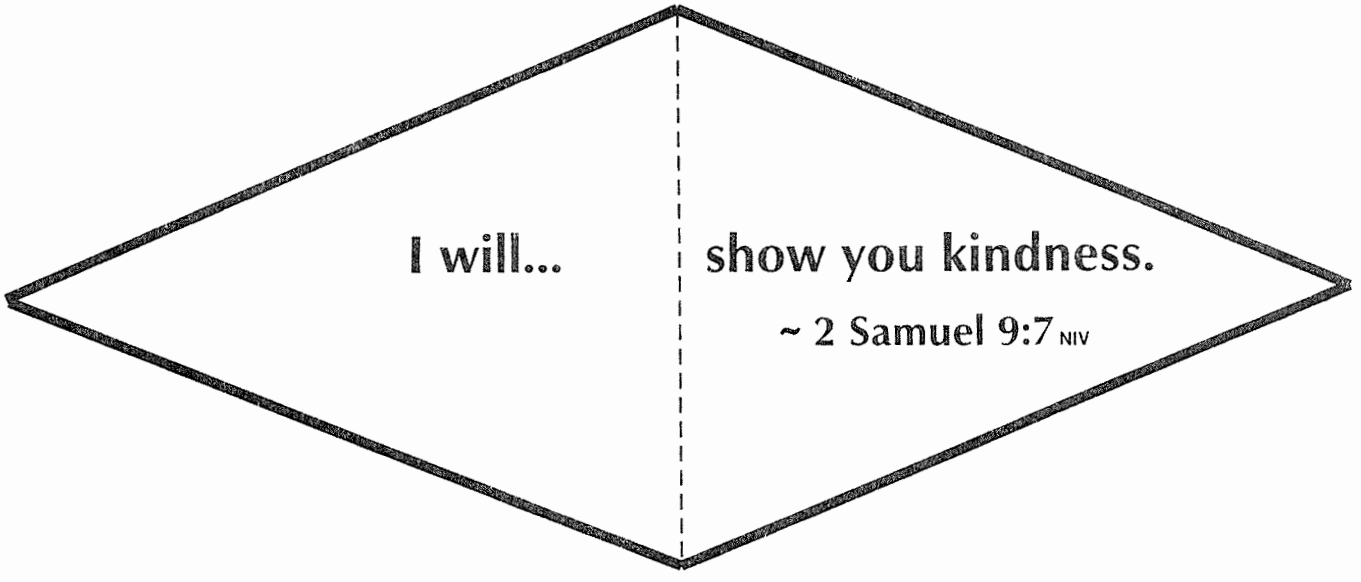

MEMORY VERSE

I will...show you kindness. ~ 2 Samuel 9:7 NIV

1 Samuel 23:16-18; 2 Samuel 9

INTRODUCTION David and Jonathan were good friends. They promised each other they would be friends forever. Once when David was going through a hard time, Jonathan made him feel better. Even after Jonathan died, David wanted to show love to his friend. So he found one of Jonathan's sons and showed kindness to him instead.

A CLAY FOREVER HEART Do you have a special friend? With the dough your teacher gives you, shape a heart. With the eraser of your pencil, push a hole up through the heart. Carefully take the heart off the pencil and lay it on wax paper to dry. After you make the flag below, stand it in the dried heart. Give the heart to your special friend and promise to be kind to him or her forever.

FOR THE TEACHER This craft will take several days to dry. Duplicate a pencil flag for each child. Provide a pencil for each child. Mix 2 cups of flour, 1 cup of salt and ½ cup of water (one batch of dough makes 15 hearts). Give a dough ball to each child and assist in shaping hearts. After the hearts harden, assist in gluing them to the pencil erasers. Discuss what a friend is and how the children can be good friends. Allow each child to tell you something special about one of his or her friends. Share something special about your best friend, Jesus, too.

DAVID AND JONATHAN

I Sam. 18:1-9; 20

INTRODUCTION. When David appeared before Saul after he had killed the giant, Saul's son Jonathan was present. This meeting between David and Jonathan was the beginning of a friendship that lasted as long as they both lived. The two young men made their first covenant, and Jonathan gave David his robe, sword, bow, and belt to seal the agreement (I Sam. 18:1-4).

David behaved himself wisely, and Saul set him over the men of war. Saul's servants and the people accepted David and were pleased. When Saul and David returned from the battle with the Philistines, the women came out of the cities singing and dancing to meet the king. They sang to one another, "Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands." The saying displeased Saul for the women credited David with ten thousands and himself with only thousands. He feared David would replace him as king, and from that day forward Saul eyed David jealously. The next day when an evil spirit came upon Saul, David played for him as at other times. Saul cast his javelin at David, but David escaped his presence twice. Saul then demoted David to captain over a thousand men, but the Lord was with David and the people of Israel and Judah loved him (I Sam. 18:5-16).

Saul had promised to reward the slayer of Goliath by giving him one of his daughters as his wife. However, when he became jealous of David, he broke his promise and gave his elder daughter Merab to another man. Nevertheless, his honor forced him to offer his younger daughter Michal, but he required David to kill one hundred Philistines as a dowry. He hoped that David would be killed by the Philistines, but instead David killed two hundred Philistines. Saul was forced to keep his promise then and gave Michal to David. Saul knew then that the Lord was with David, and he became more afraid of David (I Sam. 18:17-30).

Saul told Jonathan and his servants to kill David. Jonathan warned David and told him to hide in a secret place until morning. He then formed a plan to speak to his father in the morning in the field where David was hiding. He told his father not to sin against David, for David had not sinned against him. Saul listened to his son and swore David should not be killed. Jonathan then called David from his hiding place and told him all his father had said. So Jonathan brought David back to Saul, and he was in his presence as before (I Sam. 19:1-7).

At a later time as David played his harp, an evil spirit came upon Saul, and he again attempted to smite David with his spear. David managed to escape, but Saul sent messengers to watch David's house and kill him in the morning. Michal loved David and helped him to escape by letting him down through the window. David then fled to Samuel who was in Ramah (I Sam. 19:8-18).

A. THE FIRST COVENANT

1. When David and Jonathan met for the first time, Jonathan _____ him as his own soul. (I Sam. 18:1)

2. Jonathan and David made a covenant, and to seal the agreement what did Jonathan give to David? (I Sam. 18:3-4)

3. David behaved _____, and Saul set him over the men of war. (I Sam. 18:5)

4. When they returned from the battle with the Philistines, the women danced and sang: (I Sam. 18:6-7)

   Saul hath slain his _____ and David his _____

5. The saying displeased Saul, and he _____ David from that day forward. (I Sam. 18:8-9)

B. THE SECOND COVENANT. Sometime after Michal helped David escape from Saul, David met with Jonathan and asked him why his father sought to kill him. Jonathan did not believe his father would kill David but promised to learn the truth. Again, for the second time, the two devised a plan to determine Saul's intentions. The next day, the new moon, David was expected to eat with the king, but instead he would hide in the field. If Saul missed David, Jonathan would tell him David had gone to Bethlehem for a yearly sacrifice with his family. If Saul accepted this explanation, then David would be safe. But if Saul would become angry, then they would know that Saul determined evil against David.

The two young men then made a covenant for the second time. Jonathan asked that David not only show kindness to him while he still lived, but also to his descendants forever. David kept this covenant, proving his loyalty, for many years later when he was king and Jonathan was dead, he showed kindness to Jonathan's son (I Sam. 20; II Sam. 9).

1. Jonathan said David would be missed at the new moon feast, and he should come and hide by the stone Ezel after: (I Sam. 20:18-19)

Saul Tries To Kill David Again

Scriptures: 1 Samuel 21 (verses 1-6) and 1 Samuel 23 and 24

Key Verse: 1 Samuel 24:11 "Moreover my father, see! Yes, see the corner of your robe in my hand! For in that I cut off the corner of your robe, and did not kill you, know and see that there is neither evil nor rebellion in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, yet you hunt my life to take it."

Key Points:

1. Saul continued to wage a war campaign against David and the men who had joined him in support as Saul pursued them daily. As David was fleeing from Saul, he went to the tabernacle to ask the priest, Ahimelech, for provisions. The showbread (which was replaced weekly) had just been replaced with hot bread. Ahimelech gave David the 12 older loaves since there was no other bread or food there. Ahimelech also gave David the huge sword of Goliath's. Saul later killed all the priests (except one who escaped) because of Ahimelech's kindness to David.

2. David took to the forests and mountainous wildernesses to escape Saul's grasp. Once, while David and his men hid in the recesses of a cave, Saul entered the cave, unaware of their presence. Even though one of David's men encouraged David to kill Saul, David would not "raise his hand against God's anointed." David merely cut off the corner of Saul's royal robe.

3. David's pure heart made him feel sorry for even cutting off the robe corner. He called out to Saul at a distance to tell him even though he had the opportunity, he would not kill him. He promised Saul not to cut-off his descendants (kill them).

David Spares Saul
1 Samuel 26

David Is Trustworthy

David hid in the desert because Saul was trying to kill him. But David had done nothing bad to Saul, and he wanted to be friends with Saul again.

At night, Saul slept right in the middle of the army camp. His men were all around him to protect him. One night, David and his friend Abishai walked right past all the sleeping soldiers—right up to King Saul! "This is your chance," said Abishai, "let me kill him."

Cross out all the B's, E's, F's, and G's. Put the leftover letters on the spaces to find out what David said to Abishai.

Answer the following question in your own words:

Saul was impressed that David had chosen to do good to someone who had been mean towards him. God wants us to do what is right, even to people who are hateful to us. Think about how Saul changed after David did what was right. How do you think our actions affect others? If we are hateful to someone, how might that affect them? What if we are kind to someone who is hateful to us?

LESSON 4

DAVID FINDS SAUL IN A CAVE

I Sam. 24

INTRODUCTION. After David and Jonathan made their second covenant, David became a fugitive and outlaw, running from Saul for most of the remainder of Saul's life. David first fled to Nob, a town in the territory of Benjamin called, "the city of the priests" (I Sam. 22:19). There the priest Ahimelech gave him some provisions and Goliath's sword, for David was unarmed and without any weapons (I Sam. 21:1-9).

David next went to Achish, the king of the Philistine city of Gath, but he was not welcome there among the Philistines (I Sam. 21:10-15). He escaped then to the cave of Adullam, a large cave in the lowlands of Judah. His father's family joined him there as well as a fighting force of 400 men who were discontented, distressed, and in debt. David removed his family to Moab for safety, then returned to Judah at the advice of the prophet Gad (I Sam. 22:1-5).

Meanwhile an Edomite named Doeg informed Saul that the priest Ahimelech had aided David. Saul called for Ahimelech and all the priests at Nob and commanded his servants to slay them. The servants of the king refused to strike the priests of the Lord, so Saul told Doeg, the Edomite, to kill them. Doeg killed eighty-five priests that day then attacked Nob, killing all in the city. Abiathar, one of the sons of Ahimelech, managed to escape and fled to David (I Sam. 22:6-23).

As David moved from place to place constantly trying to elude Saul and his men, his force of followers increased to 600. David and his 600 men next delivered the city of Keilah, located in the southern lowlands of Judah, from an attack by the Philistines. When Saul heard that David was in Keilah, he sent his army to besiege the city and trap David. However, David was warned by God, and he and his men fled to the wilderness of Ziph. It was at this time while David was in the hill country of Judah in the wilderness of Ziph that Jonathan came to him, and they renewed their covenant for the third time (I Sam. 23:1-18).

After a while the Ziphites betrayed David to Saul, so David and his men moved a little farther south in the wilderness. Saul continued to seek David, but receiving a message that the Philistines were invading his territory, he left his pursuit of David and turned against the Philistines (I Sam. 23:19-29).

David then went to Engedi at the edge of the wilderness on the western shore of the Dead Sea. This was an oasis watered by a hot spring that gushed forth hundreds of feet above the base of a large cliff, and the rocky gorges in the area offered many hideouts. When Saul returned from his encounters with the Philistines, he continued his pursuit of David with 3000 men. Saul went into one of the many caves in the area to rest unaware that David and his men were in the innermost part of the same cave (I Sam. 24).

Saul Visits The Witch Of En Dor

Scriptures: 1 Samuel 28 and 1 Samuel 31

Key Verse: 1 Samuel 28:7 "Then Saul said to his servants, 'Find me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her.' And his servants said to him, 'In fact, there is a woman who is a medium at En Dor.'"

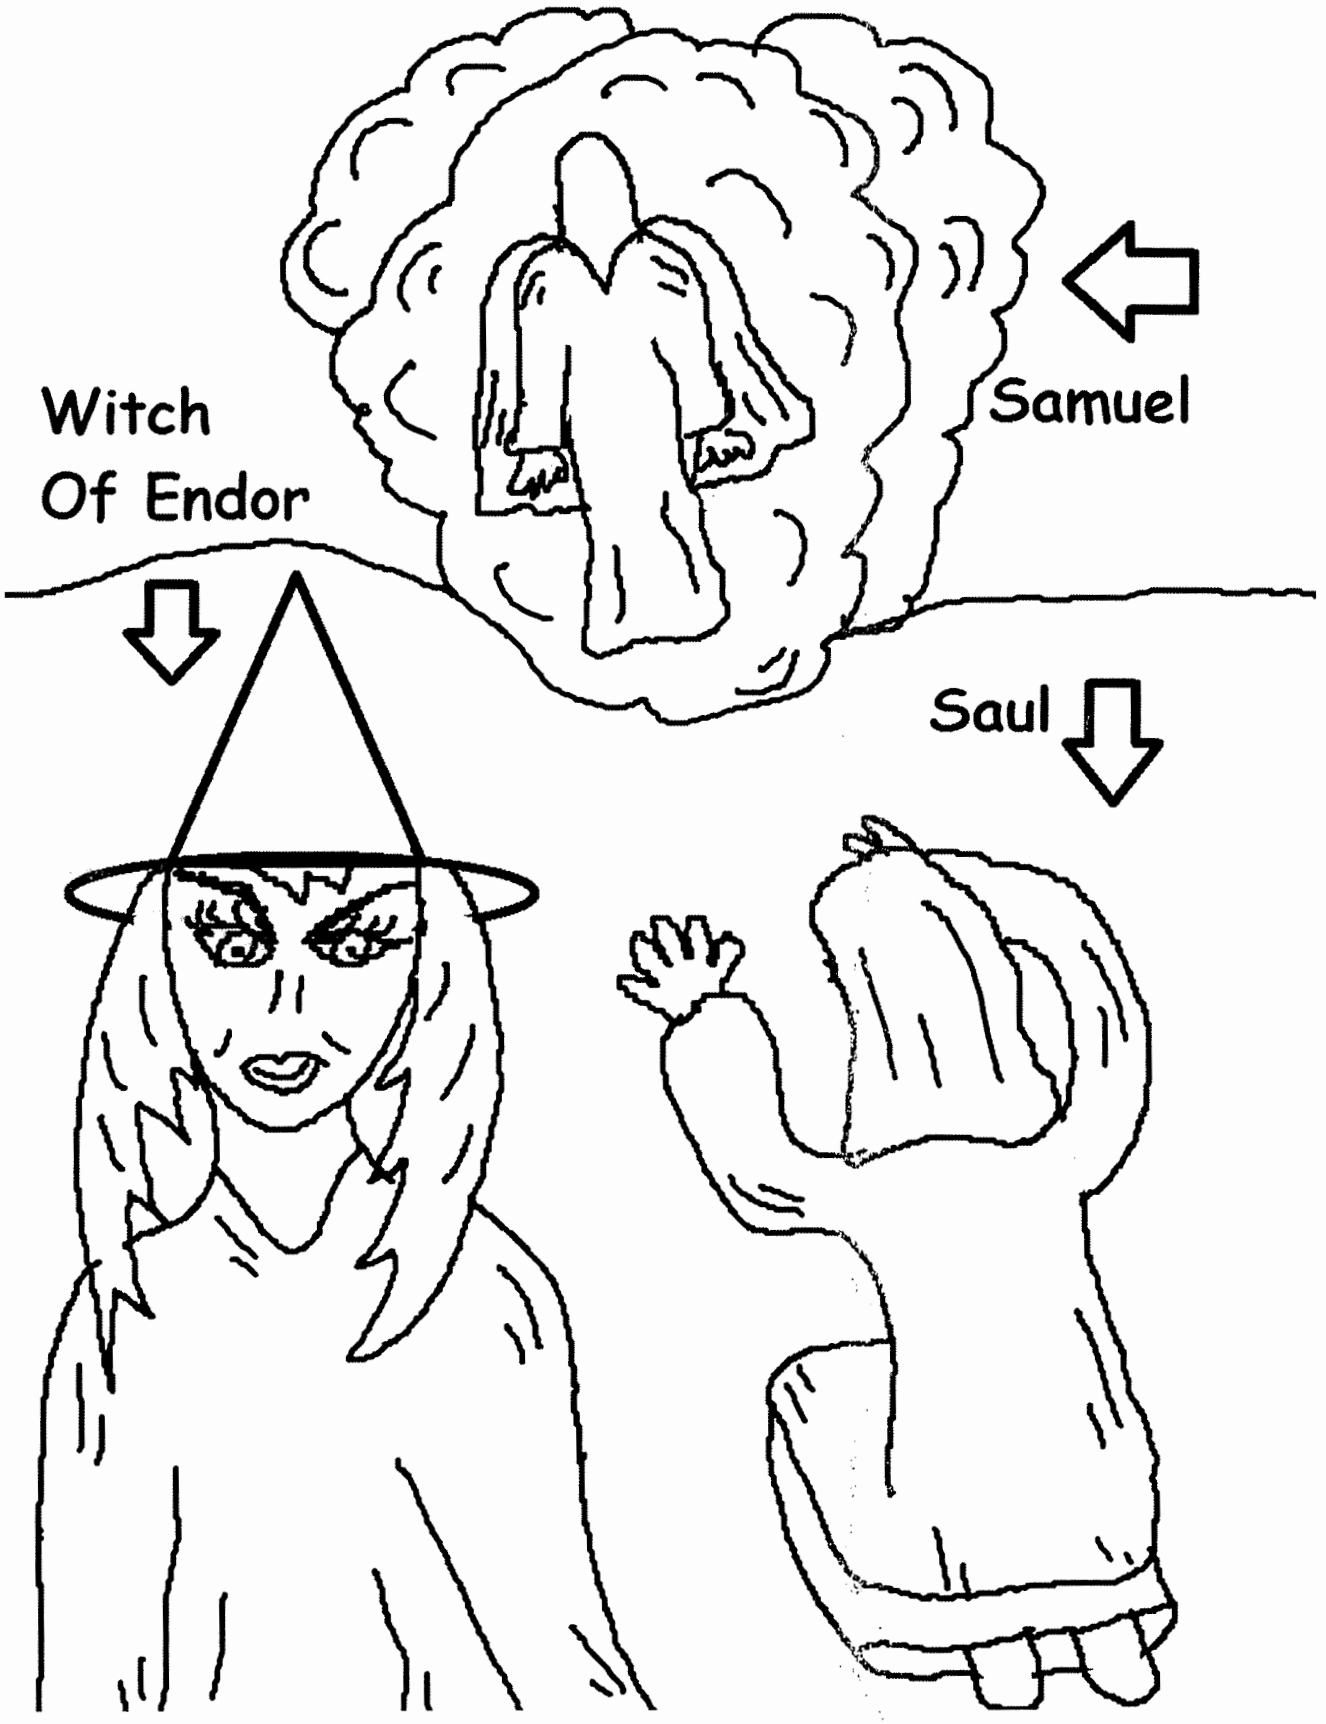

Key Points:

1. Samuel, the Lord's prophet had died. King Saul had put all of the mediums and spiritists (witches, sorcerers, etc.) out of the land of Israel. These people were quite common in idolatrous lands.

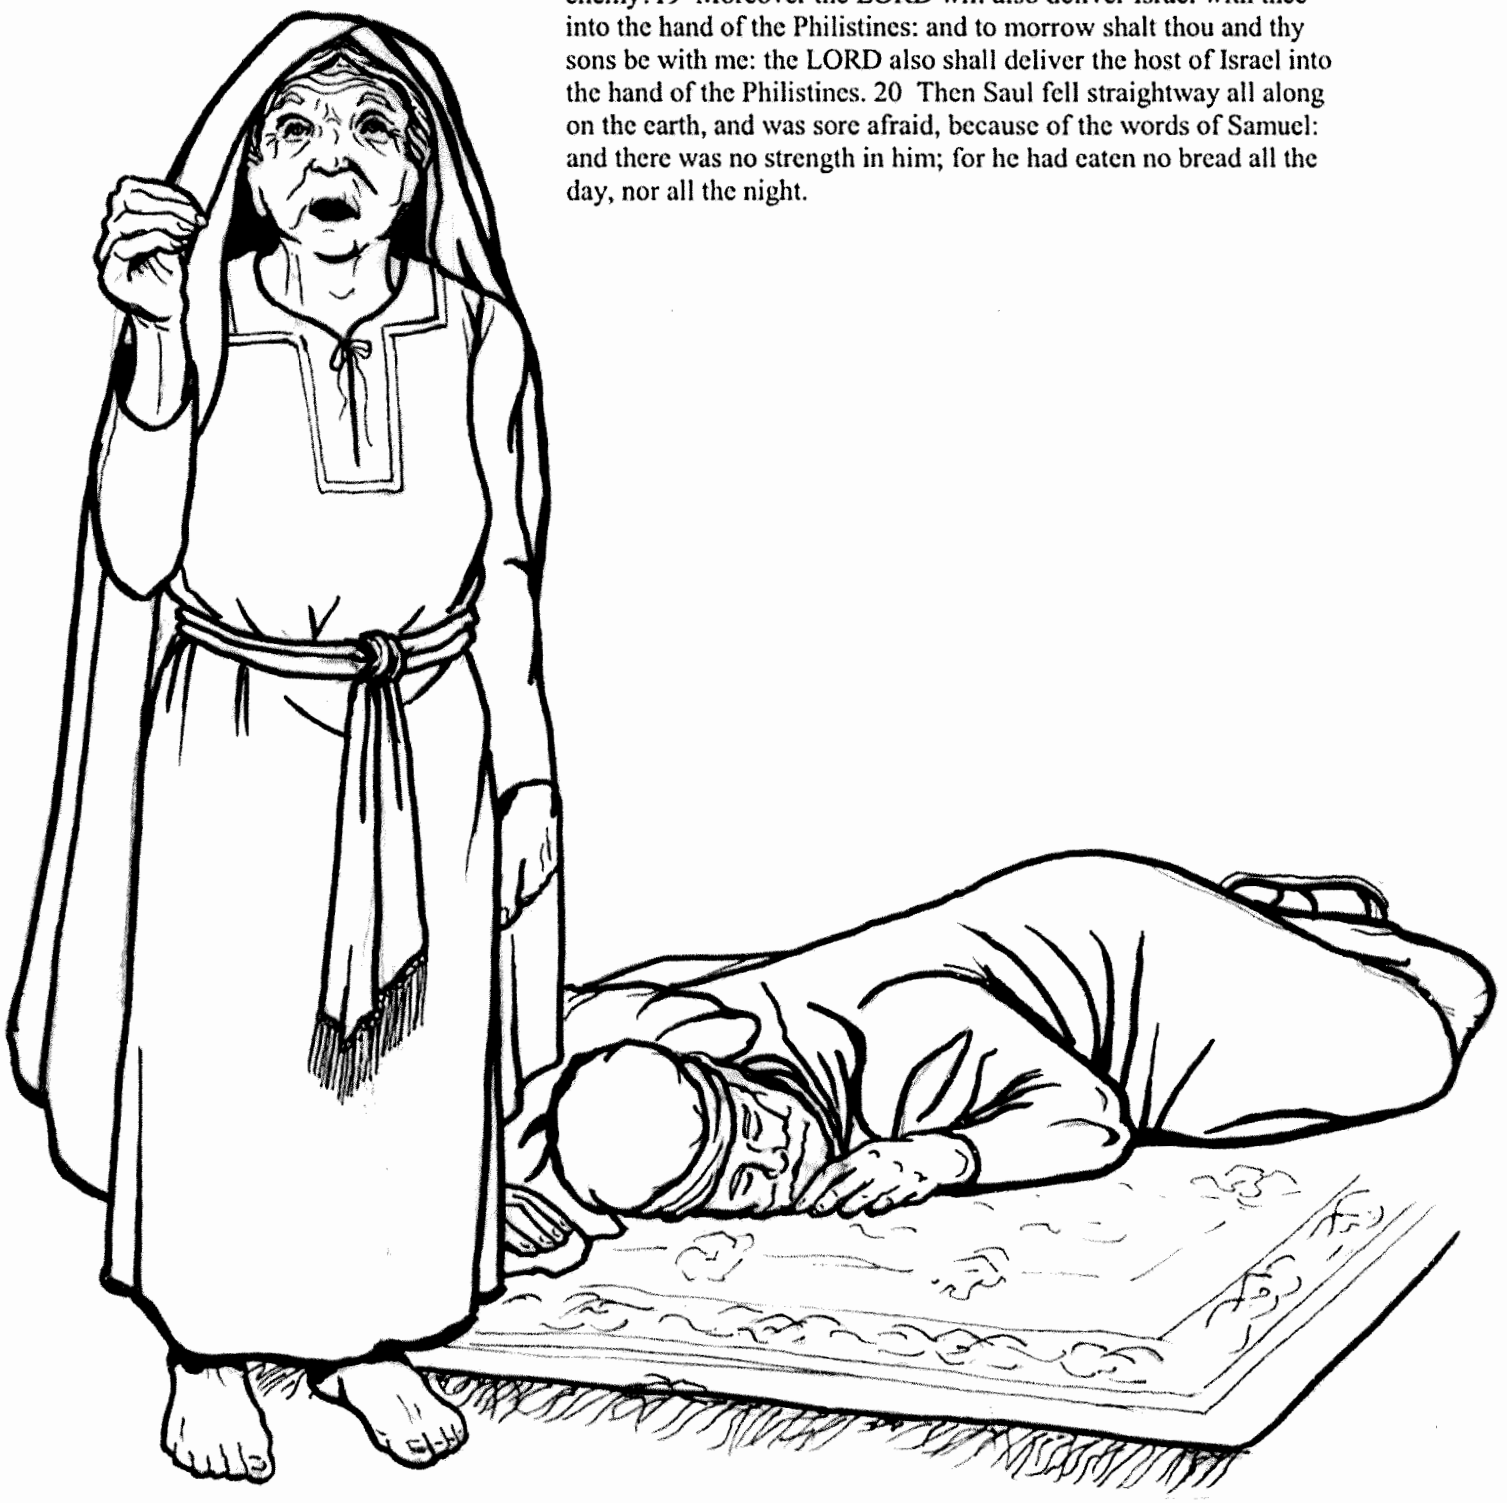

2. The Philistines were gathered for battle against Israel. Because Saul had repeatedly rejected God, God was not communicating with Saul via dreams, prophesy, or by the breastplate of judgment (urim). This scenario coupled together for a terrifying situation for Saul.

3. Saul ironically decided to disguise himself and turn to the Devil's realm for guidance instead of repenting and humbly turning to God. Saul requested that a witch bring Samuel up from the grave. Satan does not have this kind of power. Seeking witchcraft was expressly forbidden by God's law (see Ex. 22:18 and Lev. 19:31).

4. The witch shrieked when she saw Samuel's spirit. This had never happened before, but God allowed His Prophet Samuel's rest to be interrupted to bring Saul a final chilling prophesy. Samuel told Saul that God was Saul's enemy and that the next day he and his 3 sons would be killed in battle. His words rang true and they were all killed brutally by the Philistines.

1 Sam 28:6 And when Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.7 Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her. 8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee.11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.16 Then said Samuel, Wherefore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the LORD is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?19 Moreover the LORD will also deliver Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines: and to morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me: the LORD also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines. 20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the words of Samuel: and there was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

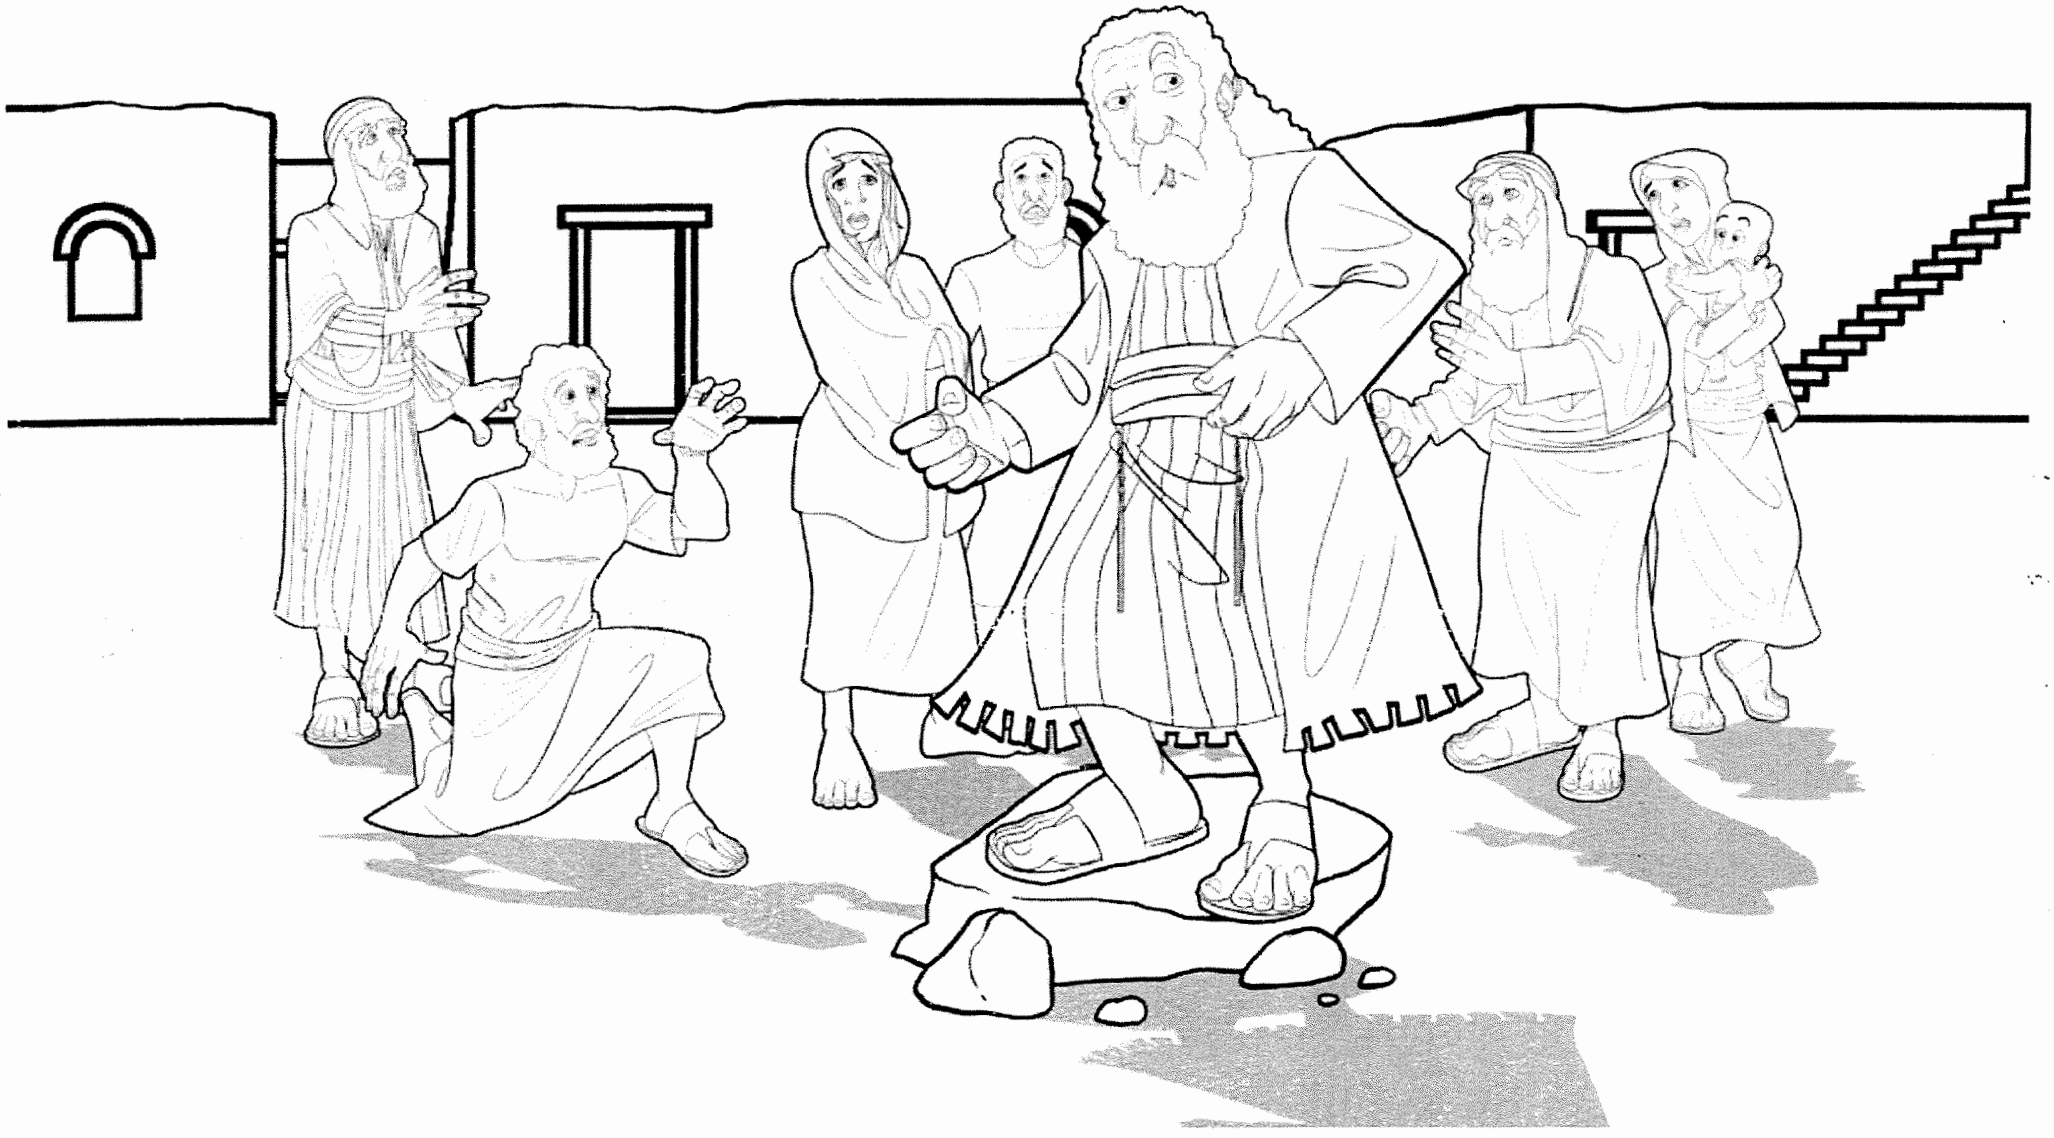

Isa 8:19 And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead?

LESSON 5

SAUL AND THE WITCH OF ENDOR

I Sam. 28

INTRODUCTION. Sometime during David's fugitive years Samuel died and the people of Israel mourned for him. After David's encounter with Saul in the cave, David married Abigail, a woman of Carmel, and also Ahinoam, a woman of Jezreel. Both of these cities were located in the hill country of Judah where David was hiding. About the same time Saul gave his daughter Michal, who was David's first wife, to another man (I Sam. 25).

Again the Ziphites betrayed David to Saul, and again Saul began his pursuit of David. This time David discovered Saul and his men while they were sleeping in their camp. A deep sleep from the Lord had fallen on them, and David was able to steal into the camp, take Saul's spear, and a jug of water. David then stood on a hill afar off and called to Abner, Saul's captain, chastising him for not guarding the king. Again, Saul, realizing David had spared his life, said he had sinned and would no longer attempt to harm David. David then went on his way and Saul returned to his place, no longer pursuing David (I Sam. 26).

David still did not trust Saul, however, and fled once more to Achish, the Philistine king of Gath. Achish gave David the city of Ziklag as a home, and David, his men, and their families dwelt in the city (I Sam. 27).

Once again the Philistines gathered their army together to fight against Israel. Saul gathered his army, and the two armies camped about five miles apart. When Saul saw the Philistine host, he was frightened. He attempted to communicate with God, but was unsuccessful either by dreams, by the priests, or by the prophets. Saul previously had attempted to rid the land of witchcraft, but because of his fear of the coming battle, he told his servants to find a witch for him to consult. When his servants advised him there was a medium at Endor, Saul went to seek her advice after disguising himself. He tricked her into calling for Samuel's spirit, and surprisingly Samuel's spirit appeared. Samuel's message, however, was not comforting or encouraging to Saul (I Sam. 28).

The story of Saul visiting the medium presents some difficult questions and can be hard to understand. Following is a good discussion on the topic which may be of use when preparing your lessons.

Saul & the Witch of Endor

The Question

Toward the end of King Saul's reign he went to a witch to have her conjure up the Prophet Samuel. I thought that once a person died they were no longer available to those of us still in our bodies and that any so called contact was really demonic. Yet in scripture it seems as though the witch contacted the ACTUAL Prophet Samuel—not just a demon spirit impersonating him. Can you explain this to me?
- Name and location unknown

The Answer

Part 1: Is contacting the dead possible?
Part 2: Handling things that don't fit

Is contacting the dead possible? (Part 1)

Contacting the dead, called necromancy is strictly forbidden activity in the Bible. God does not tell us it is not possible; what he does say is DON'T DO IT. Saul was well aware of the biblical law forbidding it. "Now a man or a woman who is a medium or a spiritist shall surely be put to death." (Leviticus 20:27) "There shall not be found among you anyone...who casts a spell, or a medium, or a spiritist, or one who calls up the dead." (Deuteronomy 18:11)

King Saul had previously reinforced God's law on this matter and had outlawed mediums and spiritists in the land. Yet when he was in big trouble and couldn't seem to hear from God for himself he broke his own rule. Not surprising. Saul's reign was always marked by compromise and weak character and Samuel had told him early on that God would remove the kingdom from him in favor of David.

I agree that the scripture makes it sound as if this apparition was the real Samuel. The witch's description of the conjured spirit definitely caused Saul to believe it was so. The "ghost" spoke like Samuel and confirmed the things Samuel had already told Saul while he was on earth. So—was it really him? We don't know.

Here are some possibilities. Perhaps it was Samuel. If we accept that we are simply accepting the scripture as stated and cannot be faulted for doing so. If that is true God allowed it yet we may not conclude that God therefore approved it. God allows us to exercise our free will and sin even though he does not approve of sin at all.

Perhaps it was actually a demon disguising itself as Samuel. The witch may have had access to demonic spirits she controlled and who to some degree controlled her. They could have conjured up Samuel's likeness and repeated back all Samuel's words to Saul in his lifetime. Why would they want to confirm God's word to Saul? Demons desire to intersect with our world wherever possible. Perhaps they get something out of doing so that we don't fully understand.

Handling things that don't fit (Part 2)

The story of Saul and the witch or medium of Endor is one of those passages that it is difficult to wrap our minds around. Our theology often sticks things in strict slots that we like so everything stays neat and tidy. What then do we do when there are loose ends and messy details that don't fit our belief system?

Does this passage indicate the dead are accessible to us? If Samuel were God's prophet why would he submit to being called back? Who's in charge, a witch or God? If this happened once, might it happen again, in our modern times? If a person dies and goes immediately to either heaven or hell, how could they be hanging around close enough to be contacted?

All these questions are legitimate but not necessarily answerable because there are times when scripture doesn't give enough information to satisfy our curiosity. We are left with mysteries. But we shouldn't stop asking questions. We should keep digging into God's Word because often a mystery will surprisingly settle for us over time as we seek God's wisdom.

There is an approach I like to take when I find a hard passage of scripture and I'll share it with you. The first thing I do is look it up and read it in as many other translations as possible. To that I might add a paraphrase such as The Message. (A paraphrase is not a strict translation from the original language but a loose rendering which tries to capture the sense of the passage.)

I use every available study note and cross reference that each Bible supplies. Bible scholars who have asked the same questions frequently offer up solutions or possibilities I have never considered. They have taken into consideration customs of the day and archeological finds and word meaning nuances that are extremely helpful.

Beyond the Bible itself there are Bible dictionaries, Topical Bible studies and commentaries with a wealth of information to aid in understanding. Even as I researched this question of yours, I used all of the above. That's how I know it has been much asked and debated over time.

Finally, praying for understanding actually works. In fact, I think it is often the Holy Spirit who inspires our curiosity in the first place. Submit mysteries to him and wait. They WILL be answered, either here or in eternity.

Week 76

David Becomes King

Scriptures: 2 Samuel 2, and 2 Samuel 5:1-3

Key Verse: 2 Samuel 5:3 "Therefore all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the Lord. And they anointed David king over Israel."

Key Points:

1. David asked God to which city in Judah he should go and live. God responded for David to go to Hebron where the men of Judah anointed him as king over the house of Judah. He was king in Hebron for 7 ½ years.

2. But there were those who were still loyal to Saul. Abner, Saul's commander placed Ishbosheth as king over all Israel (except the tribe of Judah) and a physical competition was proposed: 12 young men from the tribe of Benjamin (Saul's tribe) and 12 young men from the tribe of Judah competed. Each one grasped his opponent by the head and thrust their swords into each one's sides so that all 24 men died. This led to a very fierce battle that day. Abner and the men of Israel were defeated by the servants of David.

3. Abner called out to Joab to cease fighting brother-against-brother. Joab was head of David's army. Joab blew the trumpet thus signifying the end of the fighting.

4. At age 30, all of the tribes of Israel finally came to David at Hebron in peace. He made a covenant with them before the Lord. The men of Israel anointed David. This was the third time that David had been anointed. David ruled over the unified kingdom for 33 more years.

DLTK's Crafts for Kids

Paper Crown

This simple project can be worn by the children after it's been created. Great for a multitude of themes and celebrations. Use different colors appropriate for the theme or the child's preferences.

Materials

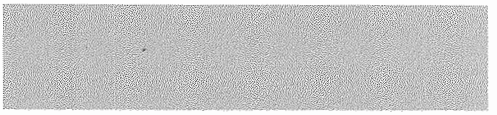

- thin cardboard (poster board or old cereal boxes work well)
- foil gift wrap or construction paper
- Scissors
- Paint, crayons, or felt-tip pens
- glue
- Stapler
- Optional: stickers, markers, glitter, shapes cut from constructionpaper

Instructions

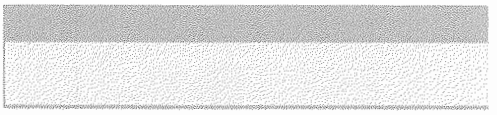

- Cut a strip of cardboard long enough to go around your head and overlap slightly
  - you may need to staple two pieces together to make it long enough.
  - the strip should be 3 or 4 inches wide and long enough to go around the head

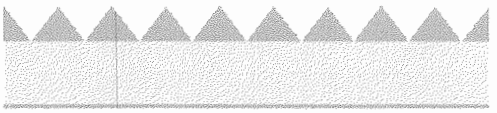

- Cut a piece of construction paper or foil gift wrap the same length but slightly wider (2 inches or so wider)
  - again you might need to staple two pieces together to make it long enough

- Glue the construction paper to the cardboard so the bottom edge lines up

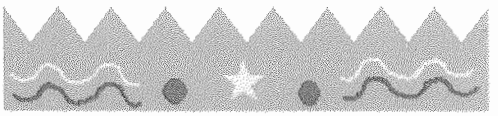

- Cut a zigzag in the top edge of the construction paper

  - Note: the reason I make the construction paper wider is that I found it difficult for the children to cut the zigzag edge from the cardboard. With the wider construction paper, they can just cut the zig zag through the paper

- Decorate the paper side (not the cardboard side) using markers, glitter or stickers

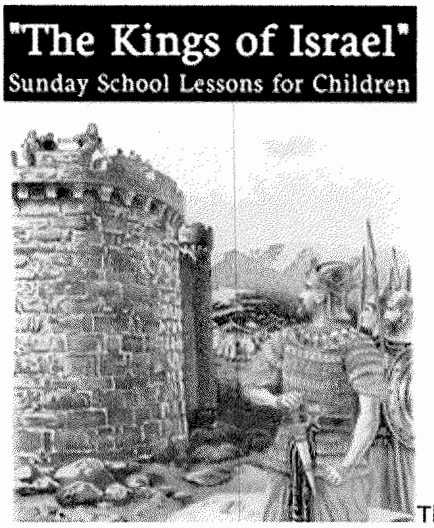

- Make a ring with the cardboard facing in (toward the head) and the paper facing out and staple to make a crown - adult assistance required for this step.

Sunday School Lesson: David Becomes King

Posted By Kelly Henderson On Nov 9th 2010 @ 3:07 pm In Lesson Plans | No Comments

This lesson is a continuation of Israel's Kings. It is the conclusion to the study of David. Click here to see the lesson index.

The focus of this lesson is how David becomes king in God's timing. The lesson is a reminder that God keeps His promises and as His followers we are to trust Him completely and follow Him faithfully as we wait for His promises to be fulfilled. This lesson can be adapted for individual ministry needs.

Bible Story: David Becomes King
Scripture: The lesson is based on events taken from 2 Samuel 1-2:1-5 and 2 Samuel 5, 7
Target Age Group: Age 9 – 11 (U.S. 3rd – 5th Grade)
Learning Context: Sunday School
Target Time Frame: 60 minutes
Printer Friendly Bible Lesson: this lesson plan
You Can Help: Please share your feedback and suggestions to improve this children's Bible lesson. Click here to respond

Supply List: Construction paper for footprints, index cards, picture symbolizing heaven, Bibles, Pictures or flannel graphs depicting scenes for the lesson, crown

Learning Goal: Students will learn from David's life to trust God to keep His promises and always seek His direction as they make decisions.

Learning Indicator: As students participate in the Footprint Activity they will be able to verbalize ways they can seek God's direction in the decisions they have to make. Students will be able to demonstrate their comprehension of the lesson by answering review questions.

Learning Activity #1: Create 2 sets of footprints. Make one set out of brown construction paper and the other out of red. The brown footprints will demonstrate how we depart from God's path by following our own wisdom without seeking God's direction. The red footprints will demonstrate following God and His directions in our lives. The footprints will be placed on the floor of the classroom. On the opposite side of the room place a crown or another object to symbolize the time when believers go to heaven. The red footprints can be taped down heading in the direction of the symbol for heaven. The brown ones will be movable to demonstrate that a person can travel far away from God's path but can return to that path by repenting of sin and turning back to Him. On index cards have decisions that people make (friends, sports, college, marriage, career, etc). As you lead the students through this activity have a student choose a card. As a class discuss what it would take to stay on the red footprints following God's plan. (Walk with God daily by praying and spending time in His Word) What decisions would a person need to make to end up on the brown footprints? (Not seeking God about a decision. An example: Friends-choosing Godly friends that make wise decisions would keep us on God's path. Choosing friends who use bad language, disobey authority etc. would take us off God's path and put us on the brown path. When we are following God on His path we are to share the love of Jesus with the people who use bad language and disobey authority but we don't choose them to be our friends who we spend all our time with.) If believers step off God's path and go down their own path it's not impossible to get back on the right path. Repenting of sin and turning back to God can get you back on His path for your life. The only way we can stay on God's path is to seek His direction for the decisions we make and make sure that what we do is in agreement with what God's word teaches us is true. (The Gospel can be included in this activity by adding a destination that is not heaven. The sign can be titled "Separated from God forever." (2 Thessalonians 1:8-9) If a person never believes in the Lord Jesus they will always be following the brown footprints that lead to a life separated from God forever.) (A simpler option is to use a hopscotch board made out of tape or squares on the floor. The vertical ones would represent God's plan and the horizontal ones represent going our own ways.)

Test: Review Questions

Memory Verse: Proverbs 3:5-6 "Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight." (The Footprint Activity would be helpful to teach the meaning of this verse.)

Bible Lesson:

Throughout the Bible God has made many promises. Whenever God makes promises He always keeps His promises. Often it takes many years for His promises to be fulfilled. Can you think of any promises God made in the Bible?

- When Adam and Eve sinned God promised to send a Savior. Genesis 3:15. How long did it take for this promise to be fulfilled? (thousands of years)
- God promised Noah that He was going to send a flood that would destroy mankind from the earth. (Genesis 6:13) How long did it take for this promise to be fulfilled? (Somewhere around 100 years Genesis 5:32, Genesis 7:6)
- God promised Abraham he would have a son and would become the father of many nations. (Genesis 12:2, 13:16, 16:10, 17:4) How long did it take for Abraham to receive God's promise? 25 years (Genesis 12:4, 21:5)

These are just a few examples of God's promises and how long it took for them to be fulfilled. When God says He is going to do something He is going to do it.

As we have been studying the life of David what did he know God had anointed him for? (To be the king over Israel) After David was anointed king did he immediately become the new king? (No) What did David do while he waited God's timing to be king? (He was faithful in whatever task he had been given) Was David's life easy while he waited to be king? (No) What made David's life difficult while he waited for God's promise to be fulfilled? (Saul was jealous and tried to have him killed)

Let's turn in our Bible to 2 Samuel 1. If you had an enemy that had been trying to kill you for years how would you respond when you found out that he was dead? David had every reason to celebrate and rejoice when he learns of Saul's death (2 Samuel 1:1-10). Saul had made his life extremely difficult. Let's read how David responds to the news of Saul and Jonathan in 2 Samuel 1:11-12. David models grace and respect toward his enemy after he dies. David sings a song in honor of Saul and his close friend Jonathan 1 Samuel 1:17-27). From this song you would never know that Saul was David's enemy.

Do you and I respond with the character that David did towards his enemy? (Proverbs 24:17, Obadiah 1:12, 15) God can enable us to love our enemies and not rejoice over them when they face punishment.

David suffered many years of difficulties while waiting for God's timing to become king and now Saul was dead. Human understanding would make David think now was his time to become king. David could have gathered Israel together and declared that he was the new king because God had anointed him when he was a young shepherd boy. David did not do that. Let's read 2 Samuel 2:1. David is a good example of someone who puts our memory verse for today into practice. David asked God's direction before he made any decision. God answered David and gave him clear directions.

It wasn't time for David to be king over all of Israel. Israel was made up of 12 tribes or families. For now it David would be king over one tribe, the tribe of Judah. David didn't lean on his own understanding and by allowing God to direct his paths he was right where he was supposed to be.

Let's flip over to 2 Samuel 5. In your spare time you can read the events that took place before David became king over all Israel (2 Samuel 2:8-4:12). God was working out things in His timing and finally it was time for God's promise for David to be king over Israel to take place. Let's read 2 Samuel 5:1-3. (Choose a volunteer to be David and have another student place the crown on his head. The class cheers and thanks God for their king.)

(2 Samuel 5:6-12) After David became king over all Israel he built his palace in Jerusalem and lived there. Because God was with David in all his plans others could see that David was becoming more and more powerful.

As believers the more we obey God's directions in our life the more His Holy Spirit has power in our life. People will see that we live powerful lives for God because we aren't controlled by our sinful natures.

After David became king he still faced difficulties. As Israel's King he led his armies to fight against their enemies. Before he fought a battle he would ask God for his instructions. 2 Samuel 5:18-19, 22-25. God told David what to do and he obeyed God's directions. The result was that David won the battles over his enemies.

(2 Samuel 7) God gave David a time of peace as he ruled as king over Israel. David was relaxing in his palace one evening and he began to think about how he lived in a big beautiful palace and the place where God was worshiped was a tent (Tabernacle). That bothered David and he wanted to build a beautiful place for God's people to go and worship Him. David spoke about his desire to a prophet named Nathan.

Later that night God spoke to Nathan about David's desire to build a beautiful place for God. God told Nathan that David would not be the one who would build a house for His name but his son would (2 Samuel 7:12-13). When God spoke to Nathan about David He made some special promises for David. One of the promises would not take place in David's lifetime but would happen in the future. Let's read about this future promise God made in 2 Samuel 7:16. God was promising David that a King would be born from his family who would reign forever.

When David heard what God told Nathan he responded by worshiping Him. 2 Samuel 7:18-29 records David's response to God. David was honored that the God of the universe would promise that someone from his family would reign as king forever. David knew that God would keep His promises and one day that King reign. (2 Samuel 7:28-29)

David didn't live to see the day that God's promise would be fulfilled. Even though David never lived to see that promise fulfilled he fully trusted that God would keep his promise. Thousands of years after David's death a King was born. Does anyone know who that King is? (Jesus) The first part of God's promise has taken place for David and even now we as His followers are waiting for that day when Jesus will come back to earth and reign as King of kings forever and ever.

David teaches us to trust God's promises and faithfully obey Him every day. Although David did not live a life free of mistakes God calls him 'a man after His own heart' (1 Samuel 13:14, Acts 13:22) David repented of his sins before God and God forgave him.

We can live as men, women, boys and girls after God's own heart as well. That doesn't mean we will be perfect. It means that as we live our lives following God's plan for us when we sin against Him we quickly repent. When we repent God forgives us (1 John 1:9) and we continue following after God and desire to know His heart.

If you have never believed in the Lord Jesus as the Savior for your sins you can repent (turn away from your sins) and believe in Him today. Jesus died on the cross to take the punishment for sin we deserved. He was buried and three days later He rose again. You can be saved today and start following God's perfect plan for your life.

Close in prayer.

LESSON 6

THE DEATH OF SAUL - DAVID BECOMES KING

I Sam. 31; II Sam. 5:1-5

INTRODUCTION. As the Philistines prepared for war against Israel, the Philistine king Achish planned to take David and his men with him into battle. However, the other Philistines did not trust David to fight with them and forced Achish to send David back to Ziklag (I Sam. 29).

When David returned to Ziklag, he discovered the city had been attacked and burned by some Amalekites and all the people of the city taken captive including David's two wives. David and his men pursued the Amalekites, and when they discovered the enemy camp, the Amalekites were feasting and celebrating their victory. David and his men attacked the Amalekite raiders, recovered the captives and all the spoil (plunder) the Amalekites had carried away from Ziklag. When David returned to Ziklag, he sent some of the spoil as a gift to the elders in various cities of Judah (I Sam. 30).

Meanwhile the battle between the Philistines and Israel occurred at Mount Gilboa in the north. Saul was mortally wounded in the battle, his three sons including Jonathan were killed, and the Israelite army fled leaving the bodies of their king and his sons behind. When the Philistines discovered the bodies, they cut off the heads and hung the bodies on the wall of the city of Beth Shan as trophies of their victory.

Remember the men of Jabesh Gilead? These were the people of the city whom Saul rescued from the Ammonites when he first became king (I Sam. 11). These men of Jabesh Gilead, in an act demonstrating their gratitude for Saul's earlier bravery to them, stole by night to Beth Shan, removed the bodies of Saul and his sons, and took them back to Jabesh for burial.

A. SAUL'S DEATH

1. The Philistines fought against Israel who fell slain in _____. (I Sam. 31:1)

2. The Philistines slew Saul's three sons, _____, _____, and _____. (I Sam. 31:2)

3. Saul was wounded severely by the _____. (I Sam. 31:3)

4. Saul asked his armorbearer to draw his _____ and thrust him through. (I Sam. 31:4)

5. His armorbearer was afraid, so Saul took his own sword and _____ on it. (I Sam. 31:4)

6. Saul's armorbearer fell on his sword and _____ with Saul. (I Sam. 31:5)

7. The next day the Philistines cut off Saul's _____ and stripped him of his _____. (I Sam. 31:8-9)

8. They put his armor in the house of their idols, and fastened his _____ to the wall of Beth Shan. (I Sam. 31:10)

9. The valiant men of Jabesh Gilead went by _____ and removed the bodies of Saul and his sons from the wall. (I Sam. 31:11-12)

10. They brought the bodies to Jabesh, burnt them and _____ the bones. (I Sam. 31:12-13)

B. DAVID BECOMES KING. After the death of Saul, the Lord instructed David to go to Hebron. There the tribe of Judah anointed David as their king, and he reigned over Judah for seven years in Hebron (II Sam. 1-2). During this time there was civil war between those loyal to David and the remaining descendants of Saul who attempted to claim for themselves the throne of Israel. When the house of Saul was finally vanquished, the elders of all Israel came to David and anointed him king over all Israel. The tribes of Israel for the first time were truly united, and David reigned for another thirty-three years over a united Israel and Judah (II Sam. 3-5:5).

1. After Saul's death, the Lord directed David to go to Hebron. What occurred there? (II Sam. 2:1, 4)

2. After seven years when the elders of all the tribes came to Hebron to anoint David their king, what did they say the Lord had told David? (II Sam. 5:1-2)

3. What did the elders of Israel do then? (II Sam. 5:3)

4. David was _____ years old when he began to reign, and he reigned _____ years. In Hebron he reigned over Judah for _____, and in Jerusalem he reigned _____ over all Israel and Judah. (II Sam. 5:4-5)

...and the Lord said to thee,
Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.
II Sam 5:2

Week 77

David Brings the Ark to Jerusalem

Scriptures: 2 Samuel 6 and 1 Chronicles 13-16

Key Verse: 2 Samuel 6:15 "So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the Lord with shouting and with the sound of the trumpet"

Key Points:

1. After the ark was returned from the enemy Philistines, King David decided to move it from the home of Abinidab (which was on a hill), to Jerusalem where he had erected a tent for it.

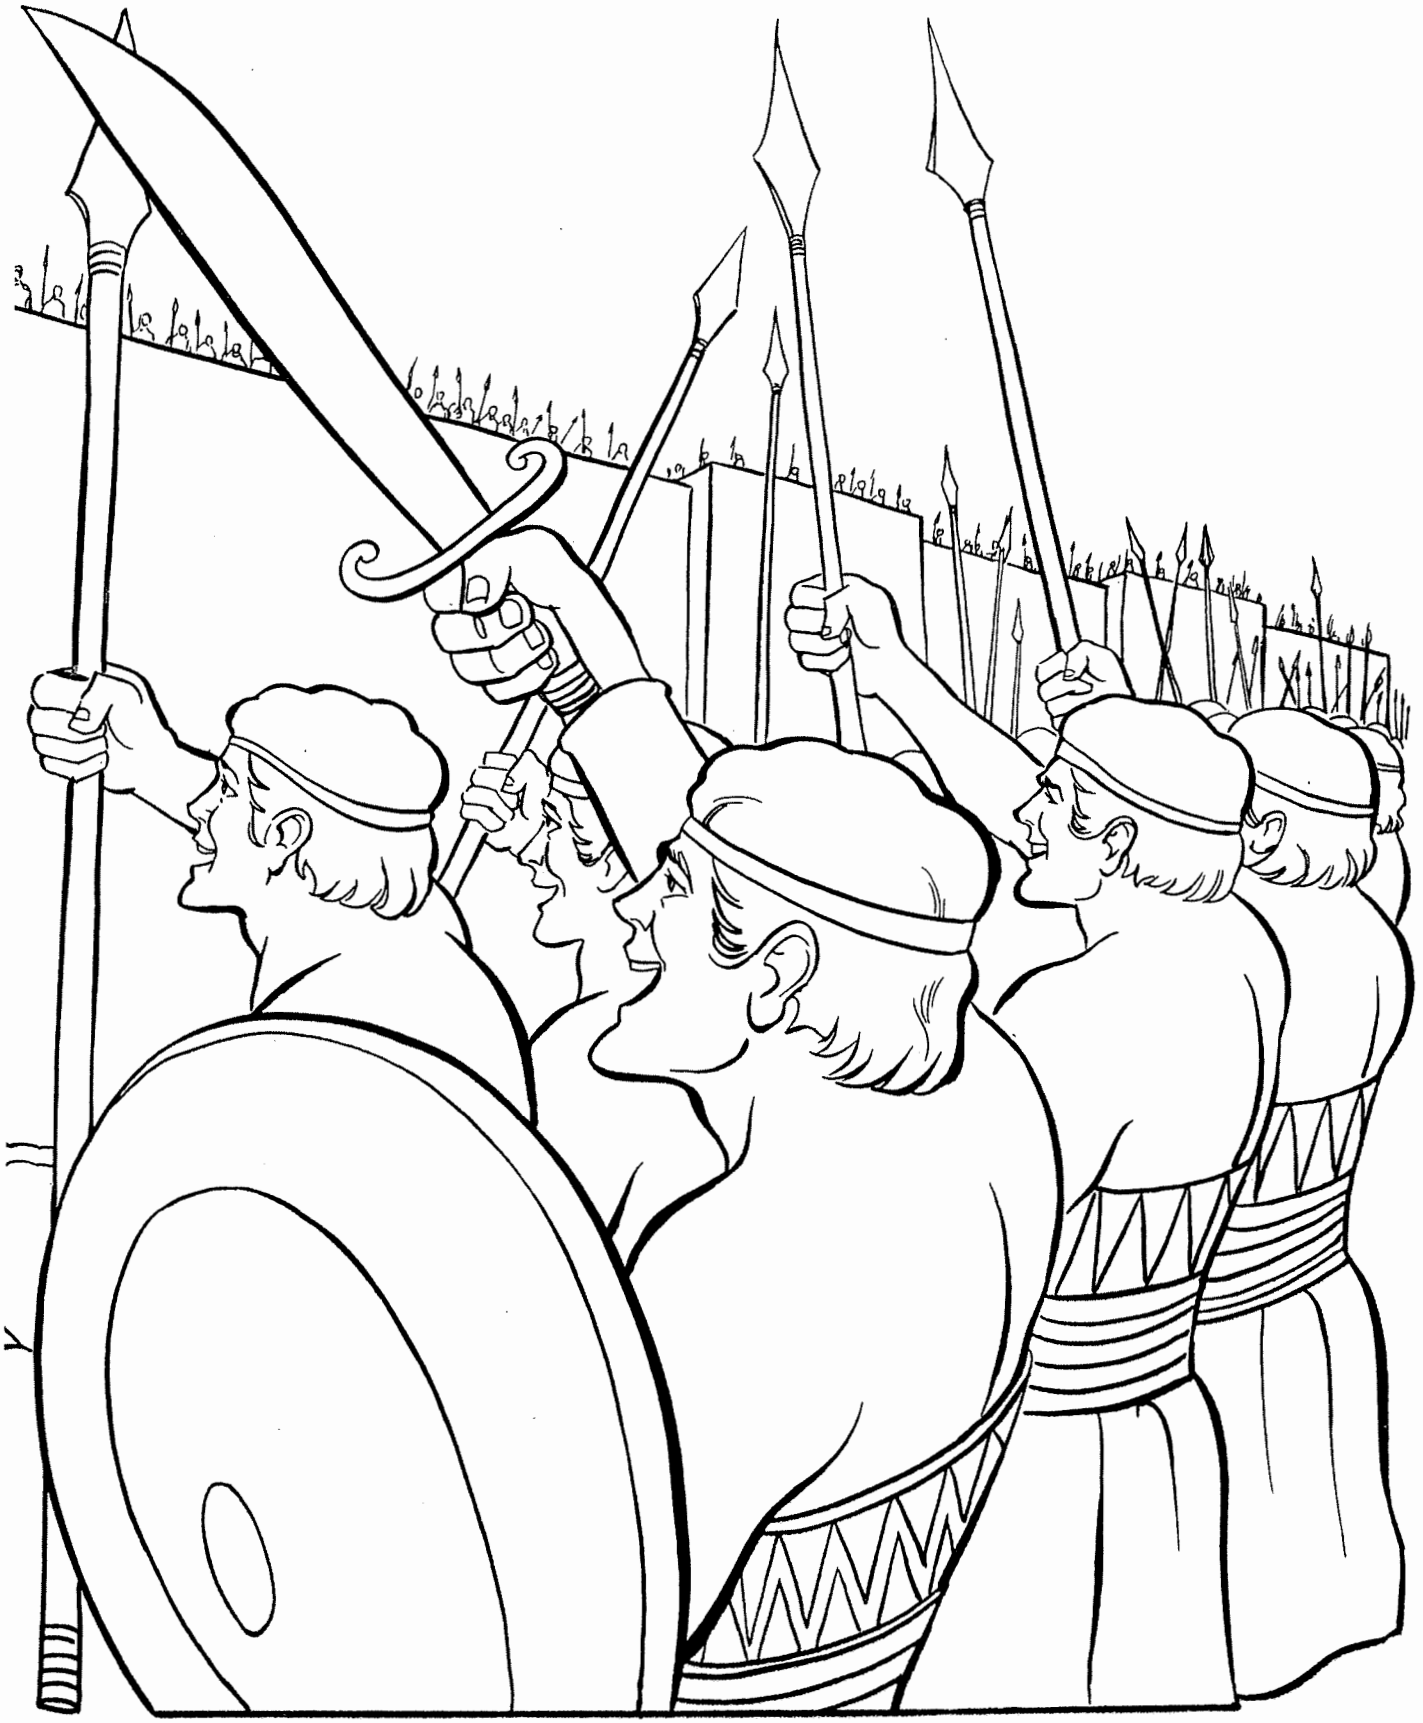

2. Instead of the ark being carried by the priests on poles as God commanded (see Numbers 4: 4-15), they placed the ark on a new cart pulled by oxen. Uzzah was instantly killed by God because he touched the ark to steady it when the ox stumbled. David was first angry, and then the fear of The Lord came over him.

3. After 3 months, the ark was properly carried by the priest with poles to Jerusalem. David and the Israelites rejoiced greatly with dancing, singing, and musical instruments offering sacrifices also. They were careful in their dedication to treat the ark as Most Holy this time.

4. Michal, David's wife disapproved of the zealous, joyous, exuberant display which David presented as the ark returned from the Philistines to its proper place. He humbled himself by removing his regal robes down to his common linen garments to celebrate just like the rest of the people. Because of her disapproval and judgmental attitude, she was barren the rest of her life (never having any children).

David, now king of Judah, brought the Ark of God to . . .

. . . Jerusalem, and there was great joy in the city.

MEMORY VERSE

2 SAMUEL 6:2

"And David arose and went with all the people who were with him from Baale Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, whose name is called the Name, the LORD of Hosts, who dwells between the cherubim."

WHAT YOU WILL NEED:

Small slips of paper (2"x 4").

Enough straws for each child in your class, four bowls and masking tape.

Crayons or markers and drawing paper.

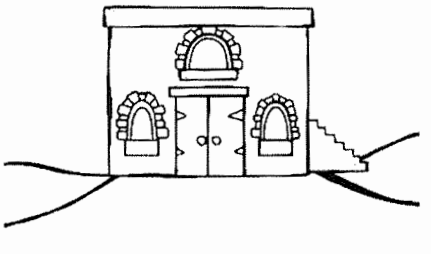

ATTENTION GRABBER!

Memory Hop

Prior to class write out today's theme on small sheets of paper (one word per sheet). Do two sets. For the younger classes try shortening the theme to "Serve God the right way." Have everyone gather together and explain to them what the theme will be for today's lesson. Ask them to repeat the theme a couple of times.

Choose two players and have them come to the front of the class. Next tell the two children to turn around and close their eyes (No Peeking!). While they have their eyes closed distribute both sets of the words of the theme in various areas of the classroom. Then have them open their eyes and have them find the words of the theme in order. See which child can put together the theme first. This will test their memory and how well they were listening for the theme. Allow some of the other children also play. God wants us to serve Him in the right way.

The Ark is Returned to Jerusalem

David Brings Ark to Jerusalem
II Samuel 6; I Chronicles 13-16

Memory Verse:

"Because you did not carry it the first time, the LORD our God broke out against us, because we did not seek him according to the rule." I Chron 15:13

Choose the best answer:

How did David choose to move the ark of God?

a. On the shoulders of Levites.
b. On a cart drawn by oxen.
c. Carried by his servants.

What happened when Uzzah reached out to steady the ark?

a. God blessed him.
b. He was filled with the spirit.
c. God struck him dead.

David was afraid of the Lord, so he:

a. Left the ark with Obed-edom.
b. Destroyed the ark.
c. Brought the ark to Jerusalem.

Once David saw that the house of Obed-edom was blessed, he:

a. Had the ark carried to Jerusalem by Levites.
b. Put the ark back on the cart to return to Jerusalem.
c. Asked Obed-edom to continue to house the ark.

David recognized that Uzzah's death was a result of:

a. David's disobedience in how the ark was carried.
b. David's disobedience in bringing the ark to Jerusalem.
c. Saul's disobedience in the matter of the Amelikites.

David had the ark placed in a:

a. Temple.
b. House.
c. Tent.

Answer the following question in your own words.

David may have been trying to do what was right, but because he did not follow the commandments of God, Uzzah lost his life. Think of a time when you may be tempted to only do part of what God has commanded, or to do something God has commanded but to do it in a way other than what God desires. How can we use the tools God has given us to avoid making the same mistake as David?

Year 2

Week 78

David Plans a House For God

Scriptures: 2 Samuel 7 and 1 Chronicles 17 and 22

Key Verse: 1 Chronicles 22:19 "Now set your heart and your soul to seek the Lord your God. Therefore arise and build the sanctuary of the Lord God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord and the holy articles of God into the house that is to be built for the name of the Lord."

Key Points:

1. King David was living at peace in Jerusalem in a fine, cedar house. He realized that the ark of God was kept in a tent. He told God's Prophet, Nathan, that he wanted to build a fine house for God.

2. God's words and vision through Nathan were thus:

    a. I took you from the sheepfold.
    b. I have never asked to have a house built for me. I moved about with Israel.
    c. You will not build Me a house-I will build an eternal house for you, i.e. from your descendants will come the everlasting King of Kings. This spiritual "house" would show God's selection of David's family as royal. His generations would bring forth the Messiah, Jesus.
    d. Your son, Solomon, will build an earthly house for the ark because you have shed much blood.

3. Instead of being disappointed, David praised God and stored up all manner of building materials for Solomon, his peaceful son. He gathered gold, silver, bronze, cedar wood, artisans, and workers for the magnificent temple. He encouraged all Israel to arise and work.

Making the Ark of the Covenant

- Children can make their own Ark of the Covenant with a shoe box. With a hole punch, make holes on both sides of both ends of the shoe box. Punch the holes about 1 inch below the top edge. Make sure that the holes are below the edge of the lid. Insert two dowels through the holes, so that each dowel goes all the way through the box and extends out the other side. Paint the shoe box and its lid gold, inside and out. Direct children to glue a gold bead to each corner of the bottom of the box for legs, and then to glue gold braid to the sides of the lid for decoration. Cut out two kneeling angels and have children glue them to the lid of the box. While the children are constructing their Arks, talk about how people who love God can be a living Ark and carry blessings to the world around us.

Week 79 David and Bathsheba

Scriptures: 2 Samuel 11 & 12

Key Verse: 2 Samuel 11:27"... But the thing that David had done displeased the Lord"

Key Points:

1. David saw a beautiful woman, Bathsheba, bathing from his rooftop. He inquired about her, sent messengers to get her, and then treated her as his own wife. She did not belong to David, however, she had her own husband Uriah.

2. David feared Uriah so he had Joab, the leader of the army, put him at the front of the battle and Uriah was killed. Bathsheba mourned her husband, but when her mourning was over she became David's wife and had a son.

3. Nathan, the Lord's prophet, came to David with a story about a ewe lamb. (recount this story) Nathan told David his taking Bathsheba from her husband was just as bad as the man who had taken the lamb. God was very displeased with him. David admitted his sin, however, his son died as his punishment.

4. David mourns his son, comforts Bathsheba, then has another son, Solomon, who the Lord loved. Because of David's sin, he experiences many years of unfortunate consequences.

One evening King David was walking on the flat roof of the palace. He looked down and saw a beautiful woman in her garden. He found out that her name was Bathsheba and that she was married to a soldier named Uriah.

David wanted to marry Bathsheba, but he couldn't because she had a husband. So David sent a terrible message to Joab, the commander of his army.

From King David

David committed two sins: murder and adultery.

God sent the prophet Nathan to show David his sins. David was very sorry for his sins and asked God to forgive him. God forgave David, but one of his punishments was that David and Bathsheba's first son died.

You can read about David's repentance in Psalm 51.

David got into trouble with God when he took another man's wife - Bathsheba. He repented (asked forgiveness) of his sin, but there were still consequences. Their first son died and another tried to kill David. But their son Solomon was a great king! - 2 Samuel 11

Week 80

David's Kingship is Threatened - Absalom Dies

Scriptures: 2 Samuel 13:37 – 2 Samuel 19

Key Verse: 2 Samuel 22:48 "It is God who avenges me, who subdues the people under me, who delivers me from my enemies...."

Key Points:

1. David's son Absalom, killed his brother Amnon for an evil thing he had done to their sister. Absalom fled Jerusalem because of the killing. David missed him very much and sent for him to come back.

2. Absalom was very handsome; he had long, strong hair. He was proud and rebellious against his father. He conspired to be king and to overthrow his father David. He gathered support throughout the tribes of Israel and his forces were great in number.

3. David hears of Absalom's plan. He, his household, and army fled Jerusalem, across the Jordan to safety. Two of David's servants, Jonathan and Ahimaaz, stayed behind to keep track of Absalom's activities. They were found out, but a woman hid them in a well and placed grain over them. They were then able to report to David. God keeps Absalom from pursuing David until he is able to regroup his troupes.

4. David divides his army into 3 groups. He told them to deal gently with Absalom. There was a great battle, 20,000 men died.

5. Absalom, riding on a mule through thick woods, was caught by his hair in a tree and was left hanging in the branches. Joab, the leader of his army, discovers him and disobeying the king, kills him with his sword to retaliate for his rebellion of the king.

6. David's army had won the battle but David grieved for Absalom. He journeyed back to Jerusalem and reigned as king again. God's will was accomplished as he wanted David to be king, not Absalom.

Week 81 Solomon Becomes King – King David Dies

Scriptures: 1 Kings 1 – 1 Kings 2:12

Key Verse: 1 Kings 2:3 "Keep the charge of the Lord your God: to walk in His ways, to keep His statutes, His commandments, His judgments, His testimonies, as it is written in the Law of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do and wherever you turn."

Key Points:

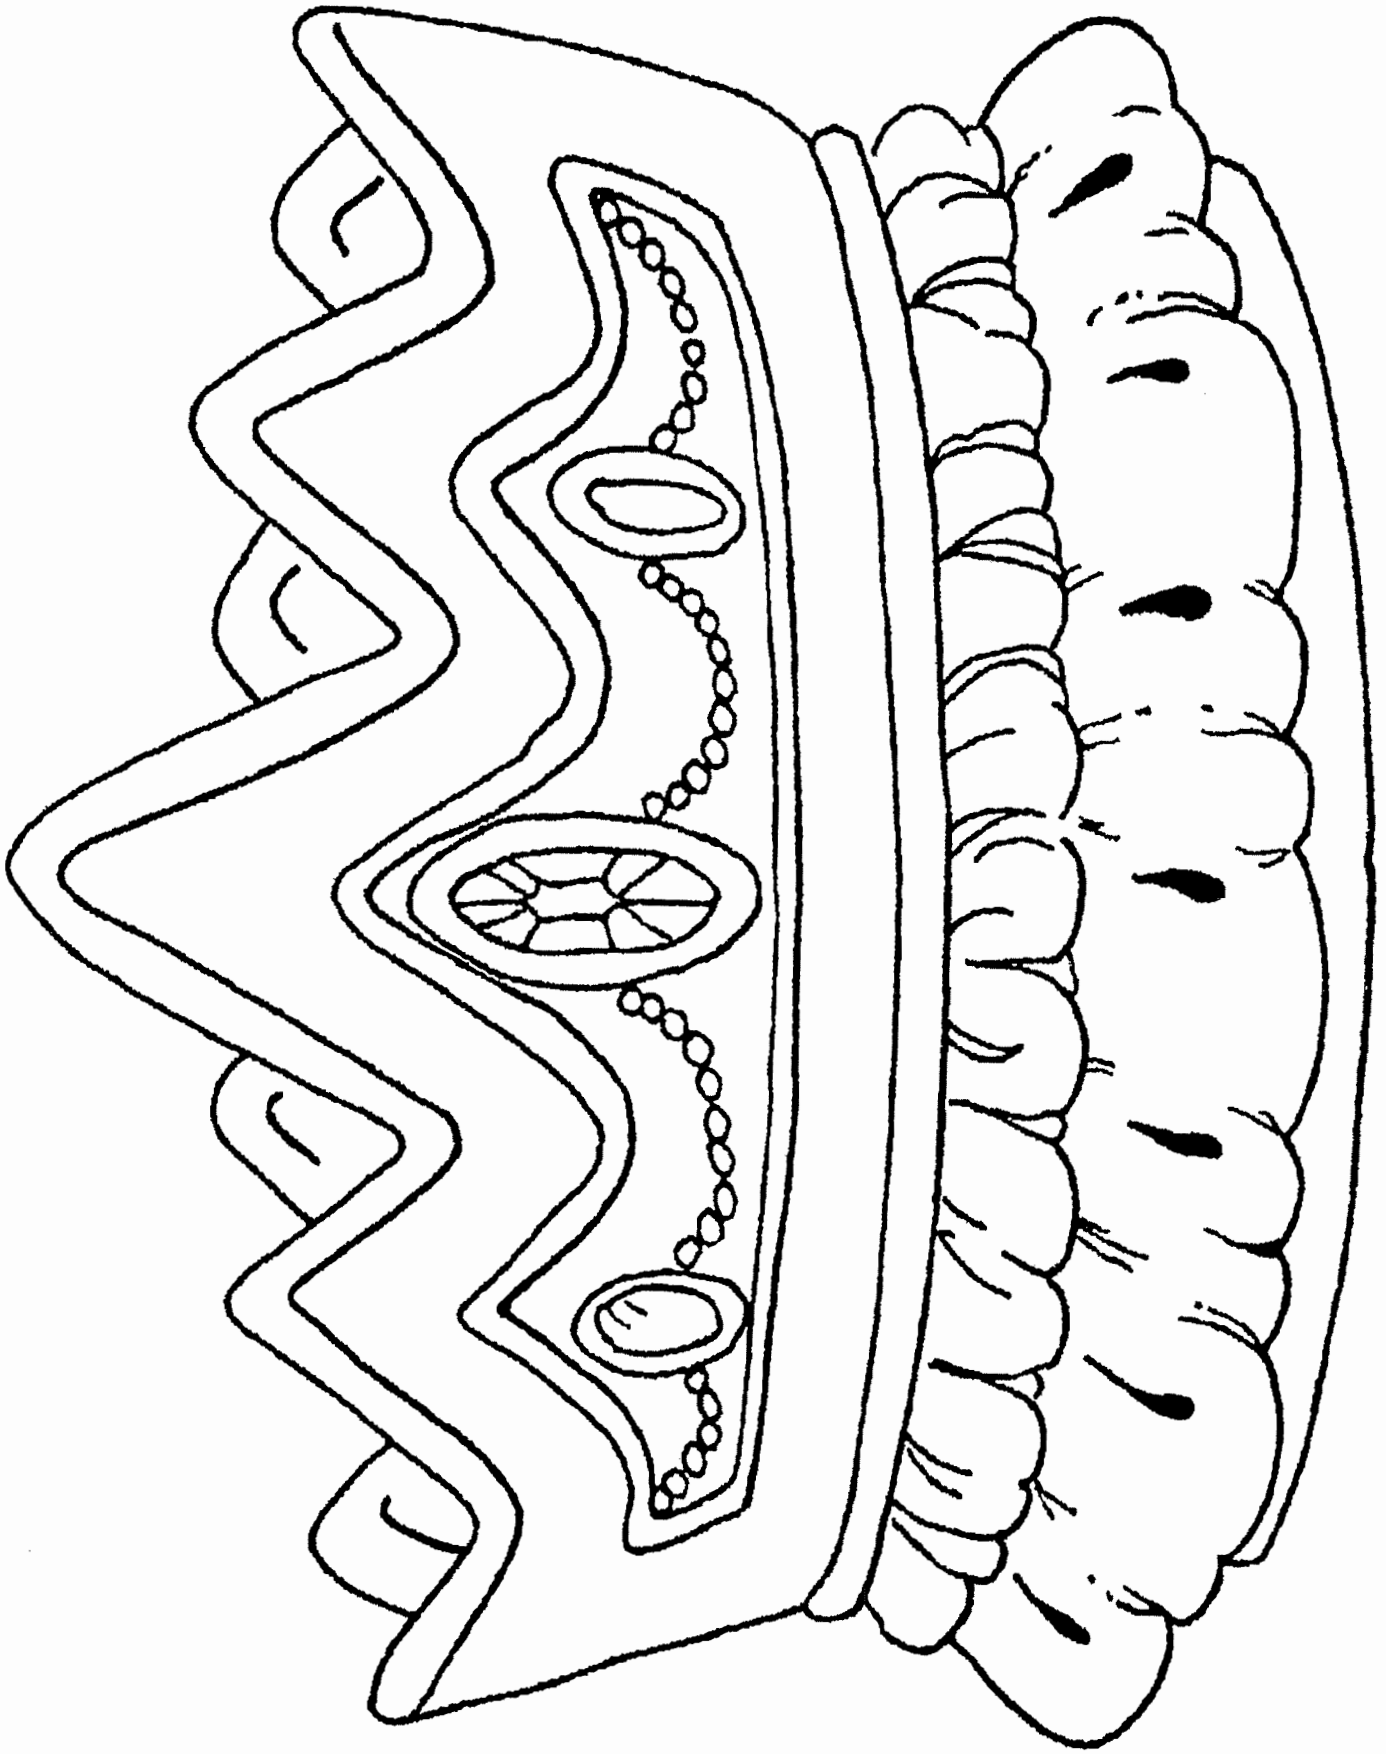

1. David was old and feeble. His son Adonijah was as handsome and persuasive as Absalom. He attempts to take the throne as David's death is coming. He gets Joab, the head of David's army, and Abithar the priest on his side.

2. Nathan, the prophet, hears of this and approaches Bathsheba to go talk to David. Her son Solomon was expected to be David's choice to be his successor.

3. Bathsheba speaks with David and he confirms Solomon is his choice. Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint Solomon.

4. Adonijah heard and was afraid of Solomon. Solomon agreed to spare his life if he could live respectfully and honorably.

5. David gives Solomon words of advice as he takes the throne as king. He tells him to keep the charges and statues of the Lord. His kingdom was "firmly established". Adonijah, and Joab are eventually executed because of their betrayal, Abithar is removed as priest also. David dies and is buried in Jerusalem. David reigned over Israel 40 years.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

Scriptures: 1 Kings 3

Key Verse: 1 Kings 3:9 "Therefore, give your servant an understanding heart to judge Your people, that I may discern between good and evil...."

Key Points:

1. Solomon makes an agreement with the Pharaoh of Egypt-he marries his daughter to gain an alliance with Egypt. He loved the Lord and followed his statues except, he sacrificed at the idolatrous high places. This was a bad influence from his Egyptian wife.

2. The Lord appears to Solomon in a dream, asking him what he could give him. Solomon chose wisdom. This pleased the Lord and he gave him the wisdom he asked for and also gave him riches and honor.

3. After this dream, Solomon was sacrificing and two women came to him to settle a dispute. Both women had babies but one baby had died in the night. They both claimed the living baby was theirs. Solomon asked for a sword and ordered the baby to be cut in two and give each woman one half of the baby. One mother cried out in protest and said to give it to the other mother, the other mother said to go ahead and split the child. Solomon said the mother wanting to save the child and give to the other was the true mother, she did not want harm to come to the baby. He gave her the baby, showing the wisdom God had given him.

4. All Israel heard of his judgment and wisdom. They revered and feared the king, knowing he had the wisdom of God to give justice.

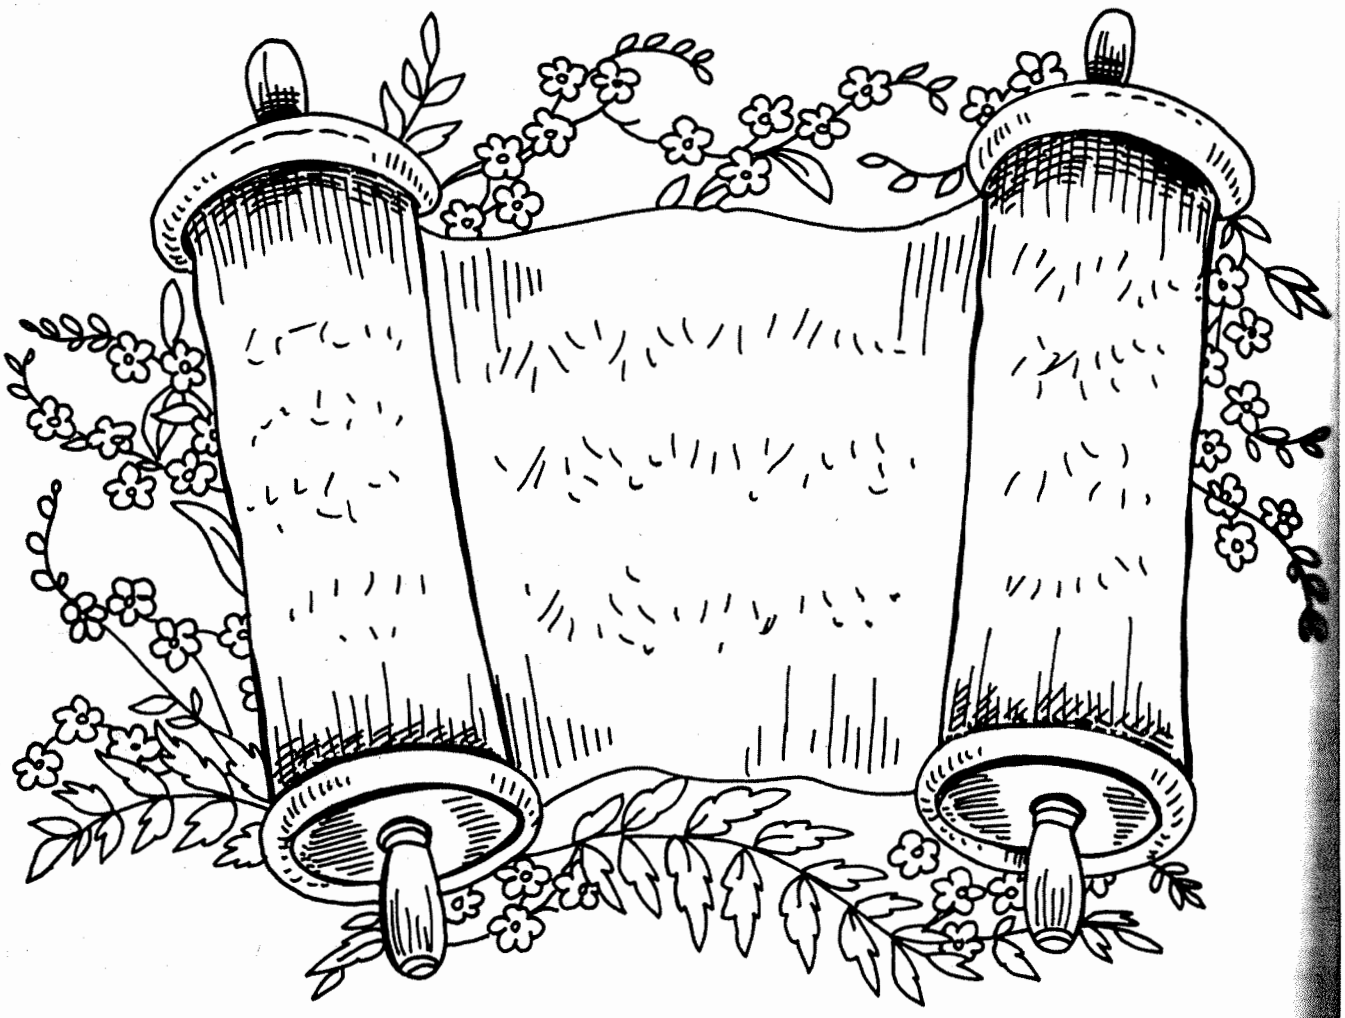

KING SOLOMON

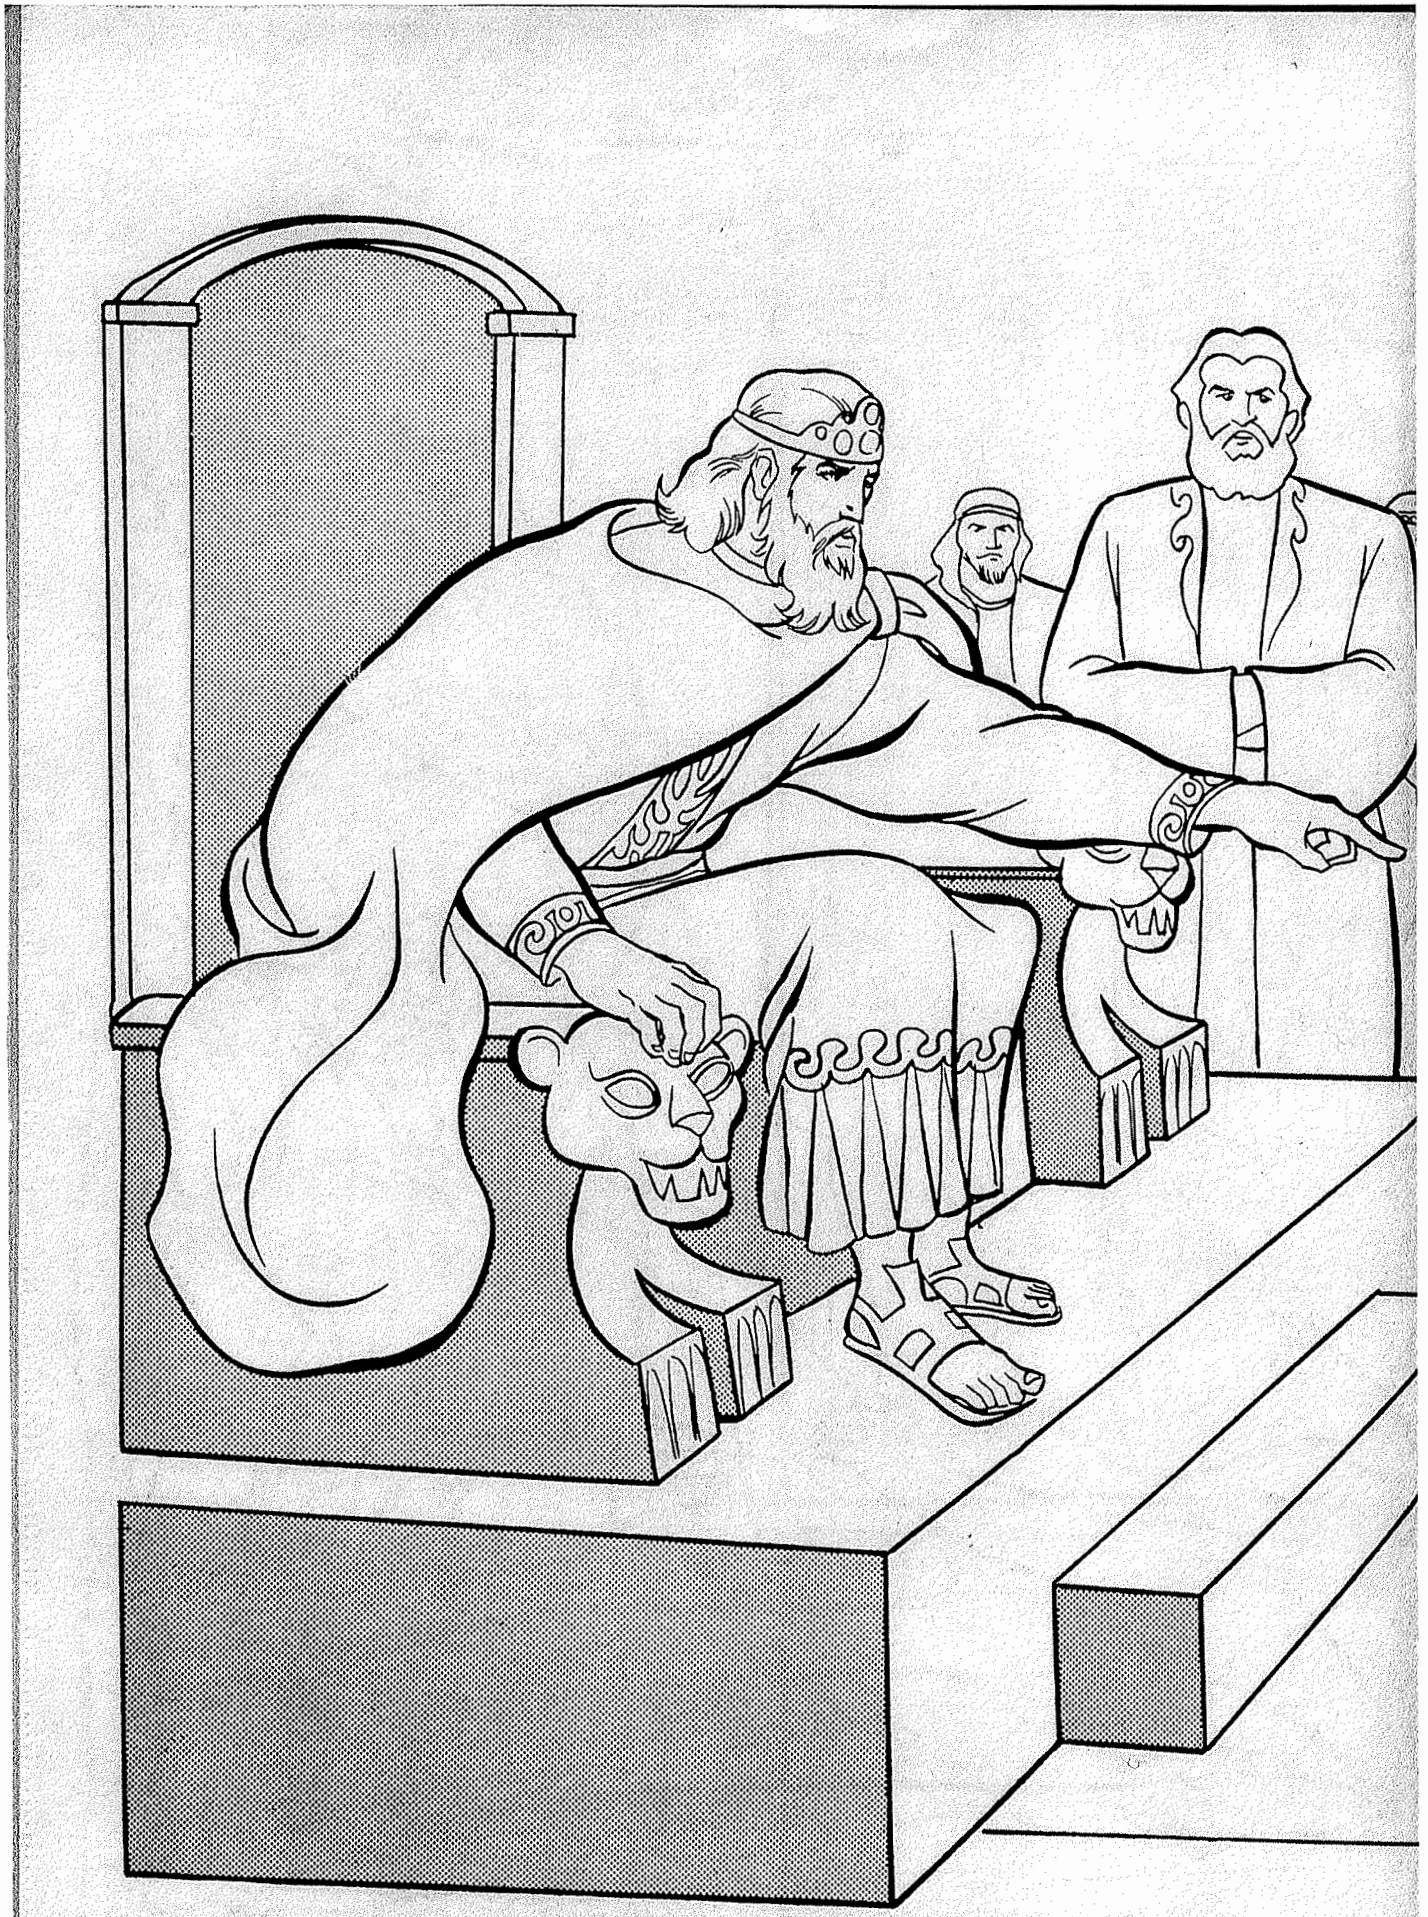

David ruled wisely and well for many years. When he died, his son Solomon became king. God asked Solomon what gifts he wished for. He asked for wisdom, that he might rule well. God was very pleased with this answer.

Solomon grew to be the wisest man in the world. It was given to him to build the holy temple in Jerusalem where all the Israelites could come to worship God. Now Jersualem was the capitol of all Israel and the tablets of God's commandments given to Moses were brought there.

The finest materials from all over the world and the best workmen came to Jerusalem to build the temple, as Solomon commanded.

Solomon was also a great writer. His father David had written the Book of Psalms. Solomon wrote the Book of Proverbs. Both of these Books are very important parts of the Holy Bible.

When two mothers claimed one child, the wise King Solomon decreed, "Cut the living child in half, and give one-half . . .

Because she could not see her child harmed, King Solomon knew the true mother, and the child was given to her.

Before Class

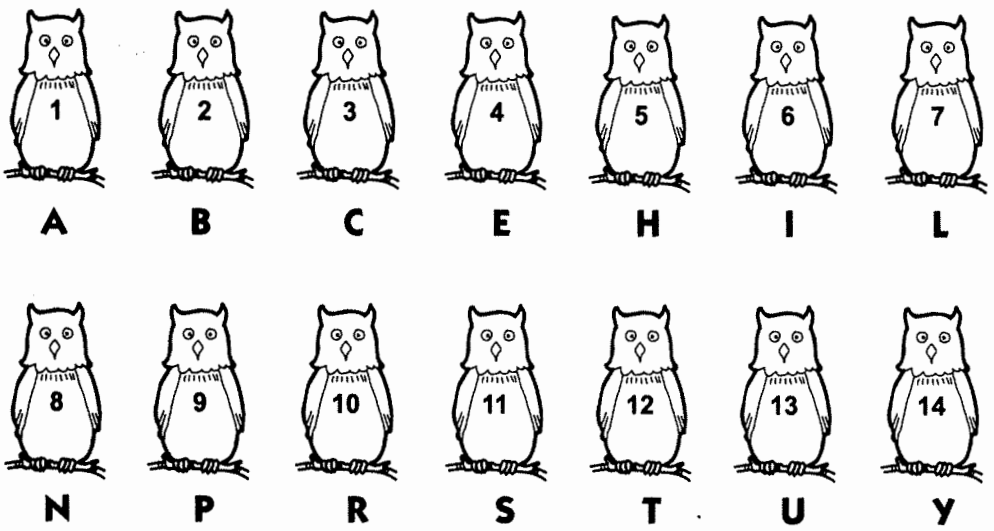

Duplicate a pattern page for each child. Do the puzzle so you will be prepared in case some students need help with theirs.

What to Do

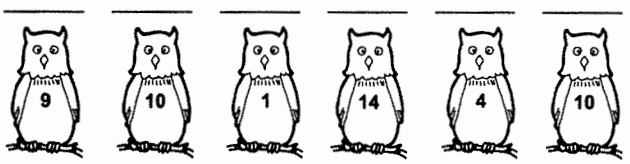

1. Give each child a pattern page.
2. Tell the story of Solomon's choice from 1 Kings 3:1-14.
3. Say, Solomon could have anything he wanted. But he knew the best choice was to have wisdom. Solomon showed God that he cared about Him and His people. God rewarded Solomon for his choice. God rewards us when we make good choices, too.

Week 83 Solomon's Great Kingdom

Scriptures: 1 Kings 4, (20 – 34 particularly explains magnitude of Solomon's kingdom), 1 Kings 10

Key Verse: 1 Kings 10:23 "So King Solomon surpassed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom."

Key Points:

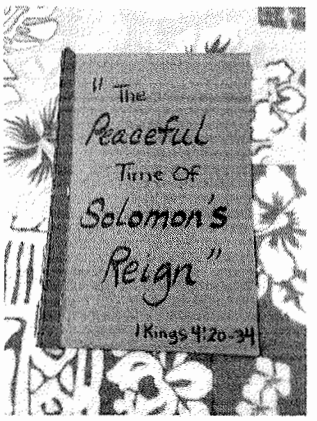

1. King Solomon was king over all Israel. He had many officials who served him. This included 12 governors who presided over the 12 districts in Israel. Each district provided food for the king and his household for one month out of the year. They also collected taxes and helped with building projects throughout their districts.

2. Solomon reigned over a very large area and over many people. Judah and Israel (vs.20) were as numerous as the sand by the sea. It took a large amount of provisions to keep the kingdom going. (you can discuss what those provisions and possessions were to show his greatness) They lived there happily, in safety and peace.

3. The Queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon. She came with a great company of camels, carrying large amounts of gold, spices and precious stones. She asked him many hard questions, but nothing was too difficult for Solomon and his wisdom. The queen was very impressed with Solomon and his kingdom and gave him many gifts (list these) including ships that brought wood and gold from Ophir that Solomon used in building his house for God (in next weeks story).

4. Solomon also wrote many proverbs and songs. All the nations came to hear Solomon and his wisdom. God gave Solomon wisdom and greatness of heart that surpassed all others in that time.

ACTIVITY: "The Peaceful Times Of Solomon's Reign" Book
Materials needed: five sheets of 9" x 12" construction paper--orange, green, red, purple, and yellow--for each student, stapler, staples, marker, crayons, scissors.

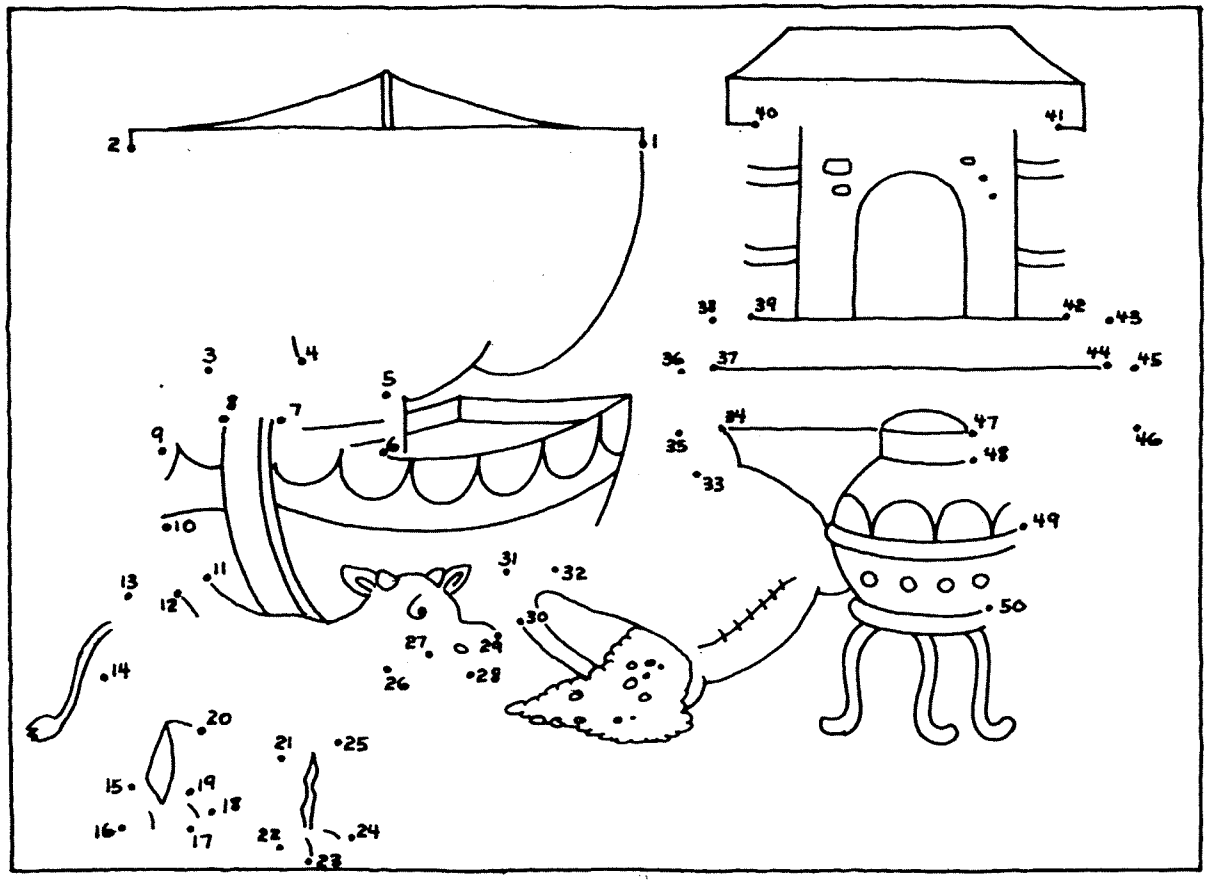

1. Hand out five sheets of different colored construction paper to each student.
2. Cut all papers in half.
3. Stack ten papers.
4. Staple 'book' three times on edge of book.
5. On cover, write "The Peaceful Tim Of Solomon's reign" and "1 Kings 4:20-34."
6. Open to next page, write "There was food." at the top of the paper.
7. Open to next page, write "It was a huge kingdom." at the top of the paper.
8. Open to next page, write "There were no battles or wars." at the top of the paper.
9. Open to next page, write "Solomon was rich." at the top of the page.
10. Open to next page, write "Even the horses and camels had food." at the top of the page.
11. Open to next page, write "Solomon was the wisest man." at the top of the page.
12. Open to next page, write "Solomon had honor and respect." at the top of the page.
13. Open to next page, write "He spoke 3,000 proverbs and 1,005 songs." at the top of the page.
14. Open to next page, write "God blessed Solomon." at the top of the paper and "Solomon obeyed God" at the bottom of the paper.
15. After writing the words, the students may go back and draw simple pictures depicting the words at the top of each page.
16. This should be a nice book for the students to take home and read.

The Richest Man in the World

2 Chronicles 9:13–27

Connect the dots to finish the picture.

When God said Solomon could have anything he asked for, Solomon asked for wisdom instead of wealth or fame. God was so pleased with Solomon's response that he gave him great riches, too. Solomon was the richest man in the world.

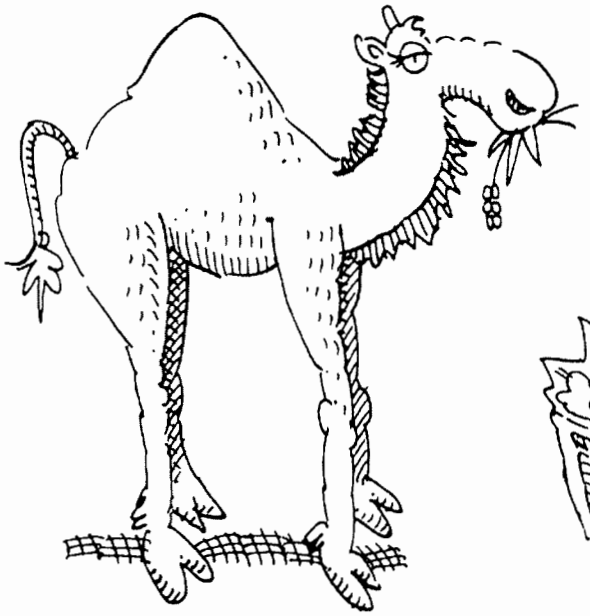

Queen of Sheba ☆ Elementary Activity

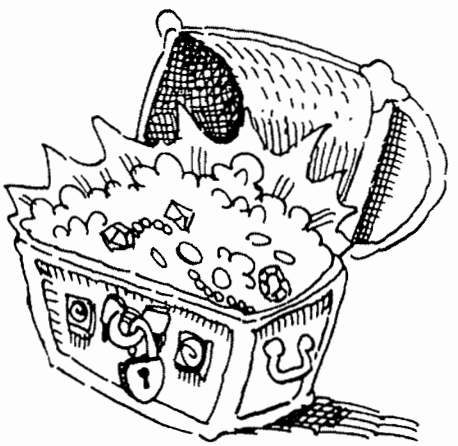

The queen of Sheba visited Solomon to see if he was as wise as people had told her. She brought him gold, precious stones, and spices. After she tested him with many questions she said, "Indeed, not even half the greatness of your wisdom was told me; you have far exceeded the report I heard. . . . Praise be to the Lord your God" (2 Chronicles 9:6–8).

Make a small box to hold some of your treasures. You can decorate it with jewels, glitter glue, braid, or ribbon.

To make your box, you need two squares of paper, one 1/4 inch smaller on two sides than the other. The smaller box will be the bottom and the larger one the top. Fold one corner of the paper over to the opposite corner to form a triangle (make a sharp crease). Unfold and do the same with the other two corners. Now fold all four corners to the center. Then, with corners folded, fold the sides to the center crease. Unfold and do the same with the other two sides. Unfold and pull two flaps out. You'll now have a shape like figure 1.

Fold the two long edges up so they are perpendicular to the bottom. Then fold A to B on both sides as shown, and fold the flap over these folds into the box. Do the same with the other end.

Week 84 Solomon Builds the Temple

Scriptures: 1 Kings 5 - 9

Key Verse: 1 Kings 6:13 "And I will dwell among the children of Israel and and will not forsake My people Israel."

Key Points:

1. Solomon's father, David, desired in his heart to build a house for God, but was denied by God because of all the bloodshed during his kingship. God, however, promised that his son would build the temple.

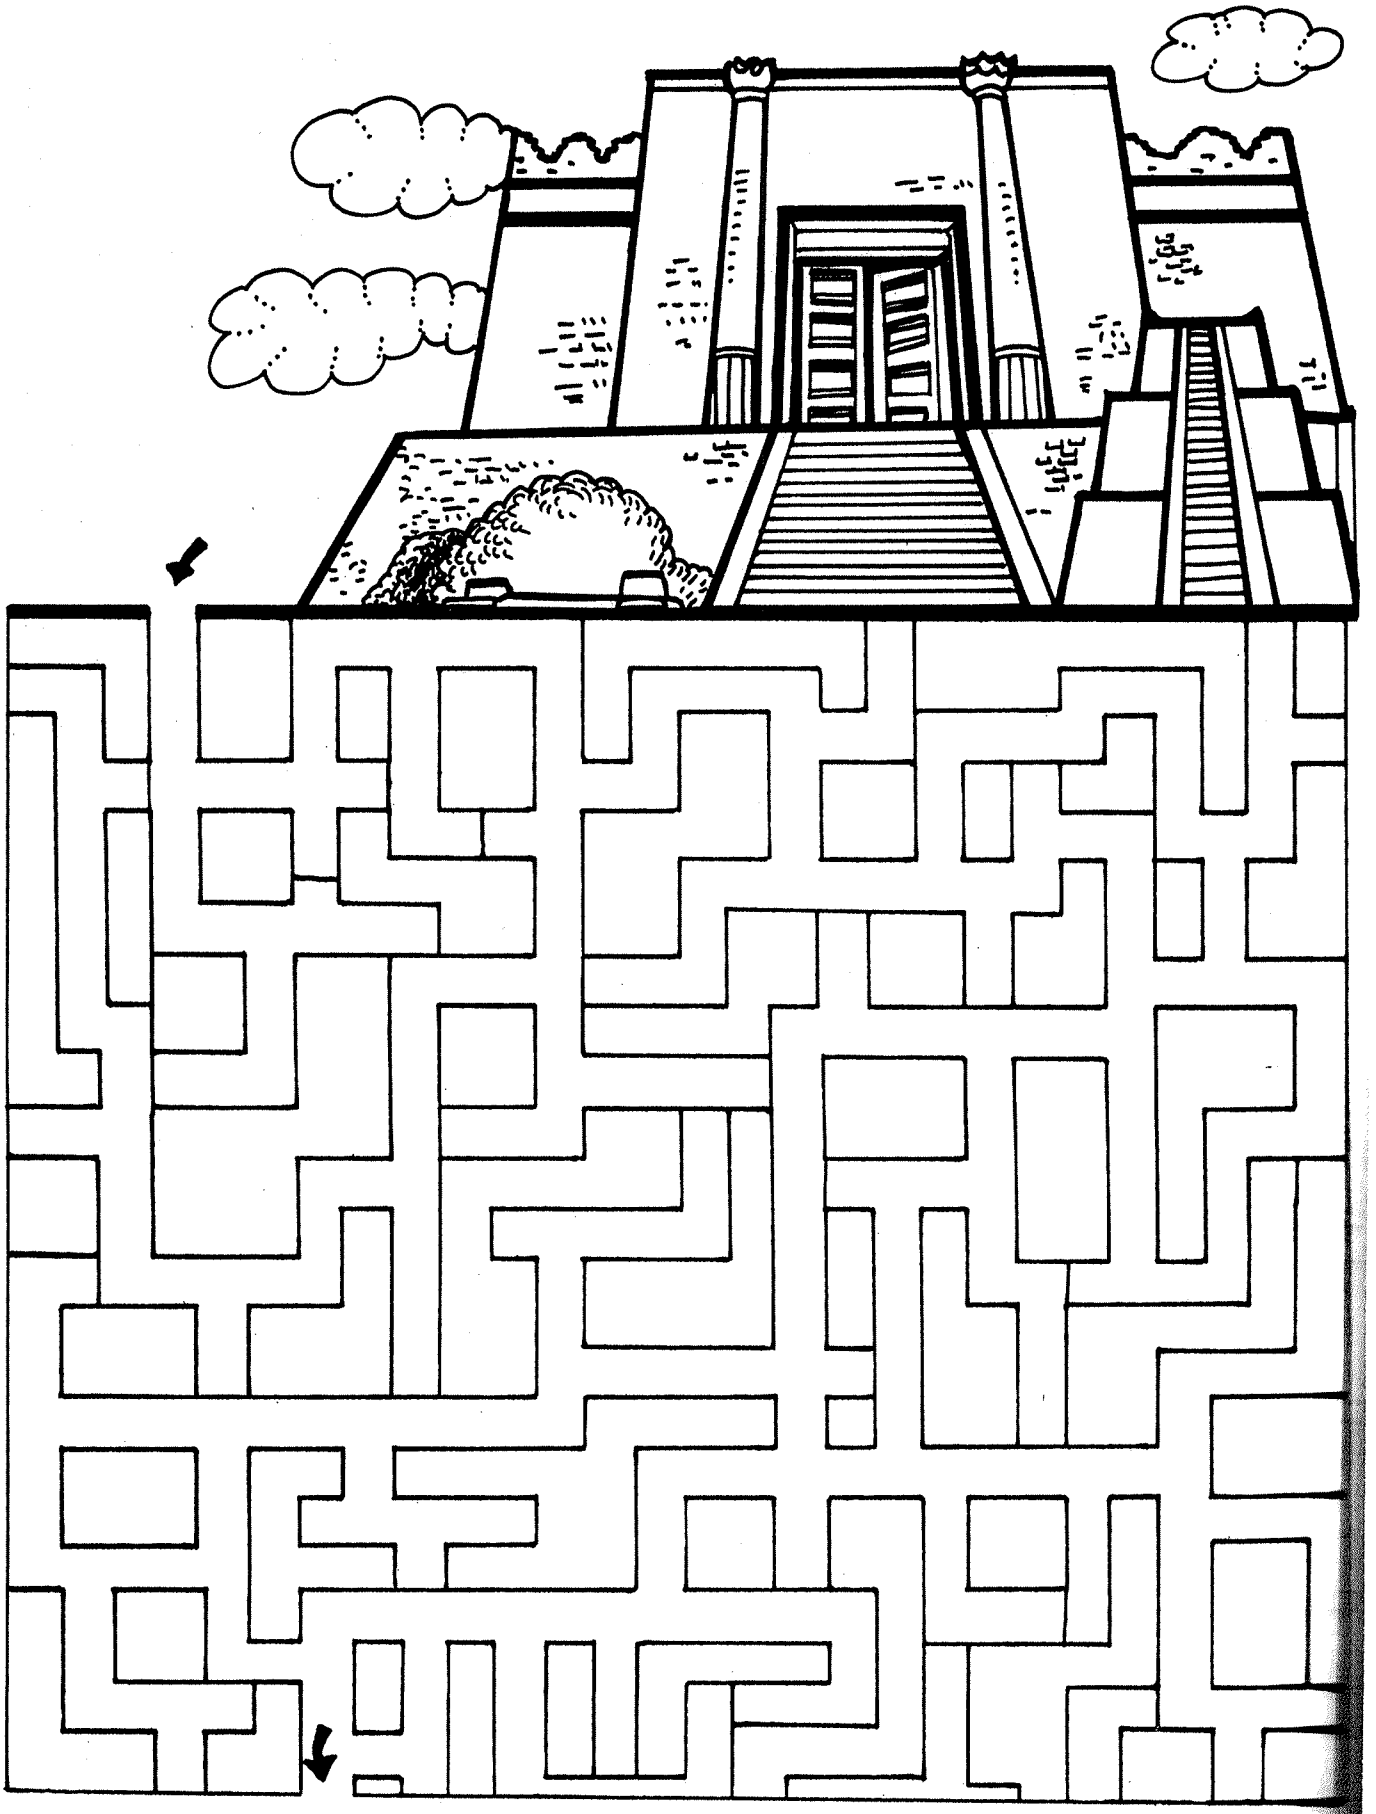

2. Solomon began the work on the temple in the fourth year of his reign. During David's reign, he had begun to set up men in the kingdom that would be able to help Solomon build the temple. In all there were 30,000 laborers who worked on the temple. They also built a royal house for Solomon, his household and royal court. It was also quite beautiful.

3. It took 7 ½ years to build the temple. It was built with many beautiful materials, including cedar logs and cypress from Lebanon, stones, gems, precious stones, gold (As time permits, discuss the many attributes of materials, size, furnishings and design of the temple and the royal court.) It was completely covered on the inside with pure gold.

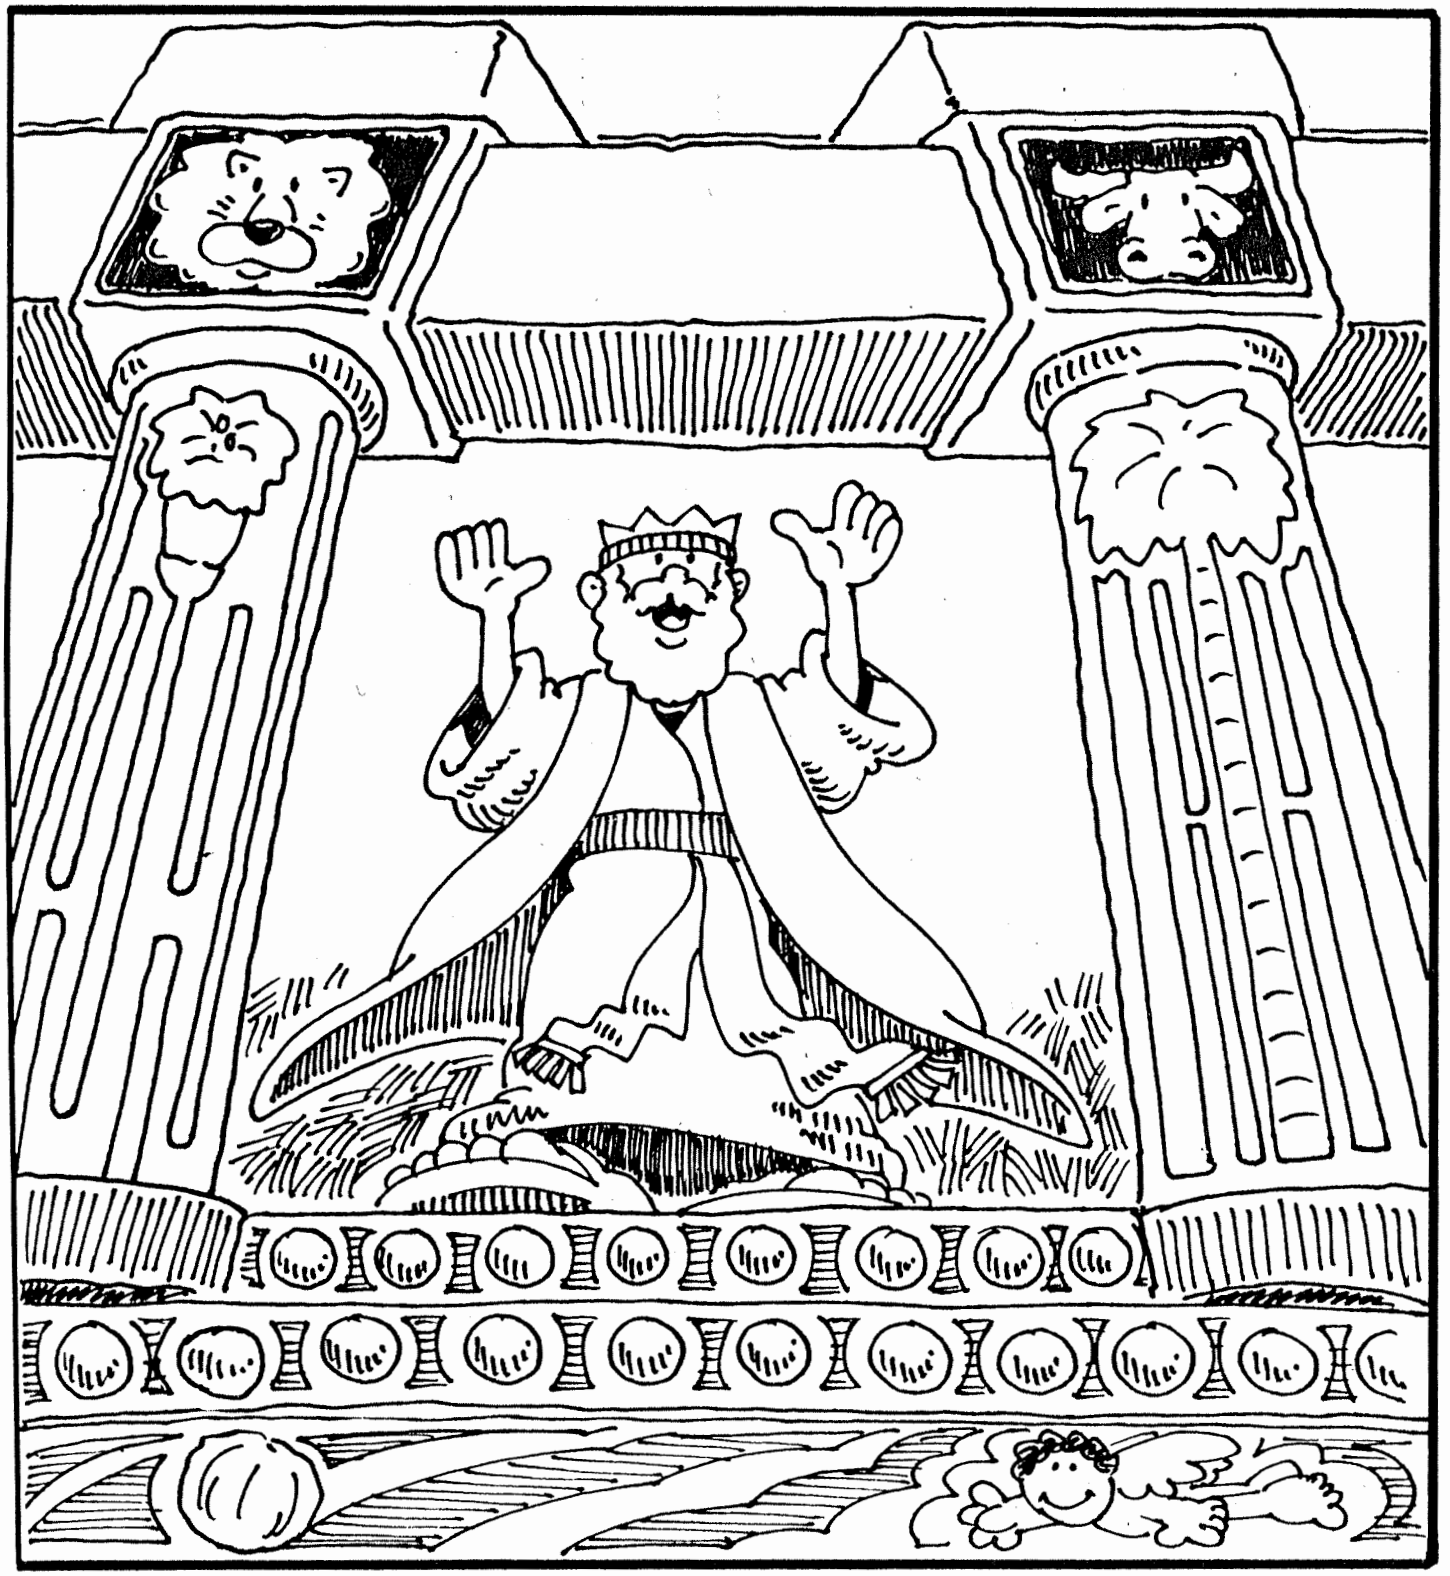

4. Once the temple was built, Solomon ordered the priests to bring up the tabernacle and the Ark of the Covenant and all the holy furnishings to the temple. They put the ark in the most holy place and the glory of the Lord filled the temple. God promised he would reside there as long as Solomon walked with God and followed his statutes. The temple would be a holy, reverent place where his people would come and worship.

Memory Verse

Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place. I have chosen and consecrated this temple so that my Name may be there forever.

Bible Truth

Bible Story

God's temple is dedicated. (2 Chronicles 7:1-18)

What You Need

- ✻ page 40
- ✻ card stock
- ✻ thick craft foam
- ✻ scissors
- ✻ cool glue guns
- ✻ jumbo craft sticks
- ✻ pencils
- ✻ permanent markers

Before Class

Duplicate a pattern page to card stock for each child. Foam sheets about ½-inch thick can be substituted for craft foam.

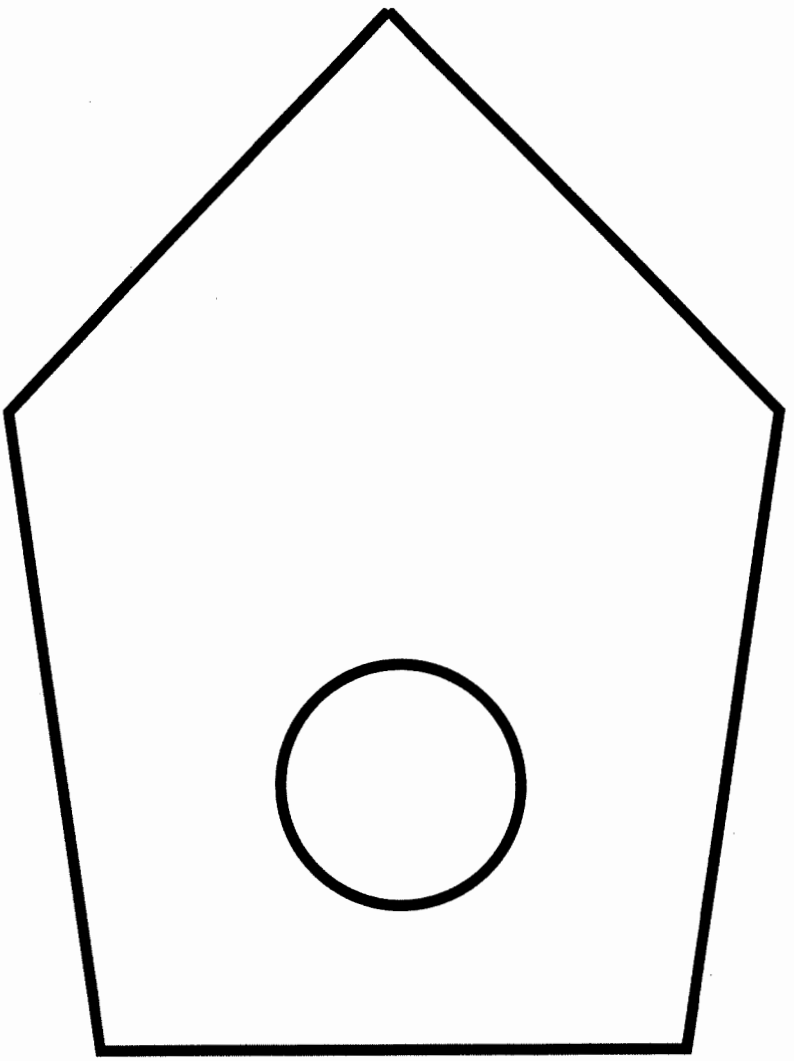

What to Do

1. Give each child a pattern page.
2. Tell the story of the dedication of the temple, from 2 Chronicles 7:1-18.
3. Say, God wanted the temple to be a special place. When it was finished, He promised to be there, listening for prayers of the people. God loves to hear our prayers.
4. Have the children cut out the pattern pieces.
5. Show how to trace two ends onto the craft foam and cut out those pieces.
6. Help the children construct the floor, sides and roof of the bird houses using jumbo craft sticks. For the floor of each birdhouse, have each child place three craft sticks side-by-side and stick a piece of tape across the sticks to hold them together. The children should repeat this process for two side parts (four sticks each) and two roof parts (four sticks each) for their houses. Then show how to attach the sections together with a glue gun.

7. The students should use permanent markers to draw a cross on one end piece, and possibly a door and windows to look like a temple on the other.
8. Show how to use scissors to cut a two-inch hole in the opposite end of the bird house, and push a craft stick into the craft foam, leaving about 3 inches of stick outside the house.
9. Instruct the children to use permanent markers to write "2 Chronicles 7:15-16" above the hole in the end of their bird houses.

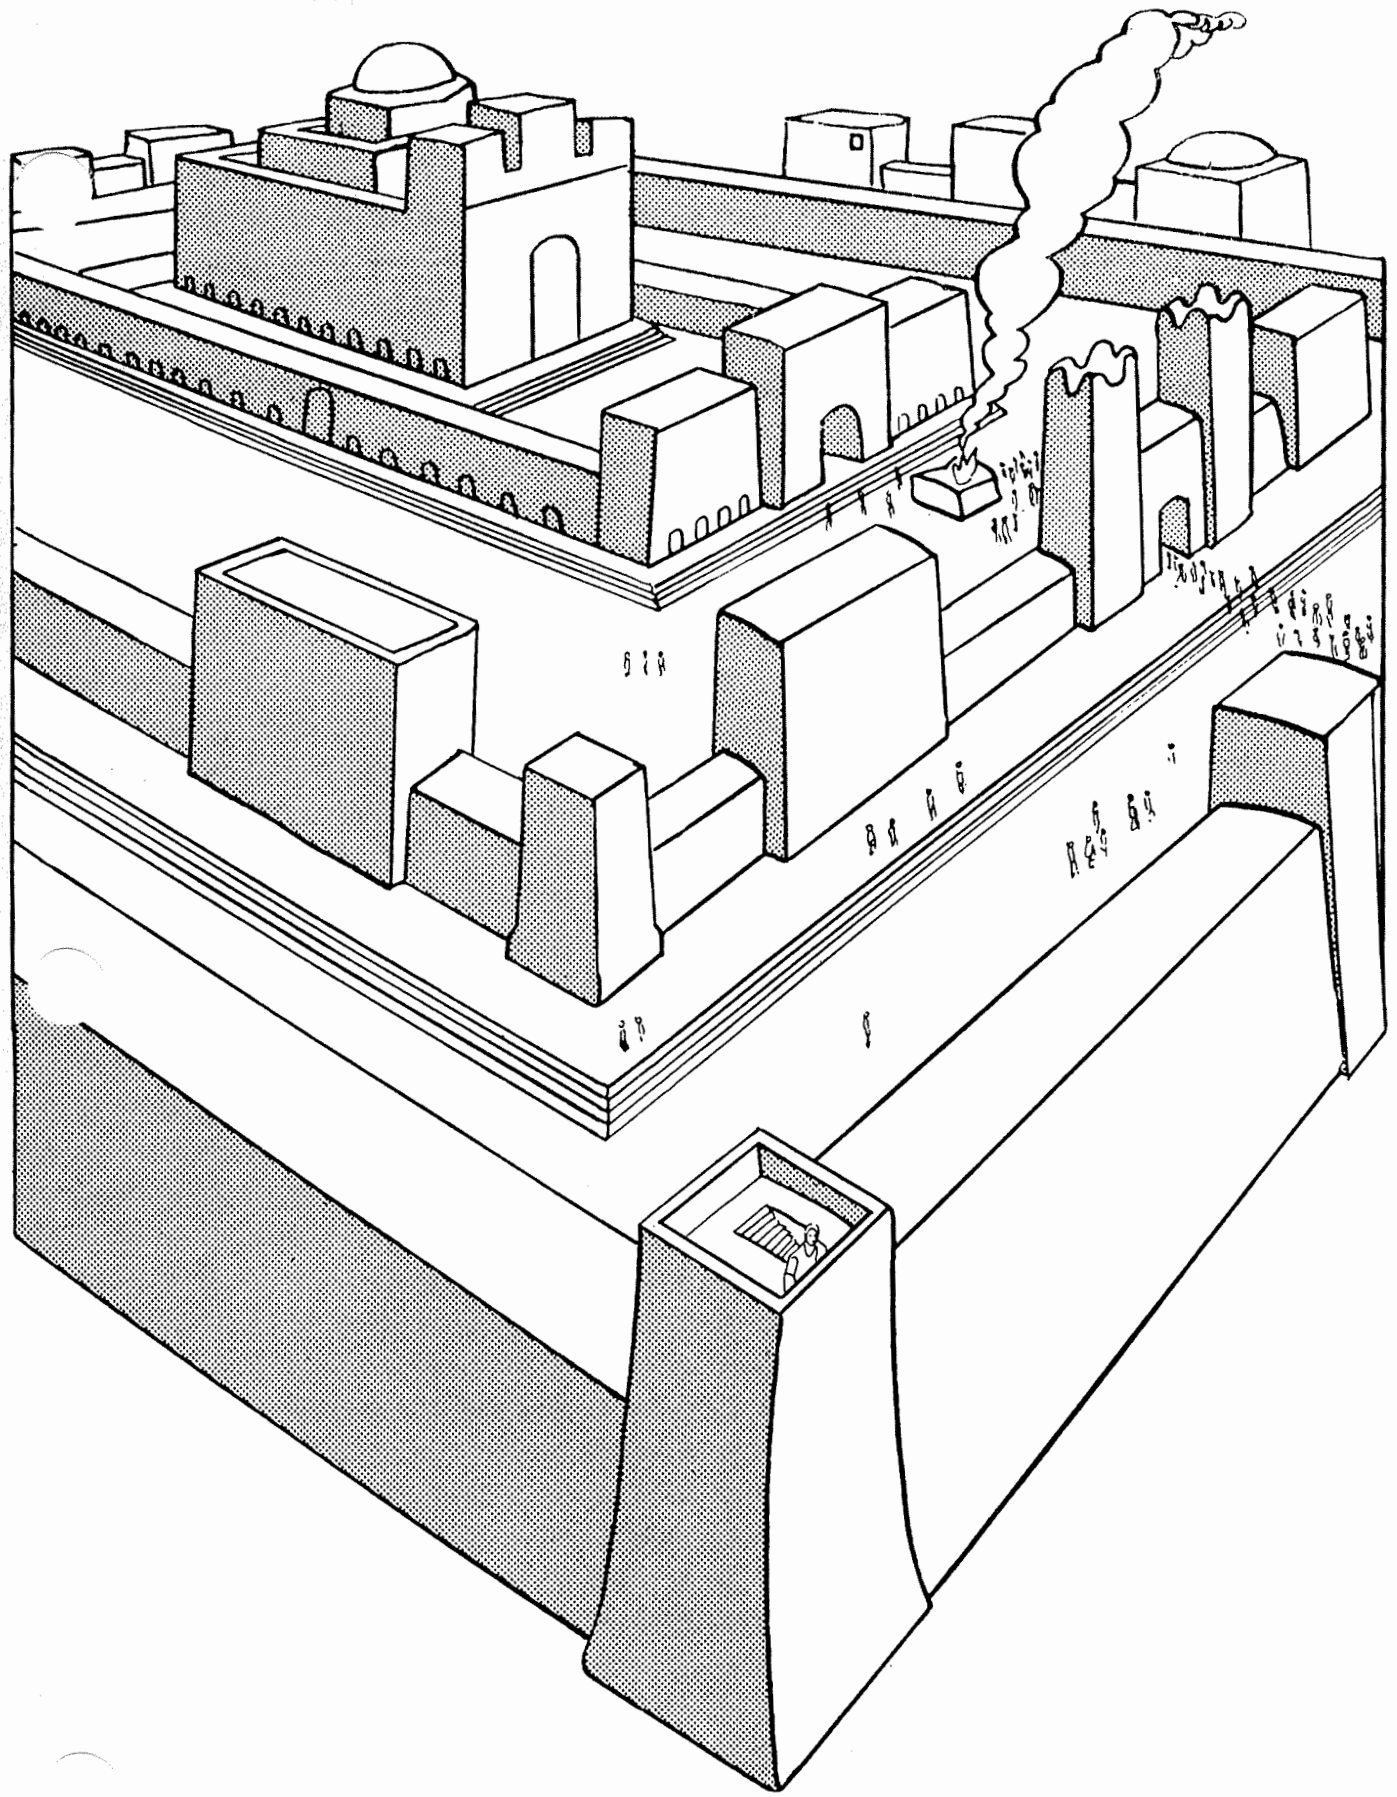

TEMPLE MATERIALS

1 Kings 5–8

Can you find the right river for these logs to go down in order to get to the temple?

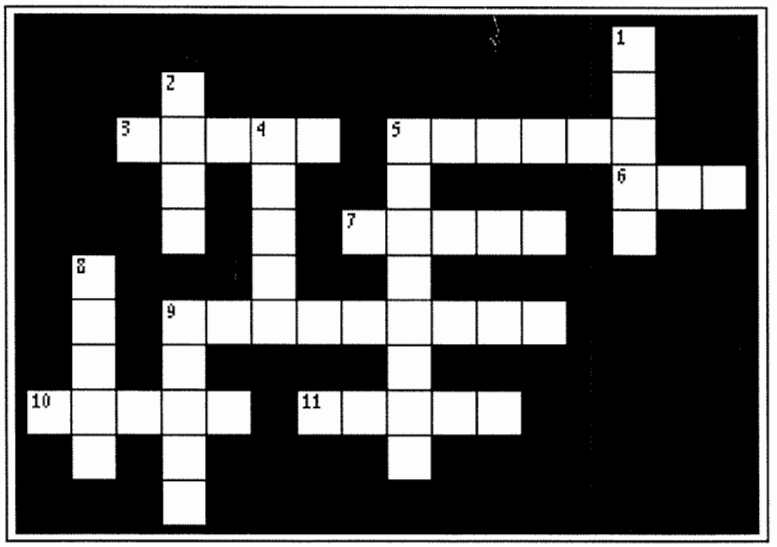

Solomon bought cedar trees from the King of Tyre to use in building the temple. The logs were floated to Israel and dragged cross country to Jerusalem. Then they were cut into beautiful wood panels.

A great temple was built by King Solomon, where all people of the earth could come to worship and pray to God.

Now you have the 1 short wall!

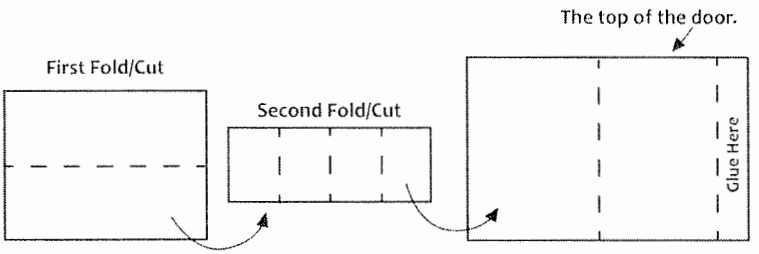

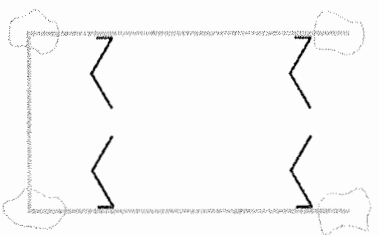

Place 4 small balls of Play-Doh on the table.

Stick the bottom corners of the walls into the Play-Doh so they stand up. The 2 long walls should be accross from each other with the 1 short wall connecting them.

Connect the top corners with Play-Doh too.

The temple is standing!

Fold the piece of construction paper in half lengthwise and cut on the fold.

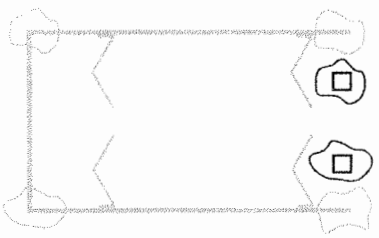

Then cut 1 of the pieces into 4 rectangles.

On 1 of the rectangles, measure in 1/2 inch from the edge and fold the paper. Then fold the amount left over in half.

Put glue on the 1/2 inch fold and use this part to attach the paper to the temple wall.

Repeat this for the other 3 small rectangles.

Now you have 4 gold doors!

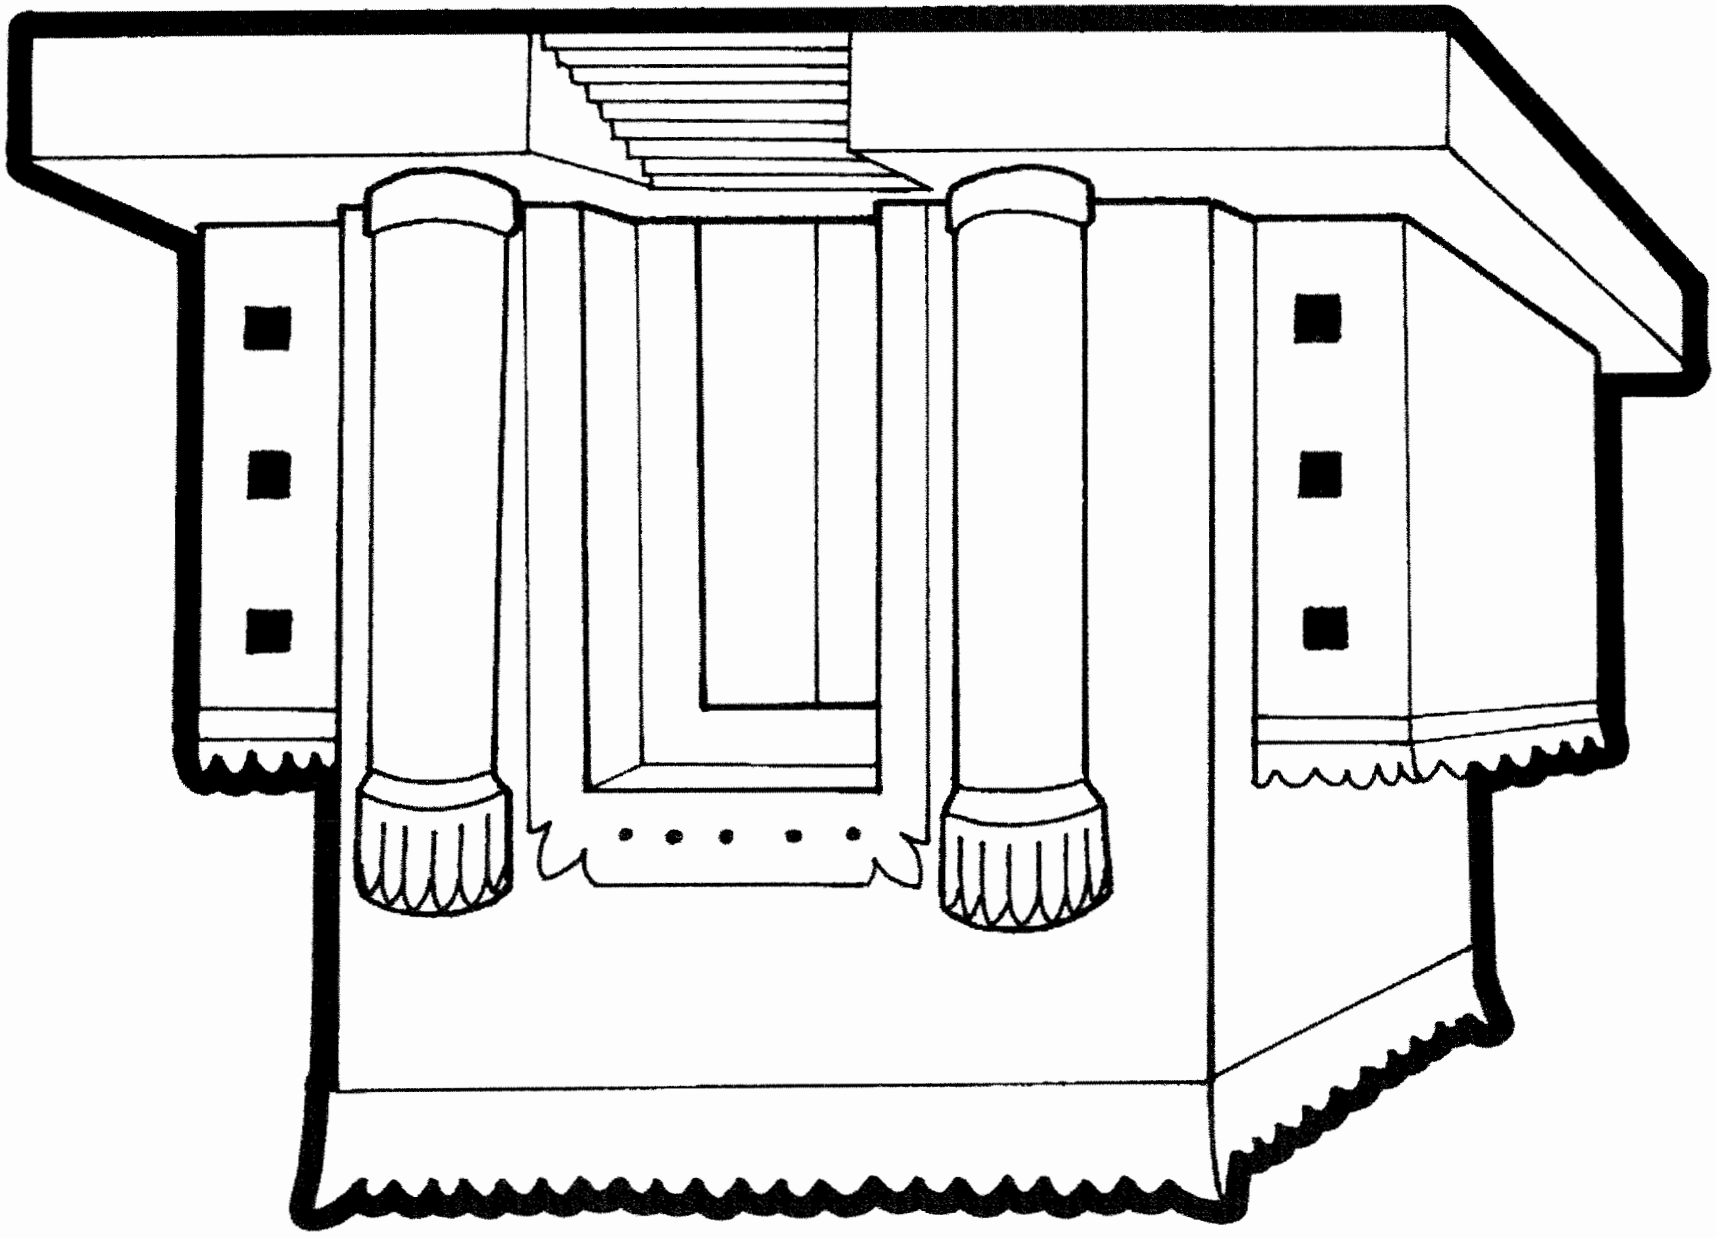

Place 2 small balls of Play-Doh on the table on the open end of the temple.

Stick 4 craft sticks in each ball of Play-Doh to make a square.

Connect the top of the sticks with Play-Doh too.

These are the temple columns!

Week 85 Solomon Forgets God – The Kingdom Divides

Scriptures: 1 Kings 11 and 12

Key Verse: 1 Kings 11:9 "So the Lord became angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned from the Lord God of Israel…"

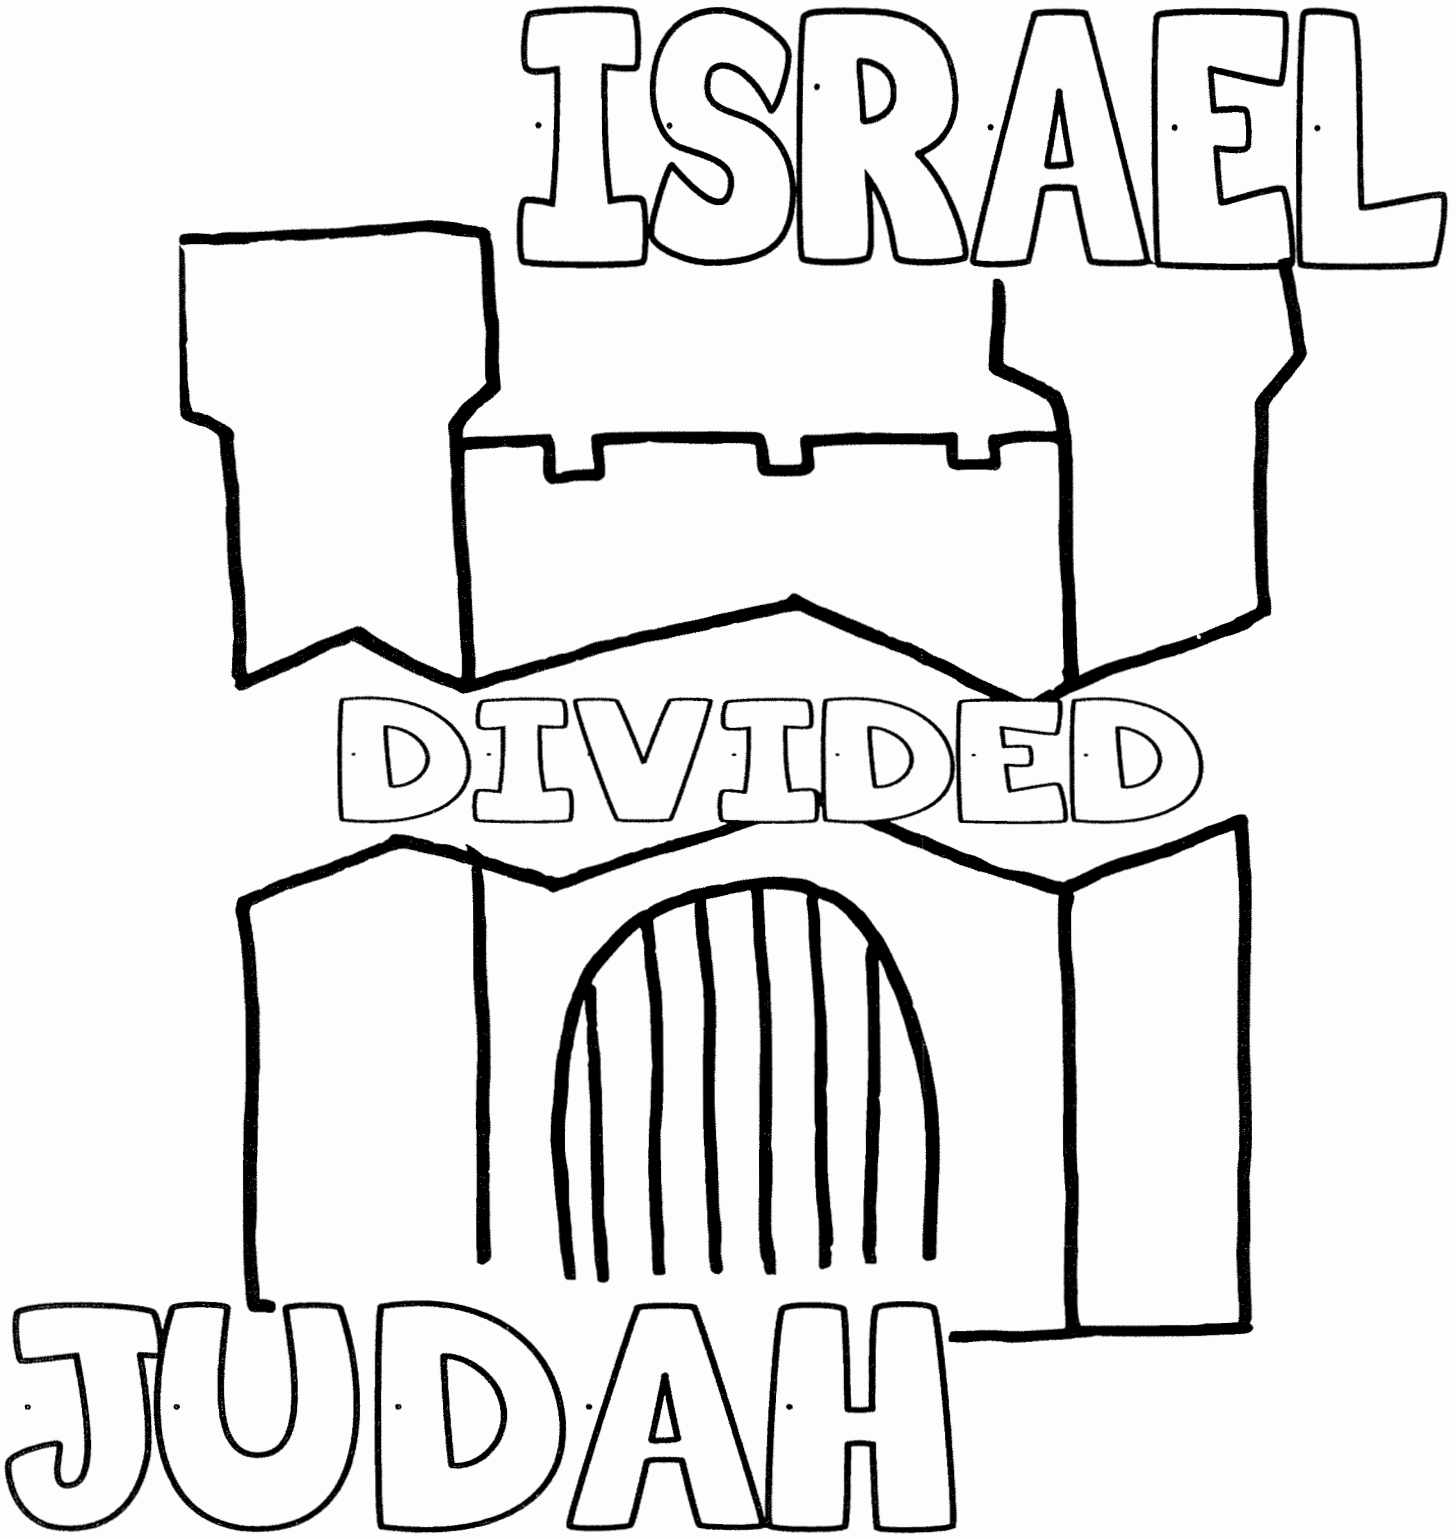

Key Points:

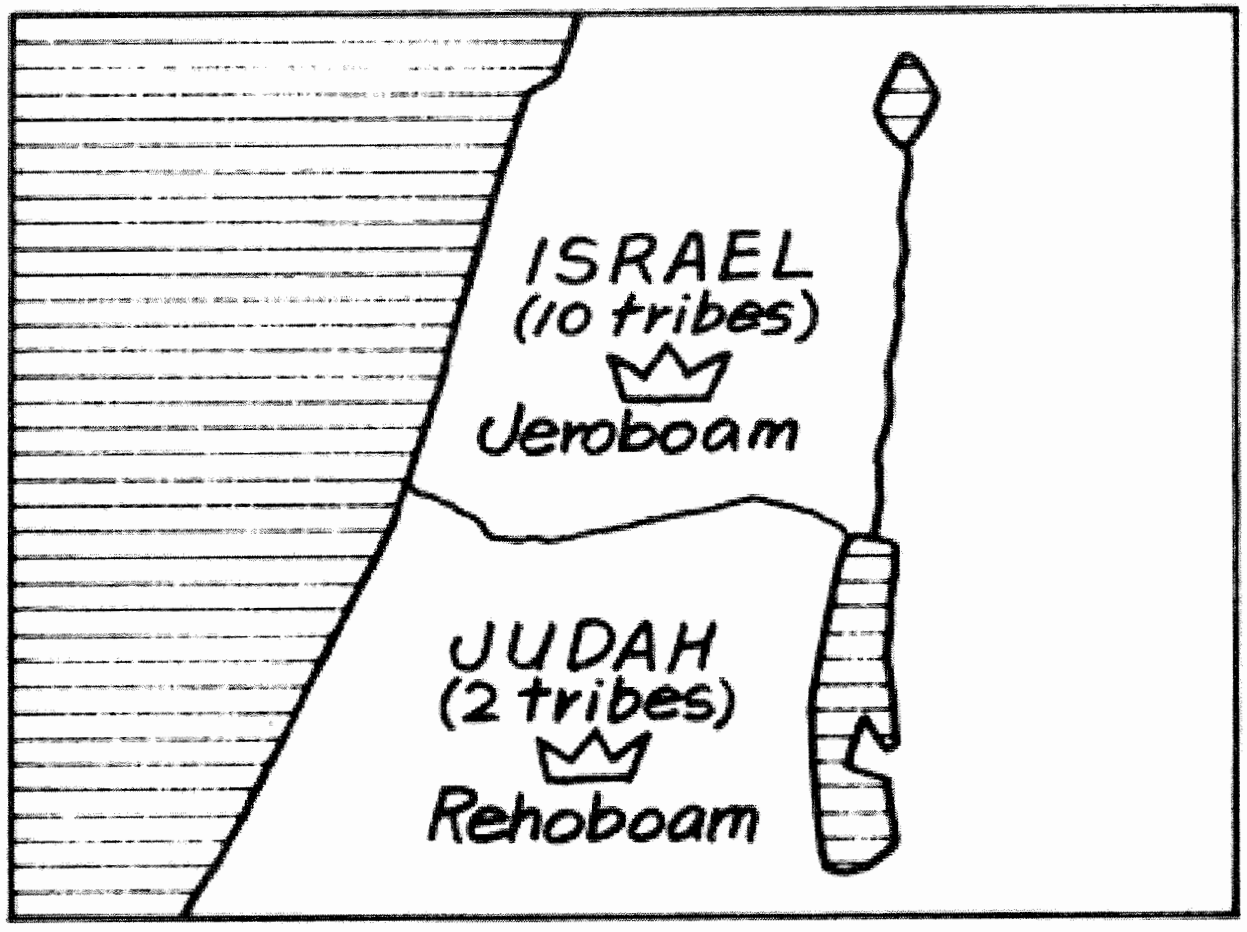

1. Solomon loved and married women who worshiped idols rather than God. God had given laws not to intermarry with those who were idolatrous. Solomon had 700 wives and princesses and 300 concubines. They turned his heart away from God and he did evil by worshiping idols.

2. The Lord became angry with him, told him Israel would rebel. He told him that all but one tribe would be taken from his son, Rehoboam, who would be king after him. He would retain these because of God's love for his father David. 10 tribes would be under another king. God promised not to do this while Solomon lived, but after he died.

3. God instructed his prophet Ahijah to meet a mighty man of valor, Jeroboam, and show him that 10 tribes would be given to him as king. He showed this by taking fabric and tearing it into 10 pieces. Solomon wanted to kill Jeroboam because of this but he escaped to Egypt until Solomon died.

4. After the death of Solomon, Rehoboam ruled very harshly, thinking he would gain loyalty. It did not work and a rebellion took place. A battle had been planned against Jeroboam to restore the kingdom to Rehoboam. God sent Shemaiah, a prophet, to tell them not to fight. The kingdom would be divided, Judah and Benjamin remained with Rehoboam the rest with Jeroboam. Solomon reigned over Israel 40 years.

Week 86 Elijah Fed By Ravens

Scriptures: 1 Kings 17

Key Verse: 1 Kings 17:24 "Then the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in you mouth is the truth."

Key Points:

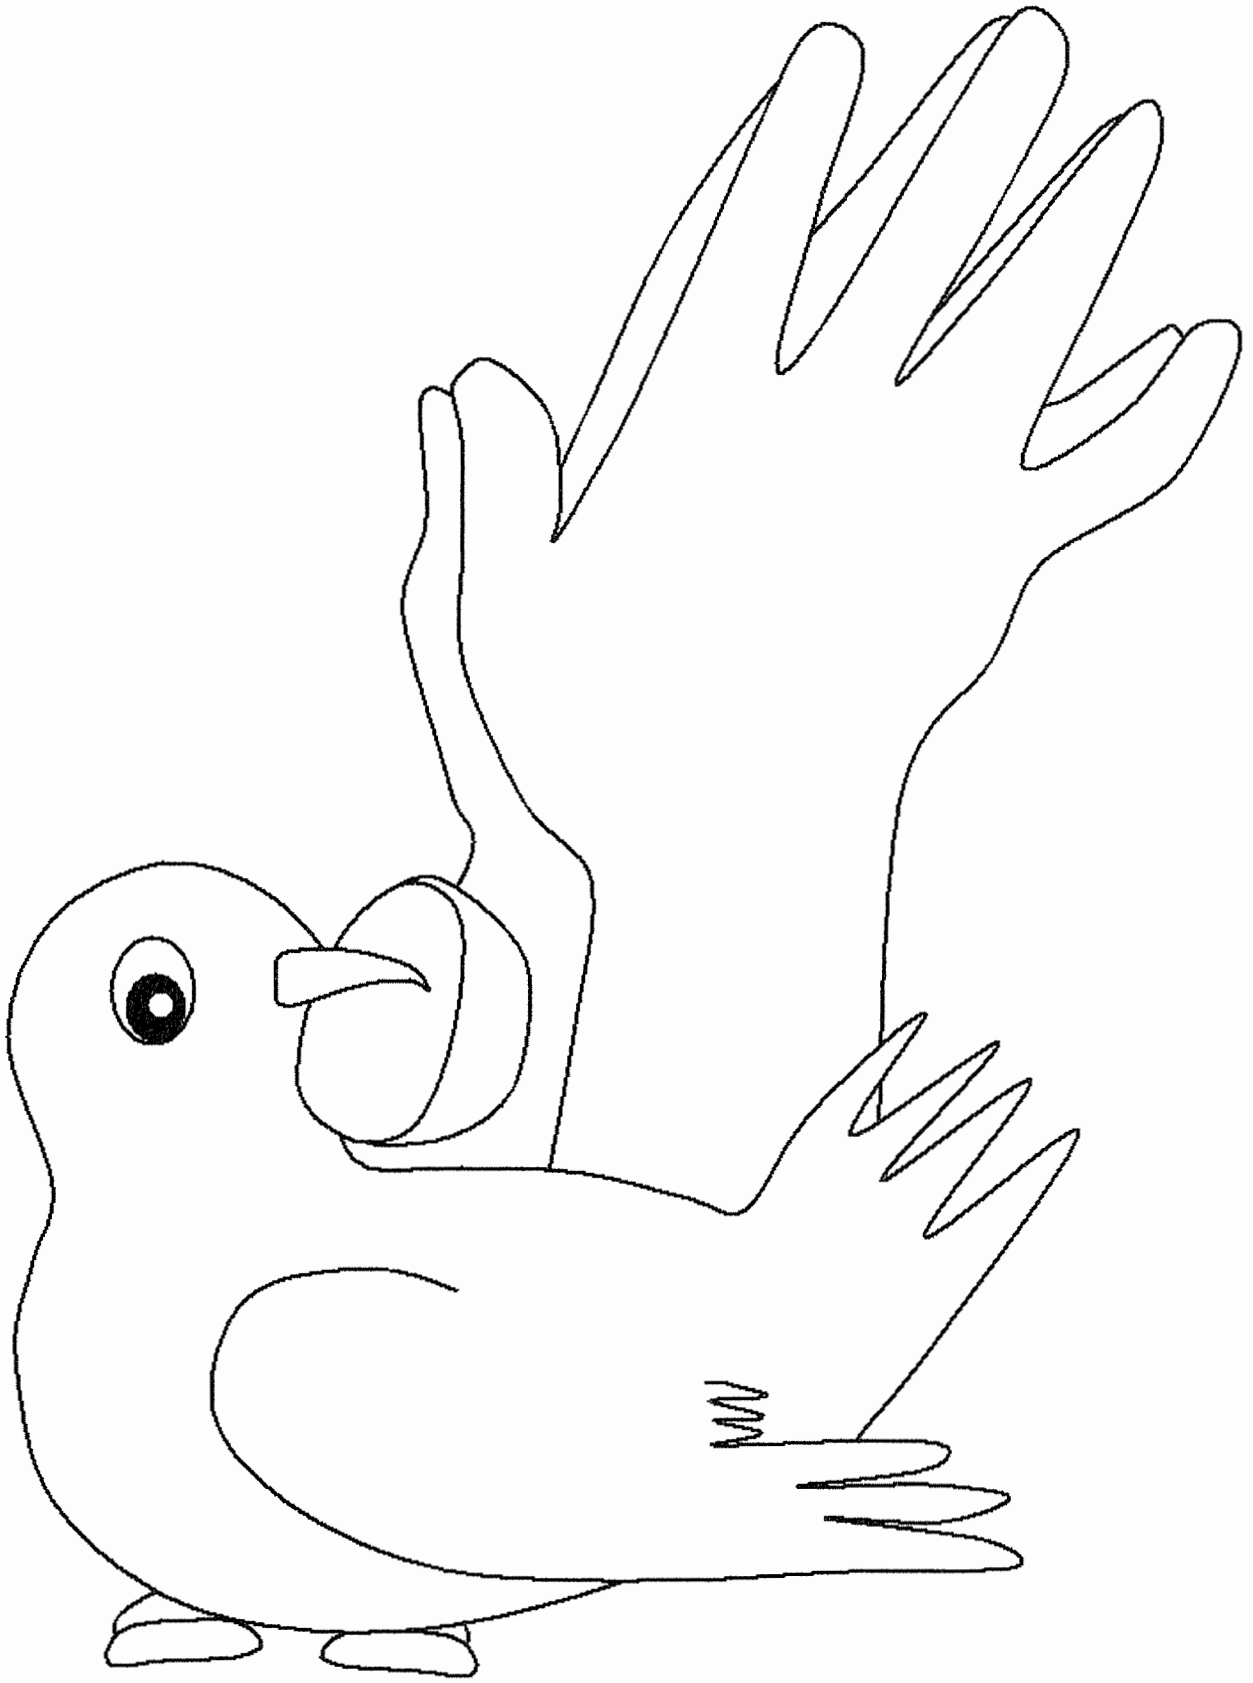

1. Word of famine came through Elijah the Tishbite, a prophet of God. God sends him to hide by the Brook Cherith so he will have water to drink during the famine, he also sends ravens to bring him bread and meat.

2. Eventually, the brook dried up so God comes to him again and sends him to a widow at Zarephath, who would provide for him.

3. As Elijah requests water and food from her, she tells him she only has a small amount of meal and oil. She had been gathering sticks so she could prepare the last amount of bread for her and her son. Then she thought they would die.

4. Elijah tells her not to fear but, to make a cake for him then for her and her son – for God said the flour and oil would not run dry until the end of the famine. She obeyed and it happened as the word of the Lord had said through his prophet.

5. After these things, the widow's son became very sick and was not breathing. Elijah took the boy to an upper room and laid him on his bed. He cried to the Lord, asking him why this tragedy had come to the woman's son. Elijah stretched himself over the child 3 times and prayed to the Lord to revive him. He came back to life, so his mother rejoiced and praised Elijah. She knew he indeed was a man of God.

Elijah's Raven

1 Kings 17:1-7

Materials needed:
Construction paper—black, scrap of red
Glue
Black thread
Crayons or paint

Directions:
Cut two ravens out of black construction paper, and two pieces of meat out of the red paper. (See page 26 for patterns.) Glue raven pieces together, inserting 20-inch piece of thread as indicated. Elijah on Mt. Carmel

1 Kings 18:20-40

Materials needed:
Construction paper—dark green, red, gray, brown, light blue
Yarn—dark green
Glue

Directions:
Cut twenty-four rocks from gray paper. (See page 24 for all patterns.) Use half of these to form an altar in the lower half of one sheet of green paper. Cut two sacrifices from red paper. Glue one of these on this altar. In second sheet of green paper, punch one hole 1 inch from top and one hole in lower half of paper, where altar will be placed. Glue rest of rocks together to form an altar. Place this over lower hole and glue only around edges. Also glue sacrifice to altar. Paint water around base of altar with blue paint. Cut from brown paper and glue four barrels around edge as shown in sketch. Cut flame from red paper and add yellow highlights with tempera paints. Glue this to middle of 20-inch piece of green yarn. Thread yarn through holes with flame on top. Cut sky from blue paper and glue this around edges to top of paper. Glue green sheets together, back to back.

As you tell the story, start with the plain altar. Then turn paper over. Keep flame under "sky" until you tell about the fire coming down from Heaven to consume the sacrifice, the rocks, and the water. Then pull yarn, and flame will come down from "Heaven."

A Man of Miracles

I Kings 17

Memory Verse

The woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God and that the Word of the Lord from your mouth is the truth."
I Kings 17:24 (NIV)

For the Teacher

Duplicate one circle for each child. Provide scissors. Divide the children into two groups. Have the first group read aloud, in unison, every other word, beginning with the star. Then the second group will read every other word, beginning with the circle. The words read by the first group are in I Kings 17:15 (NIV), and the words read by the second group are in I Kings 17:22-23 (NIV). The answers are on page 61.

Introduction

During the famine, God told Elijah to ask a poor widow for food. "I have only enough flour and oil to make one cake for my son and me," said the widow.

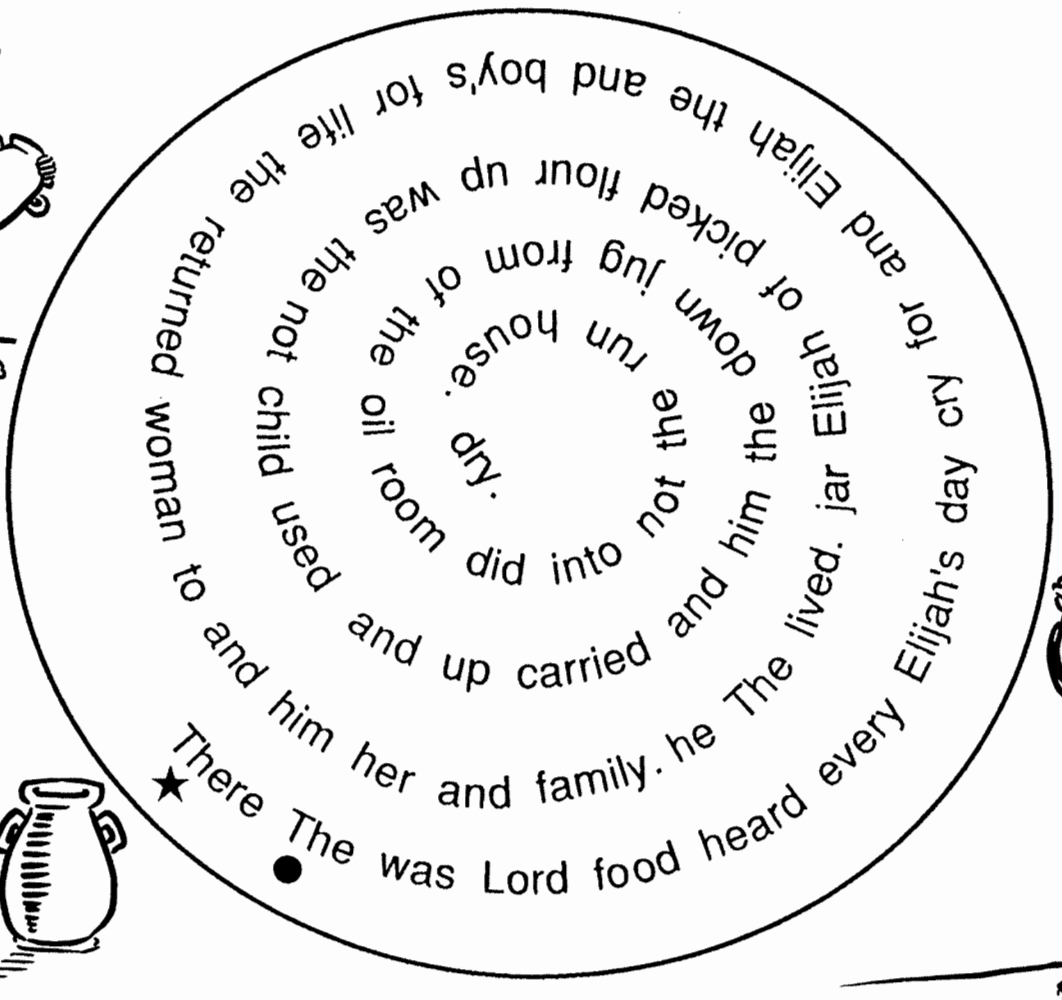

"Make me a cake first," said Elijah. The widow obeyed, and God used Elijah to work a miracle. Later, the widow's son died. Elijah prayed, and God worked another miracle.

Skip-A-Word Stories

These stories tell of two of Elijah's miracles. What happened when the widow baked her last cake for Elijah? What happened when Elijah prayed for her dead boy? Cut out the story circle to remind you of the cake of bread that the widow baked for Elijah. Follow your teacher's directions and read every other word in the circle. Listen as the remaining children read the other words.

Key Verse: 1 Kings 18:37 "Hear me, O Lord, hear me that this people may know that You are the Lord God and that You have turned their hearts back to You again."

Key Points:

1. King Ahab was more evil than any king before him. God told Elijah to go to Ahab and He would send rain to end the famine. Obadiah was Ahab's servant who met with Elijah, telling him he was willing to talk to Ahab. Obadiah feared the Lord and believed Elijah was a powerful man of God, however, he also feared that Ahab would kill him if he told him about Elijah.

2. Elijah and Ahab meet, Ahab calls Elijah, "O trouble of Israel". Elijah told Ahab he was the one that had troubled Israel by worshiping false gods and forsaking the commands of the Lord. Elijah challenges Ahab to a show of power on Mt. Carmel.

3. All the children of Israel were summoned there, as well as the prophets of Baal. Elijah speaks to Israel asking them how long they will follow these false gods. No one spoke a word.

4. Elijah instructed two altars to be built; one for the prophets of Baal and one for him. Bulls were put on the altars, but no fire. Elijah tells Ahab to call to his gods to bring fire. They cried out from morning to evening but there was no fire. Elijah prepared his altar with 12 stones, wood and the bull cut in pieces. Water was poured on it 3 times. Elijah calls on the name of the Lord and God sends fire from heaven and completely consumes the entire altar as well as the water. The people of Israel fell on their faces. God again was victorious. His power was shown that day. The prophets of Baal were captured and executed.

5. In reverence Elijah bowed before God-rain was sent to end the famine.

Corrugated cardboard—5-inch square
Construction paper—blue and yellow
Lightweight cardboard, such as tagboard
Felt-tip pen
Crayons
White glue
Single-edge razor blade

Cut a piece of corrugated cardboard to fit top of altar and glue in place. Glue twigs on altar. Glue stone covering to sides of altar. Allow to dry.

To make base, cut a 4-inch circle out of corrugated square. Cut a 5-inch square of lightweight cardboard and of blue construction paper and glue these together. Elijah on Mt. Carmel

1 Kings 18:20-40

Materials needed:
Construction paper—dark green, red, gray, brown, light blue
Yarn—dark green
Glue

Directions:

Cut twenty-four rocks from gray paper. (See page 24 for all patterns.) Use half of these to form an altar in the lower half of one sheet of green paper. Cut two sacrifices from red paper. Glue one of these on this altar. In second sheet of green paper, punch one hole 1 inch from top and one hole in lower half of paper, where altar will be placed. Glue rest of rocks together to form an altar. Place this over lower hole and glue only around edges. Also glue sacrifice to altar. Paint water around base of altar with blue paint. Cut from brown paper and glue four barrels around edge as shown in sketch. Cut flame from red paper and add yellow highlights with tempera paints. Glue this to middle of 20-inch piece of green yarn. Thread yarn through holes with flame on top. Cut sky from blue paper and glue this around edges to top of paper. Glue green sheets together, back to back.

As you tell the story, start with the plain altar. Then turn paper over. Keep flame under "sky" until you tell about the fire coming down from Heaven to consume the sacrifice, the rocks, and the water. Then pull yarn, and flame will come down from "Heaven."

Elijah Defeats the Prophets of Baal

Elijah wanted to show the Israelites that God is the one true God so he challenged the prophets of Baal to a contest. Elijah and the prophets of Baal both called on their gods to send fire from heaven, but only Elijah's God answered. The people saw that God answered prayer and Baal could not. After this contest, God sent rain for the first time in more than 3 years.

Scriptures: I Kings 19:1-21

Key Verse: 1Ki 19:10 So he said, "I have been very zealous for the LORD God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken Your covenant, torn down Your altars, and killed Your prophets with the sword. I alone am left; and they seek to take my life."

Key Points:

1. Jezebel threatened Elijah's life after he had slain the prophets of Baal.

2. Elijah became afraid and ran away.

3. An angel provided food and water to sustain Elijah on his journey to Mt. Horeb. He had no other food for 40 days and nights.

4. Elijah was discouraged and hid in a cave.

5. God demonstrated his presence, not in the wind, an earthquake, or a fire, but in a still small voice.

6. God then sent Elijah to anoint two kings, Hazael and Jehu, and to anoint Elisha to be a helper to him.

7. Elijah knew that God would protect him to assure that he would be able to complete God's work.

Elijah found __ __ __ __ __ __ plowing a field. Elijah took his cloak and threw it around Elisha's shoulders. Elisha knew this meant he should leave his home and become a prophet like Elijah.

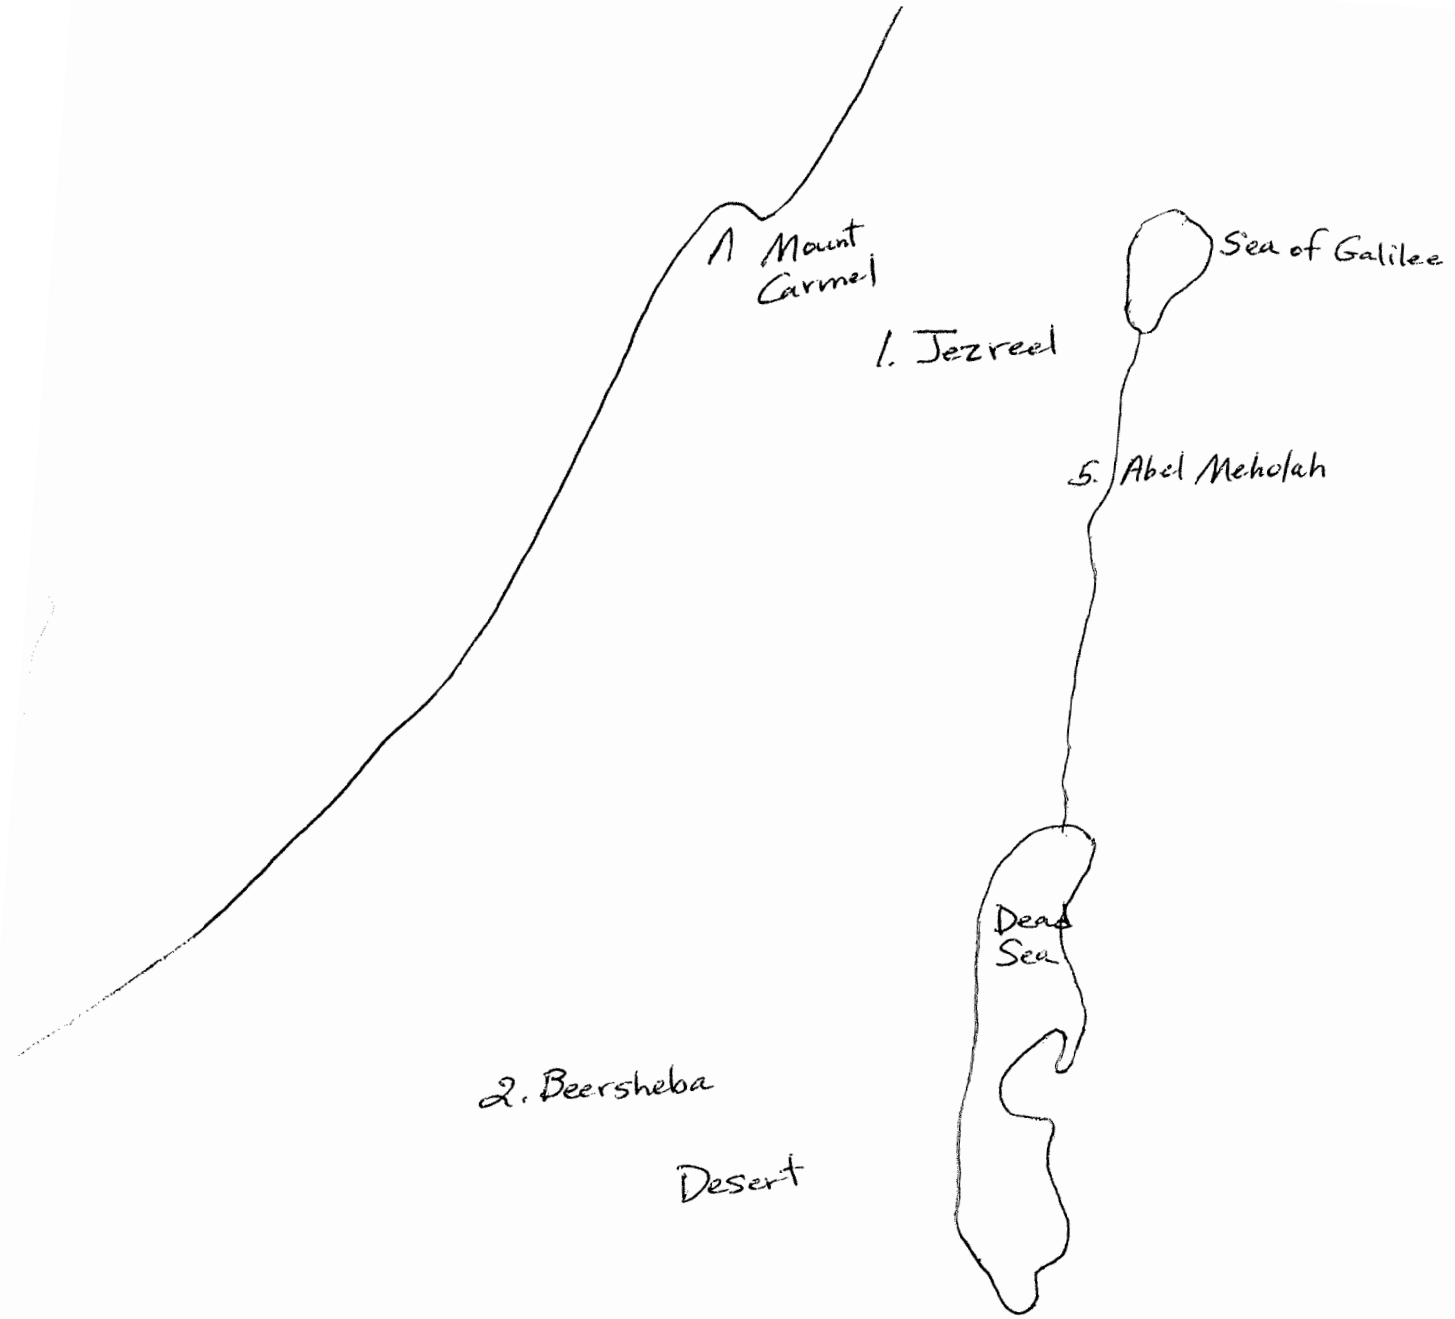

Elijah trained Elisha, and Elisha was an encouraging friend to Elijah.

When God defeated Baal, the king and queen got very angry with Elijah. He had to run away and hide until they calmed down. God told Elijah to go to the top of a mountain because he wanted to talk to him. Elijah waited and soon a big windstorm came, then an earthquake, and after that a fire. God didn't speak through any of those things, but Elijah heard God's voice in a surprising way.

King Ahab

Scriptures: I Kings 21(result of prophecy II Kings 9:30-34)

Key Verse: 1Ki 21:25 But there was no one like Ahab who sold himself to do wickedness in the sight of the LORD, because Jezebel his wife stirred him up.

Key Points:

1. Naboth owned a vineyard near the palace of King Ahab.

2. Ahab asked to buy it, but Naboth refused to sell.

3. Ahab was very unhappy, and his wife Jezebel devised a plan to get the vineyard for Ahab.

4. She sent letters in Ahab's name to the elders instructing them to hold a feast pretending to honor Naboth, but it was a ploy to have him killed.

5. During the feast, two liars came who accused Naboth of dishonoring God and King Ahab. Because of their lies, Naboth was killed.

6. Ahab seized the vineyard, but God sent Elijah to meet him there.

7. Ahab and his family would be punished. All of his family would be killed and their bodies left unburied to be eaten by dogs and birds.

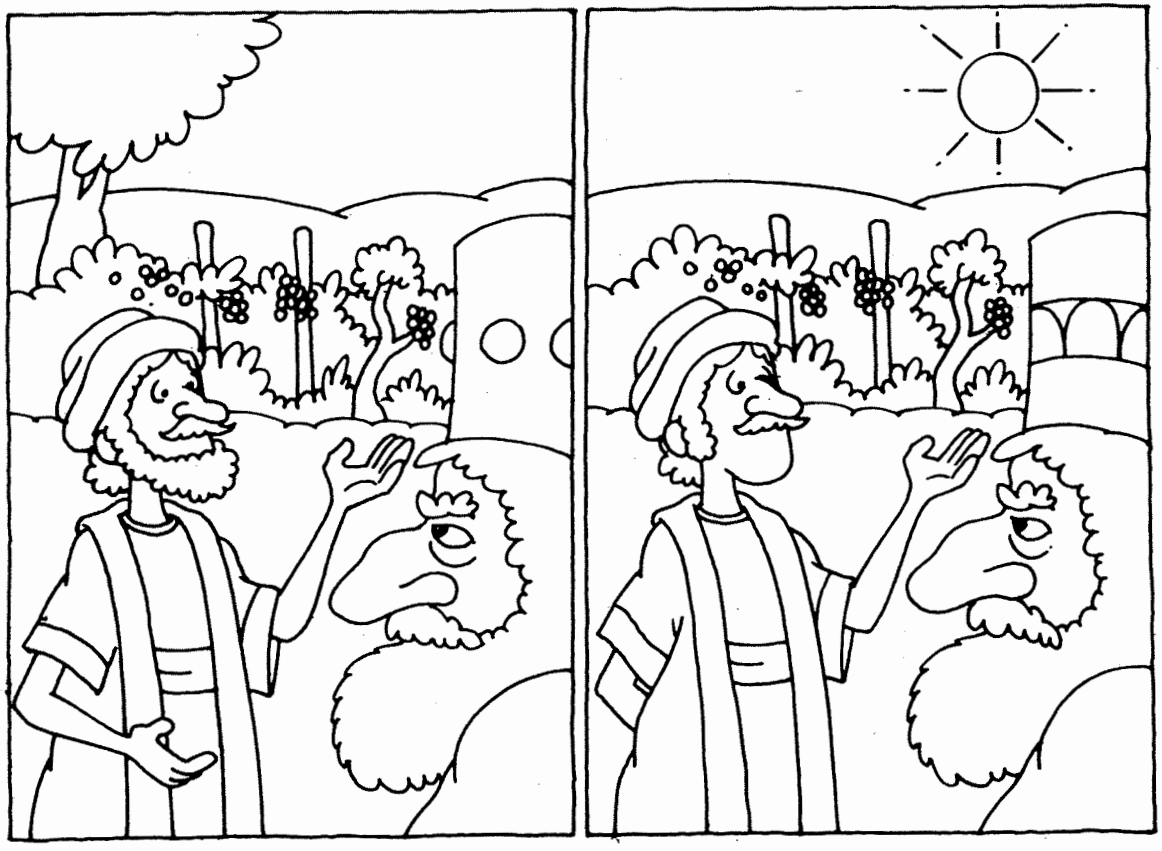

8. Ahab repented and mourned, and God postponed His justice to fall on Ahab's sons, who were also very wicked men.

9. This was fulfilled in II Kings 9 when Jehu killed King Joram and Jezebel, and Ahab's other descendants.

King Ahab and Queen Jezebel ruled Israel, but they were not good rulers. They didn't love God and they did bad things. One time King Ahab wanted a vineyard that belonged to someone else. Queen Jezebel had her soldiers kill the man so that the king could have the vineyard.

When Ahab repented at Elijah's word, the Lord had compassion on Ahab and said the prophecy would not come to pass during Ahab's lifetime but in the days of his son (I Kings 21).

Ahab is Punished

Scriptures: I Kings 22:1-40

Key Verse: 1Ki 22:23 "Therefore look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours, and the LORD has declared disaster against you."

Key Points:

1. Ahab wanted to recapture cities that had been taken by Syria. King Jehoshaphat of Judah agreed to help him if the Lord approved of the battle.

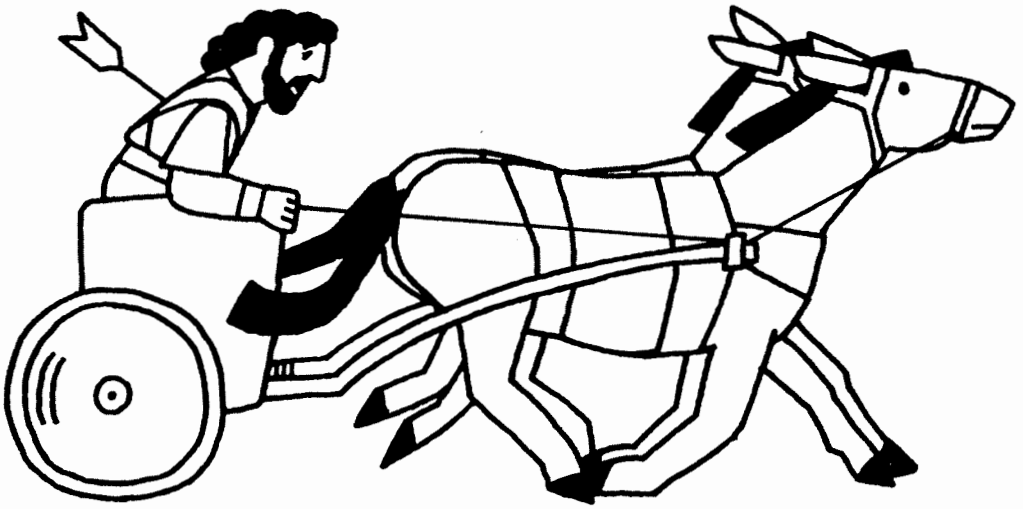

2. About 400 false prophets predicted victory, but Jehoshaphat wanted to ask a prophet of the Lord.

3. Ahab reluctantly called for Micaiah, who in the past had prophesied evil for Ahab because Ahab was an evil man.

4. Micaiah told them to go into battle, but warned Ahab that the Lord had decided that Ahab would die.

5. Ahab disguised himself and wore armor for protection, but a random arrow mortally wounded him between his armor. He bled all day from the wound and died as the sun set.

6. Ahab's chariot was washed by a pool and the dogs drank the bloody water, just as Elijah had prophesied when he spoke to Ahab in Naboth's vineyard. A wicked king was dead.

Color and cut out the shield and arrow. Punch a hole in the center of the shield and through the center of the arrow where indicated by the open circle. Attach the arrow to the center of the shield using a paper fastener. Spin the arrow. When it lands on a scene, retell that part of the story of Micaiah telling the truth.

1) King Ahab asked 400 prophets if he should go to battle, and they all said yes.
2) King Ahab asked Micaiah, a prophet of God, if he should go to battle. Micaiah warned him that he would die if he went into battle.
3) King Ahab threw Micaiah into prison for saying this and decided to go to battle anyway.
4) The king wore a disguise so the other army would not recognize him.
5) The king was killed in his chariot during the battle. Micaiah told the truth.

have made Israel to sin. And of Jezebel the Lord said, 'The dogs shall eat Jezebel within the bounds of Jezreel.' Any one belonging to Ahab who dies in the city the dogs shall eat; and any one of his who dies in the country the birds of the air shall eat."

There was none who sold himself to do what was evil in the sight of the Lord like Ahab, whom Jezebel his wife urged on. He did very wickedly going after idols, as the Amorites had done.

And when Ahab heard those words, he tore his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted and lay in sackcloth, and went about dejectedly. And the word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, "Have you seen how Ahab has humbled himself before me? Because he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days I will bring the evil upon his house." ■

Soldiers search for Jezebel's body

Ahab's family destroyed

1 Kings 21

Later on, Elijah's prophecies about Ahab and Jezebel came to pass. Ahab went to war against Syria with the King of Judah, Jehosophat. He had been told by the prophet Micaiah that he would die in the battle.

So instead of dressing like a King normally would, he dressed like a soldier and Jehosophat dressed like a King. But as he was riding in a chariot he was struck by a random arrow and badly wounded. He propped himself up for the rest of the day but was bleeding very heavily. That evening he died.

After he was buried, the soldiers took the chariot to Samaria to be cleaned, and there the dogs licked the blood of Ahab, just as Elijah had said.

God had also said that Ahab's family would be destroyed during his son's reign. When Jehoram, Ahab's son, was King, God chose Jehu, who was a commander in Israel's army, to take Jehoram's place.

Jehu killed not only the sons of Ahab, but even the king of Judah, who was working with him. Then he went to Jezreel where Jezebel was. She put on make-up and did her hair, perhaps hoping to influence Jehu. But he called to the servants in the tower where she was and they hated her enough to throw her out the window.

When the soldiers came back later to gather her body for burial, they could not find it. Just as God had said, the dogs had eaten it. ■

Elijah and the Fiery Chariot

Scriptures: II Kings 2

Key Verse: 2Ki 2:9 And so it was, when they had crossed over, that Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask! What may I do for you, before I am taken away from you?" Elisha said, "Please let a double portion of your spirit be upon me."

Key Points:

1. As the time came for Elijah to go to be with God, Elisha did not want to leave him.

2. The sons of the prophets in Bethel, and in Jericho asked Elisha if he knew that his master would be taken from him that day. Elisha replied that he knew but did not want to talk about it.

3. When Elijah and Elisha reached the Jordan River, Elijah rolled up his mantle and when he struck the water, it divided so that they crossed on dry land.

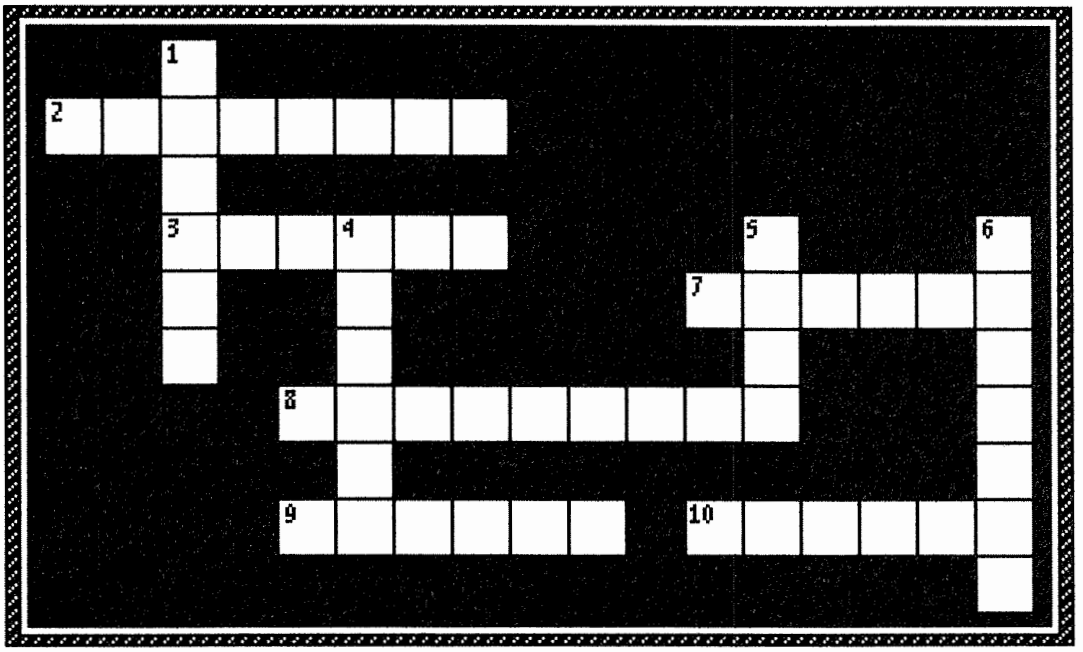

4. Then Elijah asked what he could do for Elisha, and Elisha asked for a double portion of Elijah's power. Elijah said that was a difficult thing, but if Elisha saw Elijah taken away to heaven it would be given to him.

5. Because Elisha witnessed Elijah's departure in the chariot of fire, his request was granted. Elisha picked up Elijah's mantle, rolled it up, struck the water, and crossed back over.

6. The men of Jericho spent three days looking for Elijah, even though Elisha told them Elijah was with God.

7. Elisha performed two miracles that confirmed he was God's selected prophet. He restored water for a city. In Bethel, some young people disrespected Elisha because he was bald. Elisha pronounced a curse in the name of the Lord, and bears attacked 42 of the youths.

Introduction

Wicked King Ahab led the Israelites to worship the idol Baal. Elijah warned Ahab, "God will punish you for sinning. There will be no rain until I say so." It didn't rain for three years, causing a great famine. Elijah proved to the priests of Baal that there is only one real God. Elijah called down fire from heaven. Then he prayed, and the rains fell. King Ahab and Queen Jezebel were very angry with Elijah and wanted to kill him. He had to run for his life. But God protected him and gave Elijah food during the famine.

Directions:

Trace pattern of map (page 27) on a piece of light green construction paper. Paint lambs and water with the paints. When dry, cover map with the plastic to preserve it. Cut on dotted lines into three pieces. Let the children put the puzzle together and take it apart to show how the people of Israel were to be as sheep without a shepherd.

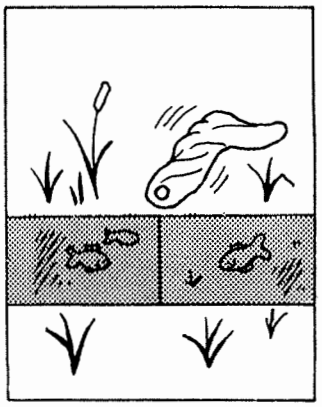

Use this in a learning center. Have a Bible for the children to read the story. Have a set of two or three simple questions for them to answer. These could be true/false. Cover questions with the plastic and let the children circle the correct answer with a wipe-off crayon. This activity can be used again and again.

Elijah and Elisha Cross the Jordan

2 Kings 2:1-8

Materials needed:

Construction paper—green, blue, scrap of color
Crayons, felt-tip pens, or tempera paints
Clear adhesive-backed plastic
Brass paper fastener
Glue

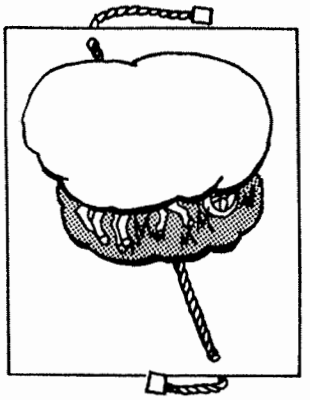

Directions:

Cut two pieces of blue construction paper, 7 inches by 2¼ inches. Score and fold each piece 1 inch from end. Trace fish and objects on strips and color. Cover strips with pieces of clear adhesive-backed plastic, leaving the 1-inch tabs. Trace plants, etc., on green paper and color. Trace and cut robe from white or other color. Glue 1-inch tabs of blue strips to backs of green so ends of blue meet in middle of page. Fasten robe above strips of water with brass paper fastener as shown. Use as a visual, "striking" water with robe and turning back water at the proper time in the story.

Elijah Goes to Heaven

2 Kings 2:9-11

Materials needed:

Construction paper—dark blue, white
Crayons, felt tip pens, or tempera paints
Yarn—dark blue

Directions:

Trace the picture of Elijah and the chariot and horses (pattern on page 28) onto white construction paper. Color the picture. Punch two holes in the dark blue paper, as shown. Glue the center section of an 18-inch piece of dark blue yarn across the picture. Optional: Cut a second piece of paper to mount on the back of the picture for strength. When dry, thread yarn through the holes. Finish yarn ends with small paper tags. Cut cloud from white paper and glue at top and side edges to background as shown in sketch. Elijah will now "go to Heaven" by sliding the picture under the cloud. Glue a second piece of construction paper under background for durability. Make sure yarn can be moved freely.

Two Boys Saved and the Shunamite Woman

Scriptures: II Kings 4:1-37

Key Verses: 2Ki 4:9-10 "Look now, I know that this is a holy man of God, who passes by us regularly. "Please, let us make a small upper room on the wall; and let us put a bed for him there, and a table and a chair and a lampstand; so it will be, whenever he comes to us, he can turn in there."

Key Points:

1. A widow sought Elisha for help. Her husband's death had left the family in debt, and her two sons were about to be sold as slaves to pay the bill.
2. Elisha asked what she had in the house, and she replied that she had only one jar of oil. Elisha told her to gather many, many containers and fill them from her oil.
3. The family borrowed a large number of containers, and the oil did not run out until all of them were full. She was able to sell the oil to pay her debt.

4. Elisha often traveled through Shunem. A husband and wife shared food with him, and arranged a room for Elisha in their home there.
5. Elisha asked if there was anything he could do to repay their hospitality, but the woman asked for nothing.
6. Elisha asked his servant, Gehazi, who mentioned that she had no son. Elisha told the woman that she would have a son the next year.
7. As promised, the boy was born. Several years passed. One day the child fell ill and died.
8. In great distress, the woman traveled to Elisha. He sent Gehazi ahead of them with instructions to lay Elisha's staff on the boy's face.
9. The boy did not revive when the staff touched him, so Gehazi returned to Elisha and told him that the child did not awaken.
10. Elisha came to the house and prayed to God. He touched the boy, and laid on him two times, and the boy revived.

The Oil that Didn't Run Out

II Kings 4:1-7

There was a mother and her two boys who did not have enough money to pay their bills. All they had was a little jar of oil. The mother asked Elisha what to do. Elisha told her to borrow all the jugs and pots and jars she could find and to pour the oil into them. God multiplied the oil so it did not run out, but it filled all the containers. The mother sold the oil and paid the bills.

Key Points:

1. Naaman was a Syrian army commander who had leprosy.

2. His wife had a servant girl from Israel. She suggested that Naaman seek the prophet of God (Elisha) in Samaria to be cured.

3. The king of Syria sent Naaman with a letter to the king of Israel, expecting healing for Naaman.

5. The king of Israel tore his clothes in distress when he read the letter, but Elisha asked the king to send Naaman to him.

6. Through a messenger, Elisha instructed Naaman to wash in the Jordan River seven times to be healed.

7. Naaman was angry because Elisha had not personally performed a miracle to cure him, and he turned to leave. However, his servants urged Naaman to do as he had been instructed.

8. Naaman listened to them, and when he had dipped 7 times in the muddy water of the Jordan he was cured! He praised God.

9. Naaman returned and offered gifts to Elisha, who refused to take them. Elisha's servant Gehazi followed Naaman and asked for the gifts. When Gehazi returned, Elisha struck him with the leprosy of Naaman.

Week 94 Elisha and War Between Israel and Syria

Scriptures: II Kings 6:13-33, II Kings 7

Key Verse: II Kings 6:16 "Do not fear, for those who are with us are more than those are with them."

Key Points:

1. The king of Syria planned to ambush the Israelites. Elisha was warned by God to tell the king of Israel (Joram, the son of Ahab) to avoid the place where the Syrians would attack. The king sent scouts who were able to verify what Elisha had told him. The king of Syria suspected some of his men of spying for Israel, but the servants correctly blamed Elisha for the plan's failure.

2. The Syrians then tried to capture Elisha in the city of Dothan. God sent an army of horses and chariots of fire to protect him. Although Elisha knew of the presence of God's army, his servant was afraid when he saw the Syrians. Elisha asked that his servant's eyes be opened so that he was able to see the power of God.

3. Then Elisha prayed that God would blind the Syrians, and He did. Elisha led the Syrian army to Samaria. Elisha prayed to the Lord to restore their sight and they realized they were inside Samaria. The king of Israel asked if he should kill them, but Elisha instructed him to prepare a feast. After they ate and drank, they returned to Syria and the raids ended.

4. Later, the Syrians again tried to capture Israel by surrounding the city. Food was so scarce that two mothers agreed to kill and eat their babies. One mother went through with the plan, but the second one refused to kill her son.

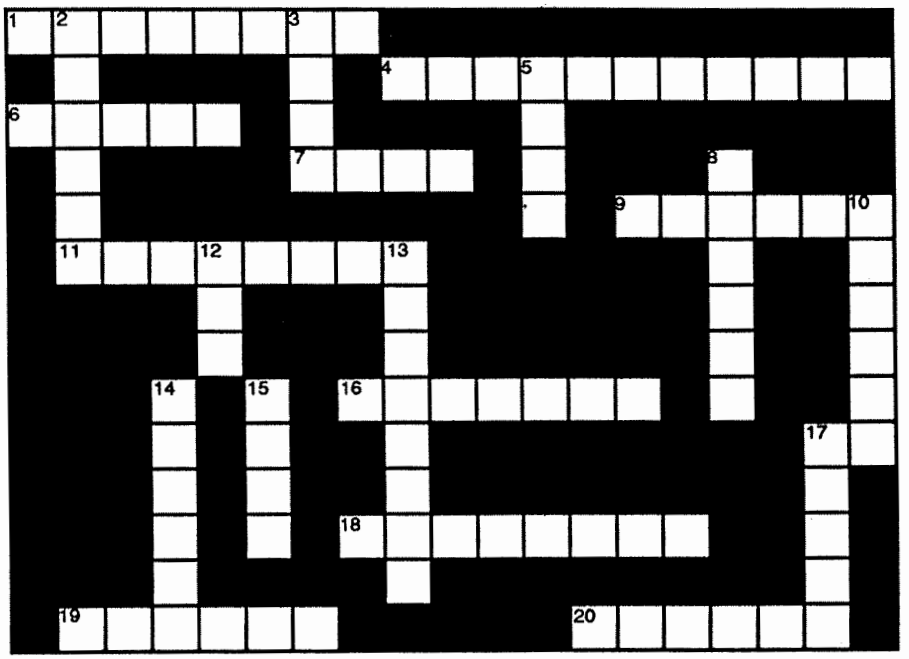

5. The king mourned when he heard how desperate his people were. He was angry with Elisha, but Elisha predicted that relief would come the next day. One officer expressed doubts, and Elisha predicted that he would see it happen with his eyes, but he would not eat any of it.

6. Four lepers who sat at the city gate decided to find the Syrian army and surrender. Meanwhile, God had caused the Syrians to hear the noise of a great army and they had all run away. The lepers found the camp deserted, but intact. They returned to the city and sent messages to the king. The king sent men to investigate. They found the camp was full of provisions, and the Israelites had food again. The king's officer did not get to eat any of it because he was trampled and killed in the gate.

- Joash was the only son of Ahaziah to escape from Athaliah; he was hidden in the temple by Ahaziah's sister Jehosheba (probably half-sister) who was married to Jehoiada, the high priest; he began to reign when he was seven years old and reigned for forty years

Week 95 King Uzziah Becomes a Leper

Scriptures: II Chronicles 26, II Kings 14, 15

Key Verse: II Chron. 26:5 "and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him prosper."

Key Points:

1. Uzziah (Azariah) became king of Judah when he was sixteen, and his 52 year reign was very good because he sought God in all his dealings.

2. The Lord blessed Uzziah with wealth, inventions, and victory in war, and his fame spread far and wide.

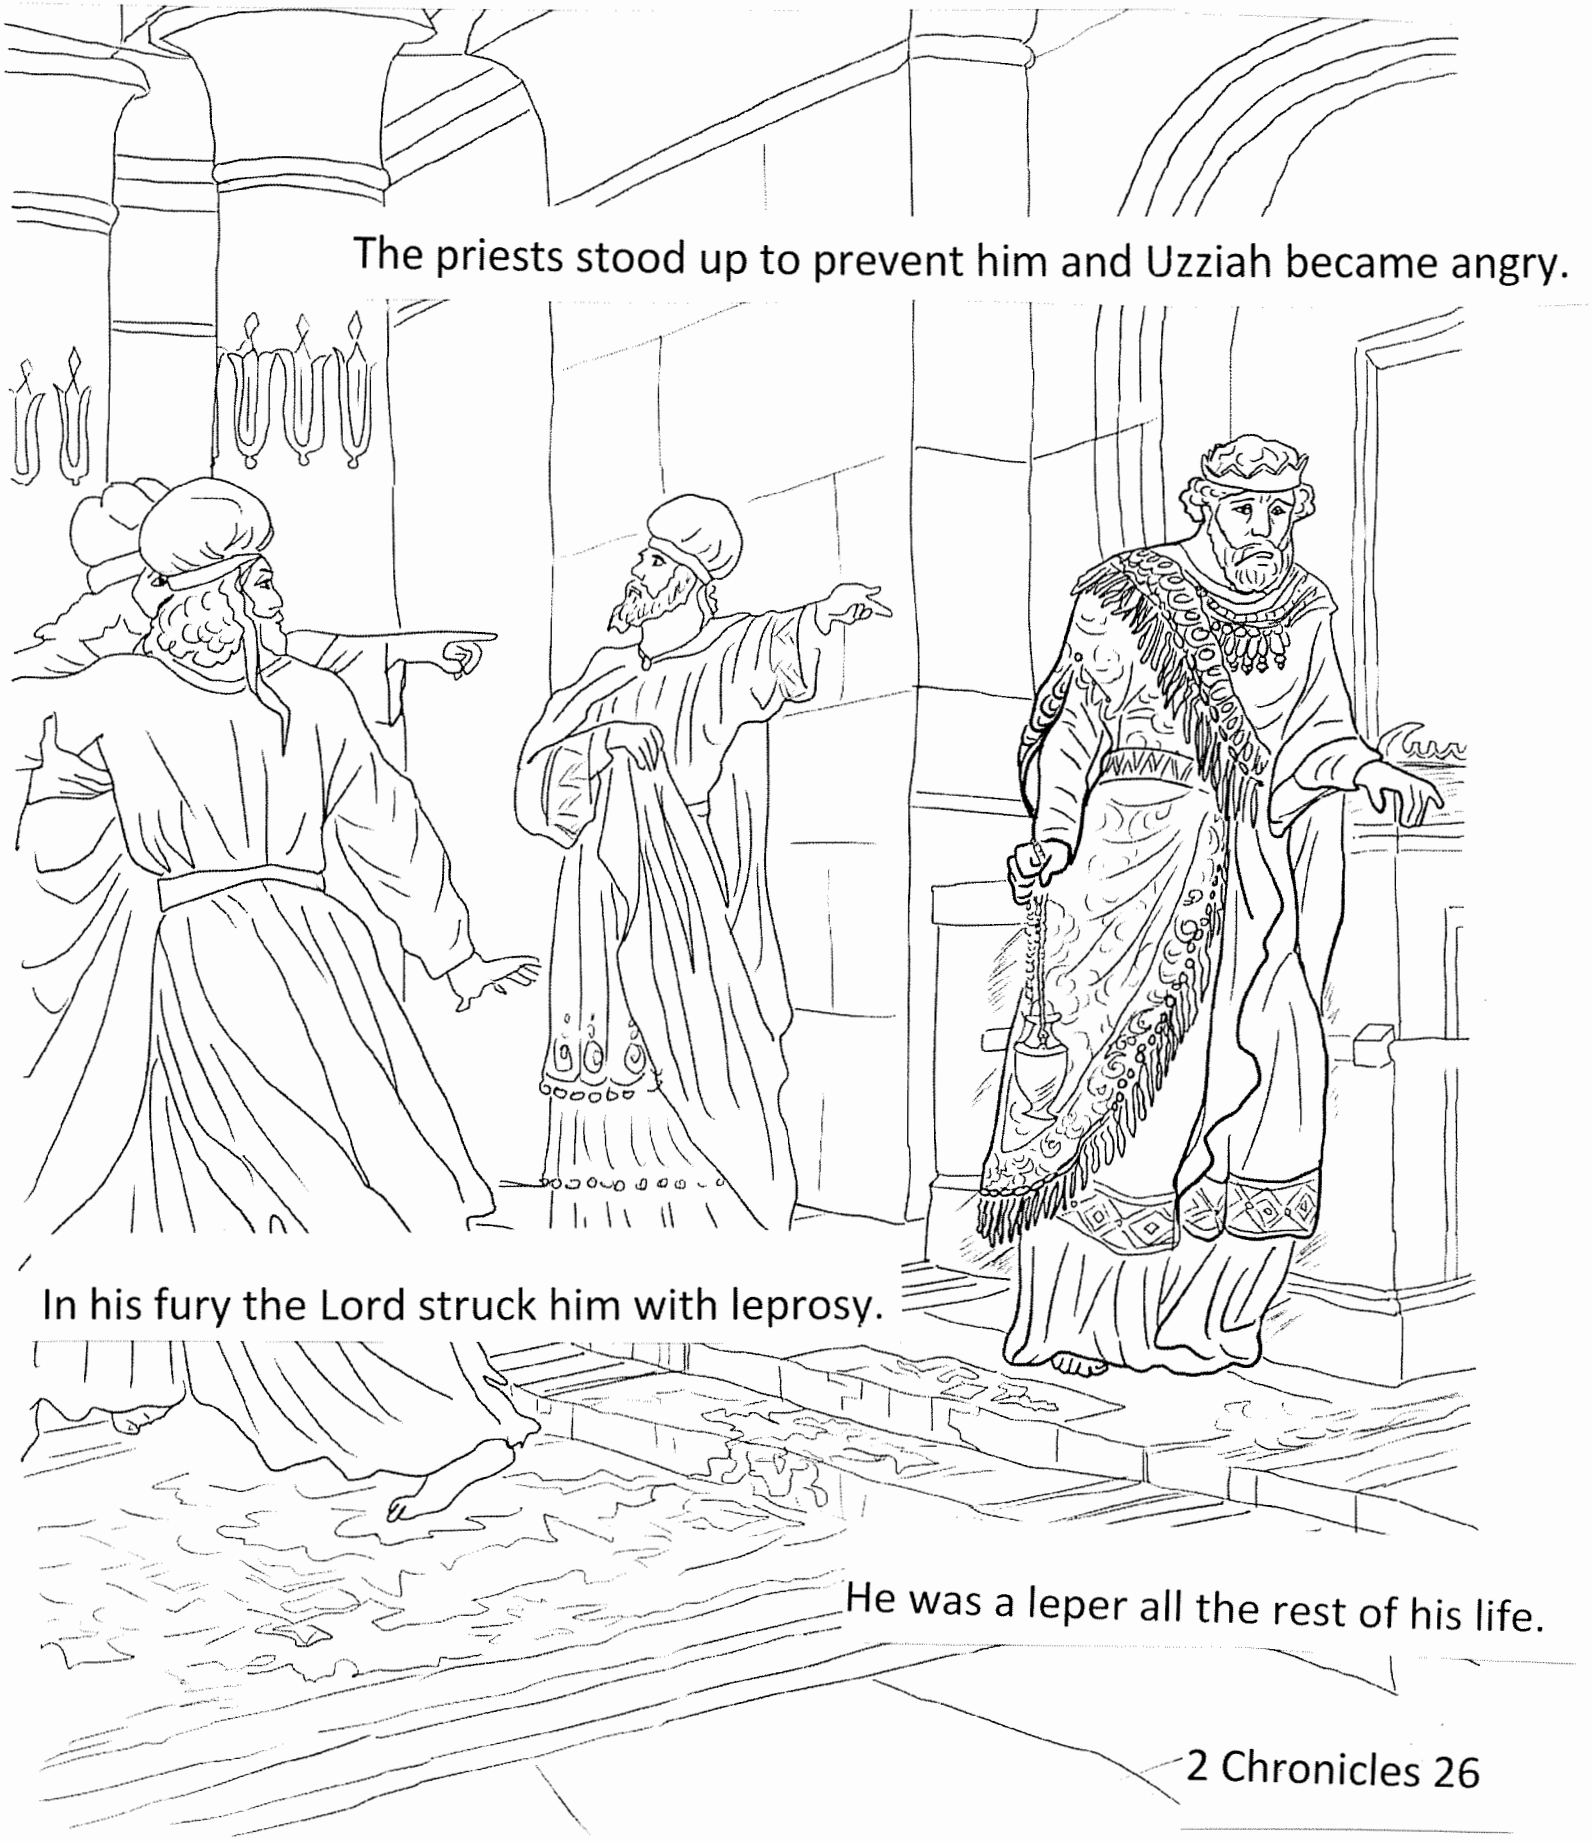

3. Uzziah became proud that his reign was so successful. He forgot that God had made him great.

4. One day, Uzziah entered the temple to burn incense. This was a responsibility of the priests, not of the king.

5. The priests stood up to the king, who became very angry.

6. The Lord caused leprosy to come on Uzziah. He lived the rest of his life in isolation, and his son Jotham ruled in his place.

Proud King Uzziah transgresses against the Lord by entering the temple to burn incense on the altar.

The priests stood up to prevent him and Uzziah became angry.

In his fury the Lord struck him with leprosy.

He was a leper all the rest of his life.

King Uzziah, The Leper King

God Punishes Those Who Disobey Him

2 Chronicles 26, 2 Kings 14:21, 15:1-7

Uzziah became king of Judah at the age of 16 and had a great start to his reign. He trusted and obeyed God. As he became more prosperous, Uzziah started to think he didn't need God. Uzziah decided that he would offer insense to God, even though God had commanded that only the priests do that. Uzziah thought he knew better than God!!! God struck King Uzziah with leprosy for his disobedience. Uzziah lived with this terrible disease until he died.

King Uzziah ruled the land of Judah from the city of Jerusalem. At first, God blessed Uzziah because he did what was right in the sight of the LORD. But Uzziah became proud and stopped obeying God. He became a leper and had to live alone until he died.

King Uzziah reigned for over 60 years. When he died, his son Jotham took his place and reigned for seventeen years. God blessed Jotham because he listened to what God had to say through Isaiah and other prophets.

King Jotham's son was Ahaz. Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. Ahaz didn't care about God. He worshiped idols and false gods, and led many of God's people to do the same. Although Isaiah warned him, Ahaz wouldn't listen to God's warnings. He died when he was only 35 years old.

God blessed the next king, Hezekiah, because he removed all the idols and false gods, and prayed to the true God. When an enemy army attacked Judah, Hezekiah knew his army was too weak to win. He asked Isaiah to pray for God's help.

Isaiah sent this message to the King. "This is what the LORD says: Don't be afraid of this enemy ... I will cause him to fall ..." Soon after, God made the enemy army leave without even fighting Hezekiah!

Although people around him didn't think much about God, Isaiah thought about Him a lot.

One day, he had a vision, which is kind of like having a dream when you're not asleep. In the vision, Isaiah saw how glorious and holy the LORD is.

"Who shall I send?"
God asked in the vision.
"Here am I. Send me,"
Isaiah answered.
He was willing to do whatever God asked, and go wherever God sent him.

Maybe Isaiah thought God would send him to faraway people who hadn't heard about God. But no, God didn't do that.

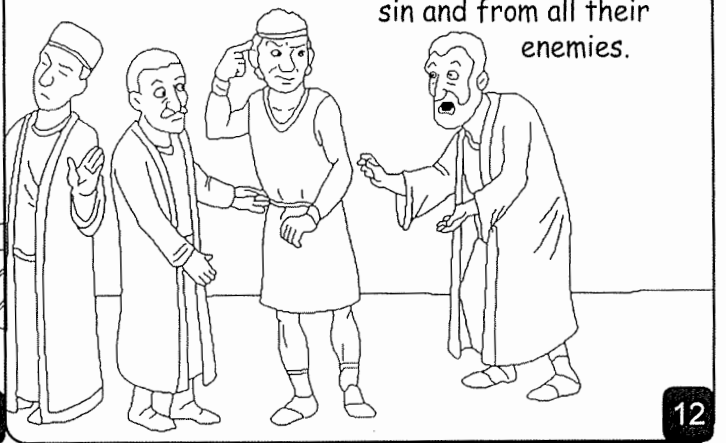

10

God told Isaiah to speak to his own people in his own country. He had to tell them that God was angry at their sin.

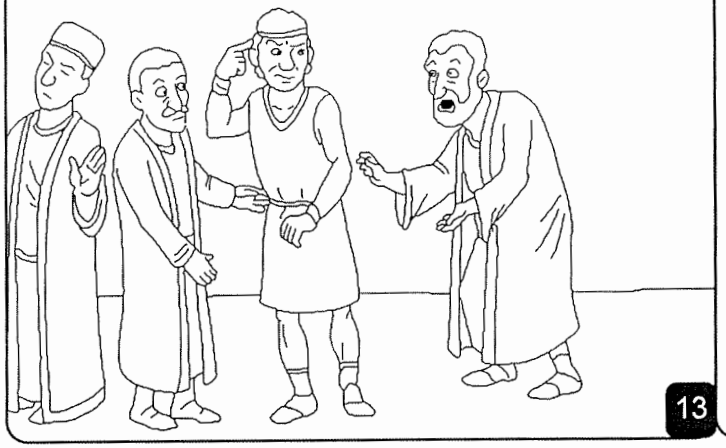

11

There were other things Isaiah had to tell his people - wonderful things about a Person who would be a strong deliverer and come to save them from sin and from all their enemies.

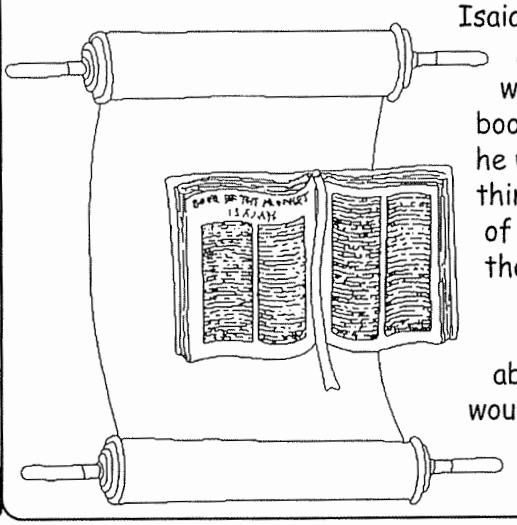

12

The Jewish people called this Person "Messiah". Even though they expected God to send Messiah, many people lived as if He would never come.

13

All the things Isaiah said about Messiah are written in his book. Although he wrote these things hundreds of years before they happened, everything Isaiah said about Messiah would come true.

14

Isaiah said that God Himself would give a sign. He said,

"Behold a virgin shall bear a son and call his name Immanuel."

15

People knew Isaiah was talking about God's Messiah because a woman could not be a virgin and also have a child. Also, the name Immanuel means God with us!

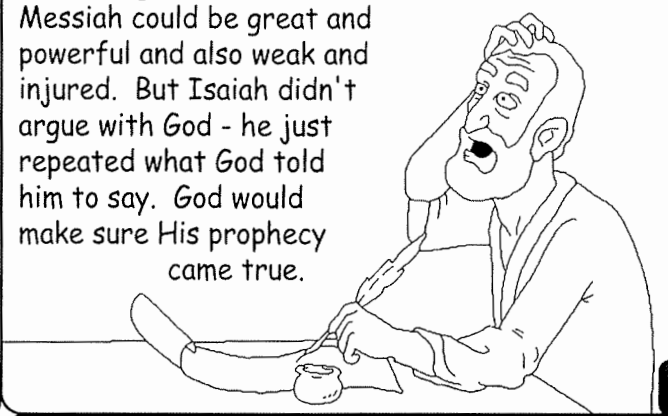

16

"For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." Isaiah was so sure that God's promises would come true, he spoke as if the event had already happened. This is called prophecy.

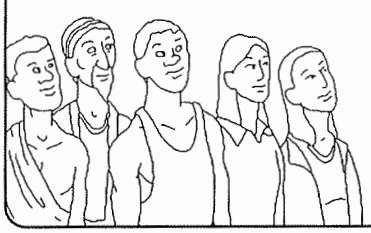

17

Isaiah said that Messiah would be great and do great things. God also told Isaiah to tell the people that Messiah would suffer and be put to death. Isaiah might have wondered how Messiah could be great and powerful and also weak and injured. But Isaiah didn't argue with God - he just repeated what God told him to say. God would make sure His prophecy came true.

18

Messiah was coming – not just for the Jewish people. God told Isaiah that Messiah would be "a light to the Gentiles". Gentiles are all the people in the world who are not Jews. God loves everybody and His Messiah would come to bless everyone and to bring salvation to the ends of the earth.

19

Isaiah Sees the Future

A story from God's Word, the Bible, is found in

Isaiah 1, 6, 7, 9, 53

"The entrance of Your Words gives light."
Psalm 119:130

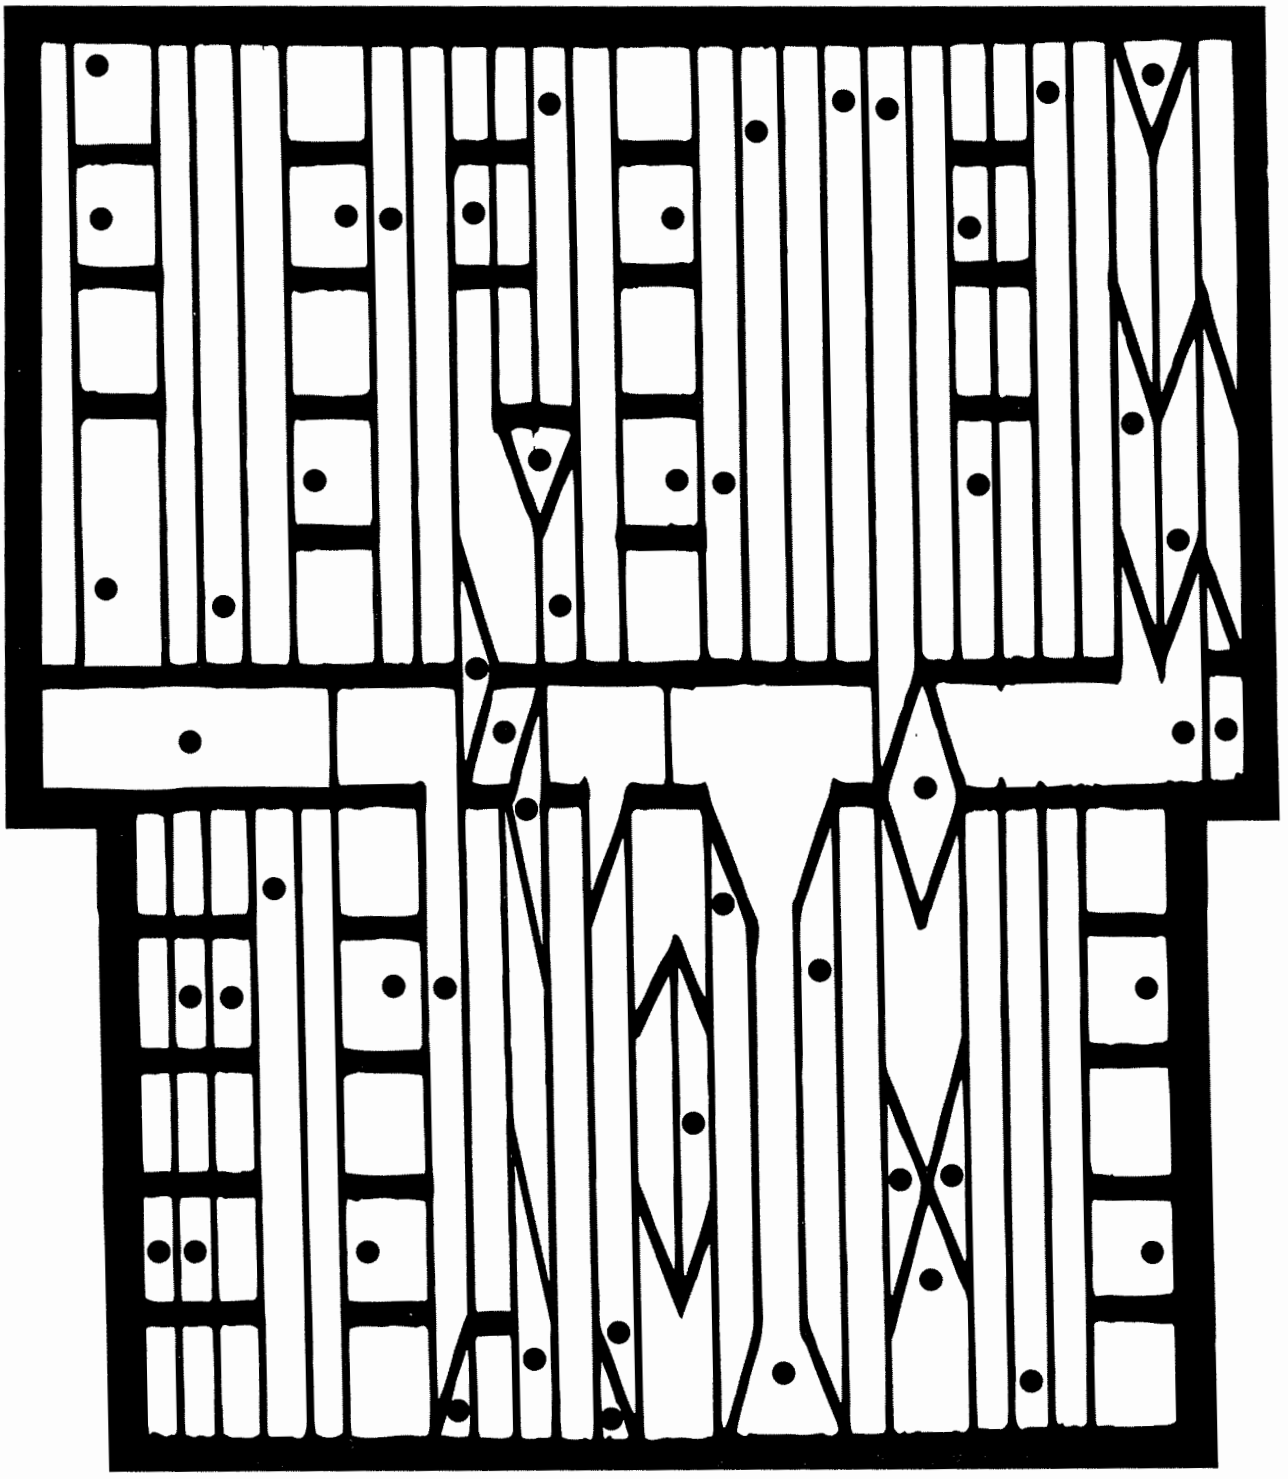

God knows we have done bad things, which He calls sin. The penalty for sin is death.
God loves us so much He sent His Son, Jesus, to die on a Cross and pay our penalty.
Jesus came alive and went back to Heaven! Now God can forgive our sins.

If you want to turn from your sins, say this to God: Dear God, I believe Jesus died for me and now lives again. Please come into my life and forgive my sins, so I can have new life now, and then be with You forever. Help me live for You as Your child. Amen. John 3:16

Read the Bible and talk to God every day!

Many people in Bible times learned about God through men called prophets. The prophets taught the people and God gave them messages for the people. One of the most famous prophets was Isaiah. He even wrote one of the books that is in our Bible now.

Which Way to Go?

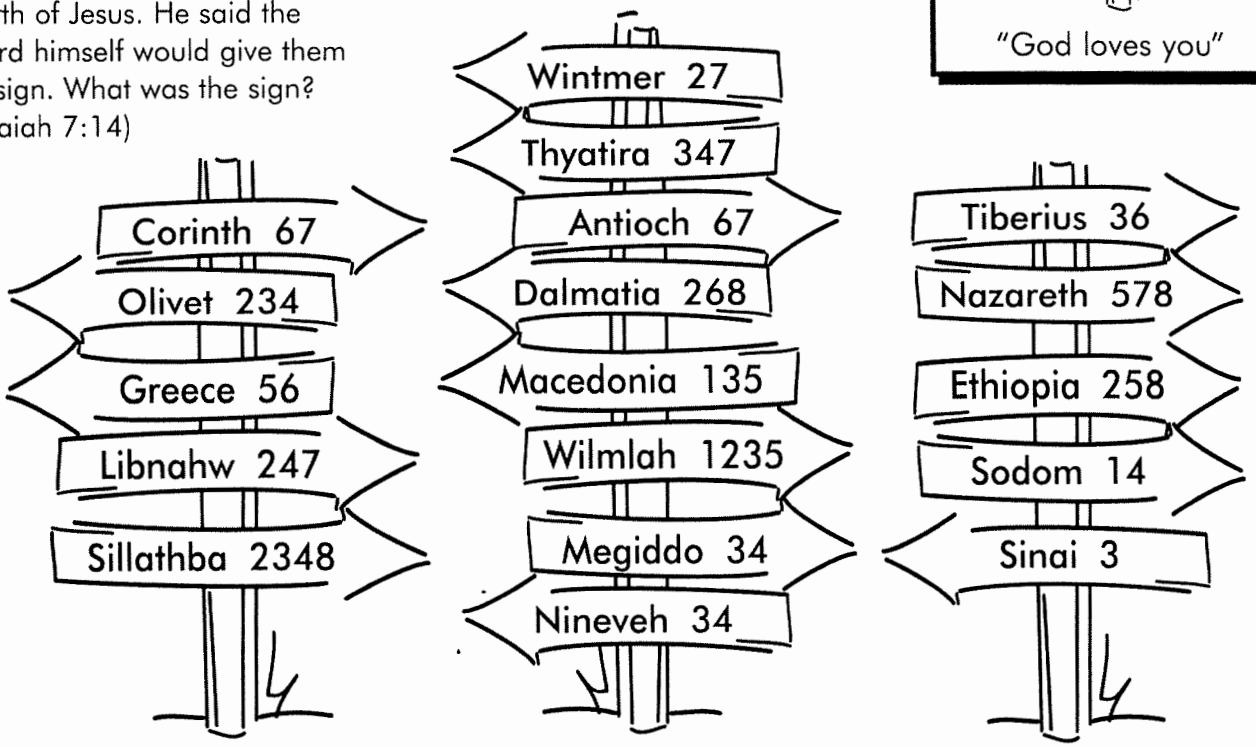

The confusion of signs holds an important message. To discover what the signs say, start at the first set of signs on the left side of the page and read the signs down the pole, then progress to the next pole. If the sign points left, then count the letters from right to left and record the correct letters on the lines. If the sign points right, count the letters from left to right.

Example

"God loves you"

Isaiah prophesied about the birth of Jesus. He said the Lord himself would give them a sign. What was the sign? (Isaiah 7:14)

10 Lost Tribes of Israel

Scriptures: II Chron 28,29,30,31:1 and II Kings 17,18,19

Key Verse: 2Kings 19:34 " 'For I will defend this city to save it for my own sake and for My servant David's sake.' "

Key Points:

1. King Ahaz of Judah, and King Hoshea of Israel did not follow God. King Hoshea decided to subject himself to the King of Assyria, and King Ahaz defaced the temple and worshiped idols.

2. After King Ahaz died, his son Hezekiah became king of Judah. He led his people to repent. He restored the temple, tore down the idols, and brought the people together to offer sacrifices for the Passover.(2Chron. 30-31 describes how eagerly they repented.) Hezekiah also asked the 10 tribes of Israel to join Judah in their worship to God. A few people from the 10 Tribes accepted this invitation humbly, but the rest made fun of it.

3. Not only did the 10 Tribes refuse to repent, but King Hoshea also decided to stop paying tribute to Assyria. Sennacherib put King Hoshea in prison, and took the 10 tribes of Israel captive. Sennacherib decided to conquer Judah while he was at it. He told Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem to surrender, and belittled God's power to defend them. (2 Chron 32:10-19)

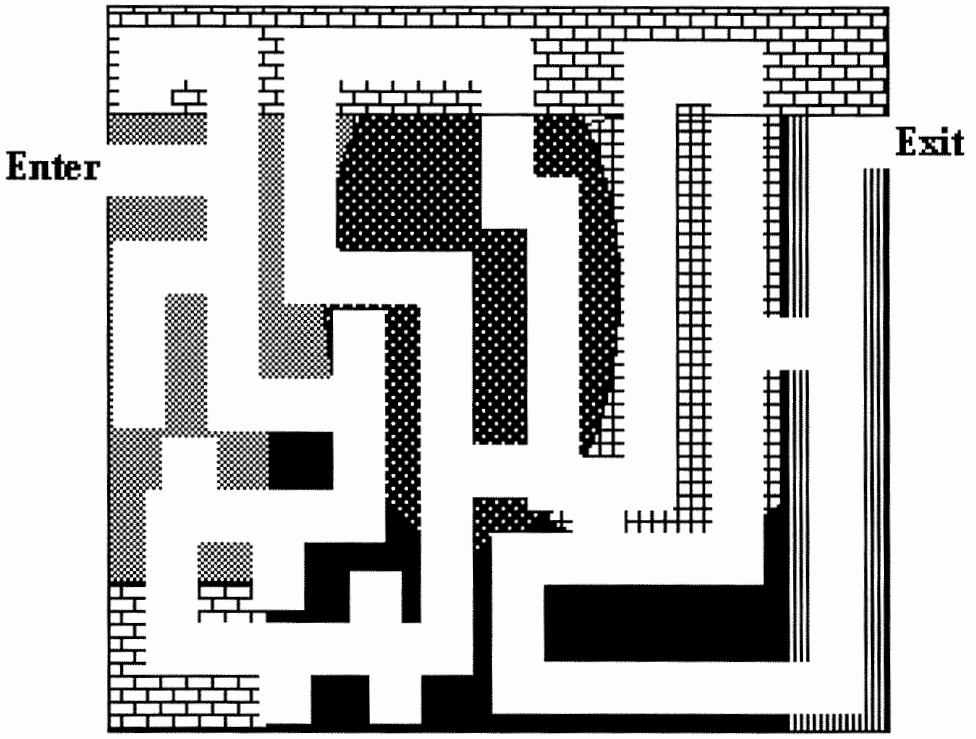

4. King Hezekiah asked the prophet Isaiah for advice. Isaiah told him not to be afraid. (2 Kings 19:6-7) Hezekiah prayed to God for deliverance. In the night, an angel of the Lord killed 185,000 people in the Assyrian camp. Sennacherib went home to Assyria and was killed by his two sons while he worshiped in the temple of his pagan god.

God Answers Hezekiah

Scriptures: II Chronicles 32, II Kings 20

Key Verse: 2 Kings 20:5 " 'Return and tell Hezekiah the leader of My people, 'Thus says the LORD , the God of David your father; I have seen your tears; surely I will heal you. ' "

Key Points:

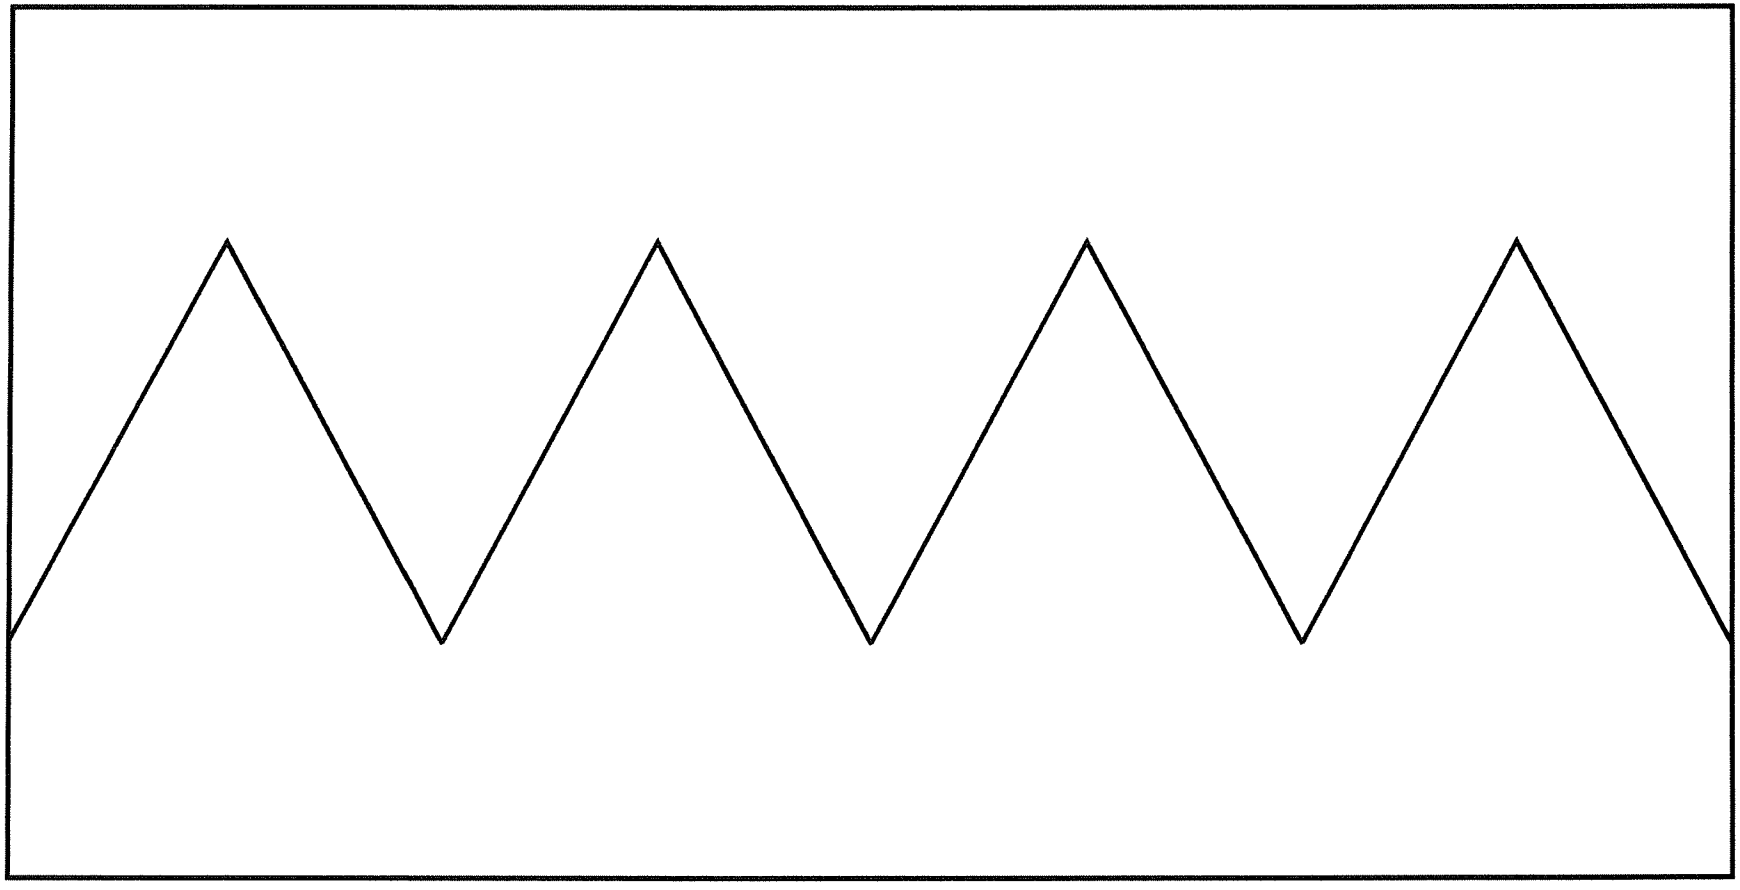

1. Hezekiah was sick and near death. The prophet Isaiah told him to put his affairs in order because God said he would die. Hezekiah asked God to spare his life. God told Isaiah to convey that He had heard Hezekiah's prayer, and that He would add fifteen years to his life. Hezekiah asked Isaiah for a sign to prove that God would indeed spare him. Isaiah asked God to move the shadow backward ten degrees on a sundial.

2. After God spared Hezekiah's life, Hezekiah became proud. This angered God. Hezekiah realized his fault and humbled himself, so God spared Judah during the life of Hezekiah.

3. Hezekiah became very rich (2 Chronicles 32:27-30), and when the Babylonian ambassadors came to visit Jerusalem after Hezekiah's sickness, they asked to see everything in his house, his treasury, his armory, and his kingdom. Anything they wanted to see, he was happy to show them. After the Babylonians left, Isaiah came to see Hezekiah. He asked Hezekiah how much he had shown the Babylonians. When he heard that Hezekiah had shown them everything, Isaiah told him that, after his death, everything he had would be taken away to Babylon. Hezekiah's own descendants would be servants in the house of the Babylonian king.

4. Hezekiah died and was buried with his fathers. Manasseh becomes king of Judah.

1 King Hezekiah of Judah was a righteous leader. He prayed for the Lord's help in defending his country from its enemies, and he followed the counsel of the prophet Isaiah. (See Isa. 37.)

2 When King Hezekiah became very ill, the prophet Isaiah visited him and warned him that he would soon die. (See Isa. 38:1.)

3 Upon hearing this, Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and wept. He did not want to die, so he prayed, crying, "Remember now, O Lord, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart." (See Isa. 38:2–3.)

4 The Lord told Isaiah to visit King Hezekiah again and tell him that He had seen the king's tears and had heard his prayers. The Lord promised to add fifteen years to King Hezekiah's life. (See Isa. 38:4–5.)

5 As a sign that He would keep His promise to heal King Hezekiah, the Lord caused the sun to go backward ten degrees. Isaiah told King Hezekiah to watch the shadow on a large sundial to see the miraculous sign. (See Isa. 38:7–8.)

6 King Hezekiah recovered from his illness and composed a beautiful psalm to praise the Lord's goodness. "The Lord was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments," he wrote. (See Isa. 38:9–20.)

Lesson 8: God Reverses the Sun's Shadow

Paper-Plate Stage

Materials: For each project, you will need a copy of Activity Pages 8A and 8B from the Early Childhood Teacher Guide, a 9-inch paper plate, construction paper, paper brads, markers or crayons, and scissors.

Instructions: Make copies of Activity Pages 8A and 8B. Have the children color both pages. Cut each section of pictures out. Glue the Bible story scenes to one half of the plate and the scenes that show prayer opportunities to the other half. Cut out the hand, or trace around the child's hand onto construction paper and cut it out. Use a paper brad to attach the hand through the middle to the center of the plate. Move the hand backwards to retell the story. Move the hand forward on the bottom half to talk about how God wants us to pray to Him at all times. Let the children make the Hezekiah figure into a storytelling figure by attaching it to a straw or cup.

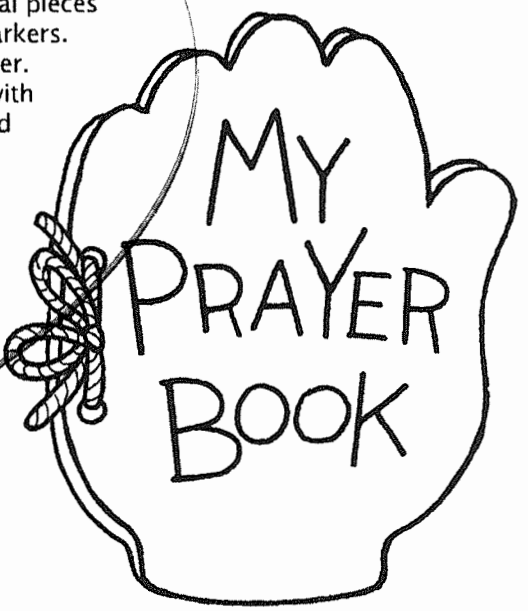

Option: You will need a place to store this project so it can dry and be sent home next week. Have children make clay plaques of their handprint. Ahead of time, make the clay by mixing 1 cup salt, ½ cup flour, and 1 cup water in a saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until thick and rubbery. Cool and store in an airtight container.

In class, roll a ball of clay for each child into a circle and flatten so that it is about ¾-inch thick. Have each child make a hand imprint in the clay, keeping fingers together so that it looks like a praying hand. Poke a hole at the top for hanging. Let the clay dry. In two days, turn it over to dry on the other side. Help the children string yarn through it the next week. If desired, they can paint or decorate it with art supplies. Send it home the next week along with the Bible Words. As you are working on the project, talk about how God promises to hear and answer our prayers.

Prayer Book

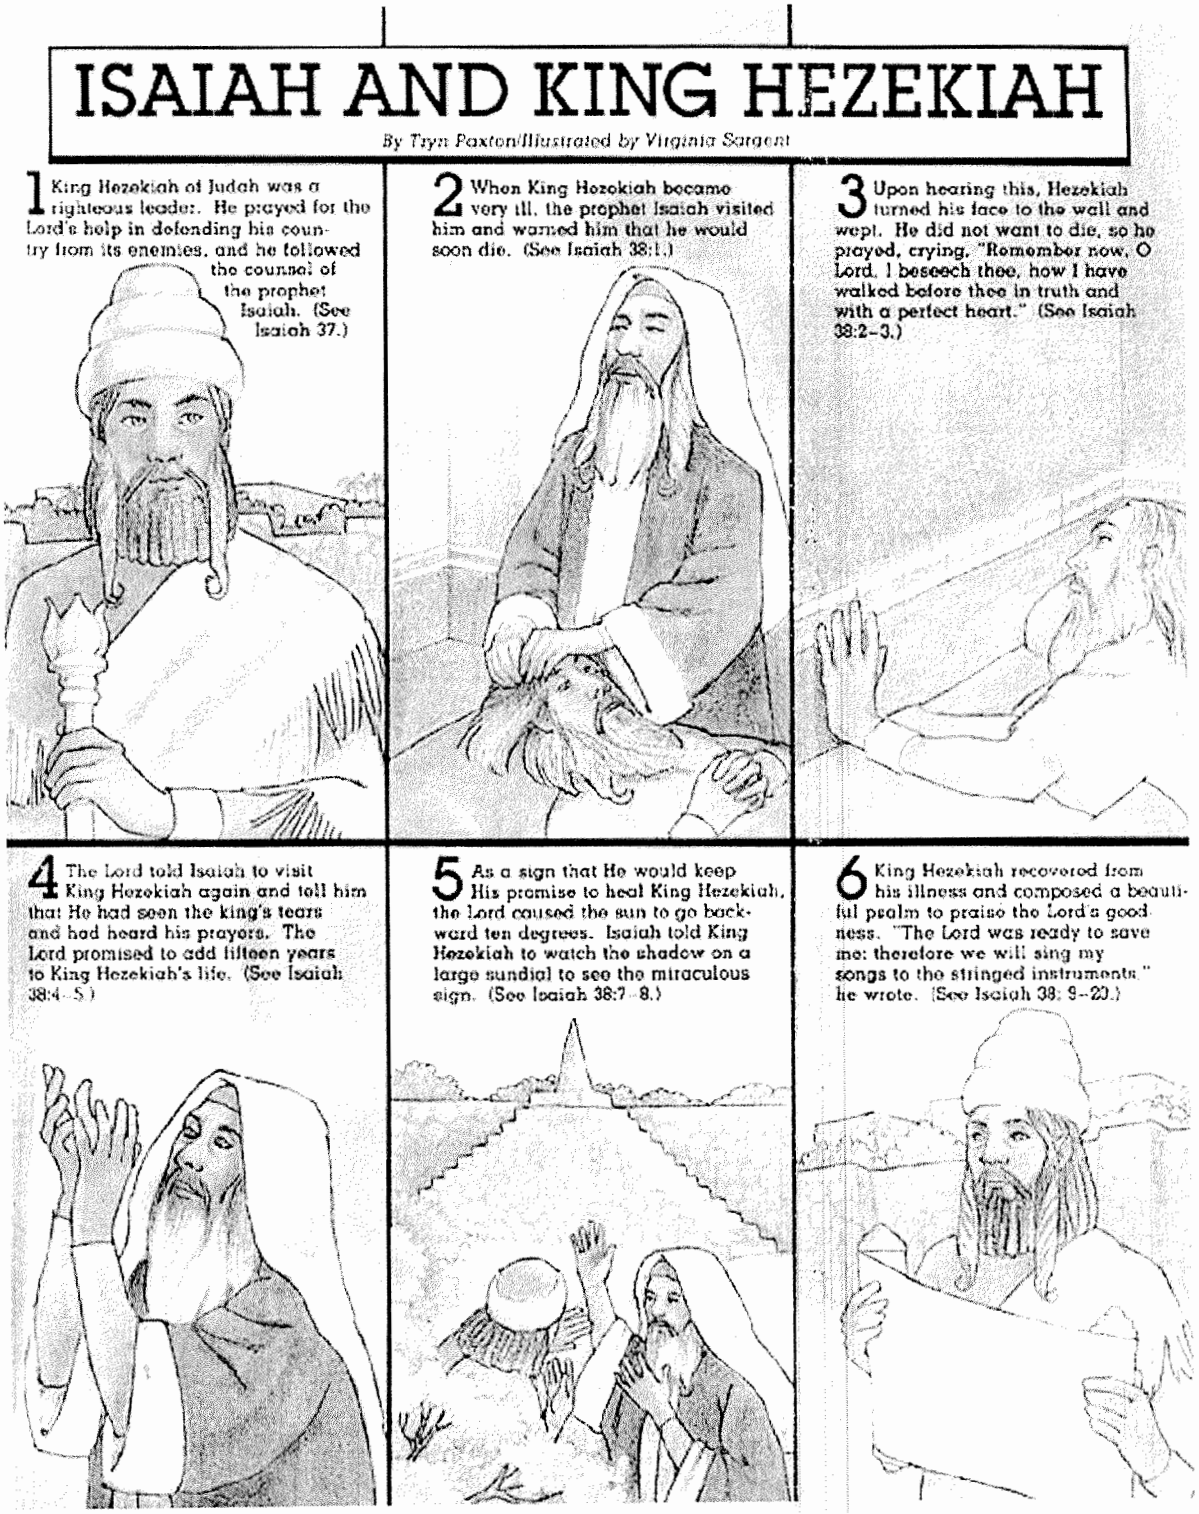

To Prepare: For each book, you will need several pieces of craft paper, paper punches, yarn, scissors, and markers.

First, fold in half two or more pieces of craft paper. Then trace and cut out several praying hand pages with the edge of the hand on the fold. Open the pages and punch two holes along the edge of the fold. Cut a piece of yarn, and tie the pages together on the outside of the book. Inside write the names of people for whom you would like to pray, draw their pictures, or add photos or special prayers.

The Sun Stood Still.....

One day, Joshua was in the midst of an important battle with the Amorites. He was winning, but the sun was beginning to set, and he was afraid the enemy would escape in the darkness. So he prayed and asked God to stop the sun in the sky. God did just that! The sun stood still for almost 24 hours while Joshua won the battle. Impossible????? Not for God! (Joshua 10)

Then It Moved Backward!

As if the Joshua story were not miraculous enough, God caused something even more strange and impossible to happen.

King Hezekiah's health was bad. The Lord had already told him that he needed to prepare himself to die, but the king was not ready to die. He was a good man and asked God to let him live 15 years longer. God sent the prophet Isaiah to tell Hezekiah the good news that He was going to answer his prayer with a big YES!

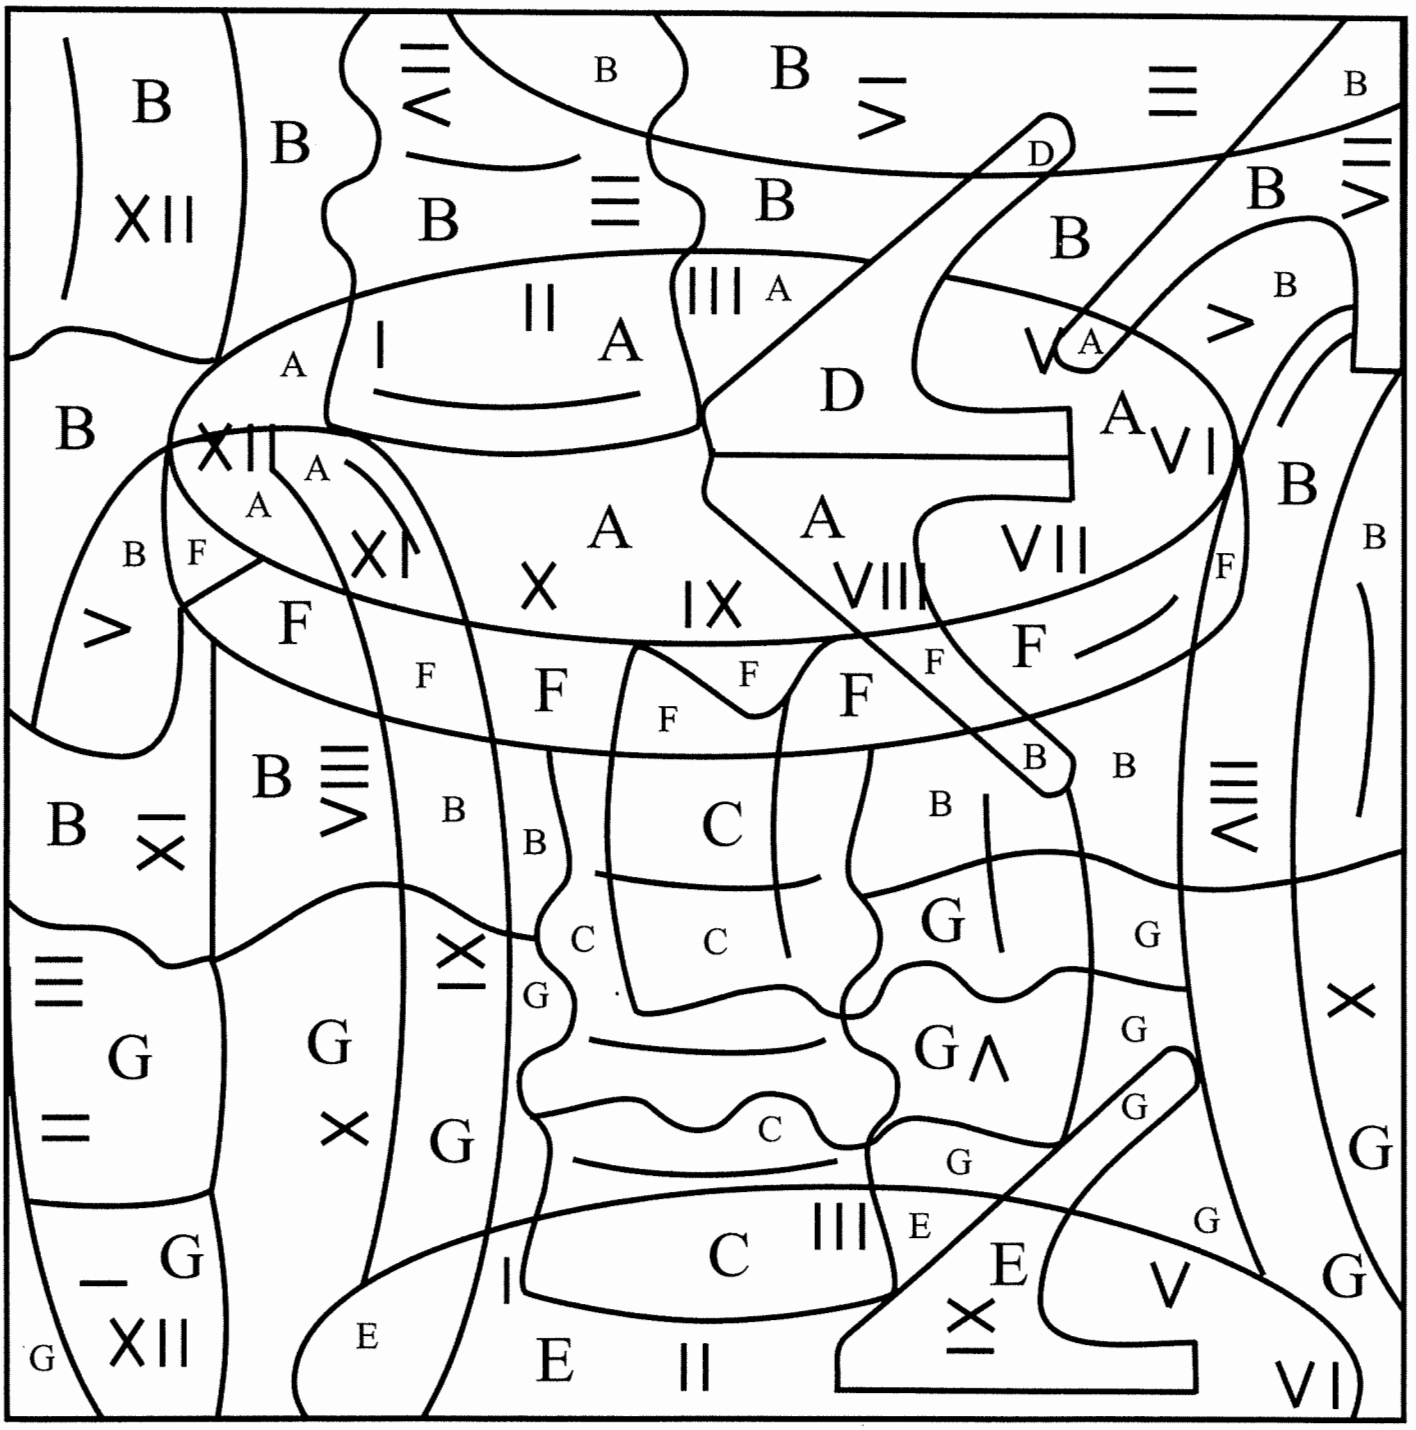

Well, Hezekiah could hardly believe it. He was skeptical. He asked for proof that God was really going to heal him and let him live. God said, "I will have the shadow on your sundial suddenly move forward 10 points or backward 10 points. Which way do you want it to move?" Hezekiah chose backward because he knew it would be more difficult or unusual for the sun to move backward ..... but that was no problem for God. Back the sun went, and the shadow on the sundial moved back with it. So the extra minutes that were left of the almost-24-hour day that the sun stood still for Joshua were used by this event in Hezekiah's life ..... and a whole extra day was added to time! (2 Kings 20)

Manasseh Turns to God

Scriptures: II Chronicles 33: 1-20, II Kings 21

Key Verse: 2 Chronicles 33:12 " Now when he was in affliction, he implored the Lord his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers,"

Key Points:

1. Manasseh became king at the age of twelve. He did not follow God, but lead the people of Judah to become even more wicked than the Amorites, whom God destroyed. He reintroduced the worship of idols to the people of Judah, rebuilt the high places, practiced witchcraft, and killed innocent people.

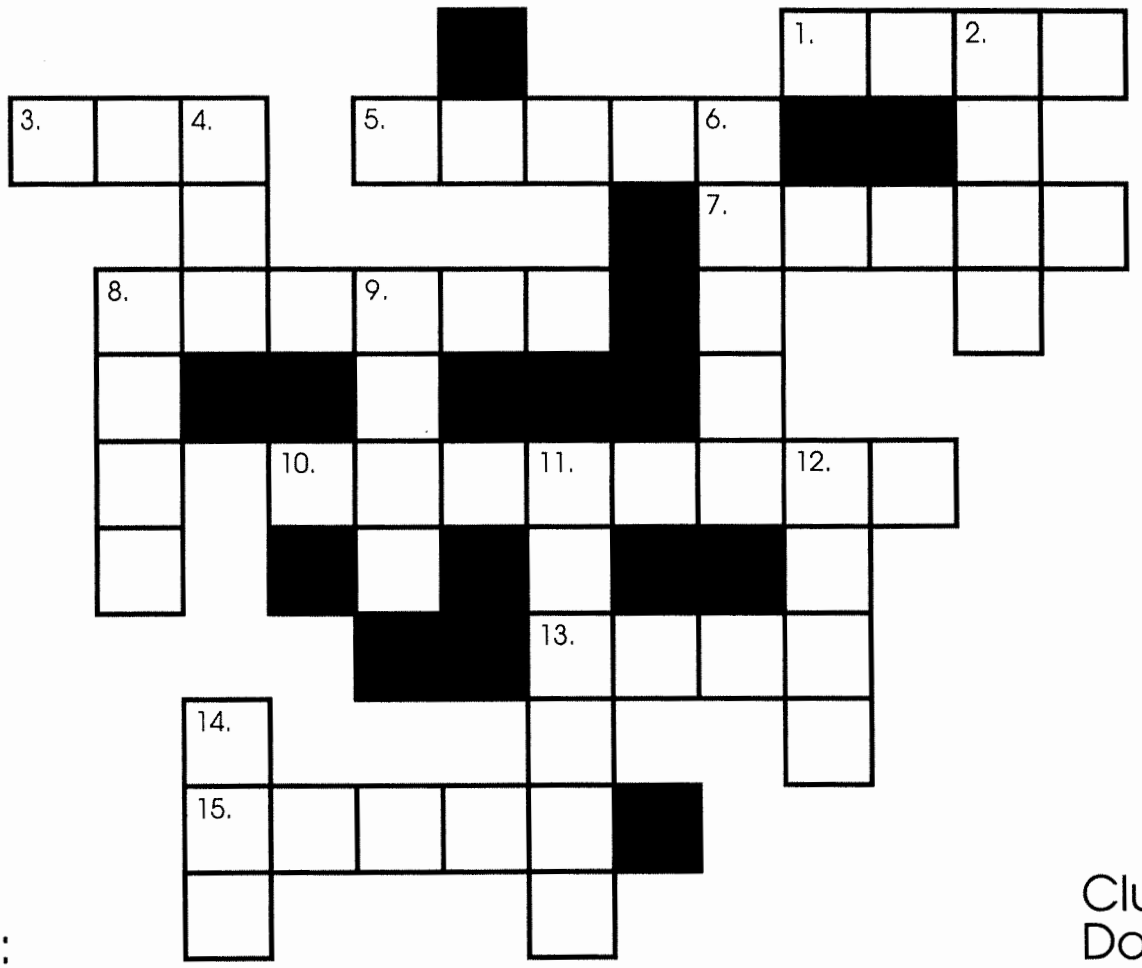

2. God sent prophets to Manasseh. They warned him that God was going to allow Judah to be destroyed. Manasseh and the people did not listen, so God sent the Assyrian army to take Manasseh captive (2Chronicles 33: 10-13). Once Manasseh was in trouble, he humbled himself and asked God to forgive and help him. God answered Manasseh's prayer and brought him home to Jerusalem. Then Manasseh knew who was the true God. He fortified his military defenses and began worshiping God. After reigning for 55 years, Manasseh died and was buried with his fathers.

3. His son, Amon, became king of Judah. Amon was 22 years old and was wicked. He followed idols, but unlike his father, he refused to repent. Amon was killed in his own house, by his servants, and his little boy, Josiah, became king.

It was a sad day for Manasseh. His dad, King Hezekiah had just died. Now, only twelve years old, Manasseh was the new king over God's people in Judah. He didn't know it then, but Manasseh would be king for 55 years. Manasseh needed God's help to be a good king.

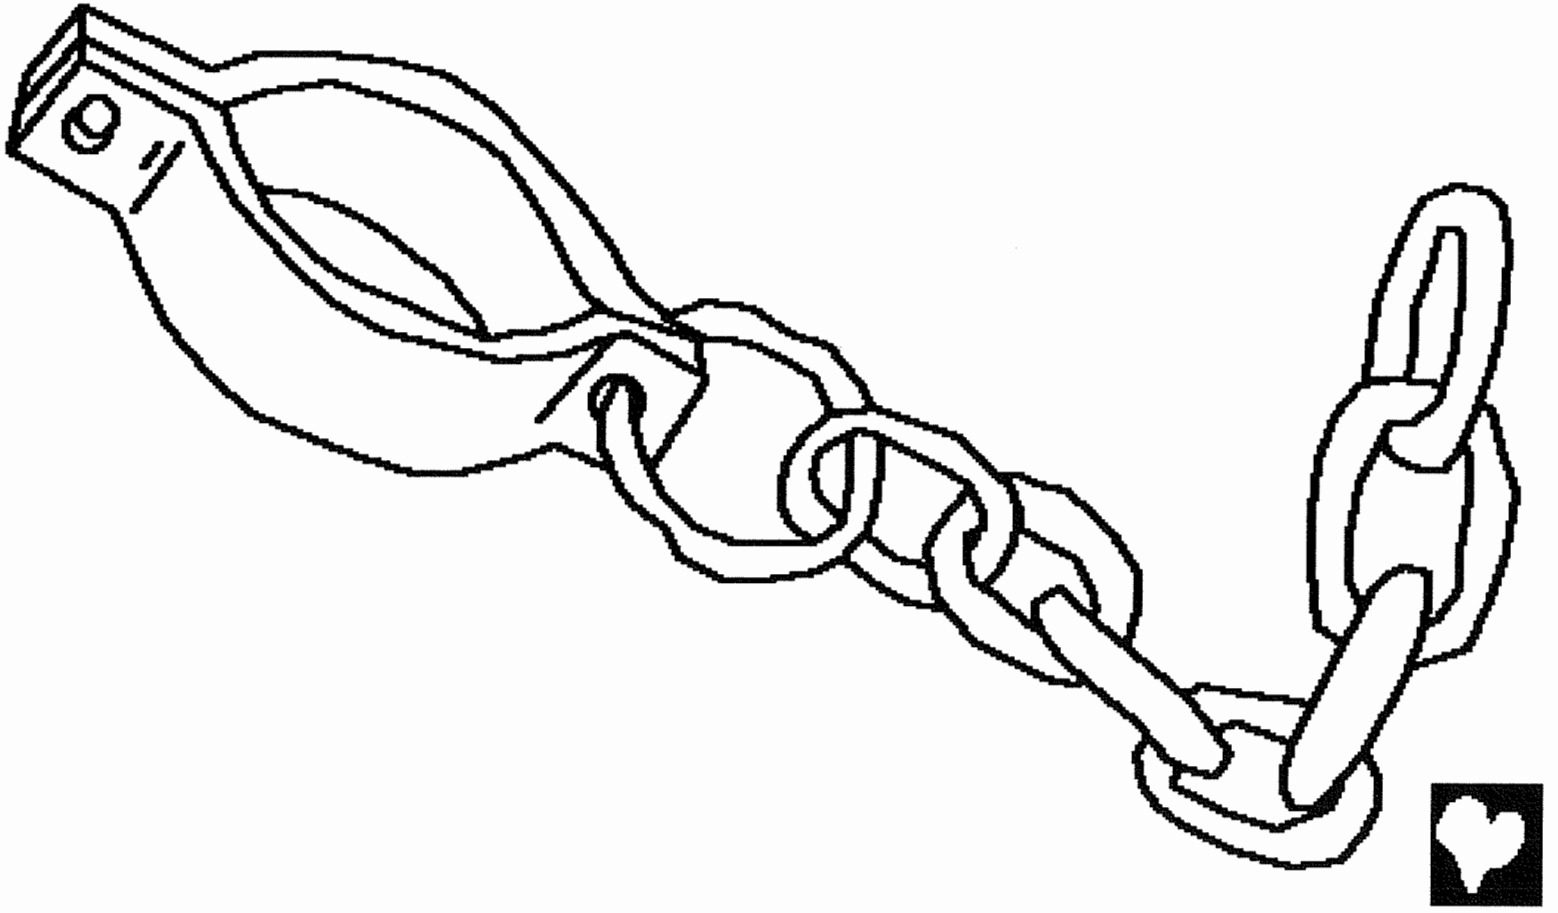

But Manasseh ignored God and did evil. Manasseh rebuilt altars for idol worship. He even made a carved image and set it in God's holy Temple! God had said through Moses, "You shall not make any carved images. You shall not bow down to them nor serve them."

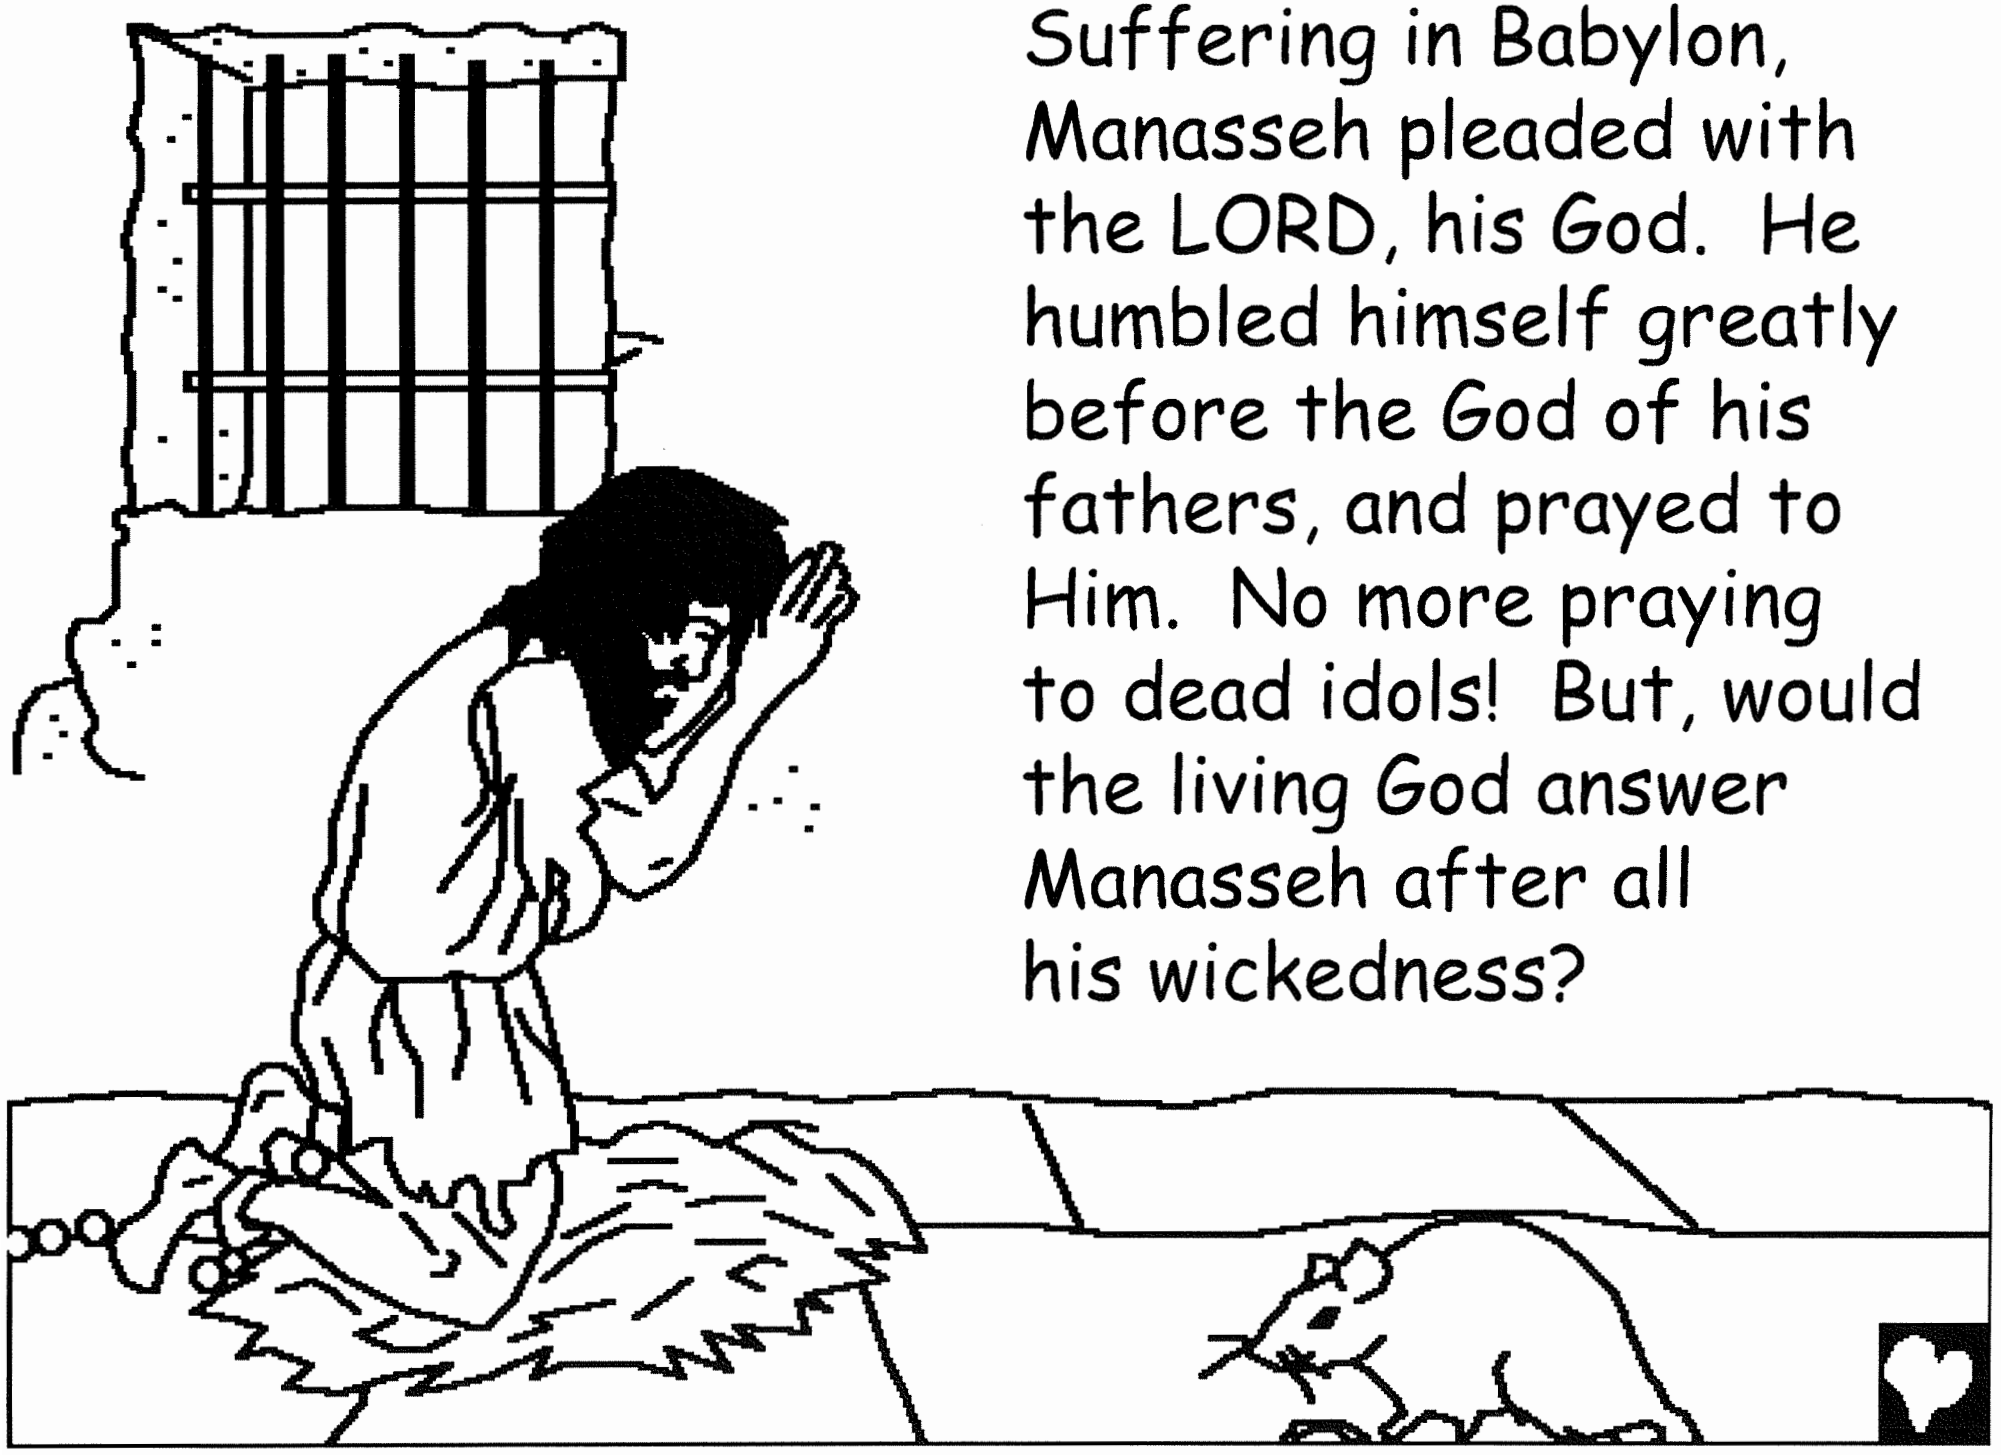

Manasseh practised witchcraft and sorcery. He led the people away from God. The king even burned his sons as sacrifices to idols. Manasseh's disobedience angered God greatly.

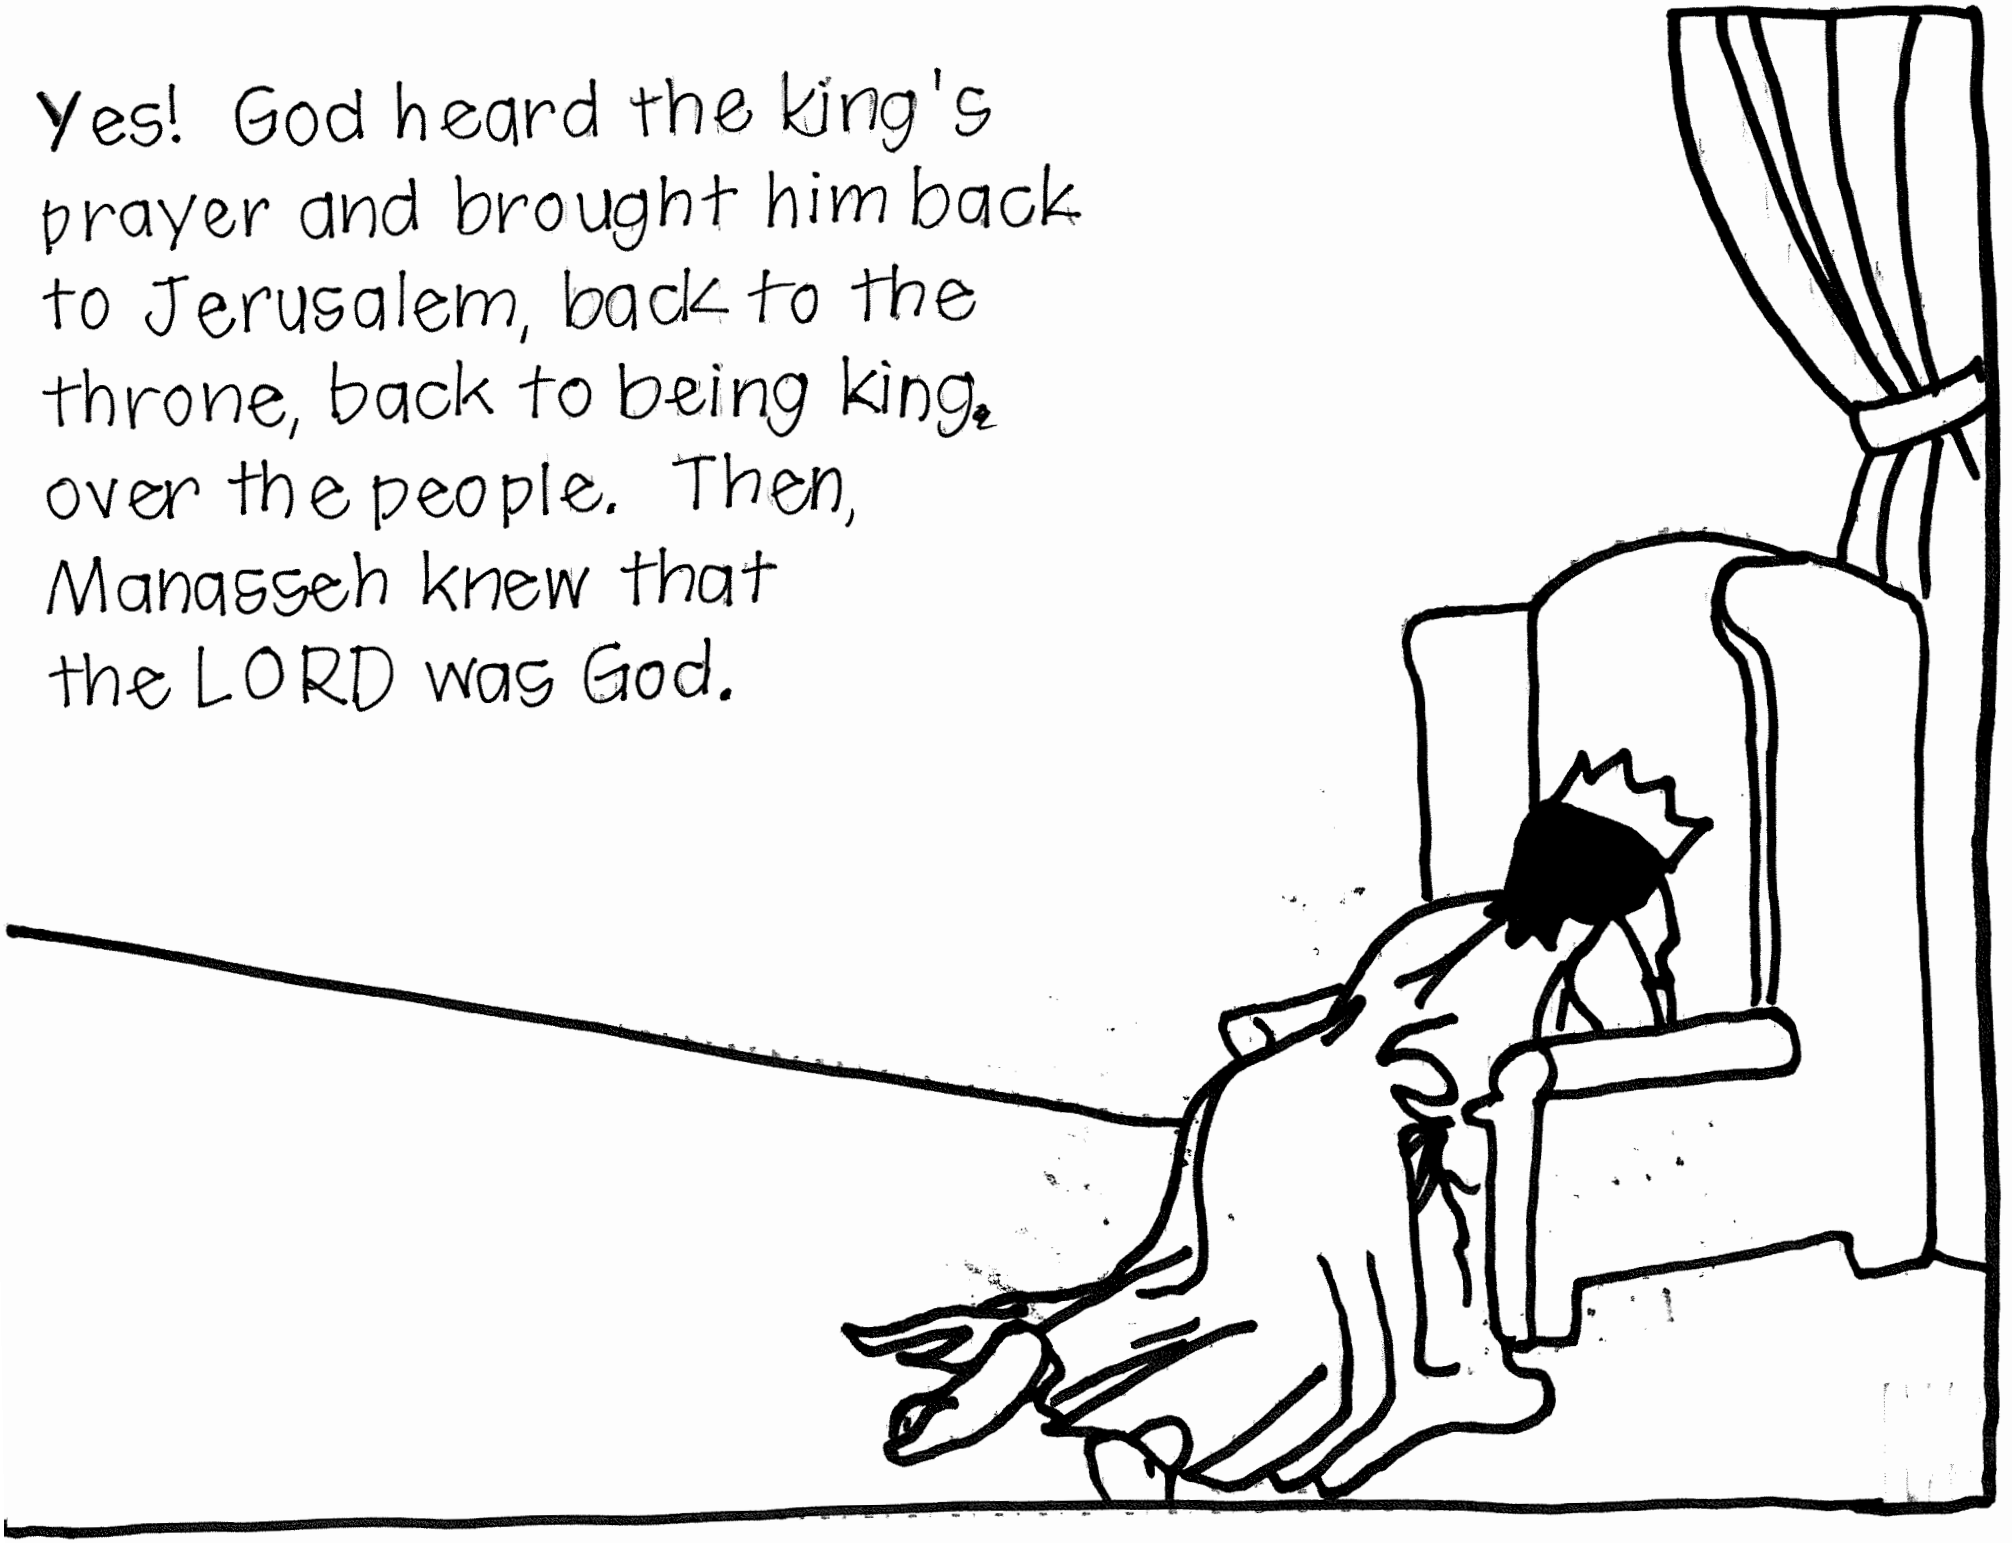

When His people disobey, God allows them to be punished. That's what happened to Manasseh and the people he ruled. The LORD brought the Assyrian army upon them. Manasseh was taken away in chains to Babylon.

Suffering in Babylon, Manasseh pleaded with the LORD, his God. He humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, and prayed to Him. No more praying to dead idols! But, would the living God answer Manasseh after all his wickedness?

Yes! God heard the king's prayer and brought him back to Jerusalem, back to the throne, back to being king over the people. Then, Manasseh knew that the LORD was God.

King Manasseh was a new person. He took the image out of God's temple and gathered up all the foreign gods in Jerusalem. He threw them all away. He repaired the altar of the LORD and offered thank offerings. Then he commanded his people to serve the LORD God of Israel. What a change in Manasseh!

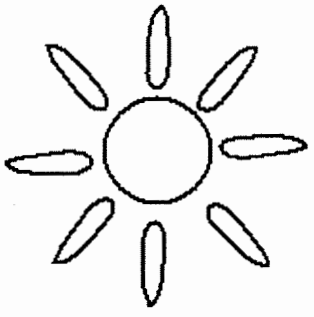

When Manasseh died, his own son [illegible] to idol worship. But he did not humble himself before the Lord like Manasseh. [illegible] more and more, his servants finally killed him in his own house. He reigned only two years.

Jesus taught us how to pray,

Yes, we can pray! Yes, we can pray!
Yes, we can pray; to God through-out the day.

Week 100

Josiah and God's Lost Book

Scriptures: II Chronicles 34, 35, II Kings 22, 23

Key Verse: II Chronicles 34:30 " The king went up to the house of the LORD, with all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem -- the priests and the Levites, and all the people, great and small. And he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant which had been found in the house of the LORD."

Key Points:

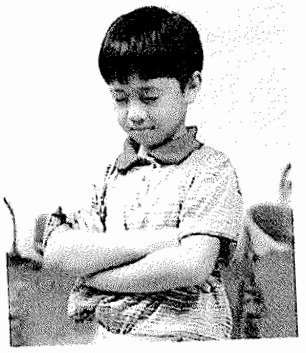

1. Josiah became king at the age of eight. He followed God and sought to do what was right. In the twelfth year of his reign (at age 20), he began to remove the idols from the land of Judah.

2. In the eighteenth year of his reign, Josiah began the restoration of the temple. During the repairs, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law and sent it to Josiah. After Josiah heard the words of the Law, he was very afraid. He understood how much his fathers sinned against God and the destruction God promised as a consequence. Josiah asks Huldah, a prophetess of God, about the promised consequences. She sends word back saying that although God would pour out His wrath, Josiah would not have to live through it because he humbled himself and was tender hearted towards the truth.

3. Josiah went to the temple and called the people of Judah together and read all of the Book of the Covenant to them. After he finished reading, he made a covenant to follow God and keep his commandments. That year, Josiah kept the Passover according to God's instructions (2Chronicles 35). No Passover had been kept so carefully since Samuel was alive.

4. Josiah was killed in battle. The people of Judah mourned for him. During his reign, they had been faithful to God.

To see what they found, black out all the letters in the broken bricks and fallen timbers. Then transfer the letters left in the saws, chisels and hammers to the spaces below.

117. THE BOOK OF THE LAW IS FOUND

(2 KINGS 22:3-20)

"And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it."
2 KINGS 22:8

Year 2

Week 10

Israel to Babylon

Scriptures: II Chronicles 36, II Kings 25, Jeremiah 1 and 2

Key Verse: Jeremiah 2:19 " 'Your own wickedness will correct you, And your backslidings will rebuke you. Know therefore and see that it is an evil and bitter thing that you have forsaken the Lord your God, and the fear of Me is not in you,' says the Lord God of hosts."

Key Points:

1. Jehoaz became king after Josiah. He reigned for three months before the king of Egypt carried him off and made his brother, Eliakim/Jehoiakim, king in his place. Jehoiakim reigned 11 years and was evil. Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon carried him away, along with some articles from the temple. Jehoiachin became king for three months, did evil, and was also taken away by King Nebuchadnezzar along with more treasure from the temple. Zedikiah was made king of Judah.

2. Zedikiah was 21 years old and reigned for eleven years. He did not follow God and refused to listen to the prophet, Jeremiah, whom God had sent to him (2 Chronicles 36:11-16). God sent the Babylonians one final time to punish Judah.

3. The Babylonians laid seige to the city of Jerusalem. They broke through the wall and took Zedekiah, and all the people in Jerusalem and Judah who weren't killed in the battle, back to Babylon. (Details: 2Chronicles 36 17-21 and 2 Kings 25:2-7) The Babylonians stripped everything of value from the temple and then burned it, the palace, and all the houses of the great. (2 Kings 25:8-17) A small remnant of the lower class was left in Judah to farm the area.

Because the people disobeyed God's laws, their temple . . .

. . . and all of Jerusalem was destroyed by the Babylonians.

118. JUDAH IS LEAD INTO CAPTIVITY
(2 KINGS 25:1-21)

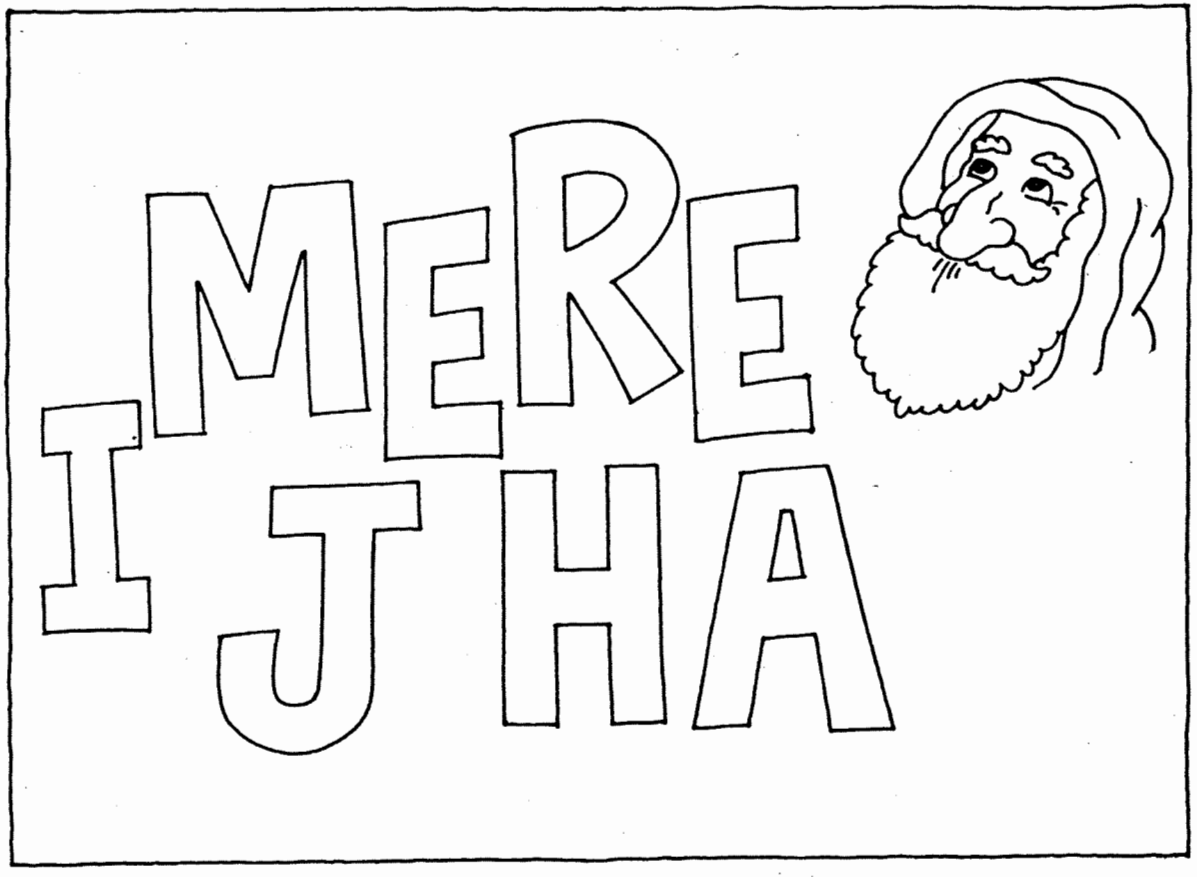

"Thus Judah was carried away captive from its own land."
2 KINGS 25:21

38. Homesick Jews

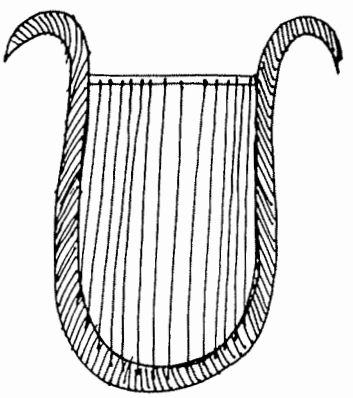

The people of Judah, now called Jews, were captives in Babylon. There were Babylonian idols all around them, but the Jews only wanted to serve God. God sent prophets to encourage the people.

The people taught their children about God and Jerusalem. They often sang songs about Jerusalem, which is also called Zion. One of the songs is found in Psalm 137.

By the rivers of Babylon we sat and wept when we remembered Zion.
There on the poplars
we hung our harps,
for there our captors asked us for songs,
our tormentors demanded songs of joy;
they said, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"
How can we sing the songs of the LORD while in a foreign land?
If I forget you, O Jerusalem, may my right hand forget its skill.
May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth
if I do not remember you, if I do not consider Jerusalem
my highest joy. (NIV)

Daniel Explains Dreams

Scriptures: Daniel 2

Key Verse: Daniel 2:44 "'And in the days of these kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not be left to other people; it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever.'"

Key Points:

1. Daniel was taken to Babylon, along with king Jehoiakim, to serve as a wise man in King Nebuchadnezzar's palace because he was young, handsome, intelligent, and of noble blood. (Daniel 1:1-7)

2. King Nebuchadnezzar had a troubling dream. He sent for his magicians and astrologers and told them to first tell him his dream and then its interpretation. The magicians said they couldn't retell the dream. The king was furious and gave the command to kill all the wise men in the kingdom.

3. When Daniel heard of the king's decree, he went to his house and prayed to God that He might reveal the secret. That night God showed Daniel the dream and its meaning in a vision.

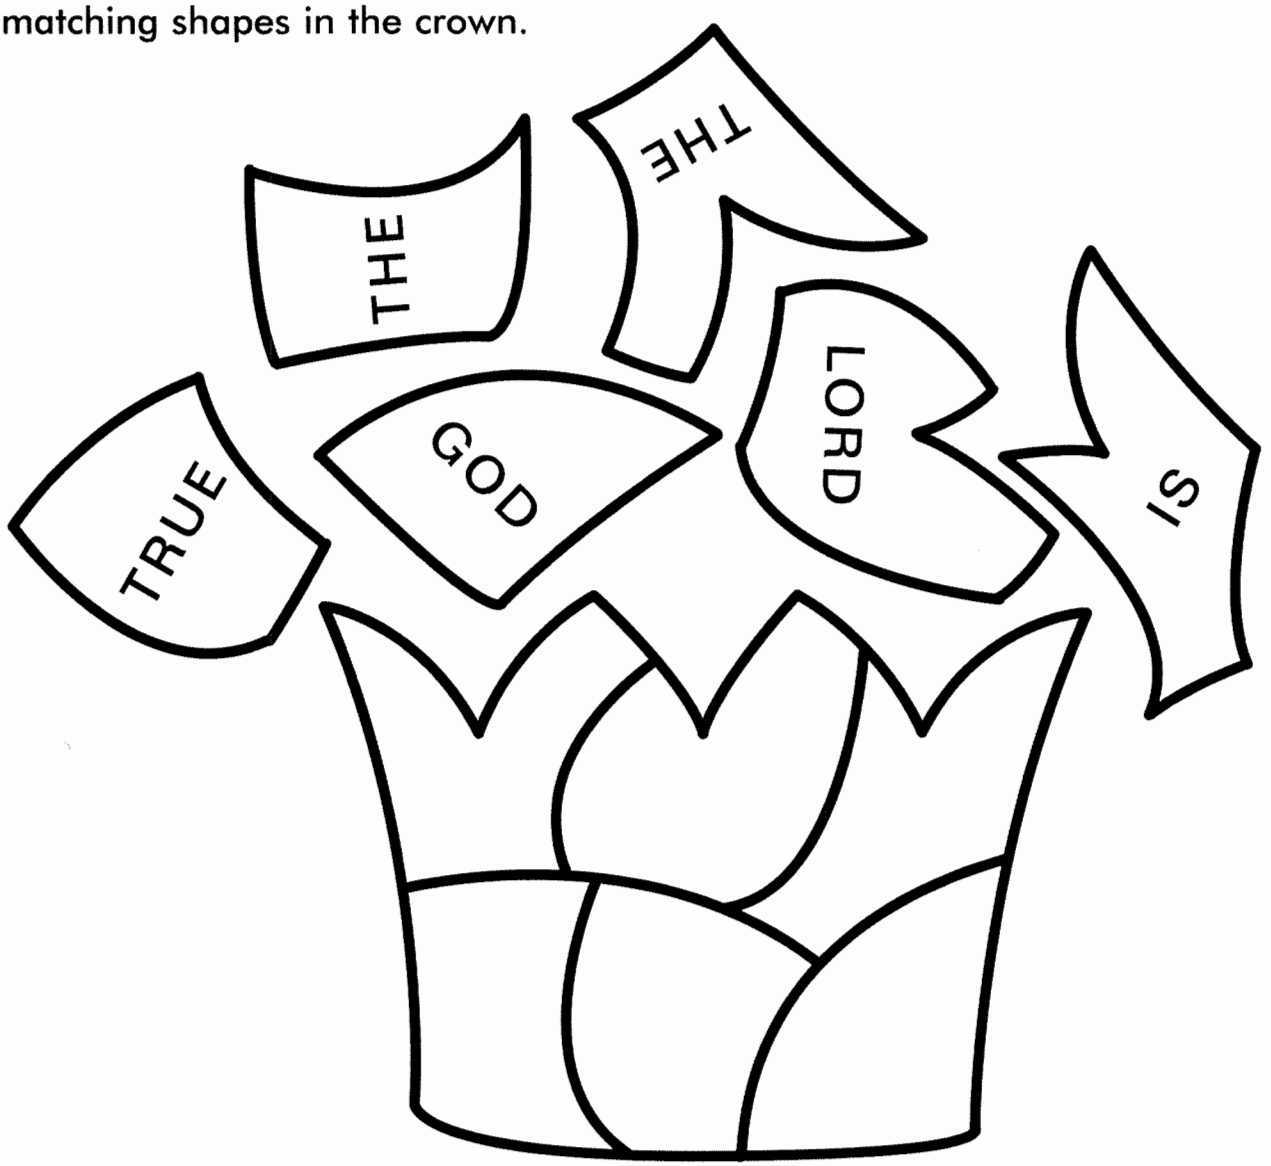

4. Daniel goes before the king and explains that the dream is telling the future, and that God has revealed it to him. (Read Daniel 2:31-45) God told Nebuchadnezzar through his dream that there would be three world powers that would come after Babylon, but that all these kingdoms would be broken by a kingdom built by God - one that would fill the whole earth and never be destroyed.

5. Nebuchadnezzar gave glory to God and made Daniel a ruler of Babylon. He also promoted Daniel's friends: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego.

Bad King/ Good King

Manasseh did many bad things that the Lord said not to do. When the Lord used the Assyrian army to punish Manasseh, he became very sorry for all the wrong he had done. Manasseh begged God for help and God forgave him.

To find out what Manasseh said then, write the words in the shapes in the matching shapes in the crown.

Daniel's Three Friends and the Fiery Furnace

Scriptures: Daniel 3

Key Verse: Dan 3:16-17 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego answered and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. (17) If that is the case, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and He will deliver us from your hand, O king.

Key Points:

1. King Nebuchadnezzar erects a great image for all the rulers of Babylon to worship.
2. At the sound of music, all those present would fall down and worship the image.
3. Chaldeans reported to Nebuchadnezzar that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego refused to bow down to the image.
4. Nebuchadnezzar confronts Daniel's three friends; they confirm their refusal to worship the image.
5. For their refusal, Nebuchadnezzar binds Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego, heats a furnace seven times hotter than normal, and casts them in for destruction.
6. Even though the ones who cast the three men into the furnace lost their life, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego lived through the ordeal.
7. While they were in the fiery furnace, a fourth person -- described as one like the Son of God -- was walking in the midst of the flames.
8. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-Nego are removed from the furnace without any indication that they were in the furnace; consequently, Nebuchadnezzar praises God.

And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

The Three Faithful Men

This is a story about a King and three brave men, all with really strange names. The king's name is Nebuchadnezzar and the three men were known as Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. They lived in a place called Babylon and the three men worked for the king and had important jobs for the province of Babylon.

One day the king decided to build a huge image made of gold that stood 90 feet high. To understand how tall this is, imagine 15 men all standing one on top of the other to make a tall tower. It sure was big!

King Nebuchadnezzar then made an announcement. "People of all languages, when you hear the music, you must bow down and worship the statue because I have said so. Whoever does not obey and worship the statue will immediately be thrown into a fiery furnace."

The problem with this is God does not want us to worship anything or anyone other than Him. After all, he is God, He made us, and He loves us so much. He came to earth and died for us and cares about every little thing in our lives.

Why would we want to pray or worship something that isn't real, something that can't answer our prayers or help us? To worship a big pile of gold like the one that king Nebuchadnezzar set up is silly. The gold can't hear, see, or care about anything or anyone.

So the next time the music played everyone stopped what they were doing and they bowed down to worship this idol. Everyone that is, except for Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Some of the king's workers (that were jealous that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego had such good jobs) saw that they would not bow down to the image so they immediately ran to tell the king.

When king Nebuchadnezzar heard the news he was very angry. He immediately ordered that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought to him to explain their actions.

The men were brought before the king and Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, that you will not bow down and worship the image of gold that I have made? Just in case there was a mistake I will give you another chance. When the music plays again you will be ready and bow down to the image, and if you don't this time you will be thrown into a fiery furnace. Then what god will be able to save you?"

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego looked at each other and replied to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we did not make a mistake nor will we apologize for not bowing down. If we are thrown into the furnace, the God we worship will save us, and he will rescue us. But even if he doesn't, we want you to know, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up."

That made Nebuchadnezzar even more mad. Right away he ordered the furnace to be heated way hotter than it usually was and commanded some of the strongest soldiers to take Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to throw them in the fire.

The soldiers took the three men just as they were straight to the furnace. The men were wearing all their clothes including robes, their shirts and pants underneath that, and turbans on their heads. These things would catch fire very easily in the fire.

As the soldiers were pushing the men into the furnace the flames of the fire killed the soldiers, because the fire was so hot and Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego fell into the hot, hot furnace.

Then king Nebuchadnezzar jumped to his feet in amazement and asked his advisors, "Weren't there only three men thrown into the fire?" They replied, "O, yes king." He said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire, untied and unhurt, and the fourth looks like some kind of angel!"

Nebuchadnezzar then came as close as he could to the furnace and shouted in the doorway, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, follower of the Most High God, come out! Come here!"

So the three men walked out of the furnace without any burns, no hairs on their head burned, all their clothes perfectly fine, and no smell of fire on them at all.

At that moment Nebuchadnezzar knew that they worshipped a real God not some fake statue. God had sent an angel to protect them from harm, and even more importantly he realized that they truly believed and trusted in God. They were willing to die rather than serve or worship any god except their own God.

So from that day on the king made an announcement that all the people, people of all languages could not say anything bad about Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego's God or they would be badly punished.

The king then gave the three men even better jobs than they already had for the province of Babylon.

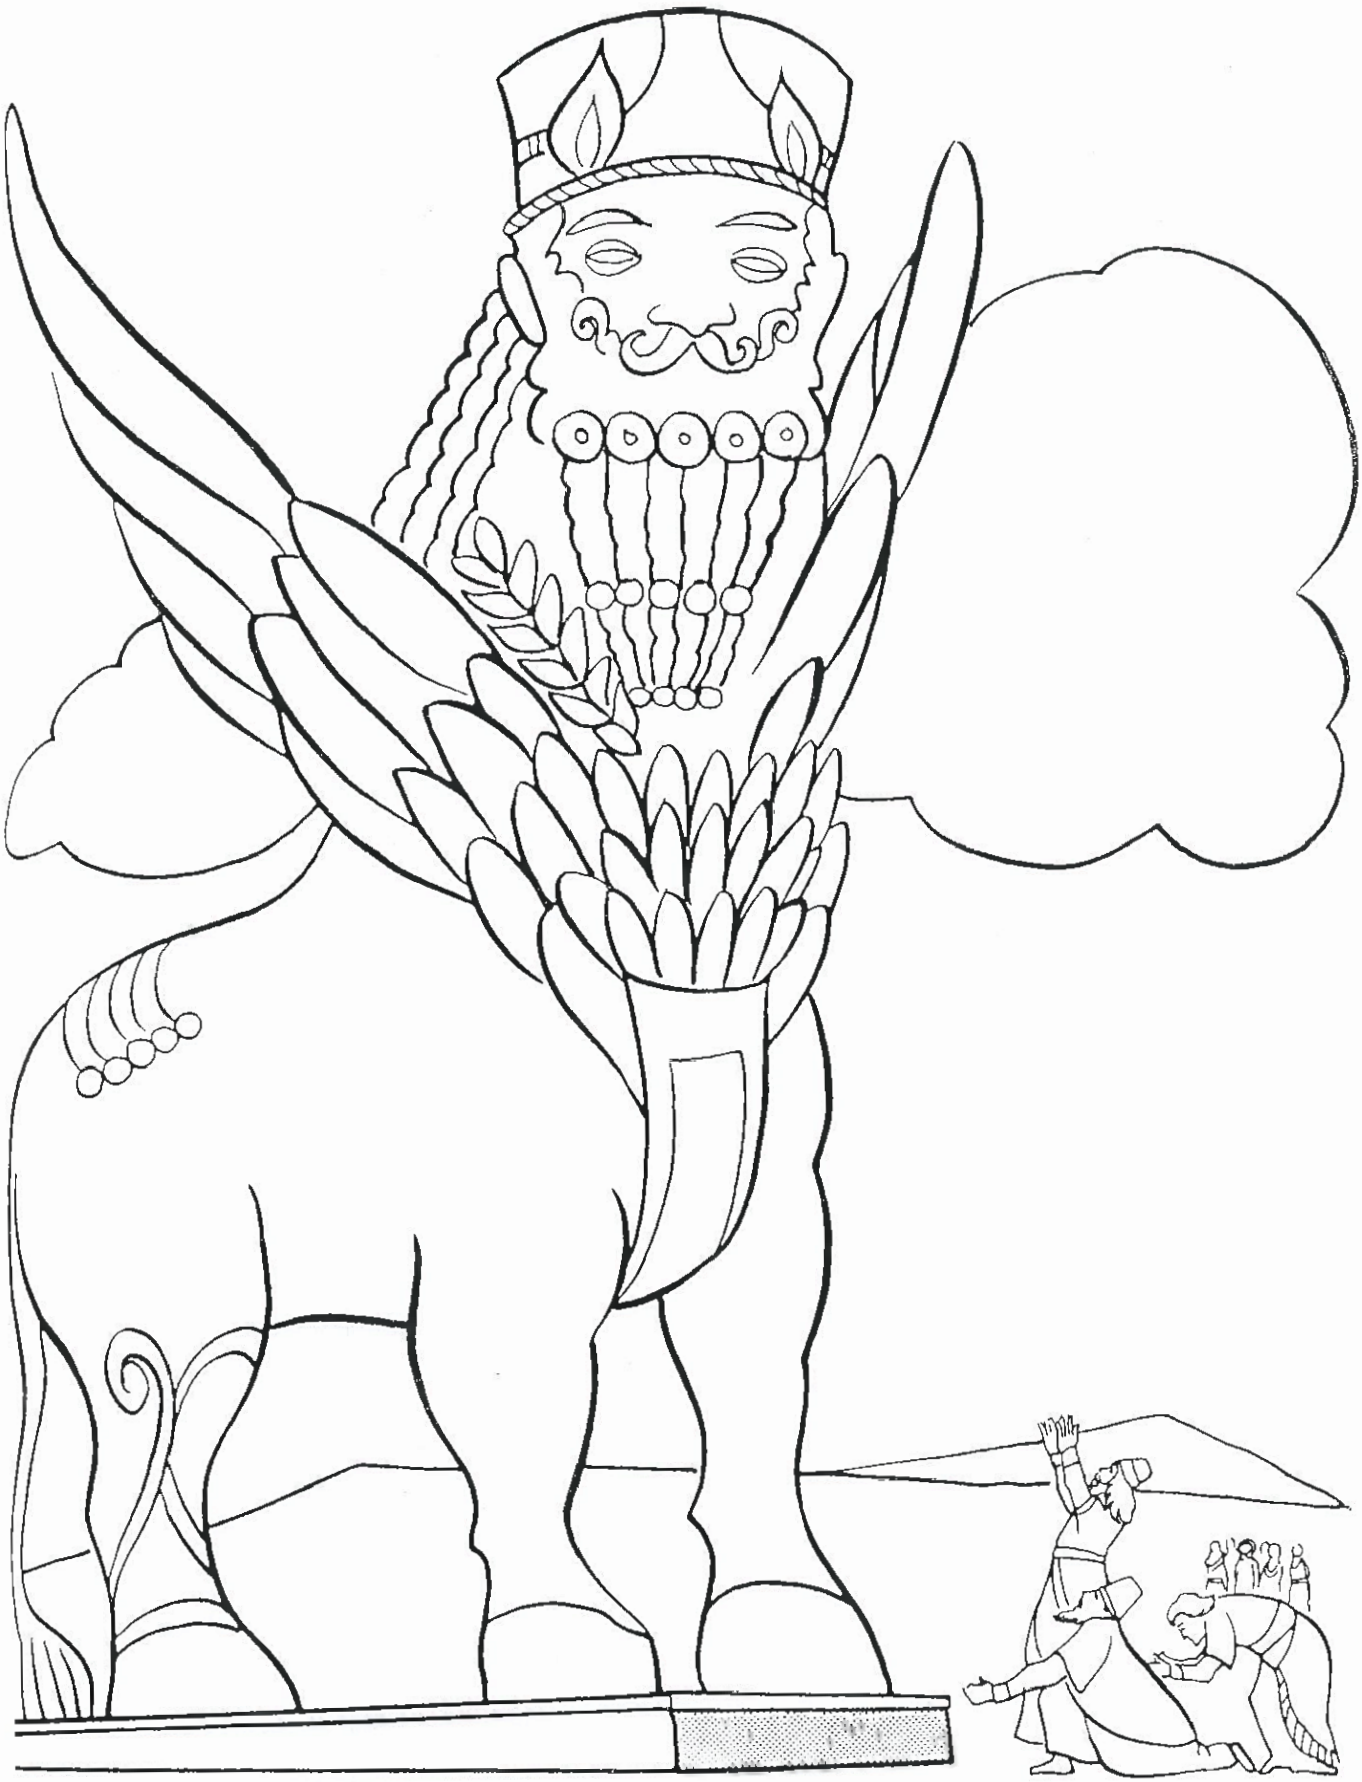

157. THE FIERY FURNACE

(DANIEL 3:1-30)

"Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonied, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire,and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God."

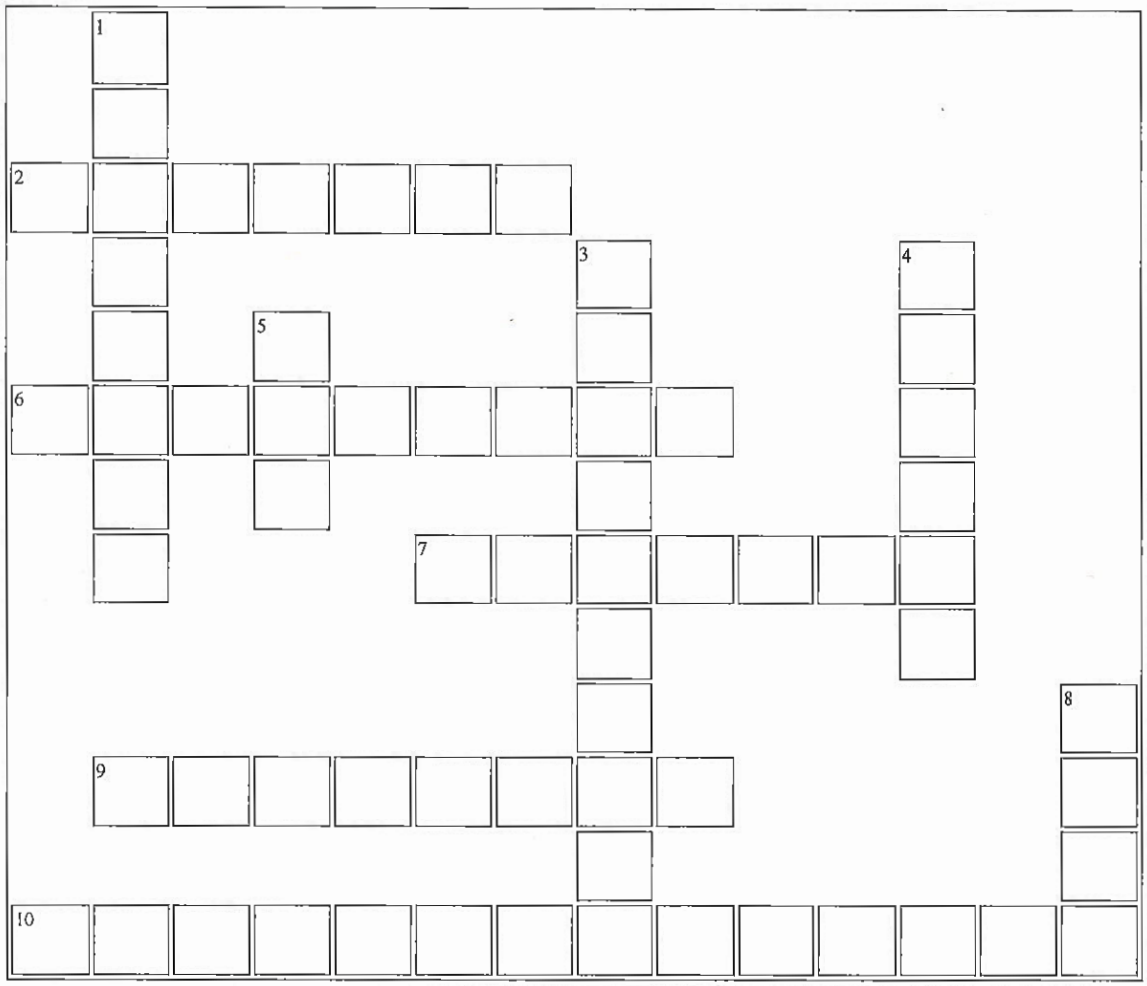

DANIEL 3:24-25

Daniel would not worship their idol, which was a golden image of King Nebuchadnezzar.

M N	N S G D Q	F N C	B Z M
R Z U D	H M	S G H R	V Z X ! !

Directions:

Cut two plates from construction paper and two from tagboard, all 5 inches in diameter. Glue a paper plate to each tagboard plate. Decorate plates with felt-tip pens or paints. Model food out of bread-dough clay or any self-hardening clay. When food is thoroughly dry, color with the pens or paints. Glue to plates. Cut the cups down to 1½ inches tall. Cover cups with the foil. Twist or fold a scrap to make the handle. Staple or glue in place. Make stem and base of goblet with the extra foil by twisting and flattening into shape. Stuff each container with a bit of plastic from a dry-cleaning bag. (Watch this around children!) Tint the "wine" with a red felt-tip pen. Glue cup and goblet to plates.

Daniel 3

Materials needed:

Tagboard
Construction paper—black, red, orange

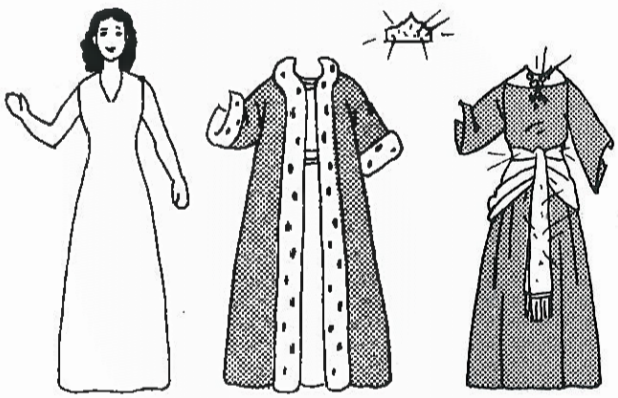

Glue
Crayons, felt-tip pens, or tempera paints

Directions:

Cut the four figures from tagboard, using the patterns on pages 27 and 28. Color the figures. Cut free-form flames from red construction paper. Cut these about 9½ inches wide and 4 inches high at peaks. Make three folds in flames, then add yellow color. Place glue on bottom and sides of flames and glue to orange sheet, about 1½ inches from bottom. Allow flames to "pleat" where they were folded to give them a slight 3-D effect. Cut a piece of black paper, 9 inches by 2½ inches. Put glue on bottom and sides of this and place at bottom, over flames. Figures can now be slipped behind flames and removed easily.

A Proud King is Humbled

Scriptures: Daniel 4

Key Verse: Dan 4:34-35 And at the end of the time I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me; and I blessed the Most High and praised and honored Him who lives forever: For His dominion is an everlasting dominion, And His kingdom is from generation to generation. (35) All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; He does according to His will in the army of heaven And among the inhabitants of the earth. No one can restrain His hand Or say to Him, "What have You done?"

Key Points:

1. King Nebuchadnezzar writes a letter to the entire empire detailing his experiences and praising God.
2. Nebuchadnezzar is troubled by a dream; he calls in Daniel to interpret its meaning.
3. After relating the dream to Daniel in verses 10-17, Daniel offers the interpretation: Nebuchadnezzar, has built a great earthly kingdom, yet to learn Who truly rules the world, the mighty king will be humbled for a time.
4. As he took great pride in the mighty city of Babylon, Nebuchadnezzar heard a voice from heaven pronounce judgment: he would be driven from men and live as a beast for 7 years.
5. At the close of that time, Nebuchadnezzar lifted his eyes to heaven, recognizes God, and is restored to the throne.

Scriptures: Daniel 5

Key Verse: Dan 5:22-23 "But you his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, although you knew all this. (23) And you have lifted yourself up against the Lord of heaven. They have brought the vessels of His house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, bronze and iron, wood and stone, which do not see or hear or know; and the God who holds your breath in His hand and owns all your ways, you have not glorified.

Key Points:

1. Belshazzar, king of Babylon, throws a great feast for his lords using the utensils and vessels from the temple of God in Jerusalem.
2. As they were feasting, a hand appeared and wrote out a message on the wall of the king's palace.
3. Greatly disturbed by this, the king offers any man in the kingdom a high rank if they can interpret the writing on the wall.
4. The queen suggests Daniel as an interpreter; Daniel is brought in and rebukes the king for his pride.
5. The writing tells the king that the Babylonian empire will come to an end and be succeeded by the Medes and Persians.
6. The king rewards Daniel as promised; that night the city is conquered by the Medo-Persian empire.
